God's Covenants

WITH MAN,

In the First Adam, before the Fall: and In the Last Adam IESVS CHRIST, After the Fall; From the Beginning to the End of the World;

Unfolded & Illustrated

In Positive Aphorisms & their Explanations.

WHEREIN

The General Nature, Several Kinds, Gradual Discoveries, Sanctions and Administrations of all Gods Holy COVENANTS, From First to Last, throughout the whole Scriptures; together with their peculiar Terms, Occasions, Author, Fœderates, Matter, Form, End, Properties, Agreements, Disagreements, and many other their noted Excellencies are largely and Familiarly expounded: The blessed Person and Office of IESVS CHRIST, the Soul of all the Covenants of Faith, and sole Mediator of the NEW COVENANT, is Described: Many choice Fundamental points of Christianity, are Explained: Sundry Practical Questions, or Cases of Conscience, are Resolved: Divers puzzling Controversies about the present Truths are positively Stated and Determined: Many Obscure and Difficult Scriptures are occasionally Elucidated: And, in all, The Great supernatural MYSTERIE of the whole Sacred BIBLE, touching Gods most Wise, Gracious, Merciful, Righteous, Plenary, Wonderful, and Eternal Salvation of Sinners by IESVS CHRIST through Faith, sweetly Couched and Gradually Revealed in his Covenant-Expressures in all Ages of the Church, is Disclosed and Un-veiled.

By FRANCIS ROBERTS, M. A.

Pastor of the Church at Wrington, in the County of Sommerset.

THIS is THE COVENANT that I will make with the House of Israel after those Daies, saith the LORD; I will give my Laws into their mind, and write them in their Hearts. And I will be to them a God; and they shall be to me a people, &c. Heb. 8. 10, 11, 12. Jer. 31. 33, 34.

But ye are come unto Mount Sion, —— and to IESVS the Mediator of the NEW COVENANT, Heb. 12. 22, 24.

To the Churches, Ministers, and Members of JESUS CHRIST, in England, Scotland, Ireland and other the annexed Dominions, Grace, Mercy and Peace from God our Father and the Lord JESUS CHRIST our Mediator, and from the Holy Spirit the Comforter.

Highly Honoured, and entirely beloved in the LORD;

THE (a) Sacred COVENANTS of God with Man, (b) before (c) and since his fall, That profound Mysterie and Marrow of the Bible, are a Subject so Sublime, Spiritual, Comprehensive, Transcendent, and every way excellent, in it self; so Necessary, Profitable, Comfortable, and every way desirable, to us: that it is most worthy of all acceptation, by all that are, or desire to be, (d) altogether CHRISTIANS. (e) For: 1. The Author of these COVENANTS; is the LORD, the most High and only wise God. 2. The Original Fountain and Impulsives of them; the glorious Riches of Divine Grace. 3. The Confœderates or Fœderate-Parties to them; God, and Man either as in the First Adam before the fall, or as in the Last Adam, Jesus Christ since the Fall. 4. The Foundation of all the COVENANTS OF FAITH from First to Last; JESUS CHRIST, God-man, our only Mediator and Hope, either as Promised, or as Performed. 5. The Matters of Gods Covenants, are; From God, All manner of Blessings Temporal, Spiritual, and Eternal, which the whole Scriptures Promise: From Man, all manner of Duties Natural in the First Adam, or supernatural in the Last Adam, which the whole Scriptures require. 6. The Form of them; More Inwardly, The Fœderates Reciprocal and Mutual obligation: More Outwardly, The various Manifestations, Confirmations and Administrations of Gods several Covenants according to the Mysterious Contrivances and Counsels of his blessed Will. 7. Finally, The intended Scope or Ends of them all, are; Subordinately, The Happiness of man in his Fœderal enjoyments of the

(e) See all these seven Particulars abundantly cleared in all Gods Fœderal Expressures untolded in the ensuing Treatise.

LORD as his Covenant God both in this and the world to come, which is absolutely the height of all possible Felicity: Ultimately, The Glory of God in his matchless Wisdom, Goodness, Free-Grace, Mercy, Love, Truth, Faithfulness, Justice, Holiness, Happiness, &c. all which are rendered in and through JESUS CHRIST most illustrious and Glorious.

This Transcendent and most excellent Mysterie, THE COVENANTS OF GOD, I have endeavoured (according to the measure of the gift of Christ Received) to Explicate and Illustrate in the ensuing Treatise. A Work (I acknowledge) of vast Extent, great Difficulty, much Labour, and Long Time. 1. Of Vast Extent. Comprizing in it; All the Methods of Divine Dispensations to the Church in all ages; All the Conditions of the Church under those Dispensations; All the greatest and precious Promises, of the Life that now is, and of that which is to come; All Sorts of Blessings Promised by God to man: All Sorts of Duties Re-promised by man to God; All the gradual Discoveries of JESUS CHRIST, the only Mediator, and Saviour of Sinners; The whole Mysterie of all true Religion from the Beginning to the end of the world; and which as a Continued thred of gold runs through the whole Series of all the Holy Scriptures. 2. Of great Difficulty. Things excellent are difficult. This work is Difficult: Partly, through the Profound Mysteriousness of the Covenants themselves: Partly, through the obscurity and seeming repugnancy of some Scriptures wherein the Covenants are mentioned and Revealed: Partly, through the great diversity of Gods Covenant Discoveries: Partly, through the many intricate Knots, Doubts and Perplexing Controversies that all sorts of Adversaries to the Truth, have cast in the way. By reason of all which this precious Truth lyes, like silver, very deep, and sometimes hard to come by, and must be laboriously digged out from amongst the very Rocks. 3. Of much Labour. Being of such vast Extent and great Difficulty, it must needs be very laborious. Gods Covenants are many, occasioning many Doubts, Questions, Cases of Conscience, &c. and the Nature of some of them especially so involved in intricate Difficulties and perplexities, that I confess, it hath cost me no small pains and study to give my self and others Satisfaction therein. It can be no easie task to take so long a journey, and oftimes to travel through such deep wayes and unbeaten paths; yea sometimes to pass through such stony and Rocky places. But, because I have set my heart exceedingly to the COVENANTS OF my GOD, which (in my judgement) are an universal Basis or Foundation to all true Religion and Happiness, I have shunned no Diligence, Industry or Endeavours, that to me seemed requisite for the Profitable unveiling of them. 4. Finally, This is a work of a long time. This I have proved by much experience, far beyond my expectation. For in the Treatise following is comprized the Substance of all my (g) Weekly Lectures for the Space of almost six years Compleat: Besides much of the New Covenant, which was never preached at all. During which time, when I had brought on the work almost to the End of Gods Covenant

(f) τὰ καλὰ χαλεπά.

(g) I began in my weekly Lectures, to treat of Gods Covenants on Septemb. 2. An. Dom. 1651. and have persisted therein till the very Publication of this Book in May, An. Dom. 1657.

nant with his Captives as it were in their (h) Graves in Babylon, my self was for certain weeks together so Captivated by a Putrid Feaver that I was almost brought to the brink of the Grave. And this was a deep aggravation of mine Affliction, that now the work was like to be left imperfect, and little or nothing spoken to the NEW COVENANT, which is the Glory of all Gods Covenants. But (i) the LORD my God was ready to save me, both In Affliction, and From Affliction. (1) In Affliction; By witholding my disease from Annoying mine Animals, and from assaulting much my Vitals; Though it had brough my Naturals almost as low as the dust. By which dispensation I comforted my self: that the LORD in sparing mine Animals and Intellectuals intended to reserve them for some further Service to himself and his Church. (2) From Affliction; By (k) loving my Soul from the pit of Corruption, casting all my sins behind his back, and Restoring a New Life unto me that I might exalt his glorious Name in Explication of his New Covenant. For which complexive Mercy I desire unfeignedly to render all possible Praises to the God of my salvation.

Now therefore, Having Enterprized, and (through the good hand of my most gracious God) at last Accomplished this Long, Laborious, Difficult and Comprehensive work; I most humbly lay it at the feet of JESUS CHRIST my Lord and Saviour, sincerely devoting and Consecrating it, First to his Honour, Next to the Service, Edification and Consolation of his Church and all his genuine Members within these Ilands. And (l) the God of all Grace, who hath given (m) the Manifestation of the Spirit to every man to profit withal, and who can actuate the Doctrine of Truth, whether Preached with lively voice, or Printed in a Book to the saving Benefit of his peoples Souls; So Accept, Bless, go forth with and Prosper these poor labours of his most unworthy Servant, by his Spirits sacred Influences and effectual co-operations; that thereby, Some ignorant Souls may be illuminated, Some Gainsayers to the Truth, and opposers of Religion may be convinced, Some Aliens to Christ may be Converted; Some weak doubting and trembling Christians may be resolved, strengthned and established, Some dejected, disconsolate, afflicted, Tempted or Deserted Saints may be refreshed and comforted, and that in some sort or other, whosoever shall read the Soul-saving Mysteries of Gods Holy Covenants hereafter unfolded, may have his heart even burn within him towards God, Jesus Christ, his Covenants, and a true New-Covenant state with God in Christ, that the flames of that heavenly fire within his breast may be unquenchable.

And in order to the more fruitful perusal of this Treatise, and for the more speedy fixing of Right Notions and Apprehensions in the Readers Minds touching the COVENANTS OF GOD; I Premise and earnestly recommend these few General Considerations, viz.

1. That, The LORD, the only true God, Father, Son and Holy-Ghost, though eternally and infinitely happy in himself alone, yet is pleased to Communicate of his Happiness to his Intellectual

(h) Ezek. 37. 11,12,13,14.

(i) Isa. 38. 10.

(k) Isa. 38. 17.

(l) 1 Pet. 5. 10.

(m) 1 Cor. 12. 7, &c.

lectual Creatures, Angels and Men: but especially to Men, by vouchsafing them a blessed Fellowship or Communion with himself, both Natural, Spiritual, and Cœlestial. In this Consideration I comprize four things, viz. 1. That, The (n) LORD the only true God is Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. A Trinity of Persons, or Personal Subsistences in Unity of essence. 2. That, The LORD God is Eternally and infinitely Happy in himself: For, Before all time, and (o) Before the world or any Creature was, from Eternity to Eternity, he was God. And being eternally God, he was Eternally Happy in himself: (p) The Blessed and only Potentate. Yea being the (q) Infinite and boundless of God, he was, is and will be Infinitely Happy in himself. Perfect Happiness consists in enjoyment of Perfect goodness, of a confluence of all goodness. Now God is all goodness; God is his own goodness. (r) There is none good, save one, that is, God, viz. There is none good as God is good, Essentially, Independantly, Infinitely, Immutably, Eternally, &c. And therefore God is his own Happiness eternally: when nothing was, but God. The Father, Son and Holy Ghost having eternal and infinite fulness of Satisfaction, Complacency and acquiescence in themselves alone. And whatsoever goodness or Happiness is in any creature since the creation, all that is wholly put into, and heaped upon the Creature by God alone; as drops out of his Ocean, as grains out of his Mountain, as Littles out of his All. 3. That, God notwithstanding is pleased to communicate of his own happiness to his intellectual creatures, Angels and men, but especially to men. As the Sun, full of light, communicates his light and glory to all the world: or as the Sea, full of water, imparts his streams to all the earth. And yet the Happiness of God is not at all diminished, by imparting of his Happiness to men and Angels: As the light of the Sun is not all at lessned by his Diffusion and Emanation of light to all the world. Nevertheless Man, being brought neerest to God in (s) the Person and office of Jesus Christ, hath the primary impartment of the divine felicity. 4. That, God Communicates his happiness to man, by vouchsafing him Blessed Communion with himself, both Natural, Spiritual, and Cœlestial. God so communicates his Happiness to Man, as that man must reciprocate some Homage to God out of that which he hath received from God. God gives of his own to man, and expects again of his own from man: and herein in the General stands that blissfull and sweet Communion betwixt God and man. And this Communion is threefold, viz. (t) Natural, By Creation, which (u) was betwixt God and Adam in Paradise before the Fall. (x) Spiritual, by (y) New Creation, which is betwixt God and all the Elect in Jesus Christ the Second Adam, since the Fall. (z) Cœlestial, by Glorification, which shall be betwixt God and all the Elect in Christ in the highest heavens, in the (a) beatifical vision and fruition of God in Jesus Christ face to face immediately, fully and eternally.

II. That. The LORD God brings man into Communion with himself, by that sweet Familiar way of COVENANT, in all ages, from the Foundation to the Consummation of the world world. God might have dealt with man in a More Absolute Lordly and Majestical way, peremptorily Commanding and requiring from man his Duty and Allegiance: but he hath pleased to Condescend to a More Relative familiar Covenant way; And this (y) after the manner of man, viz. familiarly, sweetly, and condescendingly dealing with man by Covenant, as one man with another. God by his Covenants Reveals, Applies, Confirms, and Increaseth this sweet Communion betwixt himself and his People in all ages and generations of the world, from the Creation to the judgement day. 1. Into Natural Communion, God brought Innocent man by the (z) Covenant of works. 2. Into Spiritual Communion, God brings lapsed man by the (a) Covenant of Faith, gradually more and more Revealed unto perfection, in all the seven Periods and Discoveries of it: witness Adam, Noah, Abraham, Israel, David, The Captives, and Jews and Gentiles of all Nations, thus brought into, and established in Communion with God by his Covenant. 3. Into Cœlestial Communion also they are brought by the same Covenant of Faith, assuring by many (b) Promises of a Glorious life and Compleat happiness in Heaven for evermore.

III. That, Gods COVENANT with man is of two kinds: viz. 1. (c) A COVENANT OF WORKS, with man upright in the First Adam before the Fall, Promising the Continuance of Life and Happiness to him upon Terms of Perfect and Perpetual Personal Obedience, But threatning Death and Misery upon the least fayling therein. Which Covenant being (d) broken by Adams Disobedience in Eating the forbidden fruit, was in Specie utterly irreparable. (See in this Treatise, this (e) Covenants Explication) 2. (f) A COVENANT OF FAITH, with man lapsed, in JESUS CHRIST, The last Adam, Revealing and Promising lapsed Sinners Recovery from Sin and Death to Righteousness and Life, upon Terms of unfeigned Faith in Iesus Christ to that end. This Distinction of Gods Covenant, into a Covenant of Works and of Faith, is Most proper and agreeable to Scripture. The (g) Nature whereof, and of the Covenant of Faith in General, is hereafter at large unfolded.

IV. That, Gods COVENANT OF FAITH in Christ the Last Adam, (Inchoate in the Earthly, but Consummate in the Heavenly Paradise) Hath a twofold respect to IESUS CHRIST; viz. 1. As Promised, and to be Revealed afterward; 2. As Performed, Exhibited and actually Revealed already: And hereupon it is Subdistinguished into, 1. The (h) COVENANTS OF PROMISE in Christ only Promised: Wherein are six graduall Discoveries of Christ and Covenant Mercies, still proceeding from the less to the more Perfect: 2. The COVENANT OF PERFORMANCE, in Christ Performed and actually Manifested in the Flesh, viz. The (i) NEW COVENANT, the most perfect and compleat Expressure of all the Covenants of Faith, Commencing from Christs Death, and Continuing till the end of the world. The Covenants of Promise were were Dark, Imperfect,

V. That, The Mysterie and chief Matter of all the Covenants of Faith, whether Covenants of Promise or New Covenant, though for Accidents and Circumstances it be very variously represented, yet for essence and Substance it is only one and the same, viz. The Recovery of lapsed Sinners from Sin and Death, to Righteousness and life by IESUS CHRIST alone through Faith. The same CHRIST, the same Faith, The same Recovery of lapsed sinners by Christ through Faith is Revealed in all the Covenants of Faith, but in every of them diversly. As,

1. The same Christ is Revealed in all the Covenants since the Fall. They are as many Cabinets one within another: but Christ the Iewell within them All. All their Promises lead to him, and Center in in him, All their Commandments refer to him, All their Threats drive to him, All their Ceremonies Typifie him, All their Sacraments signfie him, All their Ordinances magnifie him, &c. But in every of them how differently is the same Christ represented! As the (l) Seed of the woman bruising the Serpents Head; in the First: As the true (m) Noah saving an Elect Remnant by water by his blood, in the Ark of the Church; in the Second: As the (n) Seed of Abraham in whom all the Nations of the earth should be blessed; in then third: As the (o) Prophet like Moses raised up from among the People Israel, to be hearkned unto in all things, under severest Penalty: in the Fourth: As the Royall (p) Seed of David, that should sit upon his Throne, ruling the House of Iacob, The Church of God, for evermore; in the Fifth: As the true (q) DAVID, Shepheard, Prince and King of the Redeemed Captives for ever; in the Sixth; And, as (r) God manifested in the Flesh, Crucified, Dead, Buried, Risen, Ascended, and Set down on the Right hand of God, For the actual accomplishment of his Elects Redemption; in the Seventh. Or thus: In the three First Covenants is represented the Person of Christ, God-man: His Manhood, As the Seed of the woman, The Seed of Noah, The Seed of Abraham; His God-head, As being able To bruise the Serpents Head, To save his Elect Remnant by water, and To bless all the Nations of the Earth. In the two next Covenants is set forth his triple Mediatory office: His Prophecy, under the Type of Moses; His Priesthood under the Type of Aaron: and His Kingship under the Type of David. In the sixth Covenant with the Captives is set forth some Notable efficacy of his office, in Redeeming, Cleansing and Sanctifying his enthralled guilty and polluted People. But in the New Covenant Christ is represented both in his Person, Offices and Efficacy of his Offices, both towards Jews and Gentiles more clearly fully and gloriously then in all the fore-going Covenants. And yet, It is (t) IESUS CHRIST yesterday, and to day, and for ever the same.

2. The

2. The same Faith is revealed in all the Covenants before Christ, as in the New Covenant after Christ. 1. The Catalogue of the (t) Ancient believers. 2. The Justification of Noah, Abraham, &c. by (u) Faith. 3. The Description of the righteousness of Faith by (x) Moses and (y) David, and (z) Habakkuk, &c. are clear indications that in all time before Christ, Sinners were Recovered and saved by Jesus Christ through Faith. But before Christ Faith was revealed very darkly, obscurely and imperfectly; in Comparison of the Revelation of Faith since Christ, which is more clear, perspicuous and compleat. Hence comparatively (a) Faith is said, not to come, till the New-Covenant-times.

3. The same Recovery of lapsed sinners by Christ through Faith was revealed proportionably under all former Covenants: but never so clearly, extensively and efficaciously as now under the New Covenant. Then under Redemption from Egypt and Reduction from Babylon, Their eternal Redemption from Sin and Death was shadowed out; Then under the Sprinkling of blood, their Justification, and under divers washings and Levitical Purifications, Their Sanctification, &c. was represented: but now all these Spirituals in Christ are represented (b) without veil with open face.

VI. That, Consequently whatsoever Accidentals or Circumstantials of foregoing Covenants of Faith from time to time were abolished upon the Commencing of more perfect Fœderal Administrations, yet all the essentials and Substantials of them still remain, the Former being still confirmed by, yea comprized in the later, as more compleat and perfect. God proceeds in all his Covenants, from first to last, from the more imperfect to the more Perfect, till at last he had brought in the most perfect New Covenant. As Ezekiels (c) wheels, were a wheel within a wheel; or as the Cœlestial Orbs are supposed to be Orb within Orb from the lowest to the highest: So Gods Covenants are, as it were, Covenant within Covenant, from the least to the greatest; the later being still fuller and larger then the former. Jesus Christ was represented, In the First Covenant, as the Seed of the woman; In the Second, as the true Noah; In the Third, as the Seed of Abraham; In the Fourth, as the Seed of Israel; In the Fifth, as the Seed of David; In the Sixth, as the true David; In the Seventh, which is the New Covenant, as actually God-man, Immanuel, God-with-us. In the first Covenant God promised that (d) this Seed of the woman should bruise the Serpents head; In the second, that this true (e) Noah should save an elect Remnant; In the third, that this (f) Seed of Abraham should bless all Nations, and be a Priest like Melchizedeck; In the fourth, that this (g) Seed of Israel should bless and guide Israel, and be their Great Prophet like Moses; In the fifth, that this (h) Seed of David should reign over the house of Jacob, the Church, for evermore; In the sixth, that this true (i) DAVID should Redeem his Captives, re-unite them into one Kingdom, and be their Shepheard, Prince and King for ever: and In the seventh, that this (k) God-man Jesus Christ actually exhibited, should bless all Nations ons as well as the Jews, Diſcipling them, and incorporating them into the ſame Church body with them, writing his Laws in their hearts, &c. In all theſe Covenants before the New Covenant there were certain accidentals and circumſtantials belonging to the outward Form of Adminiſtration peculiar to thoſe times and people, which were vaniſhing and are done away: as Sacrifices, Circumciſion, Paſſover, and the four extraordinary Sacraments, with all the Levitical Ordinances, Rites, Ceremonies and Adminiſtrations under the Old Covenant. But yet the Subſtantials of all theſe Covenants ſtill remain and have their chief accompliſhment in the New Covenant, as the Scriptures abundantly Teſtifie of all theſe Covenants ſeverally. Compare (1) Gen. 3. 14, 15. with Heb. 2. 14, 15. Col. 2. 14, 15. Rom. 16. 20. (2) And Gen. 6. 18, &c. with 1 Pet. 3. 20, 21. Heb. 11. 7. (3) And Gen. 22. 18. & 12. 3. with Acts 3. 25, 26. Gal 3. 13. 14. (4) And Deut. 5. 2, &c. & 18. 15. to 20. with Heb. 8. 10. Acts 2. 20, 21, 22, &c. (5) And Pſal. 132. 11. with Acts 2. 30. Luke 1. 31, 32, 33. (6) And Ezek. 36. 25, 26, &c. Ier. 24. 5, 6, 7. with Heb. 8. 10, 11, 12. And this will abundantly appear by comparing the Matter of all theſe ſix Covenants with the Matter of the New Covenant hereafter explicated. Divers uſeful Conſectaries hence reſult. As,

1. Hence, The Subſtantial Promiſes of Mercies in all foregoing Covenants of Faith do as truly belong to us, and may be as Conſolatory to us, now under the New Covenant, as to any of Gods people to whom they were firſt and immediately propounded under any former Covenants. Thus we may, from the firſt Covenant, (l) expect victory over the Serpent, as well as Adam. We may, from the Second Covenant, expect the (m) worlds abſolute Security from being univerſally drowned with a flood for ever, as alſo the conſtant courſe and revolution of Seed time and harveſt, and cold and heat, and ſummer and winter, and day and night while the earth remaineth, as well as Noah. We may, from the third Covenant, aſſure our ſelves that we (being Abrahams ſpiritual children (n) by Faith) (o) ſhall be bleſſed with faithful Abraham, though we be Gentiles: ſhall have victory over our Enemies, Eſpeiacily our Spiritual enemies: ſhall have the true cœleſtial Canaan for an everlaſting inheritance: and ſhall enjoy the LORD for our Covenant God: &c. as well as Abrahams and his Natural Seed. The like is to be ſaid of all the other Covenants with Iſrael, David, and with the Captives. The Subſtantials of all Covenants of Faith being one and the ſame, we may apply and extract comfort from the Subſtantial Promiſes of them all, as well as from the New Covenant under which we live. Herein we have an admirable advantage above all the Fœderates of former Covenants; in that we have the benefit of the Promiſes of all the Covenants of Promiſe, which they had; and of the New Covenant, which they had not. Here is much wiſdom required, here is high Priviledge vouchſafed, for the skilfull and comfortable applying and improving of Gods Promiſes in all Covenants of Faith throughout the Bible.

(m) Gen. 8. 21, 22.

(n) Rom. 4. 12, 16, 17. Gal. 3, 7.

(o) Gen. 12. 3. & 22. 17, 18. & 17. 7, 8. with Gal. 3, 9, 13, 14 Luk. 1. 71, 74. Gal. 3. 26, 27, 29.

2. Hence,

2. Hence, All the Substantial commands explicit or implicit of former Covenants of Faith, are as obligatory and binding to us now under the New Covenant, as formerly they were to Gods people under any Covenant on whom they were first imposed. As former Promises are still Consolatory to us in regard of Covenant-Mercies from God: So former Commands Explicit or Implicit are obligatory to us in regard of Covenant-Duties to God. The Analogy and proportion betwixt these two is evident. Are not we as strongly obliged now under the New Covenant; 1. To fight (p) against the Serpent, that in Christ we may bruise his head; as well as Adam? 2. To (q) believe Gods word and warnings, and be Obedient to him in most difficult undertakings: as well as Noah? 3. To (r) Walk before God in Faith and Obedience, To be perfect, To initiate our infant Children in the first initiating Token of the present Covenant of God, &c. as well as Abraham? 4. To observe (s) all the ten Commandments of the Moral Law; as well as the People Israel? 5. To (t) keep Gods Covenant and Testimony; as well as David and his seed? 6. To (u) remember our own evil wayes and doings which were not good, and loath our selves in our own sight for our iniquities, and for our Abominations; To walk in Gods Statutes, &c. To be Gods Covenant-people, &c. as well as Gods Captives in Babylon? Doubtless these and like Command of the Substance of former Covenants, reach us, concern us, oblige us now: as well as Gods people of old: for they were never abrogated, but rather most strongly re-inforced and confirmed under the New Covenant.

(p) Gen. 3. 14. 15.
(q) Gen. 6. with Heb 11. 7.
(r) Gen 17. 1, 2, 9, 10, &c.
(s) Deut. 5. Exod. 20.
(t) Psal. 132. 12.
(u) Ezek. 36. 31. 27, 28.

3. Hence, We under the New Covenant have strongest Consolation from such Promises, and greatest obligation by such Commands of all Covenants of Faith fore-going. Inasmuch as the Substance of all those Covenants doth still remain of force and vertue; and the vigor of them is afresh revived and continued under the New Covenant. And a sevenfold cord is not easily broken.

4. Hence, This excellently directs us in the Reading, Applying and Improving of the Holy Scriptures with Iudgement. Wisely Distinguish we Substantials for Circumstantials, Essentials from Accidentals, in the Promises, Precepts and Covenants of God: and then we shall plainly See the due portion and allotment which appertains to us.

5. Hence, The Necessity and utility of the Books of the Old Testament, as well as of the New, unto all New-Covenant Fœderates is evinced and Described. The Substantials, of all Promised Mercies and of all commanded restipulated Duties, under all former Covenants still remaining of force and vertue, do both evince the Necessity, and Delineate the Utility of the Books of Old Testament. This is the Compass and Pole-star to sail by in this Scripture-Sea: This is the Golden Clew and thread to be followed in this Scripture-Laberynth. What Doubts, Knots, Difficulties, &c. will not this one thing resolve and Unty about the diligent and fruitfull perusal of the Scriptures!

VII. That, The COVENANTS OF GOD, in their latitude, viz. his Covenants of Works and of Faith, are so capacious and Comprehensive, that they incloſe and comprize within themselves the grand Mysterie and very Marrow of all the Holy Scriptures. This is very clear: For, I. The whole Scriptures are a meer Supernatural Revelation (x) by Divine Inspiration. II. The grand Mysterie and very Marrow of the whole Scriptures, is; Mans Happiness in the enjoyment of God in the First Adam, before the Fall, comprized in the Covenant of Works; And Mans Recovery from Sin and Death to Righteousness and Life, after the Fall, by JESUS CHRIST the Last Adam, through Faith, Comprized in the Covenant of Faith and all the gradual Discoveries thereof from age to age. III. Now these two sorts of the Covenants of God are so Complexive, that they clearly fadom and conclude within themselves, as within their Arms, this grand Mysterie, Soul and Marrow of all the Holy Bible. For, 1. All the Doctrines of Scripture, come under these Covenants; are as so many Divine truths of them, are to be referred to them as their chief Heads, and are to be tryd by them as their common standard or Touchstone. The cleareſt (y) extraction of all fundamental Truths in Religion, is from these Covenants: and the most solid Decision of all sorts of Controversies and Refutation of all sorts of errors is to be derived from the true state of these Covenants. Gods Covenants are the best Umpires in all controversal Divinity; and the best Hammers for all Errors and Heresies against the Truth. As might easily be demonstrated, if need were, in both Cases. 2. All Promises and Prophecies in the whole Scripture, from the beginning of Genesis to the end of the Revelation, do flow as so many streams from these fountains of Gods Covenants, and meet as so many lines in these Covenant-Centers. The Promises are but Gods Covenants in their Branches; The Covenants are Gods Promises in the root. And were I to treat of Gods (z) greateſt and precious Promises (as sometimes I had resolved) I should count it the most clear, exact and proper way, to Rank all the Promises in the whole Bible under their Peculiar Covenants, & Fœderal Expressures, both for the plaineſt explication, and for the safeſt and sweeteſt Application of them to the Spirits of believers. 3. Consequently, all the Threats in Scripture come under Gods Covenants, with the Promises. Threats and Promises are Relatives, and rise both from the same spring-head of the Covenants, though upon different Considerations. Promises chiefly are propounded upon Terms of such or such Covenant-Performances: threatnings chiefly are denounced in case of failing in performance of such or such Covenant-Duties. 4. All Types in Scripture come under Gods Covenants, as Figures or shadows of Covenant-Blessings, especially of IESUS CHRIST in his Person, Offices, Effects of his offices, Body mystical, Members, &c. One way or other (a) Christ is the Substance, Body, Soul, and End of them all. They are all Christ veyled. 5. All Histories in Scripture come under these Covenants: declaring the Antecedents, concomitants or consequents of these Covenants; and one way or other subserving

(x) 2 Tim. 3. 16, 17.

(y) This will the more easily appear, by considering How many Fundamentals of Faith have inavoidably come to be unfolded in this Treatise in handling the Covenants of God.

(z) Μέγιστα, —καὶ τίμια ἐπαγγέλματα. 2 Pet. 1. 4.

serving to illustrate these Covenants Manifestation, Confirmation, or Administration. 6. All Commands in Scripture come under Gods Covenants in one regard or other, but especially as Impositions or Explanations of the Covenant-Duties restipulated and required from man to God. 7. Finally, All the Ordinances of God in Old or New Testament touching Doctrine, Worship, Church-Government and Practise of Gods People come under Gods Covenants: and principally under the external Forms of those Covenants respectively. And therefore from all this its very evident, how just cause I had to intitle this Treatise, Mysterium & Medulla Bibliorum, THE MYSTERIE and MARROW OF THE BIBLE, viz. GODS COVENANTS WITH MAN, &c. For, Gods Covenants are the Peculiar Display of the Grand Scripture Mysterie, and so are the very Sinew and Marrow of all the blessed BIBLE. Oh! what a Subject, what a Secret, what a Treasure, what a Conflux of Grace, Wisdom, Goodness, Justice and Mercy are the COVENANTS OF GOD!

VIII. That, Without the Solid knowledge of Gods Covenants, The Depth of Holy Scriptures, The Secrets of true Religion, and Gods Mysterious Contrivances of Sinners salvation can never be judiciously understood. This evidently results from the former Consideration, and needs no further illustration.

IX. That, All the People of the world, are so far miserable or Happy, as they are without, or within the Covenants of God. For, The whole Mysterie of Mans Natural Happiness was comprized in his being in Covenant with God, according to the Covenant of Works in the First Adam; And the whole Mysterie of Mans supernatural Happiness is comprehended in Mans being in Covenant with God, according to the Covenant of Faith in Jesus Christ the last Adam, The Covenant of works requiring Perfect, and perpetual Personal Obedience, being broken by the First Adam, and by all his ordinary posterity in him, cannot afford lapsed man any Happiness any more, forasmuch as lapsed man cannot any more enjoy God in that Covenant. The Covenant of Faith hath provided a Remedy in Jesus Christ, as the Sinners ([b]) Mediator and Surety, Satisfying by his Death for mans Debt, and exactly fulfilling the Law (the Substance of the Covenant of works) by his obedience for mans acceptation: So that whosoever shall by Faith unfeigned accept this Remedy provided, viz. Iesus Christ, his Death and Obedience, shall thereby be acquitted from Sin and Death, Restored to Righteousness and Happiness in the enjoyment of God in Iesus Christ. They therefore that are effectually within this Covenant of Faith, are so far truly Happy: but they that are without this Covenant-state, are so far utterly miserable, being ([c]) without Christ, without Hope, and without God in the world.

And therefore, Having first Preached in my weekly Lectures upon this comfortable, comprehensive, intricate, but Necessary Subject of Gods sacred Covenants, At the importunity of many I have been induced to Publish the same; 1. For the (d) Helping of poor souls out of their miserable Covenantless-state, into an happy Covenant-Condition with God in Iesus Christ. 2. For the Assisting of Gods weakest doubting, yet sincere Fœderatees to discern their inward, effectual and saving interest in the Covenant of God. 3. For the displaying of their matchless and transcendent (e) Felicities, who not only are savingly in Covenant with God, but also have well-grounded evidence of that their good Covenant-state. 4. For Inciting, (f) Both of all Gods faithfull Ministers, (who are (f) Ministers of the New Testament) to frequent (g) Preaching of Gods Covenants, with all Prudence and diligence; (2) And of all his sincere Fœderates, to an answerable and worthy walking with their God in Christ as his Covenant-people; according to his Covenants-Directions, Encouragements and Obligations. 5. For Satisfaction to mine own heart and Spirit about this Profound, mysterious, and important Subject. 6. For Edification of my hearers the more abundantly by my Weekly Lectures upon so Noble and Profitable a Theam. 7. For more clear Illustration of those Sweetest saving Truths which as precious Iewels are laid up for Gods People in these rich Cabinets of Gods Covenants. And, 8. For the high advancement of the glory of the blessed God and Iesus Christ our only Lord in all. For attainment of which high and excellent Ends, I have (to my best judgement) taken the most probable and Promising way in the unfolding of Gods Covenant-Expressures in this ensuing TREATISE. For,

1. Herein I have Treated of GODS COVENANTS, First More Generally: Then More Specially; viz. of the COVENANT OF WORKS before the Fall in the first Adam; And of the COVENANT OF FAITH after the Fall in CHRIST the last Adam; and that in Christ, 1. As Promised in all the (h) COVENANTS OF PROMISE Revealed in six noted Periods of Time especially, 2. As Performed in the (i) NEW COVENANT. This method of handling Gods Covenants, being most proper and clear in it self, and most congruous to the Scriptures. Consequently the Reading of this whole Treatise, and not only some part, is requisite to the Right Notion of Gods Covenants.

2. Herein I have digested the whole Doctrine of GODS COVENANTS into, 1. Certain distinct Theses, Positions or Compendious Assertions, which I call APHORISMS; comprizing in Brief the sum of all: 2. The Explanations and Confirmations of those Aphorisms, as the Nature of them requires. 3. Such Consectaries or Inferences as properly result from them. And this Course I have purposely embraced. Partly, That both my Partly, that every thing may be the more obvious in the Treatise, and the better fixed in the Memory. Partly, that the whole may hereupon be more acceptable and profitable to all sorts of Readers.

3. Herein I have (so far as possible with safety to the Truth) purposely waved Polemical Dissertations and Disputes, chiefly bending my self unto Doctrinals and Practicals: wherein, A very Considerable part of the Body of Divinity is unfolded, Many Practical Questions or Cases of Conscience are Resolved, Divers Doubts and Difficulties both about Doctrine and Practise are removed, And all according to the Nature of particulars advantagiously Applyed. And where I have been forced, for vindication of the Truth, to touch upon points Controversal (Disputings (k) wranglings and vain janglings about Religion being the Epidemical and pernicious disease of these times, whence very many have disputed away both Truth, Religion and a good Conscience from themselves:) I have stated the Questions, confirmed the Truth by Arguments, and Refelled the Contrary Objections which seemed Material, (l) sollicitously declining all Logomachies, Personal reflections, and other Extravagancies, as unavaylable to Truth or Godliness.

Herein I have very frequently throughout the whole Treatise insisted upon Scripture-Tryals, Evidences and Discoveries of Mens Covenant-Condition, Spiritual State, Hearts, Graces, Dispositions, Actions, &c. towards God. That Hypocrites and carnal men may not think better of themselves then they have cause, and so run Headlong to Destruction in a Golden Dream; and That the true Israelites indeed, though most weak and unexperienced, may not think worse of themselves then they ought, but may be instructed how to (m) make their Calling and Election sure, and at last come sweetly to discover by the Spirit of God (n) the things that are freely given them of God.

And in all this great Work I have most seriously and (if I know mine own heart) sincerely desired the Furtherance of the Knowledge, Faith, Assurance, Comfort, Joy, Holiness, Heavenliness, and all the Spirituals of such as are (o) ordained to eternal Life, and especially of all mine endeared Relations, Not only Natural, but also Spiritual, that ever received any Converting, Confirming, Supporting or Edifying benefit by my Ministry. And I beseech the LORD of the Covenant to make these my weak and unworthy Labours advantagiously speak and Preach to them and others, when I shall sleep in IESUS, and be silent in the Grave. The volume, I confess, hath sweld too much under my hand: But I have this Apology, The vast Comprehensiveness, great Variety, and Frequent Difficulties of the Subject-Matter; As also mine earnest endeavours after Practicalness and (p) Perspicuity therein to the meanest Capacities, have have occasioned this Prolixity. And yet I hope the judicious Reader, upon perusal of the whole, will acknowledge such a brief Prolixity, or Prolix Brevity therein, that very little could have been conveniently omitted. I say therefore, (As once (q) Augustine of his Work of the City of God) Let such as think it too little or too much, hold me excused: But let them who think it is enough, give congratulating thanks, not to me, but to the LORD with me.

X. That, Finally, the Churches Ministers, and Members of Christ should with all possible Iudgement, Zeal, Affection and Constancy, interest and exercise themselves in the Covenants of God, but especially in the Covenants of Faith whereby alone Sinners Hope and comfort in Christ are provided for by God since the Fall, The Top-excellency, perfection and glory of all which Covenants is the New COVENANT. Therefore,

O all ye true Churches of Christ, look upon the COVENANTS OF GOD, as the Grand Mysterie and very Marrow of all the Holy Scriptures. All The Scripture-Doctrines, Promises, Threats, Types, Histories, Commands and Ordinances, are fully Deducible from, and reducible to the Covenants of God: Consequently all your Information, Consolation, Caution, Instruction, Exhortation and Edification depends upon Gods Covenants. Mind and meditate upon them diligently. These will Preserve you in the Truth, against Error: These will direct you in Purity of worship, Government and all the Ordinances of Christ; without pollution or corruption: These will Restore you unto, and Preserve you in the sweet (r) Unity of the Spirit in the bond of Peace, against Distractions and Divisions; These will engage you in the (s) Life of God, and (t) power of Godliness effectually, against all Prophaness, Formality, and Hypocrisie: These will endear you unto God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, in all heavenly Soul-Ravishing (u) Communion, that Spiritual Paradise and Heaven upon Earth.

O ye faithfull Ministers of Christ, Study and Preach the COVENANTS of GOD with all Prudence and Diligence to the Flocks of God whereof the Lord hath made you overseers. Ye are by Calling and Office (x) Ministers of the New Covenant, (the Lord of the Covenant make us all able Ministers of the New Covenant, of the Spirit and not of the Letter, that the People may be through divine Grace, (y) the Epistle of Christ, Ministred by us, written not with Ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in Tables of stone, but in the fleshly Tables of the Heart:) Oh strive exceedingly to Display the riches of divine Grace, and the Fulness of Iesus Christ, as wrapped up in the Covenants, *to the hearts and spirits of poor Sinners; Oh let all the chief tendencies of your Doctrine be subservient hereunto. shall most sweetly revive and bind up the bruised Souls of broken-hearted Sinners, and most happily Espouse them as a chaste virgin unto Christ.

Finally, O all ye Members of Christ, Come and See, Trade and traffique daily in this Spiritual Mart of Gods Covenants. Here are the greatest gains and richest Treasures to be had in all the world. If Holiness or Righteousness; if Conversion, Confirmation, or Consummation; If Pardon, Adoption, Sanctification or Communion with God: if Grace or Glory: If Iesus Christ, the only Mediator, or the only Al-sufficient God, with all the Mysteries or Treasures of Scripture, &c. be worth the having: Come close with the sacred Covenants of God, wherein you shall abundantly find all these. This ensuing Treatise is offered to you for your assistance and encouragement in this Glorious Employment. The Lord God and Iesus Christ the only Mediator of the New Covenant make it usefull and effectually Instrumental by his Spirit to bring Aliens into Covenant, and establish Fœderates in Covenant with God in Iesus Christ to all Eternity. Amen. So prayeth

I. A METHODICAL TABLE

Of the principal Matters in these four Books of God's Covenants, according to the Method and Order wherein they are unfolded.

BOOK I.

Of Gods Covenants, their Names, Natures, Sorts and Benefits; More Generally.

Chap. 1.

THE Method of handling Gods Covenants in all the four Books following, Propounded, p. 1, 2, 3.

Aphorism 1. That, God in all ages, from the beginning to the End of the world, is pleased to deal with his Church and People by way of COVENANT, p. 3. to 6.

Aphorism 2. That, God in all ages pleaseth to deal with his Church and people by way of Covenant, for divers weighty Causes and excellent Ends. Corollaries. p. 6. to 10.

Chap. 2.

APhorism 1. Of the Names given to Gods Covenants; viz. ברית Berith, and Διαθήκη Diatheke; and Of 1. Their Notation. 2. Their various Acceptations in Scripture, p. 10. to 14.

Aphorism 2. Gods Covenant (in the general notion of it) is his Gratuitous Agreement with his people, Promising them Eternal Happiness, and all Subordinate Good: and Requiring from them all due dependance upon God, and Obedience to him, in Order to his glory, p. 14, 15, 16.

Aphorism 3. Gods Covenant with his People is not only one, but divers: and it is divers both for Kind, Degree and Circumstances. The Distribution of Gods Covenant, p. 16, 17, 18.

BOOK II.

Of Gods COVENANTS; More Particularly.

Chap. 1.

I. Of Gods Covenant of Works with the first Adam, and his Natural Seed, before the fall.

Aphorism 1. God was pleased to Enter into Covenant with the first Adam, before his Fall, p. 19. to 23.

Aphorism 2. Gods entering into Covenant with Adam before his Fall, was an Act of Divine Grace and Favour, not of debt, p. 23.

Aphorism 3. God entering into Covenant with the first Adam before his Fall, did in and with him enter into the same Covenant with all his Posterity, p. 23,24.

Aphorism 4. Gods Covenant with the first Adam and his Posterity before the Fall, (variously denominated) Is Gods gracious Agreement with Adam, and with his Posterity in him, To give them Eternal life and happiness, upon condition of Perfect Personal Obedience, p. 24. to 33.

Here; 1. The Blessing Promised, and Curse Threatned. Wherein Note,
1. What life Adam enjoyed in innocency, p. 26.
2. What life God further promised to Adam upon his Obedience, p. 27.
3. What Death God threatned to Adam in case of Disobedience, p. 27, 28.
4. How Gods threatning was fulfilled, seeing Adam did not presently dye, p. 29.

2. The duty restipulated. Where note,
1. How it may appear that God required and Adam restipulated perfect and perpetual Personal Obedience, p. 30.
2. What was the Law, Rule or Measure of Adams Obedience? p. 31,32,33.

Aphorism 5. When God entred into this Covenant of Works with the first Adam, he was compleatly able in his own Person to keep this Covenant in every point, p. 33. to 36.

Aphorism 6. This Covenant of Works Adam utterly brake, by Disobedience. How? When? How hainous this breach of Covenant. Corollaries, p. 36. to 59.

Aphorism 7. The breach of the Covenant of Works by the Disobodience of the first Adam, did wonderfully make way for the Establishment of the Covenant of Faith by the Obedience of the second Adam, p. 59,60.

Chap. 2.

II. Of Gods Covenant of faith with the last Adam and his Seed after the fall, More Generally.

Aphorism 1. The Covenant of Works being broken in the first Adam, The Lord God was pleased to reveal a Covenant of Faith in JESUS CHRIST the last Adam, p. 62. to 69.

Aphorism 2. The Covenant of Faith is Gods gracious Compact or Agreement, &c. Here,
1. The Efficient Cause, or Author of the Covenant of Faith, is God, p. 69,70,71.
2. The Parties to this Covenant of Faith, are; 1. God, on the one hand. 2. Christ the last Adam, and in him all his Seed, on the other hand, p. 71. to 79.
3. The Matter of this Covenant of Faith, consists of things agreed upon, 1. Betwixt God and Jesus Christ. 2. Betwixt God and the seed of Christ in him.

I. Betwixt God, and Jesus Christ the last Adam. Here,
1. God the Father, in Order to the Recovery of his Seed, Promiseth to Christ,
1. To invest Christ with a Mediatory Office, of Priest, Prophet and King, p. 79. to 82.

2. To

2. To Accept Christ in his Office, p. 82.
3. To assist, support, encourage and protect Christ in the execution of his office, p. 82.
4. To exalt Christ gloriously, after al his abasement by reason of his office, p. 83.
5. To prosper and Crown Christ with full success in Recovering all his Seed, p. 84.

2. To Rely fully upon his heavenly Father for Acceptance, Assistance and Protection in Execution of his Office, against all Difficulties, &c. p. 86.

II. Betwixt God and Christs Seed in Christ the Last Adam. Here,
1. God promiseth, in Christ, on his part,
1. What he in Christ will do for Christs Seed, viz. He will Recover them from a state of sin and death, to a state of righteousnes and life, p. 87, 88.
2. What he will be to Christs Seed, viz. He will be a God to them, p. 89, 90.
2. Christs Seed Re-promise in Christ, on their part,
1. What they will do. 1. They will accept Christ, and Covenanted Mercies by Faith. 2. They will walk worthy of Christ and those Mercies, p. 91, 92, 93.
2. What they will be. They will become Gods people in Christ. In [1] All they are: [2] All they have: [3] All they can do: [4] All they can endure, p. 94. to 97.

4. The Form of this Covenant of Faith. 1. Inward. 2. Outward, Consisting in ([1]) Gradual Discoveries: ([2]) Various Administrations: ([3]) Testamentary Disposition: ([4]) Large and Liberal Tender: ([5]) Visible Advantages, though but outwardly embraced, p. 97. to 102.

5. Corollaries or Consectaries resulting from the Covenant of Faith, Generally considered,
I. The Covenant of Faith is a Profound Supernatural Mysterie, p. 102. to 105.
II. The Covenant of Faith is a wonderful Compound and Contrivance of meer Grace, p. 105. to 108.
III. Jesus Christ is the very Marrow and Kernel of the Covenant of Faith, p. 108. to 111.
IV. The Covenant of Faith may in a right and sound sense be acknowledged Conditional. Here, at large, 1. The true state of the Question about the Conditionality of the Covenant of faith is laid down. 2. The Conditionality of the Covenant, so stated, is confirmed. 3. Contrary Objections are refelled, p. 111. to 132.
V. The Covenant of Faith is a sweet Paradise of Believers union to, and Communion with God in Jesus Christ, p. 132, 133.
VI. The Matters of this Covenant of Faith are most High and Great, &c. p. 134.
VII. The Properties and Perfections of this Covenant of Faith are divers and excellent. It is,
1. Holy. And that in five regards, p. 135. to 137.
2. Gratuitous, p. 137.
3. Ordered in all things. In four respects, p. 137. to 139.
☞ 4. Sure. This sureness is abundantly demonstrated, 1. From the Nature, Properties and Perfections of the Covenant-making God. 2. From Gods manifold Methods for establishing of it. 3. From Gods accomplishment of his Covenant most punctually in all ages. 4. From removal of all imaginable corrumpent causes that might render it unfaithful. 5. From the everlasting Nature of the Covenant it self, p. 139. to 158.
5. Comfortable. Here, [1] That it is Comfortable. [2] To whom. [3] How, and in in what respects, at large, p. 158. to 170.

6. Everlasting, and in what sense, p. 170. to 173.
VIII. The Agreement and Difference betwixt the Covenant of Works, and the Covenant of Faith is notably conspicuous, &c. p. 173, &c.
1. Their Agreements, p. 174.
2. Their Differences in many Particulars, p. 175. to 181.
3. Divers results from these Agreements and Disagreements, p. 181. to 184.
Aphorism 3. The Covenant of Faith may be sub-distinguished or distributed into two Branches, viz. 1. Gods Covenant of Promise, with one peculiar sort of people only before Christ. 2. Gods Covenant of Performance, or the NEW COVENANT with all sorts of people since Christ, p. 184. to 191.

BOOK III.

Of Gods COVENANTS OF PROMISE, before Christ, in VI. Remarkable expressures.

Chap. 1.

I. OF the Discovery of the Covenants of Promise, in the I. Remarkable Period of time, from Adam, till Noah: in that First Gospel, Gen. 3. 14, 15. Here note,
1. The Occasion of the words, p. 192.
2. The meaning of the words; in Resolving these Questions, viz.
1. What Serpent is here meant? Three Opinions, p. 193, &c.
2. What woman is here intended? Here three Opinions, p. 194.
3. What is meant by these two Seeds, The Serpents Seed, and the womans Seed? p. 195, 196.
4. What Punishments they are which are here pronounced upon the Serpent; upon the visible Serpent four, and upon the invisible Serpent other four, p. 197, 198.
5. The Benefits Promised for the woman and her Seed, p. 199, 200.
3. Aphorisms resulting from the words unfolded, viz.
Aphorism 1. Immediately upon Adams Fall, God revealed a gracious Promise touching Mans recovery. Cleared. Six Corollaries thereupon, p. 201. to 207.
Aphorism 2. This Promise of Mans Recovery was revealed very imperfectly and obscurely, p. 207. to 210.
Aphorism 3. This First Promise of lapsed mans Recovery, was Revealed in CHRIST, the womans Seed. 1. That it was so revealed. 2. What it implyes to be so revealed. 3. Why it was revealed in Christ? 4. Corollaries. p. 210. to 217.
Aphorism 4. This First Promise in Christ, Revealed lapsed mans Recovery, in the enmity threatned betwixt the woman and the Serpent, betwixt her Seed and his Seed, and in the events of that Enmity. Here note,
1. That, in Gods explicit Threatnings against the Serpent, are implicit Promises for sinners Recovery, p. 217.
2. What Degree of Sinners Recovery is Promised under this enmity Threatned, p. 218.
3. What are the Events of this enmity, &c.
1. The Bruising of the Serpents Head by the Seed of the woman, CHRIST;
1. In his own Person. By seven Degrees, p. 219, 220.
2. In the Persons of his Elect, through his power. By six Degrees, p. 221, 222.
2. The bruising of the Heel of the womans Seed by the Serpent, p. 223.
1. The Heel of Christ, the Primary Seed is bruised. 1. God Permits it three waies.

waies. 2. God limits it six waies. 3. God orders it for good, p. 224. to 227.
2. The Heel of them that are Christs is also bruised by Satan. This Bruising is, 1. Permitted in three particulars. 2. Limited in six regards. 3. Over-ruled in three respects for their good and Satans ruine, p. 227. to 232.
4. Corollaries. Hence,
I. Gods Threatnings are to be duly weighed even by Gods People, p 232.
II. Behold the riches of Gods love, &c. to lapsed man, Revealing the mysterie of mans Recovery from his Fall, before he Sentence him for his Fall, p. 233.
III. How notably is the depth of lapsed mans misery hereby intimated! four waies, p. 233.
IV. This First Promise, though very dark and obscure, yet comprehended in it much Gospel in a few words, p. 234, 235.
V. Then lapsed Sinners are actually in a state of Recovery, when this enmity against the Serpent and his Seed, and the fruits of this enmity, &c. are effectually implanted in them, wrought by them, or belonging to them, p. 235
1. That we have true Enmity against the Serpent: Three signs, p. 235, 236.
2. That we have, and do bruise the Serpents Head. Five Evidences, p. 237.
3. That Satan, at worst, doth but bruise our Heel. Five Indications, p. 238.
VI. These Threatnings were not so terrible to the Serpent and his Seed: but they were as comfortable to the woman and her Seed, p. 239.
VII. This First Promise obligeth poor sinners to all possible Gratitude, p. 240.
Aphorism 5 This First Promise revealed in Christ the Seed of the woman, though it had not the Name and compleat Formality of a Covenant, yet had it the Nature, Substance and Reality of a Covenant, and that the Covenant of Faith. The 1. Author, 2. Fœderate Parties, 3. The Matter, 4. The Form of this Promise, being for Substance the same with those of the Covenant of Faith, p. 241. to 248.

Chap. 2.

II. Of the Discovery of the Covenants of Promise in the II. Remarkable Period of time, viz. From Noah till Abraham.
Aphorism 1. The Lord God having determined to destroy the Old world for its extream wickedness, established his Covenant with righteous Noah, To save him, his Family, and a Seed of living creatures in the Ark, from the common Distruction, p. 248, 249.
1. Confirmation of this Aphorism, p. 249.
2. Explication of it, p. 249.
1. What this word COVENANT meaneth, p. 249.
2. How God stablished his Covenant with Noah, p. 250.
3. Who were Parties; God and Noah. Noah described by his 1. Pedegree. 2. Name. 3. Religion. 4. Priviledges, p. 250, 251.
4. The Matters Covenanted, on Gods part, and on Noah's, p. 252.
5. The Occasion, and End of Gods making this Covenant with Noah, p. 252, 253.
3. Application of it, in seven Corollaries or Inferences, p. 254, 255.
Aphorism 2. The LORD God having destroyed the wicked old world by a flood of waters, not only resolved with himself, but also Covenanted with Noah, with his Seed, and with the creatures, never to destroy the earth any more by a flood: Annexing the Rain-bow for a Token of the Covenant. Here, this Aphorism is
1. Confirmed, in the chief branches of it, by Scriptures, p. 256.
2. Explained. Here note,
1. The Causes and Occasion of this Covenant, p. 257.
2. The Parties Covenanting, p. 257. to 259.

3. The

3. The Matters Covenanted, on Gods part, and on Noahs, his Sons and their Seed, p. 259.

4. The Token of the Covenant, the Bow in the Cloud. 1. What it is. 2. When it was set there. 3. What manner of Token it was, p. 260, 261.

3. Applyed in four Corollaries. p. 262.

Aphorism 3. These two Covenants of God, established with Noah, before and after the Flood, &c. were a Renewed Discovery and Administration of the Covenant of Faith, touching Sinners Salvation by Jesus Christ. Here,

1. That these two Covenants of God with Noah, &c. were A Renewed Discovery of the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Salvation by Christ: is proved at large by six sorts of Arguments. One being that, Noah was a Type of Christ: The Ark of the Church: The saving of Noah and his house in the Ark, of Gods saving his Houshold in the Church, p. 263, to 277.

2. What the Spiritual Meaning of these Covenants of God with Noah as a Covenant of Faith, is, In regard of 1. Author, 2. Parties, 3. Matter, and 4. Form thereof, p. 277. to 281.

3. What Additionals were annexed to this Covenant-expressure, more then to the former, and consequently their Agreements and Differences in many particulars, p. 281. to 283.

4. Corollaries, p. 283. to 285.

Chap. 3.

III. Of the Discovery of the Covenants of Promise, in the III. Noted Period of time, viz. From Abraham, till Moses, p. 285, &c.

Aphorism 1. God having called Abram from his own kindred and Native Countrey, Ur of the Chaldees, into the land of Canaan, established the Covenant of Faith with him in Christ. Here note three Propositions.

1. God called Abram from his own kindred and Native Countrey, Ur of the Chaldees, into the land of Canaan. Here are explained,

1. Who Abram was before his Calling, For 1. Descent. 2. Name. 3. Religion, p. 287, 288.

2. What his Native Countrey, Ur of the Chaldees, was, p. 288.

☞ 3. What the land of CANAAN was, whereto he was called. Canaan is here Described by its 1. Situation. 2. Denominations. 3. Scripture Commendations. And 4. Mystical Signification, p. 289, 290.

4. What manner of Call this was, whereby Abram was called, p. 290, 291.

5. When God did thus call Abram, p. 291, 292.

2. God having thus called Abram from his kindred and Native Countrey into the land of Canaan, established a Covenant with him. And why? p. 292. to 295.

3. The Covenant which God established with Abram, thus called, was the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners recovery by Jesus Christ, Proved by six Arguments, p. 295, to 299: Corollaries or Inferences hence, seven, p. 299. to 304.

Aphorism 2. God not onely established his Covenant with Abram, but also with his Seed after him in their Generations. Here is cleared,

1. That God stablished his Covenant with Abraham, and with his Seed in their Generations, p. 304, 305.

2. What this Seed of Abraham was: His three sorts of Seeds with which the Covenant was made, p. 305. to 309.

3. How God established his Covenant with this Seed of Abraham. viz. 1. As with One. 2. This one, onely Christ. 3. This Christ, Primarily, Iesus Christ the Mediatour, Secondarily, His mystical body of Jews and Gentiles. 4. With this Seed, Christ mystical for ever, p. 309, 310, &c.

8. By the sufferings and death of JESUS CHRIST, Implyed and Typified in this Fœderal Administration many waies, p. 559. to 562.

3. Why God these many waies confirmed his Covenant to Abraham and his Seed, p. 562. to 564.

4. Inferences

4. Inferences seven hence resulting, p. 564. to 570.

Aphorism 5. The End of Gods Establishing this Covenant with Abraham and his Seed in Christ, was, Ultimately, His own glory; Subordinately, the true Happiness of Abraham and his Seed, Jewish and Gentilish, both in this and the world to come.

1. Ultimately, God intends in this Covenant his own glory, viz. The Glory of his 1. Free Grace: 2. Bounteous Goodness: 3. Wise Providence: 4. Great Power: 5. Constant Faithfulness, p. 571. to 574.

2. Subordinately, The Happiness of Abraham, and his Seed. In their 1. Redemption. 2. Participation of the Spirit. 3. Conversion. 4. Adoption. 5. Justification. 6. Covenant-Relation. And 7. Glorification. Of which formerly: But now more fully of Justification by Faith, as being here in this Covenant. First of all expressly mentioned in Scripture, p. 574, 575, &c.

Justification by Faith, explained from Gen. 15. 6. He believed in the LORD, and He imputed that to him Righteousness. Or, Unto Righteousness. Here note,

I. What is meant by, Believing in the LORD.
1. The sense of the word, Believe, p. 576.
2. The sense of the phrase, Believing in the LORD, p. 576, 577.
3. The Description of Justifying Faith, confirmed and explained, p. 577, &c.
1. The General Nature of Faith, p. 577.
2. The efficient cause of it; Principal, and Instrumental, p. 578.
3. The subject recipient, p. 578.
4. The Object of this Faith, p. 578, 579.
5. The Final Cause, or End of it: Ultimate, and Subordinate, p. 579, 580.
6. The Acts of Faith to these Ends. Which are, 1. Direct: 2. Reflexive.
1. Direct Acts of Faith, are either,
1. The First, and Primary. As, 1. Knowing; 2. Assenting; 3. Applying, p. 580. to 584.
2. Those that arise from the First, Secondary: which are seven, p. 584, 585.
2. Reflect Act of Faith, p. 586.

II. What is here meant by Justice or Righteousness. Humane Righteousness is here, 1. Described. 2. Distributed, p. 586. to 589.

III. What is meant by Counting, or Imputing. Here, 1. Of the various significations of the Word. 2. The several sorts of Imputation, p. 589. to 592.

IV. What it was which was Imputed to Abraham unto Righteousness, and How?
1. Believing, or Faith, was imputed to him for Righteousness. p. 592, 593.
2. How Believing was Imputed to him for Righteousness. Four Interpretations.
1. Interpretation. As an Efficient and Meritorious Cause. Rejected, p. 594, 595.
2. Interpretation. That the very Act of believing, the τὸ credere, is imputed for righteousness, and that in a proper sense, not Metonymically. Rejected, p. 596. to 607.
3. Interpretation. That Faith as a Condition of the Covenant performed by us, justifieth; or is imputed to us for righteousness. Rejected. p. 607, 608.
4. Interpretation. That Faith is imputed unto righteousness, As an Organ, Instrument, Instrumental Cause or Mean, by the help of the Spirit, receiving and apprehending Christs Righteousness offered in the Gospel. The Unanimous Consent of Reformed Churches, and sound writers herein, p. 608. to 612.
1. Faith is imputed unto Righteousness only as an Instrument. Proved at large by seven Arguments, p. 612. to 618.
2. How Faith is imputed unto Righteousness as an Instrument, &c. is explained three waies by Orthodox writers. And what we may judge of them, p. 618 to 622.

V. Whether

V. Whether in ſome ſenſe Abraham was not juſtified by Works, as well as by Faith: and How the Apoſtle James is to be underſtood in this point; and reconciled with Paul. Here are laid down ſix Solutions: and which is to be preferred, p. 622. to 627.

VI. Whether all Abrahams believing Seed of Jews and Gentiles were not juſtified in the ſame way and manner, as Abraham was? This is Affirmed and Proved by five Arguments, p. 627, 628.

VII. Wherein the Nature of that Juſtification of man before God conſiſts, which from age to age is revealed in the Covenant of Faith. Juſtification deſcribed, p. 629.

In which Deſcription are explained,

1. The ſenſe of the word, Juſtification, p. 630.
2. The Proper Subject of Juſtification, p. 630, 631.
3. The Cauſes of Juſtification, 1. Efficient, Principal and Inſtrumental; 2. Material; 3. Formal; and 4. Final, p. 631. to 635.

Aphoriſm 6. From all that hath been ſaid, 1. This Covenants Properties or Perfections; 2. Additional Excellencies, &c. viz.

General Inferences from the whole of this Covenant. Hence,

1. The Properties or Perfections of this Covenant are obſervable. Eight are explained, p. 635. to 640.
2. The Additional Excellencies of this Fœderal Diſpenſation, beyond thoſe of the two former Covenants are divers, Eight are expreſſed, p. 640, 641.
3. This Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, Agrees with, and Differs from the two former Diſpenſations in divers regards. Agrees in ſeven things. Differs in ſeven things, p. 642. to 645.
4. The wonderful wiſdom of God, in the ſeveral Periods of his Covenant-Diſpenſations and their Gradual out-breakings, is very obſervable, p. 645, 646.
5. How highly was Abraham advanced by Admiſſion into this Covenant with God, beyond his former Un-Covenant condition, p. 646.
6. Abraham and his Seed are made the only Happy people in the world, for all future time and ſucceeding ages, p. 647.
7. The ſame Goſpel was preached, the ſame bleſſed Meſſiah was in that Goſpel Revealed, and the ſame Juſtification and Salvation of Sinners by Faith in that Meſſiah was tendred, in thoſe former as well as in theſe latter ages of the world, p. 647, 648.

Chap. 4.

IV. Of the Diſcovery of the Covenants of Promiſe, in the IV. Obſervable Period of time; viz. From Moſes till David; yea from Moſes till CHRIST, THE DAVID.

An Introduction to the Explication of the SINAI-COVENANT. Wherein note,

1. The Bounds and time of this Sinai-Covenants Adminiſtration, p. 649, 650.
2. The Excellency of this Fœderal Adminiſtration. In ten particulars, p. 651, 652.
3. The Method propounded for handling of it, p. 653.

Aphoriſm 1. The LORD God having brought his People Iſrael out of Egypt, into the Wilderneſs, to go to poſſeſs the Promiſed Land of Canaan, gave the Law to Iſrael by Moſes on Mount Sinai 430. years preciſely after his Promiſe to Abraham, p. 653, &c.

1. That the LORD did then and there give his Law, &c. Proved four waies, p. 654, 655.

2. What

2. What Law that was which God gave to Israel at Mount Sinai. Here note,
   1. The Notation of the word Law, out of the Hebrew and Greek, p. 656,657.
   2. The various Theological Acceptations of the word, LAW, p.657. to 661.
   3. The Distribution of Gods Laws into 1. Moral. 2. Ceremonial. 3. Judicial. Here note,
      1. That this common Distinction hath its foundation in Scripture, p.661, 662.
      2. What the Nature of these three sorts of Laws was, viz.
         1. The Moral Law,
            1. Excels both the other in five regards, p. 662,663.
            2. Hath divers Denominations. Ten are mentioned, p. 663.
            3. May be distributed three wayes; viz.
               1. Into two Tables, p. 664.
               2. Into Ten Words, or Ten Commandments, p.664,665.
               3. Into two Great Commandments; 1. Love to God. 2. Love to our Neighbour.
               A Scheme of the Ten Commandments ranked under these two General Heads, p.665, 666.
         2. The Ceremonial Law,
            1. Was imposed on the Jews till Christ, for six Causes, p. 667.
            2. Hath various Denominations, Hebrew, Greek and Latin, p. 667, 668.
            3. Admits of divers Distributions. Ceremonials were,
               1. Of more publike Concernment; Touching Sacred 1. Places. 2. Utensils for those places. 3. Persons. 4. Things. 5. Times, p. 668. to 673.
               2. Of More Private Concernment; Touching 1. Food. 2. Rayment. 3. Defilements. And 4. Husbandry, p.673,674.
         3. The Judicial Law, Regulating the Jews Commonwealth,
            1. Hath various Denominations, p. 674,675.
            2. May be diversly Distributed, p. 675.
            3. Was imposed, Not on Gentiles, but on Jews, for six Causes, p. 676.
      3. That All these three sorts of Laws were delivered by God to Moses on Mount Sinai for Israel. Proved three wayes, p. 676,677.
3. How, or In what manner God gave this Law to Israel. In eight particulars, p. 677,678.
4. Why God gave this Law to Israel at that time. For three Causes: eight ends, p.678. to 683.
5. Whether Gods People had not the Law before God published it at Mount Sinai, p. 683. to 686.
6. Whether the Law given on Mount Sinai, was not the same with the Law of Nature written in Adams heart before the Fall, and in some measure remaining there still since the Fall. It differs four wayes from the Law of Nature, p. 686. to 689.
7. Whether the Law of God given by Moses on Mount Sinai to Israel, be abrogated to us now under the New Testament, or no? And how far it concerns or obligeth us, if not abrogated? This is resolved in four Positions, p.689, &c.
   1. Posit. The Judgements, or Judicial Laws, were peculiarly given to the Jewish Commonwealth, and expired with it, &c. p. 689.
   2. Posit. The Statutes, or Ceremonial Laws, were given only to Israel as an Infant-Church, obliging them onely till the death of Christ, p.689, 690.
   3. Posit. The Moral Law, or Ten Commandments, In some sence are Abrogated, In some sence Remains still of Force. Here are three Opinions, p. 690,691.
      For unfolding and clearing of this Point: Note,
      1. Certain Distinctions for the Right stating of the Question, p. 691, 692.
      2. The Moral Law is now Abrogated in four Respects. Proved, p.692. to 695.
      3. The Moral Law is not now Abrogated under the New Covenant, but obligeth still, in three Respects. Which is proved by eight Arguments, p. 695. to 701.

4. Posit.

4. Posit. The Moral Law given on Mount Sinai, so far as not Abrogated, is of manifold Excellent and Necessary use Now under the New Testament. And this,
1. More Generally, to all sorts, Regenerate and Unregenerate, that shall come to the knowledge of it: Not for Justification, But seven other wayes, p. 701. to 705.
2. More Specially and Peculiarly,
1. To carnal and unregenerate Persons, it is of Use five ways, p. 705. to 708.
2. To Spiritual and Regenerate Persons, seven wayes, p. 708. to 712.
8. Inferences from this whole Aphorism thus Explained. Hence,
I. God singularly manifested the Glory of his own Perfections, and highly magnified the goodness of his Dispensations to Israel, in giving them his Law on Mount Sinai. His Glory seven wayes. His Goodness of Dispensations many wayes, p. 712. to 714.
II. The Fall of Adam and of all mankind in him miserably defaced the Law of Nature, p. 714.
III. The Fathers and Church before Moses had a much more imperfect Rule of Religion, and Righteousness, then the Fathers and Church had under Moses, p. 714, 715.
IV. As the Church of God is the chief of all Societies on Earth: so the Laws of this Society are the chief of all Laws. In four respects, p. 715.
V. Gods Church and Covenant-People must be a Composed, Regular and Orderly people, guided and governed by the exactest Laws. To this End here are,
1. Gospel-Directions, for Christian right Observing, Performing and Walking according to the Moral Law. In eight particulars, p. 716. to 721.
2. Gospel-Grounds or Motives, inciting to this observance of the Moral Law, p. 721. to 726.
VI. All lawless, loose, licentious People, that reject the Moral Law of God are deeply to be condemned. As,
1. Antinomians in Opinion. Eight Scriptures, wrested by them, vindicated, p. 726. to 733.
2. Antinomians in Practice. Upon four grounds blame-worthy, p. 733.
Aphorism 2. God gave the Law by Moses to Israel, from Mount Sinai, as a Covenant: and that, Not as a Covenant of works; Nor as a Mixt Covenant of Works and Grace: Nor as a Covenant Subservient to the Covenant of Grace: But as a Covenant of Faith, p. 734, &c.
Here consider four things for clearing this; viz.
1. That the Law given on Mount Sinai, was given as a Covenant to Israel, For,
1. The Name of Covenant is often given to that Law, p. 734, 735.
2. The Nature of a Covenant, was in that Law, as then Dispensed, p. 736, 737.
2. What Law it was, which was given as a Covenant at Mount Sinai, p. 737, 738.
3. What sort of Covenant this Law was. Four Opinions, p. 738. &c.
1. Not as a Covenant of Works. For seven Reasons, p. 739. to 745.
2. Not as a Mixt Covenant, Partly of Works; Partly of Grace, p. 745. to 748.
3. Not as a Subservient Covenant to the Covenant of Grace. Many Exceptions, More General, and More Particular, opposing this Opinion, p. 748. to 753.
4. But as a Covenant of Grace or Faith, though dispensed in an Unusual Way, p. 753. &c.
Here note,
1. That, this Sinai-Covenant was Dispensed most unusually, In ten respects, p. 754, 755.
2. That this Unusual way, was most Fit to that Time and people: and this in seven respects, p. 755. to 757.
3. That notwithstanding, This Covenant was given as a Covenant of Faith. Seven Arguments, p. 757. to 764.
4. Seven grand Objections to the Contrary, Answered. p. 764, to 779.
4. The LORD gave this Covenant-Law from Mount Sinai by Moses to Israel, p. 779.
5. Inferences. Hence,

I. Gods giving of his Law to Israel at Mount Sinai, was an act of his singular grace and favour towards Israel, p. 780.

II. The Sinai-Covenant, being a Covenant of Faith, not only Revealed Christ, but discovered him with some further Manifestation then did the fore-going Covenants. In his 1. Decent. 2. Person. 3. Office. 4. States wherein he executed his Office, p. 781. to 784.

III. Gods Israel of old was saved by the same CHRIST under the Sinai-Covenant, whereby the Israel of God is now saved under the Sion Covenant, p. 784, 785.

IV. The Sinai-Covenant intended not sinners Justification in the sight of God by Works: but only by Faith in Jesus Christ. p. 786. to 788.

V. The Sinai-Law was Israels Gospel, p. 788.

VI. The many misapprehensions about this Sinai-Administration, especially that it should be given as a Covenant of Works, are justly to be condemned, p. 789.

VII. They that would rightly understand the Sinai-Covenant, must look upon it with an Evangelical eye, p. 789.

Aphorism 3. The Confederates, or Fœderate Parties to this Sinai-Covenant, were, God and Israel with their Posterity, &c. Here note,

1. That, God, and Israel, with their Posterity, were Fœderates in this Covenant, p. 790, 791.

2. These were Confederates in these Notions, viz.

1. God,
   1. As JEHOVAH. What this implyes, p. 792, 793.
   2. As Israels Covenant-God, p. 793, 794.
   3. As Israels Redeemer, p. 794.
   4. As Israels Law-giver, p. 795.
   5. As Israels endeared Husband, p. 795, 796.
2. Israel with their Posterity,
   1. As Abrahams Seed in Covenant with God, p. 796.
   2. As the Lords Redeemed, p. 797.
   3. As Gods espoused People, p. 797.
   4. As heirs of Gods Promises, though under age, and going on to receive some part of the Promised Inheritance, p. 798.

3. Inferences seven from the whole of this Aphorism, p. 798, 799.

Aphorism 4. The Subject-Matter, or Substance of this Sinai-Covenant, agreed upon by God and Israel, the Parties to this Covenant, were, 1. On Gods part, certain Covenant Mercies Promised, &c. 2. On Israels part, certain Covenant Duties required and restipulated, &c. p. 800.

I. God on his part promised these great things especially, viz.

1. To be a God to them and to their Posterity. Here; 1. That God Promised this to them. 2. In whom he would be their God. 3. What it implyes, To be a God to them. 4. Why he promised to be their God. 5. Inferences, p. 800. to 805.
2. To raise up to Israel CHRIST a Mediator and Saviour. 1. That, &c. 2. Why. And 3. Inferences, seven thereupon, p. 805. to 808.
3. To give them the Spirit of God and of CHRIST. Here, 1. That God promised his Spirit: is proved by five Reasons. 2. That in John 7. 37, 38, 39. is reconciled. And 3. Inferences four deduced, p. 808. to 812.
4. To bestow upon them many Temporal Outward Mercies. Here, 1. That, &c. 2. Why God promised such Temporals. Five Reasons. 3. In what Notion such Temporals were promised: As Temporals, or as Types of Spirituals and Eternals. Inferences, p. 812. to 815.
5. To confer upon them many spiritual Blessings in Christ; viz. these seven especially;
   1. Gods special Acceptation of them above all people:

1. As his Segullah, or Peculiar-Treasure, in ten respects, p. 815. to 820.
2. As a Kingdom of Priests to God. How? p. 820.
3. As an Holy Nation: Three waies, p. 821.
True Believers also are,
1. Kings to God: in nine regards, p. 822.
2. Priests to God: in six respects, p. 822.
3. An Holy Nation: seven waies, p. 823.
4. A Peculiar-Treasure to God above all people: in twelve respects, p. 823. to 825.
2. Gods Sanctification of the People Israel, under Heart-Circumcision: in seven Particulars resembling corporal Circumcision, p. 825. to 828.
3. Gods Justification of Israel by Faith in Jesus Christ Promised four waies, p. 828. to 831.
4. Gods furnishing of Israel with ability to observe and keep his Covenant, p. 831, 832.
5. Gods chusing out a Place for his name, and publike worship in Canaan, &c. p. 832. to 834.
6. Gods glorious Presence and Habitation among them in his Tabernacle and Temple: which implyed seven excellent Blessings, p. 834. to 837.
7. God promised to furnish them with eminency of Church enjoyments above all other People. Seven Inferences from these Promises of Spirituals, p. 837. to 841.
6. To crown Israel at last with Eternals. Proved by six Arguments. Two Inferences, p. 841. to 846.
II. Israel, &c. on their Part Restipulated certain Covenant-Duties. As, these three, viz.
1. To be a Covenant-People to God. Here note,
1. That God required this, and Israel Restipulated it: Proved five waies, p. 846, 847, &c.
2. What it implyes; To be a Covenant-People to God, viz.
1. To be his Covenant-People solely and only, 1. Not sins. 2. Not the worlds. 3. Not Satans. 4. Not their own, p. 848. to 850.
2. To be his by Fœderal Profession and Denomination, p. 850, &c.
3. To be his Covenant-people in CHRIST, p. 851.
4. To be his Covenant-people in all Covenant-Relations, p. 851.
5. To be his Covenant-people wholly, according to all Covenant-obligations to himself. 1. In all we are. 2. In all we have. 3. In all we can do, or procure. 4. In all we can undergo or endure, for God, p. 852. to 857.
3. Why it was requisite Israel should be such a Covenant-people to God. Six Reasons, p. 857. to 859.
4. Inferences. Hence,
1. How great Dignity, Advantage and Duty did God cast upon Israel, in bringing them into Covenant with himself at Mount Sinai! p. 859, 860.
2. Its very plain, That a great part of Israel came utterly short of their Covenant-Duty towards God, p. 860.
3. The same great Covenant-Duty laid on old Israel by the Sinai-Covenant, is imposed also upon the New Israel by the New Covenant, p. 861.
4. One special way to discover whether a People be in Covenant with God, is to examine and try whether they be the Covenant-People of God inwardly and savingly. Here twelve Evidences of being such, p. 861, 862.
5. Let all that would approve themselves to be in Covenant with God, strive to become the People of God in Christ by believing, p. 862.
2. To Keep and Perform this Covenant of God entirely, p. 862, 863.
1. By True Faith in Jesus Christ. Here note,

1. What

1. What true Faith in Jesus Christ is, p. 863, 864.
2. That true Faith in Christ was required of Israel by God for the keeping and performance of this Covenant. This is evidenced by seven Arguments, p. 864. to 868.
3. How true Faith in Christ was required in this Sinai-Covenant, p. 868, 869.
4. Seven Inferences hence. Where, How the Law is not of Faith, p. 869. to 872.

2. By sincere, entire, constant Obedience. Here note,
   1. What is meant by such Obedience, p. 872.
   2. That God required, and Israel Restipulated such sincere, entire and constant obedience in all good works. Proved five waies, p. 872, 873.
   3. How, and in what Notion such sincere, entire and constant obedience was required in this Sinai-Covenant. Resolved, 1. Generally. 2. Particularly, in five particulars, p. 874, 875.
   4. What Rule God gave Israel for Regulating, Guiding, Bounding and Ordering of their Obedience, which he conditioned for in this Covenant, viz. The whole Covenant it self, especially The X. Commandments was their Rule, p. 876. Now here are at large laid down and explicated, ☞ xvii. General Rules for the right understanding and keeping of The X. Commandments. To be diligently considered, p. 877. to 891.

In the second of which Rules is shewed, How many waies we are in danger of having Fellowship with others in their sins, 1. Before; 2. In; 3. After their Acts of sinning, p. 881, 882.

   5. Inferences seven from this their Duty of restipulated Obedience, p. 891. to 896.

3. To repent and return again to the Lord their God in case of any failing, either in being his Covenant-people, Or in keeping his Covenant by true Faith and Obedience. Here note,
   1. What Repentance is. Here, 1. The Sorts. 2. The Nature of it, p. 896, 897.
   2. That God in this Sinai-Covenant, explicitly, or at least implicitly, conditioned with Israel, their Repentance and returning again unto him, in case of any failings or offences against his Covenant. Evinced by seven particulars, p. 897. to 900.
   3. Inferences seven from this particular Duty of Repentance, p. 900, 901.

Aphorism 5. The Form of Gods Covenant with Israel and their Seed at Mount Sinai, consisted, More Inwardly and Essentially, in the mutual Covenant Agreement and Obligation betwixt the Fœderates, God and Israel: More Outwardly and Accidentally, In the manner of this Sinai-Covenants first Manifestation, Establishment, and After-Administration, p. 902, &c.

1. The More Inward and Essential Form, in the Fœderates mutual Agreement, &c. p. 902, 903.
2. The More Outward and Accidental Form: is considered,
   1. More Generally. Where nine things very observable, p. 903. to 905.
   2. More Particularly, Here

☞ 1. The Form of Gods first manifestation of this Sinai-Covenant to, and establishment of it with Israel, is represented according to the plain Series and Order of the History, in VIII. Particulars at large, laying open most evidently the Nature of this Sinai-Covenant, p. 905. to 921.

Inferences hence,
   1. The Law-giver is most glorious, p. 922.
   2. The Law, the Moral Law, is most excellent, in [1.] Authority, [2.] Purity, [3.] Equity, [4.] Extent, [5.] Spiritualness, [6.] Durableness, and [7.] Outward Glory, p. 922, 923.
   3. Lapsed sinners are not able to endure the voice of God in his Law immediately, p. 923, 924.

4. The Law was so given from God on Mount Sinai, as might best set forth the Necessity and Sufficiency of Christ, and bring Sinners to him, p. 924, &c.
5. The Lord is well pleased, when sinners, sensible of their own inability to endure God and his Law immediately, do flie out of themselves to a Mediator, p. 925.
6. The Law promulged on Mount Sinai, was given to Israel as a Covenant, p. 925.
7. The Law on Mount Sinai, though seemingly given as a Covenant of Works, yet was really given and intended as a Covenant of Faith, p. 925, 926.
8. The Sinai-Law and Covenant was dispensed far otherwise then the New Covenant, &c. p. 927.
9. Lapsed sinners, though brought into a Covenant of Faith, yet of themselves are not able to keep that Covenant, by Faith and Obedience, &c. p. 927.
10. Though Gods Covenant-people sometimes fail on their part in Covenant-Performances, yet upon their Repentance God for the Mediators sake pardoneth their sins graciously, and reneweth his Covenant with them, p. 927.

2. The Form or Manner of this Sinai-Covenants ensuing Administration, after it was Manifested and established; was,
1. With much External glory: Manifested six waies, p. 928, 929.
2. With Great Darkness and Obscurity upon all this Outward Glory, p. 929.
3. With a servile and burdensom Pædagogy. In eight Particulars, p. 929. to 932.
4. With a visible Ministry, &c. 1. Ordinary. 2. Extraordinary, p. 932, 933.
5. With Universal Reference to the whole National Church of the Jews, &c. p. 933, 934.
6. With a Distinctive differencing of the Jewish Church from all other people and Societies on earth, p. 934.
7. With Israel as Gods peculiar Common-wealth also, as well as his peculiar and only Church, p. 935.

Inferences seven from this form of Administration, briefly, p. 935. to 937.

Aphorism 6. The End or intended Scope of Gods Covenant, with Israel and their Seed, from Mount Sinai, was Gods fuller Revealing of JESUS CHRIST the Promised Saviour of sinners, for the greater furtherance of Israels present and future happiness, and of his own wonderful glory, p. 937, &c.

1. The more immediate End, The fuller Revealing of Jesus Christ, &c. Proved five waies, p. 938. to 940.
2. The more mediate End, 1. Less principal, Israels Happiness. 2. Principal, Gods glory in his [1.] Free-grace, [2.] Goodness, [3.] Wisdom, [4.] Providence, [5.] Truth, [6.] Patience, and [7.] Power. Seven Inferences from all, p. 940. to 945.

Aphorism 7. From this whole fore-going Discourse touching this Sinai-Covenant, we may easily discern and conclude, &c. p. 945, 946, &c.

General Corollaries or Inferences from this whole Discourse about the Sinai-Covenant.

Hence,

I. The Law given at Mount Sinai, was given to Israel as a Covenant; and that, not a Covenant of Works, but of Faith, p. 946, &c.
II. This Covenant from Mount Sinai, was at first Manifested, and afterwards Administred, very Mysteriously, and somewhat Extraordinarily, p. 947, 948.

III. Gods

III. Gods Covenant of Works hath its eminent accomplishment in the Covenant of Faith, p. 948.

IV. The Properties of this Sinai-Covenant. It is, 1. Evangelical. 2. Spiritual. 3. Political. 4. Distinctive. 5. Preceptive. 6. Testamentary. 7. Obscure. 8. Servile. 9. Holy. 10. Just. 11. Good. 12. Wise. 13. Exact and Perfect. 14. Sure and Faithfull. 15. Comfortable. 16. Perpetuall, p. 949. to 954.

V. This Sinai-Covenant, in many things Agrees with, in many other things Disagrees from, and in some things excells, All the former Covenants.

1. Agrees with the three former Covenants, in seven respects, p. 954, &c.

2. Differs from these three fore-going Covenants, in seven other regards, p. 955. to 960.

3. Excels them all three in regard of Additionals annexed, seven waies, p. 960. to 964.

VI. This Sinai-Covenant was Israels eminent Priviledge, although they were constantly held under it in a very servile condition. Their Priviledge six waies, p. 964, &c.

VII. This Sinai-Covenant was full of CHRIST, therein eminently revealed. As is evident by 1. The Introduction to it; 2. Preface of this Covenant; 3. Commandments, the summe of the Covenant; 4. Mercies Promised; 5. Promulgation of it; 6. Sanction and Dedication of it; 7. Gods gracious Renewing of it, and of the Tables; 8. And Additionals annexed, especially the whole body of the Ceremonials, of which Jesus Christ was the Truth, and principal intended mysterie, p. 966. to 969.

☞ Here at large is evidenced, How the whole Body of CEREMONIALS, viz.

Sacred 1. Places; 2. Utensils; 3. Persons; 4. Things; 5. Times; were, every of them in many respects, Types of Christ, and full of CHRIST, p. 969. to 987.

VIII. This Sinai-Covenant, the Old Testament, was pure Gospel, as well as the New: For substance revealing (though with different circumstances) to lapsed sinners, one and the self same way of Eternal Life and Salvation, by Jesus CHRIST through Faith, p. 987.

IX. The diligent study and solid understanding of the Old Testament, as well as of the New, is very necessary and advantagious to all Christians, p. 987, 988.

Chap. 5.

V. OF the Discovery, &c. of the Covenants of Promise, in the V. Noted Period of Time: viz. From David, till the Babylonish Captivity.

Introductory Position. When God was pleased to change Israels civil Rules from Judges to Kings, and from Kings to Governors (the Old-Testament administration still standing in force,) he notably Amplified this Sinai-Covenant, or Old Testament, by other two Covenants of Promise in CHRIST, viz. 1. His Covenant with David and his seed. 2. His Covenant with the Jews under the Babylonish captivity. This Position is Explained and Confirmed in five branches of it. With five Inferences, p. 989, to 995.

Aphorism 1. The Covenant which God made with DAVID and his SEED, was a Covenant of Faith in Jesus Christ promised. Here note,

1. Who this David was with whom this Covenant was made. David is at large Described, by his 1. Name. 2. Descent. 3. Qualifications. 4. Offices, Regal and Prophetical. 5. Renowned Acts. 6. Failings or Miscarriages. 7. Penitential Recoveries. 8. Afflictions. And 9. Death, p. 995. to 1000.

2. That, God made a Covenant with this David and his Seed. Proved three wayes, p. 1000.

3. That this Covenant made with David and his Seed, was a Covenant of faith in ℣ JESUS CHRIST Promiſed. Evidenced four wayes. Three Inferences, p. 1001, &c.

Aphoriſm 2. The Fœderates or Parties to this Covenant were, On the one hand God, As, &c. On the other hand David and his Seed, &c.

1. God was the chief Fœderate, 1. As the LORD of Hoaſts. 2. As the God of Iſrael, and Rock of Iſrael. 3. As a Father to David and his Seed. 4. As a God to David, 5. As the Rock of Davids Salvation, p. 1004. to 1006.

2. David and his Seed, the Secondary Fœderates. God Covenanted,

1. With David: As 1. A Mighty one; 2. Gods Elect; 3. Gods Servant; 4. Gods Annoynted King; 5. His Firſt-born: in all which Five Chriſt is chiefly typed out, p. 1006, &c.

2. With Davids Seed: As, 1. Gods Son, 2. Gods King for ever. Chiefly intending Chriſt, p. 1007, &c.

Inferences three. Hence, p. 1008, &c.

Aphoriſm 3. The Impulſive Cauſe moving God to make this Covenant with David and his Seed, was his Rich Grace and Mercy in ℣ JESUS CHRIST; upon Occaſion of Gods changing Iſraels Governours from Judges to Kings, and of King Davids holy Purpoſes of building an Houſe or Temple for the Lord his God at Jeruſalem. Here note,

1. The Impulſive or Moving Cauſe of this Covenant, was twofold; viz.

1. Inward. Gods own Rich Grace and Mercy, p. 1010.

2. Outward. ℣ JESUS CHRIST and his merit, p. 1011, 1012.

2. The Occaſion of this Covenant, 1. Mediate; Gods changing Iſraels Governours, &c.

2. Immediate; Davids Purpoſe, &c. Three Inferences from all, p. 1012, to 1015.

Aphoriſm 4. The Subſtance or Subject-Matter of Gods Covenant with David and his Seed, conſiſted; 1. On Gods part, In many eminent Mercies and Bleſſings Promiſed, &c. 2. On the part of David and his Seed, In the Covenant Duties conditioned and reſtipulated, &c. p. 1015, &c.

1. Mercies or Bleſſings Promiſed on Gods part, were of three Concernments; viz.

1. Concerning DAVID himſelf. As,

1. Gods ſubduing all his Enemies, clothing them with Shame and Confuſion. This was Promiſed and Performed, 1. Literally to David. 2. Spiritually to Chriſt, p. 1016, 1017.

2. Gods eſtabliſhing and ſtrengthening David in his Kingdom, that his foes might be brought under. Accompliſhed, 1. In David. 2. In Chriſt, p. 1017.

3. Gods Increaſing and Enlargement of Davids Glory, Proſperity, Power, and Dominion Accompliſhed; 1. Much in David. 2. More in Solomon. 3. Moſt in Chriſt, p. 1018. to 1020.

4. Gods ſweet Covenant-Relations to David. Viz. That he would be,

1. Davids Father. This implyed 1. Seven Bleſſings from God to David. 2. Seven Duties from David to God, p. 1020. to 1023.

2. Davids God, p. 1023, &c.

3. Davids Rock of Salvation. 1. God ſaves three wayes. 2. David anſwerably demeaned himſelf towards God four wayes, p. 1024.

5. Gods fulfilling of Davids Dayes. Long-life a Mercy three wayes, p. 1024, &c.

6. Gods Building David an Houſe, making it powerful and proſperous, eſpecially by raiſing up his Seed to ſit upon his Throne for ever. This an High mercy. Accompliſhed, 1. Immediately, in Davids ordinary ſeed. 2. Mediately and chiefly in his Extraordinary Seed, ℣ JESUS CHRIST. This was Davids Great Comfort, as in his laſt words is evident, p. 1025. to 1030.

7. The Perpetuity and Stability of Gods Covenant and Fœderal Mercy to David, p. 1030, 1031.

2. Concerning Davids Seed. As theſe four, All which had their ſpecial Accompliſhmen t in Chriſt, viz. 1. That

1. That God would be a Father to Davids Seed, & he should be his Son, p. 1031, 1032.
2. That Davids Seed should build God an House. The Temple a Type of the Church and of Believers, in six Particulars, p. 1032. to 1035.
3. That God would Establish his Seed after him in his Kingdom and Throne for ever, p. 1035, &c.
4. That God would not utterly take away his Covenant-Faithfulness and loving kindness from his Seed, no not in case of their iniquity, but chastize their sinfull miscarriages with the Rod of men. Here five Eminent Advantages to Gods people by his Chastisements are unfolded, p. 1037. to 1043.

3. Concerning the People of Israel, the Subjects of King David and of his Royal Seed. As,
1. Gods Habitation in Sion for ever. For clearing of this blessing note,
1. The Connexion of this Promise with the Promise fore-going, p. 1043, 1044.
2. What place is intended by Sion: Literally, and Mystically, p. 1044.
3. How God did dwell in Sion. Gods Presence and Habitation is threefold. Here are disclosed eight sweet Priviledges of Gods Presence and Residence, p. 1045, 1046.
4. Why God would thus dwell in Sion, p. 1046.
5. In what sense God said of Sion, This is my Rest for ever; He having long since thence removed his Habitation for the Sins of the Jews. Here ten Sorts of sins which provoke God to Depart from a People, p. 1046. to 1048.
2. The Peaceable and Secure Establishment of Israel, the Subjects of King David, and of his Royal Seed, in the Land of Canaan. This hath three branches, p. 1048. to 1050.
3. Their Singular Prosperity both in Temporals and Spirituals, p. 1050. to 1052.

2. Duties Conditioned, Required and Restipulated from David and his Seed to God, were of two sorts especially, viz.
1. Their Keeping of Gods Covenant and Testimony, &c. in five Particulars, p. 1052. to 1055.
2. Their being Just in their Dominion and Royal Government, Ruling also piously and religiously, p. 1055.
1. David and his Seed must Rule over Israel Righteously. They must be,
1. Just in their Persons. And this in seven respects, p. 1055, 1056.
2. Just in their office of Ruling, viz. 1. Justly Acquiring it. 2. Justly Executing it: Partly in Protection of Subjects. Partly in Actual Government. And both several wayes, p. 1056, 1057.
2. David and his Seed must Rule Religiously, in the Fear of God. 1. The Fear of God denotes five things. 2. To Rule in the Fear of God comprizeth many excellent things: most requisite to all good Rulers, p. 1058. to 1060.
Reasons for their Ruling thus, Righteously and Religiously, p. 1060.
Ruling Righteously and Religiously how it was Performed by 1. David, 2. Solomon, And 3. Christ. With seven Inferences from the whole, p. 1060. to 1065.

Aphorism 5. The Form of Gods Covenant with David and his Seed, was either; Inward and essential in the Mutual Obligation between the Fœderates: Or Outward and Accidental, In the Manifestation, Confirmation and Administration of this Covenant, p. 1065, &c.
1. The Inward essential Form, stands in the Fœderates reciprocal obligation, p. 1065.
2. The Outward Accidental Form, consists in three things, viz. Gods,
1. Manifestation of this Covenant by vision. Here of visions, Their Sorts and several Acceptations in Scripture, p. 1065, 1066.
2. Confirmation of this Covenant, by 1. Ratifying Promises. 2. His Sacred Oath. 3. Explanatory Repetitions. 4. Actual Accomplishments, p. 1066, 1067.
3. Administration of this Covenant. In effect the same with that of the Sinai-Covenant: yet with four Perfective Alterations, Four Inferences from all, p. 1067, 1068.

Aphorism 6. The End or intended Scope of God in this Covenant was: Immediately, Some more

more Peculiar Revelation of Jesus Christ. Mediately, The furtherance of the Happiness of David, of his Seed, and of their subjects in Christ; as also the singular Advancement of the Glory of God. This is briefly explained: with three Inferences, p. 1069. to 1071.

Aphorism 7. From this whole Discourse about Gods Covenant with David and his seed, These General Inferences result, viz.

I. That Gods Covenant with David and his Seed was a very Princely and Royal Covenant, p. 1071, &c.

II. That King David and his Royal Seed, especially Solomon, were eminent Types of JESUS CHRIST, p. 1072, &c.

1. DAVID was a Type of Christ: 1. In his person three waies. 2. In his office many waies. 3. In his condition and state seven waies. 4. In his Acts or Works done by him seven waies, p. 1073. to 1076.

2. SOLOMON was also a Type of CHRIST: 1. In his Person three waies. 2. In his office, Prophetical, and Kingly, divers waies. 3. In his condition, three waies. 4. In his Acts three waies, p. 1076. to 1078.

III. Hence, we may clearly take notice, what the Properties of this Covenant are, viz. It is, 1. Gratuitous. 2. Evangelical. 3. Mixt. 4. Ordered in all things. 5. Sure and Faithful. 6. Everlasting. 7. Comfortable, p. 1078. to 1081.

IV. Hence, See what Agreement or Disagreement this Covenant hath, with, or from all former Covenants. 1. Agrees in seven Particulars. 2. Differs in four things, p. 1081, &c.

V. Hence, Its evident, That in this Covenant much of CHRIST was revealed to David and his Seed: Yea so much, that both David and Solomon knew and spake much of Christ in their Sacred writings. Many Particulars, p. 1083. to 1086.

Chap. 6.

VI. Of the Discovery, &c. of Gods Covenants of Promise in the VI. Noted Period of Time, viz. From the Babylonish captivity till the Death of the blessed MESSIAH Jesus Christ.

The Preface. 1. Of this Covenants Duration. 2. Of the Difference thereof from Davids, in seven particulars. 3. The Order of handling it, p. 1086. to 1088.

Aphorism 1. Upon Occasion of Gods own Peoples sad captivity in Babylon, the LORD graciously renewed his Covenant with them, even his Covenant of Faith in the Promised Messiah. In this Aphorism are five Particulars considerable, p. 1088, &c.

1. The Author of this Covenant, was the LORD God. By three Prophets, p. 1089, &c.

2. the Occasion of this Covenant was the sad captivity of Gods People of Judah and Jerusalem, in Babylon. Here,

1. What Babylon this was wherein they were captivated. Babylon is distributed, p. 1090, 1091.

2. When, and How long they were captivated there, p. 1092.

3. What were the causes of this their sad captivity there. 1. Provoking causes seven. 2. Final cause, their good, p. 1092.

4. Whilest they were under this captivity, God took occasion to reveal this Covenant to them. And why? viz. chiefly for seven causes, p. 1093. to 1096.

3. The Impulsive causes of this Covenant, Gods meer Grace in Jesus Christ, p. 1096.

4. The Fœderates, I. God, 1. As the LORD God. 2. As the LORD the God of Israel. 3. As their Redeemer. II. The Captives of Judah and Jerusalem, &c. p. 1096, 1097.

5. The Nature of this Covenant of God with his afflicted Captives. It was,

1. A Covenant of Faith in Christ, not of Works. Proved four waies, p. 1097, 1098.

2. A Covenant of Promise, in Christ Promised, and as then not exhibited, p. 1098, 1099.

Inferences. Hence,

1. This Covenant is [1] Divine : [2] Gratuitous : [3] Faithful : And [4] Holy ; p. 1099, &c.
2. How great the condescention of the Creator, how high the exaltation of the creature, when the God of heaven and his Captives, &c. become Confederates ! p. 1100.
3. Jesus Christ and the Gospel of sinners salvation in him through Faith, was preached to the Jews in their captivity, p. 1101.
4. God neither forsakes nor forgets his Covenant-people in their deepest distresses, p. 1101.
5. In greatest extremities of Tribulation, Gods Covenant of Faith in Christ yields sweetest consolation, p. 1102, 1103.
6. Though Gods People by their sins turn their Mercies into Miseries : yet God alone of his wisdom and goodness turns those Miseries into Mercies, p. 1103.
7. Gods Covenant with his Captive-Jews, is useful to Gods people now under the New Covenant, p. 1103.

Aphorism 2. The Subject-matter or substance of Gods Covenant with his captive people in Babylon, consisted ; 1. In many excellent Covenant-Mercies or Blessings Promised to them, on Gods part, &c. 2. In sundry Covenant-Duties required and restipulated from them to God, on their part, &c. p. 1104, &c.

I. Mercies Promised to them on Gods Part, viz.

1. His raising up the MESSIAH, viz. JESUS CHRIST unto them :
   1. As their Covenant-Redeemer, p. 1105, 1106.
   2. As the Sure Mercies of David, whereon Gods everlasting Covenant is founded, p. 1107, &c.
   3. As a Branch of Righteousness growing up to David, and a plant of Renown, &c. p. 1108.
   4. As DAVID their Shepherd, Prince and King for ever, p. 1109, 1110.
2. His Redeeming them out of Babylons Captivity, and bringing them into their own Land. Here note four things, p. 1110, &c.
   1. The variety of Promised Mercies appertaining to this eminent Mercy, viz.
      1. To Remove impediments that might hinder their Return, p. 1112.
      2. To Plant them firmly in their own Land, &c. p. 1113.
      3. To make them dwell safely and securely in their own Land, p. 1113.
      4. To unite them into one Nation and Kingdom in their Land after their return, p. 1113, &c.
      5. To multiply them in the Land of Canaan, wherein he would place them, p. 1115.
      6. To bless and crown with a confluence of Prosperity and Glory, Temporal and Spiritual, p. 1116, &c.
      7. To cause them to dwell in their own Land under DAVID their Prince for ever, p. 1118.
   2. The ten Arguments whereby God perswades the Captives of their certain Return, p. 1118, 1119.
   3. The exact accomplishment of this great Mercy, p. 1120, 1121.
   4. The Mysterie of Gods Spiritual Redemption of his Elect, &c. under this their Temporal Redemption from Babylon. Evinced seven waies, p. 1121. to 1125.
3. His cleansing of them, when Redeemed out of Babylon from all their Spiritual Defilements : from all their Idols, Detestable things, and Transgressions, p. 1125, &c.
4. His Putting his Spirit within them, for new framing and spiritualizing their Heart. Here consider,
   1. More Generally,

1. What

1. What is meant by Gods Spirit. Various Acceptations, p. 1129, 1130.
2. Whether the Jews had not the Spirit till after their Return, &c. p. 1130.
2. More Particularly. Seven Influences, Fruits or Effects of the Spirit, viz.
1. Newneſs of Heart and Spirit. For clearing this, note,
1. What is meant by Heart and Spirit, p. 1131, &c.
2. What is meant by a New Heart, and New Spirit. 1. A thing is in Scripture ſtiled New, five waies. 2. Newneſs of Heart, &c. implyes, Generally five things: Particularly ſix things, p. 1132. to 1136.
3. Whether God alone give this New heart, and put this New Spirit into his People. Reſolved in three Poſitions, and the grounds thereof, p. 1136. to 1141.
4. Why the Lord Promiſeth to give this New Heart, &c. Four Reaſons, p. 1141.
5. How this New Heart, &c. may be Diſcovered. Seven waies, p. 1141, 1142.
2. An Heart knowing the LORD. Here, 1. The Author. 2. Nature of it, p. 1142. to 1145.

12. Gods Covenant in Christ is an Everlasting Covenant, &c. p. 1210.

13. We may clearly take notice of many eminent points of Christian Religion, which are Revealed in and under this Covenant. Nine points instanced, p. 1211, 1212.

Aphorism 3. The Form of Gods Covenant with his Captive people the Jews, was; Inwardly, The mutual Obligation of the Fœderates one to another. Outwardly, The manner of this Covenants Manifestation, Confirmation, and Administration.

1. Inward Form, &c. p. 1212.

2. Outward Form. Consisting in this Covenants

1. Manifestation to the Captives, by three Prophets. Why by men: three Reasons, p. 1212, &c.

2. Confirmation, 1. By Exegetical Repetitions of it. 2. By divers Illustrating Symboles. 3. By ratifying Promises. 4. By Gods Sacred Oath, p. 1213, 1214.

3. Administration. For substance the same with that of the Sinai Covenant: but Raised above it by five Perfective Alterations, p. 1214, 1215.

Inferences six from this Aphorism, p. 1216.

Aphorism 4. Gods End and intended Scope in this Covenant, &c. was, More Immediately, a further Discovery of the Promised Messiah Jesus Christ: More Mediately, The promoting of their present Consolation and future Salvation; and the Advancement of Gods glory in all, p. 1217, &c.

1. Immediately; Christ is discovered here more fully in his 1. Person. 2. Office. 3. Appearing in Humane flesh, p. 1217, 1218.
2. Mediately. 1. Their present Consolation, and future Salvation. 2. Gods glory five waies. Here four Inferences from this Aphorism, p. 1218. to 1221.
Aphorism 5. From all that hath been proved concerning this Covenant with the Captive-Jews, these things are evident, &c. General Inferences.
I. This Covenant with the Captives was a Covenant of Faith, not of Works, p. 1221.
II. The substance of Gods Covenants of Faith was but one, though circumstances divers, p. 1222.
III. God may change the Outward condition of his People, and yet not change the Substance of his Covenant with his People, p. 1222.
IV. Davids Royal Seed and Diadem chiefly had their Continuance and Perpetuity in Christ, p. 1222.
V. As Gods Covenant with David was peculiarly the Royal Covenant: so this with the Captives was the Redeeming or Uncaptivating Covenant, p. 1223.
VI. Gods sweetest Consolations are usually showred on his People in their sharpest Tribulations, p. 1223, &c.
VII. Hence it is very evident what the Properties and Excellent Perfections of this Covenant are. Ten are mentioned, and explained, p. 1224, 1225.
VIII. The Agreement and Disagreement of this, with, or from, foregoing Covenants, p. 1225.
IX. The Preheminencies of this, beyond the former Covenants. Seven waies, p. 1225, 1226.
X. This Covenant and the Promises thereof approach most near (as in time, so in their excellent, clear, full, heavenly, spiritual Nature) to the New Covenant, and the Promises thereof, p. 1226, 1227.

BOOK IV.

Of Gods COVENANT OF PERFORMANCE, in JESUS CHRIST, actually Performed and Exhibited, viz. THE NEW COVENANT.

Chap. 1.

Of the Discovery and Administration of the New Covenant in the VII. and last most noted Period of Time, viz. from the Death of Jesus Christ, till the End of the world.
Here, 1. The words of the New Covenant. 2. The Order propounded in handling it, p. 1229. to 1232.
Aphorism 1. The Terms, Bounds or Limits of time for and during which the New Covenant became, and remains of force, are especially from the Death of our Lord and only Saviour JESUS CHRIST, until the End of the world. This is,
1. Explained, As to the beginning of the New Covenant, p. 1232. to 1234.
2. Confirmed, As to both the Term from which, and to which, viz.
1. That the New Covenant Properly Began at and about the Death of Jesus Christ. Evinced by four grounds, p. 1234, &c.
2. That the New Covenant shall continue in force till the End of the world. Five Reasons, p. 1235. to 1237.
Inferences.

Inferences. Hence,

I. The 1. Inchoation, 2. Duration, and 3. Determination of the New Covenant, was, is, and shall be of all other most excellent and illustrious. Evidenced in many particulars, p. 1237. to 1239.

II. None can certainly define or punctually determine how long the space for the New Covenants Duration shall be, p. 1239, 1240.

III. The New Covenant is far better then the Old, as in other respects, so in regard of the Date, Duration and Determination thereof, p. 1240.

IV. Believers under the New Covenant, are, in regard of the terms thereof, much more happy, then Believers that lived under any former Covenant-Dispensations, p. 1240, &c.

V. How comfortable may this be both to our selves and all our Christian Posterity, that both we and they from Generation to Generation shall still live under the New Covenant, p. 1241.

VI. In these last times of the world, 1. No Doctrine should be taught, 2. No worship or Practise should be entertained, 3. No future Events, Occurrents or change of things should be expected in the Church of God, which are inconsistent with the New Covenant-Administration, p. 1241 to 1243.

Aphorism 2. The Interval Space or Revolution of time, from the Death of Jesus Christ till the End of the world, during which the New Covenant-Administration continues, is of all other Revolutions or intervals of time, &c. most considerable and remarkable, p. 1243, &c.

1. Hath most Eminent Terms and bounds for its Beginning and Ending. It
   1. Began with the Death of Christ. Most Eminent, 1. In Solemnity; seven wayes. 2. In Dignity. 3. In Efficacy, seven wayes, p. 1244. to 1246.
   2. Shall End at the Day of Judgement. That most eminent, eight wayes, p. 1246.
2. Hath already had the largest Prolongation, p. 1246.
3. Comprizeth in the Circuit and Compass of its Time, the most admirable Events and Occurrents by Divine Dispensation in and to the Church of God. Here, twenty one unparalleld Occurrents are instanced in, p. 1246. to 1251.
4. This Revolution of the New Covenants Continuance approacheth neerest in 1. Contiguity of time, 2. Excellency of Covenant-Administration, and 3. Churches condition under it, unto the supream coelestial Perfection of the Church Triumphant in glory. Two Inferences, p. 1251. to 1253.

Chap. 2.

Of the Names and General Nature of the NEW COVENANT.

Aphorism 1. In Divers respects and Considerations this Covenant is represented to us in Holy Scriptures under variety of Names: Being Denominated,

1. A NEW COVENANT. For seven Reasons laid down at large, p. 1253. to 1260.
2. A NEW TESTAMENT. 1. A Testament, in seven respects. 2. New Testament also for the same Reasons why its called a New Covenant, p. 1260. to 1263.
3. The Second Covenant. In what sense, p. 1263, 1264.
4. A Better Covenant, or Better Testament. For six Reasons, p. 1264, &c.
5. The Everlasting Covenant or Testament, p. 1265.
6. The Ministration far surpassing the Ministration of the Old Testament: and this in nine regards. p. 1265, 1266.

Aphorism 2. The Nature of the New Covenant considered more Generally, may be comprized in this or the like Description, viz. The NEW COVENANT is Gods last and most excellent Expressure of the Covenant of Faith, &c.

The Nature of the New Covenant, according to this Description, stands in seven particulars, p. 1267. to 1269.

Chap. 3.

Of the Author, Occasion and Impulsive Causes of this New Covenant.

Aphorism 1. The LORD God, viz. God the Father, in the Son JESUS CHRIST, by the Holy Ghost, is the sole Efficient Cause or Author of this New Covenant: Promising it of old, Establishing it in fulness of time, and Applying it in due time to his called People, p. 1269, &c.

1. That God the Father, in the Son Jesus Christ, by the Holy Ghost, is sole Author of the New Covenant: is proved by five sorts of Arguments, p. 1270. to 1273.
2. That, Father, Son and Holy Ghost do Act to the Effecting of it three wayes, p. 1273. to 1275.

Aphorism 2. The LORD God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, took Occasion from 1. His own Peoples Afflicted Condition, 2. The Old Testaments Insufficiency, and 3. The Greatness of Mans misery, To Promise, Establish and Apply this New Covenant to them that are Called: 1. Of his meer Grace, 2. In and for the Merit of Jesus Christ. Here,

1. The Occasion is threefold. 1. His own Peoples Afflicted Condition, &c. p. 1275. to 1278.
2. The Impulsive or Moving Causes. Nothing in Jew or Gentile; But,
   1. Inwardly, Gods meer Grace, p. 1278. to 1281.
   2. Outwardly, The Meritorious Mediation of Jesus Christ. Proved three wayes, p. 1281, &c.

Inferences. Hence,

I. The New Covenant thus Authorized and erected, Thus Promised, Established and Applyed by God, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, must needs be an exceeding 1. Wise, 2. Holy, 3. Faithful, 4. Gratuitous, and 5. Righteous Covenant, p. 1282, 1283.

II. The New Covenant is an excellent Antidote against the greatest Adversities & Afflictions of Gods Covenant-People. And this in seven regards, notably, p. 1283. to 1289.

III. The New Covenant Administration far excels that of the old, &c. p. 1289, &c.

Of the Federates, or Parties to this New Covenant, p. 1290, 1291.

Aphorism 1. The Confœderates or Fœderate Parties to the NEW COVENANT, are on the one hand God the LORD, or God, as JEHOVAH, the Principal Party; On the other hand, The House of Israel, and the House of Judah, in CHRIST, the less Principal Party; That is, The Jews, Israel and Judah united, and their Seed; as also the Gentiles that shall be called and their Seed. Here,

1. The Principal Fœderate; God as JEHOVAH, p. 1292.
2. The less Principal Fœderate Party, The House of Israel and House of Judah. Israel, what it imports. House of Israel, and House of Judah, How used in Scripture. These phrases denote, 1. The Jews united; 2. The Gentiles called; 3. The Posterity of both: to be Fœderates with God in this New Covenant, p. 1292. to 1294.
   1. Position. That Israel and Judah, or the House of Israel and Judah; that is, The whole body of the Jews or Iewish Church, united in CHRIST, were first and immediately intended to be Fœderates with God in this New Covenant. Proved by seven Arguments, p. 1294. to 1298.
   2. Posit. That the Gentiles whom afterwards God should call and incorporate into one Church-body with the Jews by Christ, were next intended to be joynt-Fœderates with the Jews in this New Covenant with God. Evinced by seven other Arguments, p. 1298. to 1303.
   3. Posit. That, The Posterity, Seed or Children, both of believing Jews and called Gentiles, are with their Parents, Fœderates in this New Covenant. This Position is for the greater strength and clearness, evinced by six Arguments at large laid down down in Syllogistical Form, p. 1303. to 1321.

Aphorism 2. Hence, 1. The New Covenant is most sure and faithful; 2. Most compleat and comprehensive, &c.

Inferences. Hence,

I. The New Covenant is most sure and faithful, p. 1321.

II. The New Covenant is beyond all other Covenants most compleat, comprehensive and extensive, p. 1321. &c.

III. The New Covenant is to Gods Church and People the most Uniting and Consolidating Covenant of all other. 1. In respect of Israel and Judah. 2. In respect of Jews and Gentiles, p. 1322. to 1324.

IV. The New Covenant beyond all other Covenant-Dispensations is greatest matter of Consolation, Joy and Thankfulness, to the Gentiles, p. 1324.

V. All the Infant-children of New Covenant-Fœderates, professed Believing Jews and Gentiles, being in Covenant with God as well as their Parents, ought to be signed and marked with the First New Covenant-Token, Baptism, as well as their Parents. This Inference is at large confirmed by seven Arguments syllogistically propounded, p. 1324. to 1339.

Chap. 5.

Of the Matter, or Substance of the New Covenant. Where note,

I. The Analytical Explication of the words of the New Covenant laid down by the Apostle, p. 1339. to 1345.

II. Certain Generals to be noted touching the Matter of the New Covenant, as laid down by the Prophet Jeremiah, chap. 31. 31, &c. and the Apostle Paul in Heb. 8. 8, &c. viz.

1. That, the matter of the New Covenant is here set forth very compendiously in words, but most comprehensively in sense. In seven particulars, p. 1345, 1346.

2. That, The whole matter of the New Covenant is represented here only in Promises. Hence five Inferences, p. 1346. to 1349.

3. That, All these New Covenant Promises, in their express terms, run only upon Spirituals. Hence, two Inferences, p. 1349 to 1351.

4. That, These New Covenant-Promises have a sweet Harmony and Correspondency with the Priesthood, Prophecy and Kingship of Christs Mediatory office: In actual Performance of which Promises to us, we also are made unto God, Priests, Prophets and Kings by Jesus Christ. Hence, two Inferences, p. 1351. to 1353.

5. That, The Matter of the New Covenant is so contrived in these Promises, as it may most sweetly and sufficiently remove all the Principal Doubts, Discouragements and Objections, which either a bleeding Heart-wounded sinner, or a distressed Saint, may make against his own salvation. Hence seven Principal Doubts and Objections, about 1. Sin; 2. The wrath of God; 3. Gross Ignorance; 4. The Deadness, Hardness, Deceitfulness and manifold Vileness of their Hearts; 5. The want of Spiritual Abilities, Excellencies and Duties, &c. 6. The Great Distance betwixt them and God, them and Christ; 7. Difficulty and seeming impossibility of Assurance: Are all Removed by consideration of the matter of this New Covenant, as here laid down, p. 1353. to 1365.

6. That, These New Covenant-Promises are so expresst, as virtually to contain in them, The Agreement and Difference betwixt the Old and New Covenant, yea the Preheminencies of the New above the Old, p. 1365, 1366.

7. That, All these New Covenant-Promises are wholly grounded upon the meer grace

grace and good pleasure of Gods will in Jesus Christ alone, p. 1366, &c.

III. The Particular Explication of the Matter of the New Covenant: Consisting, 1. In certain Mercies expresly Promised on Gods part. 2. In certain Duties implicitly Required from, and Restipulated by, the New Covenant-Fœderates unto God, p. 1367, 1368.

Aphorism 1. The Matter of the New Covenant, on Gods part, consists in certain New Covenant-Mercies or Blessings promised by him to his Fœderates, viz. In four great Articles of Agreement in this New Covenant, &c.

1. Article. Of Gods writing his Laws in their Mind and Hearts. Here note,

1. What is here meant by Mind and Hearts. In three branches, p. 1369, 1370.
2. What Laws of God are here intended and promised to be written in their Mind and Heart. Especially his Moral Laws. And that for four Reasons, p. 1370. to 1372.
3. What sort of writing this is, whereby God writes his Laws in his Fœderates Mind and Hearts: and how he writes his Laws therein. Here is declared,
   1. That Gods giving and writing, &c. are two expressions to the same effect, p. 1372, &c.
   2. That God under his New Covenant intends a far more excellent writing of his Laws then ever formerly. Three sorts of Gods writing it, p. 1373, &c.
   3. That Gods writing his Laws in their Mind and Hearts, hath in it three things, viz.
      1. Gods Preparing the Mind and Heart for this writing, as Tables. 1. By Hewing them. 2. By Razing them. 3. By Mollifying them, p. 1374. to 1376.
      2. Gods manner of writing his Laws in Mind and Hearts thus Prepared, four waies, p. 1376, &c.
      3. The consequents and effects of Gods writing his Laws in Mind and Hearts. Here seven are very considerable, p. 1378. to 1383.
   4. Whether Gods Laws were not written in his Peoples Minds and Hearts, before the time of this New Covenant. Resolved, 1. That there was some writing thereof before. But 2. Not such as under this New Covenant, p. 1383. to 1386.
   5. Why the Lord will under the New Covenant thus write his Laws in the Minds and Hearts of his Fœderates. Five Reasons, p. 1386. to 1388.
   6. How we may know, whether God hath thus written his Laws in our Minds and Hearts. By the 1. Antecedents, 2. Manner, and 3. Consequents: in sundry particulars, p. 1388. to 1391.

Inferences. Hence,

1. Gods Moral Law, is the Law of CHRIST, p. 1392.
2. Gods Moral Law is not abolished, but established by his New Covenant, p. 1392, 1393.
3. The New Covenant Agrees with the Old in substance, though they differ in circumstance, &c. p. 1393, &c.
4. The Moral Law is a most excellent Law, p. 1394.
5. Naturally, since and by the Fall of Adam, the Laws of God are obliterated or blotted out of mens Minds and Hearts, p. 1394, 1395.
6. The Renewing of the Mind and Heart, even of the whole soul according to Gods image, &c. Is not a Natural, but a meer Supernatural work; is not at all from man, but wholly from God alone, p. 1395, 1396.
7. God first gives his Laws into the Mind, and then writes them in the Heart, p. 1396.
8. Gods Giving his Laws into our Minds, and writing them in our Hearts, is an eminent and manifold Priviledge. Evidenced in six particulars, and in sundry others under them, p. 1396. to 1398.

9. All

9. All such as would know, whether they be Gods New Covenant-people indeed, &c. should examine whether God hath given his Laws into their Minds, and written them upon their Hearts, p. 1398.

10. Gods sincere New Covenant-people, have above all other People in the world greatest cause to live and walk according to the Moral Laws of God: In that the LORD hath more Excellently and Obligatorily given and written his Laws for them, then for any other. Here, 1. Directions. 2. Motives, p. 1399, 1400.

II. Article. Of Gods Foederates more Excellent and more Universal Knowledge of the Lord, then under the Old Covenant. Here are unfolded,

1. Wherein the Nature of this New Covenant-knowledge more especially consists; viz.

1. In the Excellency of it. Being 1. More Divine; 2. More Spiritual; 3. More Clear; 4. More Evidential; 5. More Compleat; 6. More Efficacious; 7. More Glorious: Then the Old-Covenant-knowledge, p. 1401. to 1410.

2. In the Extensiveness of it. Yet here are three limitations, p. 1410, 1411.

2. How, and in what way God furnisheth his New Covenant-people with such a knowledge of himself, viz. 1. In the Face of JESUS CHRIST. 2. By his Spirit, and the New Covenant-Ministry. 3. Gradually, in a continual Progress, p. 1412. to 1415.

3. Whether All Gods New Covenant-people attain to this promised Knowledge of God. Here,

1. That, under the New Covenant many in visible Churches remain grosly ignorant of God and of his waies. Seven grounds or causes of this Ignorance, p. 1415, 1416.

2. That, notwithstanding this Promise, All shall know the Lord, hath its due and intended accomplishment. For clearing this, four Distinctions are Premised. And four Conclusions determined upon, p. 1416. to 1419.

3. That this Extensiveness is to be understood with some Cautions and Limitations, p. 1419.

4. Whether God by this Promise intended to take away and make void all Humane Teaching, Private and Publick, as altogether needless now under the New Covenant.

1. Some of unsound judgements have thought so in these times, p. 1419, 1420.

2. But God never intended hereby any such thing. Proved three waies, p. 1420. to 1422.

3. Four Scriptures, wrested about this matter, are vindicated, p. 1422. to 1429.

5. Why God hath Promised in his New Covenant, That all shall know him from the least of them to the greatest. Five Reasons propounded, and explained, p. 1429. to 1433.

6. How we may Discover, That we so know the Lord, as God here intends in this his New Covenant-promise. Especially four waies, p. 1433. to 1435.

Inferences. Hence,

1. The Old and New Covenant Essentially and Substantially Agree, Though Accidentally and Circumstantially they differ, about the Knowledge of the Lord, p. 1435.

2. The chief Perfection of Knowledge, is to know God aright. Cleared three waies, p. 1436.

3. The right and saving knowledge of God is a very great and eminent Mercy, p. 1436.

4. All true saving Knowledge of God, is only from God, p. 1437.

5. As the greatest ought not to despise, so the least need not despair of the true Knowledge ledge of God now under the New Covenant, p. 1437.

6. Gods Fœderates now under the New Covenant should not content themselves to know only Fundamentals and first Principles touching God and his waies, p. 1438.
7. All such waies and means of Knowledge as God hath Ordained under his New Covenant, ought to be made use of in Subserviency to, and for accomplishment of this Promise of knowing the Lord in his New Covenant, p. 1438, &c.
8. So long as men remain grosly ignorant of God, and of the things of God now under the New Covenant, so long they are without the saving Benefit of the New Covenant, p. 1439.
9. As we desire to approve our selves to be Gods New Covenant-People, so we should strive to have and to evidence to our selves that we have this New Covenant Knowledge of the Lord, p. 1439, &c.
10. The better we know the LORD, and the things of God now under the New Covenant, the more the Glory of Christ and of his New Covenant are exalted and magnified in us, p. 1440.

III. Article. Of Gods Mercy and Propitiousness to his Fœderates in his Utter Remission and Oblivion, forgiving and forgetting, of All their sins for ever, p. 1440, &c.

This Article is Resolved into two Propositions, viz.

1. Proposition. That, Under the New Covenant the LORD God, in and through Jesus Christ, will freely, fully and utterly Remit all his true Fœderates sins whatsoever. The Deduction of this Proposition cleared, by five Particulars, p. 1442, 1443.

Here for the more clear discovering of the Nature of Remission of sins, these four Particulars are Resolved, viz.

1. What the Nature of sin is, which is the subject of Remission. Here are explained,
   1. The Denominations of sin, Hebrew and Greek, in this New Covenant-Promise, p. 1443. to 1445.
   2. The Description of sin, p. 1445.
   3. The Particulars considerable in sin, viz. seven in number, and which of them are properly remedyed by Remission, p. 1445. to 1448.
2. What the Remission of sin is, which is here Covenanted. Here set forth two waies, viz.
   1. By the Expressions or Phrases used for it in Scripture. The Originals of which are here explicated. It is stiled,
      1. Remission, Pardon, or Forgiveness, p. 1449.
      2. Free-forgiveness, Gratuitous-Pardon, p. 1449, &c.
      3. Propitiousness, or Propitious-mercifulness upon pacification for sin, p. 1450, &c.
      4. Not Remembring of sin any more, p. 1451, &c.
      5. Not imputing of sin to the sinner, p. 1452.
      6. Covering of sin, Hiding it, or Hiding Gods face from it, p. 1452, 1453.
      7. Taking away sin, Removing it, &c. p. 1453.
      8. Blotting out, wiping out, or Razing out, &c. of sin, p. 1454.
      9. Casting it behind Gods back, p. 1454.
      10. Removing our sins from us as far as the East is from the West, p. 1454, &c.
      11. Finally, Its set forth in a bundle of sweet Expressions, Mic. 7. 18, 19. p. 1455. to 1457.
   2. By the Nature of Remission of sins: laid down in these XIV. ensuing Positions, viz.
      1. That, Remission of sins here Promised in the New Covenant, is not intended of any Humane Remission, Fraternal or Ministerial: But of Divine Remission of sins, and that not Particular, but Universal. Explained, plained, p. 1457, 1458.

Pardon of sin p. 1442. ad p. 1493. 91

2. That, Remission of sins is a distinct Blessing and Grace, from Mortification of sin, and not to be confounded therewith, p. 1458.

3. That, Remission of sins, strictly and properly taken, is not the All, but only a Part of our Justification before God; But more largely and improperly it is All, p. 1458, 1459.

4. That, Remission of sins, strictly taken, doth most properly and especially consist in Removal of the offence done to God; and in Acquittal or Absolution of the sinner from the guilt of sin; that is, from his Obligation or being bound to endure the Punishment of Death, due for such offence, p. 1459. to 1461.

5. That, God alone Remits sin. Proved by six Arguments, p. 1461. to 1463.

6. That, God Pardons sin freely of his own meer grace, without any the least merit or desert of the Pardoned sinner. Proved four waies, p. 1463, &c.

7. That, God remits sin, only upon and for the satisfaction made to his Justice for sin by the Obedience and Death of Jesus CHRIST. This cleared by four Considerations. Hence, Popish Satisfaction is rejected, p. 1464. to 1466.

8. That, God actually Remits Sin to all truly Believing and Repenting sinners: and (in his Ordinary Dispensation) to them only. Here, 1. The Necessity of Faith and Repentance unto Pardon. 2. Six Consectaries, p. 1466. to 1470.

9. That, When God actually and savingly pardons sin to the Believing and Repenting Sinner, He pardons Fully and Finally all his sins past and present, but not his sins to come, viz.

1. He Pardons all sin Past and Present fully and absolutely without exception, p. 1470, &c.

2. He Pardons all such sins finally and utterly for ever without Revocation, p. 1472.

3. Yet he Pardons not any sin to come, by way of Anticipation, p. 1473.

10. That, Gods Elect, whose sins are Pardoned, do daily need renewed Pardons for future and renewed sins. Proved by three Reasons, p. 1473, 1474.

11. That, Pardon of sin, though full without exception, and final without Revocation, yet is not compleat and consummate in this present life, till the very day of judgement, p. 1474, &c.

12. That, In persons savingly Pardoned sin may remain, yet those persons are in the account of God, no longer sinners, but righteous, p. 1475.

13. That, sometimes sin may be universally and savingly pardoned, when yet the sense of that pardon may be suspended, and the sense of Gods displeasure continued, p. 1475, &c.

14. That, whereseoever God remits sin, not imputing it to the sinner unto condemnation: there he accepts the Person as righteous, imputing Christs righteousness to him unto Justification, p. 1476, &c.

3. Whether those that have their Sins remitted, may know that they are remitted: and How this may be known. This is Resolved in four Particulars, viz.

1. That, Its a most excellent, comfortable and Desirable Mercy, To know that our sins are forgiven. For five Reasons, p. 1477, &c.

2. That, Its a difficult Attainment, to know our sins are forgiven, p. 1478, &c.

3. That, Though it be difficult, yet its possible to know this, p. 1479.

4. That, Those that are pardoned come to know they are forgiven. 1. Extraordinarily.

ordinarily. 2. Ordinarily, and that five waies, p. 1479. to 1481.
4. Wherein Gods Remission of sins under the New Covenant, differs from, and excels the Remission of sins that was under the Old Covenant. This Resolved,
1. By way of concession, p. 1481.
2. By way of caution and limitation. Two waies, p. 1481, 1482.
3. By way of Explication. It differs, and excels in 1. Spiritualness. 2. Clearness. 3. Perfectness. 4. Extensiveness, p. 1483. to 1485.
2. Proposition. That God will therefore bestow upon his sincere Federates all other the Promised Benefits of the New Covenant: because he will so freely, fully and utterly Remit all their sins in and for the satisfaction of Jesus Christ. Three Evidences hereof, p. 1485. to 1488.
Inferences X. briefly laid down from the whole of Remission of sins, in the tenth whereof, the Comfort and Priviledge of Remission of sins is set forth in eight particulars, p. 1488. to 1492.
IV. Article, Of the Grand New Covenant-Relation, Interest and Communion mutually betwixt God and his sincere Fœderates. —— I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a People. Highly magnified, p. 1492, 1493.
1. By way of Explication, is shewed, How this Grand Promise is Explicated already;
1. More Generally. Three waies, p. 1493, 1494.
2. More Particularly, in the 1. First branch, in five Particulars. 2. Second branch, in four Particulars, p. 1494, 1495.
2. By way of Application, are Propounded and Explained four Inferences, viz.
I. Here's excellent and manifold matter for Information. It informs
1. Of the fulness of the New Covenant, p. 1495, &c.
2. Of the Goodness and Bountifulness of God to his Fœderates, p. 1496.
3. Of the Happiness of all Gods sincere Fœderates, 1496, &c.
4. Of the fewness of Gods sincere Fœderates even under this New Covenant, p. 1497.
5. Of the wretchedness of all Non-Fœderates whatsoever, p. 1497.
II. Here's notable matter for Probation and Examination of our true New Covenant-Condition.
1. Is the LORD become our God in Covenant? This may be discovered,
1. By his Fœderal Impressions and Operations upon us, as our Covenant-God. And these in seven Particulars, subdivided, p. 1498. to 1500.
2. By our Covenant-Relation unto God. Here are eight Adjuncts or Properties of Gods New Covenant-people, largely explicated, p. 1500. to 1504.
3. By our Deportment and carriage towards him as our God in Covenant.
1. Do we esteem the LORD as our God? p. 1504, &c.
2. Do we love him as our God? 1. Wholly. 2. Only, p. 1505, &c.
3. Do we trust in him as in our God? p. 1506, &c.
4. Do we fear him as our God? p. 1507, &c.
5. Do we serve him, as our God? Discovered seven waies, p. 1508. to 1510.
2. Are we become Gods People in Covenant? Evidenced three waies, p. 1510, 1511.
III. Here's singular matter for Exhortation;
1. To all in the visible Church that are strangers to a saving New Covenant-Condition. In four Particulars, p. 1511, 1512.
2. To all Gods sincere Fœderates within this New Covenant: three waies, viz.
1. Live upon this Promise, p. 1512. to 1514.
2. Live up unto this Promise, p. 1514, &c.
3. Engage and interest all your Relations in this Promise, p. 1515.
3. To the faithful Ministers of the New Covenant, &c. p. 1515.

IV. Here's

IV. Here's wonderful matter for Consolation to all Gods true Covenant-people.
1. Against all reliques of inherent Sin and Corruption. Three waies, p. 1516, &c.
2. Against all fears or dangers of Apostacy. Four waies, p. 1517, &c.
3. Against all Outward and Inward wants. Many waies, p. 1518. to 1523.
4. Against all strong and violent Temptations, of the flesh, the world, or the Devil. Ten waies, with seven Advantages by Temptations, p. 1523. to 1527.
5. Against deep and dismaying Desertions. Here consider,
1. The Nature, Sorts, and Waies of Divine Desertions, p. 1527. to 1531.
2. The Comfort which Gods people may have against all Desertions from this, The Lord is their God by his Everlasting New Covenant, is manifold, under five Principal Heads. p. 1531. to 1536.
6. Against sharpest afflictions and persecutions. Seven waies, p. 1536. to 1548.
7. Finally, Against the terrours and pangs even of Death it self. This Covenant-Relation affords a fivefold comfort. Subdivided, p. 1548. to 1555.

Aphorism 2. The Matter of this New Covenant, on the part of Gods New Covenant-Federates, consists in certain New Covenants-Duties, Implicitly here required from, and restipulated by his New Covenant-people, viz.
1. Knowledge. That an excellent knowledge is required: is evidenced five waies, p. 1555, 1556.
2. Faith. More required under the New Covenant, then formerly. Proved four waies, p. 1557, 1558.
3. Repentance. That its required under the New Covenant: Proved four waies, p. 1559.
4. Conformity to Gods Laws in heart and life, in inward Constitution and outward conversation. That this is required under the New Covenant: is evinced six waies, p. 1560, 1561.
5. Entire self-denying, self-resignation unto God. This also is required. Here seven points of Self-Denyal are mentioned. Three Inferences from this Aphorism, p. 1561, 1562.

Chap. 6.

Of the Blessed MESSIAH our Lord JESUS CHRIST, God-man; the only Mediator, Testator and Surety of the New Covenant betwixt God and man.

The Method propounded for Treating of the Mediator, in four branches. And the excellency of this subject, p. 1563, 1564.

Aphorism 1. That, A True, Fit and Sufficient Mediator of the New Covenant was most necessary betwixt God and man. Here are explicated two things, viz.
1. How and in what sense a Mediator may be said to be necessary betwixt God and man. Not, Absolutely, or Naturally: but Hypothetically, upon supposition of divers things, &c. p. 1565, 1566.
2. Why, and in what respect such a Mediator of the New Covenant was necessary betwixt God and man in this sense, viz. In six regards, set forth in other particulars, p. 1566. to 1570.

Aphorism 2. That, JESUS the only Son of God, as also the Son of the Virgin Mary, God and Man in one Person, The CHRIST and Promised Messiah, is, as God-man, the only True, Fit and Sufficient Mediator, Testator and Surety of the New Covenant betwixt God and Man. This cleared in four Positions, p. 1570, &c.
1. Position. That JESUS, the only Son of God, and the Son of the Virgin Mary, is, God and man in one Person. Here note,
1. What the name JESUS imports. Five Reasons of the Name. How he saves.

1. Only. 2. Universally, all the Elect. 3. Variously. 4. Sufficiently, p. 1571, 1572.
2. That this Jesus is the only Son of God. 1. Explained, in what sense. 2. Proved by Scriptures seven waies, p. 1572. to 1574.
3. That this Jesus the only begotten Son of God, was also Son of the Virgin Mary. Here,
1. Whence the Virgin Mary Descended, viz. Of David, &c. Proved three waies, p. 1574, 1575.
2. That Jesus was the Son of the Virgin Mary, Proved three waies, p. 1575.
3. How Jesus was the Son of the Virgin Mary. 1. Extraordinarily. 2. Truly. 3. Compleatly, p. 1575, 1576.
4. Denominations hereupon given in Scripture unto JESUS, p. 1576, &c.
4. That this JESUS son of God and of the Virgin Mary, is God and Man in one Person. For clearing this Mysterie, these five things are Evidenced, viz.
1. The Fitness of the Son of God to become the Son of man, the Son of the Virgin. Seven waies, p. 1577, 1578.
2. The Nature of the Union betwixt his Divinity and Humanity. It is, 1. Personal. 2. Indivisible. 3. Of Natures remaining distinct, p. 1578.
3. The Unity or Oneness of his Person, though consisting of two distinct Natures. Proved three waies. And the Necessity of his being God and man, that he might be a True, Fit and sufficient Mediator: Evidenced five waies, p. 1578, to 1580.
4. The six Similitudes used for illustrating this Union of God and Man in one Person. And which is to be preferred as Fittest, p. 1580, 1581.
5. The Consequents resulting from this Personal Union, p. 1581, &c.
2. Position. That, this JESUS God-man, is the CHRIST, the Promised Messiah, and he alone. Here note,
1. The Explanation of these two words: MESSIAH, and CHRIST, p. 1582, 1583.
2. The Confirmation of this Position.
1. From Gods Eternal Decree, p. 1583, 1584.
2. From Gods Promises and Prophetical Predictions. Many waies, p. 1584, 1585.
3. From Christs Lineal Descent, p. 1584.
4. From the compleat and exact accomplishment of the Scriptures, p. 1585.
5. From Jacobs Prophecy, and the Accomplishment thereof, p. 1585, &c.
6. From Daniels Weeks, p. 1586.
7. From the General Agreement of all the Types to this JESUS, &c. p. 1586, 1587.
8. From the Testimony of John the Baptist, p. 1587.
9. From Gods Authorizing, Constituting, Ordaining and Establishing this Jesus to be the CHRIST, p. 1587, 1588.
10. From the Testimony of 1. Father, 2. Son, 3. the Holy Ghost, p. 1588, &c.
3. Position. That IESUS CHRIST, God and man, is the onely True, Fit and Sufficient Mediator, Testator, and Surety of the New Covenant betwixt God and man.
1. Jesus Christ is Mediator, Surety and Testator of the New Covenant.
1. Mediator of the New Covenant. Proved four waies, p. 1589, 1590.
2. Testator of the New Testament. Evinced seven waies, p. 1590, &c.
3. Surety of the New Covenant. And what this implies, p. 1591, &c.
2. Jesus Christ is the onely True, Fit, and Sufficient Mediator. This Position is, 1. Stated. 2. Confirmed three waies, p. 1592, 1593.
4. Position. That JESUS CHRIST is Mediator, Surety and Testator of the New Covenant betwixt God and man, as he is God-man. Here note two things, viz.
1. The Sense of this Position, p. 1593, &c.
2. The Grounds of this Position, viz.
1. The Holy Scriptures do frequently ascribe the Acts of Christs Mediation to his Divine, Divine, as well as to his Humane Nature. Evidenced six wayes, p. 1594. to 1596.

2. The Scope, End or Intent of the Personal Union of the Divine and Humane Natures in one Christ, was that he might act and execute his Mediatory Office compleatly according to both those Natures. Christs God-head is the immediate, proper and formal beginning of divers Mediatory Acts. Seven instances, p. 1596, &c.

3. The Nature of the Mediatory Office is such, that it could not be compleatly executed and fulfilled, if Christ God-man should not act therein both as God and man. Evidenced divers wayes, in his Prophecy, Priesthood and Kingship, p. 1597.

This Position is concluded with Testimonies of some learned, p. 1597, 1598.

Aphorism 3. That JESUS CHRIST, God-man, Executeth his Mediatory office in a Prophetical, Priestly, and Kingly way; Or, as Prophet, Priest, and King: both in his State of Humiliation and Exaltation. For clearing this, three things explained, viz.

1. Whence it may be Evinced, That Christ Executes his Mediatory Office in a Prophetical, Priestly and Kingly way. This is done six wayes, viz. p. 1599, &c.
   1. From the Condition of lapsed man without Christ: and his necessity of Restauration by Christ, p. 1599, &c.
   2. From the Types of Old, prefiguring these three Functions in Christ. Three Instances, p. 1600.
   3. From the Order of Conferring Salvation upon us. Three wayes, p. 1601.
   4. From the Reality of Christs Unction hereunto, p. 1601.
   5. From the Sufficient Enumeration of Christs benefits, and his way of Procuring them for us. His benefits of three Sorts. Procured three wayes, p. 1601, 1602.
   6. From Christs many Denominations given to him in Scriptures, which are eminently reducible to these three Functions. p. 1602.
2. Wherein the Nature of Christs Prophecy, Priesthood and Kingship consists.

I. Christs Prophecy consists in his Primary and Plenary teaching of his Church, viz.
   1. By Revealing of his Doctrine. This he doth variously, p. 1603. to 1605.
   2. By Illuminating his Peoples Minds to receive the same, p. 1605.

II. Christs Priesthood, Typified notably of old many wayes, chiefly consists,
   1. In his Satisfaction. Here are shewed four things, viz.
      1. That Jesus Christ by his Obedience and Death hath made a true, real, proper, and full Satisfaction to God for his Peoples Sins. For,
         1. Christ is the Surety of the better Covenant, the New Covenant: substituted, and substituting himself for us. Evidenced three wayes, p. 1607. to 1609.
         2. Christ is said often in Scripture, to redeem us, to buy us, or purchase us with a Price, to give himself a Ransome, &c. which imports Satisfaction, p. 1609, &c.
         3. Christ is said to Reconcile us to God, and to be our propitiation by his blood, p. 1610, &c.
         4. Christ is Mediator, not only by Teaching and Ruling: but also by Sacrificing and Interceding for us, p. 1611.
         5. The Expiatory Sacrifices under the Law, purging away Sin Typically: shadowed forth Christ, who by the Sacrifice of himself purged away sins Truly. And therefore made Satisfaction for them, p. 1611, &c.
         6. The Perfection, Fulness and Compleatness of Christs Satisfaction for Sin, and Expiation of Sin by his Obedience, Death and Blood, is evident many wayes. Six wayes are Explained, p. 1613, 1614.
      2. What are the branches or chief Parts of Christs Satisfaction, p. 1614, 1615.
      3. What are the Fruits and Effects of Christ Death and Satisfaction. Many and must considerable. Nine Especially, p. 1615, 1616.

4. For whom Christ made this his Proper and Plenary Satisfaction by his Obedience and Death. These are described by seven Denominations, p. 1616. to 1618.
2. In his Intercession. Here consider,
1. That Jesus Christ is our Intercessor, interceding with God for us, p. 1618.
2. The Nature of Christs Intercession. Discovered,
1. In his Execution of it Inchoatively. Perfectively, p. 1618, 1619.
2. In seven matchless Perfections and Excellencies of it, p. 1619.
3. The Difference of Christs Intercession, from his Satisfaction, six waies: and from his Spirits Intercession, three waies, p. 1620, 1621.
4. The many and precious Fruits, Effects and Benefits of Christs Intercession. Ten are particularly laid down, p. 1621. to 1623.
III. Christs Kingly Office. For clearing hereof six things are Evidenced, viz.
1. That Jesus Christ our Mediator is King. Proved four waies, p. 1623, 1624.
2. The Nature of Christs Kingdom. Essential and Personal, and this General or Special; and how they are managed, p. 1624. to 1626.
3. Christs Regalities. Which are very Majestical. As,
1. His Unction. With the Holy Ghost and with Power, p. 1626.
2. His Inauguration. Especially at his Ascension and sitting down on the right hand of God: Which implyes seven things, p. 1626. to 1629.
3. His Throne, p. 1629.
4. His Crown, p. 1629.
5. His Scepter, viz. His Word and Spirit, sent out of Sion, p. 1629, &c.
6. His Laws, p. 1630.
7. His Prerogatives. Seven whereof are instanced, p. 1630, &c.
4. Christs Actual Administration of his Kingly office, as Mediator, viz.
1. Of his General Mediatory Kingdom, by seven Royal Acts, p. 1631, &c.
2. Of his Special Mediatory Kingdom. 1. In this world, by five Acts. 2. At the End of this world, by six Acts. 3. In the world to come, by two Acts. p. 1632, 1633.
5. The Benefits of Christs Kingdom, p. 1633.
6. The Continuance of Christs Royal office, p. 1633, 1634.
3. What are those two states of Christs Humiliation and Exaltation, wherein he executeth his Prophetical, Priestly, and Kingly Office, viz.
1. Christs state of Humiliation consisted;
1. In his Conception. Wherein he was humbled two waies, p. 1634.
2. In his Birth. Wherein he was abased two waies, p. 1634, &c.
3. In his Life. Wherein he humbled himself four waies, p. 1635.
4. In his Death. Wherein he humbled himself ten waies, p. 1635, &c.
5. In his Burial. Wherein he was abased two waies, p. 1636.
6. In his Continuance in the state of the dead, and under the Dominion of death for three daies current, wherein he was humbled three waies. This some think to be intended by that Article in the Apostles Creed; He Descended into Hell. This clause was not in the Creed antiently according to divers writers. Four Interpretations of it, and which is to be preferred, p. 1636. to 1638.
2. Christs state of Exaltation, consisted;
1. In his Reviving. Wherein he was exalted three waies, p. 1638.
2. In his Resurrection from the dead. Wherein he was exalted four waies, p. 1639, &c.
3. In his Ascending into Heaven. Wherein he was exalted three waies, p. 1640.
4. In his Session at Gods right hand, p. 1640.
5. In his coming at last to judge the whole world, p. 1640.

Aphorism 4. That, JESUS CHRIST, by vertue of his Prophetical, Priestly and Kingly Mediation, Surety-ship and Testator-ship, hath established his NEW COVENANT for ever: And is continually bringing all those whom the Father hath given him into into this New Covenant with God, To partake all the Mercies, and Perform all the Duties thereof. Here,

1. Jesus Christ hath established his New Covenant for ever, 1. As Mediator, three waies. 2. As Surety, three waies. 3. As Testator, p. 1640. to 1643.
2. Jesus Christ brings men into this New Covenant, by Calling them thereinto. Here note,
   1. That, Christ brings men into this New Covenant with God, by Calling: proved three waies, p. 1643, 1644.
   2. What this Calling is, whereby men are brought into Covenant with God: Described by the [1] Author, [2] Instrumental Means, [3] Matter, [4] Terms, [5] Form, and [6] End thereof, p. 1644. to 1647.

Inferences, From the whole touching Jesus Christ the MEDIATOR. Hence,

I. Behold and admire the infinite Severity and Goodness of God, in giving so necessary and sufficient a Mediator betwixt God and Man, as Jesus Christ, God-man, p. 1647, &c.

II. Jesus, the Son of God, and of the Virgin Mary, the Mediator, Surety and Testator of the New Testament, is the only true CHRIST, and promised Messiah, p. 1648, &c.

III. Jesus Christ is indeed The Wonderful: and the Great Mysterie of Godliness, both in his Person and Office, p. 1649, &c.

IV. As Gods Covenants are the Marrow of Holy Scriptures, and the New Covenant the flower and Spirits of the Covenants: So Jesus Christ our Mediator is the Life and Soul of the New Covenant, p. 1650.

V. The New Covenant far excells the Old and all other Covenants, in having Jesus Christ actually exhibited, to be Mediator, Surety and Testator thereof; p. 1650, &c.

VI. Jesus Christ God-man, Mediator, &c. of the New Covenant, is an All-sufficient Saviour of Sinners, p. 1651.

VII. Jesus Christ, Mediator, &c. is the only Hope and Refuge of bruised sinners, and compleatest consolation of believing Saints, p. 1651, 1652.

VIII. The New Covenants Dedication was most bitter to Christ; although the New Covenants Application be most sweet to Christians, p. 1652, &c.

IX. Let all that long to know that they are within this New Covenant savingly, examine with all Diligence whether they be brought into it, by being Called to Christ, and made Christs Effectually. Hereby we may know, whether we be Christs.
   1. Have we Christs Spirit dwelling in us? Five Notes of Christs Spirit, p. 1653, &c.
   2. Are we New Creatures? 1. In condition. 2. In constitution. 3. In conversation, p. 1654. to 1656.
   3. Are we one with Christ, by Faith and Love? p. 1656, &c.
   4. Have we crucified and mortified our corruptions? A Parallel betwixt the Crucifying of Christ, and our crucifying of the flesh, in five Branches; p. 1657, 1658.
   5. Do we walk after the Spirit, not after the flesh? p. 1658.

X. Let all who are convinced they are Christ-less and Covenant-less Persons, and yet thirst after a New Covenant-state, sincerely accept Christ tendred: And let all that find they are in New Covenant with God in Christ, walk worthy of Christ accepted. Here,

☞ 1. The Acceptance of Christ, is vehemently urged by seven Pressing Considerations, p. 1659. to 1668.

2. Walking worthy of Christ, is Regulated, by nine Scripture-Directions; p. 1668. to 1671.

Chap. 7.

Of the Form of the New Covenant.

Aphorism. The Form of this New Covenant consists: Inwardly, In the mutual Obligation betwixt God and his New Covenant-Fœderates in Jesus Christ the Mediator thereof. Outwardly, in the way and manner of this New Covenants Manifestation, Confirmation and Administration.

I. The Inward Form of the New Covenant, &c. stands chiefly in the Fœderates reciprocal Obligation. How God obliged to us: or becomes our Debtor, p. 1671, 1672.

II. The Outward Form consists in,

1. The Manifestation of the New Covenant. 1. By the Promissory Revelation of it. 2. By the Preparatory Inchoation of it, two waies, p. 1672, &c.
2. The Confirmation of it.
   1. By the choicest Promises of God. Here, 1. That the New Covenants Promises are Better Promises, in five regards. 2. How the New Covenant is established upon these Promises, Materially, and Relatively, p. 1673. to 1676.
   2. By Gods inviolable Oath; for three Reasons, p. 1676.
   3. By Christs irrevocable Death and Blood. As Mediator, Surety and Testator: three waies, p. 1677, &c.
   4. By the best Fœderal Tokens Baptism and the LORD's Supper. Here,
      1. That Baptism and the Lords Supper confirm the New Covenant, is proved divers waies, severally, p. 1679, &c.
      2. Wherein the Nature of Baptism and the Lords Supper consists. Here, six things noted in all Sacraments. The Original Rise of these two Sacraments. The Nature of Baptism described by the Author, Matter, Form, and End thereof. The Nature also of the Lords Supper, p. 1680. to 1684.
      3. How Baptism and the Lords-Supper confirm the New Covenant, many waies, p. 1684, &c.
3. The Administration of the New Covenant.
   1. With universal reference to all Nations, p. 1686.
   2. By Preaching the New Covenant Doctrine in Christ exhibited. [1.] Clearly. [2.] Fully. [3.] Efficaciously, p. 1686, &c.
   3. By Ordinances of Publick New Covenant-worship for all Nations, p. 1687.
   4. By New Covenant Church-Government. In five Acts, p. 1687, &c.
   5. By a successive New Covenant-Ministry and Officers, p. 1688.
   6. By Plenary effusions of the Spirit, p. 1688.
   7. With more perfect, filial, Christian liberty, p. 1688.
   8. With more glory then under the Old. In five respects, p. 1689.

Inferences seven from the Form of this New Covenant, p. 1689, 1690.

BOOK I.

OF

Gods Covenants,

Their Names, Natures, Sorts, and Benefits; more Generally.

CHAP. I.

1. Of Gods dealing with his Church, in all times and Ages, by way of Covenant.

GOD, (a) over all blessed for ever, is the Center where all (b) Happiness meets, and the fountain whence all (c) Happiness flows. Man, (d) under whose feet God hath put all things here below, is only so far happy as he (e) enjoys the LORD to be his God. On Earth, Man enjoys the LORD to be his God, Either More Immediately, or more Mediately. 1. More Immediately, before Adams Fall, by Conformity both of mans (f) upright Nature unto God, through (g) Gods Image in which he was Created; And of mans life, to Gods will, through (h) Personal Obedience, whereunto he was fully enabled. 2. More Mediately, after the Fall, by (i) Mystical union unto the Mediator Jesus Christ, (k) the express Character of the Fathers Person, and (l) onely way unto God. Mans enjoyment of God, by Natural Conformity to his will before the Fall, and by supernatural union to Christ since the Fall, are instrumentally mentally established and effected by Gods COVENANTS with man: That, by his (m) Covenant of Works, This, By his (n) Covenant of Faith. So then, Gods COVENANT is the Scripture-star, which leads man unto Christ: Christ is the Heavenly Way, that brings man unto God: And God is Heaven it self; in whom man finds and enjoys all satisfying Happiness.

In this Treatise (subdivided into IIII. distinct BOOKS,) the unfolding of Gods precious and mysterious Covenant with man is undertaken, That Christians happiness may be promoted by enjoying of God: That they may enjoy God by their union to Christ: That they may be United to Christ, by accepting Gods Covenant: And that they may be allured to accept Gods Covenant, by a familiar Knowledge and apprehension of it.

For the more clear representing of this Subject to the weakest Capacity, Gods COVENANT shall here be laid open;

First, More Generally; in Book I. And here shall be evidenced. 1. That God hath pleased in all ages to deal with his Church and people by way of Covenant. 2. What Gods Covenant is, for Name and Thing generally considered. 3. Into what Kinds or Sorts Gods Covenant is to be Distributed.

Secondly, More Particularly; in Book II. And here 1. Of Gods COVENANT of WORKS with the first Adam, and in him with all his Natural Seed, before the Fall. 2. Of Gods COVENANT of FAITH with Christ the last Adam, and in him with all his Supernatural Seed, after the Fall. And this both In General: And In Particular.

In General shall be shewed, 1. That, the Covenant of works being broken in the first Adam, God pleased to Reveal a Covenant of Faith in Christ the last Adam. 2. When and how soon God did first Reveal this Covenant of Faith. 3. Why God Revealed this Covenant. 4. What this COVENANT of FAITH is. 5. How this Covenant of Faith is to be distributed.

In Particular shall be Opened,

1. The (o) Covenants of Promise, made and confirmed in Christ only Promised and to be exhibited in our flesh afterwards. And how the LORD God did gradually disclose these Covenants in Christ most obscurely at first, but afterwards still more and more clearly, till they were accomplished in Christ in the fulness of time: but most remarkably in Certain Periods of time, viz. 1. From Adam, till Noah. 2. From Noah, till Abraham. 3. From Abraham, till Moses. 4. From Moses till David. 5. From David, till the Babylonish Captivity. 6. Finally, From the Babylonish Captivity, till Christ: and all this in Book III.

(o) Ephes. 2. 12.

2. The (p) New-Covenant made and confirmed in Christ actually Performed & exhibited in our flesh already. And how this New Covenant is Substantially one and the same with the Covenants of Promise, yet Accidentally, far different in administration: the N. Cov. notably surpassing passing all foregoing Ministrations, in Extent Spiritual Priviledges, Efficacy, and Evangelical Glory. In Book III. Now in these four distinct Books all these things shall be laid down orderly in certain succinct Positions or Aphorisms (Summarily comprizing much in a little compass, for the help of both understanding and memory) together with the Explanations of them: through the direction and assistance of the Covenant-making and Covenant-keeping God, who hath said; (q) The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him, and he will shew them his Covenant.

(q) Psal. 25. 12. 14.

Aphorism I.

God is pleased in all times and ages, from the beginning to the end of the world, to deal with his Church and People by way of COVENANT.

For clearing of this Aphorism something is to be spoken touching 1. God, who thus deals. 2. His Church and People, with whom he thus deals. 3. Gods dealing thus with his Church in a Covenant way.

himself peculiarly) in this world, though not at all times of like equal extent. It was at first onely Domestical, confined within the narrow compass of Particular pious Families, as of (a) Adam, (b) Seth, (c) Enoch, (d) Noah, (e) Shem, (f) Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, &c. Afterwards it grew up and became National, extending it self to the Families of all the (g) twelve Tribes, even the whole Jewish Nation; which, presently after the Redemption out of Ægypt, was fashioned and digested by God into an Ecclesiastical Politie, called (h) The Church in the Wilderness. But at last, when Christ the Blessed Seed came, (i) in whom all the Nations and Families of the Earth should be blessed, The Church began to be planted even among other (k) Nations besides that of the Jews, and so spread from Nation to Nation, that it became Oecumenical or Universal: Not limited any longer to that one Nation of the Jews onely, but diffused without restraint to the (l) Nations of the Gentiles. From Adam till Moses, it was Domestical: From Moses till Christ, National: and from Christ till the end of the world, Oecumenical: And this triple Period comprehends all times and ages. Thus the Church, like (m) Leaven, spreads; like (n) Mustardseed, grows: like the (o) Waters of the Sanctuary, swels and increaseth from smallest beginnings to greater and greater perfection.

2. Why God in all ages thus provides himself a Church amongst men. viz. 1. From the exceeding Riches of his (p) Free grace and love to mankinde. This the impulsive or inward Moving Cause why God hath (1.) Elected eternally (q) in Christ a certain select number out of mankind, to be his own peculiar people; (2.) Redeemed in fulness of time this his Church and people (lapsed in Adam) by his own (r) blood; And (3.) Actually (s) applyed this Redemption to his people by Calling them effectually out of the world unto himself in Christ. Remarkably saith Wisdom, (the Son of God,) of himself; (t) I was daily his delight, rejoycing always before him: rejoycing in the habitable parts of his Earth, and my delights were with the Sons of men. 2. That God might communicate himself and his fulness more sweetly, familiarly and compleatly to his Church, then to all other Societies and created Beings in the world. For, to his Church and People God peculiarly unveyls the (u) mysteries of his kingdom, the hidden Secrets of his Wisdom, Goodness, Free Grace, Mercy, Loving-kindeness, Holiness, Justice, &c. (x) He dwels and walks among them; and is a God and Father unto them, they becoming sons and daughters to the Lord Almighty. 3. That in and by the Church the glory of all Gods Perfections and Dispensations might be spread abroad both in Heaven and Earth to his everlasting praise. (y) In his Temple every one speaketh of his glory. And, (z) by the Church Gods excellencies and the wise mysterious disposals of his Grace are made known; not onely unto the Sons of men on Earth, but also unto the Principalities and powers in Heavenly places.

with his Church and people; It is evident by their continued experience of his Dispensations, both Before, and After Adams Fall, That God pleaseth in all times and ages to deal with his Church and people by way of Covenant. For,

1. Before the Fall, God dealt with the First Adam, and in him with all his Seed, then in state of innocency and integrity, by way of Covenant, and that a Covenant of Works. For, besides that God had engraven in his heart the Substance of the Moral Law, certain (a) reliques whereof remain in the hearts of Pagans since the Fall, who have not the law written; God also gave Adam a Positive Law, Permitting him to eat of the Trees of the Garden; Commanding him not to eat of the Tree of knowledge of good and evil; Threatning him, in case he should eat, with present Death; and consequently promising him life in case of Obedience. (b) And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the Garden thou mayst freely eat: But of the Tree of the knowledge of Good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it; For in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely dye. Now all this amounts to a Covenant, as (c) after shall more fully be evidenced in the Particular handling of the Covenant of Works.

2. After the Fall God deales with his Church and People also by way of Covenant; and that the COVENANT of FAITH in Jesus Christ the last Adam. This is very observable in several eminent Intervals or Periods of time, wherein God Revealed his Covenant more and more clearly by degrees, till it came to a full and compleat discovery in these daies of the New Testament. As, God dealt by way of COVENANT, 1. With Adam presently after the Fall, and with the Fathers before the Flood till the time of Noah: Promising the (d) Seed of the woman, to bruise the Serpents head. 2. With Noah, (e) establishing his Covenant with him, to save him, and his family, and a seed of the Creatures, in the Ark, from perishing by the waters of the Flood, when the whole world should be drowned. Under these two dispensations of the Covenant, together with the Promises and other Appurtenances thereof, did the Fathers and Church live till the daies of Abraham. 3. With Abraham and his seed, (f) Covenanting and Promising to be a God to them, to give them the land of Canaan, and make them heirs of the world, and in his seed to make all the Nations and families of the Earth blessed; Annexing Circumcision as a Confirming sign and token of the Covenant. And under this and the former federal dispensations, was the Church and the holy Patriarchs trained up till the daies of Moses. 4. With Israel; (g) led and brought by the hand out of the land of Egypt, At Mount Sinai in the daies of Moses; (h) Declaring his Covenant unto them, even ten Commandments written on two Tables of stone, which he commanded them to perform, together with the Ceremonial and Judicial Laws which he required them to observe. Under this and the former Administrations of the Covenant, the Church was nurtured up, till the time of David. 5. With David and and his Seed God (i) made an everlasting Covenant ordered in all things and Sure, (k) Promising with an Oath, To establish his seed for ever, and build up his Throne to all generations, &c. which Covenant had its fullest accomplishment in (l) Christ, of the Seed of David, and in his Spiritual Kingdom. Christ being the true (m) David, And King of his Church, gathering both Jews and Gentiles into one body under his Government, and (n) subduing finally and totally all the enemies of his Kingdom. Under this and former dispensations of the Covenant, the Church of God continued from Davids daies till the Babylonish Captivity. 6. With the people of the Jews under the Babylonish Captivity, (o) God Covenanted to return their Captivity and restore them into their own land, the land of Canaan; to take away their stony heart, and to give them an heart of flesh; To cleanse them from all their filthiness and Idols, &c. promising that they shall be his people, and he will be their God. And under this, with the foregoing ministrations of the Covenant, The Church of God was nursed up from the time of the Babylonish Captivity, till the very coming of Christ in our flesh. 7. Finally, with the Church and people of God under the New Testament, after Christs Incarnation, God makes a (p) New Covenant in Christ: New, not so much for substance, as for Circumstance and manner of Administration (all the former Ministrations being laid aside as waxing old and wearing away;) And New, for Continuation, in that this dispensation of the Covenant should not wax old as did all the former, but should continue still fresh New and unaltered to the very end of the world. And under this Covenant, the Promises and Appendixes thereof, the Church of Christ is and shall be continued, built up, and perfected, From the First till the Second coming of Jesus Christ.

Thus it is clear, That in all ages and times, from the beginning to the end of the world, God pleaseth to deal with his Church and people in a COVENANT-way.

APHORISM II.

GOD in all ages pleaseth to deal with his Church and people by way of Covenant for divers weighty Causes, and Excellent Ends. And these are worthy to be inquired into, and heedfully observed, by all the (q) children of the Covenant, and (r) heirs according to the Promise. Now the Lord seems to deal with his Church in a Covenant way.

(q) Act. 3. 25.
(r) Gal.3.29.

1. Of his meer Grace and love to his Church. God takes not this course by reason of any law or tye of Necessity lying upon him: He is the most free unlimited Agent, above all laws, and (s) doth whatsoever he pleaseth both in heaven and earth. He could have dealt with man, both before and since the fall, in an Absolute Supreme way of Lordship,

(s) Psal.135. 4, 5, 6.

Lordship, Dominion and Soveraignty, as a Creator with his Creature, as a Potter with his clay, Commanding what Duty he pleased from him, without any Covenant-Obligation of himself in any respect unto man: being no way debt-bound to the Creature, but absolutely free. Nor can any thing be imagined in his Church or people, which in the least degree could invite God, into Covenant with them: because, betwixt God and them there are no terms of (t) equality or proportion, for a Basis or remote foundation of a Covenant. For, 1. In their innocent state the Distance betwixt them is greater then betwixt Heaven and Earth, then betwixt highest Angels and basest worms: even as great as betwixt Finite and (u) Infinite. Now betwixt Finite and Infinite there can be no proportion. 2. In their lapsed state, Sin hath infinitely widened the distance, and rendred them altogether (x) unlovely and abominable in themselves before God. Yea, Sin hath extreamly aggravated the Distance, and turned it into Opposition and (y) Enmity betwixt God and them. So that nothing but meer Grace the meer good pleasure of his will, meer love and mercy, could possibly move or incline God to embrace them in a Covenant-way. Hence God tels Israel, (z) That he set his love upon them, because he loved them. And Jerusalem; That (a) when her Nativity was of the land of Canaan, her father an Amorite, her mother an Hittite, She in her birth wretched, unpitied, polluted in her blood, and cast out to the loathing of her person: even then he spread his skirt over her, covered her nakedness, sware unto her, Entred into Covenant with her, and she became his.

(z) Deut. 7. 7, 8.
(a) Ezek. 16. 2. to 9, &c.

2. Because the Lord would deal familiarly with his people, therefore he deals with them by way of Covenant. A Covenant-way is a familiar way, as betwixt man and man that are agreed. This David intimates in Gods Covenant with him (b) And is this the manner of man, O Lord God? Or, as Junius renders it; And that after the manner of men, O Lord GOD. That is, Thou in Covenanting dealest familiarly with me, as man with man, as friend with friend. And, in that parallel place (c) And hast regarded me, according to the state of a man of High degree, O LORD God: It may be rendred; And thou hast provided for me this excellency according to the manner of men, O LORD God. Or; Thou hast provided for me, according to the manner of men, concerning this excellency O LORD God. That is, Thou hast made a familiar provision for me. Now the distance is so vast betwixt Majesty and meanness, Glory and baseness, God and us most despicable dust and ashes, that there cannot be a familiar reciprocal dealing betwixt God and us but by way of Covenant: wherein the most High God condescends and stoops down to us, and we base worms ascend up to God, and so meet one another friendly and familiarly.

(b) 2 Sam. 7. 19.
(c) 1 Chron. 17. 17.

3. That Gods people might more clearly and certainly know, what Good they may confidently expect from God, whatsoever be their present condition. For all Good Covenanted by God, whether Temporal, Spiritual or or Eternal, is clear and sure, as Gods Covenant is clear and sure. Hence David; (d) Although mine House be not so with God (that is, flourishing, and without clouds) yet he hath made with me an everlasting Covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: for this is all my Salvation, and all my desire, although he make it not to grow.

(d) 2 Sam. 23. 5. with 7. 5 to 17. Psalm 89.

4. That the Church and people of God may be the more endeared unto God, and enlivened unto all free cheerful obedience. Gods loving kindness to us so wonderfully appears, both in his condescending to such a sweet familiar Covenant-way with us, and in his storing his Covenant with such rich provisions for us: that duely considered, it snatches our hearts and affections (as once (e) Davids) vehemently unto him, even ravishing us with him. Besides, Gods ample Rewards and Benefits covenanted, are as oyl to the wheels of our (f) obedience, making them run smoothly in all Gods paths with delight and alacrity.

(e) 2 Sam. 7. 18, 19, 20. (f) Ier. 31. 33. with Psal. 40. 8. Ezek. 11. 18, 19, 20.

5. Finally, That Gods Covenant with his Church and people may be a distinctive and discriminating character betwixt them and all other people in the world. To the Church (g) pertain the Covenants: whilst all others are (h) strangers to the Covenants of Promise.

(g) Rom. 9. 4. (h) Eph. 2. 12.

Corollaries resulting from the whole. Hence,

1. Gods condescension to his Creaturs is wonderful. He stoops so low as to accept man, dust and ashes, sinful dust and ashes, in Covenant with himself, infinitely transcending all created beings.

2. Mans Ascension and advancement is admirable. Man is brought from so low a state, and at such distance from God, to such an height of dignity and nearness unto God: yea from utter Enmity, to perfect Amity with God, by Covenant; that he may cry out, (i) Lord, what is man that thou art thus mindful of him, and the son man that thou thus visitest him! Every one in Covenant with God may say with thankful David; (k) who am I, O LORD God? and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto? &c.

(i) Psal. 8. 4. (k) 2 Sam. 7. 18.

3. We can never understand the mysterie of Gods dealing with his people, unless we know the mysterie of Gods Covenant. Study therefore Gods Covenant diligently, be expert therein. For, 1. This is the Compendious Abstract, or Epitome of Gods gracious dispensations to his Church in all Ages. Here may be seen; How God deals with his people in Innocency, (l) Covenanting to give them continued life, upon condition of exact personal Obedience: How he deals with his Church lapsed (m) Covenanting to restore life unto her, upon Condition of faith in Christs Obedience. And how God applies himself herein to his Churches Capacity: In her Infancy he gives her the A B C of the Covenant, teaching her to spell his Grace, in the promised (n) seed of the woman: and in (o) saving a remnant in the Ark by water from perishing with the world of the wicked. In her youth and non-age he trains her up under a more rigid and severe discipline of Mosaical administrations, as under (p) Tutors and Governours, yet in hopes of after-freedom. In her full age he invests her with with New-covenant Liberties and enjoyments in Christ revealed, (q) delivering her from all her former bondage. 2. This is that Golden Clew which leads into that inmost Mysterie of Jesus Christ: The Son of God being the Kernel and Marrow of Gods Covenant. For, In the Covenant of works before the Fall, upon Condition of perfect Personal obedience, life is promised to be continued to Adam (think (r) some learned) by the Son of God, (s) in whom was life, & that life was the light of men (lightning every man) naturally more or less) that cometh into the world. And In the Covenant of faith after the Fall, Christ as (t) God-man, (u) Mediator betwixt God and sinners, is the (x) Foundation of the Covenant, as revealed to (y) Adam, (z) Noah, (a) Abraham, (b) Moses, (c) David, (d) The Jews, and to both (e) Jews and Gentiles. At first Christ is revealed more dimly and obscurely: at last most cleerly and evidently with open face & Glory. 3. Finally, This Covenant of God is the Key that unlocks the whole Scriptures. Holy Scriptures do especially scope at Revealing Gods Covenant, in several ages, severally. Gods Covenant-administrations like a thred of Gold running through the Books both of Old and New Testament. Yea Gods Covenant is such a primary Subject of the whole Scripture, that the whole word of God receives its Denomination from Gods Covenant, being stiled The Old and New Testament; Or, The Old and New Covenant. And surely no Context of Holy Scripture can be solidly explicated, No Common Place of Divinity can be rightly handled, No Polemical or Controversal point can be dextrously descided, No Case of Conscience or Practical Question can be accurately resolved, No Christian Duty can be skilfully urged or advised, without due respect and Scope had to the COVENANT of GOD. Hereupon it is (*) reported of Olevianus, that he stiled himself, Concionatorem Fœderis; That is, A Preacher of the Covenant. And so should every faithful and skilful Minister have it principally in Design, To be a Preacher of Gods Covenant; and every prudent Christian to be an Hearer and Practitioner of Gods Conant: Gods Covenant Calling for most intentive respect from them both. So that whilst we are ignorant of the mysteries of Gods Covenant; we are Ignorant of Scriptures, of Christ, and of all Gods gracious Administrations to his Church.

4. Gods Covenant is a notable Character or Mark of Gods Church and people. For with them God deals peculiarly by way of Covenant, and not with others. Therefore the way to discover whether we be members of Gods Church, and among the number of his people, is to try whether God hath dealt with us by way of Covenant. Are we in Covenant with God? They that are only outwardly in Covenant with God, are only outwardly his people: they that are also inwardly in Covenant with God, are inwardly his people also. They that were (f) within the Ark only were saved, whilst those that did cling to the outside of the Ark, as well as those that came not neer the Ark, were drowned.

CHAP. II.

2. Of the Name, General Nature, and Distribution of Gods Covenant.

APHORISM I.

THe Names given to Gods Covenant with his Church in Scripture, are principally two, viz. (g) ברית Berith in the Hebrew Original of the Old Testament: and (h) Διαθήκη Diatheke, in the Greek Original of the New Testament: The true meaning and use of which two names will somewhat conduce to the understanding of Gods Covenant. To this end Consider, 1. The Notation of these two names. 2. The various Acceptation of them in Scripture.

1. The Notation of these two Names take thus briefly. 1. The Hebrew Name ברית Berith A Covenant; is by learned men derived from several Roots. 1. Some derive it from ברא Bara To Create: because Gods Covenant hath been with his people even ever since the Creation. But this seems too far fetcht as (i) Pareus thinks. 2. Some derive it from ברר (k) Barar To purifie, make-clear, &c. Because by Covenants open and clear amity is confirmed, and faithfulness is clearly declared and ratified without Sophistication betwixt Covenanters. And things are made plain and cleare betwixt them. 3. Some derive it from תבר Berath, which imports (l) firmness, (whence ברת Beroth, is the name of firm and strong tree Cant. 1. 17. as the Ash, Cypress or Firr-tree) because Covenants are firm and sure, and things are confirmed by them. 4. Some derive it from ברה Barah, As it signifies, (m) To choose. Because in making Covenants, there is a choise made of Persons betwixt whom, and of things or Conditions about which there is Covenanting. Or, from ברה Barah, as it signifies To (n) eat, because they usually had a Feast at making of Covenants. 5. Some derive it from ברא Bara, or ברה Barah, To smite, strike, cut or divide, (as both these words signifie,) because in making Covenants commonly Sacrifices were stricken and slain for confirmation and solemnity. This last is the Common opinion about the original of this Name, thinks that learned (o) Rivet: and doubtless to be preferred before all the former. So this word ברית Berith, Covenant, seems to sound as much, as כרית Kerith, A smiting or striking; because of Sacrifices slain in Covenanting. Hence the word Covenant is often joyned with כרת Karath, which which signifies striking of Covenant. An example of this beyond all exception (saith (p) Rivet) is in that Sacrifice, wherein God by Moses made a Covenant with all the people of Israel, and bound them to obey his Law. The description of it is Exod. 24. For when Moses had built an Altar at the bottom of Mount Sinai, and had erected twelve pillars according to the twelve Tribes, He caused the young men to sacrifice burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and he took half of the blood, and put it in Basons, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the Altar. And he took the Book of the Covenant, and read in the audience of the people: And they said, All that the LORD hath said, will we do, and be obedient. And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the Covenant, which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these words. And sometimes the Sacrifices slain in Covenanting were cut in twain, and the parties covenanting passed between the Parts for Confirmation of the Covenant, as Gen. 15. 9, 10, 17, &c. Jer. 34. 18, 19, 20. And the Heathen in their Covenanting used Sacrifices and divided them, passing between the parts, as learned men have observ'd; and, probably in imitation of Gods people. And that Phrase, (q) A Covenant of Salt, denoting a Perpetual Covenant, is thought hence to have taken its rise: Not because Salt resisting Putrefaction preserves things; But because Salt by a Perpetual law was to be used in all Sacrifices, and Sacrifices were still used in Covenanting; As (r) Oleaster, and after him (s) Rivet, and after them both, (t) M. Ball hath well observed. II. The Greek name Διαθήκη Diatheke, A Covenant, or A Testament; is the word by which, not only the LXXII Greek Translators of the Old Testament do generally, yea everywhere (except only in Deut. 9. 15.) render the Hebrew Name ברית Berith, as (u) some learned men observe: But also upon diligent search I find that this is the (x) only word by which the Apostles and Holy Penmen in the New Testament render the Hebrew word Berith. And this Greek word being translated sometimes Covenant, sometimes Testament, is the only word that is used in the whole new Testament for Covenant and Testament: whersoever either of these are mentioned, it is still Diatheke. viz. For Covenant in Luke 1. 72. Acts 3. 25. & 7. 8. Rom. 9. 4. & 11. 27. Gal. 3. 15, 17. 4. 24. Ephes. 2. 12. Heb. 8, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10. & 9. 1, 4. & 10. 16. & 12. 24. & 13. 20. For Testament in Mat. 26. 28. Mark 14. 24. Luke 22. 20. 1 Cor. 11. 25. 2 Cor. 3. 6, 14. Heb. 7. 22. & 9. 15, 16, 17, 18. Revel. 11. 19. And I finde it not used at all in any other places of the New Testament. So that it concerns us much to understand the meaning of this word aright. Now Διαθήκη Diatheke, being derived from Διατίθεμαι, Diatithemai, signifying, to Dispose, compose, constitute, or make; (y) Generally it signifies a Disposition or a Disposal, but yet such a Disposal wherein a Promise is contained Expresly or Implicitly. And Particularly it signifies either such a Disposal as is meerly federal, viz. A Compact betwixt the living: or such a Disposal as is Testamentary, Teſtamentary, viz. A laſt will or Teſtament of one dying whereby he diſpoſeth of his goods and affairs by Word or Writing. This is to be noted againſt Papiſts, who much miſtake the Genuine ſignification of the Greek word, Diatheke, reſtraining it only to a Teſtamentary diſpoſition. And in the New Teſtament it is uſed for a (a) Federal Diſpoſition, as well as for a (a) Teſtamental, as our Tranſlatours have well rendered it both ways. And Gods Covenant expreſſed by it (think (b) ſome) is mixed of the Properties of both Covenant and of Teſtament, as the Apoſtle ſheweth in Heb. 9. 16,17. &c. and of both may be named, A Teſtamental Covenant, or a Covenanting Teſtament, whereby the diſpoſing of Gods favours and good things to us his children is declared.

II. The various acceptation and uſe of theſe two Names in Old and N. Teſtament is alſo conſiderable for the opening of the Covenant.

1. The Hebrew ברית Berith, is uſed in the New Teſtament for Compacts or Agreements, 1. Religious. 2. Civil. 3. Sinful.

1. For Religious Compacts or Agreements, 1. Of God with his Church and People. 2. Of Gods People with God.

- 1. Of God with his Church & People: which is
  - 1. More Generall, with his whole Church. So Gods Covenant is uſed
    - 1. Properly God
      - 1. For Gods Gracious Agreement with his people in Chriſt, for their happineſs and Salvation. Thus the word is uſed in Gen. 6. 18. & 17. 4, 11. Exod. 34. 28. Ier. 31. 31, 32. Heb. 8. 6, 7, 8, 9. And in this ſenſe its uſed moſt frequently.
      - 2. For ſome branch or Additional only to that Agreement: By a Synechdoche of the part for the whole. As Covenant for not drowning the world, Gen. 9. 9. to 18. For continuing Day and Night, &c. Ier. 33. 20, 25 with Gen. 8. 21, 22. For Earthly bleſſings, Hoſ. 2. 18. to 23. Againſt the particular ſin of Idolatry, as Gods Covenant with Iſrael in the Land of Moab, Deut. 29. 1.
    - 2. Improperly
      - 1. For Chriſt, The Mediator of the Covenant. By a Metonymy. As Iſa. 42. 6. & 49. 8.
      - 2. For Circumciſion, The Token and Seal of the Covenant. By a Metonymy of the Sign for the thing ſignified, Gen. 17. 13.
  - 2. More ſpecial and peculiar, whh ſome particular perſons, or ſorts of perſons only. Thus the word is uſed for Gods Covenant-Agreement with
    - 1. Prieſts and Levites, about their office and maintenance, Numb. 18. 19. Neh. 13. 29. Mal. 2. 4, 5, 8.
    - 2. Phineahs, for an everlaſting Prieſthood, Numb. 25. 12, 13.
    - 3. David, for a perpetual Kingdom, 2 Chron 13. 5.
- 2. Of Gods people with God, engaging themſelves to Duty. And this either
  - 1. More Solemnly in publique Covenants for Reformation. As Ioſh. 24. 25. 2 Kings 11. 17. & 23 3. 2 Chron. 15. 12. & 20. 10. Ezra 10. 3.
  - 2. More Secretly in private Reſolutions and promiſes touching points of Sanctification, Iob 31. 1.

2. For Civill Compacts or Agreements.
- 1. Of Man and Woman in Marriage, Mal. 2. 19. Prov. 2. 17.
- 2. Of particular perſons, Societies or States about other ſecular affairs, Gen. 21. 27, 32. Exod. 23. 32. 1 Sam. 18. 3. and 20. 16.

3. For Sinful Compacts or Agreements.
- 1. With Idols: by Idolatry. Metaphorically, Iſa. 57. 8.
- 2. With Death and Hell; by Security. Metaphorically. Iſa. 28. 15, 18.

Theſe

These are the several Acceptations of the Hebrew word Berith, Covenant in the Old Testament, and I finde not any other. Now here the word is Considered in the first sense, as it denoteth a Religious Compact and Agreement of God with his People, more Generally, in order to their Happiness and Salvation.

2. The Greek Name διαθήκη, Diatheke, is used also in the New Testament, 1. In a Religious; 2. In a Civil sense.

1. In a Religious use, this Name Diatheke is taken
- 1. More Properly, and that sometimes
  - 1. In a larger Sense, for Gods Covenant of Faith. As Act. 3. 25. Gal. 3. 17. Heb. 8. 6. &c. & 9. 1. &c.
  - 2. In a stricter Sense, for Gods Testament, or for Gods Covenant as it is Testamentary, and ratified by the death and blood of a Testator. By Typical blood of Sacrifices: So it denotes the Old Testament. Heb. 9. 18, 19, 20. By Anti-typical or true blood of Christ, the Anti-type: So it denotes the New Testament in his blood, Mat. 26. 28. Luke 22. 20. Heb. 9. 15.
- 2. More Improperly and Metonymically, for Circumcision. By a Metonymy of the Sign. As Act. 7. 8.

2. In a Civil use, this Name διαθήκη, Diatheke, in the New Testament, is applyed to signifie A mans Will or Testament whereby he disposeth of his outward Estate, how it shall be bestowed or imployed after his decease. Gal. 3. 15. Heb. 9. 16, 17.

Here, treating of Gods Covenant, we are not to consider the word διαθήκη Covenant or Testament, in a Civil, but in a Religious Sense: And that, as it more Properly signifies, Gods Covenant, in a larger: or Gods Testament, in a stricter Acceptation.

Thus of the Names given to Gods Covenant in Scripture, both in respect of their Grammatical Notation, and of their various Theological Acceptations. As for the English word (c) Covenant, or League: and the Latine words (d) Fadus, Pactum, Testamentum, I insist not upon them, because they are not in the Scripture-Originals. Now to the thing it self.

(c) Covenant seems to be so called from the Latin Conventio, a Convening, or coming together: because in making Covenants, men come together not only into one place, but especially into one agreement, &c.

League, seems to be derived either from the Latin Lego, To send, because Ambassages or Messages use to be sent about making of Leagues. Or from Ligo, To binde: Leagues being binding to them that enter into them. (d) Auson. Popma de verb. different. lib. 2. *in verb. Fadus. Cooks Instit. APHORISM

Aphorism II.

Gods Covenant (in the General notion of it) is his Gratuitous Agreement with his people, Promising them Eternal Happiness and all subordinate Good: and requiring from them all due dependance upon God, and obedience unto him, in order to his glory.

This Description of Gods Covenant (Generally considered) is of such latitude as to comprehend in it the Nature of all Gods Covenants with his people, though most variously administred to them in their greatest varieties of Conditions, both before and after the Fall. This will best appear, if we view it in the particulars. In this Description note, 1. The general Nature of Gods Covenants. 2. The special Difference of them from all other Covenants.

I. The general Nature of Gods Covenants with his People, it is An Agreement. All Covenants, Divine and Humane, consist in some Agreement. (e) Can two walk together, except they be Agreed? Concord is the foundation of all Contracts. Now Gods Agreement with his People is twofold; 1. Implicite only. So Gods Agreement with Adam was implied, Partly by the (f) Inscription of his Law, and Covenant in his heart, which Adam was to perform. Partly by Threatning his (g) disobedience with death, under which was implyed a Promise of life upon his Obedience. 2. Explicite; wherein God plainly Expresseth his Agreement with his people. This he Doth (h) Sometimes by word only, As to (h) Abraham and the Fathers before Moses, before any Scripture was written. (i) Sometimes by writing also, As to (i) Israel by Moses, and afterwards. Hence such frequent mention of the Tables of the Covenant, and of The Book of the Covenant.

(e) Amos 3. 3.

(f) compare Gen. 1. 27. & Eccles. 7. 29. with Rom. 2. 14, 15.

(g) Gen. 2. 17.

(h) Gen. 6. 18. & 17. 7. 9. &c.

(i) Exod. 34. 28. & 24. 7.

II. The Special Difference betwixt Gods Covenants and all other Covenants, is contained in the residue of the Description. Chiefly in the 1. Efficient. 2. Matter. 3. Form. And 4. End of Gods Covenant.

1. The Efficient Cause or Author of this Covenant is God. It is Gods gratious Agreement. In humane Covenants, where there is some Proportion and Equality betwixt the parties Covenanting, they joyntly are Con-causes, or joynt Authors of their Covenants mutually agreed upon. But betwixt the Most-high God and man, finite and infinite, there being no equality or proportion at all, God alone is the Author of the Covenant betwixt him and his People. And they must accept what Covenant, and upon what terms, God will please to propound, or none at all. Hence the Covenants betwixt God and his people, are seldom referred to the people as their Covenants (though in some sense they may be stiled (k) theirs, viz. As they are parties to them, and obliged to perform the Conditions of of them)But generally they are all ſtill in Scripture referred to God, Counted (l) his Covenants, and ſaid to be made (m) by him with them. Thus God alone is the Author of the Covenant: And his free-grace or favour, is the only Inward Impulſive, or Moving Cauſe why he makes a Covenant with his people. Its his gratuitous Agreement with them, God is a moſt free Agent, and (n) works all things according to the Counſel and good-pleaſure of his own will. It is an Act of his grace and mercy to make Covenant with his people: but having made a Covenant with them, it is an Act of his Juſtice, Truth and faithfulneſs to make good and perform Covenant. God freely makes himſelf our debtor, by Covenanting; God faithfully and juſtly paies his debt in performing Covenant with us.

(n) Eph. 1. 5, 7, 9, 11.

2. The Matter of Gods Covenant with his People, is, On Gods part, Eternal happineſs and all Subordinate good, Promiſed to them: On his peoples Part, All due dependance upon God and obedience to him, required of them, and reſtipulated by them. 1. That Eternal Happineſs is the Subject matter in all Gods Covenants after the Fall, is evident by the Tenour of them (as will after appear particularly) And in Gods Covenant alſo before the Fall it cannot be juſtly doubted. For, when (o) Death, not only corporal and ſpiritual, but alſo eternal was threatned and inflicted upon diſobedience: Conſequently not only a Corporal and Spiritual, but alſo Eternal life was promiſed and ſhould have been performed upon Obedience. Now where Eternal happineſs is promiſed, all leſſer and ſubordinate good muſt needs be included, as leading thereunto. And this is clear in all Gods Covenants if exactly conſidered; which are bundles of Promiſes touching the life that now is, and that which is to come.

(o) Gen. 2. 17. with Rom. 6. 23.

2. And reciprocally Gods peoples due dependance upon God, and obedience unto him, is expreſſed or implied in all Gods Covenants with them. Adam muſt depend upon God for life; and be exactly obedient unto God, not only in keeping the Law moral writ in his heart, but in obſerving the (p) Law of trial touching the forbidden fruit. Noah (q) muſt depend upon God, for preſervation from the flood: and alſo be duely obedient to God in making an Ark for his preſervation. Abraham (r) muſt depend upon God for Canaan Covenanted, and for the bleſſedneſs of all Nations in his ſeed promiſed; And he muſt alſo duly obey God, in walking before God, in being perfect, and in circumciſing all his Males. And the like may be ſaid of all Gods Covenants with his people.

(p) Gen. 2. 17.
(q) Gen. 6. 14. to the end. Heb. 11. 7.
(r) Gen. 17. 1, 2. &c.

3. The Form of Gods Covenant, Conſiſts in Gods Promiſing to his people, and his peoples reſtipulation to God. Promiſe and Reſtipulation betwixt federates, make up the formality of federal Obligation. Gods Promiſe is not alwaies Expreſſed, but ſometimes neceſſarily and by Conſequence implyed. As the Promiſe of life is implyed in the (s) threatning of death to Adam. And Gods peoples Reſtipulation is ſometimes only implyed; As in Gods Covenant with Adam after the Fall, God expreſly Promiſeth that the (t) Seed of the woman ſhall bruiſe

(s) Gen. 2. 17.
(t) Gen. 3. 15.

bruiſe the Serpents Head; And Adam implicitly reſtipulateth by faith to accept this Seed of the woman, Chriſt.

4 The End of Gods Covenant with his People, is his Own Glory. In all things God ſeeks his own glory, and ſo ſhould we ſeek his Glory above all. God by, his Covenant diſplaies his Glory moſt Glorioufly. Herein ſhines, The glory of his free Grace in willing it; The Glory of his wiſdom in contriving it; The Glory of his goodneſs mercy and loving-kindneſs in condeſcending and ſtooping to mean man, and that ſo familiarly in a Covenant-way; The glory of his Liberty, in accepting whom, when, where, and upon what terms he pleaſeth, into Covenant with himſelf, and rejecting alſo at his pleaſure; The Glory of his Juſtice and Faithfulneſs in performing exactly all the Promiſes and Threats of his Covenant in their Seaſon; And the glory of his Power in Enabling his People acceptably to perform Covenant with him unto the End.

APHORISM III.

GOds Covenant with his People is not only one, but divers: And it is divers both for Kind, Degree, and Circumſtances. It may be thus diſtributed or diſtinguiſhed. Gods Covenant is, I. Of (u) Works, in the firſt Adam, before the fall. II. Of (x) Faith, in the ſecond Adam, after the Fall. This Covenant of Faith is ſubdiſtinguiſhed gradually and Accidentally, in reſpect of the Promiſe, and Performance, of Chriſt the ſecond Adam, into 1. The (y) Covenants of Promiſe, under the Old Teſtament; (1) with (2) Adam; (3) with (a) Noah; (4) with (b) Abraham: (5) with (c) Iſrael at Sinai: (6) with (d) David: (7) with the (e) Jews about their Return from Babylon. 2. The (f) New Covenant, under the New Teſtament both with Jews and Gentiles. As in the enſuing Scheme;

Gods Covenant is two-fold.

1. A Covenant of works, in the firſt Adam, before the Fall.
2. A Covenant of faith in the ſecond Adam, after the Fall; comprehending
   1. The Covenants of Promiſe, under the Old Teſtament.
      1. With Adam.
      2. With Noah.
      3. With Abraham.
      4. With Iſrael in Mount Sinai.
      5. With David.
      6. With the Jews about their return from Babylon.
   2. The Covenant of Performance, or the New Covenant, under the New Teſtament.

This distribution of Gods Covenant, I like best to follow, as conceiving it (without prejudice to any mans judgement) most clear, full and unexceptionable. For explaining the branches of it; Consider,

1. Gods Covenant is First distributed into [1] A Covenant of works, and [2] A Covenant of faith. This is a Division of Gods Covenant, into its several Species or Kinds, which are directly opposite to each other. For the Covenant of works, and the Covenant of Faith are two opposite Kinds of Covenants. This upon the Matter seems to be the Apostles distribution; (g) Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? Of works? Nay: but by the Law of Faith. Here the Apostle is treating of Gods free justification of us in Christ, the way to Eternal Happiness, which God Covenants with his people: and he shews that Gods justification is such, as all boasting is excluded. How? Not by the Law of works, but by the Law of Faith. These amount to as much as the Covenant of works, and the Covenant of Faith. And again it is said, (h) The Promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham or to his seed, through the Law (i. e. the works of the Law) but through the righteousness of Faith. Which intimates thus much, That Gods Covenant with Abraham and his seed to make him heir of the world, was not a Covenant of works, but of Faith. Again, This Distribution Ariseth, from the Opposite Stipulations required, works and Faith; from the Opposite foundations of the Covenants, The first Adam, and the second Adam; and from the Opposite States of mankind when these Covenants were made, viz. Before the fall, and After the fall: and therefore it seems very clear.

(g) Rom. 3. 27.

(h) Rom. 4. 13.

And inasmuch as all covenants of God with his people, may be referred to one of these two heads; viz. works in the first Adam before the fall, or Faith in the second Adam since the fall, it seems very full.

Hence we may the better see what to judge of other distinctions of Gods Covenant. 1. Some distinguish Gods Covenant, into the (i) Covenant of works, and Covenant of Grace: But the members of this Distinction are not Opposite; for it was an Act of Gods Grace and favour, that he would enter into a Covenant of works with Adam, before as well as after the fall. 2. Some, into the (k) Legal and Evangelical Covenant: But if by Legal Covenant, they understand the Law and Covenant as Published on Mount Sinai, &c. (as usually men do) that seems a great mistake; for that was a publication Evangelical of the Covenant of faith, not of works. If by Legal, they mean Gods Covenant with Adam before the fall, Then the Legal and Evangelical Covenant, is for substance the same with the Covenant of works and of Faith. 3. Some, into (l) The Covenant of Nature, of Grace, and Subservient to the Covenant of Grace. The first was made with Adam in his natural integrity; The second with Adam, Abraham, &c. after the fall, through Christ; The third with Israel at Mount Sinai which is calld the Old Testament. But (though this be the Distinction of a learned Author, probably devised to avoid some difficulties about the Covenant of Faith, as publiſhed on Mount Sinai, yet) it is not without its inconveniencies. For, Gods Covenant with Adam in innocency was not ſo Natural, but that it was alſo Gratuitous, and of divine favour, that God would deal ſo familiarly with Adam as by way of Covenant, from whom as his Creature he might have exacted obedience by an Abſolute Command: And this Covenant on Mount Sinai, called Subſervient to the Covenant of Grace, is not a diſtinct Species or Kind of Covenant from the Covenant of faith, or Grace, but a diſtinct publication of the ſame Covenant, the Manner of Adminiſtration being ſingler and the Degree of manifeſtation clearer then of all before: in reſpect of which Degree and Manner, it was ſubſervient indeed to the Covenant of Grace, viz. for clearing the foregoing publications, and for preparing to the following publications, Eſpecially to that of the New Covenant.

2 Gods Covenant of Faith, in the ſecond Adam, after the Fall, is Subdiſtinguiſhed into, 1. The Covenants of Promiſe. 2. The New Covenant. This Diſtinction is grounded upon Chriſt the only Mediator and foundation of the Covenant of Faith, and upon his different Repreſentation in this Covenant. Chriſt is repreſented herein, 1. As Promiſed and to come afterwards, to work our Redemption. And ſo he is ſet forth in the Covenants of Promiſe, To Adam, Noah, &c. 2. As Performed, incarnate, and having ſuffered already: and ſo he is ſet forth in the New Covenant or new Teſtament ſolemnly eſtabliſhed by his death. Now The Covenants of Promiſe, and The New Covenant are Eſſentially one and the ſame Covenant of Faith. Therefore I ſay, The Covenant of faith Comprehends them: but they differ only Gradually and Accidentally, as after in due place will appear.

3. In The Covenants of Promiſe, I find no writers obſerving above five Eminent Gradual ſteps or Adminiſtrations; Gods Covenant with Noah, being generally (but I think, cauſeleſly) omitted by them. Therefore Adding that, I produce ſix. And why Gods Covenant with Noah is to be ranked among the Eminent Diſcoveries of the Covenant of Faith, ſhall be evidenced in handling of that Particular.

Gods Covenant,

CHAP I.

1. Of Gods Covenant of works, with the First Adam, and his Natural Seed before the Fall.

APHORISM I.

GOD was pleased to Enter into Covenant with the First Adam, before his Fall. Under the term, (m) Adam, Scripture sometimes Comprehends both sexes, both Adam and his Wife. And if any shall Contend that God entred into Covenant with both Adam and we at once, as the Compleat Root of mankind, I shall not much gainsay: and yet this will not so easily be proved, nor know I any inconvenience that would follow, should it be denyed, the woman coming of Adam as well as any of his posterity. Nor am I ignorant that (n) some are of opinion, that Adam received the Covenant alone, and was to teach it, and did teach it to his Wife, which Opinion hath the more weight, because when God (°) forbids the Eating of the tree of knowledge under pain of Death, (wherein the Promise of life contrariwise is implied,) he speaks only in the Singular number, viz. To Adam only.

But how may it be evidenced, That God entred into Covenent with the first Adam, even into a Covenant of Works, before the Fall? Answ. Though it be not Positively and plainly said in Scripture, That God gave Adam a Covenant of Works, before his fall: and though the characters and footsteps of this Covenant are not so expresly discovered in Holy Writ, as of some others; yet notwithstanding, upon sundry Scripture-grounds and Considerations, it may be evinced sufficiently. As,

1. From the Inscription of the Covenant of Works in Adam's heart. Before the Fall God wrote the Covenant of Works, viz. The Substance of the Moral Law, perfectly in Adam's heart; and in so doing, Entred into Covenant with him. Here are three thing in this Position to be cleared; viz. 1. That the Moral Law is the Covenant of Works. 2. That this Moral Law was perfectly written in Adams heart before the Fall. 3. That God in writing the Moral Law in his heart, Entred into Covenant of Works with him. 1. That the Moral Law (abstractly and precisely in its self considered, without the additionals, viz. The Preface, Ceremonial Law, &c. (p) joyntly promulged with it in Horeb) is the Covenant of Works, is manifest; (') Because, the Moral Law (q) (by which is the knowledge of Sin, and (r) which worketh wrath) is stiled by the Apostle (f) The Law of works, and is set in Opposition to The Law of Faith. Now this Law of Works, and Law of Faith, amount in effect to as much as the Covenant of works, and Covenant of Faith. (2) Because (t) Righteousnes and life were at first by the Moral Law, and should have been so still, had not the Law become unable to give Righteousnes and life, in that it was (u) weak through the flesh, Man through Sin being unable to keep it. Now the Law, requiring obedience, and promising life upon that Condition, must needs be a Covenant, and that a Covenant of Works: Works being the proper Condition of it. 2. That this Moral Law for Substance was perfectly written in Adams heart before the Fall, is certain; (') Because, Man was made in (x) Gods image (y) upright, and perfect. And consequently was throughly furnished with all accomplishments of upright and perfect Humane nature: and particularly with the Moral Law, that Law of Nature; The Substance whereof was Engraven Both in his mind, by natural light, knowing it; and in his will, by natural integrity conforming unto it. (2) Because, The (z) Work of the Law remains imperfectly written in some dim characters in the very hearts of Pagans and Heathens since the Fall; They doing by Nature the things contained in the Law, and being a Law unto themselves, without the Law of God written. Whence we may strongly Conclude That much more before the Fall the Moral Law was perfectly written in Adam's heart, there being in him no sin to deface it in the least degree. 3. That, God, in writing the Moral Law in in Adam's heart, entred into Covenant of Works with him. viz. By Real Impreſsions upon his Heart: though not by Verbal Expreſsions to the ear. For by this Law written in Adam's heart, he had laid before him, what obedience was required and aſſented to on Adams part: And what recompence ſhould be performed on Gods part. And this was at leaſt an Implicit, if not an Explicit, Covenanting.

2. From Gods expreſs preſcription of a Poſitive Law unto Adam in his innocent State. Gods Poſitive Law is laid down in theſe words, (a) And the LORD God commanded the man, ſaying, Of every Tree of the Garden thou mayſt freely eat: But of the Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil, thou ſhalt not eat of it; for in the day that thou eateſt thereof thou ſhalt ſurely die. Here are Parties Covenanting, and agreeing upon terms, viz. God and Adam: Here are alſo terms agreed upon and matters Covenanted reciprocally by theſe parties; Adam on his part was to be obedient to God, in forbearing to Eat of the Tree of Knowledge onely: God on his part, for preſent, Permits Adam to eat of all other Trees of the Garden; And for future (in his explicit threatning of Death in caſe of diſobedience,) implicitly promiſeth life in caſe of Obedience herein. Now where there are Parties Covenanting and agreeing upon terms: And terms mutually agreed upon by thoſe parties, as here; There's the Subſtance of an Expreſs Covenant, though it be not formally and in expreſs words called a Covenant.

3. From the intention and uſe of the two Eminent Trees, viz. (b) The Tree of Life in the midſt of the Garden, and the Tree of Knowledge of good and evil. The intended uſe of theſe two Trees in Paradiſe, was Sacramental. Hence they are called Symbolical Trees, and Sacramental Trees. The Tree of life, ſignifying to Adam, that if he continued in his obedience, and did eat of that Tree, he ſhould have life continued to him for ever. Gods ſpeech, after the fall of Adam, ſeems to imply thus much; (c) And now leſt he put forth his hand, and take alſo of the Tree of Life, and eat, and live for ever. And (d) Some are of opinion that this Tree ſignified Chriſt the Son of God, in whom (e) was life, and that life the light of men: and that, by the Son of God (but not as God-man, nor as Mediatour) this everlaſting life was to have been confirmed, according to the Sacramental ſignification of this Tree of Life. The (f) Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, ſignifying alſo to Adam contrariwiſe, (g) That if he ſhould become diſobedient, and eat of that Tree, in that very day he ſhould certainly Die. The former was a Sacrament of life, this of Death: That for Confirmation of Obedience, this for Exploration of Obedience, and Caution againſt diſobedience. And learned Writers both Ancient and Modern, Count theſe Trees Symbolical, and Sacramental. Auguſtine ſaith, (h) There was a Tree of life, as the Rock was Chriſt: Nor would God have man to live in Paradise without mysteries of Spiritual things corporally represented. He had therefore in the other Trees, nourishment; but in that Tree, A Sacrament. B. Hall said wittily (i) Neither did these Trees afford him onely action for his hands, but instruction to his heart: For here he saw Gods Sacraments grow before him. All other Trees had a Natural use; these two in the midst of the Garden a Spiritual. The one Tree was for confirmation; the other for Tryal. One shewed him what life he should have; The other what knowledge he should not desire to have. Alas, he that knew all other things, knew not this one thing, that he knew enough, &c. M. Perkins more solidly; (k) Now for Adam's Sacraments, they were two; The Tree of life, and the Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil: These did serve to exercise Adam in obedience unto God. The Tree of Life was to signifie assurance of life for ever, if he did keep Gods Commandments: The Tree of Knowledge of good and evil, was a Sacrament to shew unto him, that if he did transgress Gods Commandments, he should dye: and it was so called, because it did Signifie, that if he did transgress this Law, he should have experience both of good and evil in himself. To like effect, (l) many other Authors express themselves. Now if these two Trees, were two Sacraments, assuring of life in case of Obedience, and of Death in case of Disobedience; then hence we may collect, That God not only entred into a Covenant of works with the first Adam, but also Gave him this Covenant under Sacramental Signs and Seals.

4. Finally, From the sad event and fruit of the first Adams Fall, to all his ordinary Posterity, even all mankind: viz. Guilt of Sin and Death. The Apostle saith, That in one man (that is, Adam) all sinned; and (m) That, in Adam all dye. (n) As by one man sin entred into the world, and Death by sin: Even so Death passed upon all men (viz. by that one man,) in whom all have sinned. Thus the words are best translated, as some (o) learned men have well observed. So then in one Adams sinning, all sinned: and in one Adam's dying all dyed; As the Apostle at large shewes in that fift to the Romans. But how did all mankind sin in Adam? Answ. Not only by Imitation of Adam as an evil example: for Death seized on them that have not so sinned, not actually sinned, Rom. 5. 14. Nor meerly by Propagation, as from a corrupt Root or fountain. For the Apostle doth not parallel Adam and Christ as two common Roots only, but also as two common publike or universal Persons. For our immediate parents are Corrupted roots, & we corrupted by them, yet their Actual Sins are not made ours, as Adams is. But in Adams first Sin, we all became Sinners, by Imputation: Adam being an universal Person, and all mankinde one in him by Gods Covenant of works (as after will appear.) (p) All were that one man, as Augustine saith; viz. by federal Consociation. God covenanted with Adam, and in him with all his Posterity: and therefore Adams breach of Covenant fell not only upon him, but upon all his Posterity.

APHORISM

Aphorism II.

Gods Entring into Covenant with Adam before his fall, was an Act of Divine Grace and favour, not of debt.

For, 1. God the Creator of Adam and of all things, hath an absolute Supremacy over all, and as absolute a liberty to dispose, as he will, of all. He might as Creator have dealt only in a Supream way of Command, requiring duty from Adam without any Promise of Reward: But he condescends to Adam, Enters into a Covenant and Promise with him of his meer good pleasure, being no way Necessitated or Obliged thereunto. And that was meer Grace. 2. Adam though perfect and upright, and though perfectly persevering in that integrity, could merit no reward, nor any Promise of Reward. For when he had done all he could, he should have been an unprofitable servant, having done nothing but what was duty. And though Adam had walked in perfect Obedience with God, yet might not God (without any wrong to Adam) for the Manifesting of his Soveraignty, power and liberty, have brought him to nothing as he made him of nothing?

Hence; 1. Adam had great Cause, before his fall, to serve the Lord most freely and cheerfully in all obedience. God creates him: therefore Adam owed him all. God Covenants with him: therefore he ows him (if it were possible) more then all. By bonds of Nature, Adam was obliged to be dutiful: by obligation of Covenant-favour, to be double dutiful. For his Being he owed him much: for his wel being, he owed him more. 2. The more divine favour shined in Gods Covenant with Adam; the more Haynous and inexcusable was Adams breach of Covenant with God. Gods Kindness heightens and aggravates Adams unkindness. 3. If Gods Covenant with the First Adam, in his integrity, was an Act of Divine Grace: Then Gods Covenant with lapsed man, in Christ the second Adam, is an Act of superabounding and Transcendent Grace. If Adam, whilst he was without Sin, and able not to Sin, could deserve nothing from God: what can we deserve or challenge from God, who are nothing but lumps of sin, and can do nothing but sin?

Aphorism III.

Gods Entring into Covenant with the First Adam before his Fall, did, in and with him, Enter into the same Covenant with all his Posterity.

This is Evident; 1. By the Miserable Event of Adams breach of of this Covenant upon all his Posterity. In Adams Sinning, all his Posterity Sinned: and in Adams dying they all dyed. (q) As by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin: and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Or as the Greek will well bear it; In whom all have sinned. Or (as a (r) Learned Critick hath well observed, whom in this particular I rather follow) This verse may best be rendered thus; As by one man sin entered into the world, and by sin Death; even so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned. Here's no forcing of the Text; and thus the sense runs clear. But, How have all men sinned, and so death passed upon them? All have not sinned (s) Actually, as Adam sinned: for many dye before they are Capable of Actual sinning. How then? All are sinners Originally, by reason of the (t) Corruption of Nature. True; yet the Apostle reacheth farther, saying, (u) By the offence of one (or, by one offence) judgement came upon all men unto condemnation. Therefore by Adams one offence, all men are condemned: and that before they actually Sin, or are originally unclean. How can this be, but in reference to the Covenant, wherein Adam and all his posterity, were one party, as God the other? 2. By the Analogy Or Proportion of Gods dealing in all other Covenants. His usual course is to take in Head and members, Root and branches. As, (x) Christ the last Adam and his posterity; (y) Noah, and his family, (z) Abraham, (a) David (b) Israel, and their Seed, and their Seeds Seed. In like manner here God deals with Adam and his Posterity Proportionably; God took them all into Covenant with Adam the Common Head, and Root of them all.

APHORISM IV.

THe Covenant which God made with the First Adam and his Posterity before the Fall, hath upon several respects divers Names or Denominations put upon it; but for the Nature of it, It is Gods gratious Agreement with Adam, and with his Posterity, in him, To give them Eternal life and happiness, upon condition of Perfect and Personal obedience. For opening the Names and Nature of this Covenant particularly, consider;

1. The Names or Denominations which learned men attribute to this Covenant, are divers, and that upon divers Notions and Considerations. As, 1. A (c) Covenant of Amity, or Friendship. Because the parties to this Covenant, God and Adam with his Posterity, were in perfect Amity, when this Covenant was made: there was no Enmity or Discord at all betwixt them. Adam (as (d) Tertullian expresseth it) was innocent, a most near friend to God, and inhabitant of Paradise, 2. A (e) Covenant of Nature. Because founded upon Creation, and the integrity of mans Nature; and requiring only a natural righteousness. 3. A (f) Covenant of Life. In respect of that happy Life which God implicitly promised to Adam therein. For, under the threatning of death, expressed in case of disobedience, The Promise of life is implyed in case of obedience. 4. A Legal Covenant, or Covenant of Works, In respect of Adams Restipulation of Exact obedience required of God; Legal works in all points perfect being the Condition of this Covenant. This last denomination, unto me seems fittest, for Reasons (g) formerly mentioned.

Creation

(f) See the lesser Catech. Advised by the Assemb. of Divines.

(g) See before. in Book I. ch. 2. Aphor. 3.

II. The Nature of this Covenant is in this Description represented by 1. The Author; 2. Parties; 3. Form; and 4. Matter of it.

1. The Author of it, is God. Adam even in innocency stood not upon Equal terms with God, but infinitely below him, as a Creature below his Creator. Therefore it concerned him, not to Capitulate or indent with God about the Covenant, but humbly and thankfully to accept what Covenant the righteous God would impose. Now God became the Author of this Covenant of works with Adam two waies, viz. 1. By giving Adam the substance, Law and Rule of this Covenant, both Inwardly, and Outwardly. Inwardly, in his engraving the Substance of the Moral-law upon his heart: Some dim Characters whereof remain still even (h) upon the hearts of Pagans that have not Gods written Law. Outwardly, in that Express Positive Law about the Tree of Knowledge, (i) forbidding to eat thereof under penalty of present Death: but implicitly promising life in case of not eating, in case of obedience: This former was the General Rule for his direction in obedience: This Latter was the special Touchstone for Exploration & Detection of his Obedience. 2. By annexing two Tokens or Sacramental Signs to this Covenant, viz. (k) The Tree of Life, To assure Adam of the certainty of life promised, in Case of perfect Obedience: And the Tree of Knowledge, to assure him of the Certainty of Death, in case of Disobedience. (l) Learned men are of opinion, that these two trees were Sacramental Trees.

(h) Rom. 2. 14, 15.

(k) Gen. 2. 9, 17. & 3 22.

(l) Aug. l. de Genes. ad Liter. lib 8. c. 4. Tom. 3. D. Pareus in Comment. in Genes. 2. 9.

2. The Parties to this Covenant of works, are God, and Adam together with Adams Posteritie in him. God, As a Creator, wel-pleased with Adam, Covenants with Adam as his Creature, fashioned according to his own image, and perfectly upright without all spot of Sin. In this Notion, they were Parties to this Covenant of works; but in a far other notion afterwards to the Covenant of Faith.

3. The Form of this Covenant consists in the Agreement betwixt God and Adam; viz. (m) That Adam in his own Person should yield perfect and perpetual obedience unto God, and Particularly should discover his obedience in forbearing to eat of the tree of Knowledge: and in so doing he should live happily, otherwise dye presently. This the sum of the Agreement. God propounds it; Annexes two Sacramental Trees for confirming it: Adam Accepts it.

(m) Compare and well weigh Gen. 1. 26, 27. & 2. 16, 17. Eccles. 7. 29. with Gal 3. 10.

Now that God should engage himself by Promise and Covenant to give Adam Life in case of obedience, and should also annex two Signs or Tokens to this Covenant: These were Acts of meer favour and Grace from God. Adam could in no respect challenge or expect the one or the other, though he had been never so obedient. Hence it may well be stiled Gods Gracious Agreement with Adam.

4. The Matter of this Covenant was principally twofold. viz. 1. The blessing Promised, and curse threatned on Gods part. 2. The Duty Restipulated on Adams part.

(1) The Blessing promised and Curse threatned, is the matter of the Covenant on Gods Part, (n) For, in the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely dye. Contrariwise he implied; Till the day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely live. For clearing this, divers Doubts or Questions hereunto appertaining, are to be resolved. As; 1. What Life Adam had in his innocency? 2. What Life it was which God farther Promised him, upon his persisting in obedience? 3. What death it was which God threatned in case of Disobedience? 4. How Gods threatning of Death was fulfilled, Seeing Adam did not dye in the self-same day, that he did eat of the tree of Knowledge, but (o) lived 930 years after?

(n) Gen. 2. 17.

(o) Gen. 5. 5.

Quest. 1. What life it was which Adam Enjoyed in innocency? Answ. It is not here the Question; whether Adam's Life in Innocency was Natural, or Supernatural? And I suppose it will easily be Granted, That, as Gods Law written in Adams heart, as the Rule of his life, was Natural: And as Gods Image, wherein Adam was Created, As the Principle of his obedience and of his living to God, was Natural: and as every thing in Adams primitive Created state was Natural: So his life that he lived in innocency with God & to God, was Natural. But the Question here is; whether Adam had a Mortal or Immortal life in Innocency? If Mortal; How could it be rendred immortal? If Immortal: Then the Promise of life seems needless.

2°. Immortal.

(p) Andr. Rivet. in Gen. 2. Exercit. 19, 20, 21. D. Pareus in Gen. 2. 7.

For resolution herein, Consider; (As (p) learned men well observe.) A thing may be said to be Immortal several waies. 1. When it is simply, absolutely and every way incorruptible: having no possible cause of corruption, Inward or Outward. Thus, God (q) only hath immortality. 2. When it hath, by reason of the Perfection of its Nature, no inward matter or cause of corruption, though it may be destroyed from without; as from God. Thus Angels and (r) Souls of men are Immortal. And so Adams soul had an immortal life in innocency; yea and every mans soul even since the fall remains still immortal in this Sense. 3. When it is in its own Nature corruptible; but yet, by the power, or Grace, or Justice of God, is preserved that it neither is nor can be corrupted. Thus the Spiritualized Bodies of the Saints in Heaven; The bodies of Reprobates in Hell; The New Heavens and New Earth, &c. shall be Immortal. 4. When it hath a power not to dye, from some gift of the Creator, or from some other supposition: yet in its own Nature it is Corruptible. Thus, Adam was immortal in innocency; not by an inability of Dying, but by an ability of not dying. Which ability of not dying, Adam and his posterity should still have retained, according to Gods

(q) 1 Tim. 6. 16.

(r) Math. 10. 28.

Covenant

Covenant and Promise if he had not fallen: And Gods power, grace and justice would have preserved him still in this immortal life, upon supposition of his perfect obedience. Adam then before the Fall had an immortal life; His Soul being inwardly, and in it self immortal: and his body being (though inwardly and in it self corruptible, yet) outwardly and from God rendred incorruptible. It had a remote capacity of dying: and yet an immediate ability of not dying: So that, Adam in innocency had a possibility of not dying, if he sinned not: Saints in glory shall have an impossibility of both sinning and of dying. And though before the Fall Adam had a Mortality, or remote capacity of dying: yet since the fall both he, and all his, have an actual necessity of dying.

Quest. 2. What life it was which God further promised Adam upon his persisting in Obedience? Answ. 1. It seems clear, that not only a temporary life, only for some limited time, was promised Adam; but even an Eternal life, without end, in case of perfect obedience. Forasmuch as not only Temporal, but also (f) Eternal Death was threatned to Adam, and inflicted on his Posterity, for disobedience. 2. But whether Adam should have enjoyed this Eternal life still in the Earthly Paradise, or should after some certain time have been translated and taken up to the Heavenly Paradise: that is by some Disputed. Yet, (1) Seeing Scripture is silent touching any such Translation, and (2) Seeing the giving of the Heavenly Paradise is the Prerogative of Christ the Last Adam, the Heavenly Adam, as the Earthly Paradise came by the First and the Earthly Adam; it would argue too much temerity to determine upon it. This is certain, His everlasting life would have been a most sweet and happy life with God.

(f) Compare Gen. 2. 17. with Rom. 5. 12, 16, 18. Mat. 25. ult Rom. 6. ult.

Quest. 3. What death it was which God threatned Adam in case of disobedience? Answ. Whatsoever comes under the Name and Notion of Death, was threatned to Adam, in that phrase, (t) Thou shalt surely dye; or in dying thou shalt dye as the Hebrew Phrase affords it. And the doubling of the Hebrew word seems to imply thus much, As some learned Hebrews are of opinion. Now Death is the Privation of Life: and this, by Separation of that which lives, from the Principle or Fountain of its living. Life consists in union: Death in dis-union, or Separation. This, the Nature of death in general. Hence particularly there is a manifold Death. I. A Death temporal, viz. A Death for a time only. 1. Of the soul, when by sinits separated from God, from his image, and from the (u) Life of God. (x) Dead in trespasses and sins. —— (y) She that liveth in pleasure, is Dead while she liveth. — (z) Let the dead bury their dead. 2. Of the Body, (a) When its separated from the Soul by Natures dissolution. And this, the most common acceptation of Death. Thus, (a) Lazarus is Dead. (b) Abraham is dead, and the Prophets. (a) When it is gradually in any measure disposed or prepared for such a Separation, by afflictions, pains, diseases, infirmities, &c. Hence such afflictions, &c. are called Death, because they are Death's Harbingers, and steps thereto. As not the running out of the last sand, but also of all that went before, empties the Hour-glass: not the last stroke, but also the fore-going blows, fell the tree. —— (c) Take from me this Death only. —— (d) There is Death in the Pot. — (e) I dy daily. —— (f) In deaths often. II. A Death eternal of both body and soul, when by damnation particular or universal they shall be separated from the glorious fruition of God and his favour for evermore. This is called (g) the second Death, (h) Everlasting Punishment, &c. These are several sorts of Death mentioned in Scripture. Now all these were Threatned to Adam in case of disobedience, viz.

Death Eternal both of Body and Soul. For, 1. Death Eternal is the most full adequate proportionable (i) wages of sin, as the Apostle intimates in opposing there eternal life to Death. And the due wages of sin was threatned to Adam. 2. The Threatning limits not Death; therefore no death can be excluded, consequently not eternal Death. 3. Guilt of Eternal Death and Condemnation comes upon all Adams posterity by his fall, as (k) the Apostle intimates; and the Actual execution of it shall come upon Reprobates, as Christ implies: therefore in the threatning God intended Eternal Death.

Temporal Death of the Soul in Sin. For Sin (l) in its own Nature alienates and separates from God and his favour, which is the Spiritual Death of the Soul, for so long time, till the Soul be reconciled to God.

Temporal Death of the Body, in separation of it from the Soul, was also threatned to Adam in a special manner. For, 1. Death and Dying, in their most usual and proper acceptation import the dissolution of Soul and Body: and the most usual and proper Sense of the words should here especially be taken. 2. The Sentence of Corporal Death was denounced by God upon Adam after his Fall. (m) In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground: For out of it wast thou taken; For dust thou art, and unto dust thou shalt return. Therefore Death corporal was threatned to Adam before the Fall. 3. The Apostle doth partly interpret this Death inflicted upon (n) all men for Adam's sin, to be the Death of the Body. For all men do not dy Eternally.

Finally, under the name of Death, were threatned to Adam, all manner of Evils and afflictions, whether in the Soul, as grief, fear, horror, &c. Or in the Body, hunger, thirst, pains, diseases, &c. Even all in-lets, Preparatories and Harbingers of Death. For, 1. All these are as so many Gradual and Partial Deaths. Hence Scripture (o) often cals them by the name of Death. 2. In inflicting the Death threatned upon Adam and Eve, and their posteriry, God lays on them these afflictions, of (p) sorrow, sweating, toyl, &c. therefore in threatning Death, he intended all such afflictions. By all this it appears it was no small matter that God threatned to Adam under the Name of Death, in case of his Disobedience.

Quest.

Quest. 4. But How was Gods Threatning truly fulfilled, Seeing Adam in the day that he did eat of the forbidden Tree, did not dy: but lived many hundreds of years after? Gen 5. 5. Answ. For clearing of this doubt, I. Some say, That Adam dying within a thousand years after his Fall, dyed the same day he fell: because (q) with the Lord a thousand years are but as one day, and one day as a thousand years. But this is rejected, as too much forced. In Historical Books, as this of Genesis, the word [Day] being alwaies taken in its proper Signification. And this is a very needless shift. II. Some of the Hebrews were of Opinion, That this Speech of God was not Peremptorily Definitive and determinatory, but only Minatory, like that pronounced against the (r) Ninevites. And that Adam repenting, he did not presently dy, as otherwise he would have done. But Adam presently repented not till God extorted it from him: but rather did (f) excuse and extenuate his fault. And though Adam repented, yet he dyed, and that presently, in some sense, as after will appear. This therefore satisfies not. III. Some refer this word [in the day] in the Threatning, to Adams Eating, not to his Dying: and take those words absolutely, [Thou shalt surely dy.] As if God had intimated; There was no day, no time excepted, but if they did eat any day whatsoever, They should dy; but he tels them not when they shall so dye. But this Resolution seems too dilute, more witty then solid, and too much to force the text. IIII. Others joyning the Circumstance of the Day with the Threatning of Death, conceive that in the self-same day that Adam Sinned, he did dy the Death; And that the threatning was presently fulfilled upon his sinning. And this, as it is the commonest, so it is the best Resolution. But let us see how Adam dyed, in the same day wherein he sinned. 1. In his Soul he was presently (t) separated from God by sin, and dyed Spiritually. Sin, in the inward Nature of it, carries death in it, (u) Dead in trespasses and sins. Adam had no sooner sinned, but he was dead in sin: being immediately deprived of the Image of God, of the Favour of God, and of Communion with God, which was the life of his Soul. 2. In his Body he dyed also in the same day wherein he sinned. But how? Not Actually; For God intending (x) to make of one blood, all Nations of men, did respite the actual execution of bodily Death on Adam, till he had a considerable posterity. But in his body he died the same day, (y) In respect of the Guilt of Death Corporal; He according to his desert, was presently condemned, and under Sentence of Death, though reprieved for a time. Now we count a condemned man, a dead man. (z) In respect of the inevitable Necessity of Death Corporal, which he contracted upon himself. He became presently Mortal: though he did not presently dy. He that before his fall had an ability of not dying, after his fall brought upon himself an impossibility of not dying. Hence Hierome commends Symmachus his version, who instead of [Thou shalt dy,] renders it, [Thou shalt be mortal:] as (y) Rivet vel observes. So then Adam in Paradise before his Fall, had a Posse non mori, an ability of not dying: After the Fall, a non posse non mori, an impossibility of not dying: In heaven he shall have, a non posse mori, An impossibility of dying any more. (3) In respect of the Experimental beginnings, Symptomes, Signs, and Harbingers of Death Corporal. Adam presently begun to feel, heat, cold, weariness, &c. His natural heat and radical moisture began to consume one another, and so went on, till the accomplishment of Death. So that as a wounded man cries out, I am a dead man: so Adam, beginning to be wounded with afflictions, might cry out, I am a dead man. 3. In both his Soul and Body, Adam was presently liable to (z) eternal death, the proper wages of Sin, & under the arrest of Gods wrath & Curse.

Thus of the Blessing Promised, and Curse threatned, the Matter of the Covenant of works on Gods part.

(2.) The Duty restipulated, the Matter of the Covenant on Adams part, was Perfect and Perpetual Personal Obedience. For clearing of this, two Questions are to be resolved. 1. How it may appear That such obedience was required of Adam, and restipulated. 2. What was the Law Rule or Measure of Adams Obedience?

Quest. 1. How it may appear, that God required of Adam in this Covenant such Perfect and Perpetual Personal obedience, and that Adam restipulated such obedience? Answ. That Perfect and Perpetual Personal Obedience was required by God, and restipulated on Adams part, is evident divers waies. As 1. From the Manner of Gods threatning. He threatens present Death upon the least single Act of Adams Personal disobedience: (a) In the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely dye. Consequently God Covenanted with Adam for such Personal Obedience, as should be both Perfect and constant. The least Act of disobedience destroys both the perfection and constancy of Obedience. 2. From the Nature of the Covenant of works, which requires all exactness of personal obedience both for kind, degree and duration, under a Curse. (b) Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things, which are written in the Book of the Law to do them. Here's Obedience, Personal Obedience, Perfect Obedience, and Perpetual Obedience required by the Legal Covenant of works. And the Law was never given as a Covenant of works, but only to Adam in innocency. 3. From Gods process in judgement with Adam and his Posterity upon one Act of Disobedience. He brought the threatned (c) Death upon them, as hath been explained. Which God would not have done, had he not Covenanted with Adam, for perfect and perpetual Personal Obedience. 4. From Gods mysterious method in Repairing the First Adams Breach of the Covenant of works through disobedience: by the Last Adams exact fulfilling and satisfying of the Covenant of works through obedience. Now the last Adam Jesus Christ God-man exactly fulfilled and satisfied the Covenant of works through obedience, Passively, and Actively. Passively, whilest Christ, as our Surety, humbled himself (d) and became obedient to the Death, even the Death upon the Cross; and (e) so became a Curse for us, to redeem us from the Curse of the Law, or Covenant of works, by satisfying Divine justice to the full for our Breach of Covenant in Adam. Actively, whilest Christ as our Mediator (f) actually kept and fulfilled the whole Law, or Covenant of works in every kind, degree, and circumstance of Duty for us, who of our selves are no way able to keep it. That so the (g) whole obedience and righteousness of Christ may be through faith imputed to us: (h) that the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. So then, the Covenant of works must be fulfilled and made good; The first Adam could not do it, because he had broken it: the Last Adam is therefore brought in, to fulfil all righteousness, and satisfie for all our unrighteousness. If then the Breach of the Covenant was made up again by the Last Adams Perfect and Constant personal obedience: sure that breach was made by the First Adams failing in such Obedience. Therefore Perfect and Constant personal obedience was required of the First Adam therein.

Quest. 2 What was the Law Rule or Measure of Adams Obedience? Answ. The Law or Rule for Adams Obedience was 1. More Generally the whole Covenant of works. 2. More Particularly, the two sorts of Laws Comprehended in the Covenant of works, viz. I. The Moral Law written in Adams heart. For, why was it written there, but to be an inward Rule and Principle of his Obedience? And that it was written in Adams heart before the fall, is evident, because even (i) Pagans which have not the written Law, yet have the work of the Law written in their hearts, doing by Nature the things contained in the Law, after the fall. II. The positive Law of (k) not eating of the tree of Knowledge under pain of Death. I call it A Positive Law, because it meerly depended upon the will of the imposer: the not eating of that Tree was not engraven in Nature, but meerly imposed at the pleasure of the Law-giver. The subject-matter of the Law, viz. The Eating or not Eating of the tree of Knowledge, was not bad or good in it self, more then of other Trees; but only in respect of Gods Prohibition, it became bad and unlawful to eat of it. This Positive Law some call a Symbolical Precept, because Adams Obedience thereto was to have been a Symbol or outward Testimony of his Obedience and service to God; His Homage-penny, &c. Some call it A Precept of Exploration; because it was given as a Special Law for Tryal & discovery of Adams Obedience. Doubt. 1. But why is this forbidden Tree called The Tree of knowledge of Good and Evil? Answ. This Tree was so called, 1. Not from any inward vertue in it, to confer the use of Reason to our first Parents, who are imagined to be created like Infants without the use of Reason, as some (l) Hebrews think; but erroneously. For, 1. Why should God prescribe to them such a Law with a Capital penalty, who had not the use of Reason? 2. Adam had such use of Reason, that upon the

the first sight he could (m) Name the creatures according to their Natures. And understoood that the woman, brought to him (n) was bone of his bone, and flesh of his flesh, &c. II. Not from any effect or physical efficacy of it, for increasing of Knowledge either by working it immediately upon the Soul: or immediately upon the animal spirits, refreshing and awaking them; and so mediately upon the soul: As (o) some think, but falsly. For, 1. The Material fruit could not immediately act upon the immaterial Soul, to improve knowledge. 2. All the Trees of the Garden tended to refresh and enliven the Spirits, being good for food: and upon that account should all of them be called Trees of Knowledge. 3. Could this Tree have increased Adams Knowledge, can it be imagined God would have forbid him a Tree so advantagious, and envyed him so much good? 4. Then Adams eating of that Tree was not such an Aggravation of his Sin, The matter of the Prohibition being not small, as Learned writers unanimously judge, and aggravate his sin thereby; but great, and that Tree of more Consequence then all the other Trees of the Garden for improvement of Knowledge, and Consequently Adams strength in Abstinence from it must needs be the more. III. Nor Finally was this Tree called The Tree of Knowledge from the Serpents Suggestion in his Temptation, — (p) ye shall be as Gods knowing good and evil, as (q) Popish writers fancy. For, can we probably imagine, that God would denominate this the Tree of Knowledge from the devils impudent Lye in the Serpent? IV. But it was called The Tree of Knowledge, That is, of Experimental Knowledge, by way of Prolepsis, from the Event that would ensue upon eating thereon. For then Adam should experimentally know, to his sorrow, from how much good he had lapsed, and how much evil he had contracted upon himself. As its usual in (r) Scripture by way of Prolepsis or Anticipation to give denominations unto things. And this the best, and most (s) received opinion about this Denomination. Doubt. 2. But why did God besides the Natural Law engraven in Adams heart, impose this Positive Law, forbidding that which was not in it self morally and intrinsecally evil? Ans. The Lord seems to have done this, 1. For the more clear discovery of his own absolute power and dominion over man. Whilst God commands or forbids things which in themselves are consonant or dissonant to humane Reason, as good or bad: Gods supremacy over man is not so evident, such commands leaning and being founded upon mans Reason and Conscience. But when God commands or forbids, that which in its own Nature is morally neither good nor bad, but only becomes good or bad from the meer will of God commanding or forbidding, nor can any other reason thereof be given but Gods will and pleasure; then the absolute supremacy and soveraignty of God is notably manifested, As in this Positive Law. 2. For the more evident Tryal and manifestation of Mans subjection and obedience to God. For this is pure obedience and subjection indeed, when a man is subject and obedient meerly to the will of the Law-giver, though the matter required or forbidden, be in it self neither morally good nor evil. I like(t) Augustines illustration well; If a man be charged not to touch a poysonous herb, because it will be hurtful to him that toucheth it; or not to touch another mans money, because it will be evil to the owner; This is no such trial of obedience, because the evil of the thing forbidden restrains, and not only the authority of him that commands or forbids. But when a man forbears, what is forbidden: which had it not been forbidden, he needed not at all to have forborn. God therefore forbids a tree in it self lawful and good for food, thereby to try how purely Adam would obey his meer command, without any other motive or consideration. It was expedient Adam should know himself to be under God. And (as the same(u) Augustine) how shall he be under God, if not under his command? 3. For the Greater Aggravation of Adams sin, in case he should disobey. Partly, in that, if he offended, he should offend in so small a matter and so easie to be observed, especially God having granted him liberty to eat of all the trees in the Garden besides. Partly, in that he by disobeying should so directly reject Gods dominion and authority, by doing that which meerly was to be forborn, because God had forbidden it. Which were meer disobedience, meer rebellion against Gods Dominion. Hence the Apostle charges Disobediente upon Adam as his proper sin, Rom. 5. 19.

Cum vero illud tangitur, quod nec tangenti obesset si non prohiberetur, nec cuiquam alteri quamlibet tangeretur, quare prohibitum est, nisi ut ipsius per se bonum obedientiæ, & ipsius per se malum inobedientiæ monstraretur?* Augustin. de Genesi ad Literam. Aphorism V.

When God Entred into this Covenant of Works with the first Adam, he was compleatly able in his own Person to keep this Covenant in every point. Herein God required nothing, but Adam was able to perform it: God forbad nothing, but Adam was able to forbear it.

I. That Adam had Compleat ability to keep this Covenant of Works, is evident; 1. From removal of all causes of disability from Adam at that time. Then there was nothing in Adam that might impede or disable Adam, from compleat keeping the Covenant of works. The only disabling impediment, is sin. The only Cause why Adams posterity since the fall cannot keep the Covenant of works; nor Consequently be justified thereby, is their sin. (x) The law is weak through the flesh. Now Adam had no sin in him at all, neither Original nor Actual, when God entred into Covenant with him. (y) Sin entered after, by his disobedience in eating the forbidden fruit: And with Sin, (z) Shame and Death, the inseparable attendants upon sin. 2. From Position and Presence of all necessary and sufficient Causes of Ability in Adam: At that time Adam had; (a) The perfection of Gods image in him. (a) God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him, wherein this image consisted, I now dispute not. But this is clear, Adam (b) was made upright. ישר Iashar, there rendered [upright] signifies one Right, Equal, and who bends to neither part: As (c) Mercerus hath observed. So that Adam was even, equal, declining to no part or extream: thus he was created. Hence he had all necessary inward ability to perform Gods will. A Knowing mind, a pure Conscience, An obedient and dutiful will, A loving heart, A tractable and obsequious body, All upright. (1) The Inscription of Gods Covenant in his heart, the Moral Law, This he had engraven upon his heart, (as (d) formerly was shewed) (2) The Expression of the Positive Law, about the Tree of Knowledge. This was made known to him by word of Mouth. Hence Adam had a perfect Rule both Inward and Outward for steering his Obedience. Adam therefore having so Perfect a Principle, and so exact a Rule for Obedience, must needs be compleatly able to fulfil this Covenant of works with God. 3. From absurdities that otherwise upon denyal of Adams ability would ensue. For (1) Then God should have required impossibilities of Adam. (2) Then the Penalty of Death in case of disobedience, should have been unjust: because God never gave Adam compleat ability for Obedience.

II. Hence these things result by way of Corollary,

1. That, Adam before he brake this Covenant of works, neither had, nor needed a Mediator of Reconciliation. He needed not the Mediation of Jesus Christ the second or last Adam; Either for Satisfaction, for he had no way sinned: Or for Intercession, for Adam wanted nothing, and was compleatly acceptable to God in his person: Or for Imputation of Christs righteousness and obedience to him, for Adam was perfectly upright and obedient in himself. O what a difference betwixt Adam then, and Adams posterity now! He needed no Christ, we need nothing more, &c. Ob. But the Tree of Life seems to be a Type of Christ, especially if we consider that passage in the (e) Revelation. Answ. The Tree of Life in Eden was Sacramental, but not Typical. Sacramental, to assure Adam of the continuance of his life, if he

he had continued his obedience and eaten thereof: but not Typical, to set out a Mediatour. That Passage in the Revelation alludes to this Tree of Life in Eden: An Allusion is one thing, An interpretation another. And (f) some have turned it into an Allegory, interpreting Paradise to be the Church: The four Rivers therein, the four Gospels: The Fruit-Trees, the Saints: Their fruits, good-works: The Tree of Life, The Holy of Holyes, Even Christ: The Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil, The Proper Freedom of Will. This is devised wittily, not solidly.

(f) Possint hæc etiam in Ecclesia intelligi ut ea melius accipiamus tanquam prophetica indicia præcedentia futurorum. Paradisum scilicet ipsam Ecclesiam, sicut etiam legitur in Cantico Canticorum; quatuor autem Paradisi flumina, quatuor Evangelia; ligna fructifera Sanctos; Fructus autem eorum, opera eorum; lignum vitæ, Sanctum Sanctorum, utiq. Christum; lignum Scientia boni & mali, proprium voluntatis arbitrium. Augustin. de Civitat. Dei, lib. 13. Cap. 21. Tom. 5.

2. That, Adam, before breach of Covenant, as he neither had, nor needed a Mediatour, so he neither had, nor needed Faith in a Mediatour. Adam had a Faith in God, whereby he was able, Both to believe whatsoever God revealed, and to depend upon God and his promises, as also to perform in love whatsoever God prescribed. And so in Adam's Faith, there was a remote Capacity of believing any particular Revelation God should make touching a Mediatour, but no particular acting of Faith on a Mediatour. Adam's Faith under the Covenant of works, differs much from ours under the Covenant of Faith. 1. In respect of their Rise and manner of Conveyance. Adam's Faith was naturally implanted in him by God, ours supernaturally. 2. In respect of their foundation wherein they lean. Adam's Faith leaned on the Title of perfect, upright Nature: ours upon the faithful and free Promises of God in Christ, 3. In respect of their Fruit. Adams Faith produced a changeable righteousness in himself a mutable person: ours an unchangeable righteousness from Christ and the Spirit which are unchangeable. 4. In respect of their Actings. Adams Faith acted towards God without any Consideration of a Mediatour: ours acteth towards God by Christ the Mediatour. 5. In respect of their associates, or Companions. Faith in Adam was without Repentance, because he was sinless: Faith in us is always accompanied with repentance, because we are sinful.

3. That, Adams Breach of Covenant is without all Excuse. Adam was fully able to keep Covenant: Therefore Adam is left without all Apology for his breach of Covenant. He must needs justifie God, and condemn himself under severest penalties for breach of Covenant: for God gave him power Compleatly to keep it. And what is here said of Adam, is to be understood also of all Adam's Posterity in him.

Aphorism VI.

This Covenant of works Adam utterly brake, by disobedience.

For clearing of this, Consider 1. That Adam thus brake the Covenant of works. 2. How Adam broke this Covenant. 3. When and how soon he brake it. 4. How grievous and hainous this Breach. 5. Corollaryes.

I. That Adam utterly brake the Covenant of works by disobedience, is evident. 1. By Scripture-Testimonies, both of Old and New Testament. In the Old Testament, is the Narration of this Covenant-breach, How (g) the woman seduced by the Devil in the Serpent, did eat of the Tree of Knowledge, and how she gave unto Adam her husband, and he did eat. And (h) what sad effects followed thereupon to them both; viz. Shame; Fear; Hiding themselves from God; Translation of their fault, the man to his wife, and She to the Serpent; Enmity betwixt the seed of the woman and Serpent; The multiplication of the womans sorrows, and aggravation of her subjection to her husband; The curse upon the earth; The toil, sorrows, and Mortality of Adam; The Expulsion of Adam out of Eden; And the effectual abstention of Adam, by Cherubims and a flaming sword turning every way, from the Tree of life. In the New Testament is an Explication of Adam's breach of Covenant, how all his Posterity sinned and broke Covenant in him. (i) By one man sin entred into the world, —— in whom all have sinned. (k) —— By one mans disobedience many were made sinners. And this breach of Covenant is set forth by divers Denominations, viz. (l) Sin; Adam's Transgression; The offence of one; One mans disobedience: all tending to describe the Nature of it. 2. By the sad Experience which all Adams Posterity have had of the woful effect of Adam's breach of Covenant to this day: (m) All being thereby involved in Sin, Death, and Condemnation. Therefore All Adams ordinary Seed, were in Covenant with him, Broke Covenant in him, and smart under Covenant-breach by him. 3. By the Manner of Gods Administration. After Adams Disobedience God utterly laid aside the Covenant of works, and never set it on foot more: but instead thereof advanced The Covenant of Faith in Christ the second Adam. Thereby notifying to us that, the Covenant of works was utterly broken and dissolved by the First Adam's sin.

II. How Adam brake this Covenant of works? Answ. 1. Adam brake the Covenant of works by (n) Eating of the Tree of Knowledge, contrary to Gods Positive Symbolical Precept imposed upon Adam for Tryal of his Obedience. This Act of Adam did compleat his Fall, and Covenant-breach. II. This Covenant-breach was brought on, not all at once, but by certain steps and degrees. 1. ports Gods command, Partly, Adding thereto; (p) neither shall ye touch it. For God had not forbidden the Touching of it, but only the *eating of it. As (t) John ranks all that is in and of the world, and not of the Father, under these three heads, The lust of the Flesh, the lust of the Eye, and the Pride of Life. 4. She (u) took of the fruit of the Tree and did Eat. 5. She (x) gave unto her husband, and he did eat. Hence we may understand that of the Apostle, (y) Adam was not deceived, (that is, not by the Serpent) but the woman being deceived was in the Transgression (that is, was first in the Transgression before Adam.) This sin was brought upon Adam by degrees. (1) Suggestion. (2) Aversion from Good. (3) Delightful Inclination to Evil. (4) to Execution or acting of Sin inclined and Consented to. (5) Propagation or Derivation of sin to others. Thus Adam sinned, and brake Covenant with God.

III. The Causes of Adam's sin and Covenant-breach, thus brought to pass, were divers. The Instrumental Cause Remote, was the Serpent, and the Devil in him: Immediate, was the woman, Adam's wife. The Efficient Cause of Adam's sin, is hard to be found out. Properly Adams sin had no Efficient Cause at all, but rather a Deficient Cause. God neither Directly nor indirectly could be any Cause of it at all: For, (z) God made man upright, and God, as (a) he cannot be tempted with evil, so he tempteth no man to evil. But Adam being created mutable, though upright: and having a Will flexible to good or to evil, and not being confirmed and stablished immovably in Good, but left to his own power and liberty, (for God was not bound to confirm, and uphold him,) he declined unto evil, and became like the beasts that perish.

III. When, and how soon Adam brake this Covenant of works? Answ. In the History of Adams Fall, the Circumstance of time is not expressly described: and other Scriptures are very silent. Hence, They that have written about this Question, both Jewish Doctors, Ancient Fathers, School-men and Modern Authors, have been of divers opinions herein, and somewhat unsatisfied. Omitting the diversity of others Opinions, I shall briefly declare herein what to me seems most probable and Consentaneous to Scripture without prejudice to others judgements.

1. It is Evident that Adam continued in Paradise in his Concreated integrity for a certain Considerable Season, before he fell. For, before the Fal, 1. Adam (b) gave names to all living Creatures which God brought before him. 2. The (c) Woman was made of one of Adam's ribs, taken out of his side, Adam-meanwhile being cast into a deep sleep. 3. God (d) brought

(l) Movetur etiam à nonnullis Quæstio De lapsus vel potius ruinæ tempore. Opinio hæc passim recepta fuit, eodem quo conditi fuerant die, excidisse; ideo Augustinus scribit, Stetisse tantum per sex horas. Quod alii conjiciunt, dilatam fuisse in Diem Sabbati tentationem à Satana, ut Sanctum diem profanaret, nimis infirmum est. Et certe hu documentis moneniur pii omnes ut in dubiis speculationibus sibi parcius indulgeant. Ego ut de tempore quod asseram non habeo, ita ex Mosis Narratione colligi posse arbitror, non diu retinuisse quam acceperant dignitatem. Nam simulac conditos fuisse dixit, nulla alterius rei facta mentione transit ad defectionem. Si vel modico temporis spacio habitasset Adam ab uxore, non inanis certe fuisset Dei benedictio in propaganda sobole; sed Moses Dei beneficijs privatos fuisse significat, antequam uti consuescerent. Facile igitur Augustini Exclamationi subscribo, O miserum liberum arbitrium, quod adhuc incolume tam parum habuit firmitatis! Atque ut taceamus de brevitate Temporis, illa Bernardi admonitio memoratu digna est; Quum tam horribile præcipitium in Paradiso accidisse legamus, quid nos facturi sumus in sterquilinio? Io. Calvin. Commen. in Gen. 3. 6.
(m) Cur ergo non coierunt nisi cum exissent de Paradiso. Cito responderi potest, quia mox creata mulier priusquam coierunt, facta est illa transgressio, cujus merito in mortem destinati, etiam de loco illius felicitatis exierunt. Aug. de Genesi ad Litter. lib. 9. c. 4. Tom. 3.

(d) brought the Woman to Adam, gave her to him to wife, and Adam so accepted her. 4. God (e) blessed them with the blessing of Fruitfulness, and Dominion over the Earth, and over all the Creatures therein. 5. God (f) gave them every herb and every fruit-bearing Tree for food. 6. Adam was (g) placed in the Garden of Eden to dress it, and to keep it. 7. God (h) permitting them to eat of all the other Trees of the Garden, Gave command under pain of present Death not to eat of the Tree of Knowledge. All this was orderly done before Adams Fall. And all this required some considerable time.

2. It is not likely that Adam continued any long time in his innocency before his Fall. For, 1. Then, Adam in all probability would have Eaten of the Tree of Life, and have been confirmed in life against falling; as that phrase intimateth, Gen. 3. 23. which he did not. 2. Then, probably Eve should have conceived a pure and spotless seed from Adam. The (i) blessing of Generation and Fruitfulness being already bestowed upon them: and no Curse of barrenness inflicted, That was the Fruit of the Fall. And Consequently such Seed should not have been begotten in Adams own likeness, sinful. 3. After the Historical Narration of these seven Particulars forementioned (which would not require any long time to be effected in) (k) presently the story of Adams Fall is related, which seems to intimate, that the Fall was not long after Adam's creation. Hence Calvin modestly, (l) As I have not what to assert touching the time, so I think it may be gathered from Moses his Narration, that they did not long retain the integrity which they had; for assoon as he had spoke of their Creation, without mention of any other thing, he passeth to their Defection, &c. And Augustine thinks (m) the Transgression presently followed the Creation.

3. It is Probable, That Adam continued in Paradise neither years, moneths, weeks, nor dayes: but sinned and lost Paradise in the self-same day in which he was created. That he was Created and Corrupted, formed and deformed, made and marr'd, alive and dead, an inhabitant in, and an exile from Paradise, in one and the self-same day. For, 1. There is nothing in the Text intimating that Adam stood longer then that one day in which he was created: but rather that he fell on the same day. We finde not that he kept one Sabbath in Paradise.

We

We finde that (n) Adam and his wife were created on the sixth day, after the Beast of the Earth, Cattel and creeping things had been on the same day created. So that Adam was not created in the beginning of the sixth day. And those seven Particular occurrents ensuing Adams Creation, which were forementioned, might all of them easily be dispatched in a few hours of the same sixth day. Besides, (o) the Serpents Temptation and seducing of the woman, The womans eating of the Tree of Knowledge, and giving thereof to her husband, Their shame upon their fall, and sewing fig-leaves to cover their shame, might all without difficulty be effected on the same day. And after this the very next thing mentioned, is (p) the voice of God (whereby Adam was called to account for his sin) walking in the Garden in the cool of the day. Hebr. in the wind of the Day. Hierome renders it, In the wind after mid-day. The Greek, In the Evening. (q) Chrysostome, Afternoon, (r) Irenaus, In the Eventide. Hence, saith (s) Calvin, that Opinion hath prevayled, That Adam sinned about Noon, and was brought into judgement for it about Sun-set. Now its very observable that This is the first Evening mentioned after Adam's Creation, and the Covenant made with him. And the phrase of Gods voice walking in the Garden in the Cool of the day, seems so to be brought in, the Context being well considered, as if it related to the close of the day of Adams Creation. 2. When the Serpent began to Tempt the woman, (t) The words of the Serpent and woman to one another are such, and in the future tenses, as they imply that as yet Adam and his wife had not eaten of any Tree at all in the Garden. And it is very improbable they would have continued a whole Day in the Garden, in the midst of all that delicious fruit, and not have eaten of some. And if of any, then of that which was most excellent and desirable, The Tree of Life. But they tasted not of the Tree of Life, for then (u) they had been confirmed in eternal life; and had not fallen. Therefore eating of none at all, they seem not to have continued one day in their innocent state. 3. Christ saith (x) The Devil was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the Truth. —— A lyar, and the father of it. A murtherer of whom? Of our first parents and their Posterity. From what beginning? Not from the beginning of the worlds Creation, which at the least was six daies before Adam was murdered by him: but from the beginning of Mans Creation and being, which most properly and precisely implies the sixth day wherein man was made. Then it was that the devil deceived our first parents by Lying, and Murdered them. Consequently they fell the first day of their Creation. 4. Christ the second Adam, incarnate in fulness of time, was put to Death for mans sin on (y) the sixth day of the week, which was the Preparation before the Passover or Sabbath. He was crucified (z) about the sixth hour, that is, our twelve of the clock; and he yielded up the Ghost about the ninth hour, that is, about our three of the clock afternoon. Probably therefore the First Adam (the (a) figure of him that was to come, and that in respect of this point) fell fell into his Sin on the sixth day in the afternoon. And so Gods Threatning to Adam (b) In the day thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely dye, was most notably fulfilled in Adams Surety Christ, then dying corporally, and tasting of the second Death remarkably, for sin. 5. That passage of the Psalmist is observable to this Purpose. viz. (c) Adam being in Honour, lodged-not-a-night, but is likened to beasts that are silenced. That which in our Translation is [Man] in the Hebrew is [Adam] And Ainsworth saith well, (d) This may be minded both for the first man Adam, who Continued not in his dignity, and so for all his children. And the word [בל־ילין Bal-jalin] which we render, [abideth-not,] most Properly signifieth, [Lodgeth-not-a-night] as in Gen. 28. 11. Exod. 23. 18. & 34. 25. Deut. 16. 4. 2 Sam. 17. 8. & 19: 8. Psal. 30. 5. Josh. 8. 9. And this the learned in the Hebrew tongue acknowledge. Though therefore I will not restrain the sense of this place only to the first Adam, but extend it also to his posterity for denoting the mutability and momentarines of their honour: yet it seems singularly to point out Adams sudden fall from the top-excellency of his dignity, not enjoying it one night. 6. Learned men both Antient and Modern have much inclined upon former Considerations to this Opinion of Adams fall in the same day he was framed. Augustine thinks Adam stood only six hours, as (e) Calvin and Mercerus vouch him. (f) Fedudus inclines to Adams fall in the Afternoon. And the Annotations there upon Irenæus alledge Cyril, Epiphanius, Diodorus Tresensis, and others, who held that Adam was cast out of Paradise in the same day in which he was Created. Rachi saith, That Adam and Eve rebelled about the tenth hour, that is, two hours before Sun-set: as (g) Lud. de Dieu hath noted. Latter writers also hold, that in one and the same day Adam was Formed and Deformed: As that accurate H. Broughton in his (h) Concent of Scripture shows upon divers grounds; As also in his (i) General view of Scriptures, (for that Book published again with enlargements by Tho. Hayne, was at first Penned by H. Broughton, as one of his Hearers informed me, and as the Book it self seems plainly to witness.) And as that learned (k) Mr. G. Walker in his Doctrine of the Sabbath, insisting in Broughtons steps, more fully declares.

Hence then 1. Adam kept not one Sabbath in Paradise, nor did he see one Sabbath in his innocency. 2. The happiness of Adam and of all his posterity, whilst it was in their own keeping, and bottomed upon mutable Nature, though upright, stood upon a very tickle foundation. Its well for Christians that now their happiness is in Christs keeping, not in their own: grounded not upon mutable Nature, but immutable Grace. 3. Mans Corruption is almost as ancient as Mans Creation. How soon was God dishonoured: and how long hath God been provoked by mankind! 4. Adams sin must needs be the Greater, that he so speedily forgot and forfeited all Gods greatest favours. 5. Satan is deservedly branded for (l) A Murderer from the beginning, and stiled (m) that old Serpent the Devil: His

IV. How grievous and Haynous was Adams Breach of Covenant? Answ. Adams Sin and breach of Covenant with God was haynous beyond our expression or Conception. Who can sufficiently Enumerate or aggravate the Aggravations thereof? Some few exaggerations I shall touch upon: viz. in respect of the 1. Person who sinned. 2. Condition and state, wherein. 3. Place, where. 4. Time, when. 5. Law, against which. 6. Objects, against whom. 7. The many and great evils of sin and punishment attending upon Adams sin.

1. The person who sinned, was Adam. Not an ordinary, but an extraordinary Person: Consequently his, not an ordinary but an extraordinary sin. For, 1. Adam was an innocent Person, without all sin, (n) perfect and upright in the image of God without any defect. Therefore his mind was most clear, bright, and apprehensive, to have detected the darkness and evil both of Sin and of the Temptation thereunto. His conscience also was pure and active, under God, to warn him against sin, and all occasions thereof. His will free, and able to have withstood all sin, and all seducements thereunto, most easily. Never meer man since Adam, had such perfection of mind, Conscience, will, and of the whole man: being habitually prone to no evil, but propense to all good. Now that Adam every way able not to sin, should have this mind blinded, this Conscience corrupted, this free-will enslaved by sin: how grievous was his sinning! He sinned Knowingly, he sinned willingly; therefore he sinned more haynously. Sin the more willingly it is admitted, the more wickedly it is committed. No wonder if a carnal man, who hath nothing but sin in him, can act nothing but sin; or if a Christian, that hath much Corruption mingled with his Grace, mix also infirmities with best performances: but for Adam to sin, who had no sinful inclination in him, how strange is it and inexcusable!

(n) Gen. 1. 26, 27. Eccles. 7. 29.

2. Adam was a publike person, a complexive person; all mankind were in him, and all in Covenant with God with him. He standing, all stood: he falling, all fell. Never man, by one sin, made so many sinners. By one sin, he made himself and (o) all his posterity sinners from the beginning to the end of the world. Hence learned Augustine well observes, (p) that though some other sins, as the unpardonable sin against the Holy-Ghost, may be greater then this sin of Adam, Intensively; yet Adams sin is the very greatest and most grievous sin in the world, extensively considered.

(o) Rom. 5. 12. 19.

(p) Andr. Rivet. in Gen. 3. exercit. 31.

2. The condition and state wherin he sinned, was most happy. For, Gods image, was his beauty · Gods Covenant of works, his charter for Eternal life: All Gods Creatures on Earth, his servants and under his Dominion: The whole Earth, his Possession: Paradise, his Habitation: All the fruits of Paradise, except of the Tree of Knowledge, his food: And familiar Communion with God there, the Paradise of Paradise. In a word, so blisful his Condition, as the absence of all evil, and preſence of all good, could render it. We may therefore with the Pſalmiſt burſt out into Admiration; Lord, (q) what is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the ſon of man that thou viſiteſt him? For thou haſt made him a little lower then the Angels; and haſt crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madeſt him to have dominion over the works of thy hands: thou haſt put all things under his feet. Elegantly Auguſtine delineates Adams Paradiſe-felicity; (r) Man in Paradiſe lived as he liſted, as long as he willed what God had commanded: he lived enjoying God, from whom moſt good he was good. He lived without any penury, having power ſo to live perpetually. Meat was at hand, leſt he ſhould hunger: drink, leſt he ſhould thirſt: The Tree of Life, leſt age ſhould diſſolve him: No corruption in his body, or out of his body, brought any trouble to any of his ſenſes. No diſeaſe within, no blow was feared from without. In his fleſh greateſt ſoundneſs: in his ſpirit entire calmneſs. As in Paradiſe was neither Heat nor Cold: ſo in its inhabitant there was no offence to his good will, by deſire or fear. There was nothing at all grievous, nothing vainly joyous: true joy was perpetuated from God, towards whom love did flame out of a pure heart and a good conſcience, and faith unfained. And a faithful conjugal ſociety from an honeſt love, An harmonious vigilancy of mind and body, and an unlaborious cuſtody of the Command, &c. Thus and thus happy was Adams ſtate, in which he ſinned. Therefore he offended againſt all Gods benefits wherewith he had loaded him: againſt all the bonds of love, wherewith God had obliged him: againſt all the dignities and Priviledges wherewith God had crowned him, when he broke Gods Command in ſuch Condition. The greater Gods loving-kindneſs to Adam: the deeper Adams unkindneſs to God. Did Gods favours to David ſo (s) aggravate Davids ſin? And Gods mercies to Iſrael ſo (t) heighten Iſraels offences? how much more did Gods ſuperabounding bleſſings to Adam, beyond meaſure exaggerate Adams diſobedience? Hear O heavens, and give Ear O Earth! God on every ſide ſurrounded Adam with happineſs: And this Adam rebelled againſt the Lord.

3. The place where Adam ſinned, was Paradiſe: A place moſt unfit for ſinning in. There God (u) familiarly converſed with Adam: To ſin there, was to ſin in the preſence of God. There God (x) entred into the Covenant of works with Adam: To ſin there, was to be extreamly unmindful of, and unfaithful in Gods Covenant. There was the (y) Tree of Life, to confirm him in Obedience, and the (z) Tree of Knowledge to caution him againſt diſobedience: To Sin there, was to ſin againſt Gods Antidotes and Preſervatives. There (a) grew every Tree pleaſant to the ſight, and good for food, all pointing at their maker, and inciting Adam to admire his wiſdom, adore his power, and extol his goodneſs; To ſin there, was to ſin againſt multitudes of mercies. All the Trees and fruits of Paradiſe would aggravate that ingratitude. In a word, Paradiſe was a place wherein was no ſin, nor ſorrow: Therefore to ſin there, was to pollute Paradiſe, Paradise, and to transform the Eden of pleasure into an Achor of trouble and Perplexity.

4. The Time when Adam sinned, was quickly after his Creation. Probably he was corrupted, (as I have shewed) the self-same day he was Created. What? was Adam Created such a compleat souldier, and armed so perfectly with Gods image, that he had power to conquer all his spiritual Enemies, and that continually: and is he utterly toyled at the very first onset? was he made so skilful a Pilot, able to cross all Seas of danger in safety: and is he shipwrackt in the very harbour? was he able to Persevere for ever in obedience: and is he turned aside the very first day to disobedience? was he created, and corrupted: formed, and deformed: Alive, and dead: blessed, and cursed: Happy, and miserable: Gods freeman, and Satans bond-man: The child of God, and the child of the devil: &c. all in one day? This renders Adams sin exceeding grievous. If this aggravated Israels sin, that after Gods Covenant renewed in Mount Sinai, (b) They turned aside quickly out of the way which God Commanded them: much more must it aggravate Adams sin that he turned aside more quickly from Gods way: they being corrupt, Adam innocent; They being of themselves unable to persevere, Adam fully able; They turning aside after almost fourty daies, Adam the very first day.

5. The Law against which Adam sinned, was such, that it notably greatned Adams sin. (c) And the LORD God Commanded the man, saying, of every Tree Of the Garden thou mayest freely eat: but of the Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the Day that thou eatest thereof, thou shalt surely dye. Here Consider, 1. The greatness of the Law-giver, The LORD God. He who created Adam, and all the world by his word: whose dominion is absolute. Of whom alone Adam had his being, well-being and whole dependance. Was it a small thing to sin against so great a God? 2. The meaness of him on whom the Law was imposed. The man. Our first parent, A finite creature: in his original (d) despicable dust and ashes. Adam, Red-earth. And shall dust and ashes rebel against the command of the mighty God? 3. The weight and importance of the Command. It was of greatest importance and concernment, both as an Original Covenant, and as an Original Law. (1) As an Original Covenant. This (though it had not the name, yet) had the Nature of a Covenant: As hath been shewed. It was a Covenant of works. The first Covenant that ever was in the world. Wherein God and All mankind in Adam were parties. To sin against this Command then, was to break Covenant, and to make himself and all mankind as Covenant-breakers guilty of Death. (1) As an Original Law. For, as (e) Ter-

Honora patrem tuum & matrem, & alienum non concupisces. Primordialis lex est enim data Adæ & Evæ in Paradiso quasi Matrix omnium Præceptorum dei. Denique si Dominum deum suum dilexissent, contra præceptum ejus non fecissent; si proximum diligerent, id est, semetipsos, persuasioni Serpentis non credidissent; atq; ita in semetipsos homicidium non commisissent, excidendo de immortalitate, faciendo contra Dei præceptum, &c.* Tert. li. Advers. Iudeos. cap. 2.

tullian well observes, This Law being given, all Laws were given, which were afterwards published by Moses. That is, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul: and thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self, &c. For it was an Original Law which was given to Adam and Eve in Paradise, as it were The womb of all Gods Precepts. If they had loved the Lord their God, they had not done against his Precept: if they had loved their neighbour and themselves, they had not believed the Serpents perswasion, nor had committed murder against themselves, by falling from immortality, &c. Now to transgress a law of such Consequence, which was Gods Federal Law with mankind; And so Comprehensive a Law containing as it were all other Laws in its fruitful womb, must needs be the deeper transgression. 4. The Penalty of the Breach of this law was dreadful, viz. Present Death; and that both Spiritual, Corporal, and Eternal, as hath been explained. Death (said the Heathen) is φοβερῶν φοβερώτατον, of Terribles the most terrible. Death, (saith the Scripture) is (f) the King of Terrours: And therefore (as (g) Augustine well noteth) how great an evil was this, to sin against such a Terrifying punishment! 5. The Promise implyed consequently to the keeping of this law, was most sweet and desirable. viz. Perpetual life; and that in Paradise, or in a Paradise-Condition; or in Heaven which is best of all. Who would not have obeyed to the utmost ability for the eternizing of such a life? life is most precious (h) All that a man hath will he give for his life. And eternal life in Paradise, would have been a double life: the life of life. Oh how deeply did Adam & we in him sin against our own life, by violating this law of life! And its most unnatural to sin against a mans own life. 6. Finally, Consider with what great Ease and Facility Adam, and we in him, might have kept this Command. Might not Adam easily have forborn one Tree, when all other Trees in Eden besides were allowed him? And the more easie it was to keep it, the more hainous it was to break it. Augustine said excellently, (i) This of not eating one sort of meat, when of others there was such plenty, was so light a precept for observance, so short for remembrance, (especially where concupiscence did not as yet resist the will, which afterwards ensued as a punishment,) that it was with so much greater injustice violated, by how much more easie observance it might have been performed. And yet elsewhere more Excellently; (k) *The forsaker of eternal life, if grace had not delivered, was damned with eternal Death. If any think this judgement to be too much or unjust, surely he knows not how to measure, how great the iniquity was in sinning, where there was so great facility of not sinning. was was deservedly proclaimed great, because the thing commanded was most difficult, to kill his son: so in Paradise the disobedience was so much greater, because that which was commanded was of no difficulty. And as the obedience of the second man was therein the more honourable, in that he was obedient even to death; so the disobedience of the first man was therein the more detestable, in that he became disobedient even to death.

6. The Objects against whom Adam sinned, do also render Adams sin more grievous. He sin'd against God, Himself, and All Mankind. 1. Against God, rebelliously breaking his Command, perfidiously violating his Covenant, ingratefully rendering Evil unto God for all the multitudes of Blessings shewed upon him, and most abominably believing the lying Suggestions of Satan (l) the Father of Lyes, rather then the infallible word of the (m) God of Truth, the (n) God that cannot lye, Either in his Promise or Threatning. Now thus to sin against God, is to sin against an infinite Majesty, against an infinite glory. And what finite creature can sufficiently comprehend, how infinitely it aggravates Sin, to sin against such infiniteness! 2. Against himself. Adam sinned against himself many ways; viz. Against his Soul, in disrobing it of Gods image in which it was created, and defiling it with Satan's image wherewith it was corrupted. Against his body; in embasing it in the Service of Sin and Satan, that should have been only imployed in uprightness and purity: in clothing it with confusion and (o) shame, that before was adorned with nothing but beauty and honour: and in exposing it to (p) Sorrows, wearisomness, toylsomness, and thousands of infirmities and miseries, which before was utterly unacquainted with all misery and sorrow. Against his Person, in involving himself in Mortality and Death, in depriving himself of all his Paradise-felicities, of his Primitive integrity, of his dominion over the Creatures, and of his Communion with the blessed God transcending all. Against his Name, filling it with ignominy and reproach, that was (q) crowned with glory and honour: for (r) sin is a reproach to any people, most of all to him that was totally free from sin, and fully able so to keep himself free. Finally, Against his Outward Estate, in forfeiting both (s) Paradise and all the possessions, comforts and Priviledges which he had on Earth, and bringing a (t) Curse and a (u) bondage of Corruption upon the whole Creature, under which it even groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now. Thus Adam sinned against himself in respect of Soul, Body, Person, Name, and State: How unnatural, horrid and cruel was it for Adam so to sin against himself! 3. Against all Mankind, Even his whole ordinary Posterity from the beginning to the End of the world, who (x) all were stained in him, in respect of Soul, Body, Person, Name and State, as Adam was. At once all mankind were polluted and defiled by sin: spoyled and robbed of all their happiness: plung'd and drown'd in all sorts of misery: murder'd and swallow'd up of death. Extensively considered, there was never such a sin, such a Contagion, such a spoil,

7. The Manifold and great Evils both of Sin and Puniſhment Attending upon Adam's eating of the Tree of Knowledge, Extreamly aggravate his ſin, and manifeſt it to be out of meaſure ſinful.

(1.) Evil of ſin attending upon Adam's Eating of this forbidden Tree, is manifold. Eſpecially it is Antecedent, Concomitant, or Conſequent thereunto. I. Antecedent Evils of ſin, repugnant, Partly to the Moral Law, written in Adam's heart; Partly to the Poſitive Law, given for his Tryal: gradually foregoing his and Eves eating of the forbidden fruit, were divers. viz. 1. Idleneſs. In that the woman ſeems not to be ſo diligently employ'd about the dreſsing and keeping of the Garden, in aſsiſtance of her husband as ſhe ought, (y) according to Gods appointment: when Satan came to tempt. Idleneſs is a Temptation to Satan to tempt us; where as it is the Devils work to tempt others, its the idle-mans buſineſs to tempt the Devil. 2. Preſumptuous Curioſity, or Curious Preſumption. In that the woman, being (z) the weaker veſſel, durſt entertain ſo dangerous a conflict with the Serpent, in her husbands abſence. For, its moſt likely that at the beginning of the Serpents onſet, Adam was at ſome diſtance from Eve: And the ſubtile Serpent took that advantage. 3. Inconſiderateneſs, and heedleſs forgetfulneſs of Gods moſt ſtrict command, which appears in her miſ-recital of it two ways. Partly, In adding to it, (a) Neither ſhall ye touch it: whereas the (b) Command only forbad the Eating, not at all the touching of the Tree of Knowledge. Partly by Detracting from it. For God ſaid, (c) In the day thou eateſt thereof, dying thou ſhalt dye. i. e. thou ſhalt ſurely dye, and that preſently ipſo facto. But ſhe omits both the Peremptorineſs of the threatning, and ſaith, (d) leſt ye dye; or, leſt perhaps ye dye, as the Hebrew word intimates. What God threatned peremptorily, ſhe recites with a perhaps or a peradventure: And ſhe alſo omits the preſent ſuddenneſs of death threatned in the day of Sinning, (e) For in the day that thou eateſt thereof, &c. And by this forgetful miſ-recital of Gods Command, She gives Satan advantage againſt her ſelf both to perſwade her (f) they ſhould not dy, and to accuſe God of a kinde of envy at their happineſs. 4. Unbelief towards God. In that ſhe did not ſo fully as ſhe ought credit Gods peremptory Threatning of Death Expreſſed, in caſe of diſobedience: nor his Contrary Promiſe of Life implyed, in caſe of obedience. 5. Raſh and headlong Credulity of the Serpent, and of Satan in him; though he both (g) contradicted Gods Command, and accuſed God of Envy at their happy ſtate, and falſely ſuggeſted that by Eating they ſhould become as Gods, knowing good and evil. How abominable and idolatrous to believe Satan (h) the Father of Lyes: before the (i) God of Truth, who cannot lye! 6. Diſcontenting diſlike with their preſent Condition wherein God had ſo happily ſet them. 7. Ambitious proud aſpiring above their pitch (k) to be as Gods knowing good and evil. 8. Inordinate affection and evil concupiſcence. In deſiring (l) an object unlawful, the the fruit prohibited. 9. Irregularity of will. In chuſing rather to harken to the Serpents Suggeſtion, then to Gods Command. 10. Luſt of the eyes. In that ſhe fixed a Longing (m) look upon the forbidden fruit; and by looking on it, liked it, and deſigned to eat it. 11. Incontinence of hands. In that ſhe refrains not from (n) taking the forbidden fruit. 12. Intemperance of taſte and Palate; In that ſhe (o) Eats the fruit, taken; and ſo her Sin was compleated and finiſhed.

II. Concomitant Evils of Sin, accompanying the Eating of the forbidden fruit, are alſo divers. viz. 1. Eves Tempting her husband, both (p) by word and Action, to Eat of the Tree of Knowledge: Thereby, with her ſelf undoing her husband, to whom ſhe was given for (q) a meet help. 2. Adams inconſiderate (r) harkning to the voice of his wife, who was made for him: rather then to the voice of God, for whom himſelf was made. 3. Deep ingratitude againſt God, who had crowned Adam with ſo many and excellent Priviledges in Paradiſe. Ingratum dixeris, omnia dixeris. What worſe then to be challenged for Ingratitude? How was God diſpleaſed with (s) Hezekiah, Judah, and Jeruſalem, for not rendring again according to the benefits done unto him? But Adam had benefits done to him, incomparably tranſcending thoſe of Hezekiah: yet he ſo far from rendring according to the benefit done to him, that he rendred evil for good which is the worſt point of ingratitude. (t) To render good for good, is man-like: To render good for evil, is God-like: But to render evil for good, is Devil-like. 4. Direct (u) diſobedience to Gods expreſs Command. And its no ſmall crime to be diſobedient: as we may ſee in the Aggravations of King Sauls (x) diſobedience. Diſobedience, is a rejecting of the word of the LORD, yea it is Stubborneſs, which is as iniquity and Idolatry: yea it is rebellion, which is as the Sin of witch-craft. 5. Covenant-breaking with God moſt perfidiouſly, being able to keep it. 6 Woful Apoſtacy, from a ſin-leſs and happy ſtate, to a ſinful and miſerable Condition: from God bleſſed for ever, and his bliſful ſervice, to the Devil damned for ever, and his curſed ſlavery. None of the ſons of men ever Apoſtatized from ſuch Eminency, to ſuch Extremity.

III. Conſequent Evils of Sin, enſuing upon the Eating of the forbidden fruit, were finally various and grievous. As, 1. An evil Conſcience filled with guilt, and (y) filling them with ſhame and terrour in reſpect of God. 2. Flight (z) from God and his preſence, which before were ſo ſweet and comfortable. 3. Hypocriſie in (a) hiding their nakedneſs with figleaves, and in extenuating their ſin by tranſlating it from themſelves, the man to the woman, and the woman to the Serpent. 4. Moſt cruel (b) Murder both of themſelves, and of all mankind at once, both in body and ſoul from the beginning to the end of the world; and of the Son of God, Jeſus Chriſt, in ſome reſpect alſo. Themſelves they murdered actually, in themſelves all mankind virtually and interpretatively, and Jeſus Chriſt himſelf the Lord of glory Occaſionally; The firſt Adams ſin (c) occaſioning the ſecond Adams Death.

(c) Rom. 5. 19.

There was never such an haynous horrid cruel murder as this committed in the world by any of the sons of men. 5. The universal (d) Corruption of the whole Nature of Man-kind. Whereby Every person descending from Adam by ordinary propagation, is in soul and body utterly (e) unable, indisposed, yea (f) opposite to all spiritual good: and (g) totally evil, and only inclined to evil, and that continually. Which Corruption of Nature is Commonly called Original Sin, As being the Original spawn and spring-head of All Actual sins: and it is (h) propagated by natural generation from our first parents to all their ordinary posterity. 6. All the Actuall sins that have been, are, or shall be in this world from the First Adams fall, till the Second Adams coming to judgement; together with all the Kinds, Degrees, sinful Circumstances and horrid Aggravations thereof, which are utterly beyond mans numbering, measuring or comprehending: All these have taken their rise from Adams disobedience in eating the forbidden fruit. For, (i) All Actual sins flow immediately from Original: and Original sin from Adams sin. Hence is that school-distinction of Original sin, into Original Sin Originated, and Original Sin Originating. That, is the Corruption of Nature, the immediate Original of all Actuals; This, is Adams sin, the immediate Original of the Corruption of Nature. Never Sin in this world had such a black train of innumerable and intolerable sins following it at the heels, as this sin of Adam had. They seem to parallel the stars of Heaven, the sands of the Sea shore, the dust of the Earth, the grass-piles upon the ground, and the motes in Sun, for multitude. Oh how grievous was Adams sin, that was attended with such Antecedent, Concomitant, and Consequent Evils of sin! An horrid Hydra of many monstrous heads. A complexive, complicated sin indeed. Hereat Heaven and Earth might stand astonished. O ye holy Angels, how were ye offended, to see Adam and all the Elect in him (of whom ye had such special charge, Psal. 91. 11, 12. Heb. 1. 14.) so quickly transformed into such transgressors! O ye celestial Lights, Sun, Moon and Stars, did not ye blush, and veil your brightest faces with Sables, beholding Adam such a Sinner? O ye fowls of the air, and ye beasts of the Field, were not ye filled with horrour, when man, your earthly Lord, disrobed himself of his Honour by disobedience, and became like the beasts that perish, Psal. 49. 12. O ye streams of Paradise, were not ye congealed within your banks, when such a deluge of sin overflowed mankind? O ye Trees of Eden, did not ye sweat out your moisture: and ye pleasant fruits of the Garden, did not ye all presently fade and fall to the Earth, when Adam the dresser of the Garden, by disobedient tasting of the Tree of Knowledge, fell so fowly from uprightness to unrighteousness, Eccles. 7. 29. from God to the Devil, from heaven to hell? Surely the whole Creation groaneth and travelleth in pain together until now under the tedious bondage of this corruption, most earnestly longing for compleat deliverance, Rom. 8. 19, 23.

(2.) Evil

(2) Evil of punishment ensuing upon Adams disobedience was also various and grievous. And this both in respect of himself, of his wife, and of all their common posterity. As, 1. The obliteration and defacing of Gods image. (k) God made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions. No sooner did Adam sin, but he blotted out of his soul thereby the beauteous image of God, and thereon Satan stamped his own odious image instead thereof: So that naturally all are the (l) children of the Devil. 2. Shame. Before they sinned, (m) Adam and his wife (though naked) were not ashamed. But as soon as they had defiled themselves with sin, they were covered with shame: (n) and they sewed figleaves together, and made themselves aprons, to hide their shame. (o) Shame attends upon sin, as inseparably as the shadow upon the Body. 3. Horrour of a guilty self-accusing and self-condemning Conscience. Therefore after their fall, they presently (p) were afraid at the presence of God, and hid themselves, because they were naked. And being examined of God, they confess not, but excuse their sin; As Augustine notes; (q) Did Adam say I have sinned? No; his pride had the deformity of Confusion, not the humility of Confession. 4. Inability to stand in judgement, when God arraigned them at his bar. And therefore both of them labour to (r) excuse and translate their fault: Adam to his wife, and she to the Serpent. It is the misery of unrighteous persons, that they are (s) not able to stand, but fall in judgement. 5. The Peculiar Punishments of the female Sex. The Hebrews observe, as (t) Mercerus noteth, five Degrees of Eves sin: and answerably five degrees of her, and womens Punishment. She sinned, (1) By entertaining the Serpents Temptation, believing him rather then God, contrary to God. (2) By being lifted up with ambitious desire to be as God. (3) By beholding the Tree of knowledge with a longing look. (4) By taking and eating of it. (5) By giving also to her husband, so that he did eat. So she and women in her, were punished five waies: viz. (1) By their many Sorrows in general. (2) By their sorrows in Conception. (3) By their sorrows and pains in bringing forth of children. (4) By their ardent desires after their husbands notwithstanding. (5) By their subjection to their husbands. But the (u) Text seems to refer the Punishments of the female sex to two Heads; viz. Multiplied sorrows, and Aggravated subjection, (1) Multiplied sorrows: Partly, In the womans Conceiving with child. Wherein understand all her sorrows, during the time she is with child, till she be delivered: viz. Her weakness and nauseousness of stomach, rejection of food, distempered appetite after unwholesome and unfit nourishment, weakness, dulness, wearisomeness, frowardness, longings, faintings, swounings, and much sicklines, with manifold fears. Partly, in the womans bringing forth of children, which usually is with such exquisite pains and sharp tortures, as that Scripture is wont thereby to represent The churches (x) extream afflictions; The (y) pangs of Death; The terrours

(z) of the day of judgement; and the very (a) torments of Hell; the same word for substance being used to signifie all these. And sometimes these pains of child-bearing prove mortal. Now under Bringing forth, we may understand also the Bringing up of children, as the phrase is (b) elsewhere used. And in both, what multitudes of cares, fears, griefs, watchings, toylsome troubles, torments, vexations, &c. flow in upon them! (2) An aggravated subjection to their husbands; (c) Their desire must be subject to their husbands, and they must rule over them. By the law of Nature and Creation, the woman being made after and for the man, was to be subject unto man, though they had never sinned. But that subjection would have been sweet, pleasant and delightful; and the husbands Rule loving, as over a Second-self: whereas now since the fall, the husbands Rule over his wife seems to be somewhat augmented, and her subjection is become painful, tedious, irksome, and grievous to her. These the Punishments peculiar to women-kind. 6. Gods curse upon the (d) Earth. By Earth, seems to be implyed, the whole (e) visible world, made for mans use and Comfort: in the Curse whereof, man (whose subsistence was to be on and from the earth) is cursed and punished. By Gods Curse, the Earth, and visible world proportionally, are smitten with Barrenness, Toilsomeness, and vanity. (1) With Barrenness; Partly in (f) not yielding their strength of influence and fruitfulness, as before the fall they did abundantly and freely. Partly in bringing forth weeds, (g) thorns and thistles, in stead of good fruits; which before the fall it did not bring forth. (2) With (h) Toylsomeness. The Curse and barrenness of the Earth being in toylsomeness and laborious wearisome travel with the Earth, to improve it unto fruitfulness. (i) All things are full of labour, man cannot utter it. (3) With vanity. (k) Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity of vanities, all is vanity. All sublunaries are vanity; Partly in respect of their Emptiness. There's no satisfaction in any sublunary enjoyment. (l) The eye is not satisfied with seeing: nor the ear filled with hearing. (m) Hee that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance, with increase; This is also vanity. Partly in respect of their Perishableness. (n) Of old hath God laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure; yea all of them shall wax old like a garment: as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed. Hence Paul saith, That (o) the Creation is made subject to vanity, —— and is under the bondage of Corruption, as it were waiting for a state of glorious liberty. Therefore the whole Creation groaneth, and travelleth in pain together untill now. And Peter tels us expresly, That (p) in the day of the Lord, The heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the Elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up. —— Nevertheless we look for New Heavens and New Earth. Oh, mans sin hath in a sort so deeply stained the beauty and glory of this visible world, that the old universal deluge of waters could not wash it, it, but the fire of the last day must purifie it. Heaven and Earth groan and travel-in-pangs under the Curse of mans sin; and shall not man much more groan and be in pain for his own sin? This is the curse upon the Creature. 7. Gods actual dooming of Adam, and of mankind in him, To an ignominious Provision, Miserable life, and Certain Death after all. (s) His ignominious Provision of Sustenance: In that he (q) must eat the herb of the field. Before the fall he had for food the liberal and delicate fruits of Eden: but since, his allowance was both shorter, and courser. As he made himself (r) like the beasts that perish: so he must as well as the beasts eat the herb of the field, a more ignoble nourishment. (t) His miserable life: in regard of the Continual Sorrows, and laborious painful wearisome toyl in providing food and other necessaries all the daies of his life. (u) In sorrow shalt thou eat all the daies of thy life. —— In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground. Hence man is necessitated, (x) To rise up early, to set up late, to eat the bread of sorrows. This sweat the (y) Hebrews refer to the many laborious works and waies of preparing bread; As manuring the ground, Plowing it, Sowing it, Harrowing it, Breaking the clods, Weeding the Corn, Reaping it, In-gathering it, Thrashing it, Winnowing it, Grinding it, Dressing it, Kneading it, Baking it in the Oven. O how many toylsome tyring imployments is man Obnoxious to in providing food and raiment for himself and family? (z) His certain Death as the Period of all. —— (a) Till thou return unto the ground: for out of it wast thou taken: for Dust thou art, and unto Dust thou shalt return. Here man is not only sentenced to Death, but also to the Grave. Under which understand, all Sicknesses, Diseases, Causes, Occasions, Harbingers or inlets to Death, as harmful influence of the Heavens, infectiousness of the air, unwholsomeness of the Earth, &c. 8. Expulsion of man (b) out of Paradise, and Guarding it and the Tree of life, with Cherubims and a flaming sword turning every way, to keep the way of the Tree of life: That Adam might not fondly delude himself with vain hopes of life by the Sacrament of the Covenant of works, when he had broken the Covenant it self. These, these were the woful Evils of Punishment, that like a Torrent burst in upon our First Parents presently upon their fall, and in them upon all mankind. To speak nothing of the miseries of man in this world in respect of his Goods, Relations, Name, Body and Soul, which are innumerable: Nor of his endless Calamities in the world to come, which (without Christ) are inevitable and intolerable.

Hitherto hath been evidenced at large, 1. That Adam brake the Covenant of works. 2. How Adam brake this Covenant by disobedience. 3. When and how soon he brake it. 4. How grievous and hainous this his Breach of Covenant was. Now in the last place, 5. Certain Corollaries, flowing from all are to be Considered.

V. Corollaries, resulting from this Aphorism, and the Explanation of it, are divers. As,

1. Hence; Not only Adam, but all mankind in Adam were Covenant-Breakers with God. It hath (z) formerly been cleared, that not only Adam but all his Posterity were Parties to this Covenant with God: Consequently, in Adams Covenant-breaking, they all became Covenant-breakers with God. Its dangerous to be Covenant-breakers with man: dreadful to be Covenant-breakers with God. Here seriously consider, 1. That Covenant-keeping is most acceptable to God. For, 1. God (a) commands us to keep Covenant with himself. 2. Gods Promises are to them that keep Covenant with him. To David, (b) that if his children would keep his Covenant, they should sit upon his Throne for evermore. To all the Godly, (c) That the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him; and his righteousness unto childrens children: To such as keep his Covenant, and to those that remember his Commandments to do them. 3. Covenant-keeping makes us like God, and notably resemble him, (d) who is the faithful God, which keepeth Covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keep his Commandments to a thousand generations. And the more we resemble God, the more acceptable we are unto God. 4. Covenant-keeping with God, obtains rich recompence from God. Levi, for (e) observing Gods word and keeping his Covenant, is stablished and accepted in his office, and divinely blessed. Yea (f) All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his Covenant and his Testimonies. II. That contrariwise Covenant-breaking is most abominable to God. For 1. Covenant-breaking is (g) ranked by the Holy Ghost amongst the worst of Sins, & Covenant-breakers among the vilest of Sinners. And God (h) cannot abide that such should any way so much as profess, name, or meddle with his Covenant. 2. Covenant-breaking is Exposed to many (i) Threatnings. 3. Covenant-breaking puls down upon mens heads many severe and heavy Judgements. How was (k) Israel plagued, for dealing falsly in Gods Covenant, again and again? yea How hath God taken vengeance even upon them that have broke their Covenants with men! Joshuah and Israel made a Covenant with the (l) Gibeonites, that they should live peaceably with them: King Saul contrary thereunto slew some of them; whereupon the Philistins slew him and his sons, and many of the Israelites; and the whole land was plagued with a three years famine, till seven of Sauls sons were hanged at the request of the Gibeonites. (m) Zedekiah brake Covenant with Nebuchadnezzar, and God delivered him into the hands of his Enemies, who slew his sons before his eyes, and then put out his eyes. Now if they that brake Covenant with man are thus plagued: where shall they appear that have broke Covenant with the living God, and that in Paradise?

2. Hence, Adam's first Sin, his Covenant-breaking Sin, and ours in him, was not small, but extreamly sinful. The Act of eating of the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge, seems to be a small matter: whereupon some have seemed to excuse and extenuate his sin. But how ignorantly, how inconsiderately! Can that sin be small, thats clothed with with such and so many unparalleld Aggravations, as have been already unfolded?

3. Hence The Covenant of Works being broken by the first Adam, and by all mankind in him: He and all his Posterity lie wofully involved under the Curse and Penalty of it, even Death it self. This Corollary is of great Importance, and most seriously to be considered. For opening of it, Note 1. Why Adam and all his Posterity, upon breach of the Covenant of works lie involved under the Curse and Penalty of it, Death: 2. What Death it is under which they lie involved, and How they are so involved. 3. What are the Aggravations of this their sad condition under Death for sin.

(1) Adam and all his Posterity upon breach of the Covenant of works lie involved under the Curse and Penalty of it, Death it self. 1. Because God in making Covenant with Adam and his Posterity ([n]) threatned present and certain Death, in Case of breach thereof by disobedience in eating the forbidden fruit. The Covenant therefore being broken, it concerned God in point both of Justice and Truth, wherein he is incomparable, to inflict upon them the punishment threatned. Otherwise God had not been True and Just in his words and ways. 2. Because Death is the Proper ([o]) wages of Sin, and eternal Death the most adequate and proportionable recompence thereof. Hence the Apostle saith ([p]) By one man sin entred into the world, and Death by Sin: and so death passed upon all men by that one man, in whom all have sinned. And again, ([q]) By the offence of one, judgement came upon all men to Condemnation. 3. Because God made his Covenant not only with Adam, but with all his Posterity in him, as ([r]) hath been already shewed: and therefore when Adam fell from his integrity, he fell not alone, nor brought the Curse and Penalty of the Covenant upon himself alone, but all his ordinary Posterity fell in him, were involved under the Penalty of Death with him. 4. Because The Covenant of Works in the Nature of it, under pain of the Curse and Death, requires perfect and perpetual Personal obedience: According to that of the Apostle, ([s]) As many as are of the works of the Law, are under the Curse, (presupposing mans Fall, and consequently his inability to keep it): For it is written, Cursed is every one that that continueth not in all things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them. The Covenant of works therefore affords no mercy to the Transgressors thereof: but inflicts Death and the Curse for the least delinquency. ([t]) For whosoever shall keeep the whole Law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

(2) What Death it is under which Adam and all his Posterity lie involved: and how they are so involved under Death, though Adam did not presently dye; hath before ([u]) been declared. Only here I add, touching Corporal Death, That we may consider three things, viz. The Commination, Sentence, and execution of it. 1. The Commination or Threatning of Death Corporal, as well as Spiritual or or Eternal, in case of disobedience, was (x) Propounded to Adam in innocency, to keep him in due obedience. 2. The Sentence of Corporal Death was pronounced upon Adam presently upon his disobedience in the (y) same Day that he did eat of the forbidden fruit, in these words; Dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. So that Adam was now as A condemned malefactor: Dead in Law, Civilly Dead; to be executed at the Judges pleasure. 3. The Execution of Corporal Death upon Adam and his Posterity was respited a while. (z) The Death of Adam, and so of the Fathers before the Flood was respited for about 900 years: so long God reprieved them in the First world, from Adam to Noah. In the second world from Noah to Abraham, Mans Life, or mans Reprieve from death, is shortned half in half, and brought to about 450. years. In the third world, from Abraham to Moses, Mans Life was contracted to 100 and some odd years. Yea Moses himself saith, (a) The days of our years are threescore years and ten, and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow: for it is soon cut off and we fly away. To this short scantling of 70 or 80 years, are our lives reduced, few reach to 100. Thus The Sentence of Death Corporal is executed upon all mankind, by degrees, to this day, and so will be to the end of the world.

(3) The Aggravations of this sad Condition of Adam and his Posterity under the Penalty of the Covenant of works broken, are dreadful. For clearing hereof we are to consider Adam and his Posterity after breach of the Covenant of works, as in a fourfold estate, viz. As Covenantless; As Carnal; As Gracious; As Glorious. I. In a Covenantless estate, were Adam and all his Posterity in the interval, or space betwixt the breach of the Covenant of works and the Making known the Covenant of Faith in Christ. From the (b) Fall, till the Promise of the Seed of the woman, Adam and all his Posterity were Covenantless, without all Covenant with God. They had not the Covenant of works, for that was Broken: Nor the Covenant of of Faith in Christ, for that was not yet revealed. Hence, In this Covenantless Condition, Adam and all his Posterity were involved under the penalty of Death, 1. Without all Remedy. For Christ, (c) the only Remedy against Sin and Death, was not as yet Promised or Revealed at all. 2. Without all Hope. For whence could Adam have any Hope of life? Not from his own fulfilling of the Covenant of works, for that he had utterly broken: not from Faith in Christ fulfilling it for him, and satisfying for his breach thereof; for the Mysterie of Christ, and of the Covenant of Faith in him, was not as yet made known to Adam; nor could such a Remedy ever have come into Adams thoughts. Therefore in this interval of time betwixt the Fall, and the Promise of Christ, Adam and all Mankinde in him were in the most remedilesse hopelesse darksom valley of the Shadow of Death, that ever was or shall be on Earth from the Creation, till the judgement Day. II. In a (d) Carnal fleshly sinful State, are are all Adams Posterity, by Nature, since the Fall and promise of Christ, From their Conception, till their Actual Receiving of Christ by Faith for Life. During this Carnal Condition Mankind are not so Remedilesly and Hopelesly miserable as in the former Covenantless State; Because Jesus Christ the Remedy against sin and Death, and the Fundamental Hope of life, is already Revealed to the world, which was not then: yet notwithstanding herein all mankind are wofully miserable in divers regards. 1. In that during this carnal State they are wholly under the Curse and Penalty of the Covenant of works, viz. Death. Every Carnal man is, Spiritually (e) dead in Sin, yea (f) death it self: Corporally dying every day, by gradual decays of Life; and by afflictions which are petty deaths: and as (g) children of wrath every moment liable to eternal Death, being (h) condemned already, and having the wrath of God abiding on them. 2. In that, during their carnal State, they are extreamly insensible of this their dead and cursed Condition: and vainly flatter themselves therein with imaginations and dreams that they are alive and in a good spiritual Condition towards God. As (i) the Pharisee, that went into the Temple to pray: Paul (k) before Conviction and Conversion, and the (l) Laodicean Angel. Now (m) Physicians say, that they are more dangerously sick, that being diseased are insensible of their disease. They are double miserable, that being in their carnal Condition are not sensible of their misery, but rather count their misery happiness. 3. In that, during their carnal state, they are (n) utterly unable to help themselves in any degree out of their miserable thraldom of Sin and Death, without Gods Supernatural Grace. So that, in the first part of Conversion, viz. the infusing of Principles and Habits of Grace into the Heart, they are meerly Passive. 4. Finally, In that, During their carnal Condition, They are not only extreamly miserable, Senseless of their Misery, and in respect of themselves utterly Helpless under their misery, but also they are most prone to (o) Neglect, despise and (p) hate Jesus Christ the only Remedy. These are the Aggravations of a Carnal mans misery. III. In a gracious State are all they that are by effectual calling transplanted out of the first Adam into Iesus Christ the second Adam. During this their Gracious State, though they be not totally freed from Death, yet they are wholly (q) delivered from the Curse of it, through Christ. From (r) Death Eternal they are fully delivered, that (though they deserve it, yet) it shall never befal them. From Death Spiritual they are inchoatively and gradually delivered by the (s) Power of the Spirit of Life in Christ: and shall be compleatly when (t) neither spot nor wrinkle, nor any such thing shall remain upon them. From Death Corporal, together with all the inlets and harbingers thereof, they are delivered in respect of the (u) Sting, Terror, and Curse thereof, though not in respect of the (x) state thereof. The Saints are afflicted and dye as well as Carnal men: But to the Saints Afflictions and Death are not Enemies, but (y) Friends; not not Losses, but (z) Gains; not Miseries, but (a) Mercies; not Punishments, but (b) fatherly Chastisements; not Curses, but (c) blessings; whilst unto Carnal men they are altogether Contrary. And then no Sin, Death, Curse, Affliction, Sorrow, or any shadow thereof shall ever trouble them or come neer them any more to all eternity: but (f) all shall be swallowed up in victory. And thus we are to conceive of the penalty of the Covenant of works, Death: and how Adam and all his Posterity are, by their first Sin, therein involved.

4. Hence, All Adams Posterity from the beginning to the end of the world, have great Cause deeply to lament and be humbled for Adams first Sin. For, Not only Adam, but (g) all his posterity sinned in Adams first sin: That First Sin was extreamly sinful: That First sin involved not only Adam but all his Posterity under the Curse and Penalty of Death. Was ever sin, all things considered, parallel to this sin? was ever sin such Matter of lamentation and Humiliation? If Adams Posterity had no other sin, Original or Actual, to Mourn for, but this one sin alone, they had cause enough to lament it while this world Continues, if it were possible, with Rivers of tears, and those tears of blood. How comes it to pass then that we can mourn for Actuals, and Originals; but mourn least of all, for Adams and our First Sin to be bewayled most of all! When we Mourn for Actuals, lets with (h) David also mourn for Original Sin, The Nursery of Actuals: And when we mourn for them, lets Mourn likewise for Adams First Sin, the Mother of them all.

5. Hence, we may see How unsafe it is for mutable man to have his Life and Happiness in his own Keeping. Adam was made (i) upright, and that in the Image of God, but Mutable. His Life and Happiness was put into his own Keeping, and depended upon his own personal performance of the Covenant of works, which he had full power to keep; but being left to the liberty of his own Will, Temptation alluring, how quickly did he and we in him lose all! How much better hath the Lord provided for his Elect in Christ the second Adam! Not they, but Christ is betrusted with their Life and Happiness. (k) My sheep hear my voice (saith Christ) and I know them, and they follow me. And I give unto them Eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. (l) They are kept-as-in-garison by the power of God through Faith unto Salvation. 1. The (m) love of God in Jesus Christ clasps and embraceth them inseparably: 2. The (n) faithful Constancy of Christ retains them immoveably: 3. The (o) incorruptible Seed of Christs word and Grace abides in them, and makes them abide in Christ perpetually; and 4. The (p) Omnipotent hand of God and Christ, who are stronger then all, protect, preserve and hold them inviolably. Therefore they can never totally nor finally fall.

6. Hence;

6. Hence; Seeing Adam utterly brake the Covenant of works by disobedience, This Covenant-breach is absolutely irreparable by the First Adam, and by all his ordinary Posterity. It is so wide and desperate a breach, that its absolutely past all the power and skill of meer mankind, or Creature, to close up and repair the same. This is evident, 1. From the Nature and Tenor of the Covenant of works. It giveth life upon no other Terms then upon Perfect and perpetual Personal Obedience: and inflicteth death upon the least failing in any one particular. This the tenor and current of the Covenant. Adam failed in one particular, not obeying the Symbolical Law about the Tree of Knowledge: By this one failing the Tenor of the Covenant is utterly overthrown: It being impossible that Adam should yield continual Obedience: his obedience being discontinued and broken off by his Disobedience. Therefore, As Virginity once lost, can never be recovered; so the Covenant of works once violated, can never be repaired. 2. From the requisits, Necessary to compleat Reparation of the broken Covenant of works. There are three things principally requisite to such a Reparation; viz. Full Satisfaction of the breach Past. Full personal Conformity to the Covenant for Present. And compleat fulfilling of the Covenant, for the Future. (t) There must be full Satisfaction of Divine Justice and Truth for the Breach of Covenant already Past, by undergoing the Death threatned, and deserved. Now no meer finite Creature is able to undergo death Corporal, Spiritual and Eternal, so as fully to satisfie Gods infinite justice, but would be utterly and eternally lost and swallowed up therein. And infinite justice offended, requires infinite satisfaction, which finite Beings can never perform. (a) There must be a full Personal Conformity to the Covenant for the present. Otherwise it were absolutely impossible either Passively to Satisfie for breaches past, or Actively to keep the Covenant perfectly for time to come. Adam in integrity had not been able to keep the Covenant: had not his person then been fully conform to the Covenant. Now since Adams breach of the Covenant of works, Nor he nor any of his ordinary posterity are fully Conform to the Covenant, but naturally all are most (q) contrary thereunto. (3) There must be, finally, a Compleat fulfilling of the Covenant of works for the future. But that none of the Ordinary posterity of lapsed Adam can perform, because (r) The Scripture hath concluded all under sin. 3. From the utter inability of Adam and all mankind since the fall to fulfil the Covenant of works. All being (s) dead in sin; (t) without strength, and so the (u) Law weak through the flesh; (x) Enmity against God and the Law of God; and (y) every imagination of the thoughts of mans heart being only evil Continually.

7. Finally, Hence; The Covenant of works being utterly broken by Adams disobedience, Nor Adam nor Any of his Posterity, since the fall can ever be justified before God by the Covenant of works, or by the works of the Law. Why? 1. Because Adam, and (z) all mankind in him, are are under sin, by reason of Adams disobedience. And therefore being wholly unable to all good works, they cannot be justified by good-works. Yea are so far from any possibility of being Justified by good works: that, without pardoning mercy, they are liable to be condemned eternally for their sins. And this is the Apostles grand Argument against Justification by the works of the Law, where he purposely treats of this Subject of Justification, viz. Nor Jew nor Gentile can be justified by the works of the Law: because all of them are under sin. (a) The Series of his Argumentation, See in Rom. 1. 17. to Rom. 3. 21. and observe it accurately. 2. Because, As by Adams disobedience all are concluded under sin: so by the law of works Comes the Knowledge of Sin. How? Chiefly two waies, viz. (1) Directly, By discovering what is sin, not only in Deeds and words, but in thoughts and imaginations. (b) I had not known sin (saith Paul) but by the Law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not Covet. Hence Christ shews in his Commentary upon the Law, (c) that the Law discovers and condemns, not only Outward gross sins of life, but also inward close sins of the Heart. (2) Indirectly and Occasionally, By irritating and provoking sin: through the prohibition and restraint of it, to appear more extreamly sinful. As a fierce Torrent dam'd up, swels and rageth more furiously. So Paul, (d) Sin taking occasion by the Commandment, wrought in me all manner of Concupiscence. For without the Law sin was dead. ——— Thus, Sin by the Commandment became exceeding sinful. Now the Covenant or law of works, thus bringing in the knowledge of Sin, since the Fall, and not the knowledge of any our righteousness at all, is altogether unable to justifie us. Hence the Apostle thus concludes, (e) Therefore by the deeds of the Law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the Law is the Knowledge of sin. 3. Because, Since the Fall, The Law of works curseth and condemneth all for not continuing in Obedience: and therefore it can justifie none. (f) For as many as are of the works of the Law, are under the Curse: For it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them. Now the same Law cannot both bless and curse at once, both justifie and condemn at once, all mankind.

APHORISM

Aphorism VII.

Finally, The breach of the Covenant of works by the Disobedience of the First Adam, did wonderfully make way for the establishment of the Covenant of Faith by the Obedience of the Second Adam. For, its very observable, (g) That Adam had no sooner broke the Covenant of works: but presently on the selfsame-day, God promiseth Christ the Seed of the woman to heal this breach, and so sets on foot the Covenant of Faith in Christ. Adam, almost as soon as made, made haste to destroy mankind, by his Sin: God, almost as soon as they were ruined, made haste to save mankind by his Son. Here's no small mysterie in this Divine dispensation. For unfolding it, Consider briefly these two Particulars, viz.

(g) Compare Gen. 3. 6, 7, 8. with ver. 15.

1. God before the foundation of the world, purposing to glorifie himself more peculiarly, by mankind, (h) Elected some out of mankind unto the adoption of children in Jesus Christ, according to the good-pleasure of his will.

(h) Eph. 1. 4, 5, 6.

2. God, in the beginning of the world, 1. Created man in his own image, wholly upright, but mutable. 2. Brings man into a Covenant of works with himself, Promising continuance of life upon condition of Continued obedience, but threatning present death to disobedience. 3. Leaves man to himself and permits him to fall from his integrity, by breaking this Covenant, into a miserable state of sin and death. And all this in order to the accomplishment and execution of his eternal Decree.

3. God takes occasion, upon mans miserable state of Sin and Death through breach of the Covenant of works, to open to him a door of hope for life and happiness in Christ Jesus, by the Covenant of Faith. The breach of the Covenant of works wonderfully making way for the Erecting of the Covenant of Faith: And this in divers respects: viz. 1. In respect of God; the breach of Covenant giving him the clearest and fittest opportunity in the world, of manifesting the infinite riches of his free-grace, love, mercy, &c. in Jesus Christ to mankind now in deepest misery. Mans extremity is Gods opportunity. Now was Gods only time to exalt himself, and his Grace on high, when man had debased himself so low. In extremity of misery, to shew Mercy, is double mercy. 2. In respect of man; the breach of Covenant bringing him into the greatest necessity of a Mediator of Divine Grace and pardoning mercy in him, and of a Covenant of faith revealing this Mediator and this Grace unto him. Till the fall, Adam needed neither Covenant of faith nor pardoning mercy, no Mediator: But after his fall he so needs them all, that without them he dyes eternally. This extream necessity and undone state of man, made excellent way for the replenishing bounty of God. When Pain is bittrest, ease is sweetest; When the heart is most sick, reviving Cordials are most welcome. 3. In respect of the Covenant of Faith itself; the breach of the Covenant of works represents to the Covenant-breaker nothing but Death: The Covenant of Faith is brought in, Proclaims a Reprieve, yea a free Pardon, in the Seed of the woman, Christ, to all that by faith will accept him. O sweet Covenant of Faith, that Opens a door of Hope and Mercy, even then when the broken Covenant of works knows no mercy! O blessed tidings, That an apostate Sinner may have an al-sufficient Saviour! That the breach of the Covenant of works grounded on mutable Nature, should be repaired by the Covenant of Faith in Christ, founded upon immutable Grace!

Come, and see; See, and admire; Admire, and adore, The Severity, The Goodness, and The wisdom of God. [1] His Severity; in that Sin shall be rewarded with death, at least in the Sinners Surety and Mediator Promised. [2] His Goodness; in that the condemned Sinner shall be restored to life, by a Covenant of Reconciliation. [3] His Wisdom; in that he could Improve, Reduce and Dispose Mans sinful fall to so great advantage both for his own Glory, and Mans Good. Who, but the most high God, could have extracted such a reviving Medicine, out of such a deadly Poyson: could have brought such clear light, out of such extream darkness; such supernatural life, out of such preternatural Death; such celestial good, out of such infernal evil? As Augustine, excellently; (i) The omnipotent God, who is chiefly Good, would by no means suffer any evil to be among his works, were he not so omnipotent and good, that he could bring good even out of evil. If the First Covenant had not been marred; the second and more excellent Covenant had not been made. If the first earthly Adam had not been ruined; the second heavenly Adam Christ had not been promised. If One sin in Adam had not been so grievous: Gods superabounding grace in Christ had not appeared so glorious. (k) Oh my happy fault, (said Augustine) *which while God is drawn by love to wipe away, that love of his also is opened unto me, desiring and Coveting it from my heart root! CHAP. II.

2. Of Gods COVENANT OF FAITH with the last Adam and his Seed after the fall; more Generally Considered.

THE COVENANT of FAITH, That sweet and admirable mysterie of Divine dispensation, comes next to be unfolded. Though usually it be called The Covenant of Grace; yet I chuse rather to stile it The COVENANT of FAITH; 1. Because, The Covenant of works, and the Covenant of Faith, are Denominations neerest to the Scriptures own Expressions, viz. The Law of works, and The Law of Faith. Rom. 3. 27. which for sense and substance, what are they else, but the Covenant of works, and the Covenant of Faith? 2. Because the distribution of Gods Covenant into The Covenant of works and The Covenant of Faith, seems most proper: These being most distinct and opposite members; Works being the Condition of that, Faith the Condition of this Covenant, and both on mans part. 3. Because that Denomination of The Covenant of Grace, is rather Co-incident with the Covenant of works, which (as hath been shewed) was a Covenant made with Adam of meer Grace and favour, as well as this; God being no way obliged, debt-bound or necessitated to either: This is noted once for all, that none be offended at the Phrase of The COVENANT of FAITH here used.

Now in the unfolding of this COVENANT of FAITH, I shall, for the greater perspicuity, Treat of it,

I. More Generally, Shewing, 1. That The Covenant of Works being broken in the First Adam, The Lord pleased to Reveal a Covenant of Faith in Christ the Last Adam. 2. What this Covenant of Faith is. 3. How this Covenant of Faith is to be distinguished and distributed into its several sorts and branches.

II. More Particularly, descending to the Particular opening of it, in the several Periods of its Discovery, and Forms of its Administration.

APHORISM

APHORISM I.

THE COVENANT of WORKS being broken in the First Adam; The Lord God was pleased to Reveal A COVENANT of FAITH in Jesus Christ the Last Adam. For more clear unfolding hereof, these things are to be evidenced. viz. 1. That God upon Adams breach of the Covenant of works, revealed The Covenant of Faith. 2. When God Revealed this Covenant of Faith. 3. Why he Revealed the Covenant of Faith.

1. That, upon breach of the Covenant of Works in the First Adam, God was pleased to Reveal a Covenant of Faith in Jesus Christ, the Last Adam, will appear, by conferring some few Scriptures together. For,

1. One Scripture testifieth, that Jesus Christ is the Last Adam; (a) The First man Adam was made a living Soul: The Last Adam was made a quickning Spirit. —— Again, The first man is of the Earth Earthy: The Second man is the Lord from Heaven. Here are two Adams opposite one to the other: and the Lord Christ is the Second or Last of these two Adams.

(a) 1 Cor. 15. 45, 47.

2. Another Scripture witnesseth, That (b) the First Adam in respect of the effect of his disobedience, was the Figure or Type of him that was to come, viz. of Christ, in respect of the effect of his Obedidience. For, As by the First Adams Disobedience, all his posterity were brought into a state of Sin and Death; So by the Last Adams Obedience, all his Posterity (which are many, even all the Elect) shall be most freely Restored to a state of righteousnes and eternal life. Hence its evident, That these two Adams in this parallel, stand in reference to their respective Posterities not only as two Roots whence their Posterities flow, but also as two Representatives, or two Universal and Publike Persons representing their several Seeds. Adam represented and sustained the person of his Seed, all mankind; in his Disobedience all mankind disobeyed; in his Death for disobedience all mankind dyed also: In like manner Christ represented and sustained the person of his Seed, all the Elect; in his obedience all the Elect obeyed, and in his justification upon his Obedience all the Elect partake justification of Life. So then, The First Adam disobeyed; What? The Covenant of works; and so condemned all mankind: Christ the Last Adam obeyed: What? the same Covenant of works, the Law, and so saved all the Elect. How? According to the tenor of the Covenant of Faith: making him a representative Surety for all his Elect.

(b) Consider well that whole context, viz. Rom. 5. 12. to the end of the chapt.

3. Finally another Scripture sheweth, That all mankind being concluded under sin (viz. by reason of Adams breach of the Covenant of works) they could not have life by the Law or Covenant of works, sin disabling them to keep it: and thereupon God hath given given a Covenant of Faith in Christ, to them that believe, viz. to all his Elect, (c) they alone being able truely to believe. (d) If there had been a Law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the Law. But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, That the Promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

(c) Joh 10. 26.
(d) Gal. 3. 21, 22.

Now lay all this together; 1. Jesus Christ is the Last Adam; 2. The First Adam having condemned all his Seed under sin and death by his disobedience, the Last Adam restores all his Elect unto justification of life by his obedience. 3. The Law being unable by reason of sin to give righteousness and life, The Covenant or Promise by Faith in Christ is given instead thereof; And it is clear, That the Covenant of works being broken by the first Adam, the Lord hath revealed a Covenant of Faith in Christ the last Adam.

II. When did God Reveal the COVENANT of FAITH in Christ the last Adam? Answ. God was pleased to Reveal the Covant of Faith in Christ, not only (e) under the New Testament since Christ, but also under the Old Testament long before Christ. And that not only to the (f) Iews about the time of their return from the Babylonish Captivity: but also to (g) David long before that time; And to (h) Moses and Israel at Sinai long before Davids time: And to (i) Abraham long before the dayes of Moses: And to (k) Noah long before the dayes of Abraham: yea and to Adam himself long before the dayes of Noah. For, in the self-same day wherein Adam by disobedience broke the Covenant of works, in that very day, before God either drove the man out of Paradise, or pronounced Sentence upon him or the woman for their sin, even whilest he was passing Sentence upon the Serpent (which probably was not many hours after the Fall,) (l) God revealed this Covenant of Faith in Christ, The seed of the woman, that should bruise the Serpents head. Notably to this effect said Hierom; (m) Our God against all hope, almost against all faith, having out of the riches of his mercy found good in evil, begetting and confirming kindness in wrath, would have the Seed of sining to pass on into the fruit of commiserating: and he who should have destroyed us for our transgression, promised to repair us for his own mercy And at that time wherein we deserved punishments, he shews matter of Salvation: That we might understand, how much he was able to perform, being un-offended, that would bestow so much while he was displeased. Therefore in the first man he presently promised us judiciary Help, He presently brought forth good things out of his good treasury, He presently pub- lished the mysteries unknown to Angels themselves, which was to be fulfilled in the last time; And unto the Adam on Earth, he promised an Adam from Heaven. Thus he, elegantly.

III. Why did God Reveal The Covenant of Faith in Christ the last Adam, the Covenant of works being broke by the first Adam? Answ. We may Conceive that the Lord did this, 1. Out of meer Grace, Love and Mercy to Mankind. 2. That Gods purpose according to Election might stand. 3. That Gods Covenant and Promise might be sure to all the Elect. 4. To advance the Glory of his Goodness and Severity in Jesus Christ.

1. Out of the superabounding riches of his meer Grace, Love and Mercy to mankind. These were the only inward Impulsives, or moving Causes, whereupon the Lord inclined to Reveal a Covenant of faith in Christ, after the Covenant of works was broken by Adam: and not any thing at all in man. viz. 1. His meer Grace or free favour to man in lapsed State. What the Apostle saith of Gods Covenant and Promise to Abraham, (n) It is of Faith, that it might be by Grace; holds also in all the periods and administrations of the Covenant of Faith, after Adams Fall. (o) To him that worketh, the reward is not reckoned of Grace, but of debt, saith the Apostle. But lapsed man could not work, could not fulfill the works of the Law, and so have the reward of life, as a debt due by Gods promise in the Covenant of works: therefore this Covenant of Faith God made with him of the riches of his meer Grace. 2. His meer love moved him to make this Covenant of Faith, and that not only without, but contrary to all grounds of Love in lapsed man. For man having broken the Covenant of works, became a most wretched (p) Sinner. As a Sinner he had lost the image of God, and all his Beauty, Amiableness, Lovelines, &c. being wholly deformed, defiled and unlovely through the image of Satan. Therefore, As God singularly (q) commended his love to us, in that whilest we were yet sinners, Christ dyed for us: so he singularly commended the same Love to us, in that whilest we were yet sinners, (r) Christ was freely Promised to us. 3. His meer mercy. By mercy God is disposed to favour his creatures in misery. Man having broken the Covenant of works, was a meer map of misery. And, all things considered, mankind was never so extreamly and hopelesly miserable in this world since the Creation, as betwixt his breach of the Covenant of works, and Gods Revealing of the Covenant of Faith. For at that time he had no foundation of hope, nor shadow thereof left him. He had no Covenant or Promise to lean upon: the Covenant of works being broken, and the Covenant of Faith not Revealed. He had no righteousness to depend upon: not his own, for he had lost it; not Christs, for it was not yet made known. He had no attribute of God to comfort himself with: for he had made himself an utter enemy to God. No creature would relieve him: because no meer creature could reconcile him to God. Only Death was before him ready to swallow him up. Now in this utmost extremity of mans misery on earth, God proclaims A Covenant of Faith in Christ. Here was a miracle miracle of (f) Mercy indeed, Meer misery is embraced in the arms of meer mercy.

(f) Tit. 3. 4, 5, 6.

2. That Gods gracious purpose according to Election might stand firm, and not be overthrown: All mankind, in Adams breach of the Covenant of works, being plunged into a state of sin and death, God revealed a Covenant of Faith for Recovery of his Elect among mankind out of that lost estate. Here note, 1. That, God hath elected or (t) chosen some out of mankind, in Jesus Christ before the foundation of the world, to be holy and without blame before him in love, having predestinated them unto the Adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will. These are called, (u) vessels of mercy, afore prepared unto glory: all others, vessels of wrath fitted to destruction. These are called, (x) Christs sheep, given him of the Father: others, not of his sheep, but goats. 2. That, Gods Counsel according to Election is most sure, unalterable, unchangable. (y) The foundation of God standeth sure, having this Seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And every one that God Predestinateth, he (z) glorifieth. 3. That, Adam's breach of the Covenant of works, involved (a) all mankind, elect as well as reprobates, in a state of sin and death. By which state of sin and death, Gods Election seems wholly to be crossed and overthrown. 4. That Gods revealing his Covenant of Faith in Christ, for restoring his elect out of this lapsed state, removes that grand obstruction and impediment to the execution and fulfilling of Gods Election. For, by this Covenant of Faith, The (b) Predestinated in Christ, are called to him, that they may be justified and glorified by him, according to the Election.

3. That Gods Covenant and Promise might be sure to all Gods Elect. The Covenant of works, founded upon Adams perfect and perpetual personal obedience, though sure in respect of God, (c) who cannot lye; yet was not sure in respect of Adam, who (though (d) upright,) was but a mutable Creature, and so utterly broke it. Therefore God revealed a Covenant of Faith, founded upon Christ and his perfect obedience, who is perfectly unchangable, (e) the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever: that so the Covenant might be inviolably sure to all that will believe in him. Hence the Apostle saith of the Promise of the inheritance to Abraham, (f) Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by Grace, to the end the Promise might be sure to all the seed.

4. Finally, The Covenant of works being broken by the first Adam, God Revealed the Covenant of Faith in Christ the last Adam, that thereby he might wonderfully advance the glory of his Goodness, and Severity, in Jesus Christ. 1. The glory of his Goodness towards his Elect. In devising life, for them when Dead: Righteousness, for them when Sinners: And a sure Covenant of Faith, for them when Covenant-breakers of the Covenant of works. Here's the valley of Achor, of Trouble, turned into a door of Hope: The midnight of misery, into the

the day-break of mercy. Oh how glorious is this Divine goodneſs in the eys of all the Elect! They ſhall ever extoll, admire and adore it, both in this and the world to come. 2. The glory of his Severity, both to Satan, and to all Reprobates. (1.) To Satan, that old Serpent the Devil, Gods Severity is publiſhed in the Covenant of faith, which brings tidings of Chriſt the (g) Seed of the woman that ſhould bruiſe the Serpents head, utterly conquer the Devil, and deſtroy his works. (h) Satan in the Serpent had ruined man by the woman. And therefore God hath deviſed to ruine (i) Satan, and the Serpent by the Promiſed ſeed of the woman. Man fell through Satans Temptation from without himſelf, and found Mercy: Satan (k) fell, having no temptation but from within himſelf, and being fallen, maliciouſly overthrows mankind, and therefore finds no mercy. Man is puſhed down by Satan, and mercy promiſeth him a Chriſt to ſave him: Satan puſhed down himſelf and mankinde with himſelf, and Severity threatneth him the ſame Chriſt to damn him. How ſeverely! How myſteriouſly! (2.) To Reprobates, the Seed of the Serpent, God magnifies alſo his juſtice and Severity, by the Covenant of faith. For, this Covenant eſtabliſheth an (l) enmity betwixt the Seed of the woman, Chriſt; and the Seed of the Serpent, reprobates. And ſhews that Chriſt ſhall bruiſe the head both of the Serpent, and of his Seed. O How terrible is this Severity! If Chriſt be an enemy to reprobates, who ſhall be their friend? If Chriſt bruiſe them, who ſhall heal them? If Chriſt damn them, who ſhall ſave them?

What this Covenant of faith in Chriſt the laſt Adam is: And how it is to be diſtributed: Shall be declared in the two next Aphoriſms. Mean while conſider theſe Corollaryes reſulting from this Aphoriſm.

Corollaryes. Seeing upon Breach of the Covenant of works by the firſt Adam, God was pleaſed to reveal a Covenant of faith in Chriſt the laſt Adam: Hence note,

1. That, Gods Covenant-Adminiſtrations are moſt wiſely contrived for the greateſt advantage of his own glory. (m) God hath made all things for himſelf: and orders (n) all things to himſelf. Eſpecially his Covenant-adminiſtrations render him eminently glorious. He gives Adam a Covenant of works, which he was able to keep: and ſo glorifies his Goodneſs and Power. He leaves Adam to himſelf, being mutable, permitting him to Fall: and ſo glorifies his Freedom. Adam having broke the Covenant of works, He reveals a Covenant of Faith in Chriſt: and ſo glorifies his goodneſs and Severity, as hath been ſhewed. He permits man to become a ſinner: that he may proclaim Chriſt to be a Saviour. He permits man to loſe his own righteouſneſs, which was mutable: that he may be clothed with Gods righteouſneſs which is immutable. He permits man to be involved in miſery: that he may be embraced with the greater mercy. He permits man to be deceived by the Serpent: that the Seed of the woman may deſtroy the Serpent. He permits man to be wounded to the Death: that he may more illuſtriouſly diſcover the Neceſſity and Efficacy of Ieſus Chriſt for Healing

(m) Prov. 16. 4.
(n) Rom. 11. 36.

Healing and for Life. He permits man to lose Eden: that in Christ he may gain Heaven. Thus the Almighty brings light out of darkness, strength out of weakness, gains out of losses, health out of sickness, victory out of Captivity, liberty out of bondage, happiness out of misery, life out of death, good out of evil, and Heaven out of Hell. (o) Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How hath he out-shot Satan in his own bow! How hath he raised his glory over all, by that which seemed to debase his glory most of all!

(o) Rom. 11.33.

2. That, God hath from the beginning been infinitely more carefull of mans Happiness, then man of his own happiness. God makes man happy; placeth this happiness in his own keeping; gives him ability to keep it; and Covenanteth to continue it to him upon his perfect obedience: but man breaks the Covenant, and disrobes himself of all his happiness, regardless of his felicity. Hereupon God erects a Covenant of faith, Opens a door of hope touching a greater happiness, placeth it in Christs keeping, offers it to all that will accept Christ by believing. Here's Gods double care of mans happiness; that bestowed not a single care upon his own happiness. O how God thirsts after mans felicity! He is more willing to save man, then man is willing to be saved by him, otherwise man should never have been saved.

3. That, The Revelation of the mysterie of the Gospel is of great Antiquity, having been even from the beginning of the world. They that think there is no Gospel, but in the New Testament, and that no Gospel was revealed, till Christs Incarnation; do greatly err, because they know not the Scriptures, nor the Grace of God. For, what is the Gospel, But The glad tidings of Gods gracious pleasure to save lapsed Sinners by Jesus Christ? This Gospel is preached by the Law and the Prophets. This (p) Gospel was preached unto Abraham, 430. years before the Law was given; And to Adam presently after the Fall in the very beginning of the world in that Promise of the (q) seed of the woman to bruise the Serpents head. And since that Promise, it is evident that the whole Scripture Scopes at the proclaiming and displaying of this Gospel in one respect or other.

(p) Gal. 3. 8. 17.

(q) Gen. 3. 15.

4. That, All the Godly under the Old Testament from the Fall of the first Adam till the incarnation of the last Adam, were saved in the self-same way for substance, that the faithful are under the New Testament since Christs coming in the flesh. For, They had for Substance the same Covenant of faith, that we; though more imperfectly and obscurely revealed. The same God: The same Mediator Jesus Christ, (r) the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever; though then revealed under types, shadows and promises, now exhibited with open face: They had the same Spirit of Christ, that we: They (s) lived by the same justifying faith, that we: The same Religion and (t) Sacraments for Substance, that we: and expected the same glorious reward eternally in Heaven, that we expect. But here is the eminent difference, ference, The Church and people of God under the Old Testament were in their spiritual Infancy, and as a child under age, were put under Tutors and Governors, viz. under a more servile manner of the Covenants administration: but now under the New Testament they are come to their Spiritual Maturity, like an heir come to age, and are spiritually a more free and willing people under a more free Covenant-dispensation.

5 That, God having revealed A Covenant of Faith, upon breach of the Covenant of Works, hath antiquated, and in some sort abolished the Covenant of Works. If in the same Covenant of Faith, Gods erecting of a (u) New Covenant, (new not for substance, but for Administration) makes the former administration of the Covenant old: much more Gods publishing of a New kind of Covenant, makes the former kind old. I say, God by setting up a Covenant of Faith, hath in some sort abolished the Covenant of works: viz. 1. In respect of affording Life, righteousness and Justification, as a Covenant. Thus it is abolished Generally unto all; for as much as no man since the fall (x) can be justified by works, but only by Faith in Christ. 2. In respect of inflicting Condemnation for the breach of the Covenant of Works. So it is abolished to all true believers, that accept the Covenant of Faith and Christ therein: for (y) there's no Condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus. Whether in other respects the Covenant of works be abolished; How far; How far not; and of what use it may still be in the Church of God: may be more opportunely considered in Treating of the Sinai-Covenant.

6. That, If any persons in the Church perish since Adams fall, under the Curse and Penalty of the Covenant of works, they perish because they accept not Gods Covenant of Faith. For, the Covenant of works, being unable to give life to any after the fall, because none can keep it in their own persons: God hath published his Covenant of Faith, that they might have life in another, even in Jesus Christ, who should fully keep it. So that Faith in Christ according to the second Covenant, is a remedy against disobedience to the First Covenant. To all in the Church this Covenant of Faith is tendered. They therefore shall not so much be condemned for disobedience as for unbelief, the (z) great Sin of Sins: and may thank themselves, not at all blame God, for their own destruction.

Aphorism II.

The COVENANT of FAITH is Gods Gratious Compact or Agreement with Jesus Christ the Last Adam, and in him with all his Seed, after the Fall. Touching their Recovery out of the state of Sin and Death, into a state of Righteousness and eternal life, by Christ. That in him the Lord may be their God, and they his people: They accepting Christ and these covenanted mercies by true Faith, and walking worthy of them according to the Gospel.

For plainness sake I express the Nature of the Covenant of Faith thus largely: and it may be farther opened and Confirmed, as followeth. In this description note, 1. The Genus, or General Nature of it. 2. The differentiam specificam, or special Difference of it.

I. The General Nature of the COVENANT of FAITH, is contained in these words; It is A Compact or Agreement. Herein generally all Covenants Divine and Humane, and amongst Divine, both of Works and Faith do concur, That they are Compacts or Agreements. Of which hath been spoken sufficiently (a) heretofore.

(a) See in Book I. ch. II. Aphor. 2.

II. The Special Difference of this Covenant of Faith, distinguishing it not only from Covenants Humane, but even from Gods Covenant of works, formerly laid open, is comprised in the rest of the Description. And more particularly in the 1. Efficient. 2. Parties. 3. Matter. And, 4. Form of this Covenant. These shall be unfolded in 4. particular Sections. To which a fifth Section may be added, comprising certain Corollaries resulting from the whole.

Section I.

The Efficient cause, or Author of the Covenant of Faith, is God. It is Gods Gracious compact or Agreement. Here is to be shewed; 1. That God is the Efficient cause of this Covenant of Faith. 2. How, and in what different notion God is the Author of it, so as he was not of the Covenant of works. 3. What impulsive or Moving Cause inclined God to Devise and set up this Covenant.

1. That, God is the Efficient Cause, or Author of this COVENANT of FAITH; is most clear. For, 1. The Scriptures speaking of this Covenant, and of the Gradual discoveries of it, do still ascribe it to (b) God alone, as his Covenant, as devised and made by him with his people. 2. Only God could dispence with the penalty of that Covenant of Works, Death; which Adam, and in him all mankind had procured to themselves. And consequently none but God could erect the Covenant of Faith; which by way of Remedy against the the breach of the Covenant of Works, both Relieves the Sinner that he ſhould not be condemned, and provides for Gods Juſtice, Truth and Glory, that they ſhould not be impeached. 3. The Lord God, and he alone could deviſe and Contrive this Covenant of Faith: and having deviſed it, bring it into actual execution. All the Angels in Heaven, and men on Earth could not have invented the myſterie of this Covenant: had not God, infinitely and unſearchably wiſe, invented it and revealed it to them. For, it is evident, that after God had revealed this Covenant in many degrees under the Old Teſtament, yet Angels themſelves did not ſo fully underſtand it till the times of the New Teſtament, (c) the manifold wiſdom of God being made known by the Church unto Principalities and powers in heavenly places. And theſe are ſuch abſtruſe things, that (as (d) Peter intimateth) The Angels ſtill deſire to look and pry into, for further Satisfaction. And if Angels do not ſo fully comprehend the myſteries of this Covenant, being already Deviſed and Revealed: how much leſs can man fadom it? (e) Eye hath not ſeen, ear hath not heard, nor have entred into the Heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. And (f) the love of Chriſt paſſeth Knowledge. Now if nor men, nor Angels can fully comprehend this myſterie, much leſs could they have Contrived it, but leaſt of all have brought it to Actual execution. How could they have brought the Son of God to be Mediator of this Covenant, & to that end to become man, to dye, &c?

2. How and in what Senſe, God is the Author of the Covenant of Faith. Anſw. God was the Author of both Covenant of Works and of Faith: And herein they agree. But he is Author of theſe two Covenants in a far different Senſe and Notion: and herein they diſagree. Of the Covenant of Works God was Author, As a loving wel-pleaſed Creator, dealing immediately without a Mediator with man his perfect and upright Creature: but of the Covenant of Faith God is Author as a moſt gracious and merciful Redeemer, dealing mediately in and by a Mediator Jeſus Chriſt, with lapſed man, a miſerable Sinner. Hence, The Covenant of Works is deſervedly ſtiled Fœdus Amicitiæ, A Covenant of Amity, or Friendſhip; becauſe God and man, at the making thereof were upon terms of perfect friendſhip with each other: But the Covenant of Faith is called Fœdus Reconciliationis, A Covenant of Reconcilement, becauſe at making thereof, God and man were upon terms of enmity againſt each other by reaſon of the fall, and now to be Reconciled.

3. The Impulſive, or Moving Cauſe, inclining God to Contrive and Erect this Covenant of Faith. Nor was, nor could be any thing at all in man, without God. Neither mans Merit, nor his Miſery, neither mans Goodneſs nor his Badneſs could move God hereunto. Not Mans merit or goodneſs: for whilſt man was Innocent, he could Merit nothing from God, much leſs after he became Nocent and Sinful. Sinful man could merit nothing from God, but (g) Death the due wages of Sin. Nor Mans Miſery or Badneſs; for then, why ſhould not the miſery and badneſs badneſs of lapſed Angels (which was as great as mans) have moved God to have Covenanted with Angels? What then? The only Moving Cauſe hereof, was in God himſelf. viz. The meer riches of his Free-Grace, and Compaſſionate yernings of his bowels of Mercies moved him. Hereupon the Spirit of God, by the virgin Mary and Zacharias, Speaking of the accompliſhment of this Covenant of Faith to Abraham and his Seed, declares the riſe and ground of this Covenant and Promiſe to have been([h]) Divine Mercy, and bowels of mercy of our God. And Moſes having recited Gods Covenant with Iſrael in Horeb, and the many Covenanted bleſſings beſtowed upon them by God: he intimates that Gods meer love, not any thing at all in them, was the moving Cauſe of all. ([i]) The LORD did not ſet his love upon you, nor chooſe you, becauſe ye were mo in number then any people (for ye were the feweſt of any people) But becauſe the LORD loved you. —— Only the LORD had a delight in thy fathers to love them, & he choſe their Seed after them, even you above all people. Yea the Lord by Ezekiel, having reſpect to his Covenant with them in Horeb, tels them (under the Allegory of a new-born infant, wretched and un-pitied) that([k]) When their Navel was not cut, nor they waſhed with water, nor ſalted at all, nor ſwadled at all, none eye pitying them, when God ſaw them caſt out, loathed and polluted in their own blood, when they were utterly without merit or amiableneſs: even then God ſaid unto them live, and their time was as the time of love, he ſpread his skirt over her, covered her nakedneſs, ſware unto her, entred into a Covenant with her, and ſhe became his. Now unto this Covenant nothing could move or incline God but riches of meer Grace. Finally, when God renewed his Covenant-Promiſes to the Jews in Babylon, he tels them plainly ([l]) I do not this for your ſakes, O houſe of Iſrael, but for mine holy names ſake. —— Not for your ſakes do I this, ſaith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be aſhamed and confounded for your own waies, O houſe of Iſrael.

(g) Rom. 6. 23.

Section II.

The Parties to this Covenant of Faith are two, viz. 1. God, on the one hand: 2. Chriſt the Laſt Adam, and in him all his Seed, on the other hand. Here will ariſe farther difference between this and the Covenant of works, in regard of the Parties Covenanting. For,

God is here one Party to this Govenant, not as a Bountiful Creator, covenanting with his innocent and upright Creature, as in the Covenant of works; but as a moſt Merciful Reſtorer of his lapſed & miſerable Creature. This is ſo clear, it needs no demonſtration or illuſtration.

Chriſt the Laſt Adam, and in him all his Seed, are the other party. The Firſt Adam, and in him his Seed or Poſterity, were the Party with whom God Covenanted in the Covenant of works: but Chriſt the laſt Adam, and in him all his Seed, are the Party with whom God Covenanteth in the Covenant of Faith. This diſcovers a vaſt vast difference betwixt these Covenants. And this leads us to consider of an Excellent Mysterie, and of singular importance for the Comfort of all believers; viz. How Christ the last Adam and his seed, are a joynt-Party to this Covenant of Faith. Very few that Treat of the Covenant, speak to this point: and they that do speak of it, rather point at it obscurely, then handle it distinctly. That therefore we may have a more clear Notion and apprehension of this Mysterie; Let us diligently Consider the Ensuing Parallel, betwixt Gods dealing with the first Adam, and in him with his Seed, in the Covenant of Works: and his dealing with the Last Adam Christ, and his Seed in the Covenant of Faith; together with the Grounds thereof. The Parallel stands chiefly in these four Branches, viz.

I. As the first man of the earth earthy, is called the First Adam: so the second man, Jesus Christ, The Lord from Heaven, is stiled the last Adam. (m) The First man Adam was made a Living Soul: The Last Adam was made a quickning Spirit. —The first man is of the Earth, Earthy: The Second man is the Lord from heaven. Christ is stiled the Second man; not because he was the second man that was brought into the world; that was (n) Cain: but because he was the Second publick man, the root and Representative of his posterity, as the First man of his. And he is stiled the last Adam, Partly because as there was no other such publick person from the First Adam before Christ: so there should be no other such publick person after Christ. Partly, because the First Adam was a figure or (o) Type of Christ, and that in divers respects, as (p) Paul shews to the Romans and Corinthians.

II. As the First Adam had his Natural Seed and Posterity, all Mankinde: So the Last Adam Jesus Christ hath his Supernatural Seed, and Spiritual Posterity, all the Elect. (q) That the First Adam had all mankind for his Natural Seed, is evident; Partly, In that all mankind originally descended from him, God having (r) made of one blood all Nations of men: yea even (s) Eve her self being taken out of Adam. Partly, In that (t) all mankind Sinned in him, and dyed in him, in his Fall. (u) That the last Adam also hath his supernatural Seed, and Spiritual Posterity, even all the Elect, is as Evident. For Isaiah prophecying of Christs Passion, saith; (x) It pleased the Lord to bruise him, he hath put him to grief; when thou shalt make his Soul an offering for Sin, he shall see his Seed. And David long before him prophecying of Christs Kingdom and Dominion, said, (y) A Seed shall serve him: It shall be accounted to the LORD for a generation. And again elsewhere; (z) Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness, from the womb of the morning, thou hast the dew of thy youth. That is, (a) Thy youth (thy young, or New-born people) shall be to thee as the morning dew, which falleth secretly and plentifully from heaven, and abundantly covereth the earth. So that, as the dew is born out of the cool morning air, as out of a womb, distilling thence thence in innumerable drops upon the Earth: so thine Elect shall be born unto thee, by the preaching of thy word and first approach of thy heavenly light, in innumerable armies. Now, who are this Seed of Christ? All those that the father hath (z) given Christ by his Decree of Eternal Election, even (a) all his Sheep given him by the father; for whom Christ the good shepherd laid down his life; who hear the Shepherds voice, and believe in him, whether they be Jews or Gentiles. These alone are Christs Spiritual Seed; and that, 1. By Decree, being (b) Elected in Christ: 2. By Generation, being begotten again by Christ the (c) everlasting Father. viz. Meritoriously, by his (d) Death, and (e) Resurrection: Efficaciously, by his (f) Word and (g) Spirit. So that they become his Children, and are counted to him for a generation. 3. By conformity to Christ, as children to a Father. They bear his image, and go like him: especially, In (h) Grace; In (i) godly life; In (k) sufferings; and In (l) Glory. 4. By filial affection and (m) service to him: as children love and serve their parents. And all Christs Posterity shall be most cheartul voluntiers herein. 5. By Participation with Christ in his Spirituals and Eternals. Mens posterity share with them in their states and inheritances: and Christs Seed partake with him in his (n) Spiritual Priviledges and Eternal enjoyments.

III. As God made the Covenant of works with the first Adam, and in him (as hath been shewed) with all his Natural Seed: So God made the COVENANT of FAITH with Christ the Last Adam, and in him with all his Supernatural Seed. And if God made the Covenant of Faith with Christ the Last Adam, and in him with all his Supernatural Seed; then, as God is one party to this Covenant, Christ his Seed must needs be the other. Let us see therefore how this may be cleared, That, God made the Covenant of Faith with Christ the Last Adam, and in him with all his Supernatural Seed. In this branch of the parallel consists the greatest difficulty: which may be facilitated by these Positions following. viz. 1. Christless persons are meer strangers to the Covenant of Faith, and to all the Promises thereof. 2. They that are Christs have the Covenant of Faith, and all the Promises thereof as theirs. 3. They that are Christs have the Covenant of Faith, and the Promises thereof theirs only in Christ. 4. Gods Covenant of Faith and Promises thereof, are first made to Christ and then to his Seed, to them that are Christs, in him.

(1) Christless Persons are meer strangers to Gods Covenant of Faith and to all the Promises thereof. This may be proved divers waies; As, 1. From Testimony of Scripture. Paul describing to the Ephesians their Carnal state before they believed the Gospel, saith; (o) At that time ye were without Christ, Aliens from the Common-wealth of Israel, and Strangers from the Covenants of Promise, having no hope, and without God in the world. Mark the Connexion and Consequence in these particulars. First they were without Christ. This the foundation of all their ensuing misery: Christ being (as (p) Zanchy well notes) the the gate and door to the poſſeſſion of all good things, of the preſent and future life. Then they were Aliens to the Common-wealth of Iſrael. Having no union to Chriſt the Head, they conſequently had no communion with the Church, his Myſtical body. Thirdly, From both the former, They were Strangers from the Covenants of Promiſe. Why? Becauſe (q) Chriſt is the foundation of the Covenant and Promiſes: And his Church (r) The pillar and ground of Truth, the Receptal and keeper of Gods Covenants, wherein they were publiſhed and tendered. Therefore having no union to Chriſt, the Head; nor Communion with the Church, his body; they had no part in the Covenants of Promiſe, appertaining to both. Hence its evident, that Chriſtleſs perſons are Covenantleſs and Promiſeleſs perſons.

2. From the Nature of a Chriſtleſs ſtate. A Chriſtleſs ſtate, is a Condition of meer (f) Sinfulneſs and utter (t) Enmity againſt God, wholly under the (u) Curſe and (x) wrath of God: and this without Gods Remedy, Chriſt. And therefore it cannot ſtand with the Truth and exact Juſtice of God, to ſpare ſuch perſons from Death (much leſs to give them Life by Covenant or Promiſe) without full Satisfaction. So that Chriſtleſs perſons, as ſuch, have neither Actual intereſt in Gods Covenant of Faith and the Promiſes thereof: nor can make any good claim or Title thereunto: nor have any immediate Capacity thereof; wanting both Chriſt, the foundation of them; and Faith for Application of them.

3. From the Nature of the Covenant of Faith and of the Promiſes thereof. They are peculiar indications of Gods fatherly love and favour to us in Chriſt. For, as (y) Calvin well obſerveth, God is not a propitious father to us, but onely in Chriſt: and his Promiſes are Teſtimonies of his paternal benevolence towards us: conſequently they are fulfilled through him alone. The Promiſes, I ſay, are Teſtimonies of Divine Grace: for though God be beneficent even to the unworthy, yet when Promiſes are added to his Benefits, it is a ſpecial reaſon that there he declares himſelf a Father. So here. Now Gods fatherly Love, the Acts and Teſtification thereof, are peculiar to Gods own people. (z) Remember me O LORD (ſaith David) with the favour (or, favourable-acceptation) of thy people. That is, with the ſpecial love and free favour wherewith God embraceth the Elect alone, above all other people. Therefore Gods Covenant and Promiſes cannot belong to ſuch as are without the bounds of Gods peculiar fatherly love.

(2) They that are Chriſts have the Covenant of Faith, and all the Promiſes thereof, as theirs. This is eivdent by divers Sctiptures. (a) If ye be Chriſts, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and heirs according to the Promiſe. Then, The Promiſe of heirſhip, not of Canaan, but of this world, and of Heaven, is theirs, that are Chriſts. (b) Peter writing to them that had obtaind like precious faith with the Apoſtles, ſaith; Exceeding great and precious Promiſes are given to us. Not to all; but to us, to the faithful. But Paul more fully; (c) Godlineſs is profitable unto all things, having Promiſe of the Life that now is, and of that which is to come.

That is, All the Promises are peculiarly annexed to, and entailed upon Godliness: For there is no promise, but either of the life present or future.

(3) They that are Christs have the Covenant of Faith, and Promises thereof theirs, only in Christ. Of the Covenant, as it was renewed to Abraham, Paul (d) saith, that it was confirmed of God in Christ. How Confirmed in Christ? Answ. Divers waies; especially three waies (as (e) Pareus well expounds it) viz. 1. In that, it should at last be ratified by the Death of Christ as Testator. Heb. 9. 15. 2. In that, the blessings Promised to Abraham and his Seed could not be obtaind without the Merit of Christs Death intervening: by reason of Gods justice, that admits not of a Covenant of Grace with Sinners, without Satisfaction first for sin. 3. In that, The benefits Promised, Adoption, Justification, Sanctification, the inheritance of eternal life, should not be given to Abraham and his Seed, but by Faith in Christ, then to be exhibited afterwards, now exhibited already. And of the Promises, the same Paul elsewhere affirmeth, That (f) All the Promises of God, in him are yea, and in him Amen. Gods Promises are all yea and Amen: that is, not yea and nay; not one while true, and another while false: but yea and Amen, alwaies true. In whom? In him; that is, in Christ Jesus, as the series of the Context carries it. How are all the Promises yea and Amen in Christ? (g) Calvin thus Resolves; 1. Promises are Testimonies of fatherly love: now God is not a gracious Father to us but in Christ. 2. We are not fit to partake Gods Promises, till we obtain remission of Sins, which we compass only by Christ. 3. The Promise of Adoption, which is the greatest of all, is only made in Christ the root of our Adoption. So he. I add farther: what if we say all Gods Promises are yea and Amen, Certainty and Truth in Christ, Forasmuch as they are, 1. Accomplished principally in Christs Person, the chief Center of them all? For all the Promises are like the wise-mens Star, that one way or other lead to Christ. 2. Established by his Passion. (h) Christ as Testator confirming his Will and Testament together with all the Promises and Bequests thereof by his blood. 3. Communicated only to persons in union to Christ. For as all mankind were united in Adam, when God made the Covenant of works with them: So all the Elect broken and scattered by Adams fall, are looked upon as re-united and gathered together again in one in Christ the Last Adam, when God makes his Covenant of Faith with them. (i) That in Christ all are gathered together in one, is evident; —— (l) That in the dispensation of the fulness of times, he might gather together in one, all things in Christ, both which are in Heaven, and which are on Earth, even in him. To this effect, it is said again; (k) There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. Yea such is this union or Oneness, that Christs Church and body mystical is called Christ, Head and members but one Christ; (l) For as the body is one, and hath many members; and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. That is, Christ Mystical, not Christ Personal. (l) And, that when God makes his Covenant of Faith and his promises with his people, he looks upon them all as one in Christ, either Intentionally by Election, or Actually by vocation, and so Covenants with them; is as evident; — (m) Now to Abraham and his Seed were the Promises made. He saith not, and to Seeds as of many; but as of one, And to thy Seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, &c. Here the Apostles shews that the Covenant and Promises were made, not to many, but only to one Seed: and that this one Seed, is Christ. Understand here the word, Christ, not distributively, as intending only Christs Person; but collectively, as comprehending Christs mystical body, Head and members: Eminently and primarily, Christ the Head; Secondarily, his Church the body. Thus, they that are Christs have the Covenant of Faith, and Promises thereof theirs, only in Christ.

(4) Gods Covenant of Faith and Promises thereof are first made to Christ, and then to his Seed in him. This must needs be so; For, 1. Seeing the Covenant and Promises are made to them that are Christs, only in Christ, and for his sake: consequently they are first made to Christ, and that both in respect of Order, Nature, and Causality, and then afterwards unto them. For, the effect must needs Succeed the cause in these respects. 2. Gods Decree of Election, and his Execution of that Decree in all the branches of it, have first respect to Christ, and then secondarily in him to all his Seed: and therefore proportionably Gods Covenant and Promises, being one branch of this Execution of Gods Decree, must first respect Christ, then Christs Seed. Consider well; If we look at Gods Decree, Is not Christ as Head and Mediator, first of all (n) Elected: and then his Seed in him? If we look at the Execution of Gods Decree, Is not Christ first (o) Accepted as Gods only beloved son: and then his Seed Adopted in him? Is not Christ first (o) Justified, that is, acquitted from the guilt of all the sins of his people imputed to him: & then they Justified by Faith in him? Is not Christ first (p) Sanctified, filled with the Spirit, made full of Grace and Truth, having all fulness dwelling in him: and then all his Seed Sanctified in him, receiving of his Spirit, and of his fulness, even Grace for Grace? Is not Christ first made (q) Heir of all things; and then his Seed coheirs with him? Did not Christ as a (r) publick person first dye: and then all his Seed dye, and suffer in him? Did not Christ (s) first Rise from the Dead, Ascend into Heaven, and sit on Gods right hand: and then afterwards all that are Christs Rise again, Ascend into Heaven, and sit on Gods right-hand, in and with Christ? Shall not Christ first (t) come to judge the world: and then they that are Christs shall judge the world with him? why then should it be thought strange that the Covenant and Promises should first be made to Christ, and then in Christ to all his Seed? 3. tures plainly testifie, That the Covenant of Faith and Promises are made unto Christ, as well as to his Seed. This is evident, in divers Periods of this Federal Administration. As; (t) In that Grand Mother Promise, That First Promise after Adams fall; (u) I will put Enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed: it shall bruise thy Head, & thou shalt bruise his heel. Here the womans Seed, collectively comprehends Christ, and all his Elect: The Serpents Seed, all the children of Satan. But to whom was this First Promise made? Not to the Serpent, or Satan: for though it was immediately spoken to the Serpent, yet it was directed to him, As a Threatning, not as a Promise. Not to Adam, nor to his wife: for herein God directs not his Speech to them at all, but only to the Serpent; (x) They are severally spoken to afterwards, as is clear to him that heedfully observes the Text. And as yet they were uncapable of the Promise of Grace, no Course being taken as yet for satisfaction of Divine Justice for their Sins. To whom then could this Promise be made: But unto Christ, and to his Elect in him? (z) In the Lords Renewing of Covenant with Abraham, the Covenant and Promises were made to Christ, As the Apostle testifies plainly, (y) Now to Abraham and his Seed were the Promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy Seed, which is Christ. And this I say, That, the Covenant which was confirmed before of God in Christ. The Greek hath it, εἰς χριστὸν, viz. unto Christ; or, towards Christ; which we translate, in Christ. That is, the Covenant made with Abraham, tends to Christ, carries and leads us to Christ alone, as in whom the spiritual Seed of Abraham should be gathered into one, both out of Jews and Gentiles; as (z) Beza excellently interprets it. And Paul saith further; (a) The Law was added because of Transgressions, till the Seed should come, to whom the Promise was made. (3) In the daies of David and the Prophets, many eminent Promises of the Covenant of Faith are made and directed by God to Christ so personally, and individually, and that in the Second person, that it puts this whole matter quite out of Question. As, Promises touching Christs Priesthood; (b) The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for ever after the order of Melchisedech. Promises touching his Kingship, (c) The LORD said unto my Lord, sit thou at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy foot-stool. The Lord shall send the rod of thy strength out of Sion: Rule thou in the mids of thine enemies. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy Power, in the beauties of Holiness, from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth. Promises touching the Calling of the Gentiles, &c. (d) I will declare the Decree, the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. &c. —— (e) I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and will give thee for a Covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles: To open the blind eyes, to bring out the Prisoners from the prison, and and them that sit in darkness out of the Prison house. —— (f) And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the Tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou maist be my Salvation to the end of the Earth. —— In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of Salvation have I helped thee: And I will preserve thee, and give thee for a Covenant of the people, to Establish the Earth, to cause to inherite the desolate heritages. By these, and like particulars its evident, That the Covenant of Faith and Promises are personally directed and made to Christ himself, as well as to his Seed. How then are they made unto Christ? they are either made to him Primarily, before them: or Secondarily, after them: or Equally with them. Not secondarily, After them; for that were to prefer the Body before the Head. Not equally, with them; for that were to equalize the body to the Head. Both which are extreamly absurd: The head Christ, so incomparably transcending his mystical Body. Therefore its remains clear, That the Covenant of Faith and Promises thereof are made Primarily to Christ, Secondarily to his Seed in him. 4. Finally, To this Truth; That, the Covenant and Promises are first made to Christ, and then to his Seed in him; the judgements of pious and learned men subscribe. And though this be not so generally spoken to; yet so many and considerable Authors expres themselves clearly in it, that we are not to look upon it as an odd, singular, novel Opinion. As (g) Particular writers: And the whole (h) Nationall Assembly of Divines.

(g) It is here to be observed, That the Promises made to Abraham, Are first made to Christ, and then in Christ to all that believe in him, be they Iews or Gentiles. This Conclusion is of Great use. First, by it we learn the difference of the Promises of the Law and the Gospel. The Promises of the Law are directed and made to the person of every man particularly; The promises of the Gospel are first directed and made to Christ, and then by consequent unto them that are by faith ingrafted into Christ. Secondly, by this we learn to acknowledge the Communion that is between Christ and us. Christ as Mediator is first of all elected, and we in him: Christ is first justified, that is acquit of our sins, and we justified in him. He is heir of the world, and we heirs in him; He dyed upon the Cross, not as a private person, but as a publick person representing all the Elect; and all the Elect dyed in him and with him; in the same manner they rise with him to life, and sit at the right hand of God with him in glory. Thirdly, Here we see the ground of the certainty of perseverance of all them that are the true children of God. For, The office of Christ, to which he is set apart, is to receive the promise of God for us, and to apply it unto us. And this work is done by Christ without impediment, and without repentance on his part. —— Lastly, here is comfort against the Consideration of our unworthiness. Thou sayest, thou art unworthy of the mercy of God, and therefore hast no hope. And I say again; Dost thou truly exercise thy self in the Spirituall Exercises of faith, invocation, Repentance? Be not discouraged; Thou must not receive the promise immediately of God, but Christ must do it for thee, &c. Mr. W. Perkins on Galat. 3,16.

It is said, The promise is made to the Seed; yet the promise is made to us; and yet again, The Covenant is made with Abraham: How can all these stand together? Answ. The promises that are made to the Seed, that is, To Christ himself, those are these promises: Thou shalt be a Priest for ever; And I will give thee the Kingdom of David; Thou shalt sit on that Throne; Thou shalt be a Prince of Peace, and the Government shall be upon thy shoulders. Likewise, Thou shalt be a Prophet to my people, thou shalt open the Prison to the Captive, Thou shalt be anointed, &c, and thou shalt go and preach to them. These are the Promises that are made unto the Seed. The Promises that are made to us, though they be of the same Covenant, yet they differ in this: The Active part is committed to the Messiah, to the seed it self; but the Passive part, those are Promises that are made to us: you shall be taught, you shall be made Prophets; likewise, you shall have your sins forgiven, you shall have the effect of his Priesthood made good unto you; you shall be subject to his Government by an inherent righteousness that he shall work in you, for you shall be made Kings. So the promise is made to us. How is the promise made to Abraham? For it is said, In thee all the Nations of the Earth shall be blessed. The meaning of it is, They are Derivative Promises; The Primitive and Original was made to Iesus Christ. —— There was none that ever was partaker of the promises, but the children of Abraham; and therefore they were derived from Abraham to all the men in the world besides, that ever have been since. D. Preston of the New Covenant. p. 387, 388. Lond. 1634.

Promises

Promises are the efficient causes of our purification as they are the Rayes and Beams of Christ the Sun of Righteousness, in whom they are all founded and established. They are All in him yea, and in him Amen. 2 Cor. 1. 20. Every Promise by faith apprehended carries a man to Christ, and to the Consideration of our unity with him, in the right whereof we have claim to the promises; even as every line in a circumference, though there never so distant from others, doth, being pursued, carry a man at last to one and the same Center, common unto them all. For the promises are not made for any thing in us, nor have their stability in us; but they are made in and for Christ unto us; Unto Christ in our behalf, and unto us onely so far forth as we are members of Christ. For they were not made to Seeds, as many; but to Seed, namely to Christ, in aggregato, as comprehending the Head and the members in the unity of one Body. Gal. 3. 16. Caput & Corpus unus est Christus. Aug. Mr. Reynolds in his Sinfulness of Sin. pag. 345. Lond. 1631.

(h) Q. With whom was the Covenant of Grace made? A. The Covenant of Grace was made with Christ, as the second Adam; and, in him, with all the Elect as his Seed. Gal. 3. 16. Rom. 5. 15. to the end. Isa. 50. 10, 11. So the Assembly, in the Larger Catechism. p. 8. in Quarto.

IIII. As the Covenant-breaking disobedience of the first Adam involved all his Seed with himself in Sin and Death: So the Covenant-keeping obedience of the last Adam, Restored all his Seed with himself to righteousness and Life. This the Apostle demonstrates at large in Rom. 5. Especially in these words; (i) As by the offence of one judgement came upon all men to Condemnation: even so by the righteousness of one, the free gift came upon all men to Justification of life. For, as by one mans disobedience many were made Sinners: so by the obedience of One shall many be made righteous. Here Adams All, are called his Many: and Christs Many, are called his All. And though there be some similitude betwixt the Event and Efficacy of Adams disobedience, unto his Seed; and of Christs obedience, unto his: yet there is also much Dissimilitude. For, the (k) efficacy of Christs Obedience, incomparably transcends and surpasseth the efficacy of Adams disobedience. Partly, In that Christs Obedience Saves; Adams disobedience condemns. Now a thousandfold more efficacy is required to Saving, then to Damning. Partly, In that the sin of Adam, condemning his Posterity, was but one: but the Free-gift of righteousness by Christ, justifying his posterity, absolves them from many offences, and not only from that one Sin of Adam. And this is much more.

(i) Rom 5. 18, 19.

(k) weigh well Rom. 5. 15, 16, 17.

Thus it is evident, That as Adam, and in him all his Natural Seed, were a joint-party to the Covenant of Works, before the Fall: So Iesus Christ, and in him all his Supernatural Seed, are a joynt-party to the Covenant of Faith, after the Fall.

Section III.

The matter of this COVENANT of FAITH, comes next to be considered. Which is; The Recovery of Christs Seed from the state of sin and Death into the state of righteousness and eternal life by Christ, that in him the LORD may be their God, and they his people; They accepting him and these Covenanted mercies by true faith, and walking worthy of them according to the Gospel. This is the Substance and Matter of this Covenant, touching which Gods makes Agreement with Christ the last Adam, and in him with all his Seed.

For

For the more distinct unfolding of this excellent Mysterie, Observe, (1.) That, in General, the matter of this Covenant, is The Recovery or Restauration of Christs Seed, the Elect, after their Fall in Adam. (2.) That, in Particular, touching this Recovery and in order to the effecting thereof, The matters Agreed upon and Covenanted are of two sorts; viz. 1. Matters agreed upon and Covenanted betwixt God and Iesus Christ the last Adam. 2. Matters agreed upon and Covenanted betwixt God and the seed of Christ in him.

I. Matters Covenanted and agreed upon in that blessed & heavenly Transaction betwixt God the Father, and Iesus Christ the last Adam, touching the Recovery of his seed; are in Order of Nature Antecedaneous to the other betwixt God and his Seed, as the Foundation thereof; And therefore are first to be cleared. And they are either, 1. Matters Covenanted and promised to Christ, on the part of God the Father. 2. Matters restipulated to God the Father, on the part of Iesus Christ. Formerly hath been shewed, That God Covenanteth with Christ, and in him onely with his Seed, as a joynt-party; Now is to be declared, What God Covenanteth with Christ, as well as with his seed; and Christ with God. Writers are generally silent about this mysterious transaction: but Scriptures are very pregnant and evident.

I. God the Father, on his part, Covenanteth and promiseth to Iesus Christ the last Adam, in order to the Recovery of his seed, many things, yea all things requisite thereunto. To enumerate all, how impossible! yet take a Taste in these 5. Particulars following. viz. God the Father promiseth to Christ the last Adam, in order to the Recovery of his Seed; 1. To invest him with a Mediatory office to that end. 2. To accept him in his office. 3. To assist, support, encourage and protect him in the Execution of his office. 4. To exalt him most gloriously, after all his abasement undergone by reason of his office. 5. To prosper and crown him with full success in Recovering all his seed.

1. To invest Christ with a Mediatory office, whereby he should Mediate with God for his Seed and their Recovery; 1. As a Priest, 2. As a Prophet, 3. As a King.

(1) Psal 110. 4. As a Priest. For, God saith to Christ; (1) The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent; Thou art a Priest for ever after the Order of Melchizedech. Here God Promiseth to Christ an excellent and Eternal Priesthood. Object. The word (art) is of the present, not future tense; and therefore promiseth not what Christ should be for future, but onely Declares what Christ is for present. Answ. This Objection no way evinceth this to be no promise. For, 1. This word [art] is not in the Hebrew original, and therefore its printed in a distinct character. The Hebrew is, Thou a Priest, &c. that is, Thou shalt be a Priest for ever. It being the manner of the Hebrew tongue, sometimes for brevity sake to leave out a word, which is to be understood, and supplyed. 2. Though the word (art) were in the Original, yet this passage were a Promise; because the matter spoken of, was (de bono futuro) not fulfilled then at present, but to be fulfilled led for future. And, when future Good is assured though in words of the present tense, it is a Promise. This then is Gods Sure and Irrevocable Promise to Christ touching that excellent and eternal Priesthood, whereby the recovery of his Seed was to be meritoriously obtaind. The chief Acts of the Priests office, and so of Christs function as Priest, are, 1. Oblation, and 2. Intercession. (m) Christ offered himself without spot to God, for purging away the sins of his Elect once for all: obtaining perfect remission of them for ever. And as he (n) prayed for his Seed while he was on earth; so (o) he ever liveth to make intercession for them in heaven (appearing in the presence of God for them, as their (p) advocate with the Father. This Priestly office of Christ is, 1. Sure; because (q) confirmed with Gods oath as well as his Promise. The Promise makes it Sure: The Oath double Sure. 2. Irrevocable; The LORD will never repent of this Promise and Oath. 3. Excellent: far surpassing Aaron's order, even of Melchisedechs order, (r) who being King of righteousness, and then King of Salem, that is, King of Peace, was also Priest of the most high God, and so had a Royal Priesthood. 4. Everlasting; A Priest for ever (s) having (as Melchisedech) an everlasting and unchangeable Priesthood: And therefore being able to save to the uttermost, them that come unto God by him.

As a Prophet. For, the LORD Promiseth thus to Christ; (u) I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and will give thee for a Covenant of the People, for a light of the Gentiles: To open the blind eyes, to bring out the Prisoners from the prison, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house. Thus God promiseth to invest him with a Prophetick office, for opening the eyes of the blind. Christ as a Priest purchaseth and obtaineth for his Seed, Recovery wanted: Christ as Prophet Revealeth to his Seed, Recovery purchased. This he doth, 1. Instrumentally by his word proclaiming this mystery to them: 2. Efficaciously by his Spirit opening and enlightning their minds and hearts to comprehend it. And Christ by the Prophet acknowledgeth this, (x) The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning: he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

As a King. For, thus the Father Promiseth to Christ; (y) Yet have I set my King upon my holy Hill of Sion. I will declare the Decree: The LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the Earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron, thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potters vessel. In these words See, how the Lord in a Promissory way, 1. Annoints Christ as Sions King, his Churches King, in despite of all his enemies rage and opposition 2. Approves and establisheth this King by firm-Decree, 3. Extends his Dominion to the Gentiles. 4. Declares the power of this Government against his enemies, whom his iron rod shall incurably break and dash in pieces like a Potters vessel. And elswhere; (z) The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy foot stool. The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Sion: Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power. —— The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through Kings in the day of his wrath. He shall judge among the Heathen, he shall fill the places with dead bodies: he shall wound the Heads over many Countries. Here the Father promiseth to Christ, in reference to his Kingly office, 1. Most glorious enthronement (viz. after his Resurrection) at his right hand. 2. Continued Reign there, till all his enemies be utterly subdued. 3. A strong Scepter, to be sent out of Sion, viz. Christs powerful word and Spirit, wherewith he shall exercise his Regal Dominion. 4. The effect of this his Kingly Rule, Subduing his own to willing obedience: But crushing his Enemies, even the greatest Heads and Rulers in the world that oppose him, with utter destruction. Thus, Christ meritoriously purchaseth Recovery for his Seed, as a Priest: Clearly Revealeth this Recovery purchased, as a Prophet: And effectually applyeth to his Seed, this Recovery purchased and revealed, as a King. Thus the Father Covenanteth with Christ to invest him with a Mediatory office, of Priest, Prophet, and King, for the Recovery of his Seed.

(z) Psal. 110. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6.

2. To accept Christ in this his Mediatory office; According to that of Isaiah. (a) Thus saith the LORD the Redeemer of Israel, and his holy one, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the Nation abhorreth, to a servant of Rulers, Kings shall see and arise, Princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy one of Israel, and he shall choose thee. Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee; and I will preserve thee and give thee for a Covenant of the people, to establish the Earth, and to cause to inherit the desolate heritages. Yea Christ in his office is so acceptable to God, that he promiseth his Soul shall delight in him, and consequently in his Seed for his sake; (b) Behold my servant whom I uphold, mine Elect in whom my Soul delighteth: I have put my Spirit upon him, he shall bring forth judgement to the Gentiles. —— (c) It came to pass, that Jesus being baptized, and Praying, The Heaven was opened; And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a Dove upon him; And a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved son, in thee I am well pleased.

(c) Luke 3. 21, 22.

3. To assist, Support, Comfort and Protect Jesus Christ in the Execution and fulfilling of his office, for the Recovery of his Seed: And that especially three waies, viz. 1. Against the utmost Extremity of all his Sufferings, that should be inflicted upon him for all the Sins of his Seed: which sufferings were most numerous and grievous. (d) Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the Heavens, and stretched them out; He that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein: I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and will give thee for a Covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles, &c. Here God assureth Christ, from his wonderful Creation, Preservation and Government of all things, that he will strengthen, preserve and stand by him in all his Mediatory administrations, for Recovery of his Seed, whether Jews or Gentiles, from the darkness and bondage of Sin and Death. And Christ himself is brought in, by the Prophet, acknowledging thus much, saying; (e) Listen O Isles unto me, and hearken ye people from far; The L O R D hath called me from the womb, from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name. And he hath made my mouth like a sharp sword. In the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft, in his Quiver hath he hid me; And said unto me, Thou art my servant O Israel, in whom I will be glorified. 2. Against all Oppositions and Enemies. To this effect God promiseth to Christ (f) that he will set up his kingdom in Sion, and extend it even to the Gentiles, notwithstanding all the rage, plots, insurrections, and combinations of Gentiles, Jews, Kings of the earth and Rulers against him. The Lord meanwhile deriding them, and threatning to destroy them. 3. Against all his deepest discouragements, which he should meet with in the discharge of his function. As, (g) Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgement is with the L O R D, and and my work with my God. And now saith the L O R D that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the L O R D, and my God shall be my strength. And he said, it is a light thing that thou shouldst be my servant to raise up the Tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou maist be my salvation to the end of the Earth. Here Christ is brought in lamenting and complaining of the Jews Contumacy and obstinacy, refusing to be gathered, and as it were rendering his office vain. And against this great discouragement, he is supported, (1) From the Testimony of his own Conscience in the sight of God, that he hath faithfully discharged his office. (2) From Gods acceptance promised him notwithstanding; what ever the world may judge, he should be glorious in the eyes of the L O R D. (3) From Gods power and vertue which notwithstanding should be manifest in him. And, (4) From the Surpassing success of his office promised for gathering and gaining even of the Gentiles.

4. To exalt Christ gloriously, after he had been debased ignominiously: His Mediatory office being put in execution both in his Humiliation and Exaltation. Now God the father Covenanteth with Christ, to exalt him gloriously in his, 1. Resurrection from the Dead; 2. Ascention into Heaven; 3. Session at Gods right hand.

In his Resurrection from the Dead; (h) I will declare the Decree, The L O R D hath said unto me; Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. Which Scripture the Apostle Paul interpreteth as a promise (h) Psal. 2. 7.

miſe of Chriſts Reſurrection, ſaying; (i) God hath fulfilled the ſame unto us their children, in that he hath raiſed up Jeſus again, as it is alſo written in the ſecond Pſalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. Chriſt in his Reſurrection was begotten and brought forth of the womb of the Earth. And Chriſt (k) elſewhere Singularly comforts himſelf againſt Death & Grave, by Gods Promiſe of his Reſurrection.

In his Aſcention into Heaven after his Reſurrection. For thus God ſpeaketh to Chriſt by his ſpirit, touching his Aſcention; (l) Thou haſt aſcended up on high; thou haſt led Captivity Captive; Thou haſt received gifts for men; yea for the rebellious alſo, that the LORD God might dwell among them. This the Apoſtle (m) Paul expoundeth peculiarly of Chriſts Aſcention into Heaven, and of the benefits of that his Aſcention to his Church.

In his Seſſion or ſitting on Gods right hand in the higheſt Heavens, after his Aſcention. For thus the father promiſeth to Chriſt: (n) The LORD ſaid unto my Lord, Sit thou at my Right hand, untill I make thine Enemies thy footſtool. That is, Thou ſhalt ſit on my right hand till then. Its Gods promiſe, not to David, but to Chriſt, Davids Lord: as (o) Peter in his Sermon on the day of Pentecoſt teſtifieth. Thus God promiſed to Chriſt, glorious exaltation in theſe three eminent degrees of his Reſurrection, Aſcention, and ſitting at Gods right hand: All which tended much to the Compleating of his Elects Recovery: For as (p) Chriſt dyed for their ſins; ſo he Roſe again for their Juſtification; Aſcended that he might (q) Captivate Captivity, give gifts to men: (r) pour forth his ſpirit upon them, and (s) prepare a place for them: and he ſits at Gods right hand that he may (t) continually intercede and appear for his people, (u) gather and govern all his Seed, and (x) utterly deſtroy all his and their enemies.

5. To proſper Chriſt in his office, and crown him with full ſucceſs therein, for the Recovering of all his ſeed, whether among Iews or Gentiles. (y) The Lord ſhall ſend the Rod of thy ſtrength out of Sion; (Here's his office, exerciſed by the powerful Scepter of his Word and Spirit ſent from Sion, abroad into the world:) Rule thou in the midſt of thine enemies. Thy people ſhall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holineſs, from the womb of the morning: thou haſt the dew of thy youth. Here's the ſucceſs of his office promiſed, both in his victorious ſubduing of his enemies, in the chearful willingneſs of his ſubjects, and in the wonderful numerouſneſs of his people won unto him, even like the innumerable drops of the morning Dew. Again, the Lord ſaid to him; (z) Thou art my ſon, this day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I ſhall give thee the Heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermoſt parts of the Earth for thy poſſeſſion. Thou ſhalt break them with a rod of iron, thou ſhalt daſh them in pieces like a potters veſſel. Here the Father promiſeth to the Son, upon his Reſurrection and interceſſion, the Gentiles for his ſpiritual inheritance and poſſeſſion: and that his enemies amongſt them ſhall be broken and deſtroyed by him. And yet more fully; (a) I the LORD have called thee in righteouſneſs

1. Chearfully and faithfully to accept, undertake and discharge this Mediatory office imposed upon him by the Father, in order to the Recovery of his Seed, the Elect. (d) Wherefore, when he cometh into the world he saith; Sacrifice and offering thou didst not desire, mines ears hast thou opened: (or as the Apostle; But a body hast thou prepared me:) Burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required. Then said I, lo, I come: In the volume of the Book it is written of me: I delight to do thy will O my God: yea, thy Law is within my heart. I have preached righteousness in the great Congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest. I have not hid thy righteousness within mine heart, I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving kindness and thy truth from the great Congregation.

tion. Here Christ restipulateth cheerfully to accept and execute His Priestly office, in offering himself up a Sacrifice once for all, to take away his Peoples sins, as the Apostle plainly expoundeth it; And his Prophetick office, in preaching Gods righteousness, faithfulness, salvation, loving-kindness and Truth to his Church. And elsewhere Christ declares this his acceptance of his office, saying; (e) The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD hath annointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek, He hath sent me to binde up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the Captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound: To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all that mourn: To appoint unto them that mourn in Sion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oyle of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heavinesse, That they might be called the trees of righteousnesse, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified. Iesus Christ reading this Scripture on a Sabbath-day in the Synagogue of Nazareth, when he he had closed the Book, began to say unto them, This day is this Scripture fulfilled in your ears.

(e) Isa. 61. 1,2,3 with Luke 4 18, 19,20,21.

2. Fully to depend and rely upon his heavenly Father for Acceptance, Assistance and Protection in the Execution of his office, notwithstanding extreamest oppositions, deepest difficulties and distresses. To this effect, Christ, in the Prophet, saith; (f) The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from shame and spitting. For the Lord GOD will help me, therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is neer that justifieth me, who will contend with me? Let us stand together; who is mine adversary? let him come neer to me. Behold the Lord GOD will help me, who is he that shall condemn me? Lo they all shall wax old as a garment: The moth shall eat them up. Thus Christ declares his confidence in Gods assistance and acceptance even in his sharpest sufferings. And elsewhere he is brought in as it were victoriously triumphing against Death it self, through his Hope of Resurrection and Glory. (g) I have set the LORD alwayes before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved. Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoyceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in Hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt shew me the path of life: In thy presence is fulness of joy, at thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

This is that blessed Transaction betwixt God the Father and Iesus Christ, and these are a taste of those precious Matters Covenanted and agreed upon betwixt them, in order to the Recovery of Christs Seed.

II. Matters Covenanted and agreed upon, betwixt God and Christs Seed in Christ the last Adam, fall next into Consideration. And they are either, 1. Covenanted and promised by God. Or, 2. Required of and Restipulated by Christs seed in him. I. God

1. God on his part Covenanteth and Promiseth to Christs Seed in him, divers admirable Sublime and transcendent Benefits. But especially, 1. What God will do in Christ, for Christs Seed, viz. Recover them out of a state of Sin and Death, into a state of Righteousness and eternal Life. 2. What God will be in Christ, to Christs Seed; viz. He will be to them a God.

(1) The Lord Covenanteth what he will do for Christs Seed. He will Recover them, &c. Herein note, 1. The benefit or mercy Promised. 2. The Object to whom this mercy is peculiarly intended.

1. The mercy itself Promised, Recovery, &c. may be considered, 1. More Generally. 2. More Particularly.

More Generally, thus conceive of Gods Recovery of Christs Seed from Sin and Death to Righteousness and Life. The Elect of Christ, through Adams disobedience and breach of the Covenant of Works, are plunged into a State of Sin and Death, as well as others: as hath been shewed. But God, that his Election might stand inviolably, upon Adams Fall publisheth his Covenant of Faith, wherein he declares his Gracious will and pleasure, to Restore his Elect from Sin and Death, to Righteousness and eternal Life. Sin and Death comprehend in them Mans whole Natural misery, and are the Term from which: Righteousness and Life eternal comprize in them Mans whole supernatural Remedy, and are the Term to which, God will Restore his Elect Christs Seed. 1. That God Covenanteth to Recover them from Sin to Righteousness, is clear. For, This is the Covenant that I will make with them after those daies, saith the Lord: I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them: and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. Heb. 10. 16, 17, 18. So that, when God remembers Sins no more, he remits them: where God remits Sins, there needs no more offerings to expiate and purge them away; God is fully satisfied for such, and so accepts and justifies them. And again it is promised, That As by one mans disobedience many were made Sinners: So by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous, Rom. 5. 10. Here's Recovery promised from guilt of sin, to imputed Righteousness by Justification. God further Covenanteth; I will give them one heart, and I will put a new Spirit within you: And I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh; That they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them, Ezek. 11. 19, 20. and 36. 25, 26, 27. Here's Recovery promised from the filth and power of Sin, to inherent Righteousness, by Sanctification. 2. That God also Covenanteth to recover Christs Seed from Death to eternal Life, is as clear. For he saith; If by one mans offence, death reigned by one: much more they which receive abundance of Grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ. Rom. 5. 17. 21. —— That as Sin hath reigned unto death; even so might Grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord. This Recovery of Christs Seed from the miserable state of Sin and Death, Death, to the happy state of righteousness and eternal life, seems as it were Typically to be shadowed out and promised, under Israels Recovery from Egypts miserable bondage, to Canaan. Gen. 15. 13, 14, 18. Deut. 5. 2, 3. 6. And the Jews return from their woful Captivity in Babylon, unto Sion. Jer. 24. 5, 6, 7.

More Particularly, Gods Recovery of Christs Seed from Sin and Death to Righteousness and Life, being a most large Comprehensive benefit, comprizeth in it many excellent Spiritual blessings. Partly, in respect of the Impetration of it, for Christs Seed: Partly, in regard of the Application of it, to Christs Seed. I. The Impetration, or obtaining of this Recovery for Christs Seed, was by RE DEMPTION. Redemption is a Recovery of Christs Seed from the bondage of Sin, Satan, Death and the wrath of God, into the contrary spiritual liberty: by the payment of a just and Satisfactory price. Hence those phrases: ye are bought with a price, 1 Cor 6. 20. — (h) ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold from your vain Conversation, —— but with the precious blood of Christ. —— (i) who gave himself for us, that he might Redeem us from all iniquity. —— (k) Christ hath Redeemed us from the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us. In this work of Redemption are considerable, 1, The (l) Mediation of the Redeemer Christ, betwixt God and his Seed. 2. The full (m) Satisfaction of this Mediator, made to Gods Justice, by his Death, for the Sins of all his Seed. 3. The Meritorious (n) Reconciliation of all his Seed unto God by this full Satisfaction. II. The Application of this Recovery thus obtaind to Christs Seed, is effected especially by these several steps, or degrees. viz. 1. By conviction: Christs Seed being throughly (o) Convinced both of their own sin and misery, by nature: and of the sufficient Remedy thereof in Christ by Grace. 2. By conversion. When they (p) are turned from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. This Conversion, in respect of several notions and Considerations, is expressed in Scripture by divers Names, which for substance import one and the same thing. It is stiled (r) In regard of the newness of Condition whereinto they are brought, (q) Renovation or Renewing. (s) In regard of Natures inability, and of the Necessity of Divine Power, to bring them unto this new condition, (t) New-Creation. (3) In regard of Gods way of bringing them into this New state, Outwardly by the call of his word as the instrument: Inwardly by the call of his spirit as the efficient thereof, (f) Vocation, or Calling. (4) In regard of the resemblance that this Conversion hath with mans Natural generation and birth, its stiled (t) Regeneration, New-birth, or Being born from above. (5) In respect of their separation from Sin, unto Holiness of Person and Conversation, (u) Sanctification. (6) In regard of Divine Principles, Habits and gratious Qualifications infused, the (x) Participation of the Divine Nature. (7) Finally to mention no more in regard of their spiritual Motion from misery to happiness, its stiled A (y) Transition, or Passing from Death to Life. All these for Thus of the Benefits Covenanted which God will do for Christs Seed; He will Recover them, &c.

2. The object to whom these Grand Benefits are intended in Christ, is only Christs Seed, The Elect. For, 1. They, and they alone were before the foundation of the world, in Christ eternally (r) elected and predestinated to these benefits. 2. They, and they alone are the Persons for whom Christ in fulnes of time intentionally shed his blood and laid down his life, that he might purchase and procure these mercies for them. Even, for (s) Gods Elect: for (t) the children of God. For (u) the children which God had given him: for (x) his Church: for (y) his people: for (z) his sheep. 3. They, and they alone are the persons to whom these Benefits and Mercies are in due time (a) actually and effectually applyed and bestowed in Jesus Christ through the operation of the Spirit. Consequently they alone that are Christs Seed, the Elect, are the Object to whom these Benefits and Mercies are intended in Christ.

(2) The Lord Covenanteth, what he will be to Christs Seed: viz. He will be to them a God. That thus God Covenanteth, is clear in the Tenour of the Covenant of Faith, as Renewed to Abraham, Israel, David, The Jews, and in the New Covenant. 1. To Abraham God saith; (b) I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy Seed after thee, in their Generations, for an everlasting Covenant: To be a God unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee. And I will give unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee, the Land wherein thou art a stranger, all the Land of Canaan, for an Everlasting possession: And I will be their God. 2. To Israel at Horeb, (c) I am the Lord thy God, &c. 3. To David God promiseth, in reference to his Seed; (d) He shall cry unto me, Thou art my Father, my God, and the Rock of my Salvation. 4. To the Jews, Captived in Chaldea, the Lord Promiseth frequently by his Prophets; (e) They shall be my people, and I will be their God. 5. Finally, This is the Grand blessing Promised under the New Covenant; (f) I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: And I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. Thus the Lord Covenanteth what he will be to his people, to the Seed of Christ: He will be to them a God. And what could God say more? For, of all Federal Clauses and Promises in Gods Book, this is the Highest, Fullest, Surest, and Sweetest. I. The Highest. For the blessing herein promised is the (g) Most-High God, the Supreme Good, the (h) only Good: from whose goodness every Good thing flows. It was much that God said to Abraham, being about to Enter into Covenant with him; (i) Fear not, Abraham: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward. A Shield; A Reward: A great Reward; An exceeding great Reward; And all this, to Abraham. What Security, what Sufficiency is here for Abraham? It was much more, that God, Covenanting with David, Promised to his Seed; (k) I will be his Father, and he shall be my son. But it is most of all that the Lord saith: I will be to them a God. God is higher then Heaven, or Earth: then Grace, or Glory: then things present, or to come: then Men, Angels, or Seraphims: and therefore when God promiseth Himself, he promiseth the Highest Good Promiseable. The whole Covenant is a rich Ring of Gold, or chain of Pearl: but this Promise is as the highest Diamond in the Ring, and most precious Jewel in the Chain. It is the very Crown and top-excellency of all the Promises. II. The fullest. No Promise in Scripture is so Compleat and Comprehensive as this promise. When God is Promised: what is not promised? 1. All that's in God, is promised: His wisdom, for Direction: His Power, for Protection: His Grace, for acceptation; His Mercy, for Commiseration: His Justice, for Remuneration, &c. 2. All that is Gods, is Promised: His Creatures on Earth, to serve us: His Angels in Heaven, to guard us, His Ordinances, in this world, to make us holy: His recompences in the world to come, to make us happy: His comforts, to support us: His Graces, to adorn us: His Glory, to crown us, &c. all these are Promised: yea all things are Promised, when God is Promised. God is All in All. Therefore this Promise of God is the Center where all the Promises meet: The Sea whereinto all the Promises miſes Empty themſelves. III. The Sureſt. For, when God hath made divers other Promiſes to his People, he is wont to cloſe them up with this: (i) and I will be your God. This he adds as a ſtrong Bond, or firm Seal unto his other Promiſes. And no wonder: For, if God will perform this greateſt of all bleſſings: he will never deny, or withold, any leſſer inferiour bleſſing. If he give that which implies all good, which is the fountain of all good: ſurely he can count no good thing too dear for us. He that ſpares not his own deareſt ſelf, how ſhall he not with himſelf freely give us all things? IV. Finally, This is the Sweeteſt of all Gods Promiſes: and of all his Covenant-Agreements, viz. I will be to them a God. For, 1. This gives the Sweeteſt Right and Property. It gives us Right to, and Property in the Sweeteſt God. God is (m) Light without obſcurity: How ſweet is ſuch light to the Mind! God is (n) Life, without Mortality: How ſweet is ſuch Life unto the Soul! God is (o) Peace, without perplexity: How ſweet is ſuch Peace unto the Conſcience! God is (p) Love, without mutability: How ſweet is ſuch Love unto the Heart! Yea God is all Sweetneſſes. And whatſoever ſweetneſs is among the Creatures, it originally flows from this uncreated ſweetneſs of God. Oh therefore how incomparable ſweet is it to have Property in this God, To have this God for our God! 2. This eſtabliſheth the ſweeteſt Relation betwixt God and us: That he ſhould be ours, and we his. No Relation on Earth, of Maſter and Servant, of Parent and child, or of husband and wife, can be in any degree Compared to this Relation. They are but ſhadows, but (q) bitterneſs, in compariſon of this ſweetneſs. 3. This yields the fulleſt and ſweeteſt Satisfaction. No Creature can ſatisfie, or fill the Soul: But God fils the ſoul, ſatisfies the heart abundantly. Mans heart is made capable of God, and therefore is reſtleſs till it Center itſelf in God. Beyond God, the heart can deſire nothing: therefore to have God muſt needs be ſweeteſt of all. 4. Finally, This Promiſe is an Antidote againſt all Gall and bitterneſs, bringing God to be thine. For then, The Bitterneſs of wrath is Paſt: for God is thine, to Love thee. The bitterneſs of ſin is Paſt: for God is thine freely to Pardon and Juſtifie thee, fully to purge and Sanctifie thee from all Sin. The bitterneſs of Death is Paſt; for God is thine, to arm thee againſt death, to pluck out the ſting of Death, and at laſt totally to redeem thee from the ſtate of Death and from all Poſsibility of Dying any more. Oh how infinitly ſweet is that God, that thus ſweetens all our bitterneſs! how ſweet that Promiſe, that makes this God ours! Thus God Covenants what he will be to Chriſts Seed; He will be their God. And theſe are the Benefits and mercies which God on his part Covenanteth and Promiſeth in Chriſt to his Seed.

II. Chriſts Seed on their part, do in like ſort reciprocally promiſe, reſtipulate and Covenant with God in Chriſt, The Performance of divers Federal Duties. viz. 1. What they will do. "They will Accept Chriſt by true Faith; and in Chriſt, all Gods Covenanted Mercies:

And [a] They will walk worthy of him and them, according to the Gospel. 2. What they will be. They will become Gods people, in Christ. Oh how much is here implied in a few words!

1. What they will do. And here they restipulate two things especially; viz.

1. To accept Christ by Faith unfained, and in him all Gods Covenanted Benefits and Mercies. That they restipulate thus to accept Christ and the Covenanted mercies by true Faith, wil appear upon due Consideration of these Particulars. viz. 1. That, Acceptance of Christ by true Faith is required, in order to the actuall participation of these Covenanted Mercies; Recovery from Sin to righteousnes, from Death to life, and having God to be their God. Christ saith, (r) This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent, John saith, (f) This is his Commandment, that we should believe on the name of his son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us Commandment. And he that keepeth his Commandments, (whereof this believing in Christ is the chief,) dwelleth in him, and he in him. And therefore hath God to be his God, and hath righteousnes and life from God in Christ. Thus Paul and Silas command the Jaylor to believe in order to his Salvation; (t) Believe on the Lord Iesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thine house. 2. That, The Not-believing in Christ, is condemned, and threatned with Death and damnation. Condemned, as that (u) Sin of Sins, whereof the Spirit of Christ chiefly convinceth and reproveth the world. Threatned; (x) He that believed not shall be damned. (y) —He that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed on the name of the only begotten son of God. —He that believeth not the son, shall not see life: but the wrath of God abideth on him. (z) This is the Record, That God hath given to us Eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life: and he hath not the son of God hath not life. 3. That, the Covenanted Benefits are promised peculiarly to believing in Christ, and accepting of him by Faith As, (a) Recovery from Sin to Righteousnes; (b) To him give all the Prophets witnes, That through his name whosoever believeth in him, shall receive remission of Sins. (c) By his Knowledge (viz. The Knowledge of Christ by Faith) shall my righteous servant justifie many; for he shall bear their iniquities. (d) Recovery also from death to eternal life; (e) whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed: or, as Peter hath it, shall not be Confounded. Ye, (f) He that believeth shall be saved. (g) God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son: That whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have Everlasting life. (h) And Jesus said unto them; I am the bread of life: He that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. (i) —Jesus said unto her; I am the Resurrection, and the life: He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live; And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never dye. 4. Finally, That the Covenanted Mercies are actually bestowed upon them that accept Jesus Christ Christ by Faith unfained. Abraham (h) believed, and is justified with the righteousness of Faith, and thereby is made also heir of the world: and this is written, To let us know, that in like manner we shall be justified, and be made heirs, if we believe as Abraham did. (i) As many as received him, (that is, Christ,) To them he gave power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name. And the Apostle declares, (k) That they which are of the seed of Abraham, are blessed with faithful Abraham. And That (l) if there had been a Law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the Scripture hath concluded all under sin, That the Promise by Faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. And (m) That by Christ, we have access by Faith into this Grace, wherein we stand. Now lay all this together, and it is evident, that it is required of Christs Seed, that they accept Christ by true Faith; and in Christ, righteousness, eternal life, and God to be their God: And when they close with God in this Covenant, thus they Promise to accept him.

2. To walk worthy of Christ, and of all these Covenanted Mercies, according to the Gospel. This (n) Worthy-walking is frequently pressed in the Gospel; not as implying any Meritoriousness therein, but onely an Harmonious suitableness of course and life becoming them that partake such an high favour from God in Christ. Especially, Paul, (o) Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be made partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light: who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the Kingdom of the son of his Love: prayes for the Colossians, That they might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God, strengthened with all might according to his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness. And herein it is that the Gospel placeth walking worthy of the Lord.

This walking worthy of Christ, and of Covenant-Mercies in him, The Tenour of the Covenant it self requireth, and reduceth chiefly to two Heads; viz. True Repentance, and New Obedience. 1. True Repentance, (which is a sanctified change of the Person, and Conversation, from Sin to Righteousness,) The Covenant of Faith requires, saying; (p) Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a New spirit will I put within you, and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. —— I will also save you from all your uncleanesses. —— Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall loath your selves in your own sight, for your iniquities, and for your abominations. Here's true Repentance comprizing the holy change both of person and Conversation. 2. New obedience also, Evangelically (which the Apostle calls walking in Newness Newneſs of life, Rom. 6. 4.) The Covenant of Faith cals for of all Chriſts Seed accepting this Covenant. As, (') From Abraham; (q) I am the almighty God, Walk before me and be thou perfect: And I will make my Covenant between me and thee, &c. (') From Iſrael entring into Covenant with God in Horeb, unto whom God ſaid; (r) Oh that there were ſuch a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my Commandments always! —— Ye ſhall obſerve therefore to do all that the Lord your God hath Commanded you: you ſhall not turn aſide to the right hand or to the left. And Iſrael ſaid; (ſ) All that the Lord hath ſaid will we do, and be obedient. (') From (t) David and his Seed. And (') From the Captive Jews, the Lord in his Covenant required obedience, ſaying; (u) And I will put my Spirit within you, and cauſe you to walk in my Statutes, and ye ſhall keep my judgements, and do them. And when Gods people upon ſeveral occaſions renewed their Covenant with God, they were wont to renew their (x) reſtipulation of ſincere, cordial, univerſal and Conſtant Obedience unto the Lord: as holding themſelves by vertue of Gods Covenant obliged ſo to do. Thus Chriſts Seed do in him reſtipulate, what they will do.

2. What they will be. viz. They will become Gods people in Chriſt. This reſtipulation God eminently requires of them in the Tenour of this Covenant, (y) That they ſhall be his people. And this which they Covenant to be, is beyond all that they Covenant to do. For, As when God promiſeth to be their God, he promiſeth the Higheſt of all Mercies: ſo when they promiſe to be Gods people, they promiſe the greateſt of all Duties. What could God ſay more to them? What could they ſay more to God? By this Reſtipulation, 1. All they are: 2. All they have: 3. All they can do: 4. And, All they can endure; are promiſed unto God.

Therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your Spirit, which are Gods.* (a) For none of us liveth to himſelf, and no man dieth to himſelf. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord: and whether we dye, we dye unto the Lord: whether we live therefore or dye, we are the Lords. Their Souls and Bodies are Spiritual (b) Temples and (c) Sacrifices. Their Minds his; to know him, and his will, and to meditate ſweetly upon him. Contrary to him, as moſt deteſtable: To deſire him intenſively, above all deſirables: To fly from ſin exceedingly, as moſt abominable: To joy and delight in him moſt contentedly, above all delectables: And to grieve moſt mournfully at that which diſpleaſeth him, or divides from him, as moſt lamentable. Their Eyes his, to behold the beauty of his works: Their Ears, his, to hear the melody of his word: Their Senſes his, to be Caſements & inlets to his goodneſs: Their Tongues his, to trumpet out his Glory: Their Members his, to be weapons of righteouſneſs unto holineſs: Their Breath his, Melodiouſly to warble out his praiſes: Their Being his, to be only for him: And their wel-being his, as onely from him and in him, and to him.

2. All they have, is herein Conſequently promiſed to God. All their Honours, Pleaſures, Riches and Earthly Poſſeſſions, Liberties, Priviledges, Times, Opportunities, Artificial habits, Natural Relations, and ſupernatural Qualifications, they are all Homagers unto God, and muſt be proſtrated to his Service.

3. All they can do for God, is alſo promiſed to God. As, Publiſhing and maintaining his Truth: Promoting his Worſhip: Propagating his Goſpel: Protecting his Church: Defending his Cauſe: Supporting his People: Maintaining his Ordinances: Advancing his Kingdom and glory: And fulfilling his will in all the Evangelical acts of Faith and Love.

4. Finally, All they can endure for him and his Truth, muſt be duly undergone and devoted to his glory. They muſt be ([d]) ſhod with the preparation of the Goſpel of peace; That they may ([e]) bear Chriſts reproach, and perſecution for righteouſneſs ſake; That they may undergo ([f]) Trials of cruel mockings and ſcourgings, of bonds and impriſoment; That if need be they may endure, *To be ſtoned, ſawn aſunder, Tempted, ſlain with the Sword. O how great a task do Chriſts elect undertake, when they reſtipulate with God To be his people! And without his ſingular aſſiſtance, who can be ſufficient for theſe things! Thus Chriſts Seed Covenant what they will be.

Doubt. But theſe Conditions required on the part of Chriſts Seed in this Covenant, (viz. of unfained Faith, worthy walking, eſpecially by Repentance and New Obedience, and of becoming Gods people,) ſeem repugnant to that free Grace whereupon this Covenant is founded, and conſequently ecclipſe the Glory of this Covenant, rendring it herein like the Covenant of works, which Conditioned for Perfect perſonal Obedience.

Anſw. Not ſo. For reſolving of this Doubt therefore Conſider,

1. That In this Covenant of Faith, as well as in the Covenant of works, God

God requires Conditions to be reſtipulated to him by them that are federates with him. This hath been cleared by evident Teſtimonies. And it is not formally and properly a Covenant, but rather a bare Promiſe, where there is not a mutual Agreement and ſtipulation betwixt Parties Covenanting for performance of certain terms or Conditions to each other reciprocally. II. That the Conditions required of Chriſts ſeed in the Covenant of faith, are quite different from the Conditions required of Adam and his Seed in the Covenant of works. They differ eſpecially in their Matter, Original, and End. 1. In their Matter. The Matter Conditioned in the Covenant of Works, was Perfect and Perpetual Perſonal Obedience. But the Matter Conditioned in the Covenant of faith, is Faith in Chriſt, Repentance, New-obedience, and becoming Gods people in Chriſt. None of theſe were or could be Conditions of the Covenant of works. Not faith in Chriſt; becauſe Man in innocency needed not Chriſt, nor Faith in him; nor did the Covenant of works reveal or admit of a Mediator. Adam had faith in God the Creator; not in God the Redeemer. Not Repentance; for before the Fall there was no ſin; and therefore no need of Repentance. And after the Fall the Covenant of works leaves no place for repentance, but denounceth Death without mercy. Not New-obedience, or Newneſs of life; for Newneſs of life, or New-obedience (l) preſuppoſeth the old man, and oldneſs of diſobedience and ſin. But Adam, had neither old man, nor old ſins in him, or in his life, when God entred into Covenant with him. Nor becoming Gods people in Chriſt; For, Adam, and in him his poſterity were Gods people immediately by their own concreated perſonal integrity, and perfect conformity to God and his will, when God made the Covenant of works with them: Not needing Ieſus Chriſt as a Mediator of Reconciliation to make them Gods people. So that the Conditions of this Covenant of faith, wholly differ from thoſe of the Covenant of works, In their Matter. 2. In their Original and foundation. The Original of Adams obedience conditioned in the Covenant of works, was within himſelf, even his Natural Con-created (m) uprighneſs in Gods image: But the Original of theſe Conditions required of Chriſts Seed in the Covenant of faith, is without them, above them, viz. not any Natural Principle, but meer ſupernatural Grace and Mercy. Faith and Repentance are (n) not of themſelves, but are the gift of God: New-obedience, not of themſelves, but they (o) are created thereunto in Chriſt. Nor become they Gods people of themſelves, but God of meer grace (p) promiſeth to make them ſuch, and (q) makes them ſuch according to his promiſe. 3. Finally, The Conditions of theſe two Covenants differ exceedingly In their End, why they are required in them reſpectively. For, Perſonal Obedience perfect and perpetual was required, as the very (r) Matter of Adams righteouſneſs and Juſtification, and as the only procuring cauſe of his Life, under the Covenant of works. But the caſe is far otherwiſe in the Covenant of Faith, Faith; Here the very (f) Matter of our Righteousness is Christ and his perfect obedience, and he thereby is the onely Meritorious procuring cause of our eternal life. Faith is not the Efficient, nor Material, but onely the (t) Instrumental cause of our Righteousness and life, as it accepts and receives Christ to that end. Repentance and New-obedience are required, as Conditions of true justifying faith: True justifying faith must be both Penitential and Obediential. Penitential, (u) purifying our persons and lives from sin and impurity: Obediential, (x) working by Love, which fulfils the Law; and shewing it self by good works, and so justifying us Declaratively before men; And yet this faith justifies us not, as it is Penitential, or as it is Obediential, in the Court of God: but onely as it is Instrumental to apply Christ for righteousness. Faith is the Instrumental Cause of Justification Covenanted; Repentance is the Qualification of the person capable of life and Salvation; and New-obedience is (y) the way to, not the cause of glorification. III. That, Consequently, These Conditions required in the Covenant of faith, 1. Are so far from rendring the Covenant of Faith like the Covenant of works: that they contrariwise notably increase and evidence the difference betwixt them. 2. Are so far from opposing the Free-grace of this Covenant of faith: that they heighten and illustrate the Free-grace of the Covenant so much the more: All these conditions originally springing meerly from the riches of Free-grace. 3. And finally, these Conditions are so far from ecclipsing the glory of this Covenant, that they contribute much to the Splendor of its Glory.

Hitherto of the Matters Covenanted, both betwixt God and Christ the last Adam; As also betwixt God and Christs Seed in him, reciprocally, and respectively.

Section IV.

The form of this COVENANT of FAITH, comes now in the last place briefly to be inquired into. And it is twofold, viz. 1. Inward, and more Essential. 2. Outward, and more Accidental.

I. The Inward and Essential Form of this Covenant, is That Mutuall Stipulation herein betwixt the Parties Covenanting, viz. Both betwixt God and Christ the last Adam; And also betwixt God and all Christs Spiritual Seed in him. This reciprocall Stipulation, either Explicit or at least Implicit, is so necessary to the Constitution and making up of the essence and being of this Covenant, that properly, formally and compleatly it cannot be a Covenant without it. For, otherwise there's no mutual engaging and obliging of the federates one to another: which the proper nature of a Covenant requires.

II. The Outward and Accidental Form of this Covenant, consists especially in its 1. Graduall Discoveries; 2. Various Administrations; 3. Testamentary

[3] Testamentary Disposition; [4] Large and liberal Tender; and [5] visible Advantages, though it be but outwardly embraced.

1. The Discoveries of this Covenant of Faith were Gradual. The Covenant of works seems to be discovered all at once to Adam in the self-same day in which he was Created: But this Covenant of Faith was not unfolded all at once, but at sundry times, and by several steps and degrees. As the beauty of the year increaseth to perfection by degrees; viz. From Winters nakedness and deformity to the buds of herbs and trees, from buds to fragrant flowersand blossoms, from flowers and blossoms to green growing and ripe fruit; Or, As the light of the Day groweth by degrees to its perfect glory; First, it is Day-break, day dawning, or the peering of the morning: Then it is clear Day light: Then Sun rise. Then brighter and brighter Day: At last brightest Noon-day.

Thus Gods Covenant of Faith was (1.) Most obscurely and imperfectly discovered presently after the Fall, In the (z) Promise of the Seed of the woman that should bruise the Serpents head, which is not so much as called a Covenant. This was the Covenants Day-break, or first Dawning of it to mankind. (2.) Then somewhat more clearly to Noah; where its first stiled a (a) Covenant; and under Noah's deliverance in the Ark by waters from the general deluge that drowned the whole world, is represented the Churches deliverance and salvation by Christ from the General deluge of sin and wrath, that had overwhelmed all mankind. This was as the Covenants day-light. (3.) More clearly and fully after this, To Abraham; God (b) Covenanting to be his God,and the God of his seed, to (c) deliver his seed out of Egypt and bring them to Canaan, a Type of Heaven, to make him heir of the world, and that (d) in his seed all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed: Annexing (e) Circumcision for confirmation of the Covenant to him. This was as the Covenants orient Sunrise: Now it began to shine out with bright and beauteous rayes of Grace. (4.) More fully and perfectly after this, at Mount Sinai; There, (f) God Covenants with Israel, and (g) Israel restipulates with God, (h) Moses himself coming between them as a Typical Mediator. There, the Lord so dispensed his Covenant to Israel, as to Convince, Terrifie, and Direct them thereby. To (i) convince them of their Sin and misery in themselves, by the Moral Law, that they might despair of Iustification by any self-righteousness: To (k) terrifie them and fright them out of themselves, and their carnal state, by the terror of the Lord in most dreadful manner promulgating this Covenant: And To (l) Direct them to Christ and his righteousness as the only Remedy against sin and misery, and this by the (m) Ceremonies and Types of Christ, annexed. (5.) More clearly and fully after this, to King David, (n) with whom God made an everlasting Covenant, ordered in all things, and sure: confirmed by Gods sacred (o) Oath. Wherein, amongst other things, God Covenanted (p) To set up his seed after him, which should build an house to Gods Name, and and to establish his Kingdome for ever. Which was notably fulfilled both in King Solomon, who built Gods Material Temple, and therein was a Type of Christ: and especially in Iesus Christ the Anti-type, (q) of the fruit of his loyns according to the flesh, raised up to sit upon Davids throne spiritually, who builds Gods Spiritual Temple, his Church, therein to Reign for evermore (r) till he hath put all his enemies under his feet. (6.) More clearly and fully after this, to the Iews in the Babylonish Captivity; with whom God Covenanted, (s) To open their graves, and bring them out of their Graves, even out of their desperate Babylonish Captivity into their own Land; (t) To cleanse them thoroughly from all their idols and detestable things; (u) To take away their stony hearts and give them hearts of flesh; (x) To put his spirit within them, and cause them to walk in his statutes; (y) To unite them so sweetly, that they shall no more be two Nations, or two Kingdoms, but be closely conjoyned in one under David their King, viz. Iesus Christ the Spiritual David; And (z) To set his Tabernacle and Sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore, He being their God, and they his people. These gradual discoveries of Gods Covenant at Mount Sinai, To David, and to the Captive Iews, were as the brighter and brighter Day. Finally, (7.) After all these the (a) New Covenant breaks forth most clearly and compleatly, being founded upon Christ already exhibited and incarnate, and upon far better promises in Christ, &c. And this was the Covenants Noon-tide brightness, or Perfect day.

But why was the Covenant of Faith in Christ discovered gradually, by these steps and degrees, and not fully all at once? Answ. The Lord seems to have taken this gradual Course of Discovering his Covenant, 1. Because of the surpassing greatness of this mysterie of Saving lapsed Sinners by Iesus Christ through Faith; Revealed in this Covenant of Faith, both under the Old and New Testament. This is a mysterie of mysteries, wherein many abstruse secrets and mysteries meet, as is declared in the (b) Scriptures. And therefore it was a Matter too high and transcendent to be revealed all at once unto the world. 2. Because of the incapacity and weakness of the Church in her primordial state. The Church and people of God under the Old Testament till Christs coming, (c) were as a child under age, in Minority; too weak and rude to fadom and comprehend the full Discoveries of Divine grace and wisdome in the Covenant; God therefore according to their capacity made known his Covenant; not according to what he was able to Reveal, but according to what they were able to receive. At first in their infancy he disclosed but the A B C of the Covenant, till the time of Abraham: Then he learns them to spell it, from Abraham till Moses: Afterwards he taught them to read it more perfectly from Moses till Christ: and lastly he makes them fully to understand it since the incarnation of Christ. Thus as the Church grew riper and riper, the Covenant of faith shined forth clearer and clearer. 3. That the graces of the Church, Faith, Hope, Patience, &c. might be gradually exercised and improved more and more in waiting and longing for the accomplishment of this Covenant in the exhibition of Christ. Hence, (d) Abraham rejoyced to see Christs day; and he saw it, and was glad. (e) Iacob expected the coming of Shiloh, to whom the gathering of the people should be: and saith, I have waited for thy Salvation, O LORD. Moses said to Israel, (f) A Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me, him shall ye hear. The Church breaths out her longing desires after Christ in the flesh, saying, (g) Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for thy love is better than wine. The Patriarchs of old, (h) not having received the promises, saw them afar off, were perswaded of them, and embraced them. And (i) how were they, that waited for the Consolation of Israel, ravished and transported with joy when Christ, the kernel of the Covenant, was exhibited! 4. Finally, That by these gradual discoveries of the Covenant, God might gradually advance the excellency of his glory to the very Highest: Every additional discovery of his Covenant, proportionably augmenting the glory of his free grace, love, mercy and goodness to his elect.

2. The Administrations of this Covenant of Faith were various, as the Discoveries of it were graduall. The (k) Ministration was different: but the Substance thereof still the same. The various Condition and capacity of the Church, occasioned this variety. Before Christ, (l) The Ministration of this Covenant was more obscure, carnal and servile, by Promises, Prophecies, Sacrifices, Circumcision, Passover, Priesthood, a worldly Sanctuary, with other ceremonial and typical Ordinances of Divine service, all shadowing out Christ which was to come afterwards: The Church at time being as an heir in Minority under Tutors and Governours. But since Christ, the Church being as an heir come to age, (m) The Ministration of the Covenant was more clear, Spiritual, Filial, and effectual, by Preaching the word to all Nations, Gentiles as well as Iews; Baptism, the Lords Supper, and other spiritual Sacrifices, Ordinances and Acts of worship: all representing Christ as come already.

3. The Disposition or Disposall of this Covenant of Faith is Testamentary, as well as Federal. It is a Federal Testament, or a Testamentary Covenant: as was (n) formerly observed. As a Covenant, it is a convention, or an Agreement betwixt divers parties living: As a Testament it is the last will or Disposal of one dying, or Dead. It is often stiled a (o) Testament in Scripture; The first Testament, or Old Testament; and the New Testament. And both in reference to Christ and his Death, Typically represented by the Death and blood of Sacrifices under the Old: Truly exhibited under the New.

The Testamentary Nature of this Covenant of faith will best appear in the resemblance that it hath to a Man's last will or Testament, wherein he disposeth of his estate Real or Personal to his Posterity. In a Mans Testament are considerable, 1. A Testator; 2. A finall and unalterable disposal of some estate or inheritance; 3. Posterity or friends to whom whom such estate or inheritance is bequeathed; [4] Publication of the Testament by word or writing; and [5] Ratification of it by the Testators Seal annexed, especially by his Death ensuing. Such things proportionably are to be found in this Testamentary Covenant of Faith: viz. 1. A (p) Testator, Iesus Christ, who also is (q) Mediator and (r) Surety of the Testament. 2. A finall and unalterable disposal of the everlasting inheritance, together with all the appurtenances thereof. The Legacies and estate bequeathed is (s) the eternal inheritance, and all things thereunto belonging. The disposal of this inheritance is finall and (t) unalterable; This being Christs last and (u) everlasting will, which is still to stand in force, without Addition thereto, Detraction thencefrom, or Alteration thereof. 3. A Posterity to whom this eternal inheritance, &c. is bequeathed, even the Elect of God, Christs spiritual seed, who are made (x) Heirs and Co-heirs in Christ, the grand (y) Heir of all things for their good. 4. Publication of this Testament, by written word, the Holy Scriptures, given to the (z) Church for this end. Scriptures are Gods Testamentary Rolls: His Book of the Covenant. 5. Ratification of this Testament; Instrumentally, by the Sacraments, (a) Baptism and (b) The Lords Supper: Fundamentally, by (c) the Death of Iesus Christ the Testator.

4. The tender of this Covenant of Faith is very large and liberal. The Covenant and the Grace thereof, is not onely tendered, published and offered to Christs Seed, by Election given to him: but also to the (d) whole visible Church, wherein are more Tares then Wheat; yea even unto them that are out of the visible Church, viz. Pagans, and Infidels. For the (e) Iews rejecting the tender of the Gospel and Covenant, and thereby counting themselves unworthy of eternal life, the Apostles turned to the Gentiles, to preach to them. And so (f) God was found of them that sought him not: he was made manifest to them that asked not after him. But why is this Covenant of Faith so largely tendered? Answ. 1. That, the Elect seed of Christ may be effectually (g) called and gathered, from among the corrupt mass of mankind. For, both among Iews and Gentiles, both within and without the Church, Gods elect are (h) mingled among Reprobates, as sheep among Goats, Wheat among Tares, good among bad fish: Now the Covenant-Tender doth segregate and call them out from among them. 2. That, Reprobates who neglect so great Salvation tendered, may be left without excuse: and their Condemnation more justly aggravated. 3. That, God, and the free tender of the riches of his grace so largely in his Covenant may be magnified and glorified. As it fell out among the Gentiles, who perceiving that the Gospel should be offered to them as well as to the Iews, (i) were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

5. Finally, The visible advantages attending upon this tender of Gods Covenant, though it be but outwardly embraced, are divers and very considerable. As, 1. An holy Vocation and Profession. They are Corollary. I.

I. HEnce, The Covenant of Faith is a moſt profound Supernatural Myſterie. It is 1. A Myſterie; 2. A Profound Myſterie; 3. A Supernatural Myſterie.

1. The Covenant of Faith is a Myſterie. A Myſterie (in Scripture ſenſe) is a ſacred Secret, having an hidden underſtanding. Such a myſterie this Covenant, it is not obvious to vulgar Capacities: but a Divine Secret, wonderfully hiddden from them. It is a Comprehenſive Myſterie, A myſterie of myſteries, containing many myſteries folded together in it. For, 1. Here in this Covenant is ſet forth the Doctrine & way of Sinners Salvation by Chriſt, and this is called (t) The Myſterie of the Goſpel; (u) The myſterie of Faith; (x) The myſterie of God, and of the Father,

Father, and of Christ. 2. Here is described to us the Person and office of Iesus Christ Mediator of this Covenant, and a joynt-party with his Seed to this Covenant. And this is called (y) The great mysterie of godliness, God manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of Angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into Glory. In one Christ are many mysteries: And Christ is the kernel of this Covenant. 3. Here is discovered, how Christs Seed, the Church, are united closely to Christ by Covenant through faith, and in Christ unto God. And this intimate union of the Church, Christs Seed, unto Christ, as Members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones, (adumbrated in marriage-union betwixt man and wife,) is stiled a (z) Great mysterie. 4. Here is Revealed Gods singular good will unto the Gentiles, touching their conversion and incorporation into his Church; That the Gentiles should be fellow-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ, by the Gospel. And this was so great a Secret, and so hidden from the Church of the Iews, that the Apostle cals it, not only, (a) The mysterie: and The mysterie of Christ, which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy Apostles and Prophets by the Spirit: But also, The fellowship of the Mysterie, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God. 5. Here is disclosed Gods most wise and gracious contrivance, for Re-collecting and Reuniting all things both in Heaven and Earth, gathering them together in one in Christ the last Adam, as they were shattered, broken and dissipated in the first Adam. And this is called, (b) The mysterie of Gods will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself. 6. Here is declared, in and with what Ordinances this Covenant of faith is Administred from time to time. And these Ordinances are called (c) The Mysteries of God: and the Ministers of Christ intrusted with the Dispensation of these Ordinances, are stiled Stewards of these mysteries. 7. Finally, Here is promissorily and prophetically foretold, how at the great day Christ will deal with all the Saints that shall be found alive at his second coming, viz. They shall be changed in a Moment, in the twinckling of an eye, at the last Trump. And of this change the Apostle saith (d) Behold, I shew you a mysterie. And by this mysterious change the surviving Saints shall be throughly fitted for their covenanted Glory.

2. The Covenant of Faith is a Profound Mysterie, A great Deep. For, Behold herein, (e) What a Deep of Free-grace! that when all mankind were by the first Adams disobedience implunged in a state of Sin and Death, yea and Christs Seed according to Election, as sinful dead and worthless as any of the rest: yet these alone out of the common corrupt mass of mankind should be Recovered by the Obedience of Christ the last Adam to righteousness and life, all the rest being passed by and neglected in their misery. (e) What a deep of mercy and loving-kindness! That wretched worthless loveless Sinners, who had not obtained mercy, who were not a people, should ſhould be ſo embraced in arms of Divine love and mercy as to obtain Chriſt the mercy of mercies, and in Chriſt to obtain Righteouſneſs againſt Sin, Life againſt Death, Freedom againſt Bondage, Happineſs againſt Miſery, Salvation againſt Condemnation, yea the moſt high God to be their God, and themſelves to be his people. (3) What a deep of Power! That Sinners ſhould be juſtified, That Dead creatures ſhould be quickened, That Enmity againſt God ſhould be reconciled, and That extreameſt baſeneſs ſhould be ſo highly exalted. (4) What a deep of Juſtice! That Sin ſhould be ruined, and yet the Sinner be Recovered. That (e) he who knew no Sin, ſhould be made Sin, and condemned: and they who knew nothing but Sin, ſhould be made the righteouſneſs of God, and eternally ſaved. (5) Finally, What a deep of Wiſdom! That in this Recovery of Chriſts Seed, Innocency ſhould be condemned, and the Sinner juſtified: Liberty ſhould be impriſoned, and Captivity releaſed: Light ſhould be Eclipſed, and Obſcurity enlightned: Strength ſhould be weakned, and Weakneſs ſtrengthened: Peace ſhould be perplexed, and Perplexity pacified: Love ſhould be hated, and Enmity ſhould be loved: That Life ſhould dye, and Death ſhould live. And all this was fulfilled when Chriſt became a Surety and Sacrifice for his Seed according to this Covenant. Yea how profound this myſterie of Gods wiſdom, contriving that the ſame Sinners, ſhould at once, both dye the Death threatned in the Covenant of works, and ſo Gods Truth and juſtice be fulfilled; and yet not dye, but live, according to the Covenant of Faith, and ſo Gods Election, Love and Mercy be expreſſed. Oh how hath God (f) abounded towards us in all wiſdome and prudence in theſe myſterious Diſpenſations! To this effect * Luther ſaith moſt Elegantly and Spiritually; Chriſt, with moſt ſweet names, is called my Law, my Sin, my Death; againſt the Law, againſt Sin, againſt Death: whereas in very deed he is nothing elſe but meer liberty, righteouſneſs, Life and everlaſting Salvation. And for this cauſe he is made the Law of the Law, The Sin of Sin, the Death of Death: that he might redeem me from the curſe of the Law, juſtifie me, and quicken me. So then whiles Chriſt is the Law, he is alſo Liberty: whiles he is Sin, he is Righteouſneſs: and whiles he is Death, he is Life. For in that he ſuffered the Law to accuſe him, Sin to condemn him, and Death to devour him: he aboliſhed the Law, he condemned Sin, he deſtroyed Death, he juſtified and ſaved me. So is Chriſt the poyſon of the Law, Sin and Death: and the remedy for obtaining of liberty, righteouſneſs and everlaſting life.——Thus in Chriſt we may behold this joyful conflict: to wit, The Law fighting againſt the Law, that it may be to me liberty: Sin againſt Sin, that it may be to me righteouſneſs: Death againſt Death, that I may obtain life: Chriſt fighting againſt the Devil, that I may be the child of God: and deſtroying Hell, that I may enjoy the Kingdom of Heaven.

3. The Covenant of Faith is a Supernatural Myſterie. There are myſteries in the Creatures in Heaven and Earth, which Natural underſtanding may diſcover and comprehend. And there are myſteries in God

God the Creator and Governour of all in Heaven and Earth, viz. (g) his inviſible Godhead, Power, wiſdom, with other Attributes, &c. Which Angels and men by meer Natural light may find out and wade into. But this myſterie of the Covenant of Faith, viz. That Sinners in ſtate of Death ſhould be Reſtored to righteouſneſs and Life; And that by a Surety, to whom their ſins ſhould be imputed, and on whom their Death ſhould be inflicted; And this Surety Jeſus Chriſt, God-man deſcending from the fathers boſom, who knew no ſin, deſerved no Death; That as ſinners ſins are imputed to, and their Death inflicted on Chriſt: So Chriſts Righteouſneſs through Faith, ſhould be imputed to, and his life beſtowed upon Sinners; And that all this ſhould be Revealed in a Covenant of Faith of meer Grace when the broken Covenant of works knew no place for lapſed Sinners Recovery; This myſterie, I ſay, is wholly Supernatural. No Natural light of Reaſon and underſtanding of men and Angels could have deviſed or imagined ſuch a Recovery of Sinners as this, from Sin and Death, to righteouſneſs and life; Such a Recoverer as this, Jeſus Chriſt God-man in Perſon, reconciling God and man by his Office; And ſuch a Covenant as this betwixt God and man revealing this Recovery: had not God infinitely wiſe pleaſed, as to Deviſe, ſo to diſcloſe and reveal theſe myſteries unto us. This is (h) not the wiſdom of this world, but the wiſdom of God in a Myſterie, even the hidden wiſdom which God ordained before the world unto our Glory. Which none of the Princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory. But as it is written, Eye hath not ſeen, nor ear heard, neither have entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit. And by this Divine Revelation we become —— (i) Able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and heighth: And to know the love of Chriſt, which paſſeth Knowledge, that we may be filled with all the fulneſs of God.

Corollary II.

II. Hence The Covenant of Faith is a wonderful Compound and Contrivance of meer Grace. Let us underſtand, 1. What [Grace] in Scripture-language implies. 2. What a Compoſition of Grace this Covenant of Faith is.

1. Grace in Scripture-phraſe hath manifold acceptations. Its needleſs here to touch upon all, but only upon ſuch as are pertinent to the preſent purpoſe. Grace therefore imports, 1. Primarily and moſt frequently, Gods free favour wherewith he reſpects his Creatures, and whence all bleſſings and Benefits originally flow to his Creatures. (k) There is a remnant according to the Election of grace. Now this fountain Grace, this ſpring-head of all good to the Creatures, looks looks upon the Creatures two waies ([l]) as Cameron well noteth; viz. ([l]) As Creatures no way deserving Gods favour, or any fruits thereof. For, Creatures, as Creatures, can deserve nothing from the Creator, having nothing but what they had from him. ([z]) As Creatures miserable through Sin; deserving the Contrary, nothing but ill from the Creator. The former is the ([m]) Grace of Benevolence or good will: The latter the ([n]) Grace of Commiseration or bowels of mercy. According to the former, Adam and we in him had Paradise, Communion with God, ([o]) Covenant of works, &c. before the fall: According to the latter, the Elect obtain ([p]) Redemption, ([q]) Justification, &c. after the fall. 2. Secondarily and less principally, Grace imports The fruits and effects of Gods favour. These are called Grace, because originally they flow only from Divine Grace. As, The Doctrine of the Gospel and Covenant, is called Grace; ([r]) The grace of God which bringeth Salvation. —— Habits of Sanctification are stiled Grace, ([s]) But grow in grace. —— exercise of these Habits, as Distribution to the Saints Necessities is stiled Grace; ([t]) So he would finish in you the same grace also, &c.

2. The Covenant of Faith now, is a Compound of meer Grace. viz. It is an effect of Divine Grace and favour, wholly and meerly Gratuitous: Man not only, not deserving any thing at all therein, but most justly and altogether deserving the Contrary. The Covenant of works, with the First Adam, as his Creature, was gratuitous, Adam not deserving it from God: But the Covenant of Faith with us as sinful Creatures, in Christ the Last Adam, is double gratuitous, we deserving the Contrary evil of punishments from God. And in this sense probably some stile this The Covenant of grace; Not so much by way of Contrariety to the Covenant of works, which also is Gratuitous, viz. in respect of the Grace of benevolence: but rather by way of supereminency, this Covenant being Gratuitous both according to the Grace of Benevolence, and of Commiseration. More Particularly, I. Gods making of this Covenant of Faith with man since the Fall, is of meer Grace. Grace the only impulsive or moving Cause inclining God thereunto, as ([u]) hath been shewed. II. Jesus Christ the ([x]) Surety and ([y]) Mediator of this Covenant of Faith, is only of meer Grace. 1. Of meer Grace he was ([z]) eternally elected for his Seed, and they elected in him. 2. Of meer Grace he was Promised to his Seed from the beginning of the world. He is the ([a]) Mercy promised to our Fathers. All the Promises both of Christ, and in Christ, which are exceeding great and precious, are ([b]) given to us. And gift is free. 3. Of meer Grace he in fulness of time was exhibited and delivered for his Seed. Hence he is stiled; ([c]) The gift of God. —— ([d]) A son given to us. —— God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten son. —He is also said, ([e]) To taste death by the grace of God, &c. 4. Of meer Grace Christ and his benefits are tendered and offered unto his Seed. ([f]) Ho every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath

III. The Matters Covenanted are of meer Grace; whether on Gods Part promised, or on Our part Restipulated.

On Gods part, The Recovery of Christs Seed from the State of Sin and Death to a state of Righteousness and Life, is of Meer Grace. (h) By Grace ye are saved; —— not of works, lest any man should boast. 1. The Impetration or obtaining of this Recovery by Redemption is of meer Grace; (i) In whom we have Redemption through his Blood the forgiveness of Sins: According to the riches of his Grace. 2. The Application of this Recovery gradually, is of meer Grace: viz. (k) Conviction effectual of our Misery, and the remedy thereof is of Grace; (k) The Grace of God which bringeth Salvation hath appeared to all men, &c. —— (l) To you its given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom. —— (m) Conversion is of meer Grace; whether it be stiled Regeneration, or Renewing; (m) Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his Mercy he saved us, by the washing of Regeneration, and Renewing of the Holy Ghost. Or Repentance; (n) If God peradventure will give them Repentance. —— (o) Him hath God exalted with his right hand, to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give Repentance to Israel. —— Or calling; (p) who hath saved us, and Called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and Grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. (q) Adoption is of meer Grace; (q) Having predestinated us unto the Adoption of Children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will: To the praise of the glory of his Grace. (r) Justification is of meer Grace; (r) All have sinned and come short of the glory of God, being justified freely by his grace. (s) Sanctification is of meer Grace; (t) but God who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when we were dead in Sins, hath quickned us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved) and hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus. That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his Grace, in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus. (u) Finally, Glorification is of meer Grace also; (t) But the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord. (u) That as sin hath reigned unto Death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the part of Christs Seed, The Conditions required and restipulated, are in like sort of meer Grace, viz. 1. Faith; (x) unto you it is given, in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him. And again; (y) By grace are ye saved through Faith, and that not of your selves, it is the gift of God. So that, though God in this Covenant Condition with Christs Seed for believing: yet God freely enables them to perform this Condition, giving them Faith whereby they do believe. 2. Walking worthy of Christ and Covenanted Mercies, is also of meer (z) Eph. 2. 10. with 2 Cor. 3. 5. & Phil. 2. 13.

Thus this Covenant of Faith is a meer Compound of Free-Grace, wherein the exceeding riches of the Glory of Divine Grace are displaid, That no flesh in the point of Salvation and Recovery by Jesus Christ may have the lest colour or shadow of boasting and glorying in itself: but that he that gloryeth, might only glory in the Lord, and in the transcendent treasures of his loving-kindnesses, tender Mercies, and Free-Grace.

Corollary III.

III. Hence, Jesus Christ is the very Marrow and Kernel of the Covenant of Faith. This Covenant is as a Celestial Orb; and Christ is as the radiant Sun in this Orb. This Covenant is a blessed Circle and Circumference of Grace: and Christ the very Center of this Circle. This Covenant is as a Golden Cabinet: Christ as the most precious Diamond or Jewel in this Cabinet: and all other the rich treasures of Righteousness, life, &c. therein, as the appendants, ornaments and Garnish of this Jewel. Amongst them Christ stands as once the Tree of life among the Trees in the midst of Eden. How can we cast our eyes upon this Covenant, which is so full of Christ, and not observe therein much of Christ? Did the wise men so (a) rejoyce with exceeding great joy, when they saw the star that conducted them to Christ on Earth? How much more should Christians rejoyce when they look into this Covenant which conducts them to the same Christ, not only as heretofore on Earth, but as now also in Heaven! The Angel after Christs Resurrection said of his Sepulcher, (b) He is not here, behold the place where they laid him. But of this Covenant we may say, Christ is here, Come see the place where the Lord lies. For, 1. Christ is the ancient, yea the eternal foundation of this Covenant. 2. Christ is chief party to this Covenant with God. 3. Christ is the only Mediator of this Covenant. 4. Christ is the precious Mattter of this Covenant. Come and See.

(b) Mark. 16. 6.

1. Christ is the ancient, yea the eternal foundation of this Covenant. 1. Christ is the Ancient foundation of this Covenant. For, God Revealing this (c) Covenant at Mount Sinai, founded it upon Christ the substance of those Types and Ceremonies digested into that Federal Ministration. And before that, God Revealing this (d) Covenant to Abraham, grounded it upon Christ Abrahams Seed, in whom all the families of the earth should be blessed. And before both, God revealing this (e) Covenant even in Paradise presently after the fall, bottomed it upon Christ The Seed of the woman. And this is very ancient ancient indeed, almost as ancient as the world itself, probably within a few daies. 2. Yea Christ is the Eternal foundation of this Covenant. For, God Covenanted and promised nothing in Christ, in time; but what he had decreed and purposed in Christ before all time. God (f) hath chosen us in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love. Consequently God (foreseeing our fall in Adam) decreed to Recover us by Christ, that we might be thus holy and blameless: and to make known this his purpose to us in this Covenant. Hence our Salvation and vocation are said to be given us of God in Christ before the world began; (g) who hath saved us, and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and Grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began. Yea eternal life is said to be promised before the world began; (h) In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lye, promised before the world began. How could Salvation and vocation be given us, and eternal life be promised before the world began? viz. They were given and Promised in Gods Decree in Christ, that is, Decreed eternally to be given, and to be promised in him. For, All things and times, are alwaies present with God: As (i) Beza well observeth. Unless we may say, God before the foundation of the world promised to Christ (in his eternal Counsel and transaction with him) eternal life for his Seed. In some sense therefore Gods promise and Covenant in Christ, was before the world began. Therefore this Covenant in reference to the foundation of it, is Free, Sure, and Everlasting. Free, because before all works: Sure, because before all Sin: Everlasting, because before all time.

(h) Tit. 1.2.

(i) Beza. Annot. in Tit. 1. 2. & 2 Tim. 1.9.

2. Christ is chief party to this Covenant, with God. For, as God is A party on the one hand: So Christ and his Seed are a joynt party on the other. God deals not with Christs Seed separately and distinctly by themselves alone, for so they are not capable of Confederation with God: but he deals with them joyntly with Christ and in Christ. As he dealt with the First Adam and his Seed in the Covenant of works: So he deals with Christ the Last Adam and his Seed in the Covenant of Faith. Now this is our great advantage. For, as the (k) Disciples were safe at Sea against greatest storms and Tempests, when Christ was in the ship: so Christs Seed are safe spiritually against greatest Tempests of Sin, Wrath, Death, and Temptation, when Christ is imbarqued in the same Covenant with them. Though they be foolish, Christ is wise: though they be weak, Christ is strong: though they be faithless, Christ is faithful: though they be sinners, Christ is righteous and separate from sinners: though they be enemies, Christ is their Reconciler: though they be cursed, Christ is blessed, and the Blesser of all his Seed: Though they be Death, Christ is Life: though they be condemnation, Christ is Salvation: though they be nothing, Christ is All. Whatsoever therefore is wanting in Christs Seed, is abounding in Christ compleatly to bear up up one side of this Covenant with and for his Seed: as the blessed God the other for himself.

3. Christ is the Only (l) Mediatour of this Covenant of Faith. For, * Christ alone is The Mediatour of Reconciliation, (m) recovering his Seed meritoriously by his blood from Sin and Death to righteousness and life, and reconciling them to God. Hence he is called the (n) Surety, and the Testatour of this Covenant, Engaging himself under our debt, and ratifying this Testament by his Death. 2. Christ alone is the meritorious Mediatour of (o) intercession, by whom we have (p) access unto God with boldness, and (q) acceptance with God in all our Prayers and Suits made according to his will. 3. Christ alone is the Mediatour of all Revelation, Instruction and Doctrine. He being that eternal wisdom and word of God by whom the Father still made (r) known himself and his will to mankind from the beginning of the world since the Fall. Hence, its observable, when God spake of old to the Fathers, he spake by Christ, yea when God gave the (s) Law, the Covenant on Sinai, it was ordained by Angels in the hand of a Mediatour That is, God dispensed it not only by the Ministry of Angels, but also of the Mediatour. What Mediatour? Not Moses, as (t) Beza, and (u) others after him interpret: but Christ, as (x) Hierome, Ambrose, Chrysostom, Oecumen, Calvin, Parens, and others do well expound it.

4. Finally, Christ is the Precious matter of this Covenant. All the Matters Covenanted from God to Christs Seed, or restipulated from them to God; are either Christ himself, or Mysteries in Christ. 1. The (y) Recoverer and Restorer of Christs Seed, is Christ. 2. The (z) Righteousness and eternal life whereunto they are Recovered; is the Righteousness and life of Christ. 3. The Covenant-Relation betwixt God and them, He being their God, and they his people; is (a) founded in Christ. 4. The Faith accepting those Benefits, is The (b) Faith of the Son of God, Jesus Christ. 5. The worthy walking consequentially required, is that (c) whereunto they are created in Christ. Thus Christ one way or another, is the very Matter of the Covenant. We cannot intentively behold the Covenant but there we may discern Jesus Christ engraven upon every Promise, every Benefit, and upon every Duty of the Covenant.

(c) Eph. 2. 10.

Thus Christ is The Foundation, Party, Mediatour, and Matter of this Covenant of Faith. How excellently! The Covenant of Faith is the Marrow of the whole Scriptures, the whole Bible since the Fall tending to Reveal this Mysterie: and Christ is the Marrow of the Covenant of Faith, the whole Covenant being as a heavenly womb full of this blessed babe. thing else but this ineſtimable prize, my Lord and Saviour Chriſt. He ought to be ſuch a treaſure unto me, that all other things ſhould be but dung in compariſon of him. He ought to be ſuch a light to me, that when I have apprehended him by Faith, I ſhould not know whether there be any law, any ſin, any righteouſneſs, or any unrighteouſneſs in the world. For what are all things which are in heaven and Earth in compariſon of the Son of God, Jeſus Chriſt, my Lord and Saviour, who loved me, and gave himſelf for me?

COROLLARY IV.

IV. Hence, The COVENANT of FAITH may in a right and ſound ſenſe be acknowledged Conditional. It is not repugnnt to, or inconſiſtent with, the Nature of the Covenant of Faith, to be CONDITIONAL: As God on his part promiſeth, 1. What he will do for Chriſts Seed, 2. What he will be to Chriſts Seed: So Chriſts Seed on their part re-promiſe, reſtipulate and re-oblige themſelves; 1. What they will do, viz. They will Accept Chriſt and all covenanted mercies in him by Faith, And they will walk worthy of him and them in all well-pleaſing, according to the Goſpel: 2. What they will be, viz. They will become Gods Covenant-people in Ieſus Chriſt. And all this God Conditioneth with them, and requires from them. So that This Covenant is Conditional, God therein impoſing terms and Conditions upon Chriſts ſeed.

And here it may be opportune and uſeful, to take a little into Conſideration that troubleſome Queſtion; whether the Covenant of Faith (or Grace) be Conditional or no? Whether God makes it (e) Abſolutely without all Conditions on Mans part, as ſome are of opinion; or Conditionally (f) upon certain terms and Conditions required from him, as others judge. For more clear

(e) The Abſoluteneſs of the Covenant of Grace, without condition, is aſſerted by D. Crisp; In this Covenant of Grace to wit the New Covenant, it is far otherwiſe; There is not any condition in this Covenant. ——— I ſay the New Covenant is without any Conditions whatſoever on mans part. Man is tyed to no Condition that he muſt performa, that if he do not perform, the Covenant is made void by him. Chriſt alone exalted, Serm 6. p. 159. The whole performance of the Covenant lies only upon God himſelf, and that there is not one bond or obligation upon man to the fulfilling of the Covenant, or partaking in the benefits of the Covenant. page 161, 162. Again; All the tye lies upon Gods part, to do every thing that is mentioned in the Covenant. ——— I ſay only in way of Condition of the Covenant you muſt do nothing. p. 164, 165. And afterwards; I muſt needs tell you directly and according to the Truth, That Faith is not the Condition of the Covenant. Same Sermon, p. 166. By M. Saltmarſh, Whatſoever Promiſe hath a Condition in it, is ours in Chriſt, who only is the conditioned perſon for all Promiſes. Free Grace, page 105. ——— All the Conditions were on Chriſts part, none on ours. There, p. 126. ——— In the New-Covenant God gives himſelf freely in Chriſt, undertaking all both with the Father and the Soul, nothing being required on mans part. There. p. 153. Thoſe Miniſters who preſs Repentance and Faith, do over-heat the wine of the Goſpel with Conditions and Qualifications; So the poor Souls cannot taſte it. In his Occaſional word. By ſundry others alſo, who incline in whole or in part to the Antinomian miſapprehenſions.

(f) The Conditionalneſs of the Covenant of Faith (or Grace) is on the contrary maintained by very many Eminently godly, learned, and judicious; yea the General current of ſound Writers, both Ancient and Modern, and thoſe both Forrain and Domeſtical, runs this way moſt unanimouſly: As ſhall hereafter particularly appear.

Reſolution

Resolution and Satisfaction to this Question, I shall do three things, viz. 1. Lay down the true State of the Question. 2. Assert and confirm that which shall be resolved upon as Truth by sundry Arguments. 3. Refute and answer such objections as are made, with any colour of strength, to the Contrary. And all this I shall endeavour with what brevity and perspicuity I can, as being more desirous to treat of this subject of the Covenant Doctrinally and Practically, then Polemically or Controversally.

I. As for the true state of the Question. viz. Whether the Covenant of Faith (usually stiled the Covenant of grace) be Conditional, or no? I offer these three things briefly to be considered for clearing of it, that so we may see wherein the very knot and point of difference lies, viz. 1. The Notation of the word [Conditional] or [Condition] 2. The Distinction or Distribution of [Conditions] into several sorts. 3. The particular Declaration and Signification thereupon in certain distinct Positions or Conclusions, wherein the true state of the Question consists. Hereby the Truth shall be more distinctively manifested, and more easily confirmed; as also all Objections to the contrary more readily and satisfactorily Answered.

First, As for the Notation of the word [Conditional] or [Condition,] I shall not stay much upon it. Conditional, is that which hath some Condition annexed or adjoyned to it. Condition is a Latin word, derived from (g) Condo, to lay up safe, to build, to found, to compose, to make up, to prescribe, &c. Hence [Condition] noteth, 1. Properly, The Action of making, framing or composing any thing. 2. Then The Passion in being made or composed, &c. 3. The Quality by which one frameth any thing, or whereby any thing is framed, &c. 4. Hence, its used for the State which is made by framing any thing. And hereupon for any State which any person, or thing, or Cause hath or receiveth any way. As, a man abounding with honour, wealth, &c. is said to be a man of a good Condition; viz. in respect of his outward State. So an house well builded, A Castle well defended, victualled, &c. A cause well set forth and managed, &c. are said to be in a good Condition. But none of these notions or Significations of a Condition so fitly agree to this present Question. 5. Condition is in a peculiar manner used to note, The Moderation, Circumscription, limitation or restriction of any thing: As by certain Exceptions, Provisoes, Terms, Qualifications, &c. propounded or imposed. Hence, Conditional is opposed to Absolute, Simple, &c. because A Condition is accounted amongst the ways, manners, or means, whereby any thing may be framed, obtained or compassed. And in this last sense chiefly the term Condition is to be understood in the Question in hand; Whether the Covenant of Faith be Conditional, or no? that is, whether God hath so framed and propounded in his word the Covenant of Faith to man, in and through Christ, as that he hath moderated, circumscribed, limited, restrained it with certain Terms, Proviso's, Obligations, Qualifications, yes and Duties imposed & requir'd of them

them that shall joyn in this Covenant with God: Or whether this Covenant be not laid down absolutely and simply, without any limitation or imposition of Qualifications, Terms, Tythes or Duties at all upon these that enter into this Covenant with God? But enough touching the Notation of the word [Conditional] or [Condition.]

Secondly, Come we to the Distribution or Distinguishing of Conditions thus taken, into their several sorts: And all with special reference had therein to Gods Covenants. Conditions, in reference to Gods Covenants, may be Considred, 1. Most largely. 2. More Restrictively. 3. Most Strictly.

1. Most largely. So, Conditions imply to us, Any Qualifications, Dispositions, Terms, Tyes, Duties or Performances whatsoever, in any sort imposed upon us, or required from us by God, in reference to his Covenant: whether these conditions be, 1. Antecedent, or Going before; 2. Concomitant, or accompanying; 3. Consequent, or following Our entring into, or joyning in Covenant with God, in order to Justification, or Salvation.

(1) Conditions Antecedent, or Going before Gods Covenanting with man, especially before his Conversion, Regeneration and Justification wherein the Covenant is effectually and savingly struck betwixt God and man, Are asserted variously. And such Conditions may be referred chiefly to these three heads. viz. 1. Meritorious. 2. Impulsive. 3. Preparatory.

Meritorious Conditions the Papists in effect assert. As Bellarmine their grand champion saith; (h) A man not reconciled may by works of repentance, impetrate, and of congruity merit the Grace of justification, as was demonstrated in the first Book; why may not therefore the self-same man, when he is just and the friend of God, impetrate, and of Congruity merit reparation, if perphaps he shall fall? This his congruous merit by works of repentance in a person unreconciled, he makes an Antecedent Meritorious Cause or Condition of Justification, and consequently of Covenanting with God whereby justification is actually applyed. But we deny all merit in man: much more all Meritorious Conditions or dispositions in unreconciled man to Gods Covenant of Faith or Justification. Acknowledging only Christs pre-ordained merit, to be the sole Antecedent Meritorious Cause or Condition of our Covenanting with God, Justification and Salvation.

Impulsive Conditions Moving and inclining God to work Faith in one rather then in another, and to regenerate one rather then another (and consequently to bring one into Covenant with God effectually rather then another) the Arminians seem to maintain. One said; (i) littleness & humility is pre-required of God as a Condition, unto this, that he will beget Faith in Paul rather in Caiaphas. Another said; (k) That

(h) Potest homo nondum reconciliatus per opera pœnitentiæ impetrare, & mereri ex congruo gratiam justificationis, ut in primo libro demonstratum est cur igitur non poterit idem ipse, dum est justus & amicus Dei impetrare & mereri ex congruo reparationem, si fortè labatur? Bellar. Tom. 4. l. 5. de Justificat. cap 22.

pag. 117. (k) Resipiscentiam, fidem, & mandatorum etiam præstationem, prærequiri ad hoc, ut particeps quis fiat promissorum fœderis novi, inter quæ est regeneratio. Episcop. in Thes. privat. Disp. 3 & 40. Vid. etiam D. Ames. Coron. in Artic. 3. de Causa fidei, Thes. 3. Videatur etiam Armin. in Articul. nonnul. viz. In Artic. de vocatione peccatorum ad Communionem cum Christo, &c. page 782. 783. Edit. 1631.

Repentance, Faith, and even the performance of the Commandments are pre-required, unto this, that any one become partaker of the promises of the New-Covenant, among which is Regeneration. But all such Impulsive or moving Causes or Conditions in the Creature, inclining God to bring man into Covenant of Faith with himself, or to give him the justifying or saving graces of the Covenant, we utterly reject and deny, as having no ground in Scripture: knowing that Gods meer Grace and εὐδοκία θελήματος, is the sole Antecedent Impulsive or moving Cause of his bringing one man rather then another into Covenant with himself, and into the grace of the Covenant, Rom. 3. 24. & 4. 16. & 5. 15, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21. & 9. 15, 16, 18. Eph. 1. 4, 5, 7, 9, 11.

Preparatory Conditions fitting and disposing, both for Entring into the Covenant of Faith with God, & for Regeneration and justification, the benefits of that Covenant, are divers: yet all given of God to us as well as required by God from us. As, 1. Hearing Gods Covenant Promulged, or preached. Thus (l) Noah, (m) Abraham (n) Israel at Mount Sinai, and (o) Men now under the New Testament, First heard, and hear the Covenant published to them, before they actually oyn with God in that Covenant. Till they hear it, they cannot know it: till they know it, they cannot actually and expressly consent to it. 2. Conviction of the necessity of such a Covenant-state, for Remedy of their Sin and misery. As, Israel terrifyed by promulgation of the Sinai-Covenant, discovering so much sin and wrath, were (p) Convinced of the Necessity of a Mediator in whom they might Enter into Covenant with God. Peters (q) hearers were for their Sins first pricked in their hearts; and then they came to close with the Covenant and promises by believing. 3. Effectual calling is (in (r) order of Nature, if not in time) an Antecedent preparatory Condition which God works in men in order to their closing with him in his Covenant. Not only the outward call by the word, but also the inward Call by the Spirit, principling the heart with supernatural habits of Grace, as Self-denial, Faith, Repentance, &c. (in which work the heart is meerly Passive) is a Necessary Preparation to actual entring into Covenant with God. For, by the actual exercise of true Faith, Assenting and applying, we actually accept Gods Covenant, and Justification: Now the Habit in order of Nature and Causality, must go before the Act; we must have Faith, self-denial, Repentance, &c. before we can use or exercise Faith, or any of them Paul makes Vocation preparatory to Justification; (s) whom he predestinated them he called: whom he called them he Justified. First called: then justified. Thus God (t) first called Abraham from his idolatrous and ungodly Condition: and then brought him into Covenant with himself & justified him. His Calling was a Preparatory Condition or Qualification in order to his Covenanting with God and justification. These and like Antecedent Preparatory Conditions or Qualifications rendring the subject capable and more immediately fit for Entring into Covenant with God

God in Christ, God requires of us, and works in us. But as for any Antecedent Preparatories, as in and from our selves, by any power of Free-will, Disposing to accept Grace tendered, or to persevere in Grace received, or to merit Grace or Glory; such Preparations we utterly deny and disallow, as impossible to the corrupt state of man, and as utterly inconsistent with the riches of the Grace of God.

Here also it may be noted, how (u) Some distinguish (and not amiss) of the Promises of the Covenant of Grace; That some of them are Conditional, viz. those that concern the end itself, enjoyment of God in Heaven, Salvation, &c. That others are absolute, viz. those that concern the way and means, to the end, which God promiseth absolutely to give.

(u) Intelligere te oportet, &c. Thou must understand that the promises of God are, Either concerning the end itself, viz. Mans enjoyment of God in eternal happiness, and the Salvation of our souls; Or such as Concern the way and means unto that End. Now those which do concern the end, are indeed Conditional, that no profane person should dare to stretch forth his hand to the Tree of Life. But lest there should be none to whom these Promises may appertain, for we all come short of the Condition; he hath made promises of the Conditions themselves, and made them pure, free, simple, absolute, nullis conditionum articulis circumscriptas, not circumscribed with any Articles of Conditions at all. Abbots in Thom. Dict. page 148.

(2) Conditions Concomitant, or Accompanying Gods Entring into Covenant with man, are, the Acting, Actual exercising, using or putting forth of such Preparatory Habits of Grace as are already Received, to close with God Actually in his Covenant, according as the Nature of his Covenant requires. Thus God requires of them that joyn in Covenant with him,

The Acting of self-denyal, by an holy self-resignation and self-renouncing: As in (x) Abraham; when God Covenanted with him, he must actually deny, and depart from his Country, kindred and Fathers house. Paul (y) actually denyed all self-righteousnes, and self-excellencies, as loss and dung for the excellency of the Knowledge of Christ, and for Christs righteousnes by Faith. Christ (z) requires all that come to him to deny themselves. The (a) Grace of God, the Gospel, teaches all that would walk with God according to his Covenant, to deny all ungodliness and worldly lusts.

(y) Phil. 3. 4. to 12.
(z) Luke 9. 23.
(a) Tit. 2. 11, 12.

The Acting of Repentance. Thus Christ began to preach the Gospel, or Covenant of God; (b) Repent ye, and believe the Gospel. Thus Peter directs his heart-wounded Hearers; (c) Repent, — for the promise is to you and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

(b) Mark 1. 15.
(c) Acts 2. 38, 39.

The Acting of Faith. Taking the Lord for their God, and Consenting thereby to be his people. In the Sinai-Covenant's (d) solemn Sanction, Moses with a bunch of Hyssop actually sprinckled one half of the blood of the sacrifices on the People, as the other half on the Altar: Hereby teaching them actually to apply by Faith the blood of Christ to themselves in whom God accepted them as his Covenant-people. Christ preached; (e) Believe the Gospel. The Apostle Paul and Silas preached the New Covenant thus to the Jaylor

(d) Exod. 24. 6, 7, 8. with Heb. 9. 18, 19, 20.
(e) Mark 1. 15.

Jaylor trembling, and saying, Sirs, what must I do to be saved? (e) —Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house. No one Duty is more pressed then (g) Believing actually, to them that would close actually in Covenant with God.

The Acting of Love. The Sinai-Covenant, the Old Testament, was (h) a Marriage-Covenant betwixt God and Israel. And this Marriage-Covenant, in the Nature of it, required the mutual Acting and exercising of their love to God: This therefore was the great Commandment conditioned in the Sinai-Covenant; (i) Thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, with all thy Soul, and with all thy might.

(3) Conditions Consequent, or Following Gods taking man into Covenant with himself, are such Duties or Performances, as God requires from a people in Covenant with him, and which flow from a true Covenant-state, as the proper Fruits, Effects and Consequents thereof. As, Sincere universal and Constant Evangelical Obedience to God according to the mandatory part of his Covenant. Thus, God (k) Covenants with Noah to save him and his family in an Ark by water from the General deluge; but Noah, after this Covenant, must be obedient fully to God, in making, entring into and Continuing in the Ark. God Covenants with Abraham, (l) that in his Seed all the families of the Earth should be blessed, &c. but after this, Abraham must walk before God (viz. in all true Faith and obedience) and be perfect. And particularly, himself and all his males must be Circumcised throughout their generations, in token of this Covenant. God Covenants with Israel at Mount Sinai, (m) to be their God, to raise them up Christ a Prophet and Mediatour from among themselves, &c. but after this, Israel must walk in all upright obedience to all Gods Laws and Commandments in an Evangelical sense. (n) O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my Commandments always, that it might be well with them and their children for ever. God Covenants with the Babylonish Captives, (o) to give them a New heart and spirit, &c. but after this they must walk in his Statutes, and keep his judgements, and do them. The like be said of all expressions of the Covenant of Faith.

Renewing Covenant with God by renewed Repentance, in case of Covenant-breaches or backslidings. Thus God tels Israel; (p) if they shall forsake the Covenant of the LORD God, to serve other Gods, so that the Lord thereupon shall root them out of Canaan, and disperse them into strange Countries, yet if they shall Return unto the Lord their God, and obey his voice according to all that he commanded them, then he would gather them again, &c. promising to Circumcise their heart to this effect. ——And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the LORD. (q) God commands renewing of Repentance, in case

(q) Of them that slip aside and transgress the Covenant, God calleth for and commandeth repentance, that is, It is his will and Command, that they bethink themselves of their evil-doings, confess their iniquities, and turn unto the Lord. The frequent frequent and earneſt exhortations of the Prophets made to backſliding and rebellious Iſrael, that ſhe ſhould acknowledge her wickedneſs and return unto the Lord (Ier. 3. 7. 22. & 4. 1, 2.) is a full Commentary, of that which God required of them in this Covenant, in caſe they ſhould turn away from the Holy Commandment. The Lord proteſteth by his Prophet Ezekiel, That he hath no pleaſure in the death of him that dyeth, but rather that he ſhould repent and live. Ezek. 18. 27, 28, 31, 32. & 33. 11, 12. And the ſame for ſubſtance he made known to Iſrael in the Covenant which he ſtroke with them: viz. That if they tranſgreſs and go aſtray, he doth Admit, will accept and approve, nay Command their unfained repentance, and coming home unto the Lord, that they might live. caſe of all failings againſt the Covenant, promiſing re-acceptance of his people thereupon.

Thus of Conditions in reference to Gods Covenant, Conſidered moſt largely.

2. More Reſtrictively, So, The Condition of the Covenant of Faith doth more peculiarly and ſingularly import to us, That ſpecial Inſtrumental Cauſe, or Mean whereby we accept or Receive the Federal Benefits promiſed, which is only true Faith. And (r) by this Condition of Faith, The Covenant of Faith or Grace is moſt directly oppoſed and contradiſtinguiſhed from the Covenant of Works; the ſpecial Condition whereof was Works, done by a mans own ability. This Faith is ſo ſingular and eminent a Condition of this Covenant, that both Covenant, Federal benefits, and Federal parties in Covenant with God, receive their Denominations from Faith. The Covenant is ſtiled (s) The Law of Faith: The Federal righteouſneſs of it, (t) The righteouſneſs of Faith: and The Federates with God, (u) They which be of Faith. In this ſenſe (x) one ſaid well; Faith hath the greateſt honour above all other Graces, to be the Condition of the Covenant. And to this effect (y) another ſaid much better then he; The ſtipulation required, is, That we take God to be our God: that is, that we repent of our iniquities, believe the Promiſes of mercy and embrace them with the whole heart, and yield love, fea, reverence, worſhip and obedience unto him according to the preſcript rule of his word. Repentance is called for in this Covenant, as it ſetteth forth the ſubject capable of Salvation by Faith; but is it ſelf only an acknowledgement of ſin, no healing of our wound or cauſe of our accquittance. —— By Repentance we know our ſelves, we feel our ſickneſs, we hunger and thirſt after grace: But the hand which we ſtretch forth to receive it, is Faith alone; without which Repentance is nothing but darkneſs and deſpair. Repentance is the Condition of Faith, and the Qualification of a perſon capable of Salvation: But faith alone is the Cauſe of Juſtification and Salvation on our part required. It is a penitent and petitioning Faith whereby we receive the Promiſes of mercy: but we are not juſtified partly by Prayer, partly by Repentance, and partly by Faith; but by that Faith which ſtirreth up godly ſorrow for Sin, and enforceth us to pray for pardon and Salvation. Faith is a neceſſary and lively Inſtrument of Juſtification, which is amongſt the number of true Cauſes, not being a Cauſe without which the thing is not done, but a Cauſe whereby it is done, &c. After which diſcourſe he thus winds it up towards a Concluſion; —— If then, when we ſpeak of the Conditions of the Covenant of Grace, by Conditions ditions we understand what is required on our part, as Precedent, Concomitant, or Subsequent to Justification, Repentance, Faith and Obedience are all Conditions: but if by Condition we understand what is required on our part, as the Cause of the good promised, though only Instrumental, Faith or Belief in the Promises of free Mercy is THE ONLY CONDITION.

3. Most strictly, A Condition of a Covenant may import such a Restipulation from man to God, as God requires to be perfectly in all parts and degrees, and constantly performed by him in his own person, without the least failer or default: otherwise the Covenant to be broken. Now [Condition] taken in this extremity of strictness and rigour, without any terms of Moderation or Mercy at all, in case of the least default, was the Condition of the Covenant of works. According to that; (z) Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the Book of the Law to do them. Wherein, 1. Perfect, and 2. Perpetual, 3 Personal obedience, is the rigorous Condition required: without which the Curse could not be avoided.

(z) Gal. 3. 10. Deut. 27. 26.

Thirdly, These things thus Premised, The true State of the Question may be declared in these few Positions following, Touching the CONDITIONALITY of the Covenant of Faith. viz.

1. No Condition (taken in the Most strict & rigorous sense) is imposed or required by God upon, or from his People in any dispensation of the Covenant of Faith, so as the least Gradual failing of that compleat exactness should utterly dissolve and break the Covenant. Such an exact rigorous obedience was the Condition of the Covenant of Works, imposed on Adam in innocency: whose failing in one act, utterly brake and dissolved the Covenant of works, so that it became totally impossible both for him, and all his sinful posterity, ever to keep, or to be justified by the Covenant of works any more. But no Condition, neither of Faith, nor of repentance, nor of obedience, &c. is in such rigorous sense required or imposed in the Covenant of Faith, in any expressure of it: but every Condition is Evangelically lenified and sweetned with the adjunct of Integrity and Sincerity. (a) Unfained faith is accepted; though attended with some gradual weakness and imperfection: (b) sincere, upright uniform obedience is accepted: though accompanied with sundry defects and infirmities. In this Covenant God requires strict, exact and perfect obedience: but accepts sincere, uniform, impartial obedience. Cals for exactness: accepts uprightness. If exactness were not required: gradual failings and other infirmities would not be reputed sins, mourned for, and striven against. If uprightness were not accepted, no flesh could be justified or saved.

(a) 1 Tim. 1. 5.

(b) Psal 19. 12. 17. & 119. 6.

2. No Antecedent Conditions, in, or from man, as Impulsive or Meritorious to his Covenant-state, are required or admitted at all in this Covenant of Faith. In man, out of Covenant with God, there can be no Antecedent Cause or Condition either Meriting from God, of Condignity or of Congruity, Congruity, to be brought into Covenant with him, or to be partaker of justification, or any other saving benefit of the Covenant from him: Or Moving and inclining God to bring him into Covenant with himself. All such (c) Antecedent Conditions we utterly disclaim, as wholly inconsistent with this gratuitous Gospel-Covenant of Faith. Antecedent Impulsives or Motives in man, we leave to the Remonstrants and Papists: Antecedent Merits to the Papists. The Perfectest believers cannot properly merit, at all: much less unbelievers. See Romans 11. 35, 36. Job. 22. 2. & 35. 4, 5. Rom. 3. 12. Luke 17. 10.

(c) True it is the Promises run upon this Condition; If ye obey my voice, and do my Commandments; But Conditions are of two sorts, Antecedent, or Consequent. Antecedent, when the Condition is the cause of the thing promised or given, as in all Civil contracts or justice, where one thing is given for another. Consequent, when the Condition is annexed to the Promise, as a Qualification in the Subject, or an Adjunct that must attend the thing Promised. And in this later sense, obedience to the Commandments, was a Condition of the Promise: Not a cause why the thing Promised was vouchsafed; but a Qualification of the Subject capable, or a Consequence of such great mercy freely conferred. Mr. Io. Ball in his Treat. of the Covenant, chap. 8. pag. 132, 133. Lond. 1645.

3. In the restrictive Sense, unfained Faith, and that alone, is the Condition of the Covenant of Faith. Faith alone being that supernatural Instrument whereby a man actually on his part (through the grace of God) accepts the Covenant, and the Promised Mercies of the Covenant.

4. If we understand Conditions most largely. So the Covenant of Faith admits of, and requires many supernatural Conditions, Both Antecedent, for Preparing supernaturally for the Covenant; And Concomitant, for closing with the Covenant; and Consequent, for suitable walking according to the Covenant afterwards. As hath been explained.

And according to these two last Positions only, we Assert and Maintain, that The Covenant of Faith, or Grace is Conditional.

II. For Confirmation of this Assertion of the Conditionality of the Covenant of Faith, thus stated, (as the Plain and evident Truth,) I offer these few Arguments or Reasons briefly.

1. The very Nature of all Gods Covenants with man, doth necessarily imply and require therein, Conditions, Terms, Restipulations, Re-promissions, Re-engagements from man to God: without which, nothing can properly and exactly be called a Covenant. God (among other wayes) expresseth his will to man, by Promise, by Threats, by Command, by Covenant. Every of these, in the Nature of the thing, have a precise and peculiar propriety of essence, differencing and distinguishing them one from another. By Promise, God declares what Good he will do for man: By Threatning, he declares what evil he will inflict upon man: By Command, he declares what Duty and Performance he expects from man: But by Covenant, he declares, both what Mercies and Blessings he will on his part perform to man; and what Duties man should on his part perform reflexively towards God. This is the proper Nature of a Covenant. It comprieth in it, mutual Consent and Agreement of the Federates about some mutual performances, and reciprocal obligations.

ons. A bare naked Promiſe holds forth Mercy from God, but not any Duty from man; A bare naked Command holds forth Duty from man, but not any Mercy or Bleſſing from God: But A Covenant wherein God and man Convene and agree, holds forth, both Mercy from God, and Duty from man. So that, A Promiſe, or a Command, in the preciſe nature thereof, may be without mutual obligation: but a Covenant hath in it always a mutual obligation betwixt God and man, the Federal parties. To ſpeak therefore of a Covenant of God with man without Conditions required on Mans part, is a Contradiction in the Adject. Whatſoever Promiſe hath in it the Proper Nature of a Covenant; is Conditional, expreſly or implicitly: and whatſoever Promiſe is Conditional, hath in it the Nature of a Covenant. All Gods Covenants with man, are either Of works, or of Faith. In the Covenant of works before the Fall, God Promiſed perpetual Life to man in Paradiſe: but ([d]) conditioned with man to perform perfect and perpetual obedience to God in his own perſon, otherwiſe he ſhould dy the Death. In the Covenant of Faith ſince the Fall, God promiſeth lapſed mans Reſtauration by Jeſus Chriſt: but ([e]) conditioneth with man to believe in Jeſus Chriſt, otherwiſe he ſhould not ſhare in that Reſtauration.

([e]) Rom 10. 6. &c. John 3. 15, 16, 18, 36. Mark 16. 16.

2. God hath expreſly or implicitly impoſed upon his Covenant-people ſuch Conditions and terms as theſe, by the Covenant of Faith in all the obſervable Expreſſures, and Diſcoveries thereof. Such Re-ſtipulations, Re- Performances, Re-promiſſions, &c. God ſtill requires and conditions from them, that will lay hold of his Covenant, and mean to approve themſelves his true Covenant-people. And therefore his Covenant of Faith muſt needs be Conditional. The Conſequence is undeniable. The Antecedent alſo is eaſily cleared by Induction of Particulars. For, 1. In the firſt Expreſſure of the Covenant of Faith from Adam to Noah, God Promiſed Explicitly ([f]) to put an enmity betwixt the Seed of the woman (viz. Primarily, Chriſt, Secondarily, his Members) and the Serpent and his Seed; that is, Satan and the wicked: and that The Womans Seed ſhould bruiſe the Serpents Head. But withal God conditioned implicitly with the woman's Seed Chriſt and his Members, That Chriſt ſhould fight againſt, and ſubdue the Devil and his Seed Efficaciouſly and meritoriouſly; and that all his Members ſhould renounce the Serpent and his Seed, and fight againſt them by Goſpel-faith and obedience in Chriſt that they might bruiſe his Head. 2. In the ſecond Expreſſure of the Covenant, from Noah till Abraham, God promiſed ([g]) to ſave Noah and his Family in the Ark by water from the general Flood: but yet God Conditioned with Noah, that he ſhould believe this his ſalvation by ſuch Means, and that he ſhould obey God in Preparing an Ark, in laying up neceſſary proviſion in it, in Entring into it, and Continuing in it till the Flood ſhould be abated. 3. In the third Covenant Expreſſure, from Abraham till Moſes, God Promiſed to Abraham ([h]) to be a God to him and his Seed, to make all the

the Nations of the Earth blessed in his Seed, to give them the Land of Canaan, &c: but yet indented and Conditioned with Abraham; (i) to deny his Countrey, Kindred, and Fathers House; To believe in the Lord, To walk before him and be perfect, and To submit himself and all his Male-Seed to the token of the Covenant Circumcision. 4. In the fourth Covenant-Expressure from Moses till David, God Promised, (k) To be A God to Israel, (l) To raise them up Christ a Prophet and Mediatour like Moses from among themselves, (m) To give them his Sanctifying Spirit, and many Spiritual blessings, (n) To superadd to them Canaan, and many Temporals, and at last to crown them with Eternal life: but withall God Conditioned and Articled with them, (o) That they should be his Covenant-people, (p) That they should keep his Covenant by true Faith and sincere impartial obedience to all his Commandments, And he declared unto them his Covenant, which he commanded them to perform, even ten Commandments. And (q) That in case of any contrary failings, they should bethink themselves, repent, and return to God. 5. In the fifth Covenant-Expressure from David till the Babylonish Captivity, God Promised; (r) To stablish Davids Seed for ever, To set up the fruit of his body upon his Throne, To build up his Throne to all Generations, &c. But withal conditioned with David, (s) If thy children will keep my Covenant and my Testimony, that I shall teach them; otherwise, he would visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes, &c. 6. In the sixth Covenant-Expressure from the Babylonish Captivity till Christ, God Promised to his people; (t) To gather them out of all Countries whither he had driven them, To bring them back to their own Land and cause them to dwell safely, To be their God, not to turn away from them to do them Good, &c. But withal he conditioned with them, (u) That they should be his people, That they should not depart away from him, but fear him for ever, &c. 7. Finally, In the seventh and last Covenant-Expressure, the New-Covenant, God Promiseth to his people, (x) To put and write his Law in their hearts and minds, To be their God, To make them all know the LORD, To be merciful to their unrighteousnesses, To remember their sins and their iniquities no more: But withal agreeth and conditioneth with them; (y) To be his people, (which one Condition hath all other Conditions in it), (z) To draw near with a true heart, with full assurance of Faith, &c. To hold fast the Profession of our Faith, without wavering, To Consider one another, to provoke unto Love and good works, &c. And elsewhere, (a) From the Covenant-promises we are pressed to perfect Sanctification. Thus the whole series of the Covenant of Faith, from first to last, is propounded, in all the noted Discoveries of it, with Conditions, and Duties required from Gods Covenant-people: and therefore it is Conditional throughout in all ages. He that sees not this, is either a great Stranger to the Scriptures, or he wilfully shuts his eyes against the light thereof.

3. The many ([b]) Cautions, Warnings, and Threatnings annexed to the Covenant of Faith in all the several Discoveries thereof, against breaking, violating or transgressing Gods Covenant, by unbelief or disobedience; do eminently imply, That the Contrary Duties, or keeping of that Covenant, are required and Conditioned in the Covenant of Faith. And consequently that it is Conditional.

4. Without such Federal Conditions, Terms or Qualifications as these, None can be duly prepared for the Covenant of Faith, or be actually stated in and partakers of the Covenant of Faith and the federal benefits thereof, nor can converse and walk suitably and agreeably to the Covenant of Faith. Therefore such Conditions are in their place and kind, Necessary to the Effectual Application of the Covenant, and Covenant-benefits unto us: For, Our Covenant-Preparation; Our Covenant-Participation; and our Covenant Conversation. 1. How should we be Prepared for Entring into Covenant with God, without some such Antecedent Preparatory Conditions as these; viz. ([1]) Hearing Gods Covenant preached: ([2]) Conviction of the Necessity of a true Covenant-state in Christ: ([3]) And effectual Calling, instilling supernatural abilities and principles for closing actually with the Covenant? 2. How should we actually close with God in this Covenant, without the Acting or Actual exerting and exercising of ([1]) Self-Denial; ([2]) Repentance; ([3]) Faith; ([4]) Love; and such like Concomitant Conditions? 3. How should we walk answerably to such a Covenant-state afterwards, without ([1]) Sincere, impartial, and Constant Gospel-obedience to God in Christ according to Covenant-Commands; ([2]) Renewing of Repentance in case of failings and backslidings; or such Consequent Covenant-Conditions? All which I have already proved to be Necessary Covenant Conditions, in Opening the State of the Question. And if these be so requisite to our Covenant-state: How can they but be Covenant-Conditions?

5. Such Conditions as these, do in no regard Eclipse, but rather much advance Both the Glory of Gods free Grace, And the Sweetness of our Consolation. Why then should it be thought harsh, strange, inconvenient, or any way prejudicial, to Assert the Conditionality of this Covenant of Faith?

([1]) These Conditions do not Eclipse, but Advance the riches and glory of Gods Free Grace. For, 1. All Antecedent Conditions, that might be be imagined or pretended, either to Merit any Covenant-blessing from God, Or as any Impulsive Cause to Move or incline God to admit us into Covenant with himself, are hereby utterly disclaimed and disavowed. 2. All these Covenant-Conditions allowed and Asserted, Antecedent, Concomitant and Consequent, are avowed by us to be wholly Supernatural; The meer fruits and effects of Divine Grace, not at all of humane Nature; wholly of God, and not of our selves at all: Of meer Grace, God contrived his Covenant for us, God revealed his Covenant to us, God Prepares us for his Covenant, God instates us in his Covenant, and of the same meer Grace he enables us to walk according to his Covenant proportionably: All is entirely of his meer Grace. Therefore herein we take no Glory at all to our selves, but return the whole glory entirely to God alone. For (c) what have we, but we have received it of him? He (d) works in us both to will and to do, of his good pleasure. He (e) draws, and we come. He (f) quickens us: and then lives in us, and we by him. He works all in us, and for us (g) without whom we can do nothing. To him we herein ascribe, The first Grace, principling us; and the second Grace, actuating those Principles: Preventing Grace, and subsequent Grace: Operating Grace, and Cooperating Grace; (h) Knocking Grace, Opening Grace, Entring Grace: we ascribe all to him, and to his Grace. (i) For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. 3. The Apostle tell us, That the special Condition of Faith, whereby we receive the Covenant and Covenanted inheritance, is most subservient to Grace, saying, (k) Therefore it is of Faith, that it might be by Grace. If the inheritance were by works, it should be of debt: but being by faith, it is of Grace. Faith and Grace go together. Grace freely gives, Faith alone receives: Grace is the Fountain: Faith the Cistern.

(2) These and like Conditions do not eclipse but augment the sweetness of our Consolations also. For, 1. By these Preparatory Conditions, we are comfortably Qualified to be subjects capable of the Covenant. 2. By these Concomitant Conditions we are Comfortably enabled to accept and lay hold upon Gods Covenant, who by Nature are strangers to the saving benefits of his Covenant. And the (l) Promise is made sure to all the believing Seed. 3. By these Consequent Conditions we are Comfortably conformed in our Conversation to the tenour of Gods Covenant which we have accepted. 4. By all these Conditions, we are Comfortably distinguished from all People that are strangers to Gods Covenants; And we may comfortably try our selves, and discover whether we be in a good Covenant-state or no.

(l) Rom. 4. 16.

6. Many and great Absurdities, inconveniencies, paradoxes and incongruities must needs inevitably follow, upon denial of Conditionality to the Covenant of Faith. For, if in the Covenant of Faith, or in any one Expressure thereof, there be no Terms, Tyes, Restipulations, Re-obligations, Conditions, &c. imposed upon man, or expected from man: but all the Tyes and obligations be onely on Gods part.

(1.) Then, The Covenant of faith bindeth onely one, not both the Federates: God is bound by his Stipulation, man is not bound by any Reſtipulation. Now how abſurd, and contrary to the Nature of a Covenant is it, to think God to be under obligation to man, and yet man to be at liberty from God? Covenants imply reciprocal obligations between Federates.

(2.) Then, God and man may agree in one and the ſame Covenant of Faith as Federates: and yet man on his part never Conſent to the Covenant. For, Conſent to the Covenant by Faith, is one of the Conditions aſſerted on our part: but if there be no Conditions at all on our part, then there is no Conſent. How groſs and abſurd a Paradox is this, to imagine, Mans Covenant-agreement with God, yet without Conſent?

(3.) Then, Thoſe that become Federates with God in the Covenant of Faith, have no more covenant-obligation, bond, tye, or Duty lying upon them, after their cloſing in Covenant with God, then before. They are no more bound to fear, love, obey, ſerve, walk with God, after Covenanting with him in Chriſt, then before. For, the Covenant brings no Tye or Condition upon them, but leaves them looſe. How abſurd! This makes Gods Covenant a very looſe Covenant, a very licentious Covenant: and therein God to have very ill provided for his own worſhip and ſervice.

(4.) Then, A man may be in Covenant with God, and yet not differ at all by any inward Covenant-qualification, or outward Covenant-converſation from them that are out of Covenant. For, they that are out of Covenant with God, are deſtitute wholly of all ſalvifical Covenant-conditions: and (according to this opinion) ſo is he. So that in this regard, it had been as good for him to have been ſtill without, as within a Covenant-ſtate.

(5.) Then, Gods Covenant-people have no Goſpel-rule written, for their faith and obedience. For they (according to this fond opinion) have no tye or Condition at all impoſed upon them in this Covenant of Faith; therefore the Condition of Faith and the Condition of Obedience is not thereby enjoyned them: conſequently if it be not required by the Covenant of Faith, it is not required in all the Scripture. For ſince the Fall, The whole Scripture, which is Goſpel, is taken up with Propounding or Expounding the Covenant of Faith in Chriſt in one reſpect or another, throughout all the various diſpenſations thereof.

(6.) Then, Neglect of thoſe grand comprehenſive Chriſtian duties, Faith and Obedience to God in Chriſt, is no ſin. For the Covenant of Faith (think they) doth not impoſe or require theſe Conditions and Duties: Conſequently no Scripture requires them. How can it be then any Sin to neglect them? For (m) where there's no Law, there's no Tranſgreſſion. And what is ſin, if this be not ſin?

(m) Rom. 4. 15. & 5. 13.

(7) Then

(7.) Then, The Having, and Using of faith and obedience towards God in Iesus Christ, is not the way to Heaven and eternal Salvation. Why? because (according to this opinion) the Covenant of Faith, which peculiarly chalks out to us the true way to Heaven and Salvation, yet requires no such Conditions at all from us, as Faith and Obedience, in order to eternal Salvation. But this is notoriously (n) contrary to the Covenant and Scriptures, teaching, that without them there's no Salvation.

(n) Mark. 16. 16. Joh. 3. 18. 36. Heb 11. 6. 2 Thes. 1. 8. Heb. 12 14. Rom. 2. 14. to the end.

(8.) Then, Faith and Obedience to God in Iesus Christ were will-worship, un-instituted, un-required of God. For, if the Covenant of Faith do not require them, do not indent and condition for them, No Scripture since the Fall requires them: All Scripture being wholly taken up one way or other about this Covenant of Faith. And if they be not (o) required from us, how shall they be excused from will-worship, and being inventions of man? God then may say, (p) Who required these things at your hands?

(o) Jer. 7. 31. & 32. 35. (p) Isa. 1. 12.

(9.) Then, The Pagans, that are utter aliens to Gods Covenant of Faith, are as much tyed to Duties of Religion, as true Christians that are Federates with God in Christ. For, these are (after this opinion) tyed to no duties, terms or conditions, by Covenant: and those, as well as Christians, are tyed by the (q) Law and light of Nature in the Natural conscience, to believe, obey, worship and serve the true God, that hath made Heaven and Earth.

(q) Rom. 1. 18. to the end. & 2. 14, 15, 16.

(10.) Then, Finally, The Gospel-Ministry and Ordinances of Christ both under Old and New Testament, (r) intended and given of God to his Church, For preparing man for Christ, for espousing man savingly to Christ, And for guiding men conscienciously in Christ unto perfection, Are altogether vain and useless. For (according to this opinion) All Conditions tending to prepare for Christ, unite to him, or to give Communion with him, are denyed. But the Scriptures abundantly testifie, That Gods Covenant of Faith appoints A Gospel-Ministry and Ordinances for the said end, to continue in his Church till the worlds end.

(r) Math 28. 18, 19, 20. Act. 26. 18. Eph. 4. 8. to 14. 2 Cor. 5. 19, 20. 2 Cor. 11. 2. 1 Cor. 11. 26.

From all this its plain, that to deny the Conditionality of the Covenant of Faith, is an Absurd opinion with a witness, that dashes upon so many notorious and intolerable Absurdities.

7. The judgements of sound Writers, godly and learned, Ancient and Modern, Forreign and Domestique, do unanimously subscribe to the conditionality of the Covenant of Faith or grace, in the sense before stated and explained. And we are to (s) walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous: (t) and to follow them that are of the Truth, as they follow Christ and his Truth. Ancient Writers (I confess) speak more sparingly of Gods Covenant of grace, and so consequently of the Conditions therein required on our part: notwithstanding they frequently urge the necessity and use of Repentance, Faith, Obedience, &c. in order to the attainment of the respective blessings spiritual and eternal eternal promised, which is as much for substance. But Modern Writers proceed to more exact consideration of Gods Covenant, and plainly assert the conditionality thereof in expres terms. I offer here (u) in the Margin a brief Taste of their sense in this point to the Reader, whereby he may see that this conditionality of the Covenant is not any odd opinion of singularity, but a Truth very generally Received.

(u) Clement of Rome, who lived in the Apostles times, thus speaks of Gods expectation of Repentance in all that Convert to him; Ἀνῶμεν εἰς πάσας τὰς γενεὰς πάσας, &c. i. e. Let us consider all generations, and we may learn that in every generation the Lord hath given place of Repentance to them that were willing to Convert unto him. Noe preached Repentance, and those that obeyed him were saved. Jonas preached destruction to the Ninivites, but they that repented of their sins, pacified God with their prayers, and obtained salvation, although they were aliens to God, &c. Ezek. 23. 11. &c. Isa. 1. 16. &c. Therefore he willing that all his beloved ones should be partakers of Repentance, hath established it by his omnipotent will. Clem. Rom. in 1. Ep. ad Cor. p. 10, 11, 12. Edit. Oxonii. 1633. Thus he speaks of our Justification by faith alone, and not by good works; yet exhorts upon other grounds unto Good-Works; Καὶ ἡμεῖς διὰ, &c. And we being called by his will in Christ Jesus, are not justified by our selves, nor by our own wisdom, or understanding, or godliness, or works which we have wrought in holiness of heart: but by Faith, by which the Almighty God hath justified all from the beginning. To whom be glory unto ages of ages, Amen. What then shall we do, brethren? shall we cease from well-doing, and relinquish charity? The Lord doth by no means suffer this to be done of us: but let us hasten with all diligence and readiness of mind to finish every good work. We see all the just were adorned with Good works: and even the Lord himself adorning himself with works rejoyced, &c. ibid. pag. 41, 42, 43. And elsewhere he thus incites to obedience; Take we Enoch, who being found righteous in obedience, was translated, nor was his Death found. Noah being found faithful, by his Ministry he preached Regeneration to the world; and by him the Lord saved the Creatures which with Consent entred into the Ark. Abraham called the friend of God, was found faithful in that he became obedient to the words of God. He by obedience came out from his Country, and from his kindred, and from his fathers House, that leaving a little Country, and a weak kindred, and a small House, he might inherit the Promises of God Gen. 12. 1, &c. 13. 14, &c. 15. 5, &c. ibid. pag. 12, 13, 14, 15. And thus he elsewhere directs, in reference to the obtaining of Promised gifts, and the finding of Christ; Ἡμεῖς οὖν ἀγωνισώμεθα, &c. i. e. Let us therefore earnestly strive to be found in the number of them that wait for him, that we may partake the gifts promised. But how shall this be, beloved? If our mind be established on God by Faith, if we seek out things well-pleasing and acceptable to him, if we perform things agreeable to his inculpable will, and if we shall follow the way of Truth &c. ——This is the way beloved, in which we shall find our Saviour Jesus Christ, the High-Priest of our offerings, the supporter and succourer of our infirmity, &c ibid. pag. 45, 46, 47.

Justin Martyr, the Philosopher, Who wrote about 150. years after Christ, thus declares the necessity of Faith in Christ and repentance, &c. exhorting the Jews thereunto; Εἰ τις ἔστιν ἐν ὑμῖν ἐπίορκος, &c. i. e. If there be among you any perjured person, or Thief let him cease to sin: If any fornicator, let him repent; and keep true and joyful Sabbaths to God: If any have impure hands, let him wash them, and become pure. For Isaiah hath not sent you into a bath, that there you might wash away murders and other offences, which even the water of the sea is not sufficient to purge away: but, as is meet, this anciently was that salvifical washing, which was spoken to the penitent: nor are they any more purified with the blood of goats or sheep, or with the ashes of an heifer, or like oblations, but by faith through the blood of Christ, and his Death, who dyed for that very cause, as Isaiah saith; &c. ——Therefore by the Lavor of Repentance, and of the knowledge of God, which was instituted for the sins of Gods people, as Isaiahs cryes, we believe, and know, and preach; that very washing declared by him, which alone can purifie the penitent, to be the the water of Life. Justin Martyr in Dialog. cum Tryphon. Judæo. pag. 177. & 178. edit. 1593. And afterwards he saith; Abraham had not from God a testimony of his righteousness, for his Circumcision, but for his Faith. For before he was circumcised, thus it was said of him; And Abraham believed God, and that was reckoned to him unto righteousness. Wherefore we also in the uncircumcision of our flesh believing God through Christ, and obtaining that Circumcision which is profitable to the obtainers, viz. Circumcision of the Heart, we hope we shall appear just and well-pleasing unto God. ibid. pag 250. lin. 5. &c.

Cyprian, who wrote about 240. years after Christ, singularly commends Faith, as that whereby we are justified, whereby we receive the plentiful endowments of the Holy Ghost, and whereby we have all our ability; Fidem in totum prodesse: & tantum nos posse, quantum credimus. In Genesi; Et credidit Abraham Deo, & deputatum est ei ad justitiam. Cypr. Testimon. l. 3. f. 42. p 428. edit. 1593. And elsewhere, Non enim, qui beneficiorum terrestrium mos, in capessendo munere cœlesti, mensura ulla vel modus est: profluens largiter Spiritus nullis finibus premitur, nec coercentibus claustris intra certa metarum spatia frænatur. Manat jugiter: Exuberat affluenter. Nostrum tantum sitiat pectus, & pateat. Quantum illuc fidei capacis afferimus, tantum gratiæ inundantis haurimus. D. Cyprian. Epist. 2. S. 2. Edit. Goulart. p. 2, &c.

Ambrose who flourished in the year 374, &c. after Christ, thus speaks of the necessity of Faith to Salvation; Secundum propositum gratiæ Dei. Sic Decretum dicit à Deo ut cessante lege solam fidem gratiæ Dei posceret ad Salutem. —— Manifestè beati sunt, quibus sine labore vel opere aliquo remittuntur iniquitates & peccata teguntur, nullâ ab his requisitâ pœnitentiæ operâ, nisi tantum ut credant. Ambr. Comment. in Ep. ad Rom. C. 4. p. 189. edit. 1567. And elsewhere, speaking of the Law of the Spirit he saith; Hæc lex dat libertatem, solam fidem poscens: ut quia quæ non videt credit, de conditione erui mereatur. Com. in Ep. 2. ad Corinth. C. 3. pag. 299.

Hierom, who flourished in the 385. year after Christ, doth plainly assert certain Promises (which have special reference to the times of the New Testament) to be upon Condition; Illudque dicamus, quod etiamsi carnaliter sunt promissa Judæis, tamen sub Conditione sunt promissa. ut si suscepissent lumen suum quod ad eos missum fuerat, tunc etiam ista sequerentur. Quod viz. per desiderium auri, & opum abundantiam, rerumque carnalium, quarum semper ista gens capiatur illecebris, susciperent ad se missum Filium Dei: quem quia non susceperunt, universa sublata sunt, & susceipientibus spiritualiter reddita hæreditas. Hieronym. Comment. in Isaiam. cap. 60. pag. 228. A. B. Tom. 5. Edit. 1553.

Chrysostom, who flourished, in the year 398. after Christ, shews that God requires faith unto justification; Σωτηρίαν ἀκούσας, προσέθηκε καὶ δικαιοσύνην, &c. i. e. Hearing of Salvation, he added Righteousness and not thy righteousness, but Gods, subindicating the abundance and facility thereof. For thou dost not obtain it by sweatings and labours, but receivest it from the gift above, being onely one thing from within, To believe. Chrys. Homil. 2. in Ep. ad Rom. 1. 17 p. 28. A. Edit. Paris. 1633. And afterwards; How is it excluded, saith he? By what Law? of works? Nay, but by the Law of Faith. Lo, he cals even Faith a Law, persisting in the names, that he might lenifie the seeming newness. But what is the Law of Faith? To be saved by Grace. Hence he shews the power of God, that he not onely saves, but also justifies, and leads unto Glorying needing nothing of works, but requiring faith alone. ibid. Homil 7. in Epist. ad Rom. 3 27. pag. 79 A. B.

Augustine, who flourished in the year 420. after Christ, declares Faith to be fundamentally necessary, but such a faith as works by love, and produceth good Works; Fundamentum Christus est in structura Architecti sapientis 1 Cor, 3.—— Si autem Christus, proculdubio fides Christi: per fidem quippe habitat Christus in cordibus. sicut idem Apostolus dicit, Eph. 3. Porro fides Christi illa utique, quam definivit Apostolus, quæ per dilectionem operatur. Aug. de fide & oper. b. c. 16 pag. 71. D. Tom. 4 Edit. Basil. 1569. Again; Cum ergo dicit Apostolus, Arbitrari se justificari hominem per fidem sine operibus legis: Non hoc agit ut præcepta ac professa fide opera justitiæ contemnantur, sed ut sciat se quisque justificari, etiamsi legis opera non præcesserint. Sequuntur enim justificatum: non præcedunt justificandum. ibid cap. 14. p. 68. C. And elsewhere; Sicut per unius delictum in omnes homines in condemnacondemnationem, ut nullus prætermitteretur: ſic & in eo quod dictum eſt, per unius juſtitiam in omnes homines in juſtificationem vitæ, nullus prætermiſſus eſt. Non quia omnes in eum credunt, & baptiſmo ejus abluuntur: ſed quia nemo juſtificatur, niſi in eum credat, & baptiſmo ejus abluatur. De Natur. & Grat. contra Pelagian. cap. 41. page 750. D. Tom. 7. And a little after that; Ea quippe Fides juſtos ſanavit antiquos, quæ ſanat & nos; id eſt, mediatoris Dei & hominum hominis Ieſu Chriſti, fides ſanguinis ejus, fides crucis ejus, fides mortis & reſurrectionis ejus. ibid. cap. 44. page 751. D.

To mention no more Antient writers, come we to the Latter writers, forrein and domeſtique, who ſpeak more punctually and clearly to the matter in hand.

Calvin, that Apoſtolical man, Speaking of the Covenant mentioned in Hoſ. 2. thus expreſſeth the reciprocalneſs, and conſequently the Conditionality thereof; Nunc declarat quibus legibus hoc facturus ſit: nempe, In juſtitia & judicio: hoc eſt, in ejus fedele nihil fuit ſimulatum vel fallax. Quum ergo ſyncere Deus populum adoptaſset, quibus vitiis opponit juſtitiam & judicium? Reſpondeo, hæc nomina ad utramque partem contrahentem referri. Juſtitiam ergo Deus intelligit, non ſuam duntaxat, ſed quæ mutua ſit & reciproca, ut loquuntur. Joh. Calv. Com. in Hoſ. 2. 19. And afterwards; Et ipſa dicet mihi, Tu deus meus. Propheta enim ſignificat Deum antevertere nos fedele ſuo, quia alioqui arcemur ab acceſſu. Deus ergo ſponte nos prævenit & porrigit nobis manum, deinde ſubſequitur Conſenſus fidei noſtræ. ibid Comment. in Hoſ 2. 23.

Luther declares, that as God deals with us by Way of Promiſe We deal With him by way of Faith; Deus non aliter cum hominibus unquam egit, aut agit, quam verbo PROMISSIONIS: Rurſus nec nos cum Deo unquam agere aliquid poſſumus quam FIDE in verbum promiſſionis ejus. Opera ille nihil curat, nec eis indiget, quibus potius erga homines & cum hominibus & nobis ipſis agimus. Indiget autem ut verax in ſuis promiſsis in nobis habeatur, taliſque longanimiter ſuſtineatur, ac ſic Fide, Spe & Caritate colatur. Quo fit ut gloriam ſuam in nobis obtineat, dum non nobis currentibus, ſed ipſo Miſerente, Promittente, Donante, omnia bona accipimus & habemus. Luth. in Tom. 2. Latin. page 280 A.

Pete. Martyr, deſcribing the Covenant, aſſerts the mutual ſtipulation of the ſederates, viz. of God and his people to on another; Quæ autem Promiſſa utrinque ſervanda fuerint, Scriptura non ſemel docet. Deus enim pollicitus eſt, ſe futurum populi ſui Deum, nempe qui adſit ei juvando, eripiendo, & modis omnibus quoad omnia bonorum genera ornando. Populus viciſsim recepit ſe Dominum Iehovam pro Deo ſuo credendo, colendo & obediendo habiturum. Chriſtus autem in Federe, tanquam Mediator, inter utramque partem intercedit. Hæc eſt Federis inter Deum & homines initi Explicatio & natura. Pet. Mart. in Loc. Com. Claſs. Secund. Cap. 16 Sect. 1.

Cameron Deſcribes the Covenant of Grace by the expreſs mention of Faith in Chriſt as the Condition thereof, and aſſerts, that in that Covenant God ſtipulates and requires faith from us; Fedus Gratiæ eſt illud quo deus, propoſitâ conditione fidei in Chriſtum, remiſſionem peccatorum in ejus Sanguine, & vitam cœleſtem pollicetur, idque eo fine, ut oſtendat Divitias miſericordiæ ſuæ *Joh. Cameron. de tripl. Dei cum Homine Federe. Urſinus and Pareus, writing of that Common place, of Gods Covenant, do often expreſs the Conditionality of the Covenant of Grace; Fedus Dei eſt mutua pactio inter Deum & homines, quâ Deus confirmat hominibus, ſe futurum eis propitium, remiſſurum peccata, &c. viciſſim homines ſe obligant Deo ad fidem & pœnitentiam, hoc eſt, ad recipiendum vera fide hoc tantum beneficium, &c. Fedus dei eſt unum ſubſtantia, duplex Circumſtantiis: Seu, eſt unum, quod ad Conditiones principales, quas Deus nobis, & nos Deo ſtipulamur: & ſunt Duo quod ad Conditiones minus principales, vel ut alii loquuntur, quod ad modum adminiſtrationis. *Zach. Wendeline Wendeline, in his excellent Syſtem of Chriſtian Theology, deſcribing the Covenant of Grace, ſtill inſiſts upon the Conditionality thereof; Fedus Gratiæ, eſt diſpoſitio Dei Gratuita, quâ per mortem filii ſui ſalutem æternam promittit homimbus, obedientiam fidei repromittentibus & præſtantibus. Materia ſunt perſonæ ſeu partes Fedus ineuntes, 1. The four learned profeſſours of Leiden, viz. Poliander, Rivet, Walæus, and Thyſius, Though they deny the New Teſtament properly ſo called, to require the Condition of fulfilling the Whole Law in Bellarmines ſenſe; yet in another and ſound ſenſe they aſſert the Conditionality of the New Covenant: Sed hoc negamus, quod illi volunt, Novum Teſtamentum proprie dictum, quatenus eſt promiſſionis gratiæ in Chriſto datæ Doctrina, requirere Conditionem totius legis implendæ, quod vult Bellarmin. Juſtificat. lib. 4. cap. 2. aut juſtos non eſſe liberos ab obſervatione legis divinæ, quatenus illa exigit obedientiam perfectam, quâ ex debito juſtus aliquis pronunciatur. — Deinde, non omnem Conditionem negamus in Evangelio & Novo Teſtamento requiri ad Salutem: Requiritur enim Conditio Fidei & Novæ obedientiæ, quæ ubique urgetur. Sed hæ Conditiones à Deo gratis donantur; neque imperfectione ſuâ ſi modo ſinceræ ſint, impediunt ſalutem quæ ab alia cauſa manat. At non ita ſentiendum de conditione totius legis implendæ, quam ſtatuunt illi ſalutis Cauſam, & quæ à Deo nemini in hac vita donatur talis, ut judicium Dei ſuſtinere poſſit. *Iac. 3. 2. & 2. 10. Mr. John Ball, in his judicious Treatiſe of the Covenant of Grace, doth often mention the conditionality of the Covenant; As, (1) In the General Nature of it. Chap. 3. page 17, 18, 19, 20. The words I have heretofore expreſſed in this Queſtion. (2) In the Covenant of Promiſe with Adam; Of this Covenant there be two parts: 1. A Promiſe. 2. A Stipulation. — The Stipulation is, that they believe in him that juſtifieth the ungodly, and walk before him in all well-pleaſing. This may be gathered, becauſe the Promiſe of forgiveneſs cannot be received, but by Faith, and by Faith it is that we overcome the world; and vanquiſh Satan the enemy of our Souls, &c. Chap. 5. page 43, 44. (3) In the Covenant with Abraham; This Covenant was made in Form of a Promiſe, to be performed according to the purpoſe of Election: In thy Seed ſhall all nations of the earth be bleſſed: And in Form of a Covenant, Conſiſting of a Free Promiſe, and Reſtipulation: I am God All-ſufficient, walk before me, and be perfect. Chap. 6. pag. 48. (4) In the Covenant with Iſrael at Mount Sinai; True it is the Promiſes run upon this Condition, &c. (as I have formerly in this Queſtion Recited the words) Chap. 8. page 132, 133. And afterwards he adds; The Condition of This Covenant (in the ſenſe aforeſaid) is Faith in the promiſed Meſſiah, which is implyed in the Promiſe, I will be thy God; and Commanded in the Precept built upon it, Thou ſhalt have me to be thy God. Chap. 8. page 134. And again; Theſe words, do this and live, muſt not be interpreted, as if they did Promiſe life upon a Condition of perfect Obedience, and for works done in ſuch exactneſs as is required: but they muſt be expounded Evangelically, deſcribing the ſubject capable of life eternal not the cauſe why life and ſalvation is conferred. And by Doing, ſincere uniform impartial obedience; Not exact fulfilling of the Law in every Title, is to be underſtood. Chap. 8. page 136, 137. (5) In the Covenant with David; The Condition of this Covenant is that they ſhould walk in the waies of the Lord, and keep his watch, &c. Chap. 9. page 149 (6) In the deſcription of the New Covenant; The free Covenant which God of his rich Grace in Jeſus Chriſt incarnate, crucified dead buried, raiſed up to life, and aſcended up to heaven, hath made and plainly revealed unto the world of Jew and Gentile, Promiſing to be their God and father by right of Redemption, &c. — If they repent of their iniquities, believe in Chriſt, and through or by Chriſt in him, and walk before him in ſincere conſtant and Conſcionable Obedience. Chap. 1. of the New Covenant, page 198.

Mr. George Walker in his Compendious Treat. of Old and New Covenant, thus expreſſeth the Nature of a Covenant in General; viz. 1. Every true Covenant preſuppoſeth a Diviſion or Separation. 2. It comprehends in it a Mutual Promising and Binding betwixt two distinct Parties. 3. There must be faithful dealing without fraud or dissembling on both sides. 4. This must be between choise persons. 5. It must be about choise Matters and upon choise Conditions agreed upon by both. 6. It must tend to the wel-ordering and composing of things between them. Chap. 4. page 48, 49. Lond. 1640. Now if a Covenant in General, hath in it, Mutual Promising and binding of the federate parties, and choise Conditions agreed upon by both: consequently every particular species of a Covenant hath mutual Promising, binding, and Conditions. Again, touching the Covenant of Nature, he saith; The condition on mans part, was obedience to Gods Law, and subjection to God his Creator in all things, Chap. 5. page, 50. 51. And though he say; That in the Covenant of Grace there is not any condition or Law to be performed on mans part by man himself, as in the Covenant of Nature: yet he grants, That Certain Gifts, Graces, works and fruits of the Spirit; Outward, as the word Preached and Heard. The Sacraments given, and received, &c. Inward, as Faith by which Christ is received and applyed: Repentance, Love, Hope, and other saving Graces, are required to be in man to make him an actual partaker of Christ, and of life and Salvation in him. Chap. 5. page 55, 56. And this is as much as we assert, denying all conditions as of and from our selves, accounting all conditions or terms from us to be meer fruits of Gods grace.

Mr. William Pemble Opening the Nature of the Covenant of Grace and of works, for clearing the subject of Justification, saith; The Diversity is this, The Law offers life unto man upon Condition of perfect Obedience cursing the transgressors thereof in the least point with eternal Death: The Gospel offers life unto man upon another condition, viz. of Repentance and Faith in Christ, promising remission of sins to such as repent and believe. That this is the main essential and proper difference between the Covenant of works and of grace, that is, between the Law and the Gospel, we shall endeavour to make good against those of the Romish Apostacy who deny it. And after his proofs for it, saith, From whence we conclude firmly, that the difference between the Law and the Gospel assigned by our Divines, is most certain and agreeable to the Scriptures, viz. That the Law gives life unto the just, upon condition of perfect obedience in all things: The Gospel gives life unto sinners, upon Condition they repent and believe in Christ Jesus. Pemb. Treat. of Justif. Sect. 4. chap. 1. page 214, 215, 216, 217. Lond. An. 1635.

Mr. Joh. Owen saith; Are we of our selves any way more able to fulfil the Condition of the New Covenant? Is it not as easy for a man by his own strength to fulfil the whole Law, as to repent and savingly believe the Promise of the Gospel? This then is one main difference of these two Covenants; That the Lord did in the Old only require the Condition; now in the New he will also effect it in all the federates, to whom the Covenant is extended. In his Treat. of Redemp. Book 3. chap. 1. page 103. 104. Lond. 1648.

Mr. William Perkins, who by his left-handed Dexterity stabbed Popery to the heart, thus describes the Covenant of Grace; The Covenant of grace, is that whereby God, freely promising Christ, and his benefits, exacts again of man, that he would by Faith receive Christ, and repent of his Sins. Hos. 2. 18. 19. Ezek. 36. 25, 26, 27. Mal. 3. 1. The order of Causes of Salvation, Chap. 31. page 70. A. Vol. 1. Lond. 1626. And elsewhere saith; In the Covenant of grace two things must be considered: The Substance thereof, and The Condition. The Substance of the Covenant is, That righteousness and life everlasting is given to Gods Church and people by Christ. The condition is, that we for our parts, are by Faith to receive the foresaid benefits. And this Condition is by grace as well as the Substance, &c. Reformed Catholique, of Justificat. II. Difference about the manner of Justificat. page 571. B. C. vol. 1.

Mr. Edward Reynolds saith; In the New Covenant [illegible] works first. In the first Covenant man was able by his created and natural strength to work his own Condition, and so to Expect Gods performance: But in the New, As there is a difference in the things Covenanted; then only righteousness and Salvation; Now, remission of sins, and Adoption; In the means or intermediate Causes, which are now Christ and his righteousness and Spirit; In the stability, That a perishable, This an eternal and final Covenant that can never be changed; In the Conditions, There Legal obedience, Here only Faith and the certain Consequent thereof, thereof Repentance: So likewise is there difference in the manner of performing these Conditions; For now God himself begins first to work upon us and in us, before we move or stir towards him. He doth not only command us, and leave us to our created strength to obey the command; but he furnisheth us with his own grace and Spirit to fulfil the Command: and when he bids us come unto him, he doth likewise draw us unto him. The life of Christ. page 512. Lond. 1632.

The godly and learned Assembly of Divines, who have done more faithful service to Jesus Christ and his Church then any Provincial or National Synod or Convocation before them since England received the Gospel, thus set forth Gods Covenant: Man by his Fall having made himself uncapable of life by that Covenant, the Lord was pleased to make a Second, commonly called the Covenant of Grace; wherein he freely offereth unto sinners life and Salvation by Jesus Christ, requiring of them Faith in him that they may be saved, and promising to give unto all those that are ordained unto life, his Holy Spirit, to make them willing and able to believe. Confes. of Faith, chap. 7: Sect. 3. D

And elsewhere they express themselves yet more fully; The grace of God is manifested in the Second Covenant, in that he freely provideth and offereth to sinners a Mediator, and life, and Salvation by him: and requiring Faith as the Condition to intereſt them in him, promiseth and giveth his holy Spirit to all his Elect to work in them that Faith with all other saving graces, and to enable them unto all holy obedience, as the evidence of the truth of their faith and thankfulness to God, and as the way which he hath appointed them to salvation. Larger Catech. page 8. Lond. 1648. in quarto.

This Cloud of witnesses may suffice (though many more might easily be added) 1. To shew the Consent of writers to the Conditionality of the Covenant. 2. To clear yet further the true state of the Question. But thus much for Confirmation of the Covenants Conditionality.

III. Lastly, As for Refutation of Contrary Arguments or Objections, militating against the Conditionality of the Covenant, they may be easily Answered from due consideration of the Premises. I shall not need therefore to insist much upon them.

Arg. 1. (x) If the Covenant stands upon any Conditions to be performed on mans part, it cannot be an everlasting Covenant, except man were so confirmed in righteousness, that he should never fail in that which is his part. But man is not now so Confirmed. ——Man did fail in the Condition, while there were Conditions before in the first Covenant, and thereby the Covenant was frustrated.

(x) D. T. Crisp. Christ alone exalted. Serm. 6. page 160. Lond. 1643.

Answ. 1. True; The Covenant of Faith or Grace is a Final and (y) Everlasting Covenant, never to determine. 2. Its as True, That the Conditions which we Assert do no way prejudice the Covenants Perpetuity, but rather stablish it. The condition of Faith ensures the Promise; (z) Therefore it is of Faith, that it might be by Grace: to the end the Promise might be sure to all the seed. The Perpetuity of the Covenant stands not, is not founded or bottomed, upon Conditions in us: but upon Gods Free-grace, Inviolable Truth and faithfulness, and Christs Al-sufficient Everliving Merit. 3. The Objection holds Against Conditions most strictly taken, such as was Adams obedience to the First Covenant: but such Conditions we disclaim. Against Conditions Asserted, it holds not.

in the Covenant, as a Condition that must be observed on his part. The Covenant plainly shews, that the whole performance of the Covenant lies only upon God himself, and that there is not one bond or obligation upon man to the fulfilling of the Covenant, or partaking in the benefit of the Covenant, Heb. 8. 10. Joh. 6. 45. Ezek. 36. 25, 29. If there be a Condition, and there should be a failing in the Condition, he that undertakes all things in the Covenant must needs be in fault. But the truth is, the Particulars mentioned in those Texts are not conditions of the Covenant, but Consequents of the Covenant.

Answ. 1. If God absolutely and properly do all in the Covenant, then it is not properly a Covenant but a Promise. 2. If we take Conditions Most largely, for Antecedent Preparatory, Concomitant, and Consequent Conditions; Or more restrictively, for the Instrument of Application, Faith, as hath been explained: then man hath many Tyes, bonds, and obligations upon him, as hath been proved. But if we take Conditions, for Antecedent Impulsive, or Meritorious Causes, Or Most strictly: such bonds we deny in this Covenant as well as Crisp. 3. God, as the Primary, most free, independing cause and agent, obliged by no superiour Law, undertakes in the Covenant both to perform his part, and to enable us in an Evangelical sense to perform our part, giving both to will and to do, both first Grace and second Grace, infusing habits, and drawing them into act; Notwithstanding, Acti agimus: being Acted by him, we act with him. God works not upon us, as men upon stones. He draws, and we come. He is (b) author and finisher of faith: yet we believe. Efficiently God performs all, by enabling us to perform: but Formally and Subjectively we perform from him. 4. Hence, All our performances are originally to be ascribed to God: all our failings to our selves. Its no less then blasphemous, to translate our Covenant-failings upon God.

(b) Heb. 12. 2.

Arg. 3. (c) The Covenant in the Actual substance of it is made good to a person before he can do any thing. The main thing in a Covenant is Gods being the God of a People, and the model of that is Gods Love which is cast upon man before he can do any thing, Rom. 9. 11.

(c) D. T. Crisp. ibid. p. 165. &c.

Answ. 1. Gods love in Election is cast upon man before the world was: much more before man can do any thing. 2. This Love is not Gods Covenant: The Covenant is the effect of this Love. 3. There are Concomitant and Consequent, as well as Antecedent Conditions. Further Resol. to objections, See in (d) others.

Corollary V.

V. Hence, The COVENANT of FAITH is a sweet Paradise of Believers Union to, and Communion with God in Jesus Christ. We may conceive of a threefold Paradise, and a threefold Union and Communion with God therein. A threefold Paradise, viz. Terrestrial, wherein (e) Adam was placed in innocency:

(e) Gen. 2. 8. to 18.

innocency: Spiritual, wherein believers are placed in Grace; And Celestial, wherein (f) the righteous are placed in glory. Answerably, A threefold Union and Communion with God, viz. Natural, Gracious and Glorious. Natural; and such union and Communion Adam had with God in Eden the Earthly Paradise before his Fall, by his Natural (g) integrity. Gracious; and such (h) union and Communion believers have with God in Jesus Christ through the Spirit by Faith in this world. Glorious; and such (i) union and Communion just men made perfect shall have with God in Christ fully and immediatly face to face for ever in the highest Heavens. The Naturall union and Communion with God, in the Earthly Eden, Adam enjoyed by the Covenant of Works. The Supernatural union and Communion with God, whether gracious on Earth, or glorious in Heaven, Christs seed enjoy by the Covenant of Faith, Initiate here, Consummate hereafter. And so this Covenant of Faith brings believers from Paradise, through Paradise, to Paradise. From Paradise, even the earthly Eden, where (k) this Covenant, after the Fall, had its first Rise and original: Through Paradise, even the spiritual Eden of union and communion with God in his Church, where (l) this Covenant hath its growth and increase: And To Paradise, even the third Heavens, where this Covenant shall have its fulness and accomplishment.

Now this union and communion with God (which is the Saints spiritual Paradise, and Heaven on Earth) is grounded upon this Covenant of Faith. How? In this sort. According to this Covenant, 1. We have union unto Christ by Faith immediatly. For, (m) accepting him by Faith as our Mediatour, Root and Representative; we Actually become his Seed, his Spouse, his Members: who before were only such intentionally by Gods Decree. 2. We thus united to Christ, are mediatly through Christs Mediation (n) brought into union with God, he becoming our God, and we his people. 3. Being thus brought into this mystical Union to Christ and God, we consequently obtain sweet heavenly Communion with them both: (o) And truly our fellowship is with the Father and his Son Jesus Christ. So that, Righteousness, both imputed to us, and inherent in us: Eternal life: And all things referring and appertaining hereunto, are freely made ours, in God and in Christ. These three things Christ notably expresseth in his sweet and heavenly prayer; (p) Praying for all them that should believe on him through his Apostles word, That they all may be one, as thou Father art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us. —— I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one. Here's their union mystical to the Father and to Christ: but to Christ first, and then in him to the Father. That the world may know that thou hast sent me; and hast loved them as thou hast loved me. Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, may be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me. Here's their Communion with the Father, in his Love; and with the Son, in his Glory, flowing from the former union.

COROLLARY

Corollary VI.

VI. Hence, The Substance and Matters of this Covenant of Faith are most High and Great: far surpassing the matters of all other Covenants, whether of God or Man. Man never could Covenant with man, what God herein Covenants with Christ and his Seed: And God never did Covenant with Man in the Covenant of Works, what he here Covenanteth in this Covenant. For,

1. How high and great are the Mercies here Promised on Gods Part! I. To Christ the last Adam, God (as hath been formerly proved) promiseth, 1. To invest him with a Mediatory office, whereby he should prevailingly mediate with God as Priest, Prophet and King for the Recovery of his Seed. 2. To Assist, comfort and protect Christ in the executing and fulfilling of this his office, against all extremities of sufferings, All oppositions of enemies, and All his deepest discouragements. 3. To exalt Christ gloriously, in his Resurrection from the Dead, Ascension into Heaven, and Session at Gods right hand: after he had been humbled and abased most ignominiously. 4. To accept Christ delightfully and contentedly in this his Mediation for his Seed. 5. To crown and prosper Christ with compleat success in this his office for the Recovering of all his Seed. These, amongst other excellent blessings, God Promiseth to Christ the last Adam, in order to the Recovery of his Seed. II. To Christs seed also in him God Covenanteth and promiseth these things Principally: viz. 1. To restore them from the state of Sin, to the state of Righteousness both Imputed and Inherent. 2. To Recover them from Death, to Eternal life by Christ. 3. To be to them a God. Now, how high and transcendent are these Blessings promised! No created beings can promise such Benefits. God never promised such things in the Covenant of Works to Adam in Innocency: there's no promise of any Christ, or to any Christ, or of any righteousness or life by him, or of being Adam's God in him. These are the greatest mercies that Sinners can need, Christs seed can Receive, or God himself can give.

2. How high and great the Duties Restipulated! I. By Christ the last Adam, who re-obligeth himself to God, 1. To accept, undertake and discharge this Mediatory office chearfully and faithfully, for the Recovery of his Seed. 2. To depend and fully relie upon his heavenly Father, for Assistance, Protection and Acceptance in the execution of his office, notwithstanding all Distresses, Oppositions and Discouragements. II. By Christs Seed, who in Christ restipulate, 1. To accept Jesus Christ, and in him all Covenanted Mercies by faith unfained. 2. To walk worthy of Christ, and all these covenanted Mercies, according to the Gospel. 3. And in Jesus Christ to become the People of the living God. Behold, what manner of Duties are here! Never office in this world so weighty and intricate as the Mediatory office. For, hereby hereby in order to the recovery of Christs Seed, Gods exactest Law was in all points to be fulfilled; Gods infinite justice offended by their sins was fully to be satisfied and appeased; Sin, Death, Hell and all the powers of darkness were to be condemned and subdued. What Abasement, what Temptations, what Reproaches and Persecutions, what Prayers, what Tears, what Torments of body, what Disertions and Agonies of soul, and what Effusion of his deareſt hearts blood, did the effecting of these cost Jesus Christ? Never Creature in this world did or could so depend upon God, in such a red Sea of Calamities, as Christ did: whose Faith failed not in the least degree. And as for Christs Seed, Their accepting Christ by Faith, walking worthy of him Evangelically, and becoming Gods People, are comprehensive Duties, altogether supernatural, and contra-natural; wholly above, and against all corrupted Naturals. They wholly debase Nature, but exalt Grace. They altogether nullifie the Sinner, strike him off his bottome, and strip him of his boasting: but they magnifie, yea omnifie the Saviour, set him upon his Throne, and ascribe to him all the glory.

Corollary VII.

VII. Hence, The Properties and Perfections of this Covenant of Faith are divers and excellent. In the Nature of this Covenant thus Described and opened, these are more especially Observable, viz. It is, 1. Holy. 2. Gratuitous. 3. Ordered in all things. 4. Sure. 5. Comfortable. 6. Everlasting.

I. Holy. The Covenant of Faith is stiled Holy, 1. In the Old Testament by Daniel, describing the wickedness of Antiochus Epiphanes; —— (q) His heart shall be against the Holy Covenant. —— He shall have indignation against the Holy Covenant. —— And have intelligence with them that forsake the Holy Covenant. To this Effect the Psalmist describing Israels wonderful Deliverance out of Egypt, lays down this as the Cause thereof, Gods faithfulness in his holy Promise or Covenant; (r) For he remembred his Holy Promise, and Abraham his servant. Promise here being put for Covenant, by a Synechdoche. 2. In the New Testament by Luke; (s) To perform the mercy Promised to our Fathers, and to remember his Holy Covenant. The Oath which he sware to our Father Abraham, &c. Thus, That this Covenant is Holy, is evident. But what is this Holiness ascribed to the Covenant? and in what respects is it Holy? Answ. A thing may be called Holy; and so this Covenant, Holy; in five respects, viz.

1. In respect of its Separation from Common things: or from Common to Sacred use and Service. Thus persons and things Dedicated and set apart for holy religious use, are frequently in (t) Scripture called Holy. And thus the Covenant of Faith is holy, being separated, dedicated

(q) Dan. 11. 28. 30.

(r) Psal. 105. 42, 43.

(s) Luke 1. 72,

(t) Lev. 21. 6, 7, 8. Exod. 3. 5. & 16. 23. Psal. 46. 4. 1 King. 8. 4.

dicated and set apart to an holy and spiritual use, viz. The uniting of God and sinners in a Sacred Bond of Reconcilement in Christ.

2. In respect of its Perfection. Holiness implies an absence of imperfection, and a presence of perfection. And this (u) Some think, is especially signified by Holiness. Thus God being (x) most absolutely perfect, without all imperfection: is most absolutely Holy. And Gods Covenant, being a Perfect Covenant in its kind, and wanting no Perfection therein for the Compleat advancing of the sinners Happiness and Gods Glory thereby, is in this regard proportionably Holy.

3. In respect of its pureness and clearness from all pollution, defilement, spot, or stain of sin: when there's no sinful mixture in it. As gold is said to be pure, when it is full of it self, all gold, and no mixture of dross in it: Honey is said to be pure, when there is no mixture of dregs in it. Thus, God being most pure, having (y) no mixture of sin or darkness at all in him, is most Holy. The Godly being (z) washed in Christs blood, and purified by Christs Sanctifying Spirit, are above all other people, an (a) Holy Nation, &c. And in this Sense Gods Covenant is holy, being pure, clean and separate from all Sin and sinful defilement, which may be incident to Mans Covenants. Every thing in and about this Covenant being in this Sense pure and Holy: The Covenant it self must needs be pure and Holy also. For, 1. The Author of this Covenant is Holy, viz. The Lord God, who is (b) Holy, Holy, Holy. (c) Holiness it self. — (d) who is like unto thee, Glorious in Holiness? 2. The Mediatour of this Covenant is Holy, viz. Jesus Christ, who is (e) That holy thing. (f) The Holy one. (g) The Holy one of God. 3. The Parties to this Covenant are Holy, viz. On the one hand the Most Holy God. On the Other hand, Jesus Christ the last Adam and his Seed. Christ is Holy, as hath been shewed. And Christs Seed are conformable to him in Holiness. And thereupon stiled (h) Holy brethren. (i) Holy men. (k) Holy women. (l) An Holy Temple. (m) An holy Priesthood. (n) An Holy Nation (o) An Holy People, &c. 4. The Matters or Blessings Covenanted on Gods part to us, are Holy, viz. Our Recovery by Christ, the Holy one of God, from the State of Sin unto a state of holiness and righteousness, (p) enjoyed in our persons, (q) expressed in our Conversations. 5. Finally, The Matters and Conditions restipulated by us unto God, are Holy; viz. Accepting Christ by believing, Believing being called (r) Our most Holy Faith. Walking worthy of Christ, &c. which is in other phrase stiled, (s) walking before God in Holiness and Righteousness all the days of our life. and ——— (t) Perfecting Holiness in the fear of God, &c. Oh therefore how Holy in these regards is this Covenant of God!

4. In respect of its Heavenliness. A thing that is heavenly, sublime, Spiritual, abstracted and lifted up from Earthliness, is said to be Holy.

Holy. Hence (u) ſome derive the Greek word for Holy, ἅγιος, from α & γῆ without the Earth: as it were ἀγήϊος, un-earthly. For, every thing that is in Heaven, or is Heavenly, is Holy. Thus this Covenant conſequently is Holy; for it is a moſt ſublime, ſpiritual, Heavenly Myſterie. It was contrived in Heaven; All the world could not have deviſed or imagined ſuch a way for Recovery of Sinners; and it brings all them at laſt unto Heaven, that embrace it, and cloſe with God in it.

(u) Gerhard. Harm. Evangel. c. 176. pag. 191. & c. 180. p. 460. Scap Lex. ad verb. Ἅγιος.

5. Finally, In reſpect of its firmneſs and ſetled ſtability a thing is called Holy. Hence (x) Auguſtine thinks the Latin name for Holy, is derived from firmneſs and eſtabliſhment, Sanctus, quaſi Sancitus. Thus this Covenant is Holy, that is, firm, ſure eſtabliſhed that it cannot be ſhaken or overthrown, as after will appear in opening the Property of its Sureneſs.

(x) Ideo Spiritus Sanctus dicitur, quoniam ad permanendum ſanciuntur, quicunque ſanctificantur; Nec dubium eſt à Sanciendo ſanctitatem vocari. Aug. de Fld. & Symb. p. 147. D. Tom. 3. Baſil. 1569. Ger. Harm. Evan. c. 180. p. 400.

Now his Covenant of Faith being every way thus ſacred and Holy; 1. It is highly to be preferred above all Common humane Covenants in this point of Holineſs. 2. An unholy ſinful ſtate, and inward ſaving intereſt in this Holy Covenant are inconſiſtent. He that intends to have ſhare in this holy Covenant, muſt himſelf become holy in perſon and Converſation, 3. They that are Federates with God in Chriſt according to this Covenant, ſhould in Conformity to this Covenant, both think, ſpeak, act and in all points walk holily, heavenly, and unblameably.

II. Gratuitous. The Covenant of Faith is wholly and meerly of Free-Grace. For what the Apoſtle ſaid of the Inheritance of life and ſalvation, we may ſay of this Covenant of Faith promiſing this inheritance; (y) Therefore it is of Faith, that it might be by Grace, to the end the Promiſe might be ſure to all the Seed. Grace and Faith are inſeparable Relatives, which ſtand or fall together. If it be a Covenant of Faith, for the Condition of it; it muſt conſequently be a Covenant of Grace, for the Foundation of it: and ſo on the contrary. For Faith hath nothing for its object in this Covenant but meer Grace, having nothing herein propounded by way of Promiſe from God, or by way of reſtipulation from Chriſts Seed, but all of meer Grace. And that, not only, The Grace of Favour towards Creatures, which had place in the Covenant of works: but alſo The Grace of Commiſeration towards ſinful, lapſed Creatures, which only hath place in this Covenant of Faith. But of the (z) Gratuitouſneſs of this Covenant enough formerly.

III. Ordered in all things. (a) Although mine houſe be not ſo with God, yet he hath made with me an everlaſting Covenant, Ordered in all things. ברית ערכה בכל Berith Hharoucah Baccol viz. A Covenant Ordered in all. Thus David ſtiles Gods Covenant, which was made with him: and ſo proportionably every Particular diſcovery of this Covenant of Faith is Ordered in all. The Hebrew word tranſlated, Ordered, ſignifies, (b) Orderly-diſpoſed, orderly ſet, or placed by reaſon and proportion, Orderly fitted, furniſhed, prepared, directed, ſetled, addreſſed

(a) 2 Sam. 23. 5.

(b) Vid. Pagn in Theſaur. ad verb. ערך dressed. The Lxxii render it ἑτοίμην, ready, prepared. As a Table is prepared and furnished when stored with all manner of Provision; Or as an Army is marshalled, ranked or set in graceful Order, when every one is in his place: so this Covenant is contrived and put in most excellent order, well furnished and prepared with all Necessaries to Salvation, and which shall be orderly disposed to Christs Seed in due Season. (c) God is the God of order; As he most (d) orderly created all things at first: so in most comely and beautiful Order he Governs all things created ever since; Especially the mysteries of Grace for the Salvation of his Elect? More particularly This Covenant is Ordered in all things, in these respects following. viz.

(c) 1 Cor. 14. 33. & 15. 23.
(d) Gen. 1. throughout. Psal. 104. throughout. Eccles. 3. 11.

1. In respect of the inward Constitution of the Covenant. How excellently and orderly hath God composed it and constituted it of Matter and Form? I. The Matter, 1. On Gods part promised, is The Recovery of Christs Seed by Jesus Christ from the State of Sin and Death, to the State of righteousness and life, that so the Lord may be their God. And this Matter is admirably well ordered. For, (1) Here's the Blessings or Mercies Promised, viz. Recovery, &c. God becoming their God, what could be ordered and prepared more suitably and more sufficiently for poor lost Sinners Salvation and happiness. Here are fit and full supplies for all their spiritual wants. (2) Here are the Parties to whom these Covenanted mercies are peculiarly intended; viz. Christs Seed. Not all men, but only Gods Elect. They alone must share in these special mercies: peculiarly prepared for them. (3) Here is the only Mediatour by whom these persons shall come to enjoy these promised Mercies, viz. Jesus Christ, with whom God had a blessed Transaction for effecting thereof. 2. On our part, the matter restipulated is; 1. Our accepting of Christ and covenanted mercies by true Faith. How shall they else be made ours? (2) Our walking worthy of them according to the Gospel. How else shall we walk thankfully, and really testifie they are ours? (3) Our giving up our selves to God as his people. How otherwise can we assure our selves that he is our God. II. The form of this Covenant is the mutual obligation and reciprocal engagement of the Federate parties to each other. Oh how comely and beautifully, with what symmetry and proportion are all things in this Covenant ordered and prepared!

2. In respect of the Outward Dispensation of the Covenant, it is Ordered in all things. God observed an Order of Degrees in Revealing it. He made it not known at all, (e) till Adam had quite broken the Covenant of works. And then but gradually; first discovering it more darkly, remotely and imperfectly, as we see things a great way off: but afterward more clearly, immediatly, & compleatly, as we discern things at hand. God observed also an Order of Proportion in Dispensing it, having therein respect both to his Churches Non-age & Full age. 1. In her Non-age dispensing it sparingly, carnally & servilly in certain initial Elements and Rudiments of Ceremonies, Types and carnal observances, as his Peoples weakness and dulness was able to bear it: But 2. in her full age he he dispensed it, more freely, fully and spiritually after the Coming of Christ. How orderly was this his proceeding!

3. In respect of the Accomplishment of it in Christ, this Covenant is ordered in all things. It makes Christ known first dimly, as at a great distance: then clearly, as at hand. This Covenant is a Cabinet: Christ is the rich Treasure in this Covenant-Cabinet; but not fully disclosed all at once. 1. At first he was represented, As the (e) Seed of of the woman bruising the Serpents head. 2. Then (under the Type of (f) Noah saving his Family in the Ark by waters;) As a Saviour of his family and little flock by his blood from perishing in their sins by the deluge of Gods wrath overwhelming all the world besides. 3. Then, (g) As the Seed of Abraham, in whom all the kinreds and families of the earth should be blessed. 4. Then, as the (h) Anti-type of the Mosaical Sacrifices, Purgations and other Ceremonies, both Expiating the Guilt, and Purifying the Filth of sin, from his Seed. 5. After this, As the (i) Seed of David, that as King, should sit upon his Throne for ever: Spiritually reigning and ruling over his Church. 6. Then, As the true (k) David, that should reunite his people into one Nation; and into one Kingdom, not to be divided any more. 7. After all, As (l) God-man, dwelling with men, full of Grace and Truth, actually dying for his Seed, and discharging all the Offices of his Mediatourship, So that they have eternal redemption obtained for them, and their sins and iniquities God will remember no more.

4. Finally, In respect of the Application of it to Christs Seed, This Covenant of Faith is ordered in all things. Herein God proceeds most orderly with them: though they do not always distinctly observe the Order and Method of his proceedings. 1. God tendereth his Covenant to them. 2. He in his due time Convinceth them thereby through the operation of his Spirit, That they are Naturally in a woful State of Sin and Death in the First Adam, and That notwithstanding there is a sufficient Remedy, and means of their Recovery in Christ the last Adam. 3. He converts and cals them Effectually from Sin to righteousness, from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. 4. He adopts them into his own family in Jesus Christ as his sons and daughters. 5. He Justifies them freely by his grace, imputing Christs righteousness unto them by Faith. 6. He vouchsafeth them sweet heavenly Communion with himself in Christ by his Spirit, affording all priviledges of Grace. 7. He glorifies them eternally with himself and Jesus Christ in the highest Heavens, vouchsafing immediate vision and full fruition of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for evermore. O how admirable is this Order of Covenant-Application, and how highly estimable by all Christs Seed!

IIII. Sure. The Covenant of Faith is faithful, faithfully kept and performed by God, Firm, Sure, unbroken, whereof God will always be mindful, whereunto he will still have respect that it may be punctually and accurately performed. In this regard this Covenant is in the Old Testament stiled (m) שמרה Shemurah, that is, kept, observed, performed, (one Translatour renders it, Sure.) And as that learned (n) Mercerus noteth, it imports Care, diligence and sollicitude, lest any thing be let go, let slip, &c. Such singular care and sollicitude God takes, lest his Covenant should in any respect fail. Hence it is elsewhere implyed to be a Covenant that (o) cannot be broken. In the New Testament it is stiled A Promise firm, or sure to all the Seed: βεβαίαν τὴν ἐπαγγελίαν παντὶ τῷ σπέρματι, (p) That the Promise might be firm to all the Seed. It hath respect to Gods Covenant with Abraham, to whose spiritual Seed, whether Jews or Gentiles, the Covenant of the eternal inheritance is firm. And elsewhere Gods Promise or Covenant with Abraham, is called πρᾶγμα ἀμετάθετον, An immutable thing; (q) That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lye, &c. Gods Promise and Gods Oath annexed thereto, are these two immutable things, as the Context there clears it.

Now this Sureness of the Covenant is a Property most Consequential and Comfortable to the Heirs of the Promise, and children of the Covenant. Therefore it is said; (r) God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of Promise the immutability of his Counsel, confirmed it by an Oath. That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lye, we might have a strong Consolation. —— ἰσχυρὰν παράκλησιν, that is a valiant, strong, prevailing Consolation. Let us therefore a little further enquire into this Sureness of Gods Covenant, and the grounds thereof: (which is incomparably more firm, sure, immutable and irrevocable then all other Covenants in the world;) that hereby we may lay a surer foundation of affiance and Comfort in Gods Covenant and Promise. We may fail; but Gods Covenant will never fail us. This Sureness of the Covenant may illustriously be discovered, 1. From the Nature, Properties and Perfections of the Covenant-making God. 2. From Gods manifold methods for Establishment of his Covenant. 3. From Gods actual accomplishment of his Covenant most punctually, in the Experience of all ages. 4. From removal of all imaginable Corrumpent Causes that might render this Covenant infirm or unfaithful. 5. From the durable and Everlasting Nature of the Covenant it self.

(r) Heb. 6. 17, 18.

I. From the Nature, Properties and Essential Perfections of the Covenant-making God. These are such, that they proclaim him to be a God (s) Keeping Covenant and mercy with his servants, with them that love him, &c. And, (t) that there is no God like him, in heaven above, or on Earth beneath, keeping Covenant and mercy, &c. For God that made this Covenant, is 1. Jehovah. 2. Most Gracious. 3. True. 4. Faithful. 5. Wise. 6 Powerful. 7 Immutable. And therefore his Covenant must needs be unquestionably Sure.

(s) Dan. 9. 4. Nehem. 1. 5. & 9. 32.

(t) 1 Kings 8 23 2 Chron. 6. 14.

(1.) God is Jehovah. JEHOVAH is Gods chief essential name, not onely denoting, 1. His eternal independing Being in and of himself. 2. And his Giving of Being to all created things: But also, 3. His giving

giving Being and existence to his Covenant and Promises. Hereupon when God was now about to bring Israel out of Egypt, and to conduct them to Canaan, as he had Covenanted to Abraham, he saith; (u) I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob by the name of God Almighty: but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them. God was Doctrinally, and in part known to them by his name Jehovah, for it was (x) revealed to them before. But he was not Experimentally and so plenarily made known to them by this name, as now he was about to make himself known to Israel in his actual fulfilling and performing of his Promise and Covenant to them, by bringing them out of Egypt into Canaan. And this is the Interpretation plainly given in the following verses, viz. ver. 4. to 9. So then its most Natural to God, to fulfil his Promise. God can as soon forget his Nature, his being, and this his glorious Name JEHOVAH, as forget his Covenant.

(2) God is most (y) Gracious. His Free Grace, both of Benevolence and favour to his Creatures, and of Commiseration to his miserable and sinful Creatures, is incomparable. Of meer Grace God at First made this Covenant of Faith, lapsed Creatures having nothing at all in them, that might in the least degree move or invite the Lord thereunto, (as (z) hath been shewed;) but rather every thing inciting to the Contrary: Now if God make this his Covenant, not only without, but even quite Contrary to all Motives & inducements in the Creature, of his own meer Grace: shall he not of the same meer Grace make it good? That which is wholly bottomed upon meer Divine Grace, without the Creature, is founded onely upon God: therefore inexceptionably Sure. The eternal inheritance Covenanted, (a) is therefore of Faith, that it might be by Grace; to the end the Promise might be sure to all the Seed: not to that only which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the Faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us all.

(3) God is most (b) True; yea (c) Truth it self, the only Supream Truth. He is (d) plenteous in mercy and Truth. And (e) the truth of the LORD endureth for ever, to all Generations. Hence therefore God Promises and Covenant must needs be Sure and true for ever: Because God, the true God, (f) which cannot lye, promiseth and Covenanteth. So that Gods Covenant and promise is that (g) immutable thing, wherein it is impossible that God should lye. Man may Covenant and promise, and yet not perform: all men are lyars. The truest men, but mutably true. But (h) God is not as man, that he should lye. Now if it be impossible God should lye in promising; it is impossible his Promise should fail, till it come to performing.

(4) God is Most Faithful: therefore in his Covenants and Promises, he will not, he cannot delude or deceive. (i) If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful, he cannot deny himself. Many Jews did not believe Gods Covenant, yet their unfaithfulness did not overthrow Gods Covenant, or his faithfulness therein. (k) For, what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God of none effect?

God forbid: yea let God be true, but every man a liar. —— How notably ſaith the Scripture elſewhere to Iſrael; (l) Know therefore that the LORD thy God, he is God, the Faithful God, which keepeth Covenant and mercy with them that love him, and keep his Commandments to a thouſand Generations. So then, becauſe he is a faithful God, he is a Covenant-keeping God: His Covenant is ſure. Hereupon the Apoſtle exhorts; (m) Let us hold faſt the profeſſion of our faith without wavering: why? for he is faithful that promiſed. And upon this Attribute of Gods faithfulneſs, Sarah raiſed up her Faith to believe Gods Covenant and Promiſe againſt reaſon and the courſe of Nature; (n) Through Faith alſo Sarah her ſelf received ſtrength to conceive Seed, and was delivered of a child when ſhe was paſt age, becauſe ſhe judged him faithful that had promiſed.

God never promiſeth any thing, but he hath moſt wiſely Contrived and determined aforehand how to bring it to paſs.

He made the world with his word; (y) He ſpake and they were created: he commanded and they ſtood faſt. (z) He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think. Therefore, though man ofttimes promiſeth beyond his ability, yet God nor doth nor can promiſe beyond his power of performance. Though he Covenant and promiſe things never ſo Great, ſtrange, difficult, improbable, and to fleſh and blood, or created power impoſsible, yet he can eaſily perform all, above the Capacity of our Senſe, Reaſon and Faith it ſelf: (a) Is any thing too hard for the LORD? He Covenanted to give Abraham Seed by Sarah, and that in his Seed all the Nations of the Earth ſhould be bleſſed: And he was both able to perform this Seed, notwithſtanding the deadneſs of Abrahams body and Sarah's womb: and able to bleſs all Nations in his Seed, though Iſaac ſhould have been offered up for a burnt-offering. And therefore as to the former, (b) Abraham againſt hope believed in hope, —and conſidered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadneſs of Sarah's womb; Neither ſtaggered he at the promiſe of God through unbelief: being fully perſwaded, that what he had promiſed, he was able alſo to perform. As to the latter, (c) Abraham when he was tryed, offered up Iſaac: and he that had received the promiſes, offered up his only begotten Son; Of whom it was ſaid, that in Iſaac *ſhall thy Seed be called. able to raise him up even from the dead. Thus Abraham looks upon Gods Covenant, and Gods ability fully to perform it; overlooking all contrary difficulties and impossibilities: Gods promise resting upon the shoulders of his power, bears up Abraham's Faith in the Covenant, against all discouragements. Oh this power of God, is the pillar of Gods Promise; and should be the pillar of our Faith. We seldom stagger at the hardness and greatness of any promise of God: but we stagger first at the power of God. But Gods power makes his Covenant Sure.

(7) Finally, God is immutable, and unchangeable, still the same. (d) With him is no variableness, nor shadow of turning. The strength of Israel is not as the son of man that he should repent. Consequently his Covenant is Immutable and unchangeable also. (e) That by two immutable things (viz. Gods Promise and Oath) in which it is impossible that God should lye, we might have strong Consolation.

(e) Heb. 6. 17,18.

2. From Gods manifold methods and ways for establishment and Confirmation of his Covenant, The Sureness of his Covenant is more infallibly assured to his people. Gods Covenant barely delivered by him, is sure enough it self, and heaven and earth may sooner pass away, then any branch or word of his Covenant should pass away and be unfulfilled: But God hath used many other Courses, besides bare publication, for ratifying and ensuring of his Covenant to us; that our Faith therein might be firm without staggering, that our Consolation thence might be strong without fainting. God hath especially established his Covenant to his people, 1. By writing it. 2. By Surest manner of Expressing it. 3. By ratifying Promises. 4. By Federal Solemnities. 5. By Covenant-Seals and Tokens. 6. By his own inviolable Oath. 7. By his Son Christs irrevocable Death.

1. By writing the Covenant. At first Gods Covenant was declared to Adam, Noah, Abraham, &c. till the days of Moses, (f) onely by word of mouth; God uttering it to them by audible voice. But in, and after Moses his days, God still Committed his Covenant to writing: and this in all the Discoveries and Dispensations of it, from First to last. Holy Scriptures are his Covenant-Tables, His Federal Instruments. Herein we may read, as in a perpetual Record, The Tenour of Gods Covenant with his people, and of their restipulation with God, together with all the Promises, Priviledges, Conditions and clauses thereof. And all this, that Gods Covenant might be made infallibly evident, certain and Sure to his people in Christ from age to age. Time might obliterate a vocal Covenant only, out of Memory: but no time shall posibly wipe Gods written Covenant out of his Book.

(f) Gen. 2. 15. & 6. 18. & 17. 1, 2. &c.

(2.) By surest manner of expressing the Covenant. God Covenanting and Promising Mercies for time to come, expresses his Promise so as if they were performed already for the time past. Hereby denoting the Sureness of Performance, the Sureness of the Covenant. As God expressed his Covenant to Abraham; (g) In that same day

(g) Gen. 15. 18.

day the LORD made a Covenant with Abraham, saying, Unto thy Seed have I given this Land from the river of Egypt, to the great river the river Euphrates. At this time Abraham had no seed at all; (h) Abraham said, LORD God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless? And when Abraham had Seed, his Seed enjoyed not this Covenanted Land of Canaan till after (i) their 400. years affliction in Egypt: And yet God saith, Unto thy Seed have I given this Land. How could this be? or, why is it thus expressed? That learned (k) Mercerus observes thus, out of Rasi, I have given, for I will give: because that which the Lord promiseth for future is as sure, as if it were now done. And out of Rambam; He speaks in the pretertense, I have given; because of his present Covenant. In two Promises before God useth the future tense, (l) To thy Seed I will give this Land: But now when he strikes a Covenant with Abraham, he declares and fully makes him and his Seed Lords of that Land; And that he may signifie this, he useth the preter-tense, I have given; i. e. I give. Thou mayest certainly know that this Land is thy Seed's, by vertue of the Covenant I make with thee. Whereupon he prescribes the bounds of the Land, which he had not done before. (m) Another observes, that the Hebrew Doctors scan the words thus: He saith not, I will give; but, I have given: and yet Abraham had now begotten no children. But because the word of the holy blessed God is a Deed, therefore he so speaketh. Mideas Tillim. Psal. 27. 2.

(3.) By Ratifying Promises superadded. God not onely makes Covenant with, and promises to his people, but he also frequently and pathetically promiseth to make good his Covenants and Promises. These therefore may well be called, Ratifying Promises: because annexed for further Ratifying, Ensuring and peremptory confirming of Gods Covenant to us. (n) Thus God makes sure his Covenant to Israel; (n) If ye hearken to these judgements, and keep and do them: The LORD thy God shall keep unto thee the Covenant and the Mercy which he sware unto thy fathers. And elsewhere; (o) I made you to go out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the Land which I sware unto your fathers. And I said, I will never break my Covenant with you. (p) Thus God makes sure his Covenant to David; (p) My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once have I sworn by mine holiness, That I will not lye unto David. (q) Thus God makes sure his Covenant to his captive people; (q) Thus saith the LORD, If you can break my Covenant of the day, and my Covenant of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their Season: Then may also my Covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a Son to reign upon his throne. and with the Levites the Priests, my Ministers. (r) Thus God makes sure his Covenant to the Church of the Gentiles; (r) The Mountains shall depart, and the Hils be removed, but my kindness shall not depart from thee; neither shall the Covenant of my Peace be removed, saith the Lord, that hath mercy on thee. (s) In a word, Thus the Lord makes sure his Covenant indefinitely; definitely; (r) The LORD is gracious and full of Compassion. —— He will ever be mindful of his Covenant. What? will the Lord not break nor alter his Covenant; never break it? will he keep it: and be ever mindful of it? shall Gods Covenant be as inviolable as the course and Revolution of day and night: and more immovable then the very Hils and Mountains? Why then should we suspect or stagger at the sureness of Gods Covenant, oh we of little Faith?

(r) Psal. 111. 5

(4.) By federal Solemnities annexed, God hath further established his Covenants to his people. The usual solemnities in Covenant-making of old, was by striking, killing, dividing and offering up of sacrifices with sprinkling of their blood. Hence that phrase of cutting, or striking the Covenant; (t) Gather together unto me my Saints, striking my Covenant with Sacrifice: As it is to be rendred out of the Hebrew. The manner of this solemnity Jeremy declares, saying; (u) I will give the men that have transgressed my Covenant, which have not performed the words of the Covenant which they had struck before me, when they (x) cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts thereof. Their manner was, to kill sacrifices: to cut these sacrifices in twain: to lay the two parts thus divided in the midst, piece against piece, exactly one over against another, to answer each other: Then the parties Covenanting passed between the parts of the Sacrifices, so slit in twain, and laid answerably to one another. The meaning of which ceremonies and solemnities is conceived to be this; viz. As part answered to part: so there was an harmonious correspondency and answerableness of their minds and hearts that struck Covenant. And as part was severed from part: so the Covenanters implyed (if not expressed) an Imprecation or Curse, wishing the like dissection and destruction to the parties Covenanting as most deserved, if they should break the Covenant or deal falsely therein. Whence that phrase of Entring into a Curse, and into an Oath. Neh. 10. 29. Now the Lord, for further ensuring of his Covenant to his people, hath sometimes pleased to use this Solemnity. As, to Abram: and to Israel. 1. To Abram, when he desired to have Gods promise of Canaan confirmed to him, saying; (y) LORD God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it? And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle dove, and a young pigeon. And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another. —— And it came to pass, that when the Sun went down, and it was dark, Behold a smoking furnace, and a lamp of fire that passed between those pieces. In that same day the LORD made a Covenant with Abram, saying, &c. Thus God confirms Abram by his Covenant: and confirms his Covenant by this solemnity. And why may not we interpret, The smoaking furnace, as representing Abram's posterity that should be deeply afflicted in Egypt before Canaan be given them: and the Lamp of fire, as representing God that should at last enlighten their darkness and bring them out of Egypt, &c. God being often in Scripture Scripture compared to (z) fire, and to a (a) lamp? 2. To Israel when they were brought out of Egypt, God also stablished his Covenant by (b) Sacrifices, and sprinkling of blood. Of which Sacrifices and Blood we have the Truth in Christ: as after will appear.

(5) By Covenant-Seals and Tokens, God hath also confirmed and Ensured his Covenant to his people. Thus when God made a Covenant with Abraham, to be a God to him and to his Seed: to give them Canaan, &c. he confirmed this Covenant by Circumcision, as (c) a token of the Covenant betwixt God and them. Yea so notably did Circumcision ratifie this Covenant, that (by a Metonymy of the thing signified put for the Sign signifying) it is called (d) The Covenant of Circumcision: And God saith of it, (e) My Covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting Covenant. So they did indelibly receive this Character of Gods Covenant into their flesh, and did alwaies carry about with them in their body this Sign and Mark of the Covenant, for their Notable Confirmation therein. God thereby assuring them, that as certainly as they had this Sign in their flesh: so certainly Gods Covenant should be made good to them. Nor only was Circumcision a Sign or Token of the Covenant to Abraham, but also a Seal of the Covenant; For, (f) He received the Sign of Circumcision, A Seal of the righteousness of the Faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised. Now as the righteousness of works was the matter of the Covenant of works: so the righteousness of Faith is the matter of this Covenant of Faith, as hath already been evidenced. If then Circumcision was a Seal of the righteousness of Faith, which is the Matter Covenanted: consequently it was a Seal of the Covenant it self: A Seal: to what end? Not for Impression, Distinction, or Concealment, (though for those uses seals are sometimes used;) but for Confirmation. Hereby God giving Abraham further assurance of his righteousness of Faith Promised him in the Covenant. Proportionably all the other Sacraments both before, and since Christ, are not only Signs and Tokens, but also Seals of the Covenant. For what belongs to one Sacrament as a Sacrament belongs also to every Sacrament. And of the Cup in the Lords Supper, Christ saith; (g) This Cup is the New Testament (or, New Covenant) in my blood. That is, This Cup is so true and Sure a token and Seal of the new Covenant, that it may be called the New Covenant it self. Thus, By these outward familiar signs incurring into the Senses, The Lord hath notably confirmed his Covenant to his people, and their Faith therein. Which Confirmation is grounded upon that Sacramental Union or Relation betwixt the Signs and things Signified; the Signs truly Signifying, Sealing and Exhibiting the inward Covenanted Mysteries. And which Sacramental union or Relation in signifying, Sealing and Exhibiting is grounded upon Christs Institution thus appointing it.

people. An Oath amongſt men is the ſtrongeſt, ſureſt, moſt ſacred, and inviolable Bond: (h) For men verily ſwear by the greater, and an Oath for Confirmation is to them an End of all ſtrife: wherein God willing more abundantly to ſhew unto the heirs of promiſe the immutability of his Counſel, confirmed it by an Oath; That by two immutable things, (viz. Gods Promiſe of the inheritance, and his Oath) in which it was impoſſible for God to lye, we might have a ſtrong Conſolation, &c. God then, not only makes his Covenant, but ſwears his Covenant. (i) And when he could ſwear by no greater, he ſware by himſelf. Thus God added the ſolemn Sanction and immutable band of an Oath to his Covenant and Promiſe: and this to Abraham, Iſrael, and David. To Abraham; (k) For when God made promiſe to Abraham, becauſe he could ſwear by no greater, he ſware by himſelf. Hence Gods Covenant with Abraham, is ſo (l) often mentioned with Gods oath to him and to his Seed. 2. To Iſrael, when God beſides his Covenant in Horeb, renewed his Covenant with them in the Land of Moab, peculiarly againſt the idolatry of the Nations: this God confirmed by (m) Oath. 3 To David finally God ratified his Covenant by Oath, for his greater ſecurity and aſſurance therein. God ſaid, (n) I have made a Covenant with my choſen, I have ſworn unto David my Servant. Thy Seed will I eſtabliſh for ever, and build up thy throne to all generations. — And again; (o) My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. Once have I ſworn by mine Holineſs, that I will not lye unto David. Which Covenant-Oath of God to David had its principal accompliſhment in (p) Chriſt, of the fruit of his loyns according to the fleſh, raiſed up to ſit on Davids throne. Now hath God ſaid it, and will he not do it? hath he ſworn it, and will he not bring it to paſs? yea the Exhibition of Chriſt in our fleſh in fulneſs of time, was in (q) performance of the Mercy promiſed to our Fathers, and in remembrance of his holy Covenant: The Oath which he ſware to our Father Abraham, &c. Dare we truſt an honeſt man upon his bare word? much more upon his Oath? And ſhall we not much more have ſtrong Confidence and Conſolation upon Gods Promiſe and Oath?

(7) Finally, The Covenant is Confirmed and made Sure by Chriſts irrevocable Death. In which regard, the Covenant is to be Conſidered in the Notion of a Teſtament; and Chriſt as the Teſtator of this Will and Teſtament, (as was formerly noted.) As therefore a Mans Will and Teſtament is (r) Confirmed by the Teſtators Death irrevocably, ſo that no man adds thereto, nor takes thence-from; For where a Teſtament is, there muſt alſo of neceſſity be the Death of the Teſtator; For a Teſtament is of force after men are Dead, otherwiſe it is of no ſtrength at all while the Teſtator liveth: So Jeſus Chriſt hath unalterably Confirmed his Will and Teſtament, the New Covenant by his blood and Death; That by means of Death for the redemption of the tranſgreſſions that were under the firſt Teſtament, they which are called, might receive the promiſe of Eternal inheritance. Hereupon Chriſts blood is called (s) The blood of the Everlaſting Covenant, or Teſtament. And, (t) His blood of the New Teſtament. Alſo the Covenant it ſelf is ſtiled (u) The New Teſtament in his blood. Becauſe his Covenant and Teſtament is founded, ſtabliſhed, ratified, and immutably ſealed up, in, and by his blood. So then, his Covenant is moſt firm and ſure: there can be no Addition to it, detraction from it, or Alteration of it; unleſs the Death of Jeſus Chriſt, whereby its confirm'd, be fruſtrated and overthrown. Yea, the Covenant is as ſure, as Chriſts Death is ſure. The Covenant can no more fail or dye, then Chriſt can be brought down from the right hand of the Majeſty on high to dye a Second time. Chriſt being riſen, dyeth no more, returneth no more to Corruption, and therefore he is (x) the Sure mercies of David: conſequently his Covenant in his Death, never more to be repeated or re-iterated, is become the Sure Covenant of God, the Sure Teſtament of Jeſus Chriſt.

(x) Compare Iſa. 55. 3. with Acts 13. 34.

Thus by all theſe Methods for eſtabliſhing his Covenant, God hath made it unqueſtionably Sure to all his people.

3. From Gods actual accompliſhment and moſt punctual performance of his Covenant to his people, in the experience of all ages, Gods Covenant will further appear to be moſt Sure. God hath always been moſt exact in fulfilling his Covenant and Promiſe. He never yet failed his people herein; nor ever will. He ever did, and conſequently ever will make his Covenant and all the Promiſes thereof ſubſiſt in their Seaſon: for he is a faithful and an unalterable God, ſtill the ſame.

(1) God Covenanted in Paradiſe, That (y) The Seed of the woman ſhould bruiſe the Serpents Head. And this Covenant he punctually performed; For, (z) When the fulneſs of time was come, God ſent his Son made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law. And for this purpoſe the Son of God was manifeſted, that he might deſtroy the works of the Devil. And this, (a) As he ſpake by the mouth of his holy Prophets, which have been ſince the world began. That we ſhould be ſaved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us. To perform the Mercy promiſed to our Fathers, and to remember his holy Covenant.

(2) God Covenanted with (b) Noah, To ſave him and his family, and a Seed of the Creatures in the Ark from periſhing in that general deluge wherewith the whole world was drowned. And God (c) exactly performed this his Covenant with Noah and his family; they were preſerved, when all fleſh periſhed.

To bring his Seed out of Egypts Affliction, after four hundred and thirty years. 3. To give the land of Canaan to his Seed, from the river of Egypt, to the river Euphrates. And, 4. That, (e) in his Seed all the Nations of the Earth ſhould be bleſſed. And all theſe Covenanted Mercies God exactly performed in their Seaſon. For, 1. His poſterity became wonderfully numerous. she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the Stars of the skie in multitude, and as the sand which is by the Sea-shore innumerable. 2. His Seed was in Egypt under great affliction. (g) But when the time of the Promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt. —— (h) And the children of Israel sighed by reason of their bondage. — and God heard their groaning, and God remembred his Covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob. And God sent Moses and Aaron to deliver them, with many signs and wonders. Now God began experimentally to make himself known to his people (i) by his name JEHOVAH, in giving actual being to his Covenant and promises: in bringing them out of Egypt. (k) And it came to pass at the end of the 430 years, even the self same day it came to pass, that all the hosts of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. Thus God kept touch with them in his Covenant, to a very year, yea to a very Day. 3. His Seed, the children of Israel, were also brought according to Gods Covenant with Abraham, into actual possession of Canaan the land of rest, after their deliverance out of Egypt; God conducting them thither by Ioshuah, the Type of Jesus. (l) And the LORD gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their fathers: and they possessed it, and dwelt therein: And the LORD gave them rest round about, according to all that he sware unto their Fathers: and there stood not a man of all their Enemies before them: the LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand. There failed not ought of any good thing which the LORD had spoken unto the house of Israel: All came to pass. This the Levites notably confessed and amplified, in their prayer on a solemn day of Fasting: saying; (m) Thou art the LORD the God who didst choose Abram, —— and madest a Covenant with him to give the Land of the Canaanites, —— to give it to his seed: and hast performed thy words, for thou art righteous. The manner and way of Gods performance being largely and emphatically described. And more particularly the Psalmist describes the accurateness of this performance of Gods Covenant, Beginning his description thus; (n) He hath remembred his Covenant for ever: the word which he commanded to a thousand generations: which Covenant he made with Abraham, and his Oath unto Isaac: and confirmed the same unto Jacob for a Law, and to Israel for an Everlasting Covenant, Saying, Unto thee will I give the Land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance. And closing up his Description thus; (o) For he remembred his Holy Promise, and Abraham his servant. And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness: And gave them the lands of the Heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people; That they might observe his statutes, and keep his Laws. 4. Finally, In Abraham's Seed, (that Seed of Seeds, Jesus Christ, (p) the son of Abraham, according to the flesh) God blesseth all the families of the Earth, as Peter in his Sermon testifieth to the men of Israel, saying, (q) Ye are the children of

of the Prophets, and of the Covenant which God made with our Fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy Seed shall all the kindreds of the Earth be blessed. Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to Bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities. Nor were the Jews only, but the Gentiles also blessed in Abrahams Seed. For, (r) Christ hath redeemed us from the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us. —— That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. —— So then they which be of Faith (whether Jews or Gentiles,) are blessed with faithful Abraham. Thus God performed his Covenant to Abraham most punctually, in the several branches and particulars of it.

(4) God Covenanted again at Mount Sinai, to (s) give Canaan to the children of Israel, (t) To bring them to a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of valleyes and Hils. A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig-treess. and pomegranates, a land of oyl olive and Honey. A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it; A land whose stones are iron, and out of whose Hils thou maist dig brass. And Solomon before all the Congregation of Israel, at the Dedication of the Temple, confessed Gods performance herein, saying; (u) Blessed be the LORD, that hath given Rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there hath not fallen, (or, failed) one word of all his good Promise, which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

(5) God Covenanted and sware to David (x) To raise up his Seed which should build God an house, To stablish his Seed for ever, and build up his throne to all generations, &c. This Covenant God admirably fulfilled both in the Type, Solomon: and in the Anti-type, Christ, both of them of the Seed of David: both of them Kings, set upon Davids Throne: viz. Solomon temporally, Christ Spiritually: and both of them builders of Gods House, viz. Solomon of his Material Temple, Christ of his Mystical and Spiritual Temple the Church. Hereupon Solomon confessed: (y) O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the Heaven, nor in the Earth; which keepest Covenant and mercy unto thy servants that walk before thee with all their hearts: Thou which hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him: and spakest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled with thine hand, as it is this day. But this Covenant had its chief accomplishment in Christ, of the fruit of Davids loins according to the flesh, whom God raised up to sit upon his Throne, and to build his Church, as is (z) elsewhere testified.

(6) God Covenanted with his Captive-people in Babylon, (a) that after 70 years Captivity, he would visit the King of Babylon, and his land in judgement to destroy them, but would visit his people there in mercy to deliver them thence: and that though their condition seemed to be dead and desperate, yet he would open their graves, and bring them out of their graves. And God punctually performed this Covenant and promise to them. Darius the Mede, with Cyrus the Persian, took the Kingdom. (c) And in the first year of Cyrus King of Persia, (that the word of the LORD, by the mouth of Jeremiah might be fulfilled,) the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus King of Persia, that he made Proclamation, that all the people of the Jews, who were willing, should go up to Jerusalem to build the House of God, &c.

(c) 2 Chron. 36. 22, 23. Nehem. 1. throughout; and the ensuing chapters.

(7) Finally, God Promised and Covenanted (d) to make a new Covenant with the House of Israel, and the House of Judah, and expressed what should be the Tenour of the Covenant. And God in performance of this Covenant and promise, sent Jesus Christ to be (e) Mediatour of this better Covenant, stablished upon better promises. The other Covenant thereby being made old, and vanishing away. For the Scripture saith of Christ: (f) By one offering he hath for ever perfected them that are Sanctified, whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us. For after that he had said before, This is the Covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord: I will put my Laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them: And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. So then the New Covenant promising, To remember their sins and iniquities no more, is only accomplished in Christ, who hath so fully satisfied Gods justice for the sins of all his Seed by the price of his own blood and death, that there needs no more expiatory Sacrifice to be offered for their sins for ever. (g) But in those Levitical Sacrifices, there is a remembrance again made of sins every year: For it is not possible that the blood of buls and of goats should take away sins. Wherefore Christ came, and by the Sacrifice of himself blots out the remembrance of his peoples sins with God for ever.

Thus its evident in all the grand Periods of the Covenants-Administration, that in all ages God hath ever been mindful of his Covenant, exactly performing it in its Season. The Churches continued Experience hereof, notably demonstrates the unparalleld faithfulness of God, and Sureness of his Covenant. For God is still as True, Faithful, Unchangable, Al-sufficient, Gracious, Merciful, and every way as able and willing to perform his Covenant to Christs Seed now as he was of old. And what should I add more? Time would fail me to descend to particular Promises, the branches of Gods Covenant, and to shew how accurately they have been still accomplished: and that not onely to Christs Seed, but sometimes even to Christs enemies. But these may more properly be considered of, in handling of the Promises.

4. From removal of all imaginable Corrumpent Causes, that might possibly render Gods Covenant unfaithful, or un-sure. What can there possibly be imagined by the most trembling scrupling doubting Soul that can any way impeach or weaken the Sureness of this Covenant of Faith? For, 1. Nothing in God, can do it. 2. Nothing in Christ. 3. Nothing in Christs Seed. 4. Nothing in the Enemies of Christ and his Seed, Seed, viz. The Serpent and his Seed. 5. Nothing in the Law of God. 6. Nothing in the Threatnings of God. 7. Nothing in the Covenant it self can possibly overthrow or once shake the stability and Sureneſs of the Covenant of Faith. And beſides theſe, what can be ſuſpected? wherefore then do we ſo doubt and ſtagger at Gods Covenant through unbelief, O we of little Faith?

(1) Nothing in God can be imagined againſt the Sureneſs of his Covenant. 1. Not any falſhood. For, (h) God that Covenanteth and promiſeth, cannot lye, yea, (i) its impoſsible he ſhould lye in his promiſes. 2. Not any unfaithfulneſs. For, God (k) that promiſeth is faithful: He is the Faithful God, keeping Covenant and mercy. 3. Not any folly or unskilfulneſs in bringing his Covenants to paſs. For, (l) God is only wiſe: and his underſtanding is infinite. He knows how to accompliſh every word of his; to that end, both how to remove all obſtructions and impediments to their performance, and how to overpower all things that they ſhall co-operate thereunto. 4. Not any infirmity or weakneſs. For, (m) What God promiſeth he is fully able to perform. And (n) nothing can be too hard for him who can do all things. 5. Not any injuſtice or unrighteouſneſs. For, (o) Is God unrighteous? God forbid: for then how ſhall God judge the world? yea (p) God is ſo righteous, that no unrighteouſneſs is in him, or can come from him, or can in the leaſt degree be approved by him. (q) He made a Covenant with Abraham, and performed his words, becauſe he is righteous. 6. Not any inconſtancy or variableneſs. For, (r) With God is no variableneſs, nor ſhadow of turning. His (ſ) Promiſe and Oath are two immutable things, declaring the immutability of his Counſel. (t) The LORD hath ſworn, and will not repent. —— God ſaith; (u) Once have I ſworn by mine Holineſs, that I will not lye unto David. My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips. 7. Finally, Not any Covenant-breaking diſpoſition or inclination in God. For, (x) God is always a Covenant-remembring, and a Covenant-keeping God.

(2) Nothing in Chriſt can be imagined as Deſtructive to the Covenant of Faith. For that muſt be ſuppoſed to be in him, Either As God; Or As Man; Or As God-Man, Mediatour betwixt God and Man. For, in other notion or reſpect how ſhould we conſider him? but in none of all theſe regards or Conſiderations can any thing be found in Chriſt deſtructive to the Sureneſs of this Covenant of Faith. 1. Not any thing in him as he is God. For, it hath been cleared already, That nothing can be imagined in God againſt the Sureneſs of the Covenant. 2. Nothing in Chriſt as he is Man, can infringe the Covenant. For, if any thing: doubtleſs, Sin. But ſin in Chriſt cannot do it: for that muſt be either, Sin Inherent in him, and Acted by him; Or Sin Imputed to him, and puniſhed in him: Yet neither of theſe can prevail. (y) Not ſin Inherent in him or Acted by him: for, in this ſenſe (z) He knew no ſin: He was (a) Holy, harmleſs, undefiled, ſeparate from Sinners: (a) He was in all points tempted like as we are,

are, yet without sin. When Satan had tempted him both before his publike Ministry, and at his Death with all advantagious Subtilties and importunities: yet he (b) left him, because he could find nothing in him; No tindar of Sin, to catch fire at any or all the sparks of his Temptations. (c) He did no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Though therefore he was by wicked hands Condemned and put to death, yet none of his Judges, or Adversaries, or their witnesses could find any just cause or Matter against him: yea Contrariwise, Pilate his Judge professed before the Iews, that (d) Neither he himself, nor yet Herod, found any fault in him: The thief on the Cross crucified with him, said, (e) This man hath done nothing amiss: The (f) Centurion when he saw what was done, glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man; Truly this was the Son of God. And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts and returned. (g) Not Sin Imputed to him, and Punished upon him, could prejudice this Covenant: but rather stablished and fulfilled the same. For, hereby he only wrought the Recovery of his Seed from Sin to righteousness, and from Death to eternal life. (g) He who knew no sin, was made sin for us: that we might be made the righteousness of God in him. And (h) what the Law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for Sin, condemned sin in the flesh: That the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us. And to this end Christ had Covenanted and restipulated with the Father, as hath been shew'd to accept & undergo the Mediatory office, & particularly as a Priest to offer up himself a Sacrifice for the sins of his Seed. 3. Finally, Nothing in Christ as God-man, Mediatour betwixt God and man, can shake or in the least degree weaken the Sureness of this Covenant. For, (i) Christ as Mediatour builds & (k) ratifies the Covenant by his Death, and therefore he cannot destroy it. (l) Again, (k) in Christ all Gods Promises are yea, and Amen. (l) Furthermore, if any thing in Christ as Mediatour should enervate the Covenant, it must be either some Insufficiency, or Unfaithfulness in his Mediation: for what else can be probably imagined? But in Christ neither of these can have place. Not Insufficiency: For, The (m) fulness of the Godhead dwels in him: He was (m) annointed with the oyl of gladness above all his fellows; for he received not the Spirit by measure, as they did; He is (n) full of grace and Truth, yea all fulness dwels in him, that of his fulness we may all receive, and grace for grace: He is (o) made of God to us wisdom, righteousness, Sanctification and Redemption: He is (p) able to save them to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them: He is (q) All and in all, and (r) we are Compleat in him. Not unfaithfulness: For, As he is (s) A merciful, so he is a faithful High-priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. He (t) was faithful to him that appointed, as also Moses was faithful in all his House: yea more then so, Moses was faithful in all Gods house, as a servant, but Christ as a son over his own House, whose house are we. (3) Nothing in Christs Seed can dash the Sureness of Gods Covenant. For, neither their Unworthiness, Nor their Weakness, Nor their Unfaithfulness, Nor their Inconstancy shall do it. 1. Not their unworthiness by reason of Sin and Corruption. For, (z) When God first of all revealed this Covenant of Faith in Paradise, (a) it was presently upon Adams Fall: and at that time, Adam and all mankind in him were in the most wretched, sinful and unworthy Condition that ever they were or shall be in on earth from the Creation till the judgment day, as (b) hath been manifested. And when God renewed this Covenant to Israel, they were (as God (c) shews) altogether unworthy of any such Federal favour. As therefore their unworthiness hindred not God from making Covenant with them: no more can their unworthiness hinder him from keeping it with them, being made. (d) This is a Covenant of Grace and Faith, as hath been demonstrated. Grace is the foundation of it, on Gods part: Faith the Condition of it, on ours. And yet that Faith (e) not of our selves: it is the gift of God. Therefore Gods Covenant, and the Sureness thereof, hath no dependance at all upon us, or upon any thing that is ours, but only upon God: seeing both the foundation and condition of it are from God. Consequently it must needs be sure, though we be never so unworthy. (f) Therefore it is of Faith, that it might be by grace: to the end the Promise might be sure to all the Seed: whether Iews or Gentiles. (g) This Covenant of Faith removes and destroys all the sinful unworthiness of Christs Seed: God herein Covenanting (h) to be merciful to their unrighteousness, and to remember their sins and their iniquities no more. And therefore their sins and unworthiness removed by the Covenant, cannot destroy or shake the Sureness of the Covenant. The Covenant-remedy against their sin and unworthiness, incomparably transcendeth and surpasseth all their sins and unworthiness. Christ and his Death are this Remedy. Now Christ hath more righteousness for them then they have unrighteousness; Christ hath more pardons, then they have debts: Christ hath more healing, then they have wounds; Christ hath more justification, then they have Condemnation: Christ hath more blessings, then they have Curses; For Christs worthiness is the worthiness of an infinite God, their unworthiness is but at the utmost the unworthiness of finite Creatures. 2. Not their weakness to perform their part of the Covenant, which they have Conditioned and restipulated, shall infringe the Covenants Sureness. For, God (whose (i) strength is perfected in his peoples weakness) hath fully provided against all their weakness in this Covenant; Saying, (k) I will make an Everlasting Covenant with them, That I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. And again; (h) I will put my Laws in their mind, and write them in their hearts: And I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. What a full Provision is here against all our weakness? And that chiefly two ways. (1) Partly, By Gods Principling us; he will put his fear into our hearts, and write his Laws in our minds. These shall so strengthen us, that we shall not depart from him: (2) Partly, By Gods undertaking for us, as well as for himself. He undertakes for both sides: That he will not turn away from us, and that we shall not depart from him: That he will be our God, and that we shall be his people. When Man and Wife Covenant, or when Man and Man Covenant, each Party undertakes only for himself; none undertakes for both parties, nor can. But God undertakes for both: True, He will, and we shall perform. Here's no place for weakness, to harm the Covenant's Sureness.

(h) Heb. 8. 10.

3. Not their unfaithfulness in Gods Covenant, can dash the Sureness of the Covenant. For, (1) The Covenants Sureness is bottomed upon the (i) faithfulness of God, and not of man. Therefore if Gods faithfulness abide sure and impregnable: his Covenant also will abide sure and impregnable. Mans unfaithfulness cannot overthrow Gods faithfulness. (2) God hath been wont to have respect to his Covenant and faithfully to perform it to the Political body of his People, his visible Church, though many therein dealt unfaithfully, perfidiously and rebelliously against him. Israel departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, wherefore God gave them to be oppressed by Hazael, King of Syria, but destroyed them not presently: For, (k) The LORD was Gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect unto them, because of his Covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Iacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence, as yet. How often did they sin against God and provoke him both in the wilderness and in Canaan? For which, how often did God punish them by afflictions and Enemies? (l) Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry. And he remembred for them his Covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. Hereupon saith the Apostle of the body of the Iewish Church, (m) What if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief make the Faith of God (that is, the faithfulness of God in his Covenant) of none effect? God forbid, yea, let God be true, but every man a lyar. (3) Yea God is pleased faithfully to perform his Covenant with every individual person of Christs true spiritual Seed, notwithstanding their manifold failings, and particular unfaithfulnesses: that his Truth and faithfulness may be the more gloriously commended. Their unfaithfulness (which is never habitual, and reigning) serves rather to illustrate, then overthrow the Lords fidelity: Inasmuch as he performs his Covenant and promise, even to those of his, that in some part deal unfaithfully in Covenant with him, rather pardoning their iniquities, then ſuffering his Truth to fail. Thus God dealt with David, as he confeſſeth, (n) Againſt thee, thee only have I ſinned, and done this evil in thy ſight: That thou might ſt be juſtified when thou ſpeakeſt. That is, (as (o) ſome expound it) I have fallen through thy juſt permiſſion, and this thou haſt ſuffered, that thou might ſt be juſtified: that is, Declared and known to be juſt and faithful in thy Promiſe. Thus God promiſed alſo to deal with David's Seed, in the tenour of his Covenant with him, (p) My Covenant ſhall ſtand faſt with him. His Seed alſo will I make for ever, and his throne as the days of Heaven. If his children forſake my Law, and walk not in my judgements; If they break my Statutes, and keep not my Commandments: Then will I viſit their tranſgreſſion with the rod, and their iniquity with ſtripes. Nevertheleſs my loving-kindneſs will I not utterly take from him: nor ſuffer my faithfulneſs to fail. My Covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out of my my lips. Once I have ſworn by mine holineſs, that I will not lye unto David. So true is that of the Apoſtles touching Chriſt, (q) If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful, he cannot deny himſelf. 4. Finally, Not the inconſtancy of Chriſts Seed, can render Gods Covenant inconſtant or unſure. For, though carnal men and hypocrites be inconſtant, unſetled, wavering and toſſed to and fro: yet true believers are habitually fixed and unmovable. (r) They that truſt in the LORD ſhall be as Mount Sion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever. They are (ſ) built upon a rock, the rock Chriſt by faith, and the gates of Hell ſhall not prevail againſt them. The Lord himſelf hath in his Covenant engaged for them, to (t) put his fear in their hearts, that they ſhall not depart from him. Therefore though they may fall, yet ſhall they never finally and totally fall away. Though they may have reliques of inconſtancy in them: yet ſhall not that inconſtancy prevail to have prædominion over them. The immutable God, will not only be conſtant in his Covenant to them; but alſo make them Conſtant therein by him.

(4) Nothing in the Enemies of Chriſt and his Seed, viz. in the Serpent and his Seed, can ſhake the Sureneſs of Gods Covenant. For, what can be ſuppoſed in them to do it? 1. Not their malice. For Gods (u) love and tender dearneſs to his Covenant and people is infinite: and therefore incomparably ſurpaſſing the finite malice of the Devil and all wicked men againſt them. 2. Not their policy. For, though the Old Serpent the Devil and his Seed (x) deal extream ſubtilly againſt Gods Covenant and people: yet the Lord only wiſe, infinite in underſtanding, and unſearchable in Counſel, can eaſily infatuate all their policies. And the Counſel of the Lord, that ſhal ſtand. 3. Not their power. For, (y) God is ſtronger then all, and nothing can either enfeeble his Covenant, or pluck his Covenant-people out of his hand. 4. Nor finally any thing that can be imagined in them. For in this Covenant, God hath Covenanted and promiſed to (z) put ſuch Enmity betwixt the two Seeds, viz. of the woman and the Serpent, That though the Serpent and his Seed bruiſe the Heel of Christ and Christians, the womans Seed, to their molestation: yet they shall bruise the head of the Serpent and his Seed the wicked, to their utter destruction.

(5) Nothing in the Law of God can dash the Sureness of this Covenant. For, 1. This (a) Covenant was confirmed and established to Abraham in Christ, (and thereby the Earthly Canaan, and heavenly Inheritance,) 400 and 30 years before the Law was given: therefore the Law cannot disannul it, that it should make the promise of God of none effect. 2. The Law is not against Gods Covenant: therefore it cannot prejudice the Sureness thereof at all. (b) Is the Law then against the Promises of God? God forbid. Why? Partly, because the Law was not given on Mount Sinai to afford life and Justification by it, but rather to Seal up Condemnation, by convincing all of sin, that despairing in themselves they might go to Christ for life. Partly, because the Law was given to the Jews, to be their Schoolmaster to bring them to Christ (the Moral Law by Convincing and correcting them for sin; The Ceremonial Law by directing them unto Christ, the remedy against sin,) that they might be justified by Faith, according to the tenour of this Covenant. So that the Law (as published on Sinai) was given as a Covenant of Faith, not as a Covenant of works: as will further appear in the distinct handling of that particular administration of the Covenant; and therefore it tends to confirm, settle and establish the Covenant of faith, & not in the least degree to weaken it.

(6) Nothing in the Threatnings of God, can enfeeble or overthrow this Covenant. For, 1. If the Law it self cannot overthrow it, how should the Threatnings and curse of the Law do it, which are but denunciations of Penalties annexed to the Law. 2. Christ (c) hath redeemed his Seed from the Curse of the Law, by becoming a Curse for them. Therefore the curse and threatnings of the Law can in no degree prejudice their state in this Covenant of Faith. 3. Of Gods Threatning there is a double use; Condemnatory, and Cautionary. They are Condemnatory to them that lie under the penalty of the broken Covenant of works, who accept not Gods Covenant of Faith and Christ therein: but to none else. They are only Cautionary to Christs Seed who are in the Covenant of Faith with God, to prevent them from Sinning against God and his Covenant. Curses and Threatnings, as well as Blessings and Promises, are Additionals and appendixes to this Covenant. That phrase is observable, (d) According to all the Curses of the Covenant. And therefore being Additionals annexed, they cannot weaken, but strengthen the Covenant. In Gods Threatnings are (as of old in Gods (e) Cloud betwixt the Israelites and Egyptians) a bright Side, and a dark side; The Honey and the Gall; The good and the evil. The Evil, the dark side of the Threatnings, viz. The Curse, the vengeance of God, the Destruction, the Damnation, &c. are intended for Godless, Christless, Covenantless persons. But the good, the bright side of the threatnings, viz. as Incitements to an holy fear, Cautions against sin, Inducements

Inducements unto duty and obedience, Indications of divine Truth and Justice, &c. are peculiarly intended to Gods Covenant-people. Without Promises, we should basely despair: without Threatnings, we should proudly presume. Betwixt these two Milstones (as Luther well said) Gods people are made sweet meal. Gods Covenant, is his Act or Charter of Grace to his Church: Gods Promises and Threats, are his Articles of Agreement, Proviso's and Cautions therein. Gods Covenant is as the Garden of Eden: The Promises as the pleasant fruit-Trees, especially as the Tree of life; And the Threatnings as the Tree of the Knowledge of good and evil. Eden was for delight; The fruit-trees for food; The Tree of life for Confirmation in Good; The Tree of knowledge for Caution against evil: So here proportionably, Gods Covenant is for his peoples spiritual delight; His Promises for her encouragement and establishment in all goodness and happiness; and his Threatnings for her Caution and preservation against Sin and Misery.

(7) Finally, Nothing in the Covenant it self can overthrow or shake the Sureness of it. 1. Not the Foundation of it; For, That is not weak or movable, but strong and immovable; viz. Gods meer (f) Grace, and Christs meritorious (g) Death: and (h) both according to Gods Eternal and immutable Decree. 2. Not the Parties to it; For, God on his part (i) cannot lye, or (k) suffer his Covenant-faithfulness to fail: And Christ with his Seed on their part, (l) shall not fail, or deal falsely in Gods Covenant. 3. Not the Greatness of the blessings and Mercies Covenanted; For, (m) What God hath promised, he is fully able to perform, and hath already performed them in all ages by-past, (n) being able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think; for he can do all things. 4. Nor, finally, the difficulty of the Conditions restipulated by Christs Seed; For, (o) Christ lives in them, acts in them, works all their works for them. And therefore they (p) can do all things through Christ strengthening them.

Thus, Nothing in God; Nothing in Christ: Nothing in Christs Seed; Nothing in the Enemies of Christ and his Seed; Nothing in the Law; Nothing in Gods Threatnings; Nothing in Gods Covenant it self, can be imagined, as a Corrumpent Cause, to dash or shake the Sureness of Gods Covenant. Now therefore let all the children of the Covenant and Promises, fix their faith and confidence upon this Sure Covenant of God, as upon an impregnable rock; that thence they may extract strong Consolation in all times of need against all disconsolations whatsoever.

5. Finally, The Sureness of the Covenant may be further demonstrated from the durable and everlasting Nature of it. That must needs be Sure, which is everlasting. Now this Covenant is (q) everlasting. But this Everlastingness of it makes a distinct Property, particularly to be considered.

(q) 2 Sam. 23. 5. Heb. 13. 20.

V. Comfortable. The Covenant of Faith is a most Comfortable

table Covenant; it is an Exquiſite Heart-reviving Cordial indeed to all the Faithful. For clearing of this Sweet Property, let us ſee; 1. How it may appear, That it is Comfortable. 2. To whom it is Comfortable. 3. In what reſpect it is Comfortable.

1. That this Covenant of Faith is A Comfortable Covenant, may be evidenced divers ways. For, 1. The whole Scriptures are Comfortable. They are a rich ſhop or Cabinet of Cordials (r) For, whatſoever things were written aforetime, were written for our learning, that we through patience and Comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Conſequently the Covenant of Faith, and the precious Promiſes thereof, being of all other the moſt eminent, ſweet, and Evangelical part of Scripture, muſt needs be Comfortable. 2. God ſingularly intended his peoples Comfort, in his making Covenant with them. For this very end, amongſt others, he Revealed his Covenant: that he might advance their Comforts. Hence the Apoſtle ſaith of Gods Covenant with Abraham; That (s) he confirmed it by an Oath. That by two immutable things (viz. his Covenant, and Oath, in which it was impoſsible for God to lye, we might have a ſtrong Conſolation. So then, God intended our Conſolation, by his immutable Covenant and Promiſe: and he intended our ſtrong Conſolation, by his immutable Oath ſtrengthening and Confirming his Covenant. Now if God intended our Comfort by this Covenant; doubtleſs he ſo fitted and framed the Covenant, that it might be Comfortable to us. For whatſoever means he ordains to any End, he makes them ſufficient and effectual for attaining of ſuch end. 3. Gods people have actually ſupported and Comforted themſelves by Gods Covenant, againſt ſaddeſt objects and occaſions of diſconſolation. Thus, though Davids houſe was not like the morning light when the Sun riſeth without clouds, nor like tender graſs ſpringing out of the Earth by clear ſhining after rain; as is promiſed to him that rules over men juſtly in the fear of God; though his houſe was not clear without clouds of troubles and afflictions, nor did grow at preſent ſo proſperouſly and flouriſhingly: yet againſt this ſaddening diſcomfort, David ſtays his heart with the rich Cordial of Gods Covenant. (t) Although mine houſe be not ſo with God: yet he hath made with me an Everlaſting Covenant, ordered in all things, and Sure; Therefore this is all my ſalvation, and all my delight, although he make it not to grow. (Thus we may render the Hebrew.) Thus alſo the Church of God, in extream Calamities under cruel perſecuting Enemies, yet comforteth and encourageth her ſelf in her prayer to the Lord, by conſideration of Gods Covenant, (among other grounds of ſupport,) ſaying; (u) O deliver not the ſoul of thy Turtle-dove unto the multitude of the wicked, forget not the Congregation of thy poor for ever. Have reſpect unto the Covenant, &c. When Gods people therefore have been in deepeſt waters and rougheſt Seas of diſtreſs, they have been wont to catch hold of this Sure Rock of Gods Covenant, and there to ſave and repoſe themſelves.

2. To whom this Covenant of Faith is Comfortable, May thus be declared, clared. 1. First we must distinguish of Persons. All persons may be considered, Either Unconverted, and in their meer (x) carnal condition in the first Adam: Or, 2. As in the way of Conversion under Conviction of their extreme Natural misery, without Christ; and of the alsufficient supernatural remedy in Christ: which Conviction is effected in them by (y) the Spirit of Christ. Or, 3. As effectually (z) Converted, and actually Called, from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan unto God. 2. Next we must distinguish of Comfort. 1. There's a Carnal Comfort, which even hypocrites, formalists, & carnal persons may receive either from carnal Objects, or from (a) spiritual Objects carnally apprehended: but which vanisheth away. 2 There's a Spiritual Comfort arising from spiritual grounds and objects spiritually apprehended. As from (b) the Spirit of God: (c) The light of Gods Countenance lifted up upon us: (d) Justification by Faith in Jesus Christ: (e) The fear of the Lord, &c. which Comforts are the peculiar inheritance of Gods people; (f) Strangers shall not meddle with their joy. Now things may be said to be spiritually Comfortable two ways; viz. Potentially, and Actually. Potentially those Spiritual things are Comfortable, which have in themselves some Principle, Cause, Foundation, ground or matter of Comfort; whereby they are disposed and able to comfort, if applyed. Thus Christ, the Scriptures, the Covenant, and Promises have in them much matter and ground of comfort, if apprehended and applyed by Faith. Actually those spiritual things are Comfortable, which upon application do actually and effectually Comfort indeed. And this, Partly by Secret Supportment against despair and overwhelming disconsolations. Hereby the Heart is sufficiently, though obscurely, (g) held up and staid from fainting and sinking. Partly by Sensible Refreshment; Hereby the heart being evidently (h) enlarged, revived and cheared up against discomforts, even unto joy and delight, &c. Thus conceive of Comfort, and of things Comfortable. 3. Now these things premised, we may more clearly judge, Unto whom this Covenant of Faith is Comfortable. 1. Unto meer carnal unconverted Persons, The Covenant carnally apprehended, may be carnally comfortable: as the (i) Gospel carnally tasted, may rejoyce a carnal apprehension. To such also it is Potentially Comfortable, there being such ground and Matter of Comfort therein, as is able to Comfort any persons to whom it is or shall be effectually applyed. But Actually, and in a true spiritual Sense, This Covenant is not comfortable, nor can be, to any meer (k) Carnal man, so remaining. 2. Unto persons under Conviction and in the way of Conversion, This Covenant of Faith is Comfortable; Not only Potentially, as a (l) ground and foundation of Comfort, posible: But in some sense Actually, by supporting them Secretly against despair, under the terrours of Conscience, horror of divine wrath, and dreadful curse of the Law, for Sin. For did not the Lord secretly sustain and bear up a poor soul under such spiritual agonies, by his Covenant in Christ: how quickly would he run, run, (m) with Judas, into desperate extremities! 8. Finally, Unto Persons effectually called and Converted, This Covenant is Comfortable, Not Carnally, But Spiritually: And that not only Potentially, as having in it rich Matter of Comfort: But also Actually, as being actually applyed unto them for Comfort. In which regard, they are Sometimes secretly supported by it against sinking and fainting: Sometimes they are sensibly refreshed with evident peace, enlargement and joy. To these the Covenant is primarily and especially Comfortable. Hence the Apostle declaring (n) Gods willingness more abundantly to shew the immutability of his Counsel in his Covenant, saith he, confirmed it by an Oath: That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible that God should lye, we might have a strong Consolation: and Doth also express to whom all this Comfort by the Covenant was intended, viz. To the heirs of Promise. — who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us. That is, to true Converts, and believers, who have fled by Faith to lay hold of the Promised inheritance, as well as Abraham. How eminent then is the Priviledge of Gods People Converted, or In Converting, beyond all carnal unconverted ones in the world, in that this Covenat of Faith is so singularly and peculiarly Comfortable unto them! They alone shall eat this hidden Mannah: They alone shall drink this living water, and lick this refreshing Honey out of this Heavenly Rock.

(m) Mat. 27. 3, 4, 5.

(n) Heb. 6. 17, 18.

3. How and in what respects the Covenant is Comfortable. This Covenant of Faith is Comfortable to the Faithful heirs of Promise, 1. Originally. 2. Divinely. 3. Comprehensively. 4. Strongly. 5. Gradually. 6. Suitably. 7. Continually.

(1) Originally Comfortable. The Covenant of Faith was the First Dawning of Comfort, and Original discovery thereof, to lapsed man after the Fall. After Adam (and we all in him) had broke the Covenant of works: nothing but despair, Divine wrath, and Death, could be represented unto him: till this Covenant of Faith, in Christ (o) the Seed of the woman, was revealed. This was the first peering of the Morning and day of Salvation. This was Gods first Overture of Peace to poor Sinners. This was the first opening of A door of hope to hopeless Creatures. And all discoveries of Comfort from God do originally flow from this Primary and most Ancient Discovery. Gods meer Grace and eternal Decree in Christ are the very First Original of all our Comfort: but Gods Covenant of Faith in Christ, is the very First & original Discovery of all our comfort. And that which is Firist in any Kind, is excellent. Our comfort, if we look at the Antiquity of its publication, is as Ancient as Paradise.

(o) Gen 3. 15.

(2) Divinely Comfortable. The Covenant of Faith, and all the Comfortableness thereof, is wholly and only from God in Jesus Christ. The Author of it, is God himself. The federate Parties are Divine; viz. God and Christ with his Seed. The foundation of it Divine: viz. Gods (p) meer Grace. The Benefits and Matters promised to Christs Seed therein, Divine; Recovery from Sin and

(p) Rom. 4. 16.

Death to righteousnes and everlasting life by Christ, That the Lord may be our God and we his people. The Condition required of and restipulated by Christs Seed, Divine; viz. (q) Faith, which is not of our selves, but is the gift of God: and Evangelical obedience, (r) whereunto we are created in Christ. All these are Divine: and all these are most Comfortable; therefore they are Divinely comfortable. Now The Covenant's Comfortableness being meerly Divine, and not Humane: Consequently, The Comforts of the Covenant are Cordial indeed, Transcendent, and Permanent.

1. Cordial indeed. Not formally and in show, but really and effectually Comfortable. Man's comforts may sound in the ear, but never reach the heart: but Gods Covenant-Consolations reach to the very heart and soul to strengthen and revive them. Hence Gods (f) speaking Comfortably, is in the Hebrew phrase stiled speaking to the Heart. God alone (who hath all hearts in his hand, and made the heart,) knows the Hearts bitterness and dejections: and he alone can appropriate to the heart effectual refreshments. 2. Transcendent. Humane and Creature-Comforts may be small: but the Divine Covenant-Comforts are (t) not small, but great and transcendent. They far surpass all Created discomforts. If (u) discomforts of Gods Covenant-people abound; Gods Covenant-Consolations in Christ do abound and superabound. The Occasions of our discomforts are finite, the Foundation of our Comforts is infinite, even (x) the God of all Consolation, who can create and command all kinds and all Degrees of Consolation for his people. This is most sweet. 3. Permanent and Continuing: Mans Comforts are oftimes but a flash, quickly vanishing and leaving the heart sadder and more disconsolate; as a flash of lightning gone in a moment, and leaving the night darker: but Gods Comforts are fixed, lasting and (y) everlasting Comforts; they minister Matter of (z) everlasting joy and continual rejoycing.

(3) Comprehensively Comfortable. The Covenant of Faith doth (if well considered) comprehend all the Scripture-Consolations in it, which have been propounded to mankind since Adam's Fall. For, 1. The Matter of all Scripture-Comforts, is Christ with all his Benefits. All Scripture-Consolations are centred in Christ, as the Common meeting place. What is there in Scripture any way comfortable indeed, but as it tends to Christ, leads to the enjoyment of Christ in some regard or other? Now Christ and all his benefits are Compriz'd in this Covenant: Consequently all his Comforts. 2. The Instrumental Mean, whereby all Scripture-Comforts in Christ are tendered, is the (a) Promises, which are all yea and Amen in Christ. Now these Promises are all of them as so many branches, Clauses or Articles of the Covenant. Whatsoever Comfort there is in the Promises, it is Consequently in the Covenant it self. 3. The Instrumental Mean whereby all Scripture-Comforts in Christ and the Promises are actually and effectually applyed, is peculiarly (b) Faith. Now Faith is the Condition of this Covenant: whatsoever Comfortbalness fortableneſs therefore is in Faith, is alſo comprehended in this Covenant. Hence we may ſay of this Covenant of Faith, that it is Gods great Magazein and Rich Treaſury of Comforts: Gods General Receptacle and Store-houſe of Heavenly Refreſhment, of Spiritual Support. No kind or ſort of Comfort for any diſconſolate Condition whatſoever, but may be hence extracted.

(4) Strongly and Prevailingly Comfortable. Humane Comforts are but weak and feeble, diſcomforts oftentimes prevailing over them, and leaving the heart fainting, ſinking, deſpairing. But Gods Covenant-Comforts are ſtrong and prevailing Comforts. Stronger then all their Diſcomforts whatſoever, and prevailing finally over them. To this effect it is ſaid, That (c) God confirmed his Covenant, &c. to the heirs of promiſe by an Oath. That by two immutable things in which it was impoſsible for God to lye, we might have (ἰσχυρὰν παράκλησιν) a ſtrong Conſolation or, a Potent, a mighty Conſolation. It is oppoſed to that which is invalid, infirm. So then, God moſt ſtrongly Confirmed his Covenant, that his federate people might have ſtrong Conſolation from his Covenant. (c) Heb. 6. 17, 18.

(5) Gradually Comfortable. The Covenant of Faith was revealed by degrees, the Following Adminiſtrations (as hath been already ſhewed) being ſtill more Compleat and excellent then the foregoing. Proportionably the Covenant (though comfortable in every Adminiſtration, yet) is ſtill more and more Comfortable in the Succeeding then in the foregoing Diſpenſations: and in the laſt Adminiſtration, viz. The New Covenant, moſt comfortable of all. Chriſt hath kept the good wine until now: His beſt Conſolations, till this laſt Adminiſtration of the Covenant. Chriſt actually exhibited, being far more Comfortable, then Chriſt meerly Promiſed.

(6) Suitably, ſufficiently & Compleatly Comfortable. Chriſts Elect ſeed, whether Converted already, or in the way of Converting to Chriſt, can have no Cauſe of diſcomfort and trouble poſsibly incident unto them, againſt which they may not furniſh themſelves with pregnant, ſuitable & ſufficient Conſolations from this Covenant of Faith. For,

1. How comfortable is this Covenant againſt Sin, and all Self-unworthineſs! Herein God Covenanteth thus; (d) I will be merciful to their unrighteouſneſſes, and their ſins and their tranſgreſsions I will not remember any more. What an admirable Cordial is this to poor bruiſed and heavy-laden Souls, preſſed down to the Earth, yea even to the gates of Hell, with the ſenſe of ſelf-ſinfulneſs and ſelf-vileneſs? Theſe words may even lift up their ſpirits to Heaven, in hope and Conſolation. For, 1. Here's the Object of diſcomfort fully expreſſed, and that in three words, and all in the plural number: (e) unrighteouſneſſes, Sins, Tranſgreſsions. To intimate to us, That God hath mercy and pardon enough for all his Covenant-peoples Sins, of what kind ſoever: Original, Actual: againſt piety, equity, or Sobriety, &c: of what degrees or aggravations ſoever, whether againſt Mercies, judgements, means of grace, &c: and by what (d) Heb. 8. 12. Ier. 31. 34. (e) Ἀνομίαις. Ἁμαρτιῶν. Ἀνομιῶν.

what names or titles ſoever they be ſtiled and known. Why elſe doth the Lord here uſe ſuch an heap of words? 2. Here's Gods Act of grace for his peoples Conſolaton, againſt the former diſcomfort, moſt ſatisfactorily promiſed in two phraſes; (1) He will be merciful to their unrighteouſneſſes. Gods mercy is infinite, their unrighteouſneſſes finite: therefore his Mercies ſhall utterly ſwallow up all their ſinful miſeries. (2) He will not remember their ſins and tranſgreſſions any more. He will not only forgive, but forget. He will croſs his Debt-book, that they ſhall never be queſtioned or called to an account for them. He will paſs an Eternal Act of Oblivion upon them. Their ſins ſhall be utterly buried in Oblivion, as if they had never been. Oh ſweet refreſhment! Then, their ſins may be in them: but ſhall not be imputed to them. Their tranſgreſſions may burden them, but ſhall not ſink them: may preſs them, but ſhall not oppreſs them: may exerciſe them, ſhall not execute them: may grieve and afflict them a while, but ſhall not condemn them or ſeparate them at all from God in this or the world to come.

2. How Comfortable is this Covenant againſt all ſpiritual Enemies, The fleſh, the world and the Devil, and their Temptations! Theſe may oppoſe, tempt, and trouble Gods people, yet ſhall not prevail over Gods people, but rather Gods people over them, according to the intimation of this Covenant. 1. Over the fleſh and ſin; Partly, in that God (e) will be merciful to their unrighteouſneſſes, and their ſins and tranſgreſſions he will not remember any more. Partly in that God (f) will write his Law in their minds, and put his fear in their hearts, that they ſhall not depart away from him. If God then will not remember their ſins any more: Here's their juſtification from ſin, ſo that they ſhall not be condemned for it. If God will plant his laws and fear in them that they ſhall not depart from him: Here's their Sanctification againſt ſin, ſo that ſin ſhall never ſeparate them from God. In both here's their victory over Sin. 2. Over the world and the things of the world: Partly, in that Chriſt their Covenant-Mediatour hath already overcome the world for them. (g) In the world ye ſhall have tribulation; but, be of good chear, I have overcome the world. Partly, in that our Covenant-Faith, is the victory that overcometh the world. (h) Whatſoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our Faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jeſus is the Son of God? 3. Over the devil and Satan this Covenant aſſures us alſo of victory, in that it Promiſeth, (i) That the (i) Seed of the woman (viz. Chriſt and his Elect) ſhall bruiſe the head of the Serpent. And in the Serpents head chiefly is his poyſon, policy and greateſt miſchief ſeated. (k) That Gods Covenant-people ſhall have Gods (k) fear put into their hearts, ſo as they ſhall not depart away from God. Conſequently no power or devices of Satan ſhall ever be able to ſeparate them from the love of God in Jeſus Chriſt their Lord, in which regard they are more then Conquerours. (l) That (l) God will be to them a God: and they shall be to him a people. And if God be theirs, (m) if God be for them, what can prevailingly be against them? How comfortable these things! what though we have many Enemies, in and for Christ? we have more and stronger Consolations in Gods Covenant through Christ.

3. How Comfortable is this Covenant against Divine wrath! Gods wrath is most terrible and intolerable to sinful dust and ashes. (n) In his favour is life, Consequently in his frown is Death. (o) Who may stand before him when he is angry? (p) He but looketh on the Earth and it trembleth: He but toucheth the hils, and they smoak. Hereupon Gods people, above all things, Supplicate for his favour; (q) Many say, who will shew us good? LORD lift thou up the light of thy Countenance upon us: and deprecate his wrath, (r) O LORD rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thine hot displeasure. Now this Covenant doth sweetly secure and comfort us against divine wrath for sin; 1. By assuring us that the Matter, or Procuring Cause of Gods wrath, viz. our (s) sins, shall be totally and finally removed out of his sight and memory. Consequently his wrath shall be removed with our sins. 2. By certifying us, That, though (t) God for our iniquities, and failings (arising from the reliques of sin in us) chasten us with stripes and visit us with a rod: yet his loving-kindness he will not utterly take from us, nor suffer his faithfulness to fail. Now if Gods faithfulness and loving-kindness shall not fail us; Gods wrath shall not condemn us. 3. By telling us, That The Lord (u) will be our God, and we shall be his people. Now by this blisful Covenant-Relation betwixt God and us, Gods revenging wrath is removed from us for evermore.

4. How Comfortable is this Covenant against all Terrours of Conscience! when Conscience is once throughy awakened with clear apprehensions of Sin, the Curse, and wrath of God for sin; oh how furiously doth it sting, gnaw, and tear the very soul in pieces! How restless, how perplexed, how despairing, how dangerous is such a mans Condition! (x) The Spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity: but a wounded Spirit who can bear? Yet in this Covenant are excellent Antidotes against all these troubles and terrours of Conscience. For, 1. Herein God promiseth (as hath been shewed) Recovery from the state of sin and death, to a state of righteousness and eternal life: and this by Christ, through Faith. Therefore here is Justification and pardon of sin promised: Free justification through faith without merit: and full justification by Jesus Christ, God as well as man. And will not this calm the most perplexed and wounded Conscience? (y) Being justified by faith we have peace with God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So that we not only joy in hope of the glory of God: but also we glory in Tribulation. Therefore come unto this Covenant, and therein (z) unto Christ by Faith all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and he will give you rest. Take his yoke upon you, —— and you shall find rest to your Souls. Christ that by a word made such a perfect calm in the tempestuous Sea, can as easily by a word make a perfect calm in in a troubled conscience. 2. Herein God Covenanteth to (a) be our God, and that we shall be his people. So that our main and principal happiness is safe and secure. Here's matter of Triumph, against all Terrour and trouble of Spirit whatsoever.

5. How Comfortable is this Covenant against the wages of Sin, Death that (b) King of terrours: and all the Harbingers of death, afflictions, weaknesses, pains, diseases, &c! For, 1. This Covenant of Faith is a direct and plenary remedy against the breach of the Covenant of works, and the penalty of that Breach, Death. According to this Covenant of works (c) man brought death upon himself by his own disobedience: According to this Covenant of Faith God restores lapsed Man from sin to righteousness, from Death to life, by the Obedience of his Surety and Mediatour Jesus Christ. 2. This Covenant leads us to Christ, and to a State of Salvation in him: Consequently, if once we be in Christ, (d) there's no condemnation to us. 3. This Covenant, embraced by Faith, makes God ours, and Jesus Christ ours. Now if God and Jesus Christ be once ours, all things are ours for our Good. Poverty as well as Riches; Wants as well as Fulness: Sickness as well as Health: Weakness as well as Strength: Pains as well as Ease: Death as well as Life. The worst of these are ours, for our benefit as well as the best of these. Death and its Harbingers are in their kinde through Christ advantagious, amicable and gainful to us, as well as life and its refreshments. (e) All are yours, —— whether the world, or life, or Death, or things present, or things to come: all are yours: And ye are Christs, and Christ is Gods. (f) By Death's Harbingers, Necessities, distresses, afflictions, &c. Gods people are (f) Humbled, that they wax not proud: (g) Proved and tryed that they be not dross, but pure gold: (h) Purged and refined from their sins and iniquities: (i) Improved and advantaged in their Graces and Spiritual Growth, as the body by a growing Ague, or as the grass by an April shower: (k) Experimentally acquainted with God and his ways in Christ, more then ever: (l) Reduced from disobedient wandrings out of Christs paths: (m) Incited to more diligent and vigilant Obedience; (n) conformed unto Jesus Christ their elder Brother: (o) Assured more and more of their filial Relation to God, and of Gods paternal faithfulness to them; And in a word, hereby they are (p) wrought, fitted and prepared for eternal glory. Our souls are apt to canker and grow rusty by sin: afflictions are Gods sharp files that rub off our rust. The strings of a musical instrument, when struck, make the sweetest melody: so the strokes of afflictions make our souls spiritually melodious. Jo. Bradford, in prison said, (q) God doth thus punish me: nay rather in punishing blesseth me. And indeed I thank him more of this prison, then of any Pasture, yea then of any pleasure that ever I had; For in it I find my most sweet good God always. (r) Ignatius professed when he began to be a sufferer, he began to be a disciple of Christ indeed. (s) By Death it self, Gods people Are

6. How Comfortable is this Covenant in respect of all our Graces! 1. Are we troubled about the Truth of Grace? By this Covenant we may resolve our selves. Covenant-Grace, is true Grace. Now, Covenant-Grace, (v) Illuminates the darkest mind in the weakest Christian so as savingly to know the Lord, and Principles of Godliness. (x) And they shall no more teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: For they shall all know me, from the greatest of them unto the least of them, saith the LORD. (y) Mollifies the hardest heart; so as to transform and turn (z) a heart of stone into an heart of flesh. (a) Renews the very frame of heart and spirit, that they become New Creatures. (b) A new heart also will I give you, and a New Spirit will I put within you. (c) Conforms the Mind and heart sweetly to the Laws of God. (d) I will put my Laws into their minde, and write them in their hearts. So, there shall be a Law within them, answerable and conform to the Law without them. (e) Purifies and cleanses them both from (f) guilt and filth of their iniquities. (g) Prevails victoriously over the Old Serpent and all his subtilties: (h) bruising his Head. (i) Finally, Covenant-Grace makes us effectually and wholly the People of God. (k) And I will be their God, and they shall be my people. If we be furnished with such Grace as this: then we may be of good Comfort, for we have true Covenant-Grace. 2. Are we obstructed in the Actings of Grace, that they are low, dull, feeble, &c. in their operations: and this discourageth us? Behold this Covenant comforts against all such obstructions and discouragements. Partly, Promising That (l) God will put his Spirit within us, and cause us to walk in his statutes, and keep his judgements and do them. This is very comfortable. Partly Alluring our Graces, especially our Faith, Hope and Love, to act towards God and Jesus Christ with all vivacity and alacrity, who offer themselves in this Covenant of Faith, to do so much for us and to be wholly ours for evermore. What greater and quickning Motives could be laid before us? 3. Are we perplexed at defects and weaknesses of Grace? Herein this Covenant relieves and comforts us. For, according to this Covenant, (m) We have Gods (n) Spirit put within us. This is clearly Covenanted. Now Gods Spirit, being the Spirit of Grace, supplies them, in whom he is, with all kinds and degrees of grace necessary unto Salvation, and helps their infirmities, Rom. 8. 26. so weak and feeble, yet they are sufficient to make us (g) Gods people, both for present, and for ever. Though weak, yet are they so strong as to bring us at last unto glory. 4. Finally, Are we afraid of Decays of Grace, that our graces will at last wither, and we fall away? Have we such a Covenant as this: and shall we be afraid of Apostasie? Consider, (h) This Covenant is (i) an everlasting Covenant. Therefore the Grace of this Covenant, must needs be everlasting Grace. (k) This Covenant is most sure and faithful: nothing shall overthrow it. Therefore Grace begun in us according to this Covenant, cannot fail. (l) God in this Covenant expresly promiseth; (m) I will not turn away from them, to do them good: but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from mee, God will not turn from them: they shall not depart from God. Oh how sweet and cordial are these Comforts!

7. How Comfortable is this Covenant in regard of Prayer and all Christian duties! For, 1. This Covenant notably encourageth unto Prayer, and to all Duties of Christian Obedience, by the many (n) Promises of Divine Audience and acceptance, comprized in the Covenant. Hereupon Gods people in former ages have so encouraged themselves to Prayer, and in Prayer by Gods Covenant and Promises. As, The (o) Church, in great affliction. Jacob (p) in great fear of Esau, David (q) upon Gods renewing Covenant with him. King Jehoshaphat, (r) in extream danger of his enemies. The Levites, (s) in their solemn day of Humiliation for the sins of the people, &c. In like sort all Gods people in all succeeding ages may encourage themselves both unto Prayer and in Praying, by the Covenant and the Promises thereof. As Aaron and Hur held up the hands of Moses praying, so the Covenant and Promises hold up the hands of Faith and fervency in Christians praying. And in like sort Gods Covenant and Promises encourage unto all Christian duties. Hence Gods (t) Covenant and Promises, and the performance thereof to Israel most punctually, are remembred and storied, that (from Consideration thereof) Gods people might observe his Statutes, and keep his Laws. 2. This Covenant singularly supporteth and comforteth God people against all their failings and infirmities discovered in Prayer or in any other Christian observance: And this divers ways, As 1. Partly, By declaring upon what terms and considerations we are now to perform all Christian duties, Prayer, &c. Not as Matters Antecedent to our Justification and acceptation with God, (as once Personal obedience was required under the Covenant of works;) but as Matters Subsequent to, and following upon our Justification and acceptation with God in Christ. Not as Causes of Justification, but as fruits and effects of Justifying Faith, (u) as Iames implyeth. Not as matters of righteousnes before God: but as Matters of true thankfulnes unto God for his righteousnes bestowed upon us. As Luther said excellently. (w) The weak are to be instructed how good works do not justifie: How they ought to be done, How not to be done. They ought to be done done, not as the Cauſe, but as the fruits of righteouſneſs. And, when we are made righteous, we ought to do them: but not contrariwiſe, to the end that when we are unrighteous, we may be made righteous. The Tree maketh the apple, but not the apple the Tree. Thus this Covenant, though it require Faith as the Inſtrumental Cauſe of our Juſtification before God, yet it requires worthy walking in all Chriſtian duties as fruits and effects of a juſtified ſtate, and as teſtifications of love and gratitude to God for the ſame. Now this is Comfortable, that our Chriſtian duties are not the Cauſe or Matter of our righteouſneſs before God; for then our failings therein would condemn us: But are fruits of a juſtified State. Therefore God accepting the integrity of them covers their infirmities. 2. Partly, By diſcovering to them, That ſeeing God when he brings them firſt into Covenant with himſelf is (t) merciful to their unrighteouſneſſes, and will remember their ſins and tranſgeſſions no more, which they committed in their carnal ſtate: much more he will be merciful to all the infirmities, failings and weakneſſes of their Chriſtian duties, and to all the reliques of ſin in them, and will remember them no more, whereof they become guilty in their Covenant-State. If God remit the Ten thouſand Talents, will he not much more forgive the hundred pence? How Comfortable are theſe Conſiderations! Gods people according to this Covenant are not juſtified for their Chriſtian duties: nor ſhall they be condemned for their failings and infirmities in their Chriſtian duties. But their infirmities being covered, their Evangelical integrity in all their duties and ſervices ſhall be accepted.

8. Finally, How Comfortable is this Covenant againſt all Difficulties or Impediments that may ariſe, and all Objections that may poſsibly be made, contrary to the Salvation or happines of all Gods Covenant-people! This Covenant removes all Impediments, facilitates all difficulties, and anſwers all objections, that may ſtand in the way, or diſcourage them. 1. Is it guilt of Sin? (u) God will be merciful to their unrighteouſneſſes, and will never remember their Sins or tranſgreſſions any more. 2. Is it inherent filth and power of Sin? (x) God will ſprinkle clean water upon them, and they ſhall be clean: from all their filthineſs, and from all their idols will be cleanſe them. A New heart alſo will he give them, and a New ſpirit will he put within them. 3. Is it hardneſs and impenitency of heart? (y) God will take away the ſtony heart out of their fleſh, and will give them an heart of fleſh. —— Then ſhall they remember their own evil ways, and their doings that were not good; and ſhall loath themſelves in their own ſight, for their iniquities, and for their abominations. 4. Is it divine wrath, and the extream diſtance betwixt God and them? Gods wrath is paſſed away from them, Chriſt according to this Covenant having fully ſatisfied divine juſtice in their behalf: and they are by Covenant become a (z) people neer unto God; (a) He being their God, and they his people. 5. Is it the Curſe and Condemnation of the Law? (b) Chriſt hath redeemed them

(according to this Covenant) from the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for them. So that, (c) Now there is no Condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus. 6. Is it infirmity or weakness of Graces or Duties? Be their graces never so infirm, yet shall they persevere to the end: God having Covenanted, (d) To give one heart and one way, that they may fear him for ever. (Heb. All days.) And, To put his fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from him. Their weakest Graces then, shall be so strong as to last for ever, as to keep them close to God for ever. And Consequently they shall be stronger then all their sins and spiritual Enemies. As for infirmities in their Duties, God hath promised to relieve them by his Spirit; (e) I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my Statutes, and ye shall keep my judgements and do them. And according to this Covenant of Faith, As their Perfections in duties cannot justifie them: so their Imperfections in duties shall not condemn them. For, (f) God will be merciful to their unrighteousnesses. In a word, God undertakes for both sides: For them, and for himself. He will be their God, and they shall be his people. 7. Finally, Is it Death, the Devil, or any thing, that can hinder the happiness of Gods Covenant-people? Nothing at all shall do it. Neither Death; For, this Covenant removes them from Death to life. Nor Devil; For, this Covenant assures the old (g) Serpents head shall be bruised by the Seed of the woman. Nor any thing; For; (h) if God be thus for them; who, or what shall prevailingly be against them? — who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth: who is he that Condemneth? Come hither ye children of Gods Covenant, and Heirs of Promise; and Comfort one another with these words.

VI. Everlasting. Gods Covenant of Faith is not only long lasting, but Everlasting. This the last Property of this Covenant, which I shall here open; and that briefly, shewing, 1. That this Covenant is Everlasting. 2. How, and in what sense it is Everlasting.

1. That this Covenant is everlasting, is clear; 1. From Gods Denomination, who hath often stiled it, An Everlasting Covenant. In the Old Testament he frequently cals it, in Heb. ברית עולם Berith Hlholam; (i) A Covenant of Eternity. In the New Testament he cals it in Greek Διαθηκη αιωνιος, Diatheke Aionios, (k) The Eternal Covenant, or, The Everlasting Covenant. 2. From the Confession of such as be in Covenant with God, acknowledging Gods Covenant to be Everlasting, As, (l) The Covenant with Israel touching Canaan was an Everlasting Covenant. And David said of this Covenant renewed with him; (m) Although mine house be not so with God, yet he hath made with me an Everlasting Covenant. 3. From the Nature of the Covenant it self, as formerly opened and confirmed, it is clear The Covenant of Faith must needs be Everlasting, whether we take notice of the Order, Sureness, Matter, or Mediatour of it. 1. The Order of it, is last, The Covenant of works in innocency was First. That being being wholly overthrown by the Fall, The Covenant of Faith succeeds and comes in place thereof, as a Remedy: offering Jesus Christ as a publique Surety for all Gods elect, Passively To satisfie divine justice offended to the full, by his suffering the Curse and Penalty of the broken Covenant for them; and Actively to fulfil all righteousness in his own person compleatly which the Covenant of works required. The Covenant of Faith, and therein Christ, being despised; No other Covenant takes place, by way of Remedy: But certain perdition follows. This Covenant therefore is everlasting. 2. The Sureness of this Covenant is such, that (as hath been abundantly cleared,) nothing can possibly overthrow it. Now that must needs be everlasting, which nothing can overthrow. The Covenant of works was not Everlasting, because it was not sure; it was quickly overthrown by Adams disobedience. 3. The Matter of this Covenant is Everlasting; viz. Righteousness and Everlasting life Covenanted on Gods part: and an Everlasting Covenant-Relation stablished betwixt God and his Covenant-people. (n) I will not remember their sins and transgressions any more. —— I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. How long? For ever. No time is limited. Now the Matter Covenanted being Everlasting, the Covenant is so also. 4. Finally, The Mediatour of the Covenant is everlasting; viz. (o) Jesus Christ yesterday, and to day, and for ever the same. His Person is (p) Eternal, His Office (q) Everlasting: Consequently the Covenant whereof he is Mediatour, is everlasting.

(q) Heb. 1. 8 Isa. 9. 7. Heb. 5. 6. & 7. 3,25.

2. How, and in what sense this Covenant is Everlasting: For clearing of this, consider, A Thing is said to be Eternal or Everlasting three ways. viz. 1. Most properly, perfectly and absolutely a thing is everlasting, which never had beginning; Never Succession of former or latter, or any change, and never shall have end. This (as the Schoolmen phrase it,) is, æternum & a parte ante, & a parte post: in quo nec est prius, nec posterius, &c. viz. Eternal both in respect of the part before, and the part after: wherein is neither former nor latter, but all at once. This in the Hebrew phrase is stiled, (r) עולם עד Hhholam va-hhhed; Ever and Yet, from עלם Hhholam, latuit; which signifies To lie hid; Because the beginning and End of that which is Eternal is hid, past finding out: and in that which is properly Eternal, we can never come to a Period. There is still עד Hhhed, a yet: something further and further then we can comprehend. In Greek it is called, Αἰών, as it were, ἀεὶ ὤν, Always existing; for, that which is properly eternal is always existing, still the same. In this Sense (s) God, and he alone is eternal or Everlasting: being absolutely incapable of beginning, succession or end. 2. Improperly, A thing is stiled Everlasting or Eternal, which (though it had a beginning; yet) never shall have end. In this Sense, Hels torment is called (t) Everlasting punishment: Heavens happiness is called life Eternal; for these shall once begin, but never End. 3. Most improperly, A thing is sometimes counted Everlasting or Eternal, which is only Diuturnal, or Long-lasting;

(r) Psal. 55. 6.

(s) Gen. 21. 33 Isa 57. 15 Psal. 90. 2. & 102. 24. to 28 which both had a beginning, and shall have an End. Thus God Covenanted to give Phineahs and his seed, (u) An everlasting Priesthood: and yet his Priesthood had its beginning and End, as all other Ceremonies and Types. Thus God promised Canaan, &c. for an (x) Everlasting possession to Jacobs Seed: and yet as they began, so they ceased to possess that Land.

(u) Numb. 25.12,13.

Gods Covenant also may be Considered, 1. According to the Substance of it, As tendering unto Sinners Righteousness and eternal life by Jesus Christ through Faith, The Lord becoming their God and they his people. 2. According to the Circumstances of it, or its Manner of Administration, which was in one sort before Moses, in another sort under and after Moses till Christ, and in another sort after Christ, as hath been abundantly declared.

Now these things premised, it is easie to Resolve how the Covenant of Faith is Everlasting. 1. It is not Everlasting either for Circumstance, or substance, absolutely, perfectly and most properly. For that is Gods sole Prerogative. 2. It is everlasting according to the Substance of it, Improperly. That is, Though it had a beginning presently after Adams Fall, yet it shall never have an End: but Gods Covenant-people shall be his people and he their God both in this and the world to come. 3. It is everlasting according to the Circumstance or manner of Administration, most improperly: having both beginning and End. That is, being Long-lasting. So, the Mosaical Administration continued till Christ. The Evangelical Administration shall continue from Christ to the end of the world. Then all Administrations shall cease, and be swallowed up in immediate vision and full fruition of God in Christ blessed for evermore.

Thus The Covenant of Faith is Everlasting, that is, without End, for the Substance of it. Consequently, 1. It is most firm, faithful and Sure. That is Sure, which is Everlasting. 2. All the federates or Covenant-people of God shall Persevere to the End, and never Apostatize. They may fall: yet not totally, nor finally fall away. (y) Nothing shall separate them from Gods love in Christ, whilst the Everlasting Covenant keeps them still in Gods everlasting Arms. 3. This Covenant of Faith is God, Last Covenant, after which no succeeding Covenant is to be expected. What can succeed that which hath no end? The Covenant of Faith succeeded the First Covenant, the Covenant of works: and tendered a Remedy against that Covenant-breach. But if this Remedy, this Covenant of Faith, be not accepted but despised, where shall such despises appear?

COROLLARY

Corollary VIII.

VIII. Hence, Finally, The Concord and Discord: The Agreement and Difference betwixt the Covenant of Works, and the Covenant of Faith, is notably conspicuous from the Nature of the Covenant of Faith thus unfolded in the General. If the Natures of the Covenant of Works, and of the Covenant of Faith, formerly described, be duly weighed, it will evidently appear, that in some few thing they Agree, but in many things they Disagree.

As a Ground for opening of this Agreement and Difference betwixt these two Covenants, those words of the Apostle are Considerable. ——— (z) Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what Law? Of works? Nay: But by the Law of Faith. In this accurate Epistle, the Apostle, Treating of our Justification before God, Having showed at large That neither Iew nor Gentile can be justified by the works of the Law, chap. 1. verse 17. to chap. 3. ver. 21. He Proves that both Iew and Gentile are justified of meer Grace by Faith alone in Iesus Christ. 1. Because God hath without the Law revealed another way of justifying Sinners, viz. by remitting their sins freely through Faith in Christs blood, chap. 3. 21. to 27. 2. Because Justification by Faith excludes all boasting from any thing at all in the Sinner. ver. 27. Therefore (God intending to take all the glory of Sinners Iustification to himself alone) all both Iews and Gentiles must be justified by faith only. God being one, and his way of justifying one also. verse 28, 29, 30. and yet this doth not make void, but establish the Law in Christ, ver. 31. 3. Because Abraham, the Father of the Faithful was justified by Faith only without the Works of the Law, and that in his uncircumcised state: consequently so must all his spiritual Seed be justified, chap. 4. throughout. Thus stands the Context. This 27th verse then shews; 1. That's Gods way of justifying Sinners, which excludes all boasting from Sinners. And, 2. Not the Law of Works, but The Law of Faith excludes such boasting. By, [Law of Works] understand, The doctrine of works; viz. That Doctrine which prescribes and requires Works as the Condition and Matter of our Iustification. This is only The Covenant of Works. It is said, Works: not Work. Because it is not one, but all the Works of the Law for kind and degree perfectly and perpetually done in mans own person, that will justifie according to the Covenant of Works. By [Law of Faith] understand the Doctrine of Faith; viz. That Doctrine which Prescribes Faith only as the Instrument and Condition of justifying. This is only The Covenant of Faith, The Gospel. Betwixt these two Laws, these two Covenants, this Text expresseth a Concord, and a Discord. A Concord, In that they are each of them stiled a [Law]: A Discord, In that the one requires works, the other Faith, as the Condition: and in that Boasting, (z) Rom. 3. 27.

ing is excluded by the one, but not by the other. Whence it is clear, That as there is some Agreement, so there is some disagreement betwixt the Covenant of Faith and the Covenant of Works. Note, 1. Wherein they Agree. 2. Wherein they disagree. 3. Results from both.

I. The Agreement betwixt the Covenant of Works and Covenant of Faith consists chiefly in certain Generalities, viz. They agree in the General notion and Consideration:

1. Of their Efficient Cause, or Author. One and the self-same absolute, infinite and eternal God being the Prime Cause and (a) Author both of the Covenant of Works, and of the Covenant of Faith. For none but God can create and institute a Covenant betwixt God and Man, which shall be Acceptable to God, and Advantagious to man.

2. Of their Impulsive, or Inward Moving Cause; viz. Divine Grace. Of meer Grace God pleased to admit (b) Adam into Covenant with himself in Innocency: for the most perfect Creature having nothing but what he received from the Creator, can demerit nothing from the Creator. And of meer (c) Grace God admitted Man into Covenant with himself after the Fall: Lapsed man being much more unable then man innocent to challenge any thing from God by way of merit.

(b) Gen. 2. 16, 17. 1 Cor. 4. 7.

(c) Ezek. 16. 1. to 9. & 36. 22, 32.

3. Of the Federates, or Parties Covenanting. To both these Covenants, (d) God and Man are Parties. Not God and Angels: Not God and inferiour Creatures. God then is a Party on the one hand: and Man on the other. Yea Man (e) as in an Adam, as in a publique person, is a Party to the Covenant of Faith, as well as to the Covenant of Works. As these are two Covenants: so there are two Adams and their respective Seeds. With these two Adams and their Seeds, God contracts in these two Covenants respectively: as hath been (f) formerly cleared at large.

(d) Gen. 2. 16, 17. & 17. 2.

(e) Compare Gen. 2. 16, 17. & Rom. 5. 12, 14. with Gen. 3. 15. Rom. 5. 14. to the end. Gal. 3. 16, 17.

(f) See in Book II. chap. 2. Aphor. 2. Section III.

4. Of the Matters Covenanted and restipulated. In both these Covenants God (g) Propounds a Law, and Promiseth Life to man upon some Condition. And man restipulateth in some sense Faith and Obedience to God. There is a Faith required in the Covenant of Works, as well as in the Covenant of Faith: And an obedience required and restipulated in the Covenant of Faith, as well as in the Covenant of Works, (though of a different nature) as after will appear.

(g) Gen. 2. 16, 17 & 3. 15. Deut. 5. 2, &c.

5. Of the Form of the Covenants. The General Form of both these Covenants, is a (h) mutual Agreement and reciprocal stipulation betwixt the Federates God and man.

(h) See before in Ch. II. Aphorism. 2. Sect. 4.

6. Of the inward foundation or Principle of performance on both Gods part, and Mans. On Gods part the inward Principle (if we may so speak) inclining him to perform whatsoever he promised in both these Covenants, is his (i) Truth and Fidelity. On Mans part the inward ground and Principle disposing and enabling him to keep and perform what he restipulateth to God in both these Covenants, is Gods writing his Law and Covenant in his mind, and putting his Spirit and

(i) Tit. 1, 2. Heb. 10. 23. & 11. 11. Deut. 7. 9.

fear into his inward parts. In (k) Adams heart the Law or Covenant of works was written, naturally: and enabled him to obserue it. In every godly man's heart (l) the Law or Covenant of Faith is written in his mind, and Gods spirit and fear put into his heart, supernaturally: and enableth them to keep it. When this inscription fails, or is obliterated, proportionably the federal performance fails and is obstructed.

7. Finally, The Covenant of works and Faith do Agree in their General Scope and End. viz. Gods manifestation of his excellent Glory to and in his Creature: and Man's Participation of true and eternal Happiness from and in his Creator God blessed for evermore. Amen.

Thus these two Covenants do well Agree in these General respects and Considerations. But all this Agreeement is very imperfect, remote, and at a great distance, being only Generical. The difference betwixt them on the other hand is more Perfect, immediate, and neer at hand, being specifical.

II. The Disagreement, or Difference betwixt the Covenant of works, and the Covenant of Faith, is manifold and very great. And it Consists not in General, but in precise Special respects and Considerations, As.

1. They differ in the special Consideration of their Efficient Cause, or Author. One and the same Faithful and everliving (m) God was the Author of them both: but in different respects. He was Author of the Covenant of Works, As a loving wel-pleased and bountiful Creator, dealing with his upright, perfect and spotless Creature: But he was Author of the Covenant of Faith, As a most gracious and merciful Redeemer in Christ, dealing with his Elect lapsed into sin and misery through Adams disobedience. So that God founded the Covenant of Works upon the integrity of Man's Creation: But he grounded the Covenant of Faith upon the Perfection of mans Redemption. Hence, the Covenant of Works is stiled by some, A Covenant of Amity, or Friendship: because when it was made there was perfect Amity betwixt God and man. Contrariwise the Covenant of Faith is called a Covenant of Reconcilement, because when it was first made there was betwixt God and man extream Enmity, needing Reconcilement.

2. They differ in the Special notion of their Impulsive, or inward moving Cause. Gods meer Grace was the sole inward Cause inclining him to make both these Covenants: but differently. Gods Grace, as it is Grace of Benevolence, or of good-will towards his perfect and innocent Creatures, (yet deserving no good thing at all from their Creator, no more then the most curiously fashioned pot can deserve ought from the Potter,) I say, this Grace of good will moved God to make his Covenant of Works. But Gods Grace, as it is Grace of Commiseration and of bowels of mercy, towards his sinful and miserable Creatures, deserving onely all evil from their Creator, moved him to make the Covenant of Faith; As (n) hath formerly been explained more at large. So that, though in some sense the Covenant of Works was was of Grace: yet the Covenant of Faith is of Grace much more peculiarly and Eminently. Hence by way of Singular Eminency it is called The Covenant of Grace.

3. They differ in the Special Consideration of the Federates, or Parties Covenanting. True, God and man (yea Man as in an Adam, as in a publique or universal Person) are Parties to both these Covenants: yet in far different sort. (o) God as a well-pleased, benevolent and bountiful Creator: Man as a pure and upright Creature in the First Adam, were Parties to the Covenant of Works. On the other hand, (p) God as a gracious, merciful and Compassionate Redeemer in Christ: Man as a polluted, wretched, undone Sinner, yet elected and respected in Christ Jesus the last Adam, are Federates or Parties to the Covenant of Faith.

(o) Gen. 2. 16, 17. Eccles. 7. 29.

(p) Gen. 3. 15.

4. They differ in the Special Notion of the Matters Covenanted in both these Covenants. For though, On Gods part there be A Law imposed, and A Promise of everlasting life Propounded And On Mans part Faith and Obedience restipulated, In both these Covenants: yet these Matters are set forth herein with great difference.

(1) On Gods Part, His Law and Promise, in the Covenant of Works and of Faith differ much. I. His Law or Command imposed in them, may be thus differenced and distinguished. 1. In that Covenant His Law is (q) A Law of Works, requiring works, as the Condition and matter of mans justification: In this Covenant, His Law is A Law of Faith, requiring Faith in Christ, as the instrument and condition of justification. 2. In the Covenant of Works Gods Law and Command is immediatly laid (r) upon Mans own Person only, in its utmost extent, exaction, rigour and Curse. But in the Covenant of Faith Gods Law and Command is immediatly laid (s) upon Christs person only in its utmost extent, rigour, and Curse; and in Christ upon (t) his Covenant-seed with merciful lenity & Moderation, God accepting their upright respect to all his Commands and covering their infirmities. This makes Christs yoak, an easie yoak: and his burden, a light burden. 3. The Law imposed in the Covenant of Works, was only Natural: but the Law of the Covenant of Faith is also Supernatural. II. Gods Promise in these two Covenants is exceeding different also. For, 1. The Covenant of Works Promiseth (u) Life, yea a blessed and everlasting life, yet only an Animate Life or Natural life on Earth in Paradise, so far as we can gather from Scripture: But the Covenant of Faith promiseth not only (x) an happy everlasting life, but a supernatural and Divine life, even a Noble Translation from Sin and Death to righteousness and eternal life, inchoate on Earth by Grace, consummate in Heaven by glory. 2. That Covenant promised everlasting life on Earth, as a Reward of justice: This Covenant promiseth eternal life in Heaven, as the reward of the riches of mercy and Free-grace. (y) To him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace but of debt: but to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, is the reward not reckoned of debt but of Grace. 3. That Covenant promiseth life Everlasting to (h) perpetual and perfect Personal Obedience, but in case of failing though but in the least degree, leaves no place for Repentance or Remission of Sin. But This Covenant promiseth (a) Eternal life to him that believeth; and withall (b) free Remission of Sin to him that Repenteth, yea (c) Repentance also to him that Sinneth. 4. Finally, That Covenant of works promised (d) life upon Condition of perfect personal Obedience, but promised not a permanent ability for such obedience: But this Covenant of Faith, not only promiseth everlasting life unto believing, but also (e) persevering Principles of Grace enabling them so to believe unto the end.

on

(2) On Mans part, Faith and Obedience restipulated in these two Covenants have their respective differences also. 1. Faith restipulated in the Covenant of Works, though it agree with Faith restipulated in the Covenant of Faith, in that (i) Both of them are of God; (k) Both of them tend to perswade man of Gods love; (l) Both of them beget and breed in man love to God (as that learned (f) Cameron hath well observed) yet it differs also from it, divers ways. Viz. 1. in the Manner of Gods requiring it. Faith in the Covenant of works is required, not expresly, But onely implicitly and by Consequence; because in innocency man had not the least cause to doubt or suspect Gods love to him. But Faith in the Covenant of Faith is required expresly and directly; because after the Fall the Conscience of the Sinner terrified with the guilt of Sin, Death, and Divine wrath, cannot possibly be raised up to true hope and Comfort, but by Gods free Promises embraced by Faith. 2. In the foundation thereof. Faith restipulated in the Covenant of works, As it was bestowed of God (per modum Naturæ, as the Schools speak,) in a natural way: so it is grounded and leaneth upon the Title of perfect Nature. But the Faith of this Covenant of Faith, As it is (g) from God, (per modum gratiæ supernaturalis,) by way of supernatural Grace, so it is (h) bottomed and leans upon Christs supernatural righteousness and Gods Promise in him. 3. In the fruit and effect thereof. The Faith of that Covenant, having but a changeable principle of Nature, produced in Adam only a changeable righteousness, which was finally and totally lost: But the Faith of the Covenant of Faith, arising from an eternal and unchangeable principle, (i) the Spirit of Grace, breedeth a righteousness like it self. (k) eternal and unchangeable, which can never be lost finally and totally. II. Obedience restipulated in that Covenant, remarkably differs from Obedience in this. For, 1. Obedience in the Covenant of works, was to be performed to God only as Mans Creator and Preserver: But Obedience in the Covenant of Faith is to be performed to God not only as Mans Creator and Preserver, but also as Mans Restorer and Redeemer in Jesus Christ. 2. Obedience according to that Covenant was to be (l) Perfect for kinds and degrees, perpetual for continuance without the least least omission or intermission, and Personal, only performed by a mans own person. This Covenant admitting no Mediatour, Surety or Substitute at all, in point of Obedience or in case of failing therein. Obedience according to this Covenant, is to be (m) accurately perfect and perpetual in Christs person as the Sinners Mediatour and Surety, and (n) sincerely perfect, upright and Constant in the believers person in and through Christ. 3. This perfect, perpetual personal Obedience according to that Covenant was the very (o) Condition of Adams justification, and the very Matter of his righteousness. But according to this Covenant Christs perfect and perpetual (p) Obedience Active and Passive in his own person, imputed by Faith, is the only Matter of Sinners righteousness, whereby he is freely and fully justified before God. The justified persons obedience is not at all the cause or matter of his righteousness, or the Condition of his justification before God: but rather the consequent Qualification of the person justified: the fruit and effect of justification: The real testification of justified persons thankfulness unto God: The Matter of their righteousness only before men. (q) The Way to raigning, not the cause of raigning with Christ in Heaven. 4. Finally According to that Covenant of works, (r) the least failing in Obedience was punishable by death without all hope of mercy on Gods part, or possibility of Repentance and satisfaction on mans part. But according to this Covenant the justified persons upright obedience is in Christ accepted, and all the imperfections, infirmities and failings thereof Covered of meer grace and mercy in Christ, through Faith and Repentance. Thus these two Covenants differ exceedingly in the Special and peculiar Consideration of the Matters Covenanted in them respectively, whether on Gods part or on Mans.

5. They differ in their Special Form or Manner. Viz. In their Form of Manifestation. For, 1. The Covenant of works was (s) Promised and established both at once. The Covenant of Faith was (t) Promised in the Old Testament a long time before it was established by the blood of Christ in the New Testament. And it was discovered, not wholly and entirely all at once, but gradually by steps and degrees according to the Churches Capacity. 2. The Covenant of works, The Law of God, was in some sort evident to the Light of Nature and to Natural Conscience, at least in respect of the outward acts of duty required, & gross acts of sin prohibited. For, even (u) the Gentiles, who have not the Law, do by nature the things contained in the Law, being the Law unto themselves, which shews the work of the Law in some measure written in their hearts. But the Covenant of Faith is not at all evident in the least degree to a Natural Conscience by any light of Nature: but is meerly and wholly discoverd by Divine supernatural Revelation. All the men on Earth, all the Angels in Heaven, could not have devised or imagined such a way of justifying and saving of Sinners by Jesus Christ. Hence, though naturally we are very prone to seek for justification by works, and Duties, and with much ado are beaten off from this false way, because somewhat agreeable to Nature: yet we are hardly drawn to believe in Jesus Christ for justification; Believing being wholly above Nature, yea and against Nature. Therefore the least degree of true Faith is most highly to be valued, & is very Comfortable. II. In their Form, Sanction, or Establishment. The Covenant of VVorks was established by (x) Command of Duty, A Threatning of death in Case of Disobedience, An Implicit Promise of life to contrary Obedience, and by two Sacramental Trees: yet all without a Mediatour. Nor needed there any Mediatour because Adam was perfect. But the (y) Covenant of Faith together with all the Commands, Promises, Sacraments, &c. thereof are established in and with a Mediatour Jesus Christ. III. In their Form of Administration. For, 1. The Covenant of works was Administred by a (z) Natural Inscription of it in the heart. The Covenant of Faith by a (a) Supernatural Inscription of it in the mind & heart. 2. That was Administred by (b) Divine voice, without Scripture: This (c) both by Divine voice and Scripture. 3. That was administred Conditionally, Promising life upon Condition of obedience: which Condition being performed, Adam should have had life as a due debt in some sense, and boasting would not have been then excluded. (Although Adam even in innocency could not in a strict sense have merited any thing from God: he having all of Gods meer bounty.) But this Covenant of Faith is administred more absolutely. That is, It promiseth not eternal life to any person for any Merit, work, worth, disposition or intention under any sense or Notion in him; but only to Faith accepting Jesus Christ. Otherwise Faith is required herein as a Condition: Nor is this Covenant so absolute as to exclude all Repentance, New obedience and walking worthy of God: which are herein required under other Notions.

6. They differ in their respective Properties and Perfections. For, 1. The Covenant of works was of Grace, yet that the Grace of Benevolence only to an understanding Creature: but the Covenant of Faith is of meer Grace, and that both the Grace of Benevolence, and the Grace of Merciful Commiserations, also to ill-deserving Sinners. 2. The Covenant of works was not Sure. For though Gods Promise, in respect of himself was Sure and inviolable: yet in respect of Adam and his mutable principles, (he being not confirmed in good immutably,) it became mutable also, and (d) was overthrown by his disobedience. But the Covenant of Faith is so immovably and inviolably Sure, that (as hath been shewed) nothing shall be ever able to overthrow it. 3. The Covenant of works was Comfortable only to a pure and perfect Creature, and that only whilest he continued in that purity and perfection: otherwise in case of the (e) least failing, it speaks nothing but death without mercy. But the Covenant of Faith is most Comfortable to an impure, imperfect Sinner, tendering to him a most pure, perfect and al-sufficient Saviour, (f) able to save him to the uttermost, and as willing as able. How much more is it Comfortable to an imperfect fect Saint, that hath already accepted Jesus Christ, and this Covenanted Salvation in him? So that this Covenant speaks nothing but Mercy, bowels of mercy, life, peace and Salvation to all distressed Creatures that will accept it. 4 The Covenant of works was no lasting Covenant. It continued no longer in its Priviledges and advantages to man, then Adam continued in his integrity, which probably was not very many hours, (as hath been shewed.) Though it (g) Continue of force still in its curse and penalty to all Adam's carnal Seed that have not accepted Jesus Christ the last Adam as their Saviour. But the Covenant of Faith is a long-lasting, yea an (h) Everlasting Covenant, as hath been explained. The Covenant of Faith first made in Paradise did antiquate and make old the Covenant of works: But no other Covenant shall ever succeed to antiquate or abolish the Covenant of Faith.

(g) Gal. 3. 10.

(h) 2 Sam. 23. 5. Heb 13. 20.

7. They differ in regard of their peculiar and respective Effects. For, 1. The Covenant of works afforded to man Communion with God only as a loving and bountiful Creator: The Covenant of Faith affords to man Communion with God also as with a most faithful, merciful, compassionate Redeemer in Christ. 2. The Covenant of works lifted innocent Adam up to the dignity of an Honourable servant, of a Noble Creature above all sublunary Creatures, so that he became (i) little less then Angels: But the Covenant of Faith surpassingly advanceth sinful and miserable man, (k) naturally a child of wrath, to the (l) High and Heavenly dignity of Membership in Christ, Sonship to God, and Heirship, yea Co-heirship with Christ in respect of Eternal Glory. So that now man little lower then the Angels according to that Covenant, becomes much higher then the Angels according to this Covenant. 3. The Covenant of works (m) excludes not all boasting, man having an inward ability in himself perfectly to perform the Condition of that Covenant required and restipulated on his part, which performance was the very Matter of his righteousness and Cause of his justification: But the Covenant of Faith totally excludes all boasting, the Matter of the Sinners righteousness and justification being wholly without himself, viz. The Obedience and righteousness of Christ. And the whole mysterie of this Covenant, being only a Contrivance of meer Grace. 4. The Covenant of Works thought it would have made man happy in persevering, yet it enabled him not to Persevere: But the Covenant of Faith both makes the federates Persevere, and happy in Persevering.

8. Finally, These two Covenants differ in regard of the Speciality of their End. For, Though both of them tend Ultimately to advance Gods Excellent Glory, and Secondarily to promote Mans happiness: yet they tend hereunto differently. 1. The Covenant of works tends peculiarly to Display the excellent glory of Gods Freedom, Wisdom, Goodness, Bountifulness and Justice: But the Covenant of Faith much more Eminently advanceth Gods Glory in all these Perfections, and over and above, most singularly proclaims to all the world, the exceeding exceeding riches of the Glory of Gods Free-Grace, Tender-Mercies, and Long-suffering. 2. The Covenant of Works tends to advance Gods Glory, in dealing with his Creatures without a Mediatour: So that by the Covenant of works no Glory at all was intended to God as a Redeemer in Christ, or to Christ as a Mediatour. But the Covenant of Faith tends singularly to magnifie Gods glory, in dealing with his Creatures by a Mediatour Jesus Christ; so that the glory of the son of God Iesus Christ God-man, as Mediatour and Saviour of Sinners, is in this Covenant eminently provided for; (n) That all men may honour the Son as they honour the Father. 3. The Covenant of works tended to promote Mans Happiness through perfection of Nature, in an Everlasting life on Earth. But the Covenant of Faith tends to advance Mans happiness, through perfections of Christs righteousness, Grace, and Glory, in an everlasting life in the highest Heavens.

(n) Ioh. 5. 22, 23.

III. Results arising from this Agreement and Disagreement betwixt the Covenant of Works, and the Covenant of Faith, are divers, viz.

1. Hence, The Covenant of Faith being once erected and set on foot by God, the Covenant of works is abolished and abrogated as to the point of justification and happiness by it. Why? because the Covenant of Faith brings in a quite opposite and contrary way of justification and happiness; not by mans own personal obedience from principles of upright nature; but by Christs perfect, personal obedience imputed of meer grace, and apprehended by Faith. Now we must be justified and saved by righteousness and obedience without us, not within us: by righteousness imputed, not inherent: by Faith, not by works: of meer Grace, not of debt. Consequently the Covenant of Faith that brings in this New way of justification and happiness, doth antiquate the Covenant of works wholly as to that old way of justification and happiness by works. (o) Christ is the End of the Law for righteousness to them that believe.

(o) Rom. 10. 4.

2. Hence, The Covenant of Faith, being truly accepted by us, the Covenant of works is also abolished and abrogated in respect of us, as to the point of Death and Condemnation by it. For, Though the broken Covenant of works pronounceth nothing but Death and damnation upon Adam and all his posterity whilest under the penalty and forfeiture of that Covenant: yet the Covenant of Faith in Christ, by way of Antidote and Remedy thereunto, pronounceth life and salvation to all that will accept it and believe. The Covenant of Faith then is the poor Sinners Sanctuary, and City of Refuge to fly unto from the vengeance of the Covenant of works. They then that truly believe, accept this Covenant of Faith; and accepting it, they embrace Christ, and are implanted into him; and being once (p) in Christ, there is no Condemnation to them, in that regard the Covenant of works hath no more to do with them.

(p) Rom. 8. 1.

3. Hence, The self-same persons cannot at one and the same time be be under the Covenant of works, and the Covenant of Faith. Successively, and at several times, they may be, and all are under them both since the Fall. Adam (q) presently upon his disobedience was under the Condemnation of the Covenant of works, till he accepted the Covenant of Faith: And so (r) all Adams posterity while carnal are under the Curse and Condemnation of the Covenant of works, til they by true Faith accept Christ and the Covenant of Faith. But none can be under both these Covenants at once. For None can be justified by works and Faith at once; by inherent, and imputed righteousness at once: None can be happy without a Mediatour, and by a Mediatour at once: None can be righteous by Nature, and Grace at once: None can be under two such contrary and irreconcileable Covenants at once. (s) If by Grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise Grace is no more Grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more Grace: otherwise work is no more work.

(q) Gen. 3. 6, 7, &c.

(r) Gal. 3. 10.

(s) Rom. 11. 6.

4. The Covenant of Faith doth far surpass and excel the Covenant of works. Consider well all these special differences betwixt them, and half an eye may see which excels. 1. The Covenant of Works was from God as a liberal Creator: The Covenant of Faith from God as a Compassionate Redeemer. 2. That was of the Grace of good-will: this of the Grace of Commiseration. 3. That was betwixt God and man as in the First Adam: this betwixt God and man as in Christ the Last Adam. 4. That required perfect and perpetual personal Obedience, to be performed by natural faith and abilities, promising thereupon everlasting life on Earth: This requireth perfect and perpetual personal Obedience in Christ, as the matter of our righteousness, accepts upright obedience in his Seed, to be performed by supernatural Faith and abilities, promising everlasting life in Heaven. 5. That was stablished upon the foundation of perfect Nature without a Mediatour: This upon the foundation of most perfect Grace in a Mediatour Jesus Christ. 6. That was Mutable, and lasted but a while: this most Sure and Everlasting. 7. That afforded Communion with God as a Creator, Elevated man to the dignity of an eminent servant, excluded not boasting, nor enabled unto Perseveting: But this affords Communion with God as a Saviour, elevates man to the honour of Sonship, heirship and co-heirship with Christ, excludes all self-boasting, and enables unto final persevering. 8. Finally, That tended to magnifie Gods wisdom, goodness and bounty, and to advance mans happiness on Earth, but both without any honour intended to a Mediatour: But this tends besides these to extol Gods Commiserating Grace, bowels of mercy and long-suffering, and to promote mans happiness for ever in heaven, in both intending most singular honour to Jesus Christ the Mediatour. Thus though The Glory of the Covenant of works in it self was great: yet Comparatively it was but small, to this Glory of the Covenant of Faith which so far excelleth.

5. Hence, To be under the Covenant of Faith, is far better then to be under under the Covenant of works in any regard. For, Since the Fall they that are under the Covenant of works, are under the curse & damnation of it: but they that are under and in the Covenant of Faith, are in a state of Bliss and Salvation. Before the Fall, Adam able to keep the Covenant of Works had a Natural and Earthly happiness thereby: but they that are in the Covenant of Faith, have thereby Spiritual and heavenly happiness. Who would not long to be within this Covenant?

6. Hence, Finally, Though Adam and all mankind in him, under Covenant of works were much bound to God before the Fall, yet mankind under the Covenant of Faith is much more bound to God since the Fall. For, In that Covenant God condescended to a finite Creature: In this Covenant God descends to a wretched Sinner. In that Covenant God shewed much bounty to mankind, deserving no Good: In this God shews much Grace and mercy to mankind, deserving nothing but ill. In that God promised Adam an Heaven on Earth: In this God promiseth us an Heaven in Heaven. God hath done more for us by far in the Last Adam, then ever he did for us in the First Adam. Then he made us happy: now he make us double happy. Then he gave us one world, now he give us two worlds. Oh let us be double thankful for this Covenant of Faith. As thankful as is possible now on Earth, and hereafter we shall be more thankful then now is either possible or imaginable Eternally in Heaven.

Hitherto the two first things (t) propounded, for opening the Nature of the COVENANT of FAITH more Generally, have been at large cleared, in two distinct Aphorisms, viz. 1. That, the COVENANT of WORKS being broken in the First Adam: the Lord pleased to Reveal a COVENANT of FAITH in Jesus Christ the Last Adam. 2. What this COVENANT of FAITH is. Next Consider we of the third and Last thing propounded for clearing of the Nature of the COVENANT of Faith in General, viz. 3. How this COVENANT of FAITH is to be distinguished and distributed into its several branches. This shall be very briefly evidenced in this third Aphorism ensuing, viz.

(t) See before at the beginning of this CHAP.

APHORISM

APHORISM III.

The COVENANT of FAITH may be subdistinguished, or distributed into two branches, viz. 1. Gods COVENANT of PROMISE with one peculiar sort of people only before Christ: 2. Gods COVENANT of PERFORMANCE, or the New COVENANT, with all sorts of people since Christ.

This is not so much a Distribution of a Genus into Contra-distinct Species, or Different Kinds of Covenants: As of a Species, or of one kind of Covenant, into its Individuals, different one from another, not Substantially and essentially, but only Accidentally and Circumstantially, as will afterwards appear. For the better opening of this Distinction in this Aphorism, I shall endeavour to clear these particulars, viz. 1. That, This Distinction is Agreeable to Scripture. 2. That, Jesus Christ the chief Matter of the Covenant of Faith, is the Foundation and Original ground of this Distinction, as he comes under different Considerations. 3. What the terms of the Distinction, viz. Covenants of Promise, and Covenant of Performance, do mean. 4. That, The Covenants of Promise were before Christ, and limited peculiarly to one sort of People; but the Covenant of Performance since Christ, and extended to all sorts of People. 5. Which are the Principal Periods and degrees of the Covenants of Promise, and of the Administrations thereof.

1. That this Distinction is agreeable to Scripture, is not obscurely intimated in that passage of the Apostle to the Ephesians, (u) wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, — That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the Common-wealth of Israel, and Strangers from the COVENANTS of PROMISE, having no Hope, and without God in the world. Here the Apostle, that he may make the Ephesians more abundantly sensible of their Spiritual state in Christ, & surpassing happiness thereof, remembers them of their contrary carnal State in Gentilism or Paganism, and the manifold miseries thereof. Contraries compared together do conspicuously illustrate one another. Whilst they were Gentiles in the flesh, that is, in their Paganism, which (for the Generality of them) lasted til Christs Coming and Death; As they were without Christ, the Head, and aliens from the Common-wealth of Israel, the Church of Christ: So they were Strangers to the Covenants of Promise, peculiarly belonging to the Church, in Christ: and Consequently they were Hopeless, and without God in the world. So then, without Christ, without the Church, his mystical Body: without the Church, without the Covenants of Promise, the Churches Charter of Priviledges: without Covenants of Promise, without Hope, which is immediately grounded upon the Promises: and without Hope, without God himself, who is the prime Efficient, principal Object, and Ultimate end of Hope. How elegantly are these things ordered by the Apostle! This the immediate intent of these words. So that this Scripture gives notable light to this Distinction. For,

1, Herein, One Member of the Distinction is plainly expressed, viz. Covenants of Promise. What Covenant is here stiled, Covenants of Promise? Not The Covenant of works. For in what sense can it be called Covenants in the plural number, seeing it was but only one single Covenant, and had but only one single Administration? Therefore it must needs be The Covenant of Faith, which the Apostle here intends by The Covenants of Promise: which though it be but one for Substance, yet it had many several Administrations, and hence is called Covenants.

2. Herein, under this Notion of The Covenants of Promise, the Covenant of Faith is intended, only as it was dispensed in several distinct Administrations before Christs Death: and not at all as it was dispensed after his Death: For, 1. After Christs Death the Administration of the Covenant of Faith is onely one; and therefore in that respect it cannot be called Covenants: As it may in respect of the Many Administrations before Christ. 2. To the Covenants of Promise, these Ephesians and so all the Gentiles, during their Gentilism, were Strangers. How long? Till (x) Christ by his blood brought them nigh, and broke down the Partition-wall by his Death. So then, These Covenants of Promise, are the Covenant of Faith only as dispensed before Christs Death, unto which all the Gentiles were strangers, The Covenants of Promise peculiarly belonging to the Commonwealth of Israel only.

(x) Eph. 2. 12, 13, &c.

3. Herein finally, The other member of the Distinction is Consequently implyed, viz. Gods Covenant of Performance, or His New Covenant. For the Apostle saith not barely, they were Strangers to the Covenants, but exegetically and discretively he explains himself saying, at that time ye were Strangers to the Covenants of Promise: implying there was now a Covenant of Performance, a New Covenant in Christ performed, unto which they were not strangers as formerly they were to the Covenants of Promise. Now, Covenants of Promise, and of Performance, are Members directly Opposite and Contradistinct: and mutually implying one another. Thus, this Distinction is bottomed upon Scripture.

II. That Jesus Christ the chief Matter of the Covenant of Faith, is the Foundation and original ground of this Distinction, as he comes under different Considerations. Jesus Christ is Considered and presented to his Church in the Covenant of Faith two ways, viz.

1. As Promised to come afterwards in fulness of time in humane flesh, and therein to live, suffer, dye, be buried, Rise again, Ascend into Heaven, and to sit at Gods right hand, and all for the accomplishment of the Redemption and Recovery of his Elect from Sin and Death to Righteousness and Eternal Life. In this sense Christ was tendered to Adam, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses, Israel, David, and to all the holy Patriarchs, Prophets and people of God under the old Testament, before Christs Incarnation. Hence Christ is stiled by Zachariah (y) The Mercy Promised to our Fathers. Or, The Mercy with our Fathers. The Promise. (z) These all having obtained a good report through Faith received not the Promise; that is, Christ incarnate, &c. promised: Christ being the great Promise; and the accomplishment of the Promises. Now the Covenant of Faith tendering Christ as Promised, is stiled the Covenants of Promise. Covenants in the plural, but Promise in the singular number: because for Substance the principal Promised Mercy, Christ, is but one; though for Circumstance and manner of Administration the tender of Christ of old was divers.

(y) ποιῆσαι ἔλεος μετὰ τῶν πατέρων ἡμῶν i.e. To perform the Mercy with our Fathers. See Luke 1.72.

(z) Heb. 11. 39.

2. As Performed, and in fulness of time come already in our flesh, and therein having lived, dyed, been buried, Risen from the Dead, Ascended, and being sate down on Gods right hand, and having done and endured already whatsoever was requisite for his Elects Recovery. In this sense and Notion Christ is tendered to his Apostles, Churches and people under the New Testament, especially from his Ascension till the End of the world. For upon the (a) Solemn day of Pentecost when People of all Nations were met together at Jerusalem, the Evangelical Kingdom of Christ began, and the New Covenant in him was most solemnly promulged, as (b) Cameron also well observeth. Hence, the Actual performance and exhibition of Christ, is called (c) Some better thing provided for us by God: that is, for us under the New Testament, then for them of the Old, viz. Christ exhibited, who is the Performance of the Types, Prophecies and Promises of Old. Of which Zachariah said; (d) Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and Redeemed his people, and hath raised up an horn of Salvation for us in the House of his servant David. As he spake by the mouth of his holy Prophets which have been since the world began. —To PERFORM the Mercy promised to our Fathers, and to remember his holy Covenant. Hereupon the Covenant of Faith tendering Christ as Performed and exhibited already, may be called The Covenant of Performance, or The New Covenant. Thus as this Subdistinction of the Covenant is warranted by Scripture: So it is grounded upon Christ as Promised and Performed, the Chief matter and mystery of this Covenant.

III. What these terms of this Distinction, viz. Covenants of Promise, and Covenant of Performance do Mean, may be easily collected by what hath been said. Some render it, (e) Strangers from the Tables of Promise. The Covenant of God being written in Tables, and committed as a choise Treasure to Israels custody. But this seems too restrictive: God having (f) made Covenants with his people long before any Tables thereof were made. Its better translated Strangers from the Covenants of Promise.

(e) Iohan. Calvin. in Ephes. 2.12.

(f) Gen 6.18. & 15. & 17.

1. By

1. By Covenants of Promise, Some understand (g) the Covenants of the Law and of the Gospel; for these two Covenants were well known to Israel. But this is too narrow; God having made Covenants with them before the Law, why should those be here excluded? Besides, it is not so exact and proper to say, The Covenants of the Law and of the Gospel. For if, by Covenants of the Law be meant (h) the Covenant at Horeb; this, as there made, was Gospel; as after in its place, may appear. Rather, by Covenants of Promise, understand Gods Covenant and Promise of Christ, in due time to be exhibited, and of life by him to sinners through Faith: which from the Fall of Adam till Christs incarnation was but one and the same for substance; therefore it is said, Promise in the singular number; but was manifold and various for Circumstance and Manner of Administration, and thereupon is called Covenants, in the plural Number. And thus those learned Authors (i) Zanchy and (k) Beza do well interpret these words. God made a Covenant with Noah, with Abraham, with Israel at Sinai, &c. yet these were not many Covenants really and Substantially distinct: but one and the same Covenant in Christ, under many several Dispensations and Administrations. All the Covenants, and all the Promises meet and concenter themselves in that one fundamental and Complexive Promise of Christ. Now after the Fall whatsoever Covenants were made in Christ to come for future, and to be exhibited afterwards, from the first Adams Sinning till the Last Adam's suffering, are called the Covenants of Promise.

2. By Covenant of Performance, (which term I use docendi & discendi gratia, for the more clear expressing my self) understand, That Dispensation of the same Covenant of Faith in Christ actually Performed and exhibited for Sinners salvation, which the Scripture stiles (l) A New Covenant, because this Dispensation should still Continue New, and never wax old or wear away till the worlds End, as the former dispensations (m) waxed old and vanished away.

IIII. The Covenants of Promise were before Christ, and limited peculiarly to one sort of People: But the Covenant of Performance, or the New Covenant, since Christ, and extended to all sorts of People.

1. The former, viz. That the Covenants of Promise were before Christ, & limited peculiarly to one sort of people, is Evident. 1. Because the Gentiles, (the Generality, the Body of the Gentiles,) till Christs Coming to break down the Partition-wall, and to incorporate them into the Body of his Church, (n) were without Christ, the fountain of all Happiness; consequently aliens to the Church, the Commonwealth of Israel, founded upon Christ; and Strangers to the Covenants of Promise, the outward Bond of union betwixt Christ and his Church. 2. Because The Scriptures frequently account Gods Covenants and Promises to be the peculiar Prerogatives and Priviledges of Gods Church and people the Jews: wherein no Gentiles (unless some few Proselytes to the Jewish Religion) had any share. They neither had knowledge of them; nor interest in them. (o) He sheweth his word unto Jacob, his statutes and judgements unto Israel. (Herein his Covenants of Promise are Comprehended) He hath not dealt so with any Nation: and as for his judgements they have not known them. (p) —— What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of Circumcision? Much every way: chiefly because that unto them were committed the Oracles of God. (q) —— Who are Israelites, to whom pertaineth the Adoption, and the Glory, and the Covenants, and the giving of the Law, and the service of God, and the Promises.

(n) Eph. 2. 11, 12, &c.

(o) Psal. 147. 19, 20.

(p) Rom. 3. 1, 2.

(q) Rom. 9. 4.

2. The latter, viz. That the Covenant of Performance, or New Covenant is since Christ, and extended to all sorts of people and Nations, is no less evident. For, 1. Jesus Christ (r) by his Death hath destroyed the midle wall of Partition betwixt Iews and Gentiles, and so hath made way for their union, incorporation and Consolidation into one mystical body of Christ. 2. Since Christ, This great mystery, viz. (s) That the Gentiles should be fellow-Heirs, and of the same body, and Partakers of his Promise in Christ, by the Gospel, is revealed, (so as it was not before,) to his holy Apostles and prophets by the Spirit. And not only so, but Christ after his Resurrection gave his Apostles express charge and Commission to (t) go into all the world, to teach all Nations, and preach the Gospel to every Creature, promising Salvation to every one that should believe in Christ crucified. 3. After Christs Ascension into Heaven, (when he had now fulfilled in his own person all things requisite for the Recovery of his Elect according to the Covenants of Promise,) This Covenant of Performance or New Covenant was solemnly promulged and published at Jerusalem, (u) before People of all Nations, on the day of Pentecost: As the Covenants of Promise were solemnly promulged on Mount Sinai, before all Israel. And since that time the New Covenant in Christ already crucified, risen again, ascended &c. is preached over all the world with great success to this very Day.

(t) Mat. 28. 19, 20. Mark. 16. 15, 16.

(u) Acts 2. 1, 2, &c.

Herein therefore is a remarkable difference betwixt the Covenants of Promise, and that of Performance, the New Covenant, viz. in their Extensiveness. And there are many other points of Difference betwixt them needful to be opened. But it will not be proper nor orderly here to unfold either the Agreement or Difference betwixt them, till the Natures of them both be particularly handled: which will be after the Nature of the New Covenant shall be described.

Hence

Hence note by way of Corollary, 1. That the Covenants of Promise, and the New Covenant, are really and Substantially one and the same, both rendering the same Christ, but they differ circumstantially and accidentally. 2. The riches of Gods Grace and Covenant-Mercy is much more Diffusive and Extensive since Christ, then before Christ. And if such tenders of Grace be neglected, such neglect will be much more intolerable and inexcusable. 3. The People of God before Christ were in those times the only Happy people on Earth: and the Gentiles Generally most miserable, Those being in Covenant with God: (x) These strangers to the Covenants of Promise, without Christ, Church, Hope and God in the world. 4. Though under the Covenants of Promise The Gentiles were o nly miserable, whilest the Jews were happy: yet since Christ, The Gentiles are every way equal, yea many ways superiour to the Iews in happiness, being as freely and fully admitted into the New Covenant as the Jews, though before they were no Covenant-people.

V. The Principal Periods, or chief gradual Discoveries of the Covenants of Promise and of the Administrations thereof, are represented in this ensuing Scheme; viz.

Gods Covenant of Faith with Iesus Christ the Last Adam, and in him with all his Spiritual Seed, hath respect to Christ, and their Recovery by him from Sin and Death, to righteousness a nd Life, 1. As Promised. 2. As Performed.

1. As Promised only, and that from the Sin of the First Adam, till the Death of Iesus Christ the Last Adam, during the time of the Old Testament. And the Covenant of Faith thus respecting Christ and the Recovery of his Seed, onely as Promised, is stiled The Covenants of Promise. These Covenants of Promise in regard of their more remarkable Discoveries, Repetitions, and Administrations, may be principally reduced to these six Eminent Periods of time. viz.

(1) From Adam till Noah, which was the most obscure and imperfect Discovery of all.

(2) From Noah till Abraham, which was a little more clear then the former.

(3) From Abraham till Moses and the Sinai-Covenant, which was much more clear, and perfect then both the former.

(4) From Moses till David the King, which was a Federal Discovery and Administration more full, perfect and clear then that from Abraham till Moses.

(5) From David till about the time of the Jews Captivity in Babylon, which had much Additional perfection and clearness beyond that under Moses.

(6) Finally, From about the time of the Babylonish Captivity till the Death of Christ, which Discovery and Administration of the Covenants of Promise surpassed all the former in clearness, fulness and perfection: As (y) hath formerly been manifested in brief, and in the Opening of these Particulars will appear more at large.

Gods Covenant

of Faith in Christ, In Particular.

Viz. OF

The COVENANTS of PROMISE, before Christ, in six remarkable Expressures thereof.

CHAP. I.

Of the Discovery and Administration of the COVENANTS of PROMISE, in the first Period of time remarkable; viz. from Adam, till Noah.

HAving in the former Book Treated of the COVENANT of FAITH, In General: I come now to handle the Several Discoveries, Administrations and Periods of the same COVENANT of FAITH, In Particular. And here, according to order of Nature, The Covenants of Promise come first to be considered: and then in the fourth Book, The Covenant of Performance, or New Covenant. Those being Before, This Since Christs Incarnation. The Covenants of Promise consisting of many several discoveries and Administrations of one and the same Covenant according cording to divers revolutions of times, That Discovery and Administration of the Covenant which was in the First Period of time, viz. From Adam till Noah, shall first of all be unfolded: and the rest as they follow in Order.

(z) Psal. 90. 1. title. (a) Deut. 34. 10. 11, 12. Numb. 12. 6, 7, 8.

MOSES (z) (the man of God, (a) the Peerless Prophet of the Old Testament, The first and most Ancient Penman of Holy writ,) wrote first of Christ, and of Gods Gracious Promise and Covenant in him towards Sinners after Adams Fall. Hereupon he writing the First Gospel, may deservedly be stiled The First Evangelist: and from his writings Christ and his Apostles (b) were frequently wont to confirm their Evangelical Doctrine. His First Record of Gods Promise and Covenant in Christ for Recovery of Sinners after the Fall of Adam, is in those words which God himself immediatly uttered in Paradise presently upon Adams Fall: viz. (c) The LORD God said unto the Serpent. Because thou hast done this, Thou art cursed above all Cattel and above every beast of the field: upon thy Belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed. It shall bruise thine Head, and thou shalt bruise his Heel.

(b) Luk. 24. 7. Iohn 5. 46.

(c) Gen. 3. 14, 15.

These words are the First and most Ancient Gospel recorded in the Bible, almost as old as the very foundation of the world: whence the Gospel is stiled (d) The Everlasting Gospel. Here God began to lay the First Foundation-stone of The Covenants of Promise, and to open his rich Cabinet of Grace and Mercy towards Sinners: here therefore let us begin to inquire after his holy pleasure in that regard. And to that End Consider we chiefly, 1. The Occasion of those words. 2. The Sense and meaning of them. 3. Such Positions or Aphorisms as result from them touching this first Discovery of Gods Covenants of Promise, From Adam till Noah.

(d) Rev. 14. 6.

Section. I.

I. The occasion of these words stands thus. In this third chapter of Genesis, Moses describes the first Rise and Original of Mans sin and misery. More particularly he declares, I. The Outward impulsive, or Moving Cause enticing the woman to sin. viz. 1. The principal cause, Satan. 2. The instrumental cause imployed by Satan herein, The Serpent, viz. The Spiritual Serpent, and the sensible Serpent (as (e) Chrysostom's phrase is.) Gen. 3. 1. to 6. II. The Actual perpetration of sin. 1. By the woman, seduced by the Serpent. 2. By Adam, deceived by the woman, ver. 6. III. The effects and consequents of their sin. viz. 1. Their immediate guilt, shame, and flight from Gods presence, ver. 7, 8. 2. Gods Conventing, Examining and Convicting of them: who, Partly confessed the Fact. Partly excused themselves; Adam devolving the fault upon the woman, The woman upon the Serpent:

(e) Iohan. Chrysost. Homil. l. 17. in Gen. 3. Tom. 2.

Serpent: ver. 9. to 24. 3. Gods proceeding to Sentence with the offenders (as Ambroſe noteth) (f) according to the order of their offending. As the Serpent ſeduced the woman firſt, Then the woman ſeduced Adam: So the Serpent is firſt Doomed, Then the Woman, and Adam laſt of all. The Serpent is ſentenced to a fourfold puniſhment, viz. (1) To the Curſe above all Cattel. (2) To going upon his Belly, and to continual eating of Duſt. (3) To enmity betwixt him and the woman, betwixt his ſeed and her ſeed. (4) Finally, To Ruine and Deſtruction by the Womans ſeed, ver. 14,15. Thus is the Occaſion and coherence of theſe words with the Series of the Context: ſo that, God in pronouncing the Serpents ruine, promiſeth mans recovery. And God promiſed mans Recovery preſently after his ſinning, and before his Sentencing for ſin: Oh the riches of his mercy!

Section. II.

II. The ſenſe and meaning of theſe words, is not ſo obvious, as the Occaſion. Among the Learned there are many queſtions moved, and different opinions about their Reſolution. Waving Curioſities, Let us inquire into the Senſe of ſuch Particulars, as more eſpecially tend to clear the words to us, and this Firſt Diſcovery of the Covenants of Promiſe, viz. 1. What Serpent is here meant? 2. What woman is here intended? 3. What is meant by theſe two Seeds; The Serpents Seed, and the Womans Seed? 4. What Puniſhments they are which are here threatned and pronounced upon the Serpent, and his Seed? 5. What Benefits are conſequently implyed or Promiſed, for the woman and her Seed? Theſe things being unfolded, the Senſe will be evident.

1. What Serpent is here meant? About this there are three Opinions. Two extream: and one Middle betwixt both. 1. Some underſtand here only the Senſible and Corporeal Serpent: the tenour of the words ſeeming to carry the ſenſe only that way. This the Opinion of ſome later Iews, as (g) writers obſerve. But this Opinion cannot ſtand. Partly, becauſe then the Corporal Serpent only which was but the inſtrument in Seducing Eve, ſhould be puniſhed; and the Spiritual Serpent Satan the Principal agent, ſhould go unpuniſhed. Partly, becaue then our firſt Parents and all their poſterity in them ſhould be deprived of that Comfortable Promiſe of their Recovery from Satan's power and tyranny, by the Seed of the woman, bruiſing the Serpents Head. Beſides which Promiſe, what had they to comfort themſelves withall for many hundreds of years? This Promiſe alone giving them hope of Reſtauration by Chriſt. 2. Some contrariwiſe underſtand here only the Spiritual, incorporeal Serpent, (h) that old Serpent the Devil and Satan. And this ſeems to be the Opinion of divers of the Ancient writers, who pleaſe themſelves here with witty Allegories, yet differing from one another, As (i) Ambrose, (k) Augustine, (l) Gregory, &c. But this Opinion cannot be admitted. Partly, because that phrase, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all Cattel, and above every Beast of the field. ver. 14. plainly ranks the Serpent that was cursed among the Cattel and beasts of the field: Partly, because then the whole text must be understood only figuratively, and not at all literally, and so be turned into a meer Allegory, which is not safe nor solid. 3. Some seeing the inconvenience of both these extreams, understand both the Corporeal and incorporeal Serpent, the sensible, and the Spiritual Serpent, The Serpent which was one beast of the field, and the old Serpent the Devil and Satan. And that the Letter of the text intends both; but the Serpent immediatly and less principally, The Devil mediately and more principally. Of this Opinion is (m) Chrysostom, (divers learned Modern (n) writers also subscribing to him.) If these things (saith he of this Curse) be spoken of the Sensible Serpent, much more are they to be taken of the intelligible Serpent, &c. And no wonder; For, (o) How absurd and unreasonable is it to think that the righteous God would thus severely Curse and punish the Instrument, and let Satan the Principal agent scape Scot-free. (p) The Apostle alluding plainly to this place, saith, (q) God shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. As the Corporal Serpent is bruised under foot Corporally: so the incorporeal serpent Spiritually. He implies that: expresseth this. (r) This whole Doom and punishment here denounced, is easily applicable to both these Serpents. As will afterwards appear in Resolving of the fourth Particular Question.

(g) Andr. Rivet in Gen. 3. exercitat. 35. D. Pareus in Comment. ad Gen. 3. 14, 15, &c.

(h) Rev. 20. 2.

2. What Woman is here intended? Here also I find, among Authors, three Opinions. 1. Some take the word [Woman] here in a mystical sense. Either to signifie the Church, oppugned by the Old Serpent the Devil. Thus the Anabaptists, as (s) Gomarus noteth. Or to signifie, Our sense, as (t) Ambrose: who makes the Serpent a type of Corporal delight; the woman, a Symbol of our Sense; The man, the delight of the minde. But this is more witty, then solid. Nor is there here any cause to forsake the plain history and fly to Allegories. 2. Some by [woman] understand the Virgin Mary, the Mother of Christ, and render the following phrase, thus; Shee shall bruise thine head. Ascribing the bruising of the Serpents Head (u) to the woman, to the Virgin Mary: not to Christ, the principal Seed of the woman. And this is the interpretation of the Popish writers, in their vulgar Edition, made Authentique by their wicked Trent-Council: and in their Mary's Psalter. And for the better Countenancing of this corrupt translation, they have by the perfidiousness of Guy Fabricius corrupted the Hebrew text in the Interlinear Bible printed at Antwerp, putting in הִיא Shee: for הוּא it, that is, The Seed of the woman. But our learned (x) Divines justly condemn this notorious Corrupting of the Text,

(t) As

( ) As inconsistent with the double Syntax of the Hebrew Context. (ª) As incompatible with the Subject Matter in hand, viz. The bruising the Serpents head, which peculiarly belongs to Christ. (ª) As repugnant to the Testimonies of Ancient and Modern writers. Yea and the more learned and ingenuous Papists themselves confess the Corruption. 3. They think best (ᶜ) who here apply this word [Woman] Immediatly, and specially to Eve, as then the only woman in the world when this was spoken; The only woman that was immediately deceived by the Serpent, and did immediately deceive her husband: but Mediately to other women, even the whole Sex in some sort, viz. In Respect of the Enmity with the Serpent; but peculiarly in respect of the promised Seed, such women of whom Christ lineally descended according to the flesh, among whom the Virgin Mary was the most Eminent, being the immediate Mother of Christ. And Experience of all ages since the fall, testifies this implacable Enmity betwixt the Serpent and the woman; viz. not only Eve but her whole Sex. Every woman being presently filled with horrour at the very sight of a Serpent. And not only the woman, but the man also is at Enmity with Serpents: for it is added, And betwixt thy Seed, and her Seed. But the woman is chiefly Expressed, Because, (ª) The woman (ᵘ) was first in the Transgression, and had most need of this Caution, Monition and Munition against the Serpent, with whom she had been too familiar. (ª) The woman also having greatest cause of humiliation, had most need to be raised up with Consolation. (ª) Satan should be the more confounded and shamed, the woman the weaker vessel being opposed against him, as one that should subdue him.

3. What is Meant by these two Seeds, the Serpents Seed, and the Womans Seed? Answ. The word [Seed] properly denotes that, of which some like thing is generated. Thus grains of corn, kernels of fruit, &c. are called (ˣ) Seed properly. But by a Metonymy of the Effect, [Seed] sometimes signifies that which is generated of Seed. So children are called Seed: (ʸ) The Seed of Abraham, &c. In this better sense we are to take it here. Again [Seed] in this latter Sense is either, Natural, or Spiritual. 1. Natural, which is the proper issue of Natural Parents. And thus the word is used, Either Distributively for one alone. So Seth is called (ᶻ) Another Seed in stead of Abel. And of Ishmael God said, (ª) Of the Son of the bond-woman will I make a Nation, because he is thy Seed. Or Collectively for many together. So God said to Abram, (ᵇ) I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy Seed after thee, in their Generations, &c. thus it is more frequently used. 2. Spiritual, or Metaphorical Seed, is that which hath some Analogy or Resemblance to Natural Seed or Posterity. Natural children resemble, imitate and obey their Parents: So (ᶜ) they that resemble, imitate and obey God are counted his children, his Seed; and (ᵈ) they that resemble, imitate and obey Satan are called his children, his Seed. Now these things premised, we may thus Resolve.

By [Seed of the Serpent] we are to understand, 1. The Natural Seed or brood of the Corporeal Serpent, betwixt which & the womans Seed here is setled a perpetual feud, an hereditary and incurable enmity. But we must not limit the interpretation to this Seed only, as the (e) Jews do. We are further to understand, 2. The Spiritual or Metaphorical Seed of the Incorporeal Serpent, Satan. viz. all reprobates and wicked persons, which he doth as it were beget by his diabolical instilling of evil into them, whereby he makes them like himself in corruption and destruction. This Seed of the old Serpent will be at perpetual and hereditary Enmity with the Seed of the woman: and the Seed of the woman against it. And this is the Seed which is here Principally intended: Satan, the father of this Seed, being the principal Agent in man's ruine.

By [Seed of the Woman] what we are to understand, is a (f) great and famous Controversie: and that not only betwixt the Orthodox, and Heterodox: but even among the Orthodox writers themselves. viz. whether the word [Seed] here is to be taken, 1. Universally of all the womans posterity whatsoever, Or 2. Individually onely of Christ, the Principal Seed, the Seed of the virgin. Or 3. Collectively of Christ & all his spiritual Seed according to the Election.

I. Seed here cannot be taken universally of all and singular the Posterity of the woman without exception. For, 1. Many, yea most of the Natural Seed of the woman do in all ages degenerate into the Seed of the Serpent. So that Christs flock is but (g) a little flock: and comparatively (h) the whole world lyeth in wickedness. Now those that degenerate into the Serpents Seed, cannot be here intended by the womans Seed, because these two Seeds are set at extream Enmity against one another. 2. The womans Seed here spoken of, shall bruise the Serpents Head. But all universally shall not bruise the Serpents Head, and have full victory over Satan: For then all should be saved, inasmuch as (i) whosoever overcometh shall be saved. Rather the greatest part is overcome by the (k) Prince of the world that ruleth in the children of Disobedience.

II. Seed here cannot be taken only Inaividually and singularly of Christ alone, the Seed of the virgin, exclusively, so as to exclude all besides himself. Though (l) some learned writers lean this way, and (m) Pareus gives some Reasons for this Opinion, which that learned Rivet Answers. Let the Reader consult them.

III. But [Seed] here is to be taken Collectively, as Comprehending Christ and all his Seed, Christ and all his elect members: (yet Christ as the Head, them as the body; Christ principally, them Secondarily; Christ by way of Eminency, as the Seed blessing, Them by way of participation with Christ, as the Seed blessed.) For, 1. The Antithesis, or Opposition of the Seeds requires this; viz. As the Seed of the Serpent is taken collectively, for all the wicked and reprobate vassals of Satan: So the Seed of the Woman is to be taken for all the godly Elect born of a woman, First Christ and then all his Seed in him. Otherwise the Opposition will not be fit. Doubtless if if Seed in the one phraſe be taken Collectively, then in the Oppoſite phraſe it muſt not be taken Individually. It muſt be underſtood Collectively in both, or Singularly in both. 2. By [the woman,] Eve is immediatly to be underſtood. Conſequently by the Seed of the woman, All Eve's poſterity that degenerate not into the Seed of the Serpent. But firſt, Chriſt: then they that are Chriſts. 3. That Seed of the woman is intended, againſt which the Serpent and his Seed are at Enmity; but the (n) Serpent and his Seed are at Enmity not onely againſt Chriſt, but againſt all that belong to Chriſt. 4. Finally that Seed of the woman is here meant, which ſhall victoriouſly bruiſe the Serpents Head: But that ſhall be done both by Chriſt and his Elect members. By Chriſt originally and Primitively, through his own power: by them that are Chriſts Derivatively, through power derived and victory Communicated from Chriſt unto them.

4. What Puniſhments they are which are here pronounced upon the Serpent. For clearing this, Conſider; As there was a Twofold Serpent, Tempting: viz. the inviſible Serpent, Satan Efficiently, and the viſible, corporeal Serpent, the beaſt, inſtrumentally: So theſe two Serpents had two ſorts of puniſhments inflicted on them reſpectively; the viſible Serpent had his Corporal puniſhments laid on him, and proportionably the inviſible Serpent had his Spiritual puniſhments allotted unto him. Thoſe were grievous: theſe double grievous. And the puniſhments of the viſible Serpent, by analogie indigitate to us the puniſhments of the Serpent inviſible.

The Puniſhments of the viſible Serpent were eſpecially four. viz. I. An Extream Curſe above all Cattel, and wild beaſts of the Field. (o) And the LORD God ſaid unto the Serpent, Becauſe thou haſt done this, Thou art curſed above all Cattel, and above every beaſt of the field. Hereupon the Serpent becomes the moſt loathed, and abhorred of all theſe Creatures. But this is more General. II. An ugly, deformed and debaſed Poſture of body. (p) Upon thy belly ſhalt thou go, and duſt ſhalt thou eat all the days of thy life. 1. Touching the Serpent's going upon his Belly, (q) Some think this was the Serpents Natural poſture, and that it became pœnal to him only by divine deſtination. But (as (q) Rivet notes) this is not ſufficiently proved, by them that Aſſert it. (r) Some ſuppoſe that at firſt the Serpent had legs and feet, as other beaſts had, becauſe he ſeems (s) divers times to be reckoned or ranked with cattel and beaſts; now beaſts are (t) diſtinguiſhed in kind from Creeping things. And that he was deprived of his feet and caſt upon his belly, upon Satans abuſing him to ſeduce the woman. This is (u) aſcribed to B. Ephræm. (x) Others are of opinion, that though at firſt the Serpent had no feet, yet he crept more eaſily upon the hinder part of his body, his head and breaſt being erect and lift up from the Earth, not as the head and breaſt of a man, but of an Heart, Peacock, &c. but after his Seducing of the woman, his head and breaſt alſo were caſt upon the ground. This is aſcribed ascribed to Luther. Now, though we cannot herein positively determine, the Scripture being so silent: yet forasmuch as the Serpent (u) spoke to the woman, it is very probable his posture was either naturally erect in the forepart of his body, or occasionally lifted up for that time; otherwise his other ugly posture might have caused the woman to fear and shun him. 2. Touching his Eating of dust, It seems not to be a New sort of punishment, that the Serpent should eat nothing but dust; for experience tels us the Serpent feeds upon herbs and other Creatures: but rather it is an Additional exposition and aggravation of the former punishment. As if it had been said, Thou shalt so creep upon thy belly with thy whole body on the Earth, that thy mouth and nostrils shall be filled with dust raised up by thy creeping, thy mouth still going so close to the Earth, as if thou wert eating and licking up the dust. III. An inveterate hereditary Enmity betwixt the Serpent and the woman, and betwixt their two Seeds. So that the Serpent fears and flies the very sight of man and woman, creeping into holes and caverns of the Earth from them: and contrariwise mankind, Especially women, fearing, hating and abhorring Serpents, even to their destruction. IV. Finally, An utter destruction of the Serpent by the Womans Seed: though the Serpent may in some strait wound and bruise mans heel, yet man shall bruise his head, totally destroy him, not contenting himself to crush or wound his body, but his most vital and hurtful part, his head. These are the Punishments of the Corporal Serpent. For these the Letter of the text is clear. And though the Serpent was without reason, did not properly Sin, nor could understand these judgments pronounced: yet was it according to Divine wisdom and justice, thus to denounce these punishments upon the Serpent. 1. Partly, because the Serpent became the instrument to dishonour God and ruine man: which was made in his kind to serve God and man. 2. Partly, to testifie Gods extreme detestation of the fact, who so punisheth the very instrument whereby it was effected. As when a man so abhorres a murder, that he breaks and burns the very knife or weapon whereby it was Committed, &c. 3. Partly, to instruct our first parents how hainous their sin was, and how deeply God displeased thereby, who so plagues the Serpent being the occasion thereof. 4. Partly, to let Satan the old Serpent see what vengeance he was to expect, for seducing mankind. For, if this be done to the instrument: what shall be done to the Principal Agent?

(u) Gen. 3. 1, &c.

The Punishments of Satan the invisible Serpent, which are principally here intended under the former literal punishments of the visible Serpent, are proportionably four also. viz. I. He is extremely Cursed. As the Serpent was cursed above all cattel: So Satan is cursed above all Creatures, with Gods direful Curse. II. He is deeply debased, and that for ever without all hope or possibility of relief. For as the Serpent was doomed to that basest posture of creeping upon his belly, and consequently as it were eating the dust, and that all the days of his life, (by

(by which postures the Scripture is wont to signifie (x) deepest abjection and ignominy of a man subdued, prostrate, abased, fearing or feeling extreamest misery, &c.) So Satan, that proudest Spirit, who lifted himself up against God, and disdained to be debased for his sin below man, was therefore for his seducing of man debased to utter ignominy, contempt, baseness, as it were creeping on the Earth and licking the very dust under mans feet, and to be trampled upon by him, and this Continually. Not, that Satan was not (y) cast down from heaven to hell, before, for leaving his first estate: but that now he Received an additional aggravation of his Punishment, for his destroying of mankind. This seems the most sober and sound application of this second punishment to Satan. As for those interpretations of his going upon his belly, and eating the dust, Either to intimate (z) the double Sin, Pride and Luxury, whereunto he tempts man; As some. Or to imply (a) Gluttony, lustful thoughts or Actions, whereunto he sollicits men; as others. Or to import, (b) That Satan should thenceforth have no power over the Soul, but only over the body, which is dust; as the Cabalistical Jews. Or, that Satan, who delights to feed upon the death of men, shall only eat them that are dust, that is earthly men; as (c) Hierom. These and like interpretations (though witty glosses, allusions or allegories,) seem not so safe and solid to be insisted upon. III. He, and his Seed, viz. all wicked Angels and reprobate men, (who imitate him, obey him, are acted by him, and become like him in evil,) are plagued with a Spiritual Enmity of the woman and her Seed. viz. Christ and all his Elect against them (d) Michael and his Angels and Saints, against the Dragon and his Angels and limbs. And (e) greater is he that is in us, then he that is in the world. IV. Finally, Satan shall be utterly crushed and destroyed by the womans Seed. For, though he may bruise the Heel, (far from Head and Heart) that is, do some less dangerous hurt to the womans Seed: yet shall his very head, (wherein his policy, strength and mischief chiefly lies) be bruised by the woman's Seed. He may hurt the womans Seed: but the womans Seed will totally destroy him. For (as one wittily observeth) The Serpent hath but one head; when that is bruised, he is ruined: as (f) Luther notes, the least blow on his head kils him; but the womans Seed hath two heels, when one is bruised, he can go upon the other, and both of them are far from the Heart the vital part. These are judgments here threatned to the Serpent, visible and invisible.

5. Finally, The Benefits implicitly and explicitly Promised for the woman and her Seed, are divers and excellent. Not to dispute now, ' Whether under the Serpents (g) Curse for ruining mankind, be not implyed a Contrary blessing intended for mankind? ' Whether under the Serpents deep debasement for debasing man and causing him to fall, there be not implyed contrariwise some hope of lapsed Mans advancement again to a more honourable Condition? Which things yet seem very probably to be insinuated. Yet these Mercies and and benefits seem clearly intended. viz. 1. Gods free love, rich Grace and Commiseration to the woman and mankind lapsed, in setting her at Enmity against Satan, by familiarity with whom she was undone. In which Enmity against Satan, seem to be implyed, Enmity against Sin, whereunto Satan tempts: Amity and reconcilement with God, from whom Satan tempts. viz. Repentance from Dead works and Reconcilement to God. 2. Such a Seed of the woman as should not onely be distinct, but quite Opposite unto the Serpents Seed, viz. Principally and peculiarly, Christ: Secondarily, all that are Christ's. This is contained in the Enmity of the two Seeds. 3. A Continued Conflict of the womans Seed against the Serpent and his Seed, and at last an absolute victory over Satan and his Seed when they have done their worst. (h) It (the womans seed) shall bruise thine head: and thou (serpent) shall bruise his Heel. But of these things more fully in the following Aphorisms. Thus of the Sense of the words.

III. The Positions or Aphorisms, resulting from these words thus briefly unfolded, Touching Gods First Discovery of his Covenants of Promise, From Adam till Noah, are divers. viz. Hence, 1. Immediately upon Adams Fall God revealed a gracious promise touching mans Recovery. 2. This Promise of mans Recovery was revealed very imperfectly and obscurely. 3. This first Promise of lapsed mans Recovery, was Revealed in Christ, the Seed of the woman. 4. This First Promise in Christ Revealed lapsed mans Recovery in the Enmity threatned betwixt the woman and the Serpent, betwixt her Seed and his Seed; and in the Events or Fruits of that Enmity. 5. This First Promise revealed in Christ the Seed of the woman, though it had not the Name and Formality of a Covenant; yet had it the Nature, Substance and Reality of a Covenant. These five Aphorisms being distinctly opened and cleared, The First Discovery of Gods Covenant of Faith, in the First remarkable Period of time, From Adam till Noah, (which was above one thousand and fifty years, as Chronologers observe out of the History of Genesis) will be sufficiently unfolded.

Aphorism

Aphorism I.

Hence, Immediately upon Adams Fall God revealed a gracious Promise touching mans recovery. Here note, 1. That after the Fall God revealed a Promise touching mans recovery. 2. That this Promise was revealed immediately upon Adams Fall. 3. That this Promise was most gracious. 4. Corollaries ensuing hereupon.

1. That after the Fall God revealed A Promise touching mans Recovery; is evident, 1. By the heavy and dreadful doom which God pronounced upon the Serpent for ruining Man by his subtile Seducements. This doom was fourfold, as hath been shewed. A doom not onely in Justice and wrath against the Serpent: but also in mercy, favour and compassion to man seduced by the Serpent, as the particulars thereof evince. Now in Gods Explicit denouncing of the Serpents destruction for Seducing Man, seems to be comprized an implicit promise of mans Salvation, though seduced by Satan. 2. By the Enmity which God hath put betwixt the woman and the Serpent, and betwixt their respective Seeds. For, where there is Enmity against the Serpent Satan who tempteth unto evil; there must be a Nature and principle Contrary both to Satan, and to Sin, whereunto Satan tempteth. What can this principle be, but Repentance, &c? And where there is enmity expressed against Satan: there is Reconcilement, Amity and Union implyed with the Lord God. This imports mans Recovery. 3. By the utter victory promised to the womans Seed over the Serpent, in bruising the Serpents Head. The Serpent overthrew the woman: but the womans Seed shall overthrow the Serpent, and all the ([i]) works of the Devil, Sin and Death. Satan is not subdued, till sin and Death be subdued. Now sin and Death being bruised in the Head, and subdued: Man is delivered from his deadly enemies and recovered. For (as ([k]) Luther said well) Sin and Death are the Head of the Serpent.

([k]) Diaboli Caput sunt & mors & peccatum. Luth. in Gen. fol. 55.b. Tom.1.

2. That the Promise of Mans Recovery was Revealed immediately upon Adam's Fall, seems clear by the Series and order of the History. For, Adam, in all Probability fell on the self-same day in which he was created, being the same day made and marr'd, formed and deformed, as hath been ([l]) formerly shewed: And was ([m]) on the same day wherein he sinned, cast out of Paradise, stript of all his Paradise-Priviledges, and sentenced to divers miseries: yet after his fall, and before his Sentence or ejection out of Paradise, whilest God was pronouncing Sentence upon the Serpent (who first offending, was first doomed) even then the Lord ([n]) Promiseth the enmity of the woman and her Seed against the Serpent and his Seed, and the bruising of the Serpents head by the Womans Seed. Una eademque dies vulnus opemq; tulit; One and the same day brought on both the Woman and the cure, the Malady and the remedy. In the Serpents malediction, is Comprised the Sinners Benediction.

([n]) Gen 3. 14,15. &c. See book I I. chap. 2. Aphor. 1. § I I.

Whilest God denounceth the Serpents Damnation, he proclaimeth the Sinners Salvation. This Promise is not directed to the woman, deceived by the Serpent: nor yet to Adam, deceived by the woman; But it is expresly directed to the Serpent; for, as yet God continueth his speech to the Serpent, and this is part of his Doom, (o) And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy Seed and her Seed, &c. How is it directed to the Serpent? Not as a Promise (for God intended no Promise nor saving mercy to him,) but only as a Threatning. Every thing therein is destructive to the Serpent: not only the Curse, and his debased Posture: but also the Enmity, and the bruising of the Serpents Head. What could vex and punish the Serpent worse, then to be ruined by the Seed of the woman whom he had ruined? So then it is a Promissory threatning: and a Minatory Promise. As Minatory it was against the Serpent: as Promissory it was for Sinners seduced by the Serpent. It is as Sampsons Lyon with Honey in his bowels. The Lyon of the threatning is for the Serpents ruine; the Honey of the Promise is for the Sinners refreshment.

(o) Gen. 3. 14, 15, &c.

3. That this Promise was most gracious, may appear divers ways, viz. 1. By the extream misery into which man was plunged by his Fall; before, & when this Promise was made. For, at that time man was wholly under the deadly penalty of the broken Covenant of works admitting of no Mercy; The Covenant of Faith in Christ the Seed of the woman being as then wholly unknown to him as a Remedy. This was the utmost misery that ever mankind was in, or can be in, on this side hel, from the beginning to the end of the world. Consequently Gods promise of the Recovery out of this extreamest misery, must needs be supereminently gracious. 2. By the compleat sufficiency of the Remedy promised for mans Recovery out of this extremest misery, viz. the Seed of the woman, that is peculiarly & primarily J. C. God-man, to be born of a woman (p) who is able to save to the utmost. Nor man, nor Angel, nor any meer Creature in the world could have appeased infinite justice offended, & so have recovered man offending: had not Jesus Christ this Seed of the woman [illegible] undertaken and effected it. The promise then must needs be most gracious, that contrary to all desert, tenders to man most wretched, the only all-sufficient and Efficacious remedy. 3. By the Speediness of the Promise. Had God promised Recovery to Adam (q) nine hundred years after his Fall, it had been a glorious act of Grace: But that he promised this recovery so immediately after his fall the self-same day, this proclaims divine Grace double glorious. Oh the riches of the Glory of Gods Grace to wretched man, That would not suffer him to lie despairing in his misery, for one day; That would not permit Satan the old Serpent, to insult over him, and his misery, for one day; That would not suppress the yerning of his bowels of mercy to miserable undone man for one day: That would not defer the publication of the soul-reviving Gospel of Christ, the Sinners Salvation, the Serpents Damnation, for one day!

4. Corollaries

4. Corollaries hence. Did God immediately upon Adams Fall reveal a Gracious Promise touching Mans Recovery? Then,

(1) See here the Antiquity of the Gospel. The word Gospel is from the ancient Saxon Godspel, that is, Good-speech, as (r) some think: It is, Glad tidings from God touching lapsed Sinners Recovery and Restitution. Such glad tidings is peculiarly stiled (s) The good word of God: and is published not only since Christ under the New Testament, but long before Christ under the Old Testament. And they that reject or despise the Old Testament, as not Gospel, do neither understand what the Old Testament, nor the Gospel mean. The Gospel, the glad tidings of Sinners Recovery, was published presently upon man's fall: probably on the self-same day whereon man was corrupted, yea and created. And after that, still more and more cleared, by Scriptures in all succeeding ages. The Gospel then is almost as ancient as the Creation of the world. Hence its stiled, for the Great Antiquity of it, (t) The Everlasting Gospel. And to this effect it is said, that (u) The un-lying God hath promised Eternal life before the world began. Gr. before times of ages: or, before ancient times. Here (as (x) Calvin well noteth) we are not to carry the Promise to before all times, but to most ancient times, even from the foundation of the world. Thus the Gospel is most ancient. And good things, the more ancient, the more excellent, as most like to God himself, (y) who is from Eternity.

(2) Mans Recovery was at first but Promised. It was not actually effected and performed (z) till the fulness of time, which was many thousands of years after the Fall: till when, Mans Recovery did hang only in the Promises, like water in the clouds, or like fruit in the blossoms. And yet this Recovery only Promised, was for those times effectual and sufficient for the Elects Salvation living in those days: Gods Promise being sure and infallible to all believers. But now in these later times Mans Recoverie, promised of old, is actually performed and accomplished. And Performed Recovery, far surpasseth promised Recovery.

(z) Gal. 4. 4, 5. 6.

(3) Gods incomparable love to mankind is singularly to be Admired and Adored, in that immediatly upon mans fall he would graciously promise mans Rise and Recovery. For, if we duly Consider, The Author Promising, The Blessing Promised, The Object to whom the Promise was made, The Season when the Promise broke forth, And the Parties to whom the promise was denyed; it will appear that Gods free love to mankind is most wonderful indeed. 1. The Author promising mans Recovery is God. That God, who (a) by a word made the whole world, and, the world becoming corrupt, could by a word have unmade the world again, and have created another world. That God who depends upon no creature, hath no need of man, not of any work of of his hands to add unto him. If man be saved, what gains he? if man perish, what loseth he? yet such his love to man, that he who hath no need of man, promiseth Recovery unto man. 2. The blessing promised, is lapsed mans Recovery. In his Enmity against the Serpent, Amity and Reconcilement with God is promised: and in his bruising the Serpents Head, victory over Satan. O Happy Restauration! Man un-recovered, would have been as wretched as the Devils: Man Recovered, will become as blessed as the Angels. 3. The Object of this Promised Recovery, is lapsed man, Corrupted Man, Apostate man, worthless, loveless, liveless, hopeless, helpless man, dead in sin, enmity against God, without God in the world, wholly unfit for Heaven, a vassal of Satan, a child of wrath, and an heir of Hell. And will the Holy Lord cast his eye upon such a wretch, such a detestable lump of wickedness, More full of Sin then any toad of poyson; so as to restore him? 4. The Season of this Promise of Recovery, was immediately upon Adams fall. Man, presently upon his Creation, made haste to damn himself: God, presently upon Mans fall, made haste to save him. As a tender father speedily snatches up his fallen child from the ground, from fire or water, and hugs it in his Arms compassionately: So the heavenly father snatched our first parents speedily from their lapsed, hopeless state, far worse then of fire or water, by the hand of this Promise, and embraced them in the bosom of his love most tenderly. This was love indeed. (b) Speedy kindness is double kindness. 5. Finally, The Parties to whom this Promise was denied, were lapsed Angels. They were above man by Creation: Man becomes far above them by Restauration. The Angels fall, and find no mercy, no Promise, &c. but (c) woful Curses, sharp threatnings and severe judgements; Man fals, and yet he finds rich Mercy, and saving Promises of Restauration. Is the inferiour Creature thus respected, when the Superiour is neglected? Is man healed, when Angels are left incurable? Is lapsed Man saved, and fitted for Heaven, when lapsed Angels are damned and fixed in Hell? Here's an admirable love, a discriminating love to mankind, for ever to be adored.

(a) Gen. 1. with Psal. 33. 9.

(b) Bis dat qui cito dat; nil dat qui munera tardat.

(c) Gen. 3. 14, 15. compared with Jude 6.

(4) God takes more pleasure in Sinners Recovery, then in Sinners Ruine. This is evident, 1. In that, so immediately upon their Ruine he most sweetly promiseth their Recovery. As most unwilling, that mankind should remain at all in their lapsed State. 2. In that, Since then God so often testifieth, that he hath no delight in Sinner's Destruction. To this effect God interrogates, (d) Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should dye? saith the Lord GOD: and not that he should return from his ways and live? —— yea God positively Asserts, (e) I have no pleasure in the Death of him that dyeth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn your selves, and live ye. And if this be not pathetically enough expressed, he swears; (f) As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the Death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from his way and live: Turn ye, turn ye from your evil wayes; for why will ye die, O House of Israel? How emphatically!

Doubt. If God have more pleasure in Sinners recovery, then in Sinners Sinners ruine: why did God permit the Fall? and upon mans Fall, punish him with Death?

Answ. 1. God permitted the Fall, that he might glorifie himself the more in fallen mans recovery. For, as (g) Augustine well: God is so good, that he would not suffer evil to be, were he not able, and did he not intend to bring greater good out of that evil. Hereby (i) The weakness of the perfectest Creature, left to it self, is discovered. (k) The mysteriousness of the lapsed Creatures recovery is occasionally revealed. (l) The (h) Condemnation of the old Serpent the Devil and Satan is aggravated. (4) The just rejection and condemnation of reprobate persons is prosecuted. And (5) In all the glory of Gods power, freedom, Justice, Mercy, &c. is most illustriously advanced.

2. Though God permitted Mans fall, yet in that Permission, He neither did man any wrong at all, for he was not bound to uphold man, but left him in a perfect, yet mutable state: Nor was he any cause of mans Sin directly or indirectly: for he neither necessitated him to evil by creation or Constitution of his Nature, man being (i) made upright, free, and able to all good: Nor did God (k) tempt him to evil by his Providential dispensation, but only left him to himself to stand or fall.

3. Man being fallen, God justly punisheth the impenitent with Death. Not that he hath any pleasure in the Sinners Death as it is the Destruction of his Creature, but only as it is a due act or expression of his Truth and Justice for his own glory against Sin and Sinners.

(5) How advantagiously hath God improved Adams fall, In promising his Recovery immediately upon his Fall? What greater mischief or disadvantage ever came into the world, then by Adams Apostasie? For, thereby Adam and all his posterity to the end of the world were utterly undone, and involved under Death: Hereby Satan had most notably wreak'd his malice upon mankind, and brought them under his diabolical Tyranny: And thereby the Glory of the Creator was deeply obscured and Ecclipsed, his noblest Creature on Earth being ruined, and set against him in extreamest Enmity. Yet all these disadvantages the Lord hath turned to great advantage by this blessed Promise. viz. 1. To the increase of Man's felicity. Man was happy before his Fall by a Natural, mutable and finite righteousness in his own person: but he becomes more happy since his fall by a supernatural, immutable and infinite righteousness in the person of the Promised Seed. Before, upon continuance of his obedience, he should have had a continued life in Paradise on Earth: Since, upon his faith in Christ, he shall have eternal life in Paradise which is the third heavens. Thus Adams greatest loss is improved to his greatest gain. 2. To the aggravation of Satans Misery. Satan was miserable before mans fall, for not keeping his first estate, (l) being reserved in chains under darkness unto the judgement of the great day: But became much more miserable by effecting mans ruine: being (m) thereupon doomed to a fourfold judgement. Then he envied mans natural happiness, happiness, so as to overthrow it: Now he shall twice so much envy mans supernatural happiness, which he can never overthrow, but must eternally be overthrown by it. Thus the Lord hath out-shot Satan in his own Bow: hath cut off this Goliah's head, with his own sword. 3. To the illustration of his own glory. Before mans fall God was much glorified by mans Creation: Since his fall, much more glorified by his restauration. Before, by mans integrity of Nature: Since, by mans integrity of Grace. Before, God was glorified in his wisdom, freedom, power and goodness: Since, he is glorified not only in these his perfections, but also in his free Grace, Mercy, bowels of Commiserations and long-suffering.

(6) Hath God thus laid a foundation of Sinners Recovery in his Promise? Then let us, as children of this our heavenly father, resemble him, in endeavouring to Recover lapsed Sinners. Are we our selves Converted and Recovered from a state of Sin, to a State of Righteousness? Then let us endeavour by Conviction, Admonition, Exhortation, Example, and by all means possible to win and gain poor lost souls unto God: especially such as are more neer and dear unto us. Let the Convert Minister labour to Convert the people Committed to him: the Convert husband to gain his carnal wife: The Convert Parents and Masters to win their carnal children and Servants. For, 1. This is a duty required and to be endeavoured, not onely of Ministers (n) publikely and Especially: but also of particular Christians privately and in their place. (o) Brethren, (saith Paul to the Galatians) if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one with the spirit of meekness. 2. This the godly have desired and endeavoured. One Convert soul, would have (if it were possible) all the world also Converted. David begging Restauration from his fall, upon his Restoring promiseth; (p) Then will I teach transgressors thy ways, and Sinners shall be converted unto thee. Paul once Converted, (q) was an happy instrument of the Conversion of many. And he saith of himself; (r) Though I be free from all men, yet have I made my self servant to all, that I might gain the more: And unto the Jews, I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews: To them that are under the Law, as under the Law, that I might gain them that are under the Law: To them that are without Law as without Law, (being not without Law to God, but under the Law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without Law. To the weak, became I as weak, that I might gain the weak. I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. 3. For the gaining of Sinners the Lord hath given particular directions: How some are to be won with sweetness, love and meekness; others with fear and terrour. (s) Of some have Compassion, making a difference; and others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire. 4. The Act of winning Souls is an high and excellent point of skil, most desirable. (t) He that winneth souls, is wise: spiritually, savingly wise indeed: for himself and others, for this and the world to come. 5. How much good doth this bring to the

Aphorism. II.

Hence, This Promiſe of Mans Recovery was revealed very imperfectly and obſcurely. For clearing of this, Conſider three things, viz.

1. That this Promiſe of Mans Recovery was revealed very imperfectly and obſcurely, is plain divers ways. 1. In that this Promiſe is not here fully and wholly expreſſed, but in part onely implied, viz. In the (a) Enmity of the woman and her ſeed againſt the Serpent and his Seed, explicitly threatned: the Reconcilement and amity of the woman and her ſeed with God, is contrariwiſe implicitly promiſed. And that which is not plainly expreſſed, but only implied, is imperfectly and obſcurely revealed. 2. In that, this Promiſe ſo far as it is expreſſed, is laid down very generally and remotely; (b) The womans Seed ſhall bruiſe thine head, ſaid the Lord to the Serpent. This is all that's expreſſed. Now though this for the materiality of it be a Promiſe, That the womans Seed ſhould ruine the Serpent, who had deceived the woman: yet for the Formality or manner of it, being uttered and directed only to the Serpent, it is only a Threatning of his Deſtruction by the womans Seed. And what is here Promiſed, is propounded very remotely and generally. For it is not declared particularly & diſtinctly, (c) What this womans ſeed ſhall be, for perſon and office. (d) When this Seed of the woman ſhould bruiſe the Serpents Head. Nor (e) How this Seed ſhould bruiſe the Serpents Head. But only in the General, The Seed of the woman ſhall bruiſe the Serpents Head. Now all Generals are very imperfect and obſcure. 3. In that this Discovery of the Promise of Mans Recovery, comes far short of all following discoveries thereof, if they be Compared together. As in the opening of them hereafter will more fully appear.

Diſcovery

2. Why was this Promise of mans Recovery thus obscurely and imperfectly revealed? Answ. 1. Because, This Promise was the First Promise, the first day-break of Salvation, and the very First Gospel that ever was preached unto Sinners. Therefore it was the obscurest and imperfectest of all the Promises. When God at First created the world, he proceeded from the most obscure and imperfect state of the Creature, to the more clear and perfect, till at last he came to the perfectest. At first he (c) created the confused Mass or lump, and the Earth was without form and void, darkness being upon the face of the deep; Then he created things without life; as light, the firmament, Dry land, and Seas. 3. After these he created things that had life, but no sense; as grass, herbs and trees. 4. After these, things that had life and Sense, but no Reason; as fowls, fishes, beasts and creeping things. 5. Last of all he created them that had life, Sense, and Reason; as Man and woman, that were perfectest of all. In like sort when God Re-Created the lapsed world of mankind, and Revealed this new work of his by Covenant and Promise, He laid open this mysterie in his Promises and Covenant, not all at once but by degrees. This first degree being darkest: the last clearest of all. As the first model of a building: The first lineaments of a Picture; The first draught of Covenants and Articles of Agreements, &c. are still most rude, imperfect and obscure. 2. Because, This Promise was the remotest and at greatest distance of all other from the Performance and accomplishment thereof in the actual exhibition of the womans Seed. (d) Betwixt this Promise, & Christs Death whereby he specially bruised the Serpents head, there were almost four thousand years. Adam and the fathers of the old world through this longest Promissory Prospective looked at Christ a great way off: and therefore they beheld him more dimly and obscurely. Every object, the greater distance it is off, the more darkly and imperfectly it is beheld: the nearer, the clearer. 3. Because, when this Promise was revealed, Gods Church was (to say the best) but in its primordial foundation, in its extream infancy, yea but an Embryo; This very promise being the first foundation-stone whereon it was built in Christ. Consequently the Capacity and apprehension of the Church, most weak, imperfect and obscure. God therefore suits them with the most imperfect and obscure Discovery of the promised Recovery: Gives them the first Elements, The A B C of the Gospel: as they were (e) able to receive it. God reveals not what himself is able to Reveal, but (such is his indulgence, and condescension) what his people are able to Receive from time to time. 4. Because, From this first Promise, till the actual Performance of mans Recoverie in the Recovering Seed of the woman, God intended still a clearer and clearer Manifestation of this Mysterie from age to

(c) Gen. 1. throughout.

to age, till at last the full noon-tide or perfect day of the New Testament should be discovered most brightly and gloriously. By this gradual discovery, The Churches faith and hope are more & more nourished and encouraged against fainting: The worth and desirableness of the promised Seed is more and more displayed day by day: And the glory of divine Wisdom, Grace, Mercy and Goodness is still afresh magnified with greater and greater degrees of exaltation. Therefore, this first discovery is most dark and imperfect: that so there might be a more excellent and observable progress, from the darkest to the brightest, from the lowest to the highest Revelation of Mans Recovery in Christ. (e) Pareus also gives divers Causes of the obscurity of this First Promise. See them in the margin.

(e) There seem to be three Causes why this Promise was laid down thus obscurely and figuratively 1. Because of the Devil, to whom God would have this Promise remain obscure, that he might be exercised with perpetual fear, and might envy and suspect all women bringing forth children from that time till the exhibition of Christ, lest they should bring forth the promised Seed which was to bruise his Head For if the mysterie of the Incarnation remained a long time hid from the Angels themselves, how much more from Satan? Eph. 3. 9. 2. For the first Parents and their faithful posterity, whose faith and invocation God would exercise by this obscurity, and stir up in them a more ardent desire of the promised Seed, and diligence in searching out the time and manner of the Redemption to come. As Peter testifies of the Prophets, that they diligently searched and inquired of the grace and salvation that was to come upon us. 1 Pet. 1. 10. 3. For the Seed it self, Christ, for whose manifestation and glory, a clearer light was reserved; that betwixt the grace of the Old and New Testament there might be kept an eminent difference, as betwixt morning and midday. Meanwhile God was not wanting to the weakness of the Fathers; but divers ways relieved their Faith by immediate Conference with them, Revelations, Dreams, Oracles, Visions and Prophecies. And this same Promise of the womans Seed at first given more obscurely and more generally, by little and little he made clearer, when he restrained it to a certain Nation, To a certain Tribe, To a certain Family, To a certain Person, To a certain Place, and at last to a certain Time. D. Pareus in Comment. ad Gen. 3. 15.

3. Corollaries resulting hence, are these. viz. 1. Hence, The wisdom and goodness of God in his Gospel-dispensations is very observable. He Reveals not the mysterie of Christ, and of Sinners Recovery by him, all at once, nor in full clearness and perfection at first; but most obscurely. Otherwise, (1) The (f) glory of a full discovery would have dashed and dazled his people's weak apprehensions in those days of the Churches extreamest infancy. (2) The Faith and hope of his Church would not have so increased and grown by degrees from dimness to clearness. (3) Nor the desirableness of Christ have been more and more desirable from age to age, according to the sweet and comly order of Gods discovery. In these regards the wisdom & goodness of God is the more notable in this way of discovery. 2. Hence, The Gospel at first had very weak and small beginnings. This obscure and imperfect Revelation of mans recovery was the first out-breaking of it. Though afterwards it hath increased to wonderful perfection. Hence, Christ compares it to (g) a little leaven, which at last leaveneth the whole lump, and to a small grain of mustard seed, which groweth at length to such a tree that the fouls lodge in the branches of it. And Christ is compared to a little (h) stone cut out of the Mountain without hands, that became a great Mountain, and filled the whole earth. As the greatest River at first ariseth from a small spring. Or as the (i) waters of the Sanctuary that at last became impassable, were at first but up to the Ancles. Who then would despise the day of small things? who would not greatly prize the least beginnings or discoveries of the Gospel? The whole Gospel (which now hath filled all the world) was at first wrapped up in the narrow womb of this Mother-Promise. 3. Hence, The Church and people of God after the fall, in the beginning of the world were very darkly and obscurely instructed in the mysterie of Christ. They did but grope after him, as in the dawning of the day: They did but dimly discover him afar off: and yet sufficiently for their salvation in those times, if they believed; and for their condemnation, if they believed not. How much better hath God provided for us under the New Testament, upon whom the ends of the world are come, having most clearly, fully and with open face displayed Jesus Christ and the glad tidings of Sinners Recovery by him, as in the Noon-tide of cleerest Evangelical glory! Oh how faithful, obedient, and thankful should we be beyond them? But (k) if we neglect so great Salvation, so clear Gospel-manifestations: How shall we escape! where shall we appear!

Aphorism. III.

Hence, This first Promise of lapsed mans Recovery was revealed in Christ, the womans Seed. For clearing of this, let us see: 1. That this First Promise was revealed in Christ, the woman's Seed. 2. What meant the Revealing of this Promise, in Christ, the womans Seed. 3. Why this First Promise was revealed in Christ, the Seed of the woman. 4. What Corollaries result hence.

I. That this First Promise of lapsed mans Recovery was revealed in Christ, the Seed of the woman; is evident For, 1. This Text declares expressly, that (l) the Seed of the woman shall bruise the Serpents Head. Now this is the principal Promise of this Scripture: comprising in it lapsed mans Recovery; and this Promise is revealed in Christ the Seed of the woman. For, God doth not barely Promise, that the Serpents Head shall be bruised: but also, That the Serpents head shall be bruised by the Seed of the woman. At one and the same time that the bruising of the Serpents Head is promised, The Seed of the woman, Christ, is promised to bruise his Head: Consequently this first Promise of Mans Recovery is revealed in Christ the Seed of the woman. 2. This Seed of the woman that should bruise the Serpents Head, is no other then Christ. viz. Primarily, Christ Personal, God-man: Secondarily, Christ Mystical, his Church, his mystical body, they that are Christs. Not only the Person of the Mediator is stiled

(l) Gen. 3. 15.

(m) Christ,

(m) Christ, in Scripture; But also the mystical body of Christ (in regard of her spiritual Oneness and sameness with him) is denominated (n) Christ. As the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ, that is, Christ mystical. Now as the Seed of the Serpent is here taken Collectively, for all the wicked: so the Seed of the woman is to be taken Collectively, not only for the Eminent Seed, Christs Person, who is the Seed Recovering: but also for the Secondary Seed, Christs mystical body, which is the Seed Recovered. Both bruise the Serpents Head: Christ personal Primitively by his own power; Christ mystical Derivatively by the power of Jesus Christ the Head, as after shall appear. Consequently this Promise of Sinners Recovery by bruising the Serpents Head, is revealed in Christ, Primarily, peculiarly, and especially in Christ personal, God-man.

(n) 1 Cor. 12.12,13,14.

II. What meant the Revealing of this First Promise in Christ, the seed of the woman?

Answ. The Revealing of this first Promise in Christ the Seed of the woman, seems to have intended these four things. viz. 1. That this Promise was grounded on Christ, and led to him, as the bruiser of the Serpents head, the Recoverer of lapsed sinners. 2. That Christ in Order to this bruising the Serpents head, and Recovering of lapsed sinners, should in future time be incarnate and take flesh of a Woman. 3. That Christ the bruiser of the Serpents head, should not only be the incarnate Seed of the woman, but beyond that, the Omnipotent God. 4. That those Sinners who in and by Christ, should bruise the Serpents Head, should become a joynt-Seed with Christ, contradistinct from the Seed of the Serpent.

1. That, this First Promise was grounded on Christ, and led to him, as the bruiser of the Serpents Head, the Recoverer of lapsed Sinners. The words of the text speak this plainly, saying, (o) I will put Enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy Seed, and her Seed: It shall bruise thine head. All the Promises of God have their foundation and Confirmation in Christ the Mediatour: being (p) in him yea, and in him Amen. And so this Primitive Promise, this Ancient gray-headed Promise, was founded and setled on him. Before man's fall, the Promise of the Covenant of works was grounded and setled on man himself: Since the fall, the Promise of the Covenant of Faith is founded only upon Christ. Its a new kind of Promise; and hath a New foundation. As Gods Covenant made to Abraham (q) was confirmed in Christ, or (as the Greek implies) confirmed towards Christ; that is, stablished upon him, and leading unto him; So this first Promise was confirmed in Christ also. This Promise is like that (r) Star in the East, that directed the wise men unto Christ. This Promise is as the shell; Christ as the kernel in it. This Promise the precious Cabinet; but Christ the most precious jewel in this Cabinet.

(r) Mat. 2 9.

2. That, Christ in order to this bruising of the Serpents head, and re- covering of lapsed Sinners, should in future time be incarnate, and take flesh of a woman. He therefore that's here promised to bruise the Serpents head, and Consequently to rescue Sinners from the Serpent, is stiled the Seed of the woman. Not the Seed of the woman, for present, but for future. If Christ the Seed of the woman should bruise the Serpents Head; Then Christ was presupposed and implyed, first to become the Seed of the woman, by being made flesh; and then, being incarnate, to bruise the Serpents Head.

Doubt. Then, the Serpents Head was not bruised, Satan not destroyed, Nor lapsed Sinners recovered, till the fulness of time, which was above three thousand nine hundred years after the worlds Creation, and mans Corruption; for till about that time (as (r) Scripture and divers (s) Chronologers evidence) Christ became not the Seed of the woman, was not made flesh. What became then of all mankind before Christ? did they perish? or could they be saved by the Seed of the woman, before the Seed of the woman was?

Ans. 1. Christ the eternal Son of God became the Seed of the woman divers ways. viz. by decree, by promise, & by performance. By Gods Decree eternally determining it before the foundation of the world. Hence (u) the scattered Jews are said to be redeemed by the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish, and without spot, who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but manifest in these last times. By Gods Promise in beginning of time declaring it. (x) The Seed of the woman shall bruise the serpents head. And By Gods Performance of his Purpose and Promise, actually exhibiting (y) Christ in our flesh in fulness of time. Now Gods Decree of Christs Incarnation before all time, and his Promise hereof in beginning of time, were as sure as his actual Performance in fulness of time. Therefore in all these respects he became the womans Seed. 2. Christ the Seed of the woman, did proportionably bruise the Serpents Head, Intentionally, Virtually, and Actually. Intentionally, according to Gods decree, Christ being intended and ordained to that end. Virtually, according to Gods Promise, The vertue of Christs victory over Satan extending it self to all the Elect from the very foundation of the world. (z) Jesus Christ being the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Hence, he is called, (a) The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world; for this Reason among others, because the vertue of his blood shed in fulness of time extended it self even to the Elect from the worlds first Foundation, as the Sun at mid-day extends his light and influence backwards towards the East, and forwards towards the West, as well as to the very place where he is. And in this Sense, That of our Saviours to the Jews may be interpreted; (b) Before Abraham was, I am. As if Christ had said; I am, not only in mine eternal Divinity, but also in the vertue and Efficacy of my Mediatourship, long before Abraham. As (c) Calvin well expounds the place. And by this vertue of Christs office was Satan destroyed from the beginning of the world. Actually Christ. (d) bruised the Serpents Head by his Actual incarnation and officiating in our flesh; As after will more fully appear. 3. All mankind therefore before Christs actual incarnation did not perish. All the Elect were saved by the same Jesus Christ from the foundation of the world. By faith they reallized Christ promised unto them as present and performed. (e) Abraham rejoyced to see his day by faith, and he saw it, and was glad.

3. That, Christ the bruiser of the Serpents Head, should not be only the incarnate Seed of the woman; but beyond that, the omnipotent God. Otherwise, as meer man he could not have fully bruised the Serpents Head, and have perfected the Recovery of Sinners. Because lapsed man was now wholly enthralled under the Dominion of Satan.

4. That, Those Sinners, who in and by Christ should bruise the Serpents Head, should become a joynt Seed with Christ, contradistinct from the Seed of the Serpent. Therefore he saith not, Seeds, in the plural; but, Seed, in the Singular number: and it, not they, shall bruise the Serpents Head. Referring this victory over, and destruction of the Serpent, to the womans Seed; that is, Principally, to Christ who bruiseth him by his own power: Less principally, to them that are Christs, who bruise him by Christs power. None can actually share with Christ in bruising the Serpents Head, till they conform to Christ, ceasing to be the serpents brood, and becoming the womans Seed.

III. Why was this First Promise of Sinners Recovery thus Revealed in Christ, as the womans Seed? Answ. For these Causes especially.

1. Because Lapsed man, without reference and respect to Christ, this Seed of the woman, is wholly uncapable of any Promise of Mercy from God. And this, whether we consider Mans Sin; Gods Truth: or Gods Justice. 1. Mans sin in falling from God, was an Offence against an infinite Majesty, an infinite Glory: and therefore in it self deserved a kind of infinite punishment, Even (f) Eternal Death. This is the most proper adequate wages of Sin. Now where Sin hath deserved infinite punishment: The Sinner in himself considered, must needs be incapable of all Promise of Mercy. 2. Gods Truth (g) threatned man with certain Death in case of Disobedience, against the Covenant of works: Man falling from his Obedience, the threatned judgement must needs be inflicted according to the inviolable Truth of God, (h) who cannot lye nor alter, had not God provided a Surety to undertake for him. 3. Gods justice is so infinite and exact, that it must needs (i) render to every one according to his works, without respect of persons; unless full Satisfaction be made to offended Justice, which is infinite. Finite lapsed man Considered without any respect to Christ, can never make Satisfaction to infinite justice; therefore no promise of mercy can have place towards lapsed man without reference to Christ. That therefore lapsed man might be rendered Capable of Gods Promise and Mercy,

(h) Tit. 1. 2. Iames 1. 17.

(i) Rom. 2. 6. to 12.

The

The Promise of his Recovery is revealed in Christ the Woman's Seed.

2. Because, there is no other way in the whole world for lapsed Sinners Recovery but by Jesus Christ the Seed of the woman. (k) Neither is there Salvation in any other: for there is none other name under Heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Besides him, without him, All the Creatures on Earth, all the Saints and Angels in Heaven, are not able to save one Soul, or to expiate one Sin. Therefore the Promise of Sinners Recovery, that it might be sufficiently revealed, was revealed in Jesus Christ the womans Seed.

3. Because, God (from eternity foreseeing mans Fall) had eternally decreed lapsed Sinners Recovery by Jesus Christ the Seed of the woman. Thus Peter saith; (l) Ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain Conversation, —— but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a Lamb without blemish and without spot. Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you. Hereupon Peter calls them, (m) Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit unto obedience, and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ. By which passages its clear, That God eternally fore-ordained the redemption of lapsed Sinners by Christs spotless blood: which blood he had, not as the Eternal Son of God, but as the Seed of the woman. Therefore proportionably this First Promise of Sinners recovery was revealed in Christ as the Seed of the woman, in order to the accomplishment of this Decree.

4. Because, God peculiarly intended, in the Recovery of lapsed mankind, to glorifie his Son Jesus Christ the Seed of the woman, most Eminently. And this especially, 1. In his (n) Person; 2. In his (o) Office; 3. In the (p) States wherein he executed his office; And 4. In the (q) Effects of his office. In all which, Christ God-man incomparably surpasseth all Men, all Saints, all Angels, and all Creatures in the whole world. Hereupon God revealed this First Promise of Sinners Recovery in Christ the Seed of the woman, as the first inlet and inchoation of Christs intended Glory.

IV. Corollaries hence resulting. Seeing, This First Promise of lapsed mans Recovery was Revealed in Christ the womans Seed; Then,

1. Lapsed mans Recovery from his State of Sin and Death, is not from within, but from without himself: even from Christ the Seed of the woman. Man could ruine himself: but being ruined, could not repair himself. Man could fall: but being, fallen could not raise himself again. Man that was wholly upright, could become a Sinner: but being a Sinner, could not possibly make himself righteous. Man that was perfect, yielded himself to be bruised by the Serpent: but being so bruised, had no power to bruise the Serpents head, nor to rescue himself from his Tyranny. No less, no other, then Christ, the supereminent Seed of the woman, could possibly effect lapsed Mans Recovery. Christ therefore is here Promised for that end. But God would never have promised promised Christ for lapsed mans Recovery, could lapsed man have possibly wrought his own Recovery.

Now lapsed man could never have Recovered himself from Sin and Death; 1. Because, Lapsed man hath neither Skill, nor Power, nor Will to Recover himself. Not Skill; for his (r) Minde and heart is blinded by Sin and Satan the God of this world, so that he neither (f) knoweth, nor can know the things of God, but counts them foolishness. Yea he is meer (t) darkness, and cannot comprehend Gods light Not Power: for lapsed man is (u) without strength, without all acceptable saving strength to Spirituals. (x) He is not of himself sufficient to think any thing as of himself. He is (y) Dead in trespasses and sins. (z) In the gall of bitterness and bond of iniquity. (a) Taken Captive by the Devil at his will. Nor Finally hath lapsed man any will or true desire to recover himself. (b) Every imagination of the thoughts of his heart being only evil, and that Continually. (c) —— Having his Conversation in the lusts of his flesh, and fulfilling the desires (Gr. the wils) of the flesh and of the mind. 2. Because, Lapsed man could never fulfil the broken Covenant of works, so as to be sufficient for his own Recovery. For he could neither fulfil it in an Active, nor in a Passive way. Not in an Active way: being wholly unable to yield unto it (d) perfect and perpetual personal Obedience; Partly because he hath already broken it: Partly because he hath no principle of ability left in him at all whereby he might for the future keep it. Nor in a Passive way: for lapsed man could not, by any manner of sufferings, for Quantity, or Quality, for kind or degree, in Soul or Body, ever satisfie Gods infinite justice offended: Infinite justice offended, requiring infinite satisfaction for such offence: now no meer finite person can give infinite satisfaction, nay a finite Sinner can give no satisfaction at all. Now without compleat fulfilling of the Covenant of works Passively and Actively, there is no possibility of recovering lapsed Sinners. For, this broken Covenant must be repaired: or the penalty of it must be endured. 3. Because, Lapsed man is wholly opposite to his own Recovery, and wilfully set upon his own ruine. (e) The wisdom of the flesh is Enmity against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be. The Lord Christ, the Recoverer of Sinners, (f) came unto his own, but his own received him not. And he saith of the Jews, (g) Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life. And to Jerusalem, (h) How often would I have gathered thy children together, even as an Hen gathereth her Chickens under her wings: and ye would not! yea the Iews said of Christ; (i) we will not have this man to raign over us. And God by the Prophet lamentingly expostulates with them for their wilful disposition to their own destruction; (k) Why will ye die O house of Israel? 4. Because, Lapsed man cannot of himself accept Recovery already wrought by Christ, and tendered in Christ: much less can he work out his own Recovery. (l) Christ is accepted by Faith: and faith is not of our selves, it is the gift of God. And

How do these considerations dash asunder those fond opinions of Universal Grace, Of Carnal mans ability and Free will in Spirituals! How may these things abase carnal man to the dust, annihilate all his excellencies in reference to his happiness, drive him to despair in himself, and enforce him to seek beyond and above himself for Salvation!

2. The same Iesus Christ, God-man, who saves sinners now in the End of the world, was the sole Saviour of Sinners in and from the beginning of the world. The promise of bruising the Serpents head, and consequently of rescuing poor sinners from the Serpents thraldom, was established in the Seed of the woman: and Iesus Christ is primarily and eminently this Seed of the woman. That of the Apostle's is Emphatical; (n) Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Christ the same in office and substantial benefits or Effects of his office, yesterday, in all the time of the Old Testament from the beginning of the world till his Incarnation: To day, in all these times of the New Testament from Christ till the end of the world: and for ever, in the world to come. Though the same Christ was under the Old Testament represented as Promised: under the New Testament as Performed. Under the Old Testament darkly and typically: under the New, clearly and fully. Yet in both sufficiently for Salvation.

3. The Promise of Sinners Recovery since the Fall, hath a firmer foundation then the Promise of Sinners life and felicity before the Fall. Before the fall (o) the Promise of life and happiness was grounded upon mans mutable obedience: But since the Fall the Promise of Sinners Recovery is founded upon (p) Christ and his immutable Merit. That, upon mans finite righteousness; This, upon Christs infinite righteousness. How sweet is the Gospel, beyond the Law? How precious the Covenant of Faith, beyond the Covenant of works? How glorious the grace of God as a Redeemer, beyond the bounty of God as a Creatour?

4. Finally, Lapsed Sinners should peculiarly eye Christ, in this and all Gods Promises for their Recovery. For in them all Christ is the Promised Recoverer, the Kernel, the Marrow, and the Soul of the Promises.

APHORISM

Aphorism. IV.

Hence, This first Promise in Christ, revealed lapsed Mans Recovery, In the Enmity threatned betwixt the woman and the Serpent, betwixt her Seed and his Seed; and in the Events of that Enmity. This Aphorism comprizeth in it the Substance of this Text, and the chief mysterie of Sinners Recovery, as Revealed in this First Promise. Therefore for the more Satisfactory clearing of it, Consider, 1. That, in Gods Explicit Threatnings against the Serpent, are contained Implicit Promises for Sinners Recovery. 2. What Degree of Sinners Recovery is Promised, under the Enmity betwixt the Serpent and woman, betwixt his Seed and her seed, threatned? 3. What are the Events or Fruits of this Enmity? and how far the Recovery of lapsed Sinners is therein further Revealed. 4. What Corollaries or Consectaries may flow from all?

1. That, In Gods Explicit threatnings against the Serpent, are Contained his Implicit Promises for Sinners Recovery, may be evinced, 1. From the mutual Relation and reference, betwixt Promises and Threats. They are in the Nature of Relatives; The one being Expressed, the other are proportionably implyed. Relatives mutually place, and displace one another. God (q) expresly threatned Death in case of disobedience; and therein implicitly promised life in case of obedience. So here; He expresly threatned judgements to the Serpent deceiving man: and implicitly promised mercies to man deceived by the Serpent. 2. From the Procuring Cause of these Threatnings. The Procuring Cause that moved God to thunder out these threatnings against the Serpent, was his Seducing and overthrowing of Mankind. (r) The woman said, The Serpent beguiled me and I did eat. And the LORD God said unto the Serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all Cattel, &c. The Serpent then being expresly threatned for ruining man; God seems implicitly to Promise the restoring of man. As mans ruine provoked Gods indignation against the Serpent ruining: so mans ruine as it were moved Gods Commiseration towards Sinners ruined. But if these two Arguments be less Cogent, the third that here follows is more clear and convincing. 3. From the Particulars of Gods threatnings against the Serpent; this is most clear. These passages in the text, are Formally Threatnings, as directed to the Serpent, but Materially they are Promises, as intended for mankind. May we not at least obscurely read, In the Serpents Curse, Mans Blessing? In the Serpents Debasement, Mans Advancement? In the Enmity of the woman and her Seed against the Serpent, their consequent Enmity against Sin and contrary Amity with God? And in the bruising of the Serpents head by the womans Seed, The full deliverance of the woman and her Seed from the Serpent and all his mischief; And if so, Then the Explicit Threatnings of the Sepents Ruine for deceiving man, have in them Implicit Promises of lapsed mans Recovery from the Serpents deceivings.

(q) Gen. 2. 16, 17.

(r) Gen. 3. 13, 14, 15.

II. What degree of Sinners Recovery is implicitly Promised, under the Enmity betwixt the Serpent and Woman, betwixt his Seed and her Seed, explicitly threatned? Answer, Not to insist upon Mercies implyed in the (f) two First threatnings: In this Enmity of the woman and her Seed against the Serpent and his Seed expresly threatned, these steps or degrees of lapsed mans Recovery seem to be Implicitly Promised, viz. 1. An Enmity of the woman and her Seed against Sin, (t) the work of the old Serpent. 2. A Contrary Reconcilement and Amity of the woman and her Seed, to and with God. View a little the Enmity threatned, And then the Degrees of Recovery implyed.

(f) Gen. 3.14.

(t) 1 Joh. 3.8. Joh. 8.44.

1. The Enmity expresly threatned is twofold, viz. 1. Corporeal, betwixt the Corporeal Serpent and the woman with her Seed, serpents having a natural Antipathy against mankind: and mankind against Serpents, so as to endeavour mutually one anothers corporal ruine. 2. Spiritual, of the woman and her Seed, viz. Christ and his Members; against the old Serpent the Devil and his Seed, viz. all the wicked of the world. This Spiritual Enmity consists especially in their Contrariety of Natures, Affections, and Actions. (u) They have Contrary Natures. They are (x) from above: these are (y) from beneath. (z) They are not of this world, but by Christ chosen out of the world: these are of this world. They are supernaturally (a) holy and righteous: these naturally (b) unholy and unrighteous. Thus their Natures are Contrary: And hence flows all other Contrariety. (c) They have contrary affections. (d) They love God, godliness, the godly, and the light manifesting these from their contraries: (e) These hate God, godliness, the godly, and the light discovering their deeds and ways of wickedness. 3. They have Contrary Actions. (f) They walk in sobriety, righteousness and holiness, oppugning the Contrary intemperance, unrighteousness and impiety in Satan and his Seed; (g) These do walk in all impiety against God, unrighteousness, cruelty and persecution against Christ and the godly, and intemperance in themselves. This their Spiritual Enmity against each other reciprocally. Now God is not the Author of this Sinful Enmity of Satan and his Seed, against the woman and her Seed: that proceeds originally from themselves. But God is the Author of the Judicial Enmity of the woman and her Seed, Christ and his members against the Serpent and his Seed. Notwithstanding God is the most wise orderer, over-ruler and disposer of them both.

2. The degrees of Sinners Recovery implicitly promised under this threatned Enmity, are chiefly two. viz. 1. An Enmity of the woman and her Seed (f) against Sin, the work of the Old Serpent the Devil. For, if they are set in Enmity against Satan and his Seed the wicked, not as Creatures, but as wicked, Consequently they must much more have Enmity against against Sin and wickedness, called (f) the Deeds and lusts of the Devil. They cannot have Enmity against Sin, but by having principles of grace and holiness infused, Contrary unto Sin. This implies the New-creation and Renovation of their Natures, the principling of them with Faith and Repentance especially, whereby sin is more peculiarly opposed. And these are sweet degrees of Sinners Recovery. 2. A Contrary Reconcilement and Amity of the woman and her Seed with God. For, how can there be an Enmity against Satan, and against his Seed, and against Sin, all which are most Contrary to God: but there must be Contrariwise, a Reconcilement and Amity with God, implyed? They cannot be at Enmity against Satan, his Seed & Sin: but only by contrary natures & principles bestowed upon them from God. And God never bestows truly gracious Principles, opposite to Sin, Satan, and his Seed: but only upon such as he Reconciles to himself and actually accepts in Iesus Christ by effectual Calling and Conversion. Put all these together; Enmity against Satan and his Seed, Enmity against Sin, by Principles Contrary both to Sin and Satan; And Amity with God: How excellent degrees are these of lapsed Mans Recovery!

(f) 1 Ioh. 3. 8. Ioh. 8. 44.

III. What are the Events or fruits of this Enmity? and how far the Recovery of lapsed Sinners is therein further Revealed? Answ. The events or fruits of this Enmity here mentioned are only two. viz. 1. The bruising of the Serpents Head by the Seed of the woman. 2. The bruising of the Heel of the womans Seed, by the Serpent. (h) It shall bruise thine Head, and thou shalt bruise his Heel. But yet in these two, the Recovery of Sinners is very notably Discovered and Promised.

(h) Gen. 3. 15.

1. The bruising of the Serpents Head by the Seed of the woman, denotes the destruction of Satan the old Serpent, together with all his Mischief, Power and Policy by (i) Temptations, (k) Sin, (l) Death and all the harbingers of Death, Afflictions whereby he opposeth the Elect of God. These are the Serpents Head, wherein all his mischief and danger lies, and these shall be wholly ruined by the Seed of the woman: viz. Primarily, by Christ, the Eminent Seed. Secondarily, by all that are Christs, through Christs power and victory. 1. Christ bruiseth the Serpents Head in his own Person for his Elect. 2. Christ bruiseth the Serpents Head in the Persons of his Elect: and by them, through his power.

(l) Heb. 2. 14.

(1) Christ bruiseth the Serpents Head, (viz. Temptations, Sin, Death and Afflictions,) in his own person, for his Elect: and that divers ways. I. By his Incarnation and taking humane flesh. Hereby he (m) became our neer kinsman, our Brother, that so the right of our Redemption might be his, and he become actually capable of destroying Satan, as the Seed of the woman. (n) In fulness of time, he was made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law. —— (o) For this End was the Son of God manifested, that he might destroy the works of the Devil. And it is observed by some, some, That when Christ was born, all the Devils false and lying Oracles, cried up in the world, did cease. II. By his Life and Conversation on Earth. Herein Christ overcame the Devils Capital (p) Temptations, By his innocency, by Scripture, by his Divine power and wisdom: that in his Conquests, his Members might be more then Conquerours. He also overcame all the malice, reproaches, calumnies, penalties and persecutions of Satans instruments, by his spotless Purity, Holiness, Patience, and other Divine accomplishments. III. By his Death, and the vertue, efficacy, and merit thereof. Hereby Christ bruised the Serpents head meritoriously and mysteriously. For, 1. He destroyed Sin (q) by becoming Sin for us. By being made a Sacrifice for Sin, he condemned Sin in the flesh: that the righteousness of the Law might be fulfilled in us. 2. He crucified the Cross, by being crucified on the Cross; (r) He destroy'd death, by dying; and he buried the very Grave, by being buried in the Grave. Why? Because he was Crucified, dyed, and was buried, as an all-sufficient Surety for Sinners, for his Elect. Therefore he fully discharging our debt, wholly cancelled our Bonds, and crossed the Debt-book which was against us. (s) Christ hath redeemed us from the Curse of the Law, by becoming a Curse for us. 3. He also by death (t) Destroyed him that had the Power of Death, that is the Devil. ——— and having spoyled Principalities and Powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. So then, Christ by Dying destroyed the Devil, Spoyled him, triumphed openly over him: for as much as by Death he hath rescued us from Satans power, and redeemed us to himself. Hereupon said Origen: (u) Two are understood to be fixed to the Cross; visibly Christ, of his own will, for a time; Invisibly the Devil against his will, for evermore. Therefore the Eye of Faith (faith (x) Davenant) beholds Christ on the top of the Cross, as were sitting in his Triumphant Charet: But the Devil at the lower part thereof, fast chained to the Cross, and trampled under Christs feet. IV. By his Resurrection on the third day from the Dead. By Death, Christ conquered and crucified the Serpents head: by his resurrection he evidently declared and demonstrated the truth of this his Conquest. (y) Having loosed the Pains of Death, because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. Herein Christ shewed himself a true Sampson indeed, (z) For as he rose at midnight and carried away both gates, posts and bars of the City wherein he was imprisoned, (a) So Christ about midnight, early in the morning arose carrying away as it were the gates and bars of the Grave wherewith he was imprisoned. V. By his Ascension into Heaven. For, (b) when Christ ascended up on high, he led Captivity Captive, that is, Satan and every enemy that captivated his people, he then led Captive. He chained them all to his triumphant charet as his subdued slaves, and victoriously gloried over them. And after his Ascension, he sent forth his (c) Spirit to Convince the world of righteousness, because he went to the Father; and of judgement, because the Prince of this world is judged. VI. By his glorious glorious Session at Gods right hand in highest heavenly Majesty. For, hereby God hath exalted him, (d) far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come. And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the Church. So that hereby Christ the Head of the Church, is become head over all things to the Church: even over the Devil, and all his Churches Enemies. They are all put under his feet: and brought under his Subjection. VII. Finally, By his coming to judge the world at the last day, Christ shall compleatly and perfectly bruise the head of the Old Serpent the Devil for Evermore. For, the Devil and his Angels which are (e) reserved in chains of darkness, till the judgement of the great day, (f) shall then be cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, prepared for them by God, where they with all the wicked whose names are not written in the book of life, shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

Thus by these seven degrees Christ the Eminent Seed of the woman in his own person bruiseth the Serpents head, till at last he hath obtained over him a total and final victory for us.

(2) Christ bruiseth the Serpents Head in the Persons of his Elect, and by them, through his own power and victoriousness Communicated to them. And this he doth in them by divers Degrees. viz. I. By Calling and Converting them Effectually, (g) from darkness to light, and from the Power of Satan unto God, through the preaching of the Gospel. Even the Elect of Christ, whilest in their Carnal state, (h) are wholly under the raign and dominion of Satan, taken Captive by him at his will. Yea Satan keeps them in his power, as a strong man armed keepeth his palace and Goods in peace: till Christ a stronger then Satan comes, disarms him, and despoyls him. So that of Our Saviours in Luke seems intended; (i) When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace. But when a stronger then he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. Satans first practice against mankind was (k) to turn them away from God by unbelief, &c. the returning of lapsed man again to God by Faith and Repentance in Conversion, is his first blow that he gives to the bruising of the Serpents Head. Then (l) they are delivered by God from the power of darkness into the kingdom of the Son of his love. II. By (m) Sanctifying them throughout in Soul and Spirit and body. Christ is (n) made of God, Sanctification to them. He (o) gives them his Spirit: furnishing them with the holy Habits of all saving graces. By which gracious Principles infused, they are mortified to Sin, but revived to holiness and righteousness. So that they walk not any longer as formerly (p) according to the Course of this world, according to the Prince of the power of the air, the Spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: but they begin (q) to walk as Christ walked, who destroyed the works of the Devil. By this Sanctification, tion, the Saints bruise the old Serpents Head; whilest Satans black image is obliterated out of the Soul, and the beauteous image of God implanted instead thereof. Whilest the Soul, which was a Den of Devils and cage of all filthiness, becomes a spiritual Temple for the Holy-ghost. III. By Adopting them into Gods family and houshold. Lapsed man naturally (r) hath the Devil for his father; and therefore is of the Devils family, yea is (s) the Devils palace: but he supernaturally becomes a (t) fellow-citizen with the Saints, & of the Houshold of God, by the Spirit of Adoption. This is an eminent degree of Sinners Recovery, and consequently of bruising the Serpents Head. IV. By (u) Justifying them freely, sprinkling his blood upon their Consciences by faith: so that all their sins are remitted, and their persons accounted as righteous as if sin had not been committed by them. He is made unto them (x) Righteousness; yea, the LORD their righteousness. He having for them more Righteousness, then they have unrighteousness: more Pardons, then they have debts: fully acquits them in the Court of Heaven, from Death and damnation: (y) There being no Condemnation to them that are in Christ. Hereby then (z) they are delivered from Death, and from him that (as an Executioner) had the power of Death, the Devil: and may triumph with the Apostle; (a) Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods Elect? It is God that justifieth; who is he that Condemneth? It is Christ that dyed. Their justification, is virtually Satans Condemnation. V. By assisting them powerfully in their sharpest Conflicts with Satan, so that they victoriously prevail. Satan fights against Christs members two ways. By Temptations, and By Tribulations. 1. By Temptations, and herein he hath his (b) Devices, (c) Depths, extream (d) subtilties, and (e) indefatigableness: endeavouring one while to draw them from the Faith & Truth of the Gospel to errour; another while from a good Conscience unto unconscionable & sinful courses. Against the former of these the Apostle notably intimates the Lords potent Assistance, saying; (f) I beseech you brethren, mark them which Cause Divisions and Offences, contrary to the Doctrine which ye have learned, and avoid them.——And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. That is, God shall bruise under your feet Satan, who is the principal author of Schisms, Errours and Offences, against the Truth. Against the latter of these, The Lord among other parts of the Spiritual Armour, doth especially afford us (g) The Sword of the Spirit, the word of God; whereby Christ so utterly spoiled Satan in his most Capital Temptations; and (h) Faith, his peculiar gift, which is a shield whereby we quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. For Faith carries the tempted to the Promises, and to Christ, and there cools and quenches the burning poyson of Satans Temptations. 2. By Tribulations, Satan also fights against Christs members. But they are still sufficiently assisted therein, being either preserved from them, supported under them, delivered out of them, or advantaged by them. Christ saith to the Angel of the Church in Smyrna; (i) Fear

When they seem most Conquered by Satan, they shall be the greatest conquerours of Satan. (i) Rev. 2. 10.

VI. Finally, Christ in his members shall bruise the Serpents Head, By advancing them triumphantly above the old Serpent, the Devil, and all his Angels, at the day of judgement. Then they shall totally and finally trample him under foot for ever, so as never to be molested with him more. And this especially three ways. viz. 1. By their victorious Resurrection from the Dead. Then (k) all that sleep in Jesus, shall awake out of the Dust, and put on incorruption, power, spiritualness and glory: quite shaking off all bonds of Death, and fetters of the grave. (l) Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O Death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? consequently, as then they shall have full victory over Death and Grave, so they shall have victory over him that had power of Death and Grave, the Devil. This bloody executioner shall no more kill them by Death; this cruel Jaylor shall no more imprison them in the grave. 2. By their Glorious Judging of the world; yea even the Devil and his Angels shall be doomed by them. (m) Do ye not know, that the Saints shall judge the world? —— Know ye not that we shall judge Angels? How shall this be! Christ shall judge as Supream: Saints as subordinate, or as Assessors. Christ by his Mediatory Authority: Saints by acclamation to, and approbation of Christs Sentence. What? shall the Devil and his Angels: the old Serpent and his Seed, be at last judged and doomed by the Saints, and hear from them, Go ye Cursed? How shall they then bruise the Serpents Head in pieces? 3. By their celestial co-habitation with Christ for evermore. After Christ hath said, (n) Come ye blessed, &c. they shall ascend with Christ triumpantly into Heaven, and so be ever with the Lord. They in Heaven: Satan in Hell. They in joys unspeakable: Satan in woes and torments intolerable. They far above all Satans malice and darts of temptation: Satan far below all hopes of help or Consolation.

Thus, the Seed of the woman, Christ shall bruise the Serpents Head. Christ Personal, by his own power: Christ mystical by Christs power.

2. The bruising of the Heel of the womans Seed by the Serpent, Comes next to be considered: (o) And thou shalt bruise his heel. That is, Thou Corporeal Serpent, shalt (from thine Enmity against the woman and her natural Seed,) bruise and offend, not their princial part, Head or Heart; but their less principal part, the Heel. And

(o) Gen. 3. 15.

And thou Incorpreal Serpent, Satan, shalt (from thine Enmity against the woman and her Spiritual Seed, Christ and his Elect,) bruise and offend, not the Principal, but less Principal and lowest part of Christ and his Elect, the Heel. If the Heel only be crushed, there's less danger, its far from the Heart, it may be healed again, and the party live: But if the Head or heart be crushed and bruised, that will be capital and mortal. So great is the disparity betwixt these parties here at Enmity; as (†) Mercerus well noteth. They shall both Conflict and fight against one another: yet with this difference, the Serpent can only reach and bruise the Heel of the womans Seed, but the womans Seed shall crush the very head of the Serpent. The disadvantage therefore shall wholly lie on the Serpent's side. Thus Generally. More Particularly this Metaphor of the Serpents bruising the Heel of the womans Seed, looks, 1. Primarily at Christ the Eminent Seed. 2. Secondarily, at them that are Christs: both shallbe bruised by him.

(†) Vide magnum discrimen inter Christi & Satanæ pugnam, quod in vocibus Capitis & Calcanei ostenditur. Caput Satanæ Christus petit & contrit; in quo totum robur, quo contrito totum corpus conteritur & perit; totum eius regnum & potentiam evertit, ac ejus ministros, peccatum, mortem, ac infernum, &c. At Satanas non nisi Calcaneum ejus petit, id est, leviora & infirmiora, etsi valide eum oppugnet, & delere conetur totis viribus; brevi regnum, non tamen petit nisi Calcaneum, &c. Io. Mercer. in Gen. 3. 15.

(1) Primarily, this hath reference to Christ, the most Eminent Seed of the woman. The Serpent should bruise his Heel. In the Serpents bruising of the Heel of Christ, who should bruise the Serpents Head, we may note three things especially. viz. 1. Gods Permission of this bruising. 2. Gods Limitation of it. 3. Gods Ordination of it. I. Gods Permission of this bruising of Christs Heel, by the old Serpent, the Devil and Satan. Could not the (p) Devil touch one of the Gadarens Swine, without Christs Permission? How then should he touch or bruise Christs Heel, without Gods Permission? Those words; (q) And thou shalt bruise his Heel: As they are Directed to the Serpent, are not Preceptive, but only Permissive. And as they have reference to the Seed of the woman, they are Prophetical and Promissory, rather then Minatory: The Serpents bruising Christs Heel, being Christs way to the bruising of the Serpents Head. Q. But How did the Serpent (God permitting it) bruise the Heel of Christ, in his own Person? Ans. Satan the old Sepent, bruised Christs Heel many ways: These ways especially. 1. By his audacious and impudent (r) Temptations, frequently troubling Christ: though not tainting or Corrupting Christ at all. They afflicted Christ; They infected him not. The blasphemousness and wickedness of them could not chuse but grieve Christs Spirit: but they neither did nor coud defile Christs Spirit. 2. By multiplied Tribulations and afflictions raised up against Christ, all his life long, through Satans instigation. Assoon as he was born, (s) Herod Ascalonita sought to kill him, and least he should miss him, murdered all the infants in Bethlehem two years old and under, so that Christs Christs mother was forced to fly with him into Egypt, till Herods Death. As soon as he appeared in his publike Ministry in order to the accomplishment of his Mediatorship, (t) his own people the Jews Received him not: (u) but rejected him; (x) hated him; (y) despised him; (z) opposed him; (a) reviled, reproached and blasphemed him, stiling him (b) A Sinner; (c) A Sabbath breaker; (d) A Blasphemer; (e) A Samaritan that had a Devil; (f) mad: (g) A glutonous man, and a wine-bibber, and a friend of publicans and Sinners: (h) A caster out of Devils through Beel-zebub the Prince of Devils, &c. yea (i) they plotted against him how they might entangle him, apprehend him, and destroy him: (k) They sent officers to take him, who were so taken with him, they were not able to lay hands on him: and at last (l) they gave Iudas thirty pieces of Mony to betray him unto them, that they might put him to death. To All these villanies, the Devil instigated them: Hence Christ saith of them, (m) Ye do that which ye have seen with your Father. And — ye are of your father the Devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, &c. Were not all these tribulations raised up by Satan against Christ, as so many bruisings of his Heel?

3. Finally, By a (n) grievous, painful, shameful, causeless and Cursed Death of Christ upon the Cross, extreamly embittered and aggravated to him, by passages Antecedent, Concomitant, and Consequent thereunto. This was the greatest blow or bruise upon Christs Heel by Satan. (o) Satan put it into Judas his Heart to betray him to this end; and to that purpose strongly entred into Judas. And Christ saith to the Jews acting this Horrid Tragedy; (p) This is your hour, and the power of darkness. Thus Satan bruised Christs Heel by Gods Permission.

II. Gods Limitation of Satans bruising of Christ the womans Seed. He should bruise his Heel, his meanest and lowest part; but only his Heel. He must not bruise nor touch his Head, his Heart, his Breast, or other his superiour and more principal parts, wherein his Life, Sense, Wisdom, Power, &c. were radically seated. He should only annoy his meaner inferiour outward part, his Heel. More Particularly, The Serpent could not touch The Godhead of Christ; The Personal union betwixt his Godhead and Manhood; The Essence and Immortality of his Humane Soul; The Incorruptibility of his Humane body; The Spotless purity and innocency of his Person; Nor the Sufficiency and Efficacy of his Mediatory Office. 1. The Serpent could not bruise or touch Christs Godhead. For the Godhead is impassible, cannot suffer or dye at all, being a meer Act altogether (q) Eternal and (r) unchangeable, infinitely above the reach or activity of all created beings or infernal Devils whatsoever. 2. The Serpent could not bruise The Personal union betwixt the Godhead and Manhood of Christ. For, from the first moment of Christs Conception according to his Humanity, it was indivisibly and personally united to the second person in Trinity, and never after separated, no not at Death it self. By Death Christs body was separated from his Soul, but his Divinity neither neither from his Body nor Soul. For; (t) Then, during Christs Death, he should have had an Actual Subsistence in his Humanity; viz. His soul in (u) Paradise, his Body in the (x) Sepulcher, distinct from his Deity: which cannot be, seeing Christ united not to his Deity any Humane person distinctly of it self subsisting, but onely the true and perfect humane Nature never subsisting but in personal union with Christs Godhead. As the Miscelto is united to the Apple-tree, into one tree: that Miscelto never subsisting distinctly of it self, but only in the Apple-Tree (z) Then also, Christ should have ceased to be (a) Immanuel, God-man, God with us; and Consequently, for so long, he should have ceased to be our Mediatour, and have been totally Conquered for a time by Sin, Death and Satan. (b) And then, this would have been the Serpents bruising not only of his Heel, but also of his Head!

3. The Serpent could not bruise the Essence, and Immortality of Christs Humane Soul. His Soul was (c) surrounded with sorrow for our Sins to the Death but was not bruised (d) to Death, as his Body was. When his Dead body was in Grave: his living Soul (e) was in Paradise. That was mortal, and dyed: this immortal and could not dy.

4. The Serpent could not bruise and destroy the incorruptibility of Christs Humane Body. (f) God left not his Soul in Hell, (that is, his person or life, in the state of the Dead,) nor suffered his Holy one to See Corruption. His body was brought into the Grave: but not at all Corrupted or putrified in the grave.

5. The Serpent could not bruise or destroy the spotless purity and innocency of his Person. The Serpent could (h) Tempt him, but could not taint him; could afflict him with many sufferings, could not infect him with any Sin: could bring him to yield up his Spirit, but not at all to yield up the least degree of his Sanctity: He could never deter him from good, or draw him to Evil, by all his Serpentine Subtilties: but he still remained both in Conception, Birth, Conversation and Death, (i) holy, harmless, undefiled, and separate from Sinners. His innocency always triumphed over the Serpents iniquity.

6. Finally, The Serpent could not bruise or at all prejudice the Sufficiency or Efficiency of Christs Mediatory office. Notwithstanding all the bruises which he had from the Serpent in his heel through Temptations, Tribulations, and Death; yet he did once in his (k) state of Humiliation, and doth still in his (l) state of Exaltation, faithfully discharge and fulfil his Mediatory office in all the parts and functions of it; (m) Prophetick, (n) Priestly, and (o) Kingly. To the full (p) pleasing and satisfying of God, (q) Redeeming and Recovery of his Elect, (r) Ruine and destruction of all his and their Enemies. Yea Satans bruising his Heel by Temptations, Tribulations and Death, through Gods over-ruling hand, helped forward the Execution of his Office, as in the next branch will appear. Thus Satan bruised but Christs Heel, and that through Gods restraint and limitation of him.

III. Gods Ordination and over-ruling Dispensation of Satans bruising Christs Heel, comes in the last place to be considered: and it is very mysterious. For, By Satans bruising Christs Heel, Christ bruiseth Satans Head. Jesus Christ (m) was Tempted by Satan; that he might Conquer his Temptations, and fortifie us against them. Christ was exercised with manifold afflictions and sufferings from Satan: That he might (n) overcome all sufferings: (o) Be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, in that he was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without Sin: And (p) that he might be a mercyful and faithful High-priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the People: For in that himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. Yea Christ was (through Satans subtilty) put to death, and buried in the grave: That so he might be the Death of Death: the plague of the Grave: (q) that through death he might destroy him that had the power of Death, that is the Devil: and deliver them who through fear of Death, were all their life time subject to bondage. Thus mysteriously and wonderfully hath the Lord over-ruled, ordained, and disposed all the bruisings of Christs Heel, to be the bruises of the Serpents Head. The Serpent hurts Christ, but thereby kils himself, He is slain with his own weapon, as Goliah was beheaded with his own sword. Christ tramples upon Temptations, by being Tempted: triumphs over sufferings, by sufferings: afflicts afflictions, by being afflicted: crucifies the Cross by being crucified; Curseth the very Curse, by becoming a Curse: Deadens Death, by Dying; Buries the Grave by being buried in the Grave; And in all these Destructively bruiseth the Serpents Head, while the Serpent only afflictingly bruiseth his Heel. O the Depth of the wisdom and dispensations of God!

Thus of the Serpents bruising the Heel of the womans Seed, as it hath reference to Christ, the Eminent Seed, Primarily.

(2) Secondarily, this hath reference to them that are Christs. As Christs Heel was bruised, so their Heel shall be bruised by the Serpent also proportionably. The members must be conform to the Head, and drink of the same Cup with Christ. They are the womans Seed also, as opposite to the Serpents Seed. Christ the Primary, they the Secondary Seed. As Christ had the Primary, so they shall have the Secondary bruise in the Heel by the Serpent. This their Bruise is, 1. Permitted, 2. Limited, and 3. Over-ruled by God. 1. Permitted. God Permits Satan the old Serpent to bruise the Heel of Christs members, by Temptations, Afflictions, and Death. 1. By Temptations. (r) Satan desires to have them, to sift them as wheat: desiring to find them, or make them, not wheat, but chaff. (s) David was tempted by Satan to number the people. Paul himself, (t) who was caught up into the third Heaven, into Paradise, (u) had a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet him. And Satan hath his (x) Depths, His (y) Devices, His (z) Serpentine Subtilties, sometimes (a) transforming himself into an Angel of light that he may deceive, sometimes as (b) a roaring Lyon, walking about, seeking whom he may devour, always (c) watching and (d) Compassing the Earth to and fro, to to do mischief. 2. By Afflictions. (e) Satan the old Serpent raiseth many a storm against Christians, against the godly. Satan (through Gods permission) brought a terrible tempest, yea a whirl-wind of afflictions upon Job. And saith Christ to the Church in Smyrna, (f) The Devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tryed, and ye shall have tribulation ten days. (g) The Dragon, the Devil, persecuted the woman which brought forth the man-childe; viz. the Primitive Church, which brought forth Christ mystical: and the woman flying into the wilderness, the Serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood, after the woman, ——— and went to make war with the remnant of her Seed, which keep the Commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. 3. By Death. Satan hath been (h) a murderer from the beginning, for he brought death upon all mankind. Yea a murderer of Saints from the beginning; for, (i) Cain was of that wicked one, and slew his brother, because his own deeds were wicked, and his brothers righteous. What massacres and butcheries were ever executed upon the Saints, but the Devil (k) (who had the power of Death) was the prime agent therein? (l) The Beast, that bare the woman, the scarlet-whore of Babylon, drunken with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus, ascended out of the bottomless pit, and received his power, and seat, and authority from the Dragon, the Devil. II. Limited. Satan shall bruise them that are Christs; not wherein he pleaseth, but wherein God permitteth, onely in their Heel. Their Heel he shall bruise: beyond their Heel he shall not bruise. God that bounded the Sea, saying; (m) Thus far shalt thou go, and no further, and here shall thy proud waves be stayed: hath bounded Satan also, intimating; Thus far shalt thou bruise, and no further, and here shall thy proud rage be stopped. He may bruise them so as To tempt them, to afflict them, and perhaps To kill their Bodies: but when he hath done his worst, he shall never be able to bruise them, so as, (1) To tempt, afflict, or kill them at his pleasure; (2) To kill their immortal Souls at all; (3) To detain their dead Bodies perpetually in the Grave; (4) To Destroy Gods image in them; (5) To separate them from the Love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord: Or (6) To deprive them of their eternal inheritance in Heaven. 1. Satan cannot tempt, afflict, or kill them at his pleasure. For, that they are tempted, afflicted or slain, is only by divine permission. And God (that (n) numbers the very hairs of their head, (o) tels their wandrings, and puts all their tears in his bottle) limits all Circumstances, whether of time, place, person, manner, &c. (p) The Devil shall cast some of you (not all) into prison, (not into grave, or Hel) that ye may be tried, (not destroyed:) and ye shall have tribulation ten days, (not ten moneths, ten years, or for ever.) In Jobs case, Satan might (q) touch all that he had, but not himself: and afterwards, Iob himself was permitted to be under Satans hand, but not his life. 2. Satan shall not kill their immortal Souls, though he may afflict and kill their mortal Bodies. Its (r) Gods sole prerogative to be able to kill both Body and Soul, and cast them into Hell.

And

And when they are dissolved by Death, the body returns to the Earth as it was, and the (f) Spirit to God that gave it. 3. Satan shall not detain their bodies perpetually in the grave. For, (t) God (i) will redeem their soul from the power of the grave, for he shall receive them. (t) God is their God: (u) therefore they all live to him and shall rise again. (i) Christ their Head (x) is risen, As a last Adam, As the first-fruits from the Dead; therefore they that are Christs shall rise by vertue of his Resurrection. (y) If (y) we believe that Iesus dyed, and rose again; even so them also which sleep in Iesus, will God bring with him. They do but sleep in Iesus; therefore they shall awake in Iesus. And when they that are Christs shall rise again at Christs Coming, then (z) Death and grave shall be swallowed up in victory, the risen Saints triumphing, O death where is thy sting, O grave where is thy victory? —— Thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Iesus Christ. 4. Satan shall never so bruise them, as to destroy Gods image in them. The (a) Natural image of God in man, Concreated with man, he quickly destroyed; but the (b) supernatural image of God, new created in the Elect, he shall never destroy. (c) This is (c) a Seed remaining in them, so that they cannot sin, viz. as the unregenerate sin. (d) This is (d) everlasting life, viz. the beginning, principle and foundation of everlasting life, and therefore it can never perish. Everlasting life hath no end. (e) Whom God (e) Calls, he justifies, and whom he justifies, he glorifies. Satan may through temptations obscure, darken and enfeeble Gods image in them, may shake, wound and weaken their graces, but shall never finally or totally overthrow them. 5. Satan shall never so bruise them, as to separate them from the love and favour of God in Christ, or (f) pluck them out of his hand by Temptations, Tribulations or Death. He may separate them from their dear friends: but never from their dearest Christ. He may separate their Heads from their Bodies, their Bodies from their Souls: but shall never separate Either soul or body from the Lord. (g) Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? —— Nay in all these things we are more then Conquerours, through him that loved us. For I am perswaded, that neither death, nor life, nor Angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the Love of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord. 6. Finally, Satan shall never so bruise their Heel, as to deprive them of their eternal inheritance in Heaven. He may perhaps dim their Evidences for their inheritance, that they may suspect and question their title; but shall not destroy their title, or deprive them of their inheritance. For, (h) This inheritance, or kingdom (h) was prepared for them from the foundation of the world yea before the foundation of the world. (i) God that cannot lye, (i) hath promised them eternal life before times of ages. (k) Christ is ascended up into heaven (k) to prepare a place for them, and will come again to receive them to himself. (l) The inheritance

(l) incorruptible and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, is reserved in heaven for them. (m) And they are begotten again unto a lively hope of this inheritance, being kept (Gr. kept as in garrison) by the power of God through faith unto Salvation. Thus Satan (though permitted to bruise the Heel of Christians, yet) is Limited in his bruising. He shall bruise but their Heel. III. Over-ruled. Satan as he is Permitted to bruise; and Limited in bruising; So in this his bruising them he is Over-ruled by God, Ordering and most wisely disposing all the Temptations, Tribulations and Corporal death, wherewith their Heel is bruised, to their great advantage; but to Satans disadvantage, even the bruising of his Head. 1. Their Temptations by Satan God over-powers and Orders for their Good, and Satans Ruine. For, (n) Hereby, they are so buffeted that they are preserved from Spiritual pride, (o) least they should be exalted above measure with the abundance of spiritual dignities and priviledges conferred upon them. (n) Hereby, they are driven to fly to God for Succour by Prayer, and to wrastle more fervently with the Lord for deliverance. (o) For this (saith Paul) I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me, that is, I besought him often: A definite number being put for an indefinite. Violent Temptations awaken to vehement Supplications: whilest they discover Satans power and subtilty, together with our own weakness and simplicity to withstand him. (p) Hereby, they come to have such experience of the (p) al-sufficiency of Divine Grace against all Satans Temptations, & of Gods perfecting his strength in their weakness; that they glory in their infirmities, afflictions, and temptations, that upon this occasion the power of Christ may rest upon them the more conspicuously. (q) Hereby, they have many Opportunities both of exercising their (q) Compleat-Armour, their Graces, in this Conflict against Satan: (Armour is wont to rust in times of peace) and of exalting their Comfortable Experiences and thankful triumphs upon their Conquest of Satan. (r) The shield of Faith quenches all the fiery darts of the wicked. And if they (s) resist the devil, they have this Promise, that he shall fly from them, and that God (t) will shortly tread him under their feet. 2. Their tribulations and afflictions raised up against them by Satan, the Lord over-powers, and orders for their benefit, but Satans prejudice. For, By their afflictions (u) Their sins (u) are scoured off, and destroyed. As rust is rubbed off by a sharp file, or as drosse is purged out by a vehement fire. (x) Their wanderings from God are reclaimed, and they reduced from stray-Courses. (x) Before I was afflicted, I went astray; but now have I kept thy word. (y) Their Spiritual State and Graces are (y) proved and tried; that they may be discovered to be gold and not drosse, by coming out of the furnace and fining pot, refined and purified. The fire makes the mettles more shining and precious, & afflictions makes the Saints graces more orient and glorious. (z) Jobs faith, Patience, and uprightness were rendred much more illustrious by his great distresses: as the Sun shews largest face in lowest state.

(a) Their Graces and Duties are improved and increased. The Pomander smels the better for rubbing, the Camomile sents the more fragrantly for treading upon, the musical instrument makes sweet melody when strucken with a skilful hand, and some trees by beating become doubly fruitful: So afflictions better our Graces and Obedience. (a) He for our profit, that we might be partakers of his Holiness. (b) — We glory in tribulation; knowing that tribulation worketh patience, and patience experience, and experience hope, and hope maketh not ashamed. When did David breath out more ardent love, zeal and affections to God, or perform more accurate spiritual obedience to God, or pour out more fervent heaven-piercing prayers to him; then when under his greatest afflictions? As Israel, the more they were (c) afflicted, the more they grew: The Palm tree, the more its pressed downward, the more it contends upwards: or as the Birds in the Spring, tune their notes most sweetly, when it rains most sadly. (d) Their filial Relation to God is strengthened and confirmed; whilest God doth (d) correct and chastise them as children, not neglect and despise them as Bastards. (e) Their Condemnation with the wicked is prevented. (e) When we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we might not be condemned with the world. The cattel destined to slaughter are put into the fattest meadows: whilest they that are reserved for use, must bite on the bare Commons. (f) The men of this world have their portion in this life, and (g) receive their good things here, because they shall be tormented hereafter: but the people of God here receive their evil things, because hereafter they shall be comforted. (h) Finally, Their eternal glory and happiness in Heaven shall be promoted and increased by their present Tribulations. (h) Our light affliction, which is but for a moment; (Gr. the momentany lightness of our affliction) worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory. (Gr. worketh for us an eternal weight of glory from Hyperbole to Hyperbole.) The Greek here transcends the Emphasis of our English tongue. (i) The greater the Cross now, Christianly managed, the greater shall their Crown be for ever when Christianity comes to be rewarded. 3. Their Corporal Death, finally, the Lord over-rules and orders for the healing of their Bruise, but for the bruising of the Serpents Head. Forasmuch as, (k) By Death, they are fully freed and delivered from (k) all their Sins, the works of the Devil, from which they could not fully be released while life lasted. Death delivers the Saints, but devours their Sins: As the Red-Sea delivered Israel, but drowned and swallowed up the Egyptians. (l) By Death they are set far above the Gun-shot of all Satans Temptations. As they are freed from Sin: so they are freed from all Temptations unto Sin. (m) By Death they are set free from all their labours, sorrows and miseries in this vain vexing world. (l) Blessed are the Dead that dy in the Lord, — that they may rest from their labours. Their heads shall no more ache, their eyes be dim, their ears deaf, their heart sad:

sad; their spirits faint, nor their limbs feeble, &c. (m) They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the Sun light on them, nor any heat. (They shall be freed from both Privative and Positive miseries.) For the Lamb, which is in the midst of the throne, shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes. (n) By Death they shall make an happy change, viz. Of visibles, for invisibles: of Shadows, for Substances: of terrestrials, for celestials: of Temporals, for eternals. They shall exchange sorrows, for joys: troubles and conflicts, for triumphs: Faith, for fruition: Baseness, for glory: Society with Sinners, for the fellowship of glorious Saints and Angels: and Earth, for Heaven it self. (o) Finally, By Death they shall presently come to (n) See God, (o) to be with Christ, and to enjoy God in Christ immediately face to face, which is far best of all. They shall see him, admire him, love him, delight in him, and be ravisht with him for evermore, as being the reward of rewards, the fulness of joy, the jubilee of gladness, the Heaven of Heaven, and the very Glory of Glory. Thus, the Serpents bruising of the Heel of Gods people, is wonderfully over-poured and disposed by God, for their best, but for the bruising of the Serpents Head.

Hitherto of the Enmity betwixt the Serpent and the woman, his Seed and her Seed: and of the Fruits of that Enmity, viz. The bruising of the Serpents Head by the Seed of the woman Christ and his members, and the bruising of the Heel of the womans Seed by the Serpent, Explicitly Threatned: And therein of lapsed Sinners Recovery Implicitly Promised.

IV. Corollaries hence resulting are divers. Did this First Promise in Christ reveal lapsed mans Recovery in the Enmity threatned betwixt the woman and the Serpent, betwixt her Seed and his Seed, and in the Events or Fruits of that Enmity? Then,

1. Gods threatnings are not to be slighted, or neglected by lapsed Sinners, no not by Gods own redeemed people themselves: but to be duly weighed and considered. For, besides that Gods Threatnings may have a manifold and good use upon them, 1. Cautioning them (p) against sin, 2. Quickning them (q) to Duty, 3. Discovering (r) Gods justice and truth, and 4. Preserving them (s) from threatned judgements; 5. There may be sweet and precious Promises wrapped up in the bowels of the Threatnings. As here (t) in the Threatning of Satans Destruction expressed, The very First Promise of lapsed mans Restitution is implyed. (These words are pronounced against the Serpent, only in a Minatory way: But are intended for the benefit of mankind, in a Promissory way. Therefore let us, when threatnings are before us, intentively view them on every side. We may finde sweetest Roses and Lillies amongst these thorns: Honey-combs in the bellies of these Lyons: precious stones in the heads of these Serpents. Let's therefore dive into them narrowly: and not fly from them as once (u) Moses from his rod becoming a Serpent, but rather let us take these Serpents by the tail, and handle them; them; they may become an useful and Comfortable rod in our hands.

2. Behold here the riches of Gods love, bowels of mercy, and Commiserating Grace to lapsed man; in that before he came to Sentence man for his fall, he Revealed the mysterie of mans Recovery from his fall. According to their order of Sinning; (x) first the Serpent, then the woman, and last of all the man offended: So God proportioned his order of Sentencing and judging them for Sin; (y) first dooming the Serpent, (z) then the woman, and lastly (a) the man. Now before God comes to pronounce sentence upon woman or man, whilest he was now judging the Serpent, he reveals (b) Mans Blessing in the Serpents Curse; Mans Advancement, in the Serpents Debasement; Mans Amity with God, in the Serpents mutual Enmity with man; Mans bruising the Serpents Head, in the Serpents bruising of his Heel; Mans Restitution and Salvation, in the Serpents Condemnation and Destruction. Oh what haste did God make to be gracious! How did his bowels yern and roul within him most Compassionately, over lapsed man, till he had published this Gospel, this glad-tidings of his Recovery! Man hasted to his ruine by Sin: God hasted to his Recovery by the womans Seed. Man hasted to break the old Covenant of works: God hasted to stablish a New Covenant of Faith that should never be broken. Who can behold this (c) heigth and depth and length and breadth of divine love to Loveless man, to loathsome Sinners, and not admire it, and adore it!

3. How notably is the depth of lapsed mans misery hereby intimated! In the Remedy, we may read the malady: In the Recovery, the Ruine. What is the Remedy here propounded for mans Recovery? (d) The Enmity of the woman and her Seed, against the Serpent and his: and the womans Seed's bruising the Serpents head, as the Serpent bruiseth its Heel. What and how great is the misery of lapsed man herein implyed? viz. 1. His Amity with the Serpent, the Devil, and with the Deeds of the Devil. Naturally carnal man is the Serpents Seed, and (e) of his father the Devil, and the lusts of his father he will do. This miserable and damnable Amity which is the very worst in the world, God cures by planting a supernaturall Enmity in man against Satan and Sin. 2. His Enmity against God and all his ways. (f) The carnal mind is Enmity against God, and is not subject to the Law of God, nor indeed can be. So then, they that are in the flesh, cannot please God. This Enmity against God, the Lord removes by destroying the Cause of this Enmity with God, viz. Amity with Satan and Sin. And this Amity with Satan and Sin is destroyed by the Seed of the woman, bruised in his heel by the Serpent, but bruising the head of the Serpent. 3. His extream thraldom and bondage under Satan, Sin, and the wages of Sin, Death, the Serpents Head: from which he could not be delivered but by bruising the very Head of the Serpent, (which is especially Sin and Death,)

Death,) by Christ the Seed of the woman. 4. His Actual estrangement from Christ and from all saving interest in him: till he cease to be the Serpents Seed and become the womans Seed in and with Christ. Oh how complexive is this Misery of Carnal man Compounded of these four deadly poysons, Amity with Sin and Satan, Enmity against God, Bondage under Satan and Sin, and Estrangement from Christ the only Remedy against them all! Sit down in the dust O Carnal man, break thine heart with Sighs and sobs at this thine undone Condition. Rest not contented in thy Carnal state, lest thou beest undone for evermore.

4. This First Promise though very dark and obscure, yet comprehended in it much Gospel in a few words. It is a Compendious Abstract or Epitome of the Gospel. The First sweet Glimps of Evangelical Glory. Come and See: Herein are disclosed these glad-tidings. viz.

(1) That lapsed man should not still continue lapsed, but in time be most graciously Recovered.

(2) From what Evils and Miseries lapsed man should be recovered. viz. From Amity with Satan and Sin, From Enmity against God and his ways, and From the Serpents Head: that is, his tyranny, power, mischief and subtilty, especially by Sin, Death and Hell.

(3) How and by whom lapsed man should be Recovered from these evils. Not Immediatly by himself or his own power, which was quite lost: But Mediately by an intervening Mediatour, The Seed of the woman. For Gods Truth and Justice must be fulfilled and satisfied, which lapsed man could never have effected.

(4) What this Mediatour, this Recoverer of lapsed man, must be for Person, viz. The Seed of the woman: therefore he must be true and perfect Man. And yet he must be stronger then the Serpent, then Satan, able to bruise his very Head: therefore he must be (g) the mighty God. (h) God-man, Immanuel, in one person.

(5) In what way this Mediatour Christ God-man should effect lapsed mans Recovery. Namely, By discharging his Mediatory office. Two eminent branches of which office are here notably insinuated. 1. His Priestly function in Suffering for Sinners; The Serpent bruising his Heel. 2. His Kingly office, in Subduing his and their Spiritual Enemies, Satan, Sin, Death and Hell; He bruising the Serpents Head, thereby crushing and overthrowing all his policy, power and kingdom.

(6) Who they are that shall partake of this Recovery. Not all lapsed mankind universally without exception: but only the woman and her Seed, as contradistinct to the Serpent and his Seed. viz. (i) All the Elect of God in Christ, through faith unto Salvation. All that in this Sense become the joynt Seed of the woman with him, shall jointly with him bruise the Serpents Head. But as for the Serpent and his Seed, (k) Christ would not so much as pray for them, much less would he bruise for them.

(7) Finally, How they that shall be Recovered by this Christ, the the Eminent Seed of the woman, shall become actual partakers of him, and of Recovery by him: viz. by meer Grace, on Gods part; and by Faith, on theirs. This Recovery of them by Christ, is offered them by God of meer Grace, without respect to any worth in them, or merit by them, which is none at all: yea quite contrary to their desert, being wholly in their lapsed state, and having deserved only Death by their Fall. And being a Recovery without them of meer Grace, How can it become theirs but by the appropriating and applying act of Faith?

These Evangelical mysteries seem to be sweetly couched and comprized in this Primitive Promise. O it is a pregnant, teeming Promise: The Mother-Promise of the Gospel: yea, the Great Grand-mother Promise of all the Promises of God in the whole Scripture. Well spake that learned Mercerus of it; (†) O excellent Promise, and more then necessary to our First parents, without which they could never have endured to have lived, but their Conscience accusing them, they would a thousand times have been guilty of their own Death, when they should see themselves as authors to derive so many and great Evils to all their Posterity. And as this golden Promise preserved our first Parents from despair under their dreadful fall: So the faithful Fathers in the First age of the world lived upon this Promise especially, if not only: and drew waters of Consolation out of this Well of Salvation, for the first 1536. years of the world.

† O Promissionem egregiam, & primis parentibus nimis quam necessariam, sine qua vivere minquam sustinuissent, sed conscientia accusante millies sibi mortem constituissent, cum se tot ac tantorum malorum in omnem posteritatem suam derivandorum authores viderent, Io. Mercer in Prælect. ad Gen. 3. 15.

5. Then lapsed Sinners are actually in a State of Recovery, when this Enmity against the Serpent and his Seed, together with the fruits of this Enmity: (viz. Bruising the Serpents Head, and having only their Heel bruised by the Serpent,) are effectually implanted in them, wrought by them, or belonging to them. For, God explicitly threatning these three things to the Serpent, therein implicitly Promised and Revealed the Recovery of Sinners, as hath been explained: Consequently when these three things are Actually fulfilled and verified in any lapsed Sinners, they are actually Partakers of their Promised Recovery.

But How may we know, 1. That we have true Enmity against the Serpent: 2. That we have bruised and do bruise the Serpents Head: and 3. That the Serpent doth but Bruise our Heel, when he doth his worst against us? Answ. These three things will be very comfortable indeed to be known. And they may be discovered severally by these Evidences ensuing. viz.

1. That we have true Enmity against the Serpent implanted in us, May be Convincingly and Comfortably cleared to us, 1. By the Causes of this Enmity; 2. By the Effects thereof; And 3. By Amity with them that are Contrary to Satan.

(1) By the Causes, grounds or foundations of this Enmity. If they be in us: this Enmity against Satan the old Serpent is in us. The Cause being put and present, the Effect is put and present also. Now the Grounds whence our Enmity against the Serpent principally ariseth, are especially these three. Transmutation of our State: Dissimilitude to the Serpent, thereupon: and Enmity against sin, flowing from both. 1. Transmutation of our State. When we, who are Naturally the Seed of the Serpent, and (l) of our Father the Devil, become supernaturally the Seed of the woman, as opposite and contradistinct to the Seed of the Serpent, and (m) Children of our heavenly Father the Lord God: then the foundation is laid of our Enmity against Satan. For, whilest we are wholly Satans, we love Satan and his lusts: But when our State and Condition is quite changed, and we become Gods people, we cannot chuse but have enmity against Satan, who is so Contrary both unto God and all godliness. 2. Dissimilitude to the Serpent, upon our transmutation of State. Our State and Condition being changed, from (n) Carnal to spiritual, from (o) Natural to supernatural, from (p) Sinful to sanctified, from (q) dead in sin to alive in Grace, from (r) Diabolical to Divine, &c. we thereupon become extreamly unlike to the Serpent, who were before like unto him. He (s) the father of the lyes: we the children of Truth. He (t) the prince of darkness: we light in the Lord and children of the light. He an (u) unclean Spirit: we clean through the word, and sanctified by the Spirit. He (x) the God of this world: we not of this world, as Christ is not of this world, but chosen by him out of the world, &c. Here is great dissimilitude. Now as similitude & likeness is the foundation of Love & Amity, like will love his like: so dissimilitude & unlikeness is the ground of Hatred and Enmity. Are we spiritually become unlike to the Serpent? then we have Enmity against the Serpent. 3. Enmity against sin, flows from both the former. If we be changed from our carnal to a gracious state, and thereby are become quite unlike to Satan the old Serpent: Consequently hence inevitably resulteth in us an Enmitie against Sin. (y) The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the spirit against the flesh: and these are Contrary the one to the other. If then we have a true Contrariety and Enmitie in us against Sin, (that is, (a) Against Sin as it is Sin Especially and principally: (b) Against all Sin, Consequently, without partiality: (c) Against our own sins most of all:) we have in us also a true Enmity against the Serpent, and consequently have actual part in this precious Promise, and in Recovery from our sinful state here promised.

(2) By the Effects or Fruits of this Enmity. If they are in us: Enmity against the Serpent is in us. Where the proper Effect is, there the Cause is producing that Effect. These fruits are three. viz. Hatred of the Serpent. Resisting his Dominion. Conflicting against him. 1. Hatred of the Serpent is an effect of Enmity against the Serpent. Hating is an act or fruit of Enmity. Hence Christ saith in the Parable, (z) those that hated him, were his Enemies. And David, (a) Do not I hate them that hate thee? I hate them with a perfect hatred, I count them mine Enemies. Proportionably to hate the Serpent the Devil, as a Serpent, as a Devil, for his wicked works, &c. ariseth from enmity, and argues Enmity against against him. 2. Resisting his Dominion. We cannot endure to be under his Dominion and reign, whom we hate, if we can help our selves. Christs (b) Citizens, that hated him, said We will not have this man to reign over us. In resisting his Dominion, they express their hatred against him. Thus if we truly resist Satans reign over us, not enduring that he should (c) take us Captive at his will, nor that he should act and sway in us, as (d) he worketh in the children of disobedience: then we have Enmity against Satan. 3. Conflicting against him, and his Temptations. Enmity breeds Opposition: Contrariety of Natures causeth mutual and destructive Conflicts. Fire and water fight one with another, because they are contrary each to other: So Christs Members being contrary to Satan, through the Divine nature in them, do as spiritual (e) well-armed souldiers and enemies fight and war against him, as also (f) Christ their chief-Captain did fight against him. And herein they discover their Enmity against Satan.

(z) Luke 19. 14, 27.

(3.) By our Amity with God, his wayes and people, which are contrary to Satan; we discover our Enmity against Satan. They that truely (g) love God and his wayes, cannot chuse but hate the Devil and his works. They that truly (h) love Gods people, as his Seed: cannot chuse but hate the wicked, as the Serpents seed. To love both at once, or to hate both at once, is impossible. And by the Rule of Contraries, the loving of one implyes the hating of that which is Contrary thereunto.

2. That we have, and do bruise the Serpents Head, we may comfortably conclude on these and like grounds. viz.

(1.) When through the power of the Gospel and Spirit of Christ we are rescued (i) from the power of Satan, in our effectual Conversion. Then Satan's power is broken, (k) his armour wherein he trusted is taken from him, and we are no longer (l) taken Captive by him at his will. This is our First degree of bruising the Serpents Head, through Christ plucking us out of his hand.

(i) Act. 26. 17.

(k) Luk. 11. 21, 22.

(2.) When we are compleatly armed with the Panoply or whole armour of God. Then we bruise the Serpents Head fundamentally. For then God furnisheth us with principles and foundations of strength, viz. the Habits of victorious graces, (m) whereby we are enabled, not only to wrastle against flesh and blood, but also against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places, yea to withstand in the Evil day: yea, to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked, and having done all to stand. This is our second degree of bruising the Serpents head, when we are sufficiently principled by Grace against him.

(m) Ephes. 6. 12. to 19.

(3.) When we actually (n) resist the Devil, so that he flyes from us. Then we actually Bruise his head, crushing him in his politique and potent Temptations. A flying Enemy, is a foyled Enemy. Now we resist Satan, 1. By rejecting and slighting his Temptations, not revolving them or meditating upon them in our thoughts. Its hard to touch pitch, n Jam 4. 7.

pitch, and not to be defiled: to ponder upon Satans Temptations, and not to be polluted with his Temptations. As Satan (o) darts them at us: so must we fling them away out of our thoughts presently, as a poysoned gloss. To rowl them in our mind, is to open a door to Satan to enter into our hearts. 2. By repelling them (if violent, impetuous, and reiterated) by (p) the whole Armour of God, according to the peculiar property of every peice. As Temptations to Error, Heresie or Hypocrisie: by the Girdle of Truth. To looseness or unrighteousness in Heart or Life; by the breast-plate of righteousness. To discouragements, Apostacy, &c. by reason of the rough ways of tribulation, &c. by the shooes of the preparation of the Gospel of peace. All fiery darting temptations: by the shield of Faith. All temptations to doubt or despair of Gods love, or our own salvation: by the Helmet of Hope. All temptations, in a word, to any sin, or from any duty: by the sword of the Spirit, the Word; and by Prayer. We fight on foot with Satan, by the shooes of the Gospel, &c. We fight on Horse-back with him, by Prayer: We fight as engarrisoned in a Castle, by Faith and Hope. 3. By occasional improvement of Satans Temptations, to act the Contrary Graces and Duties so much the more vigorously. As, when he tempts to diffidence: we strive more earnestly to believe. When he tempts to pride: we strive to be so much the more humble, &c. thus we undermine Satan in his own works, and Countermine his Mines.

(o) Eph. 6.16.

(p) Eph. 6.12. &c.

(4.) When Sin is pardoned and subdued, Then we bruise the Serpents Head indeed. Our Sins are his (q) works. (r) His armour wherein he trusts. His (s) strong-holds, by all which he hath naturally power over us. When our sins therefore are pardoned to us and subdued in us: His works are destroyed, His armour taken from him, and his strong-holds cast down, and sleighted.

(q) 1 Ioh. 3.8. Ioh. 8.44.
(r) Luk. 11. 22.
(s) 2 Cor. 10.4.

(5.) Finally, when the Curse and terrour of Death are removed from us, then Satan's Head is bruised by us. For, (t) Satan as an Executioner, hath the power of death, in reference to the Serpents Seed, keeping them still in bondage through fear of Death, yea of the utmost (u) curse of Death. But both curse and terrour of Death are removed from them that are Christs; virtually, by the (x) Merit of Christs Death and Resurrection: Actually, by (y) the Spirit of Grace and Sanctification, changing their cursed into a blessed state, and suppressing their fears by the predominancy of Faith, Love, and Christian Magnanimity.

(y) 1 Cor. 6. 11. Eph. 2 3,4, 5,6. Tit. 3.3,4 5,6. 1 Ioh. 4. 17,18.

3. That Satan the old Serpent doth but bruise our Heel, when he doth his worst against us; may be comfortably clear to us,

(1) Whilest our Head is safeguarded by the Hope of Salvation. The (z) Hope of Salvation is compared to an Helmet. An Helmet guards the Head, the principal part of the body, wherein the Senses outward and inward, the Animal spirits and rational soul it self are especially seated. A wound or blow there, is very dangerous. So the Hope of salvation, guards as it were a Christians Head and spiritual Senses. Whilst he keeps up his Hope of Salvation, the main is safe: he shall not despair.

(z) Eph 6.17. 1 Thes. 5.8.

(2.) Whilst

(2) Whilst the Heart is defended by (a) the breast-plate of Righteousness, Faith, and Love. The Heart is another principal part: the seat of the vital Spirits; the first that lives, the last that dies in a man: the breast-plate defends the Heart. Thus a good conscience, integrity, faith in God, and love to him, defend the Heart of Christians in Comfort and peace with God, against all Satan's suggestions, accusations and Temptations. (b) Jobs Faith and uprightness held up his Heart from fainting under all his trials and sorrows.

(a) Eph. 6.14. 1 Thes. 5.8.

(b) Iob 13.15, 16. & 19. 25, 26, 27. & 27. 1. to 11. & 31. throughout.

(3) Whilst all our Christian vitals are preserved safe, (c) by the Girdle of Truth, Shield of Faith, and Sword of the Spirit. If Satan bruise not, touch not the vitals: he only bruiseth our Heel. The Girdle of Truth preserves from Errour and Hypocrisie: The Shield of Faith, preserves from diffidence, unbelief, and all Satans fiery darts: And the sword of the Spirit, not only defends the whole of a Christian, but also offends Satan, and every enemy to a Christian. All's well if we be thus preserved.

(c) Eph. 6.14, 16, 17.

(4) When the Serpents Temptations rather afflict us, then infect us, rather distress us, then defile us; rather correct us, then corrupt us: then Satan bruiseth but our Heel. (d) Satan's temptations troubled Christ, but did not taint him at all. The more we are troubled at them, the less we are tainted with them, and the more we are conform to Christ, whose Heel alone was bruised by them.

(d) Mat. 4. 1. to 12.

(5) Finally, When both the Temptations and Tribulations, which Satan raiseth up against us, become (e) our advantages, rather then our disadvantages, (as hath formerly been explained); then he only bruiseth our Heel. He shakes our Tops, but our roots fix the faster. He casts us into a furnace: but the dross being consumed, our gold becomes the purer. He treads us under foot, but our Heavenly Spices and Graces smel the sweeter.

(e) 2 Cor. 12. 7, 8, 9, 10. Rev. 2. 10.

By these things we may discover whether we are actually brought into a state of Recovery by Jesus Christ.

6. These Threatnings were not so terrible to the Serpent and his Seed: But they were as Comfortable to the Woman and her Seed. To the Serpent and his Seed they express nothing but Destruction: To the woman and her Seed (implying Promises in them) they intend nothing but Recovery from Destruction. What a Ground of manifold Comfort is this Scripture to poor lapsed sinners! As 1. That, the Serpent (f) for seducing and overthrowing mankind, should be Cursed, debased, opposed by the Enmity of the woman and her seed against him, and bruised in his Head by the Womans Seed. Thus the Deceiver is Deceived: the Destroyer is Destroyed. 2. That, in the Enmity of the woman and her seed, against the Serpent and his seed, should so notably be implied their Enmity also against Sin, (g) the work of the Devil; but their Amity and reconcilement with God, the Enemy of the Devil 3. That the Seed of the Woman, (Christ Primarily by his own power, They that are Christs Secundarily by Christs power, should should bruise the very Head of the Serpent: that is, utterly and irrecoverably destroy Satan, Sin, Death and Hell, even all the powers of darkness. 4. That the old Serpent the Devil and Satan, when he should do his worst against Christ and them that are his, by Temptations, Tribulations, or Corporal Death, should but bruise their lowest and meanest part, their Heel. 5. That Satan's bruising of their Heel afflictingly, should be the very way for the womans Seed to bruise Satans head destructively. Oh here is a very fountain of Comfort overflowing! various Comfort, mysterious Comfort, saving Comfort.

(f) Gen 3.14, 15.

(g) 1 Ioh 3.8. Ioh. 8.44.

7. This First Promise, Revealing such Grace and Mercy to lapsed Sinners, did and doth oblige poor Sinners to all possible gratitude. Here the (h) Day of Salvation did first dawn upon the world, and the Day-spring from on high did first visit us. Here the sluce of Commiserating Grace was first opened, & the streams of Mercy began first to flow out to Sinners. Here the (i) everlasting Gospel was first preached, the all-sufficient Mediatour and Redeemer was first tendered, and lapsed Sinners Recovery in him was first Revealed. Here Life is promised to Sinners, before Death was pronounced upon them for Sin, and the Heavenly Paradise is set open for them, before the earthly Paradise was shut against them. Hence, here, therefore is no ordinary matter of thankfulness offered unto Sinners. If (k) the morning-stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy, at the worlds Creation: How much more should lapsed Sinners, and with them Heaven and Earth, Sing and shout together for joy, at their own Restauration? As for us, if we have any part in this Primitive Promise, let us abound in thankfulness to the God of this promise: and thus,

By punctual Recognition and Notice-taking of this Mercy in all its Proportions, Dimensions, and Amplifications.

By singular Estimation of this Mercy according to its Excellency.

By suitable Retribution, or (l) rendring to the Lord again according to this Benefit. 1. Believing this Promise without staggering, that it shall compleatly be performed. 2. Loving the Lord with all endeared affections who hath thus (m) loved us first from the foundation of the world. 3. Maintaining an irreconcileable Enmity against the Serpent and his Seed, till we bruise his Head, and be (n) more than Conquerours through Christ that loves us.

Thus, This First Promise in Christ revealed lapsed mans Recovery, in the Enmity threatned betwixt the woman and the Serpent, betwixt her seed and his Seed, and in the fruits or Effects of that Enmity.

APHORISM

APHORISM. V.

HEnce, This First Promise revealed in Christ the Seed of the Woman, though it had not the Name and compleat formality of a Covenant; yet had it the Nature, Substance and Reality of a Covenant, and that the Covenant of Faith. This Aphorism is very Evident by what hath been said already of this famous and Primitive (o) Promise: and may be yet further cleared, and that briefly, by a distinct Consideration of 1. The Author, 2. Parties, 3. Matter, and 4. Form of this Promise, which are for Substance the same with those of the Covenant of Faith, though very dimly and obscurely revealed in this First Promise.

(o) Gen. 3. 14, 15.

I. The Author, or Efficient Cause of the Covenant of Faith, is only God, and that of his meer Mercy and Commiserating Grace, as (p) hath been showed: And the same God, of meer commiserating Grace and mercy was the Efficient cause, or Author of this Promise. For, (q) The LORD God said unto the Serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed—— and I will put Enmity between thee and the woman, &c. So then, the Lord God immediately revealed this Promise. And nothing but meer Mercy and riches of Commiserating Grace to lapsed Sinners could be imagined to move him hereunto. They being wholly deprived of all acceptableness, amiableness, and moral goodness: and involved in the bondage of Sin and Death.

(p) Book II. Chap. 2. Aph. 2. Section 1.

(q) Gen. 3. 14, 15.

II. The Parties to the Covenant of Faith, (as (r) hath been proved,) are, God blessed for Ever, on the one hand; And Jesus Christ the last Adam, with all his Elect Seed on the other hand: And these self-same are the parties to this Promise. For, 1. God is the (s) Party Promising, to put Enmity, &c. 2. Christ and his Elect Seed, (who with Christ the Eminent seed, are collectively Comprized under this phrase, (t) The Seed of the woman, as Contradistinct from, and opposite to the Seed of the Serpent,) are the Party restipulating, to accept these promised Mercies by Faith, and to walk worthy of them; as after will more appear. This Promise was not setled upon Adam, as the (u) first Covenant and Promise was: It was not so much as directed to Adam, but to the Serpent, and to the Serpent, not under the form of a Promise, but of a Threatning. But it was Setled upon the Womans Seed: that is, on Christ and on them that are Christs according to the Election. The Seed of the woman shall bruise thine head, and thou shalt bruise his Heel.

That Question which is moved by some, may here Receive a brief Solution. viz. Whether All and singular the children and posterity of Adam, which should after the Fall be brought into the world, were with Adam comprehended in this First Promise, in this First Dispensation of the Covenant of Faith: As they were (x) all comprized in and with him in the First Covenant of Works standing and Falling with him.

(x) Gen. 2. 16, 17. Rom. 5. 12. to the end. 1 Cor. 15. 21, 22.

Resol. This Query may be resolved, 1. Concedendo, By way of Concession.

cession. It is granted, That not only Adam, but all and singular persons that should ever descend from him by natural propagation, were comprized with him in the Covenant of Works. So that he standing, they stood: he lapsing, they fell. As (y) hath formerly been sufficiently cleared. II. Denegando, By way of Negation. It is utterly denyed, That all and every one of Adam's posterity were comprehended with him in this First Promise or Dispensation of the Covenant of Faith since the Fall: as they were comprehended with him in the Covenant of works before the Fall. For, 1. The Covenant of works God made with Adam immediately, as with a publique person, founding it upon Adam's natural integrity and ability to keep it: and therefore if Adam had persisted in his integrity, and kept the Covenant, all his posterity had persevered and kept Covenant with him, partaking the blessings of the Covenant: But God made not this First Promise, to the First Adam immediately, as to a publique person; no (z) nor directed it to him at all in the promulgation of it. For, before God came to sentence the man or woman, while he was now dooming the Serpent, and directing his Speech only to him; He publisheth this Excellent Promise of mans Recovery by Christ, the Seed of the woman, to the terrour and Confusion of the Serpent. This Promise then was founded, not upon the First Adam at all, but immediately only upon Jesus Christ the Seed of the woman, as a last Adam: and in him it is mediately extended to all his Spiritual posterity. 2. This First Promise makes a plain (a) Distinction betwixt two contrary Seeds, viz. The Seed of the Serpent, and the Seed of the woman; and of an hereditary Enmity betwixt them. And it speaks Destruction to the Serpents Seed: Victory and Restauration to the womans Seed. Therefore, though these two Contrary Seeds might be under the outward Administration of this Promise, as (b) Cain and Abel were: yet could they not both be under the inward efficacy, Grace and Consolation thereof. The Womans Seed, Christ and they that are Christs, are all comprized within this Promise in this sort: but the Serpents Seed, who (c) are of their father the Devil, and will do his lusts, devilish reprobates, are not the womans Seed, nor thus comprized in the promise with them. 3. Many thousands and Millions in the world, if they never come to enjoy so much as the Outward Administration of this Promise, or of any other Evangelical dispensation, Pagans, Turks, &c. how shall they be comprized under this Promise in respect of the inward Efficacy, Grace, or Consolation thereof? 4. These two Covenants of Works, and Faith are most different. That was in a sort Natural to man; this meerly Supernatural: That founded immediately upon Adam himself without a Mediatour; this founded not upon man, but upon Jesus Christ the Mediatour; That conditioning for perfect and perpetual obedience in Adam's own person, this conditioning for true Faith in Christs person and obedience. Therefore, though all Adam's posterity were comprized with him under that Covenant, it it doth not follow that they must be comprehended under this: but rather the contrary.

III. The Matter of the Covenant of Faith, is either Promised or Restipulated. Promised on Gods Part, viz. The recovery of lapsed man out of the State of Sin and Death, to a state of righteousness and life by Jesus Christ. Restipulated on the Part of Christ and his Seed; viz. Christs accepting and undertaking of a Mediatory office to effect this Recovery; and his Seed's accepting Christ and these promised mercies by Faith, with resolution to walk worthy of them according to the Gospel.

In like sort the Matter of this Eminent Primordial Promise is either Promised on Gods part, or Restipulated on the part of the Woman's Seed.

1. The Matter Promised explicitly on Gods part, is, 1. That a Spiritual (d) Enmity should be put betwixt the Woman and her Seed, The Serpent and his Seed. And Consequently, that the Woman and her Seed should have Enmity against in, and Amity with God: which could not be without Conformity to God, and Contrariety to Sin, by Supernatural Grace; nor without renouncing and departing from Sin by true Repentance. 2. That (e) the Seed of the Woman should bruise the very Head of the Serpent, that is, utterly destroy the old Serpent the Devil and Satan with all his Policy, Dominion, and Deeds, whether Sin or Death. Consequently that lapsed Sinners in and by Christ should be recovered from the State of Sin and Death, and become Conquerers of the Serpent himself that had implunged them in that estate: and that Jesus Christ for the obtaining of this victory for them, should with them become true and perfect man, the Seed of the woman; and not only perfect man, but should above them be the mighty God, above the Serpent, and so able to bruise the Serpents Head. 3. That, in order to Christs bruising the Serpents Head, (f) the Serpent should bruise his Heel. Christ should be (g) consecrated through sufferings and Death, that he might destroy him that had the power of Death the Devil. Consequently, herein God Promised, That Christ should be a Priest, in suffering bruises in his Heel: And a King, in inflicting bruises on the Serpents Head. Now in these Matters and Mercies Promised, Sinners Recovery from the state of Sin and Death to the State of Righteousness and life by Jesus Christ is promised.

2. The Matter Restipulated implicitly on the part of the Womans Seed, is, either on the part of Christ, or of his Elect Seed and members. I. On the part of Christ: 1. That, he would submit to that low state of Incarnation and (h) become the woman's Seed. His Incarnation was deep Humiliation. 2. That he would, as the womans Seed, abase himself to be bruised in his Heel, by the Serpent, viz. even (i) to sufferings, and death: that hereby he might bruise the Serpents Head, and recover his Elect out of his Dominion. 3. That all his Elect should become a joynt Seed of the woman with himself, opposite to the Seed of the Serpent, that with him, and and by vertue of his bruises, they might bruise the Serpents Head also. II. On the part of Christs Seed and members; 1. That they would accept Christ, and these promised Mercies in him, by Faith. This Faith they implicitly restipulated: For, (k) without Faith (k) neither Christ, nor any benefit promised by him, can be received. (l) Without Faith they could not bruise the Serpents Head, (l) quench his fiery darts, (m) Conquer sin, and (n) overcome the world. (o) The Fathers of the old world acted Faith, and by their Faith were accepted of God, which could not have been without this mutual agreement betwixt God and them touching Faith. (o) By Faith the Elders obtained a good report. By Faith Adam after the Promise (p) named his wife Eve, living, in hope of life to him, and his, Promised. (q) By faith Abel offered unto God, a more excellent Sacrifice then Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts. — (r) By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God. But without Faith it is impossible to please him. These Testimonies may evince, that these ancient Saints knew how necessarily Faith was required of them by this First Promise. Yea (s) They offered Sacrifices, and that by Gods appointment, otherwise God would not have (t) accepted them: And these Sacrifices being types of Christ, testified their Faith in Christ. 2. That they would walk worthy of Christ and these promised Mercies to all well-pleasing, according to Evangelical Rule. For (u) Faith being required in them, love and good-works were also required: (x) Faith working by love, and being naturally (y) fruitful in good works, as the way to heaven: though not the cause of Heaven. (z) Their course and good-works are highly commended, As Godly; Enoch and Noah (a) walked with God, Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations; As (b) accepted of God, and well-pleasing before him, which could not be, had not God required them of them; and consequently they implicitly restipulated them.

IV. Finally, The Covenant of Faith hath its Form; viz. Inward, The mutual Compact or Agreement of the Fœderates: Outward, the various Manners of Administrations. So here this Primitive Promise had its Inward, and Outward Form also.

1. The Inward Form of it, was the mutual Agreement betwixt the Fœderates or Parties to the Covenant touching Matters Promised, and Restipulated, which Agreement was partly expressed; partly implyed: As hath been noted.

2. The Outward Form of it, was that visible Form, way, or Manner of Gods Administring this Promise, and of the affairs of his Church and People under this Promise, in the First notable Period of time from Adam till Noah: In all which Form or Manner of Administration there are evident characters and intimations of the Covenant of Faith in Jesus Christ. And this may be briefly thus represented. Man having having broken the Covenant of Works, And God having promiſed lapſed Sinners Recovery by Chriſt the Seed of the woman, after this Promiſe thus dealt with him and his Poſterity; viz.

1. He pronounced an heavy Sentence (z) upon both the Woman and the Man, for their Firſt Sin, whereby they brake the Covenant of Works. That ſo he might more experimentally convince them of the Sinfulneſs of that Sin, more deeply bruiſe and humble them for it, and contrariwiſe more eminently diſplay the glory and ſweetneſs of the Firſt Promiſe revealing their Recovery both from Sin and miſery.

(z) Gen. 3. 16. to 20.

2. He not only (a) drove them out of the Garden of Eden, but alſo Guarded the Tree of Life therein from them, with Cherubims and a flaming ſword, which turned every way to keep the way of the tree of life. Why? Not, that God envyed them Eternal life: for he had now but newly (b) Promiſed it them in Chriſt. Nor, that the tree of life could have made them live for ever, if they had taſted it: for the Covenant of works being broken, the Sacraments or tokens thereof were evacuated and of no force. But, that hereby God might teach them, not to delude and deceive themſelves with vain hopes of life from the Covenant of works or the external uſe of the tokens thereof, whilſt they had already broken that Covenant irreparably: but wholly now to apply themſelves for life and happineſs to the (c) Promiſe, or Covenant of Faith, in Chriſt, the womans Seed.

3. He (d) clothed Adam and Eve his wife with coats of the ſkins of dead beaſts. This he did; 1. Partly to cover their nakedneſs and ſhame, the fruit of their Sin. 2. Partly to make them yet more ſenſible of the ſhame and beaſtlineſs of their Sin and apoſtacy, that ſo both their nakedneſs and their cloathing might tend to remember them of, and humble them for their Sin; as (e) Calvin well noteth. 3. Partly to inſtruct them touching the neceſſity of being cloathed ſpiritually with Chriſt to be crucified, and his righteouſneſs, for covering their deformity from the pure eye of God. 4. Partly to remember them daily of their (f) mortality contracted by Sin. That under thoſe dead ſkins, they had dying bodies.

(e) *Cur autem pelliceis veſtibus induerit ipſos dominus, hæc mihi videtur eſſe ratio: quia ex ea materia confectâ, belluinum quiddam magis ſaperent, quam ſinea vel lanea. 4. He inſtituted and ordained Sacrifices, under this firſt Diſpenſation of his Promiſe and Covenant in this firſt Period of time from Adam till Noah.

That Sacrifices were then of Gods Inſtitution and appointment, we have juſt cauſe to think; For, 1. God (g) clothed Adam and his wife with coats of ſkins. Of what ſkins? (h) Juſtin Martyr is of opinion, that God did not kill beaſts, and cloth them with their ſkins: but rather immediately created ſkins by his word of Command, and ſo clothed clothed them. Yet this opinion seemeth scarce probable; because its strange to think that God should create beasts-skins without the beasts, nor find we any colour for any such act in the whole Scripture. (i) Calvin thinks, that God imposed this task upon Adam and Eve, that they should make themselves coats of skins. Some conceit that these skins were skins of beasts created before Adam's fall; and that after his fall God slew some of those beasts, (k) cloathing them with their skins, by his commanding word: and that he taught them to offer the dead bodies of those beasts in Sacrifice. For, God doubtless would not have the bodies of those beasts lost and useless. And seeing the (l) eating of flesh was not permitted till after the flood, what other use can we imagine their bodies to be put unto, besides that of Sacrificing? This also is the more probable, because in the story of Genesis, presently after mans expulsion from Eden, there is mention of Adam's two first sons, and of their (m) sacrificing, (and this without any intervening Command expressed;) wicked Cain bringing his offering to God, as well as righteous Abel. 2. Abel is said (n) by Faith to offer unto God a more excellent Sacrifice then Cain. He could not have offered any Sacrifice by Faith, unless the Lord had appointed that Sacrifice: Gods appointment and institution of his worship, being the ground of our faith, in worshipping. 3. God accepted in those days the sacrifices of righteous persons. (o) He had respect to Abel, and to his offering: but to Cain and his offering he had not respect. And when Noah offered burnt-offerings (p) the LORD smelled a sweet savour; Heb. A savour of rest. Now had their Sacrifices been of Humane invention, and not of Divine Institution; they had been will-worship, and God would never have accepted them, but have abhorred them.

(g) Gen. 3. 21.

(h) Juſtin. Martyr. in Queſt. & Reſpon. 49 ad Orthodox.

But to what end and use did God appoint Sacrifices under this First dispensation of the Promise? Answ. For divers excellent ends, viz. 1. For the more clear convincing of lapsed Sinners of their Sin and Misery. Of their Sin: because (q) in their Sacrifices there was a remembrance of Sin, which needed such Sacrifices, frequently renewed. Every Sacrifice for Sin, being an implicit Arraignment and condemnation of the Sinner. Of their misery by sin: the Death of those Sacrifices implying that the due (r) wages of their sins were Death, unless divine Justice had full satisfaction. 2. For the familiar instructing of lapsed Sinners touching the Remedy against Sin and Death. (s) The Death therefore of those Sacrifices typified the Death of Christ the true Sacrifice, the true (t) Lamb of God taking away the Sins of the world. These Sacrifices were Types, instructing them in the mysterie of Christ the Anti-type. 3. For ratifying the First Promise in Christs blood, as it were Sacramentally; they being in the Nature of visible Signs, Pledges and Tokens annexed to the Promise. The bruising of the Heel of the womans Seed, denoted Christs blood, stablishing the Promise Meritoriously: the Sacrifices, typifying Christs blood, stablished the Promise Sacramentally.

By Promises, (x) encouraging Faith, obedience, &c. according to the Grand Promise.

(x) Gen. 4.7.

By Mercies heaped, as rewards, upon Believers and Well-doers, walking uprightly. Thus God (y) testified his acceptance of the person and Sacrifice of righteous Abel. (z) Enoch walking with God; God took him, that is, translated him that he should not see death. (a) Noah being just and upright in his Generations, and walking with God, was preserved in the Ark by water, when the whole world was drowned.

By Threatnings denounced against all unbelievers and Evil-doers contrary to this First Promise. Thus, wicked Cain is threatned with imminent judgement for Sin; (b) If thou dost not well, sin lieth at the door; with the Earths barrenness, with a vagabond life, &c. (c) The wicked world also, and for their Sins every creature breathing therein is threatned after 120. years to be destroyed, except those that were preserved with Noah in the Ark.

(b) Gen. 4.7, 12
(c) Gen. 6.3, 7, 13, 17. & 7. 4.

By righteous judgements upon the unbelievers and ungodly of that first age. Thus God (d) cursed Cain from the Earth, and set a dreadful mark upon him, probably thought to be a continual, miserable and horrid quaking of his body for murdering his brother Abel.

(d) Gen. 4.11, 15.

6. He for a long time contended and strove with the wicked world to bring them to Faith, Repentance and Reformation of their Evil wayes: that so in Christ the seed of the woman they might have bruised the Serpents Head: (e) And the LORD said, My Spirit shall not always strive with man; for that he also is flesh: yet his dayes shall be an hundred and twenty years: Gods Spirit strove with them three ways especially; 1. By the great (f) Patience and long-suffering of God, leading them to repentance; yea after God had determined in the time of Noah to destroy the world, yet (g) his long-suffering waited for their return 120 years. 2. By (h) Preaching to them (which are now spirits in prison) by the Patriarchs of the old world, especially by Enoch the 7th from Adam, (whose Prophesie (i) Jude recites): and by (k) Noah the 8th person (the 8th saved in the Ark, but the 10th from Adam) a Preacher of righteousness; So called, because He preached, both by his Doctrine, and by his Practice in building the Ark, Gods righteous judgements that would come upon the world, and the righteousness of Christ by Faith, whereby they might escape Gods judgements. 3. By his secret illuminations, convictions, Motions and stirrings in the hearts of many, urging them to make a saving use of Gods patience, and the Patriarchs preaching unto them.

7. Finally, When the world generally neglected and despised Gods precious promise of lapsed sinners Recovery in Christ the Seed of the woman, and (k) were swallowed up with violence and all manner of wickedness incurrigibly: then (m) the Lord brought in the Flood upon the world of the ungodly, in the midst of their (n) impiety and Security, and destroyed them all. Thus this First Administration of the Covenant began at the worlds First Corruption by Sin, and ended at the worlds First general Destruction by the Flood.

CHAP. II.

Of the Discovery and Administration of the Covenants of Promise, in the second Period of time; from Noah, till Abraham.

THE second remarkable Period of time wherein the Lord God pleased to renew the Covenant of Faith, in reference to Christ Promised, was from Noah till Abraham, viz. from the (a) 480th year of Noah's life, or thereabouts, being the 1536th year from the worlds Creation: till about the 71th year of Abrams life, when the (b) Promise of Christ was first made to Abram, (as the (c) Authour of Sacred Chronologie clears it) which was in the 2079th year of the world. This Period was very short, being but about 542 years: yet it was enlarged somewhat, by the repetition of this Covenant when Abram was (d) 99 years old; and so it was extended to 571 years.

(c) Sacred Chronol. Difficulty 2. & p. 36.

(d) Gen. 17. 1. &c.

As this Period of the Covenants Administration was very short: so I shall proportionably contract my self in opening of it with all Convenient brevity. And for clearness sake I shall insist upon these three Aphorisms especially, viz. 1. That, The Lord God, having determined to destroy the old world for its extream wickedness, established his Covenant with righteous Noah, to save him, his family, and a seed of the Creatures in the Ark, from the Common destruction. 2. That, God having destroyed the wicked old world by a flood of waters, not only Resolved with himself, but also established his Covenant with Noah, with his Seed, and with the Creatures, Never to destroy the Earth any more by a flood. Annexing the Rainbow as a token of the Covenant. 3. That, These Covenants of God with Noah, were a renewed discovery of the Covenant of Faith, touching Sinners Salvation by Jesus Christ. Some writers, who purposely handle the Subject of Gods Covenants of Promise, yet omit this period of the Covenants Discovery. Why, I know not: unless upon opinion, that this Covenant of God with Noah was not the Covenant of Faith. This therefore I shall in this third Aphorism endeavour to evince: after I have first briefly opened the two Former Aphorisms to make way thereunto.

and

Aphorism. I.

The Lord God, having determined to destroy the old world for its extream wickedness, established his Covenant with righteous Noah, to save him, his family, and a Seed of living Creatures in the Ark, from the common destruction. This Aphorism may be briefly, 1. Confirmed; 2. Explained; and 3. Applyed in certain Corollaries or Inferences thence resulting.

I. For Confirmation, It is clear, that thus the Lord Covenanted with Noah, from the Historical Narrative that Moses made hereof; (c) And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me: for the Earth is filled with violence through them, and behold I will destroy them with the Earth. Make thee an Ark of Gopher wood, &c. And behold, I, even I do bring a flood of waters upon the Earth, to destroy all flesh wherein is the breath of life, &c. But with thee will I establish my Covenant: and thou shalt come into the Ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons wives with thee: and of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the Ark, to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male and female. These words clearly and fully prove the truth of the whole Aphorism. And this is the very First place wherein the Word ברית Berith, or, Covenant, is used in the whole Bible. Let us the more heedfully mind the meaning of it.

(c) Gen. 6. throughout. Esp. ver. 13, 14, 17, 18, 19.

II. For Explication of this Fœderal Transaction of God with Noah; Consider, 1. What this word Covenant meaneth. 2. How God stablished his Covenant with Noah. 3. Who were the Parties to this Covenant. 4. What were the matters Covenanted betwixt them. 5. What the Occasion and end of this Covenant.

1. What this word ברית Berith, or Covenant, meaneth; hath been

(f) See Book 1. Chap. 11. A. b. 1.

(f) formerly at large explained in opening the General Nature of the Covenant. Here therefore no more needs to be super-added.

(g) Gen 6.18.

2. How God stablished his Covenant with Noah: seeing he saith, (g) With thee will I establish my Covenant? Here he only promised to establish his Covenant with Noah: but When, or How did he perform this promise? Answ. 1. The Hebrew phrase הקימותי את-ברית Hakimothi Eth-Berithi, that is, I will stablish (or, make firm; or, make firmly to stand,) my Covenant, is very emphatical. The word הקימותי I will establish, is derived from קום Koom, which signifies either To rise up; or, Firmly to stand. According to the former Signification, it may be rendred; I will lift up my Covenant: or, I will make my Covenant rise up; that is, I will make a Covenant with thee. An allusion to the customary manner of Covenanting, wherein (h) a statue, or a stone, or Heap of stones, &c. was wont to be lifted up by the parties Covenanting, to testifie their agreement, as (i) Oleaster hath observed. According to the later signification, it may be translated (k) I will firmly-stablish my Covenant; or, I will firmly ensure my Covenant, or make it stand sure. For when a Covenant is kept, it is said to Stand: when it is broken, it is said to Fall. This latter signification is herein thought more apposite and fit: denoting the firmness, sureness and faithfulness of Gods Covenant. 2. Though God promised to Noah, I will establish my Covenant with thee; yet this Promise of God was his establishment of his Covenant. Here (saith that learned (l) Rivet) the Hebrews enquire, How God saith he would stablish his Covenant, which he had not yet made. But both are in one and the same moment, for when it is entered into, it is established. So then Gods publishing his Covenant to Noah, was his establishing his Covenant with him.

(k) I will stablish] that is, make sure and stable, and faithfully keep my Covenant. For so the word importeth, and other Scriptures open it. As, establish thou, 2 Sam. 7.25. is expounded, Let it be faithful, (or, sure) 1 Chron. 17.23. And to stablish the words of a Covenant, 2 King. 23.3. is, to do, (or, perform) them. 2 Chron. 34.31. and to continue in doing them, Gal. 3.10. with Deut. 27.26. *H. 3. Who were the Parties to this Covenant? The Text, and the Aphorism express them, viz. God and Noah.

(m) Gen. 6. 13, &c. 18.

God was the (m) Author of this Covenant, and the Party promising and Covenanting with Noah, to save him, when the whole world should be drowned. And God Revealed this Covenant Expressly, and Formally, stiling it a Covenant: Not only Implicitly. Nor did he Express and declare this Covenant to Noah, Mediately by the Ministry of Man, Angel or Creature: but Immediately by his own lively voyce; and this of meer (n) Grace. So that this Covenant was Divine, in regard of the foundation of it: Eminent, excellent and sure, in respect of the publication of it.

(n) Gen. 6.18.

Noah was the Party restipulating certain duties to God: as God promised certain benefits to him. Noah's (o) Restipulation was partly Explicit: partly Implicit, as after will appear. Consider a little, who this Noah was, whom God thus Honoured with his Covenant.

(o) Gen. 6.18.

I. For his Pedigree, or Natural descent; He was the (p) son of Lamech, &c. the 10th from Adam, in a direct line: and (q) by Noah's three sons, Sem, Ham, and Japhet, was the whole earth overspread and planted. II. For his Name; Noah signifies Rest proceeding from Comfort, or Comforter, or Restorer. His Father Lamech gave him this Name, saying; (r) This same shall comfort us concerning our work and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the Lord hath cursed. A Prophetical (s) denomination of him, who was to be a Type of Christ the true Noah, in building the Ark, and offering Sacrifices: whereupon (t) the Lord smelled a savour of Rest, and promised no more to curse the Earth for man's sake. In this Name given to his son, Lamech's Faith is observable, not only touching the Comfortable restoring of the drowned world by Noah, but also touching the restoring of ruined mankind by Jesus Christ the Seed of the woman. III. For his Religion; God himself gives him high and ample Commendation, both in Old and New Testament. For, 1. He was a (u) just and righteous person before God in his Generations. A righteous man in the midst of the unrighteous world, yea (x) an heir of righteousness which is by Faith. The Scripture names (y) Three persons, Eminent for righteousness, and Noah was one of those three, yea the first of the three, nor only righteous in himself, but also (z) A Preacher of righteousness to the world. 2. He (a) was a perfect and upright man, without hypocrisie, guil or deceit in his Religion. Had the power as well as the form of godliness in him. 3. He (b) walked with God. His habitual Course of life and Conversation was with his God, when the world walked in wickedness. God was his God Reconciled in Jesus Christ. For (c) can two walk together unless they be agreed? The Guid of his Actions; The Center of his Motions; The Load-stone of his affections; The Companion of his life; And the chief end of all his aims and undertakings. Blessed Noah thus walking with God, thus having sweet Communion with God in a wicked world, had an Heaven on Earth, yea as it were an Heaven in Hell. 4. He excelled in Faith, (d) believing things revealed of God, though unseen. 5. He had an holy aw and (e) fear of God and his judgements. 6. He was notably (f) obedient to all Gods Commands, though against greatest difficulties and discouragements, especially in that stupendious Act of Making the Ark. IV. For his privileges; God invested him with many, and those most remarkable. For, 1. He was singularly (g) preserved by divine grace from the general Corruption that in his times had over-run the whole world. 2. He alone with his family was saved in the Ark which he made at Gods appointment: when the (h) the whole world besides was universally drowned with a deluge of Waters. 3. He alone is (i) accepted in Covenant with God touching his and his families salvation from the Flood, 120 years before the Flood came. 4. He was the Period of the Old world, and the Beginner of the New world; the Omega of that, the Alpha of this: (k) having lived before the flood, 600 years, and and living 350 years after the flood: so that he was compared to Janus with two faces. And in respect of this New world, replenished by him and his family, he was as another Adam: All mankind being reduced to him, and flowing from him. 5. He, in making the Ark, and therein saving his family with himself from the dreadful flood, which destroyed the world of the ungodly, was a special Type of Christ: as after shall appear. 6. Finally, (l) Of him according to the flesh Jesus Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen. This was that Noah, with whom God established his Covenant.

(l) Luk. 3 36. Rom 9.5.

4. What were the Matters, or Things Covenanted betwixt God and Noah? Answ. The Subject-Matter of this Covenant, is twofold. 1. Promised, on Gods part. 2. Restipulated, on Noah's part.

(m) Gen. 6. 17, 18. & 7. 23.

On Gods part the Matter promised, was; (m) The Preservation and Salvation of Noah and his family with a Seed of living Creatures in the Ark, from the destructive Flood of waters, wherewith the whole world should be drowned. This God promised: and this he punctually performed to Noah, and to them that were with him in the Ark, acccording to his Covenant.

(n) Heb. 11.7.

On Noah's part the Matters restipulated by him, and which God required of him, were; 1. Faith (n), to believe God, warning him of things not seen as yet. viz. That God would destroy the whole world with a flood, at the end of 120 years. That God notwithstanding would save him, his family and a seed of the Creatures in an Ark, for replenishing the world anew. The Apostle ascribes this to his Faith. And without both the Assenting, and Applying act of Faith, Noah could never have entertained or depended upon this divine Revelation: nor have done what God prescribed. 2. Obedience, to Gods will and warning; viz. (1) In (o) Preparing an Ark for the saving of his House. A strange, a difficult, a chargeable, a wearisome and tedious work for 120 years together. (2) In (p) Providing and laying up food in the Ark for himself, and for all in the Ark with him, for the space of a whole year: for so long time they were in the Ark. (3) In (q) Entring into the Ark, He, His House, and the Creatures, as God had commanded him. (4) In (r) Persisting in his Righteousness, Integrity, and walking with God: for which God so (s) commended him, and rewarded him. Gods Commending and rewarding him for these excellencies, was an implicit Commanding and indenting with him to continue therein: Nor can it be reasonably thought, but that Noah thus understood the Lord, and implicitly resolved and contracted with him, to persevere in these acceptable vertues and practises.

5. What was the Occasion and End of the Lords making this Covenant with Noah?

The Occasion of Gods establishing this Covenant with Noah, was double; viz. I. The extream (t) wickedness of the old world, for which God determined to destroy it with a flood. Hereupon God took occasion occasion to reveal his Covenant to Noah. The wickedness of the old world was extream. For, 1. Piety and true Religion was overgrown with (u) wickedness and great ungodliness. The (x) Preaching of Enoch and Noah, The Patience and long-suffering of God, and the striving of Gods Spirit with them, little or nothing availing to bring them to Repentance and Reformation. 2. Equity and righteousness to man was swallowed up with tyranny, (y) violence, and oppression. Giants became great Tyrants, and the Earth was filled with violence. 3. Sobriety and Temperance were overthrown, Partly by their intemperate (z) Eating and drinking to excess, not for necessity. Partly by their intemperate and disordered Marriages, for satisfaction of their lusts, rather then for procreation of an holy Seed. (a) The sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose. The godly families in the Church, matched promiscuously with the wicked posterity of Cain out of the Church; for (b) Cain departed from the presence of the Lord. This brought a wicked Confusion into godly families. 4. All this Sinfulness of the old world was exceedingly heightned by these haynous Aggravations. (1) viz. The Extensiveness and Universality thereof. Not only Cain's family had degenerated: but (c) the whole Earth was Corrupt, all flesh had corrupted his way upon the Earth. (2) The Intensiveness of this general corruption, wholly and continually depraving all their inward principles. (d) God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the Earth, And that every imagination, (Heb. figment) of the thoughts of his heart was only evill continually, (Heb. every day,) What? Not only works and words, but the very thoughts of mans heart: yea the figment or imagination of his thoughts: yea, every imagination; was Evill; Only evill: Continually Evill. How emphatically! Again, (e) The Earth was filled with violence. (3) Their deep Security in all their wickedness; (f) till the very day that Noah entred into the Ark, and they knew not untill the flood came and took them all away. (4) Their Final impenitency; (g) Gods patience and long-suffering, the Preaching of Noah, and the striving of Gods Spirit with them, nothing at all prevailing with them to reclaim them; but they were then drowned, and now remain Spirits in prison. II. The (h) singular godliness of Noah in the midst of all the worlds wickedness; This was the other Occasion of Gods Covenanting with him to save him, when the world should be destroyd.

The End or intent of God, in making this Covenant with Noah, seems especially to be fourfold, viz. 1. Thereby to signifie his (i) peculiar love, grace, and Mercy to righteous Noah, and that familiarly in a Covenant way: when his justice, severity and wrath should be so dreadfully revealed from Heaven against the unrighteous world. 2. Thereby to encourage Noah the more effectually to undertake and accomplish that chargeable, difficult, dangerous, and tedious task of framing the Ark: seeing in that Ark God assured him, and his, of preservation, as (k) Calvin well observeth. 3. Thereby, to instruct instruct Noah and his Family in the Mystery of the Covenant of Faith, touching the salvation of Gods Elect Family by the true Noah, &c. and by the streams of his blood: as we shall see afterward. 4. Thereby, to let all in after-ages see, that God (l) knoweth how to deliver the righteous, but to reserve the unjust to exemplary punishment.

(l) 2 Pet. 2 3 to 11.

III. 1. Corollaries, or Inferences hence resulting. Hence,

1. The Sin of the old world was exceeding great, and reached up to Heaven: seeing that it was plagued with so great a judgement. The earth was filled with Violence: and it was filled with vengeance. The Sin was universall, and the judgement universall. All flesh had corrupted his way on earth: and all flesh is swept away from off the earth. O heavy punishment! Oh hainous sinfulness!

(m) Gen 3 6. (n) Gen. 3. 16 to 20. Gal. 3. 10. Rom. 8. 20, 21, 22.

2. The fruit of sin is bitter, wofull and deadly: though the acting of sin seem never so sweet and delightfull. The eating of the forbidden fruit was (m) pleasing to Adam and Eve: but the (n) curse that followed upon them, all mankinde, and the whole Creation, was gall and wormwood. The old worlds impiety, unrighteousness, intemperance, mixt Marriages, Security, &c. were delightfully acted: but when the flood took them all away for these things, the dead carkases of man and beast being spread like dung upon the face of all the habited earth, they were dismally plagued. Beware of the first and smallest beginnings of sin: it will be bitterness in the end.

3. The wrath of God, after Means of Grace and long waiting of his patience without fruit, is most severe against the ungodly. To the old world Enoch prophesied, Noah preached righteousness, and Gods long-suffering waited 120 years in his time for the worlds reformation, but all were utterly disappointed and ineffectuall: therefore God swallowed them up at once with a flood, Husbands and wives, Parents and children, Masters and servants, young and old, male and female, bond and free, Man and fowl and beast, they were all drowned together, not one of them was left, but those with Noah in the Ark. Had not Noah preached, and God waited so long for them, their judgements had been more tolerable; but when they despised all means of grace, and tyred out all Gods patience, then the wrath of God came upon them to the uttermost. Oh (o) it is a fearfull thing to fall into the hands of the living God, in this Case! The greater Gods patience, and means of Grace on earth, if fruitless, the greater will be the damnation and torments of the wicked in Hel. The longer God is in drawing his Bow of patience, the deeper will be the wounds of the arrows of his vengeance. Though he hath leaden Heels: yet he hath iron hands. When he is long before he strike, he strikes home when the blow comes. (p) It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon, then for thee Chorazin, and Bethsaida: for Sodom and Gomorrah then for Capernaum (that was lifted up to heaven in the means of Grace,) at the day of judgement. Why, because they had more Means of Grace, then these. What city was honoured like Jerusalem with Means of Salvation? and what city was ever laid so low in judgements for despising deſpiſing thoſe meanes? If England abuſe all Gods patience, be incurable under all Gods means and medicines; where ſhall England appear?

(o) He. 10. 31.

(p) Mat. 11. 20. to 25.

4. Oh how precious treaſures are Piety and integrity that preſerve from publique judgements and common calamities. Upright Noah is alive and ſafe in the Ark, when the wicked are rolling, gaſping and dying in the mercileſs waves. The Giants of thoſe times with all their power, greatneſs, violence, tyranny and wealth, could not ſave themſelves from drowning: but Noah's (q) righteouſneſs delivered him from Death. Who would not be in love with piety and integrity! Theſe will bring us into Gods Ark, theſe will preſerve us: when the tranſgreſſion of the ungodly ſhall deſtroy them. (q) Prov. 11.4.

5. The Lord knows how to preſerve the righteous when the wicked are deſtroyed. He had an (r) Ark for Noah: when the old world is choaked in the flood. He had a (ſ) Zoar for Lot: when Sodom and Gommorrha are conſumed with fire and brimſtone. He had a ſafe refuge for Jeremiah, even in (t) Priſon, when Ieruſalem is taken. Let us therefore ſincerely walk with him, and depend upon him in greateſt extremities; for (u) none can deliver in this ſort. (r) Gen. 6.18, &c. (ſ) Gen. 19.20, 21, 22. (t) Jer. 38.28, and 39.11, 12, 13, 14. (u) Dan. 3.29.

6. The Lord preſerves his people by means ordinarily. Noah, by an Ark. Lot by flight from Sodom, &c. Yet ſometimes thoſe means are ſtrange meanes. Noah ſaved from drowning by the ſame (x) waters that drowned the world. Iſrael preſerved from the Egyptians, by the ſame (y) waves that overwhelmed the Egyptians. Ionah is (z) delivered from the belly of the Sea, by being ſwallowed up by the belly of the Whale. Therefore uſe we meanes: but truſt we God. To depend upon God without uſe of meanes, is to tempt God, and endanger our ſelves: to depend upon meanes, and not upon God; is to deſpiſe God, and idolize means. (x) 1 Pet. 3.20. (y) Exod. 14. and 15. (z) Ionah 1. 15, 17.

7. Gods Covenant is his peoples evidence or ſecurity for their Salvation. By the fal of Adam we have forfeited all, both Temporals and Spirituals. Without a new Contract or Agreement with God, we are out lawes, and can claim nothing. God, by Covenant, interreſſeth us in Chriſt; and through Chriſt, in (a) all things. Noah himſelf had no Security for his ſalvation from the flood, till God ſecured him by Covenant: Nor have Noah's poſterity any protection from a ſecond Deluge but by Gods (b) other Covenant with him and them. Nay, without Gods Covenant, what evidence or ſecurity could lapſed ſinners have for their ſpirituall Recovery or Eternall ſalvation? Gods Covenant then is the great Charter of our Salvation. By this we have and hold All. How ſhould we then ſtudy and value Gods Covenant: and labour to be fœderate-Parties with God therein? (a) 1 Cor. 3. 21, 22, 23. (b) Gen. 8.20, 21, 22. and 9.8. to 18.

APHORISM.

APHORISM II.

THe Lord God having destroyed the wicked old world by a flood of waters, not only resolved with himself, but also Covenanted with Noah, with his seed, and with the creatures, Never to destroy the earth any more by a flood: annexing the Rainbow for a Token of the Covenant. This was Gods second Covenant with Noah; His Additionall Covenant, super-added to the former. For clearing of it, This Aphorism (as the former) shall be 1 Confirmed; 2 Opened; and 3 Applyed.

I. Confirmed this Aphorism may be, in the principall branches of it, by evident Scripture-Testimonies. As,

1. That God resolved and determined with himself, after the worlds destruction by the flood, never to destroy it again by a flood of waters. (c) And Noah went forth of the Ark, —— And Noah builded an Altar unto the LORD, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered Burnt-offerings on the Altar. And the LORD smelled a sweet savour, and the LORD said in his heart, (there's his Determination with himself,) I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake, (though the imagination of mans heart be evill from his youth;) Neither will I again smite any more every thing living, as I have done. Henceforth all the dayes of the Earth, Seed-time and Harvest, and Cold and Heat, and Summer and Winter, and Day and Night shall not cease.

(c) Gen. 7. 21, 22, 23. with 8. 20, 21, 22.

2. That God Covenanted this with Noah, with his Seed, and with all living creatures. (d) And God spake to Noah, and to his sons with him, saying; And I, behold I, establish my Covenant with you, and with your seed after you, and with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattell, and of every beast of the earth with you, from all that go out of the Ark, to every beast of the earth. And I will establish my Covenant with you; Neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood, neither shall there any more be a flood to destroy the earth.

(d) Gen 9. 8, 9, 10, 11. Isal. 54. 9.

3. That God also annexed the Rainbow as a sign or token to this Covenant, (e) And God said, this is the Token of the Covenant, which I make between me and you, and every living creature that is with you, for perpetuall generations; I do set my bow in the cloud, And it shall be for a token of the Covenant between me and the earth. And it shall come to pass, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the bow shall be seen in the cloud: And I will remember my Covenant, which is between me and you, and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters shall no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. And the Bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting Covenant between God and every living Creature of all flesh that is upon the earth. And God said unto Noah, This is the Token of the Covenant, which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth. By this heap of words and variety of expressions touching the Tokens of Gods Covenant

(e) Gen. 9. 12. to 18.

nant with Noah, we may perceive, Both what need Noah and his sons had to be comforted against a future flood, the deluge now newly past leaving such prints of astonishment and amazement upon their Spirits; and also how solicitous the Lord was by those reiterated phrases to raise up their faith and confidence for future, above their present fears and despondencies. And in the last clause he summarily and emphatically recapitulates the whole, This is the token of the Covenant which I have established, &c. Yea (as (f) Mercerus noteth) some among the Jews think, that at these words, God demonstrated a Rainbow in the cloud to Noah, for the strengthening of his Faith.

(f) Joan. Mercer. in prælect. ad Genes. 9. 17.

II. Explained, and Opened this Aphorism may be also, by inquiring into, and unfolding of these Particulars, viz. 1. The Causes and Occasion of this Covenant. 2. The Parties Covenanting. 3. The Matters Covenanted. 4. The Token of this Covenant, the Bow in the Cloud.

1. The Causes and Occasion of this Covenant may be thus declared. 1. The Efficient Cause, or Author of it, was God. (g) God spake to Noah, saying; And I, behold I establish my Covenant with you. 2. The Inward impulsive or Moving Cause, can be imagined to have been none other, but his own Meer Grace and Commiserating Mercies to Noah, and the small remnant with him surviving the flood. 3. The Outward impulsive or Moving Cause, was twofold. (h) Less Principall and Typicall; viz. Noah's (h) Altar and Burnt-offerings offered thereon to God, In which God smelled a sweet Savour, and whereupon he took occasion to Resolve and Covenant never more to destroy the world with a flood. (i) More Principall and Anti-typicall, or Typified; viz. Jesus Christ and his offering himself up a sacrifice for sin to God upon the Altar of his Godhead, wherein he was (i) an Odour of a sweet smell to God. And this was the Outward Moving Cause of Gods Covenanting both his Elect's Recovery and the worlds Restitution and Preservation in reference thereunto, As shall after more appear. 4. The Finall Cause, or end intended in this Covenant, was (k) Partly to assure Noah and his Posterity of his great Mercy intended to the world, (k) notwithstanding mans sin, in that it should never more be destroyed by a Flood of waters. (l) Partly to instruct him and his Seed, that as sin brought destruction upon the creature; so Christ satisfying Gods justice for sin, should bring Restitution and Preservation to the Creature. (l) Partly to glorifie the riches of Gods Grace, Mercy and loving-kindness in both.

2. The Parties Covenanting are 1. God, on the one hand. God as (m) appeased, and smelling a savour of rest, upon Noah's Sacrifices in this notion God establisheth this Covenant. 2. (n) Noah and his sons, and their Seed, and all living Creatures, on the other hand. Here (as (o) Calvin notes) there are three degrees of foederates with God mentioned, or (as (p) Parens) four, viz. (1) Noah himself. The Parent and common Father of the New world. The second Adam. With whom the LORD had established his Covenant towards the period riod of the old world. God honoured this righteous sincere and heavenly man with the first place. (2) Noah's sons, Sem, Ham, Japhet, who were saved with Noah in the Ark. The females are implyed and included in the males. (3) Their (p) seed after them, viz. All the Posterity of Noah, and of his sons, till the end of the world, for perpetuall Generations. In this branch we are comprehended, and all mankinde. God Covenants not onely with his people, but (q) with their Seed, and with their Seed's Seed, that keep Covenant with him, even to all Generations. This Covenant therefore in some sort concerns all the world. Oh the infinite Bounty of the Lord in his fœderall Administrations! (4) All living Creatures, fowls, beasts, and creeping things. Them also being created for man, God takes into Covenant with man. Noah was confederate with God herein: And the other three sorts were as Subfœderates under him. But here some Doubts may arise, and are to be removed.

(p) Gen. 9. 12.

(q) Isal. 59. 20, 21.

Doubt 1. Seeing God established his Covenant not onely with Noah, but with his sons, and their seed also, God seems to admit into Covenant with himself the wicked as well as the righteous: For (r) Cham was ungodly, and cursed by his own Father; and more of the posterity of these three sons of Noah were wicked than godly. Consequently, (s) God Covenants not onely with Christ and his Seed, but also with the seed of the Serpent. And Godliness alone hath not the Promise of this and the life to come. Resol. This is a Materiall Doubt. Thus Conceive, 1. God never Covenants with the Seed of the Serpent, formally as such; nor makes Promises to the ungodly in that notion as they are ungodly. For then God should approve them in their evill; and equalize them to his Elect: both which it is impossible for God to do. 2. Since the Fall, The Covenant of Faith and all the (t) Promises of it, are (as hath been shewed) setled upon Christ, and in him upon them that are his, and that are godly, in one respect or another: or at least upon others, with reference to the godly, and for the benefit of Christs members. Thus Promises were made to wicked (u) Cyrus, with reference to his Church; God intending him to be a noble instrument of her good, &c. Now people may be said to be godly, or to be Christ's divers wayes, viz. Actually, Virtually, Professedly. (1) Actually, when they are truly implanted into Christ already by their effectuall (x) Calling, and are really sanctified. Of these there is no doubt, but Gods Covenant and Promise are actually and formally theirs. (y) As called and sanctified, they are within Covenant. Such an one was Noah, here first named in this Covenant with God. And probably such were Shem and Japhet, his sons. (2) Virtually and potentially, when they are in a Capacity or possibility of becoming Christs. Thus all that are (z) Elected, though many of them be as yet unborn, are Christs virtually according to Election, and God establishing his Covenant with those that are his, and with their Seed, must needs intend all such before they are in being. Thus God takes in here not onely onely Noah and his sons, but their seed also. (a) Professedly men may be said to be Christs, and godly, when they make a true Profession of Christ, and of godliness: and this either in themselves, (b) as adults growyn up to years of discretion, or in their Christian Parents, as Infants which by reason of being so born are counted federally (c) Holy, and in Covenant with their Parents. And thus God entred into Covenant not onely vvith Noah, Shem and Japhet, but also vvith Cham. He at that time professing godliness vvith his pious father and family: and (c) not discovering his levvdness till after this Covenant vvas made. Yea he entred into Covenant vvith their Seed as vvell as vvith themselves, their seed professing godliness implicitly and fundamentally in their Parents. If then the Lord admit both Root and Branches, Parents and their seed into his Covenant joyntly: hovv unvvarrantable and dangerous are the Acts of Anabaptists vvho forbid Infants of such Parents to partake of the initiating signe and Token of the Covenant?

3. In Gods Covenants vve must further distinguish betvvixt The Outward Administration and Common benefits thereof vvhich come short of Salvation: and the Inward Efficacy and special benefits thereof vvhich reach unto Salvation. In the former sense all the seed of Noah and of his sons vvere comprehended in this Covenant, and thereby secured against any other universall deluge of vvaters: but in the latter sense onely the Elect of their seed are comprized in this Covenant, as tending to secure them from eternall perdition in Christ.

Doubt 2. But hovv and in vvhat sense can God be said to establish his Covenant vvith the bruit creatures, fovvls, beasts and creeping things, that can neither understand Gods Promises, nor restipulate any performances? Resol. 1. Some say, that this Covenant here made vvith Noah, &c. was absolute, and required no conditions on the Creatures part: and such an absolute Covenant may be made even vvith bruit creatures, though they neither understand it nor restipulate. But every Covenant consists in mutual agreement, Explicit or Implicit. Promises may be absolute vvithout restipulation: but not Covenants. And in this Covenant vve shall finde some things restipulated. 2. Others resolve better, vvho say; God Covenanted here vvith these bruit Creatures, Not Properly and Directly for themselves, but improperly, indirectly and relatively, vvith reference and relation to mankinde, that they should not any more be generally destroyed vvith a flood. For as at first these (d) Creatures were all made for mans use and service, And vvere aftervvards drovvned in the flood, not for their ovvn sakes, but (e) for man's sin; So now while man should continue in this world, God covenanteth that these Creatures should continue also for his service and Benefit.

3. The Matters Covenanted in this Covenant are, either on Gods part, or on the part of Noah, his sons and their seed.

God on his part Covenanted, (f) that he would never more destroy the earth and the living Creatures therein with an universall deluge, as he had done: but that the Natural Courses and Revolutions of Times and Seasons, should successively continue till the worlds end. Herein therefore God hath given notable Security and Assurance that the whole Earth shall no more be drowned with a General flood. Yet this hinders not, but that; 1. Particular persons and places may be destroyed with floods of waters, and out-breaking of the unruly Sea, as hath come to pass both in England and in forreign Countries. Particulars and individuals may be destroyed by Waters: but not the whole universe. 2. The whole world, (though it shall not be destroyed by a flood and streams of waters, yet) may be destroyed with streams of Fire. (g) For the Heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the Elements shall melt with fervent heat, the Earth also and the works that are therein shall be burnt up.

(g) 2 Pet. 3. 10.

Noah, his sons, and their Seed on their part, at least Implicitly restipulate with God; 1. To believe this Promise of God, That the Earth and the living Creatures therein shall no more be destroy'd generally with the waters of a flood. 2. To believe in Christ the true Sacrifice appeasing Gods wrath against the world, and restoring stability to the perishing Creature, and so becoming the foundation of this and of all Gods Covenants and Promises. 3. To make use of the Rainbow appearing, as a Sign or Token of this Covenant, for strengthening their Faith therein.

(h) Gen. 9. 12. to 18.

4. The Token of the Covenant, is Gods (h) Bow in the Cloud, as hath formerly been expressed from the text. For better understanding of this token, Consider, [1] What Bow this is. [2] When this Bow was set in the cloud. [3] What manner of Sign or Token it was, and is, in respect of this Covenant.

(i) Gen. 9. 13.

(i) What Bow this is, which is added as a Token of this Covenant, may be concluded from that phrase, (i) I will set my Bow in the cloud. That is, The Rain-Bow; Which is the most Beautiful of all the Meteors, and most admirable both in its generation and figure. (k) Hence the Poets call it filiam Thaumantis, that is, The daughter of that God which is most wonderful. It is called a Bow, because it resembles a bended bow in the figure of it: A Bow in the Cloud, because there only it appears: The Rain-Bow, because it naturally signifies Rain: Iris, in Latine from [illegible], to foretell, Because it still foretels some Natural, or Supernatural thing. The Rainbow is an image or representation of a Bow or Semicircle of many colours arising in a moist wateriſh cloud from the various reflexion and refraction of the Sun-beams thereupon. The chief colours of the Rainbow are three: viz. A reddish colour uppermost. A greenish colour middlemost. A wateriſh colour lowest. Sometimes appears a yellowish colour, from the commixture of the Red and Green. Further discourse about the Natural Mysteries in the Rainbow, I leave to the Natural Philosopher, as not so pertinent to my present purpose.

(k) Videatur B. Keckermann. Syllem. Physic. lib. 6. sub finem.

(l) When this Rainbow was set in the cloud, is variously disputed. Some think it was first set in the cloud at that very time when when God made this Covenant with Noah. (l) Mercerus ſaith, Raſi was of this opinion, and that preſently as God ſpake theſe words to Noah, he brought a dewy cloud into the Air with a Rainbow in it, ſhewing it to Noah, ſaying, This is the token of the Covenant, &c. (m) Others rather conclude, that whether at that time God ſhow'd the Bow to Noah or not, the Rainbow did appear in the clouds long before that time: There being the ſelf ſame Natural cauſes to produce this Natural effect of the Rainbow, before, as well as ſince the flood: and no impediment hindering ſuch production. The Rainbow might be before the flood, from the begining, as a Natural effect of Natural Cauſes: But till after the flood when God made this Covenant, it never was a Sign or Token of a Supernatural Covenant.

(l) Raſi vult, quia ſupra generaliter tantum propoſuerat ſe ſignum foederis hujus arcum in nube conſtituere, nec interim eum in cœlo collocaret, nunc in præſentia ad majorem rei confirmationem in præſentia eum in cœlo collocaſſe, inductis rurſum nubibus & arcu in illis: Et ſic adjecſſe, En tibi ſignum de quo tam locutus; itaq; velut illi comm onſtraſſe; videt hunc Arcum, hoc tibi pro Signo erit mece Promiſſionis & fœderis, ne quicquam dubites. Quod etſi non rejecta im, ſimul tamen cum & hoc loco Epexegumaſſe & Summum ſuperiorum. Jo. Mercer. in Gen. 9. 17. ——— Joan.

(1) What Manner of Sign or Token of the Covenant the Rainbow was, we may thus conceive. Signs or Tokens are things that Signifie and betoken ſome other thing to the mind, beſides what they repreſent unto the Senſe. Signs are either Natural, or Voluntary and Inſtituted. I. Natural Signs are they which of themſelves, and in their own Nature Signifie ſomething Preſent or Future. 1. Preſent, as Smoak is a Sign of fire: Paleneſs of ſome diſeaſe, &c. ſuch ſigns are meerly Significative. 2. Future, as (n) the Red Evening fore-ſignifies a fair day: the (o) Red Morning a fowl day: The Rainbow ſignifies Rain ſhortly to come, &c. II. Voluntary or Inſtituted Signs are ſuch as ſignifie, not of their own Nature, but only according to the will or pleaſure of the Author or Inſtitutor thereof. Thus the (p) Paſſeover ſignified Chriſt: (q) Bread his Body: Wine his Blood: and here the Rainbow ſignifies Security, that the world ſhall no more be generally drowned with a flood. So then the Rainbow which Phyſically and Naturally denotes Rain, Theologically, ſupernaturally and by Inſtitution ſignifies Fair weather and Security from Rain and a Flood. It's not a Natural, but an (r) Inſtituted Sign. When we look upon it, we are not ſo much to take notice of its Natural, as of its Supernatural and inſtituted Signification, and of Gods great favour in reſolving never to drown the world again, remembred thereby. Thus God ſometimes makes uſe of Contrary Means, for our good.

(p) 1 Cor. 5. 7.
(q) 1 Cor. 11. 23, 24, 25.
(r) The Rainbow was no Natural, but an Inſtituted Sign, and therefore it may Seal the aſſurance of the Promiſe, though there were no correſpondency betwixt it and the thing ſignified: and yet it was the fitter to be a Sign of Security from the future Flood. 1. Becauſe of the place, which is in the clouds of Heaven, whence the rain came that drowned the world before. 2. Becauſe the Bow is bended upwards towards God, not towards the Creature below, as when it is taken in hand to ſhoot at a mark: Nor is there in the Bow any Arrow, which is ſaid to be made ready upon the ſtring, when hurt is intended. Pſal. 11. 2. 3. Becauſe the Rainbow commonly appeareth with Rain, and ſo where men might begin to fear this judgement, there they may take comfort againſt it, in that it is a Sign of his Covenant for ſafety. 4. Becauſe the Rainbow appears not but when there is a clearneſs and a brightneſs in ſome part of the ſky: but at the General Flood it was all black with Rain. See the late Annotations on Gen. 9. 13.

The

The Rainbow then confirming and Sealing the Certainty of Gods Covenant, and our assurance thereof, not by Natural signification, but by Supernatural Institution, those Conjectures of some are more witty then solid and weighty, who thus interpret the Natural Colours of the Rainbow, viz. The waterish colour, which is lowest, to signifie the flood past: The Greenish colour, which is in the midst, to signifie the Mercy present, and Security against another general Flood: And the fiery colour, which is highest, to signifie the future destruction of the world by fire, as (f) Peter intimates.

(f) 2 Pet. 3. 10.

III. Applyed this Aphorism may be in these brief ensuing Corollaries. viz. Hence,

1. Noah was singularly honoured and favoured of God; In that God established his Covenant twice with him, viz. (t) Before the Flood, to assure him that himself and family should not perish with the wicked world: (u) After the Flood, to assure him that he would never bring such another Flood upon the World.

(t) Gen. 6. 18. &c.

(u) Gen. 9. 8. to 18.

2. The Greatness of Gods commiserating Grace and Mercy to mankind is to be observed and admired in this Dispensation. Especially in that, 1. Gods judgement upon the old world is closed up with Mercy to the New, though as Sinful as the Old. 2. This Mercy is tendered in a Covenant, and that a Covenant upon divine Record. 3. This Covenanted mercy is assured by a Sacrament; the Rainbow. 4. This Mercy, so far as temporal, is extended to all: to the wicked, as well as to the Godly, yea to Creatures irrational, neither understanding the Nature nor Obligation of the Covenant, as well as to rational Creatures.

3. There shall never be another (x) General Flood to drown the world, Nor shall the Natural Revolution and Course (y) of Seed-time and Harvest, cold and heat, Summer and Winter, Day and Night cease by any general judgement, while this Earth Continues.

(x) Gen. 9. 11.
(y) Gen. 8. 21, 22.

4. When we See Gods bow in the clowd, we should heedfully remember Gods Severity in drowning the world for Sin, and Gods Goodness assuring the New world that it shall never be drowned with a general Flood any more.

APHORISM

APHORISM. III.

These two Covenants of God, established with Noah, Before and After the Flood, for saving Noah and his family in the Ark by water from perishing with the wicked world, and for preserving the world from future destruction by a General Flood; were a renewed discovery and administration of the Covenant of Faith, touching Sinners Salvation by Jesus Christ. The two former Aphorisms I have briefly opened, for the better clearing of this. In them Gods Covenant with Noah hath been explained in reference to the Temporal Benefits therein expressed: In this Gods Covenant with Noah is to be unfolded in reference to Spiritual benefits and mysteries under those temporals implyed. In the two former Aphorisms we have seen the outside of these Covenants: In this we shall behold the inside also. For more full satisfaction herein, Consider, 1. That these Covenants of God with Noah, were a renewed discovery and Administration of the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Recovery and Salvation by Jesus Christ. 2. What was the Spiritualness, or Spiritual meaning of this Covenant. 3. What Additionals are annexed to this fœderal Administration, more then to the First from Adam till Noah. And consequently what differences and agreements there were betwixt these two Dispensations. 4. Corollaries or Inferences from the whole.

1. That these two Covenants of God with Noah, before and after the General Flood were a renewed Administration of the Covenant of Faith, touching Sinners Recovery and Salvation by Jesus Christ, may be evinced by these ensuing Arguments, viz.

1. All Gods Covenants and Promises since Mans fall were founded, stablished and principally accomplished in Jesus Christ the Sinners Saviour. (z) For all the Promises of God in him (that is, in Jesus Christ) are Yea, And in him Amen, unto the glory of God: As hath been formerly explained. The same Christ for substance being tendered in them all: in several ages, severally. Why then shall Jesus Christ, and the mysterie of Sinners salvation by him, be excluded from these Covenants and promises to Noah? It's granted that Christ was revealed in these Covenants with Noah, very dimly, obscurely, and but implicitly; and it cannot be denyed, but that in all the several Administrations of the Covenants of Promise before Christs Coming in the flesh, Christ was represented very obscurely, especially in the First Administrations, when Divine Grace in him began but to dawn and break forth to the world. Yea in the (a) First Promise, which is darkest of all, we have found Christ and Sinners Recovery by him intended and implyed; 1. In the Seed of the woman. 2. In the Enmity betwixt the Seed of the woman and the Serpent. 3. In the bruising of the Serpents

(z) 2 Cor. 1. 19, 20. with 1 Tim. 4 8. Gal. 3. 17. Heb. 13. 8.

(a) Gen. 3. 14, 15.

Serpents Head by the womans Seed, And 4. In the Serpents bruising of his Heel. Why then should it seem a thing incredible or impossible to find out Christ, and Sinners salvation by him; 1. In Noahs and his families Salvation in the Ark by water from destruction, 2. In his Sacrifices offered, 3. In Gods promises of his and the worlds preservation from all such floods for future, and 4. In the Rainbow confirming the same? Surely there were some glimmerings of Christ, in Noah, The Ark, The Waters, Salvation thereby, The Altar, Sacrifices, Rainbow, &c. as after may more distinctly appear.

2. Noah by his Faith, being moved with fear at Gods Warning and making his Ark, became heir of the righteousnes which is by Faith.

(b) Heb. 11. 7. (b) By Faith Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an Ark, to the saving of his House, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousnes which is by faith. In which words note I. The foundation of Noahs Faith; viz. Gods warning him of things unseen as yet. Gods will and warning by his Word is the ground of our Faith. II. The Commendation of Noahs Faith; by the excellent effects, fruits or advantages thereof, notably flowing from one another, viz. 1. A reverential aw, and respect to God, and to his warning revealed; being moved with fear. 2. Hereupon an obediential preparation of an Ark, (a) Primarily, for the saving of his own house. (b) Secondarily, for the condemning of the world. In his building of which Ark he condemned the world two wayes; Partly, by his Faith and Obedience in building it, hereby he condemned the Unbelieving and Disobedient world. Partly, by his Preaching to the old world whilst he did build it: Every knock upon the Ark for 120 years together, being as a Penitential Sermon to the world of the ungodly. Hereby he condemned the obstinate and impenitent world. 3. Consequently from both, a true Title to, and heirship of the Righteousnes which is by faith: Even as an Heir hath right and title to his inheritance. This (c) righteousnes by Faith is that Perfect Righteousnes of Jesus Christ, which God of his meer Grace imputeth to them that by Faith accept and receive the same, having renounced all self-righteousnes, and all other wayes of Sinners justification whatsoever. It's called (d) Gods righteousnes; Because it is a righteousnes whereof God is author, which alone God will accept, and which consists in the perfect obedience of him who is God as well as man. It's stiled (e) the righteousnes by Faith, or of Faith; because it is instrumentally apprehended and applyed only by Faith. It is (f) opposed to the Righteousnes of the Law, called our own righteousnes, which consists (g) in our own perfect and perpetual personal fulfilling of the Law: This being not our own, (h) but Christs righteousnes, perfectly fulfilling the Law, and undergoing the Curse thereof for us, and making his righteousnes ours by (i) Faith. Of this Righteousnes of Christ, Noah became heir, whilst by Faith he reverenced Gods warning touching the flood, and prepared an Ark according ing to Gods Covenant with him, for his families Salvation. Hence therefore it is evident, that Noah, in all this fœderal transaction betwixt God & him, had a special eye to Christ by Faith: and that beyond the temporal salvation of his House in the Ark by waters from the general deluge, he beheld and apprehended the Spiritual Salvation of Christs House the Church, and peculiarly of himself from the wrath of God by Jesus Christ and his blood; otherwise how could this Act of his Faith have made him heir of Christs righteousness? None can inherit Christs righteousness, but by Faith in Christ. Consequently this Covenant of God with Noah, touching his Salvation in the Ark by Water, principally intended the great Salvation by Christ: and so was an Administration of the Covenant of Faith.

3. Noah, was a singular Type of Christ; The Ark, a figure of the Church; and the temporal saving of his House with himself in the the Ark by water, a special type of the salvation of Christs Elect in the Church by Jesus Christ. Consequently Gods Covenant with Noah touching the saving of him and his family in the Ark by water from the Common destruction upon the wicked world, intended herein to signifie the Elects salvation by Christ through Faith: and so this Covenant was the Covenant of Faith renewed with Noah touching Sinners Recovery and Salvation by Christ. The Consequence is clear. The Antecedent, consisting of three distinct branches, may be thus evidenced also in order.

(1.) Noah was a singular Type of Christ. The (k) Scriptures not obscurely intimate this: and learned (l) writers both ancient and modern affirm it. Parallel them a little, and then see how notably Noah adumbrated and resembled Jesus Christ. I. Of Noah it was foretold, that he should (m) comfort his family concerning their work and toyl, and the curse of the ground. Whereupon he was named Noah, that is, Resting, Comforting, or Restoring; as before was noted. Of Christ also it was foretold; that (n) he should save his people from their sins: whereupon he was called Jesus, A Saviour, that (o) he should preach good tidings unto the meek; should bind up the broken-hearted; should proclaim liberty to the Captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; should proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD; should comfort all that mourn; should give unto the Mourners in Sion Beauty for Ashes, the oyl of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness. And how sweetly doth Christ allure distressed Souls to himself! (p) Come unto me all ye that labour and are Heavy-laden, and I will give you Rest; take my yoak upon you, —— and ye shall find rest unto your souls. II. When (q) all flesh had corrupted his wayes, and the whole world was over-flowed with extream wickedness, yet (r) Noah was a just, and upright man, walking with God, and found grace in the eyes of the LORD. So Jesus Christ, in the Corruptest times wherein he lived, was (s) perfectly just, (t) did nothing amiss; (u) had no guil in his mouth; was (x) holy, harmless, undefiled, and separate from Sinners. (y) Increased in favour with God and man. And was (z) the Son of his Fathers love. III. Noah was a Prieſt, a Prophet, and a King. 1. A Prieſt; for (a) he builded an Altar unto the LORD; and took of every clean beaſt, and of every clean fowl, and offered Burnt-offerings upon the Altar. 2. A Prophet, for he was (b) a Preacher of righteouſneſs to the old world. And 3. A King; for the flood having drowned the whole world except himſelf, and his family, Noah was the ſole Monarch of the whole Earth: (c) and by his three ſons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth was the whole earth over-ſpread; and all creatures ſubdued under them. So Chriſt was, 1. A Prieſt, yea our (d) great High Prieſt, Both (e) making ſatisfaction to Gods juſtice for our ſins by offering up his Manhood once upon the Altar of his Godhead; And by (f) Making continual interceſſion in Heaven for us. 2. A Prophet, (g) Revealing unto Sinners Gods will touching their Salvation: and (h) opening their underſtandings to diſcern the ſame. 3. A King, (i) Conquering and Subduing us to himſelf; (k) Applying his benefits to us Purchaſed and Revealed; (l) Governing, and (m) Guarding us; And (n) cruſhing all his and our Enemies under his foot. IV. Noah (o) builded a Material Ark, for the ſaving of his Natural Poſterity therein from the general deluge of waters, according to Gods Covenant. So Jeſus Chriſt (p) builds a Spiritual Ark, his Church, for the ſaving of all his Elect, his ſupernatural Poſterity therein, from the deluge of Gods wrath. V. Noah Sacrificing (q) Burnt-offerings to God, God ſmelled a ſavour of Reſt, and took Occaſion hereby to Promiſe and Covenant with Noah never to deſtroy the world with a Flood of waters, making his Bow in the Cloud a Sign or Token of the Covenant. So Jeſus Chriſt (r) by the eternal Spirit offering up himſelf without ſpot to God, (s) and giving himſelf for us an Offering and a Sacrifice to God for a Sweet ſmelling ſavour; The Lord hereupon hath eſtabliſhed (t) A New and Everlaſting Covenant with them that are Chriſts, never to deſtroy them for their ſins by the deluge of his wrath, but to be merciful to their iniquities, and remember their ſins no more; yea to be their God, and that they ſhall be his people: adding (u) Baptiſm and the (x) Lords Supper, as Tokens and Seals of this Covenant. VI. The dreadful ſtorm of the Flood being over, (y) Noah ſent forth out of the Ark a Dove, which returned to them into the Ark with an Olive branch (an Embleme of Peace and comfort) in her mouth, ſignifying that the waters were abated. So Jeſus Chriſt, the terrible Storm and Tempeſt of his Paſſion and Death for our ſin being over, (z) ſends forth his holy Spirit (ſometimes (a) appearing in the form of a Dove) the (b) Authour of Comfort Peace and Joy in the hearts of his people, (c) witneſſing with their Spirits that they are Gods children, that their ſins are pardoned, their peace with God is concluded, and the Flood of his wrath is for ever turned away. VII. Finally, Noah was a Reſtorer of the world ruined by the Flood of waters; (d) his ſons over-ſpread the whole Earth; and the Creatures, which he preſerved and provided for in the Ark, repleniſhed repleniſhed the world. So, and much more eminently, Jeſus Chriſt is the reſtorer of the whole world, diſſipated, ſcattered, broken, curſed and ruined for mans ſin by the flood of Gods wrath: Redeeming, Preſerving and propagating his Church throughout the whole world, Reſtoring and ordering all Creatures for the good of his Church. (e) In the diſpenſation of the fulneſs of times, God hath gathered together in one all things in Chriſt, both which are in heaven, and which are in earth, even in him. —— And hath put all things under his feet: and gave him to be head over all things to the Church. And of Chriſt it is ſaid, (f) He is before all things, and by him all things conſiſt. And He is the Head of the body, the Church: who is the beginning, the firſt-born from the dead, that in all things he might have the preheminence. For it pleaſed the Father that in him ſhould all fulneſs dwell. And (having made peace through the blood of his Croſs) by him to reconcile all things unto himſelf by him, I ſay, whether they be things in earth, or things in Heaven. Thus Noah, in reference to this fœderall Tranſaction of God with him, notably reſembled Jeſus Chriſt. And therefore how can we but conclude, that Gods Covenants with Noah were intended for an Adminiſtration of the Covenant of Faith, touching ſinners Recovery by Jeſus Chriſt?

(2) The Ark of Noah was a Notable Type of the Church of Chriſt. The Apoſtle (g) Peter intimates ſo much, in the judgement of Hierome. Both (h) Auguſtine, (i) Hierom, (k) Cyprian, and other (l) later writers hold, that Noah's Ark was a Type of Chriſts Church: yet in the accommodation of the reſemblance, they run out into ſome Niceties and curioſities which will hardly abide a ſtrict examination. Now the Ark of Noah did notably adumbrate and reſemble the Church of Chriſt, (eſpecially the Church viſible) in theſe particular reſpects, viz. I. The Ark was built by (m) Noah as the Maſter-builder, ordering all things therein according to Gods Covenant and Command

(m) Gen. 6. 22.

Command, having inferiour workmen under him. The Church, the House of the living God, (n) was builded by Jesus Christ; Hence it is called his own House. And particular Churches are stiled (o) the Churches of Christ. And Jesus Christ hath his inferiour Master-builders under him, viz. (p) Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Pastours and Teachers, for the perfecting of the Saints, for the work of the Ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ; Some of these Christ constituted as (q) Master-builders to lay the foundation, as the Extraordinary Officers, Apostles, &c. Others as under-builders to build upon their foundation laid, (r) Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone. II. The materiall Ark was a long time in building by Noah. viz. From Gods first establishing his Covenant with Noah, till the end of the old world, (s) which was 120. years. The Spirituall Ark the Church is a longer time in building by Christ, even from Gods (t) First Promise established on the seed of the Woman, till the end of the world that now is, and Christs second Coming; For (u) till then the Gospel-Ordinances, and Officers, are to continue for the gathering and building of his Church. And the received opinion of the Jews is, as it was created in six dayes, so it will continue 6000. years. III. The Ark was builded of (x) Gopher wood, a wood well senting and lasting, The planks thereof closed fast together, and pitched within and without with pitch, that neither rain from above, nor floods from below might enter, or sink the same. The Church also is builded of lasting and well senting Gopher-wood, viz. (y) Trees of righteousnes, (z) Saints by calling, really or apparently such; (a) knit and joyned together in love, with this (as (b) Augustine hath it) they are pitcht within and without, (c) maintaining the unity of the Spirit in the Bond of peace, whereby they are kept from sinking under Temptations or Tribulations. (d) Jerusalem is as a City that is Compact together. (e) In Christ all the building fitly framed (or compacted) together, groweth unto an holy Temple in the Lord. IIII. The materiall Ark had (f) a window to let in light to them that were therein. The Spirituall Ark the Church hath her window, her spirituall light: Even Jesus Christ the light of the world: who by his Word and Spirit illuminates all his House. (g) Jesus said, I am the Light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. V. The Ark had but (h) one Doore to go in and out at. The Church also hath but one Doore for the Elect sheep of Christ to enter in at for Salvation. This Door is Christ alone. (i) I am the door of the sheep, (saith Christ) by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved; and shall go in and out and finde pasture. (k) No man cometh unto the Father but by Christ. (l) Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we can be saved. Yea there is a Door unto this Door Christ: for (as Augustine noteth) (m) The side and heart of Christ pierced and opened by the spear, the wound in Christs side, is the way into Christ; for heere the Sacraments did flow, whereby Believers are initiated. VI. The Ark was made (n) with lower, second ſecond and third ſtories, for the variety of Creatures. (o) So in the Church there are ſeverall ſtories and degrees. All not in a levell of equality. Some are (p) Governours, Rulers, Officers: Some are Governed, Ruled, and without ſpeciall office. Again, among officers, ſome were extraordinary, and to continue but for a time, as Apoſtles, Prophets, Evangeliſts. (q) Are all Apoſtles, are all Prophets? &c. Some Ordinary, and to continue to the end, as Paſtors, and Teachers, Elders, Deacons. (r) As the naturall Body hath ſeverall members: and ſeverall offices for all theſe members. And amongſt the Community of the faithfull, (s) ſome are babes in Chriſt: ſome are grown men, having their ſenſes exerciſed to diſcern between good and evill (t) Some are weak in the faith: ſome are ſtrong, and comparatively (u) perfect in regard of others. And as the God of order hath thus ranked his people in the Church, in their ſeverall places, functions and ſtories as it were: ſo they ſhould know and keep their places reſpectively. Yea in Heaven it ſelf, wherein the Church ſhall be triumphant, there (x) are many manſions, and as here degrees of Grace, ſo there degrees of glory; (y) ſome ſhall ſhine as the brightneſs of the Firmament, ſome as the ſtars for ever and ever. For, the (z) Lord will render to every one according to his works, both for kinde and degree. VII. The Ark had in it all variety of creatures, (a) both clean and unclean: wolf and lamb, ſheep and goats, &c. Yea in it was (b) a curſed Cham, as well as an holy Noah and a bleſſed Shem. So the viſible Church, the ſpiritual Ark (c) hath in it people of all Nations, tongues and languages, of all ſexes, ages, conditions and degrees: Jews and Gentiles; Noble and ignoble, rich and poor; wiſe and fooliſh; bond and free; male and female; young and old. In this (d) field, alſo are tares as well as wheate; in this (e) Net, bad, as well as good fiſh; in this (f) Houſe, fooliſh, as well as wiſe Virgins; in this Ark, hypocrites and reprobates, as well as the ſincere and Elect. Hereupon ſaid Hierom; (g) As in the Ark were kinds of all creatures: ſo in the Church are men of all nations and manners. As there the leopard and the Kids, the wolf and the Lambs: ſo here the righteous and ſinners, that is, golden and ſilver veſſels remain with wooden and earthen veſſels. In the viſible Church, Gods Houſe, are as well (h) veſſels to diſhonour, as veſſels to honour; as well veſſels of wrath, as veſſels of Mercy. VIII. Finally, The Ark with them that were therein, was expoſed to ſtorms and tempeſts, winds and waves, Rain and floods, ſuch as the world never ſaw ſince nor before, by which it was extremely endangered to be ſplit in a thouſand pieces upon rocks or Mountains, or to be overturned and overwhelmed in the deep, all the world being nothing but one intire Sea. Thus the Church on earth with all the people of God therein are liable to the moſt rugged tempeſts of afflictions and perſecutions of all ſorts and degrees. to to his Disciples) ye shall have tribulat on——. —— (l) Many are the afflictions of the righteous, saith David. —— (m) Yea and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus, shall suffer persecution. —— And, (n) through much tribulation we must enter into the kingdom of God. Hereupon said Hierome, (o) The Ark was endangered in the flood: The Church is endangered in the world. And before him Cyprian said (p) The Ark did bear a figure of the Church; and the tossing of the Ark to and fro with windes and billows, a figure of Persecution. The Ark could have no rest, till it came to Mount Ararat: nor shall the Church and people of God have any perfect rest, till they come to the celestiall Ararat, those mountains of spices. Thus the Ark (to mention no more particulars) did notably resemble the visible Church of Christ. And therefore in Gods Covenant with Noah touching this Ark, explicitly: why may we not understand Gods Covenant of Faith, in Christ touching his Church Implicitly?

3. Finally, The saving of Noah, his family and the living Creatures in the Ark by waters, from perishing by the flood, was a remarkable Type or figure of the Salvation of the Houshold of God in the Ark of his Church by Jesus Christ from perishing by the deluge of Divine wrath. The words of Peter are most clear for this; (q) The long-suffering of God waited in the dayes of Noah, while the Ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water. The like figure whereunto, even Baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. Thus parallel and accommodate the Type to the Antitype; The figure to the thing prefigured. I. They onely that were in the Ark with Noah, were saved from the flood of waters, (r) when all the world besides, without the Ark, were drowned. So, They onely that are within the Church with Jesus Christ are saved from the wrath of God, when all the world without the Church are swallowed up by Divine vengeance for their sins. The Known Maxime is, (s) Without the Church is no Salvation. Ordinarily it is so; I Dispute not what God may do extraordinarily. But the Apostle informes us; that such as are (t) aliens to the Commonwealth of Israel, are without Christ, strangers from the Covenants of Promise, having no Hope, and without God in the world. And therefore as such, they are in a sad incapacity of Salvation. Hereupon said Augustine, (u) Whosoever he be, and what manner of person soever he is, a Christian he is not, that is not in the Church. And again elsewhere he saith; (x) Firmly hold, and nothing doubt, that not onely all Pagans, but also all Jews hereticks and schismaticks, who finish this present life without the Catholick Church, shall go into everlasting fire prepared for the Devil and his Angels. II. They that were saved in the Ark (y) were saved by water. They were saved by water, from water: By the flood, from the flood. For the waters lifted up the Ark and them therein above the perill of drowning. So the Church is saved, 1 Sacramentally by water, viz. by the wa- of (z) Baptism, which in regard of its signification and end, is salvifical: (a) He that believes and is baptized, shall be saved. 2. Spiritually by the (b) Blood of Christ justifying: and by the (c) Spirit of Christ Sanctifying; both signified by water. Christs blood washeth away the guilt, Christs Spirit washeth off the filth of sin. Thus we are (d) saved by the flood of Christs blood and water, from the flood of Gods wrath. Yea as Augustine noteth, (e) They in the Ark were saved by wood and water: So we in a sort in Christ are saved by wood and water, viz. by his Death, Who himself bare our sins in his own Body on the tree, and out of whose side, pierced with the spear, gushed both blood and water for the cleansing away of our sins. What doth it signifie that Noe was delivered by water and wood? Water signifies Baptism: wood the Cross: As Noah was delivered by water & wood: So also the Church is delivered by Baptism and the signall of his Passion. III. They that were saved in the Ark by water and wood, were saved by being lifted up above the Earth. So they that are saved by Christs blood, are saved by being lifted up above the earth by his Resurrection and Ascension also. —— (f) The like figure whereunto, even Baptism doth also now save us, by the Resurrection of Iesus Christ: who is gone into Heaven, and is on the right hand of God. When Christ meritoriously and effectually wrought our Salvation, he by his Resurrection came out of the earth, and by his Ascension went far above the earth, even into Heaven: when Christ actually applyes his Salvation to us, Christ (g) risen makes us rise with him: Christ ascended, makes us ascend after him; Christ sitting in Heaven, makes us set our affections above, not on things on the earth, and our (h) conversations are in Heaven also. IIII. They that were saved in the Ark were saved therein with Noah, who forsook his own Habitation to dwell with them in the Ark and with them to be tossed up and down with windes and waves that they might be saved with him. So they that are saved in the Ark of the Church, are saved by Christs gracious and powerfull presence, therefore Christ himself left his Heavenly Throne for a while, and entred solemnly into the Church by (i) Baptism: and therein dwelt with us, exposing himself to all storms and Tempests, waves and billows, rocks and dangers of affliction and persecution, &c. to save us from them. (k) He carried our griefs and bare our sorrows, that our griefs and sorrows might be turned into joy. He was content to undergo our storms with us that we might enjoy his calms with him. He was tossed with us on our Sea: that we might anchor with him in his Haven. He (l) was afflicted with us in all our afflictions: that we might be affected with him in all his Consolations. He (m) was involved in our Curse, that he might impart to us his blessedness. He was (n) wounded and bruised for our iniquities, that we might be healed by his stripes. He was condemned for our crimes, that we might be cleared by his con-condemnations. He was impriſoned in our chains and fetters, that we might be ſet at liberty by his impriſonment. He was crowned with our thorns; that we might be crowned with his triumphs. He dyed with us: that we might live with him. He was buried with us: that we might riſe with him. He (o) became ſin with us: that we might be the righteouſneſs of God in him. Thus Chriſt endangers himſelf with us, for our ſafety. While Chriſt is in the ſhip, in the Ark, all is ſafe, though (as once the Apoſtles) in greateſt ſtorms and hazards. The ſhip of the Church had long ere this day been ſplit, ſunk, wrackt and broken in pieces, had not Chriſt been in the ſhip to rebuke the waves and Tempeſts. V. They that were ſaved in the Ark from the flood, were ſaved by Gods ſpeciall Providence, guiding and ordering the Ark. For it was heavy-laden, yet had neither Anchor nor Cable, Maſt, Helm, Sayles nor Tackling, neither Pilot, Mariner nor skilfull Steerſman: yet at laſt it landed ſafe on (p) Mountains of Ararat, which ſignifies, Take-away-fear. So they that are ſaved in the Church by Chriſt from Divine wrath, are ſaved by Gods ſingular Providence, moſt eminently acting in Providing Chriſt for them, In Tendering and Applying Chriſt to them, and in (q) preſerving them in Chriſt unto the end. VI. They that were ſaved in the Ark, were ſaved according to (r) Gods Covenant. So they that are ſaved by Chriſt, are ſaved according to Gods Covenant and Promiſes in him, both under Old and N. Teſtament. Gods Truth & faithfulnes herein, is their ſhield and buckler, and their Tower of Salvation. VII. They that were ſaved in the Ark were (s) but few, viz. Eight ſouls, when the whole world beſides was drowned. So they that are ſaved by Chriſt (though in themſelves a (t) multitude, which none can number, yet) in compariſon of them that periſh, are exceeding (u) few. Chriſts flock is but (x) a little flock. (y) Many are called, few are choſen, &c. VIII. Finally, They that were ſaved from the flood of waters, were aſſured from God after their deliverance was compleated, that there ſhould be never more any (z) ſuch flood to drown the earth. So they that are ſaved by Chriſt, after the accompliſhment and compleating of their Salvation, are aſſured (a) there ſhall be no more Sea: no more ſea of affliction. But that (b) God ſhall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there ſhall be no more death, neither ſorrow, nor crying, neither ſhall there be any more pain. Thus the ſaving of Noah and his family in the Ark by water from the flood, was an obſervable type of our ſalvation by Chriſt from Divine wrath. Therefore Gods Covenant with Noah thus to ſave him and his, in the Ark, by water, was for ſubſtance the Covenant of Faith for ſaving ſinners by Jeſus Chriſt. And under that Temporall and Typicall, this Spirituall and Eternall Salvation was intended. Seeing then, Noah was a Type of Chriſt herein; The Ark a Type of the Church; And the ſaving of his houſe, &c. with Noah in the Ark by waters from periſhing in the flood, a Type of the ſaving of Gods people in the Church by Chriſt from periſhing by Gods wrath: It is clear that Gods Gods Covenant with Noah was a renewed Administration of the Covenant of Faith. Thus of this third Argument.

4. Gods (c) Covenant with Noah and his family, not to curse the ground any more for mans sake, by destroying the earth with a general Flood of waters, notwithstanding the imagination of mans heart remained evill from his youth, doth notably point out Gods Covenant of faith in Christ, by whom alone the curse due for sin is removed, though sin in his people be not wholly extinguished and obliterated. (d) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a Tree. To this effect saith one very appositly, touching this place of Genesis; (e) This taking away of the curse (notwithstanding mans corrupt heart remaining) is a notable testimony of Gods rich mercy in Christ, by whom we are freed from the curse. Gal. 3. 13. Rev. 22. 3. Zech. 14. 11. For the Covenant now made concerning the waters with Noe, was a figure of that spirituall and eternall Covenant of Peace with us in Christ, as is shewed in Isa. 54. 8, 9, 10. So he. And I adde, That Gods Covenanting to curse the ground no more with a generall Flood for ever, though mans heart remained corrupt, the more clearly signifies to us Gods Covenant of Faith in Christ, touching sinners Recovery and Salvation: because God took occasion to make this Covenant, upon Noah's (f) sacrificing of Burnt-offerings upon an Altar to him, whereupon God smelled a sweet savour of rest, and sayd in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more, &c. God made this Covenant, being pacified with Noah's burnt-offerings. How could Noahs burnt-offerings pacifie God, or afford any sweet savour to God? Not in, and of themselves: for the bodies of beasts burnt, of themselves send forth an offensive savour. Not from any merit of Noah: for though he was righteous, yet (g) his righteousnes was of Faith, not of works; and he was subject to (h) sinful frailties. How then? onely as Types of Christs death for our sins, that Sacrifice of sacrifices which was the Substance, End and Scope of all the sacrifices under the Old Testament. This was (i) The Sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour. This was the true cause of appeasing Gods wrath, of removing the curse, and of Gods gracious Covenanting with Noah no more to drown the world with a flood. Consequently this Covenant in the secret and spiritual intendments of it, was a renewed Discovery of the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Recovery in Christ Jesus.

5. As the Rainbow is made a (k) Token of this Covenant of God with Noah, a sign and pledge of Divine favour, Mercy and Peace: So J. C. our Lord is represented in Scripture, sometimes as (l) sitting upon a Throne, there being a Rainbow round about the Throne, in sight like to an Emerald; Sometimes as (m) a Mighty Angel descending from Heaven, clothed with a cloud, and a Rainbow upon his head, &c. In both which places, (as that learned (n) Rivet wel notes) There is mention of a Rainbow (which God hath made a token of mercy & peace) that we may acknowledg Christs Throne to be compassed about with Mercy, and that he shows this Mercy in his Countenance, tenance, when he manifests himself unto his people. But especially, we have that Rainbow in his face, whereby we are certain, not onely that the waters shall no more universally overflow the earth; but also and chiefly that we are not to fear the flood of Gods wrath, since Christ hath pacified the Father, whom whilest God beholds, he remembers his mercy and promises, which in him are Yea, and Amen. Therefore Christ appears crowned with a Rainbow, as the Messenger of Grace and Peace. For he is The Prince of Peace, and our Peace, Isa. 9. 6. Eph. 2. 14. So he. The Rainbow then, which as a Token of Mercy was annexed to Noah's Covenant, is thence used to signifie Divine Mercy to Sinners in Christ Iesus, whereby we are given to understand, That the Rainbow was not onely given as a confirmatory Token against an universal flood of waters: but also as a Consolatory Token in Christ against the Flood of Gods wrath. And so the Rainbow leads us even to Christ himself, and to the Covenant of Faith in him. Hence saith another, (o) As the Covenant made with Noah concerning the Waters, is applyed to the Spiritual Covenant made with us in Christ, Isa. 54. 9, 10. So the Rainbow, (the sign of that Covenant) is also applyed for the sign of Grace from God to his Church, Rev. 4. 3. and 10. 1. Ezek. 1. 28. And Augustine saith; (p) What is signified by this Rainbow but the Reconciliation of the world, which is known to be done by the Dispensation of the incarnate Word? &c.

6. Finally, divers judicious Writers account this Covenant of God with Noah before and after the Flood, the Covenant of Grace and Faith in Christ, and think, that under this Temporall Salvation from the Flood expressed, the Spirituall and Eternall Salvation of Gods Elect from the deluge of Gods wrath is implyed. This therefore is no new or singular Opinion, though those that purposely treat of Gods Covenant, do omit this graduall discovery and distinct administration of the Covenant of Faith to Noah.

ſpect of the obligation of Moral Obedience. For, this Subſtance of the Covenant, that is, of the Mutual ſtipulation of God and the Elect, is the ſame, and perpetual in both Teſtaments: Promulged in Paradiſe; The Seed of the woman, &c. Repeated to Noah here, and in chap. 9. Tyed to the family of Abraham, chap. 15. 18. & chap. 17. 2. Repeated to Moſes and the Iſraelites, Exod. 24. At laſt moſt fully declared and confirmed by the Miniſtry and blood of Chriſt. Therefore Chriſt is Mediatour of the Everlaſting Covenant, Heb. 13. 20. The ſame both now and of old is the way of Salvation by Chriſt, Heb. 13. 18. Act. 15. 11. But this Covenant differs in Circumſtances and Manner of Adminiſtration. God propounded this gratuitous Covenant in one ſort to the Fathers, in another to us. 1. To the Fathers he added certain external Promiſes: As, of preſervation in the Flood, to Noah; of giving the Land of Canaan to Abraham; Not ſo to us. 2. To them he gave other Signs and burdens: Before the Flood, Sacrifices; After the Flood, the Rainbow to Noah; Circumciſion to Abraham; The Paſſeover to Moſes and the Iſraelites; yea, Sacrifices, Ceremonies, Feſtivals, and innumerable other Laws, wherein as in a cloud or dark garment the Promiſe of Grace was involved. For all the Legal ſhadows did ſhew Chriſt: but more obſcurely, as when the Sun is ſeen through the clouds. To us he hath given other ſigns, clearer and fewer, the ſhadows diſappearing at Chriſts Coming. By reaſon of this diverſity, the Covenant, which is but one in Subſtance, is ſaid to be twofold, Old and New. And the Old is aboliſhed: becauſe the Promiſe of Grace hath put off its legal robe, wherewith it was covered of old as with a cloud. But the New is everlaſting, both in Subſtance and Adminiſtration, becauſe another change of Rites and Sacraments is not to be expected before the laſt Day: foraſmuch as we are commanded to break the Lords bread, and ſhew forth the Lords Death, untill he come. How fully and clearly hath he expreſſed himſelf in this matter!

That learned and accurate Textual, Mr. Ainſworth, thus expreſſeth himſelf; (f) And thou ſhalt Enter, &c.] This explaineth the Covenant made on Gods part, That he would ſave Noah and his Houſehold from Death by the Ark; And on Noah's part, That he ſhould through Faith and Obedience make and Enter into the Ark, ſo committing himſelf to Gods preſervation, Heb. 11. 7. And under this, The Covenant or Teſtament of Eternal Salvation by Chriſt, was alſo implyed; the Apoſtle teſtifying, that the (Antitype, or) like figure hereunto, even Baptiſm, doth now alſo ſave us, 1 Pet. 3. 21. which Baptiſm is a Seal of our Salvation, Mar. 16. 16.

(f) H. Ainſw. in his Annotat. on Gen. 6. 18.

That pious, judicious and induſtrious Perkins (who did more good ſervice to the Church of God with his (t) left hand, then many do with both; like a ſpiritual Ehud ſtabbing the Romiſh Eglon with his left-handed pen,) ſaith; (u) Thus we have ſeen in ſome ſort; How the Ark ſaved Noah and his houſhold, and what this his houſhold was. Now beſides this End and Uſe of the Ark, we are further to know; That whereas this ſaving of them was but a Corporal deliverance from a temporal Death, this Ark hath alſo a Spiritual uſe, which we may not omit: For as many many of Noahs familie as were true believers, it was a means to save them another way, even to save their souls. For it taught them many things. 1. It was an assurance of Gods love unto their Souls. For if he were so careful to save their bodies from the flood, they thereby assured themselves he would be as good unto their souls, which they knew to be far more precious and excellent. 2. It shew'd them how to be saved. For as they saw no safety, nothing but present Death, out of the Ark: So it taught them, that out of Gods Church, and out of Gods favour, no salvation could be expected, and so it taught them to labour to be in Gods favour, and members of his true Church. 3. They saw they were saved from the Flood by Faith and Obedience. For, first Noah believed Gods Word that the flood should come, then he obeyed Gods Commandment, and made the Ark as he was commanded. And thus he and his by believing and obeying were saved through the Ark: and without these the Ark could not have saved them. This taught them more particularly how to be saved, namely, by believing God, and obeying God, and else no salvation. For when they saw their bodies could not be saved without them, it assured them much less could their Souls be saved without Faith and Obedience. 4. Lastly, this deliverance by the Ark, was a pawn unto them from God, assuring them of Salvation, if they believed in the Messias. For seeing God so fully performed his promise unto them for their bodily deliverance upon their believing: they thereby might assure themselves, he would perform his Promise of Salvation unto them upon their Faith and true Obedience. So he. In his judgement therefore, the temporal Salvation of their bodies in the Ark by water, did instruct them touching the Spiritual and Eternal salvation of their Souls in the Church by Christ. Whence it is clear, that Gods Covenant with Noah in the temporal salvation expressed, intended the spiritual and eternal Salvation implyed.

(t) Dextera quamtumvis fuerat tibi manca, docendi Pollebas mira dexteritate tamen.

(u) Mr. William Perkins in his Comment. on Heb. 11. 7.

Thus, In Noah, we have found Christ. In the Ark, the Family or Church of Christ. In the saving of Noah's family in the Ark by waters from perishing in the flood, the saving of the Church and Elect of God by Jesus Christ, and his death, from perishing in the deluge of Gods wrath. In Noah's Altar and burnt-offerings affording a Savour of rest to God, The true Altar and Sacrifice Jesus Christ, who offered up himself for our sins, (x) an Odour of a sweet smell to God. In the Rainbow, the token of mercy and peace, The mercy favour love and peace of God towards us in the face of Christ. And consequently, In that Covenant of God with Noah for corporal preservation, we have found the Covenant of Faith dispensed to him in Christ touching Sinners Spiritual Recovery and Eternal Salvation. And so the First thing is cleared, That Gods Covenants with Noah before and after the Flood, were a renewed discovery and administration of the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Salvation by Jesus Christ. The next thing to be inquired into, is, The Spiritualness of these Covenants of God with Noah, as they are a renewed Administration of the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Eternal Salvation by Jesus Christ. For it is already cleared by sundry Arguments, That under Temporals explicitly plicitly Covenanted, Spirituals were implicitly intended and comprized.

II. What the Spiritualneſs, or Spiritual Meaning of theſe Covenants of God with Noah, as a renew'd Adminiſtration of the Covenant of Faith, is; hath partly been diſcovered by the Arguments formerly produced to prove the Thing; and may further appear, by Conſidering briefly, 1. The Authour, 2. Parties, 3. Matter, and 4. Form of theſe Covenants, as a Covenant of Faith in Chriſt, touching Sinners Salvation.

I. The Authour of theſe Covenants with Noah, &c. as a Covenant of Faith, was (y) God. God was Authour of them, immediately by lively voyce Revealing them to Noah, as a (z) gracious Preſerver, Deliverer and Merciful Saviour of a Remnant of mankind from deſerved deſtruction. In this Notion God was Authour hereof, The Impulſive Cauſe moving him hereunto, was Inward, and Outward. 1. Inward; His own meer (a) Grace and commiſerating favour to Noah and his family. 2. Outward; the ſatisfactory and ſweet-ſmelling (b) Sacrifice of Jeſus Chriſt, typified in Noah's Sacrifices which were a ſavour of reſt to God, and an Occaſion of Gods Covenant with him.

(y) Gen. 6. 13, 18, &c. & 9. 8. to 18.
(z) Gen. 8. 20, 21, 22. & 9. 8. to 18.
(a) Gen. 6. 8, &c.
(b) Eph. 5. 2. with Gen. 8. 20, 21, 22. & 9. 8. to 18.

II. The Parties to theſe Covenants, as a Covenant of Faith, were chiefly two, viz.

1. On the one hand, as the Party Covenanting, God; as a gracious compaſsionate and merciful Saviour of a Remnant of loſt mankind in Chriſt.

2. On the other hand, as the Party Reſtipulating, in Noah and his family, Chriſt, (as a true Noah, a true Comforter, and Authour of Reſt and Peace, to curſed and tyred Sinners,) and his Family, his Spiritual Houſhold in him. Typically Noah and his family: Antitypically or Spiritually Chriſt and his family, the Church, his Spiritual Seed, are here Fœderates with God.

III. Matters Covenanted in theſe two Covenants, as a diſtinct Adminiſtration of the Covenant of Faith, are 1. On Gods Part. 2. On Chriſts part (as the true Noah) and his Seed's.

1. God on his part graciouſly Covenanted and Promiſed,

(1) That the Spiritual Houſhold of Chriſt the true Noah, (though very few in compariſon of the world,) ſhould be ſpiritually and eternally ſaved from the deluge of Gods wrath, when the whole world beſides ſhould utterly periſh therein. For under the Temporal and Corporal (c) ſalvation of Noah's Family from the Flood of waters, we are to underſtand the Spiritual and Eternal Salvation of Chriſt and his family from the flood of Gods wrath.

(c) 1 Pet. 3. 20, 21.

(2) That they who ſhould be Spiritually and Eternally ſaved from the Deluge of Gods wrath and vengeance, ſhould be ſaved only in the Ark of Gods Church with and by Jeſus Chriſt the true Noah. No living Creature on earth was ſaved without the Ark, all dyed in the flood, except they that were with Noah in the Ark: So all (d) without out the Church eternally perish, they only that are with Christ in his Church are eternally saved ——(e) And the Lord added to the Church daily such as should be saved. But first they were added to the Church: then saved. Yea therefore added to the Church, that they might be saved. To this purpose said Cyprian notably of the Church of Christ; (f) By her fructifyng we are brought forth; by her Milk we are nourished: by her Spirit we are animated. The Spouse of Christ cannot be defiled with adultery, She is incorrupt and chaste: she knows one House, most chastely preserves the sanctity of one chamber. She keeps us to God, she assigns the sons which she hath begotten to a Kingdom. Whosoever segregated from the Church, is joyned to an adultéress, he is separated from the Promises of the Church. Nor shall he come to Christs rewards, who relinquisheth Christs Church. He is an alien, he is profane, he is an Enemy. He cannot have God, a Father, that hath not the Church, a Mother. If any could escape who was without the Ark of Noah: Then may he escape that is without the Church. So here, without the Ark, none scaped drowning: without the Church none scape damning.

(e) Act. 2. 47.

(f) Illius fœtu nascimur: illius lacte nutrimur: Spiritu ejus animamur. Adulterari non potest Sponsa Christi, incorrupta est & pudica: Unam domum novit, unius cubiculi sanctitatem casto pudore custodit. Hæc nos Deo servat. Hæc filios regno quos generavit assignat. Quisquis ab Ecclesia segregatus adulteræ jungitur, à promissis Ecclesiæ separatur. Nec pervenit ad Christi præmia qui relinquit Ecclesiam Christi. Alienus est, Profanus est, Hostis est. Habere jam non potest Deum Patrem, qui Ecclesiam non habet matrem. Si potuit evadere quisquam qui Extra Arcum Noe fuit; & qui Extra Ecclesiam foris fuerit, evadet. D. Cyprian. de unitate Ecclesiæ Lib. Sect. 5. p. 297. Edit. 1593.

And as all that shall be saved, shall be saved only in the Church: so they are to be saved only with and by Christ therein. Peter saith, (g) Eight persons were saved in the Ark, but by water: so we must be saved in the Church, but by Christ, figured by water. Christ is the only (h) way to the Father; the only saving (i) door of the Sheep; the only (k) Mediatour betwixt God and man; the (l) only name given whereby we can be saved. So then, in this Covenant, under the Type of Noah, Christ as a comforting Saviour of his House from Gods wrath, is most sweetly Promised of God.

(3) That they who should be saved by this true Noah Jesus Christ in the Ark of his Church, should be saved by vertue of his Death and Resurrection. This Peter intimates in his accommodation of the Type to the Antitype.—— (m) While the Ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight Souls were saved. The like figure whereunto, even Baptism doth also now save us, by the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, who is gone into Heaven, and is on the right hand of God. When Christ purchased and wrought out our Salvation, he effected it chiefly two wayes; 1. By his Death and Humiliation. (n) Dying for our sins, and bearing the curse of our sins in his own body on the tree, (o) for the full satisfying and pacifying of divine justice: So that now there needs no more Sacrifice for sin. 2. By his Resurrection from the dead, and Exaltation. Hereby (p) he justified himself to be the Son of God, a righteous person, and a triumphant Conquerour of Sin, Death, Grave, and all the powers of darkness: and this for our justification, that we might be Over these enemies joynt Conquerours with him. Proportionably when Christ applies unto us Salvation purchased, he doth it two wayes; 1. By (q) Mortifying and burying our Old man with him, that sin should no longer live and Raign in us. 2. By (r) vivifying and raising up the new man with him; That as Christ rose from the dead, so we should walk in newness of life. Both these are signified by Baptism. (1) Our Death with Christ, by our going in to the water, or being in or under the water in Baptism. Hence these phrases, (f) we are baptized into his Death: we are buried with him by baptism into Death; we are planted together in the likeness of his Death. (2) Our Life and Resurrection with Christ, by our coming out of, or from under the water of Baptism. Hence we are said to be (t) buried with him by baptism into Death, that like as Christ was raised up from the Dead, —— so we also should walk in newness of life. And it is stiled, (u) Our planting in the likeness of his Resurrection. Thus (as (x) Peter intimates) we are saved Meritoriously by Christs Death and Resurrection; Actually, by the effectual application of both these to us; Sacramentally by Baptism signifying and Sealing both these to us. Now of both these the saving of Noah's family in the Ark by water, was a Type; For, (y) Noah's entring into the Ark and his House with him, was a kind of Typical Death and buryal; As Mr. Perkins hath well observed, (y) They went into the Ark as dead men into a Grave. They were buried in the Ark, and the Ark in the waters: they were deprived of humane Society, fresh air, gladsome light, and of the comfort of earthly Creatures. Yet this was Gods way to save them from Death and Grave, as it were by Death and Grave. If Noah's family will be saved alive with him, they must goe into the Grave with him. So if Christs family will be eternally saved by him, they must go into the grave with him, being spiritually mortifi'd, crucifi'd and buried with him. (2) Noah's coming out of the Ark alive and his family with him, when all the world was drownd and dead, was a kind of Typical Reviving and Resurrection from the dead. They came out of the Ark as out of the Grave; and that into a New world. If Noah's family will be saved with him, they must also come out of the Ark with him. Had they not come out at last, they had perished there. So if Christs Family will be saved with him eternally, they must be quickned and rise again with him. As they must dye with him to sin: so they must live with him to righteousness. Thus in this Covenant with Noah, God typically represented Sinners Salvation by Christs Death and Resurrection: in their Entring into, and Coming out of the Ark. And this is one high point, and a principal Mysterie of the Gospel.

(4) That Christs family and elect saved by him once from the flood of Gods wrath, should never eternally perish by the deluge of his wrath: As Noah and his family saved from the flood of waters, receive (z) a Covenant from God, that neither they nor the living Creatures on Earth should ever any more be destroy'd by a flood of waters.

(5) Finally, That they who are spiritually and eternally saved by Christ, shal have all necessary Temporal Blessings superadded to them in Christ. (a) Seek first the Kingdome of God, and his righteousnes, and all these things shall be added unto you. Thus in the Type, (b) Noah's family was not only saved in the Ark with Noah; but also for their sakes, A seed of the living Creatures were saved in the Ark with them for their after use and service; The free use of the Creatures is granted to them, the Earth and Creatures being put under their power in subjection; and the continued course and revolution of Times and Seasons, without danger of being destroy'd any more, by an universal flood of waters, is assured to them. So in Christ (c) all are ours, the world, and life, and death, and things present, and things to come, all are ours; and we are Christs; and Christ is Gods.

(1.) That Jesus Christ would prepare and (d) build a Spiritual Ark, his Church, wherein his elect family should be saved from wrath to come: whereby the world of the ungodly should be destroy'd.

(d) Heb. 1.3. Mat. 16.18.

(2.) That the Elect of Christ should come into this Ark, should Enter into this Church with Jesus Christ, and therein abide with him, for their Salvation. Christ entred into his Church by (e) Baptism, that with himself he might save all his Elect in his Church. That his Elect may actually partake Salvation by Christ, they must enter Christs Ark, and remain therein with Christ.

(e) Mat. 3.16, 17.

These things Christ and his family restipulated, under the type of Noah and his family, on their part.

IV. The Form of these Covenants of God with Noah, as a renewed Administration of the Covenant of Faith in Christ, was twofold, viz.

1. Inward, The reciprocal and mutual obligation of the Fœderate Parties to each other.

2. Outward, The way and manner of this Covenants Administration. This Covenant of Faith from Noah till Abraham, was Revealed, Dispensed and Administred in this sort.

1. It was explicitly stiled (f) A Covenant; (g) A Covenant for Perpetual Generations, Heb. For Generations of eternity; (h) An Everlasting Covenant, Heb. A Covenant of Eternity. This was the first expres mention and denomination of a Covenant betwixt God and man. And this Covenant Everlasting; in that hereby God assured Noah, that the world should never again be destroyed by a general Flood. Proportionably hereunto God in his (i) Covenant of peace hath assured his people, That he would not be wroth with them, but have mercy on them with everlasting kindnes.

f) Gen. 6.18. & 9.9.10, 11, 12, 13, 15, 17.
(g) Gen. 9.12.
h) Gen. 9.16.
(i) Isa. 54.7, 8, 9, 10.

2. It was made by (k) Gods immediate voice to Noah. Clearly therefore a Divine Covenant.

(k) Gen. 6.13. to the end. & 9.9. to 18.

3. It

3. It was limited to (l) Noah and his Family as the Type: To Christ and his Church visible as the Antitype. All others were (m) aliens from the Covenants of Promise.

(l) Gen. 6. 18. & 9. 8, 9.
(m) Eph. 2. 12.

4. It was revealed and represented under the visible temporal Preservation of Noah and his family in a Material Ark from the Flood of waters; and their Certioration, or assuring of them and their Seed, that the Earth should no more be destroyed with a general flood of waters. Under which the Elect of Christ are assured of their Spiritual and Eternal (n) Salvation in the Church by Jesus Christ, through his Death and Resurrection, &c. from the Deluge of Gods wrath and vengeance for sin and iniquity.

(n) 1 Pet. 3. 20, 21, 22.

5. It was confirmed strongly two waies. 1. By Gods sacred and inviolable Oath. (o) For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: For, As I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the Earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wrath with thee, nor rebuke thee, &c. 2. By Gods eminent and visible Sacrament, the (p) Rainbow in the cloud: the Solemn ratifying Sign and Seal of this Covenant. So that this Covenant as Dispensed to Noah was most firm, sure and inviolable.

(o) Isal. 54. 9, 10. with Gen. 8. 21. See H. Ainsw. Annot. thereupon.
(p) Gen. 9. 12. to 18.

6. Finally, This Covenant-administration had many Temporal Blessings annexed thereunto. As 1. The Continued Revolution of (q) Seed time and Harvest, Cold and Heat, &c. while the Earth remaineth. 2. The (r) fruitfulness of mankind on Earth. 3. Dominion (s) over the Creatures. 4. Enlarged liberty to have not only Herbs, but the (t) flesh of the Creatures for food, &c. So true is that of our Saviour, (u) Seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you. And that of Paul's; (x) Godliness hath the Promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

(q) Gen. 8. 22.
(r) Gen. 9. 1, 7.
(s) Gen. 9. 2.
(t) Gen. 9. 3, 4.
(u) Mat. 6. 33.
(x) 1 Tim. 4. 8.

Thus of the Spiritual meaning of these Covenants of God with Noah.

III. What Additionals were annexed to this Second Fœderal Administration from Noah till Abraham, more then were to the First Dispensation of the Promise from Adam till Noah; may now appear by what hath already been declared. And Consequently what Agreement and Difference there was betwixt these two Dispensations.

I. Additionals to this Fœderal Dispensation, beyond the former, were these.

1. The express Name of (y) A COVENANT: this being the first time that the transaction betwixt God and his people, is called A Covenant in the whole Scripture.

(y) Gen. 6. 18.

2. The Express Mention of the (z) Parties with whom God made this Covenant, viz. of the Parties restipulating with God: Noah, his sons, and their Seed.

(z) Gen. 6. 18. & 9. 8, 9.

3. A New and more clear representation of Sinners Recovery and Salvation by Christ, under the Type of Noah's (a) saving his family in the Ark by water, from perishing with the world of the ungodly.

(a) 1 Pet. 3. 20, 21, 22. Heb. 11. 7.

4. A notable eſtabliſhment and Confirmation of this Covenant; 1. By Gods Sacred (b) Oath. 2. By Gods Sacramental Token (c) the Rainbow. That by theſe two Noah and his ſons, and we in them, might have ſtrong Conſolation, in hope and aſſurance of Divine performance.

5. An expreſs declaration of this Covenant's (d) Perpetuity, till the End of the world.

6. Certain (e) acceſſory Promiſes of divers Temporal bleſſings.

II. Agreement and Difference betwixt this Fœderal diſpenſation, and the Firſt Promiſſory Adminiſtration, ſtands thus:

1. They agree in Subſtance, Both of them having

1. The ſame Authour, (f) God.

2. The ſame Parties Covenanting, viz. God on the one hand: Chriſt and his Elect ſeed taken from among lapſed mankind, on the other hand.

3. The ſame Foundation, viz. Gods Meer Grace, in Chriſt.

4. The ſame Matter Promiſed and Covenanted, viz. Recovery of Sinners from ſtate of Sin and Death to righteouſneſs and life by Jeſus Chriſt.

5. The ſame End, The Aſſuring and Securing of Sinners of their Salvation and Recovery, if by Faith they will accept Chriſt according to Gods Covenant.

Herein they agree for Subſtance.

2. They differ in Circumſtance, and in ſome accidental Conſiderations. For,

1. That was laid down but as (g) A Promiſe: This, as a Formal and Compleat Covenant.

2. Of that God was Authour (h) as a Deſtroyer of lapſed Mans Enemy the Serpent: of this God was Authour, as lapſed mans Preſerver, Deliverer and Saviour from Death and Deſtruction.

3. That mentioned no Parties reſtipulating with God, (i) being neither directed expreſly to Adam, nor to his Wife, but to the Serpent; though the Promiſed benefit thereof was intended to them; not to the Serpent: But this expreſly mentions Parties reſtipulating with God, viz. Noah, his ſons, and their Seed, and under them we are alſo principally to underſtand, Jeſus Chriſt, the true Noah, and his Seed.

4. That led to Chriſt more Generally, as (k) the Seed of the woman, intimating that Chriſt ſhould come of ſome woman that ſhould be in the world, but neither expreſſing nor excluding any Nation, Family, or Perſon: But this led to Chriſt more particularly, as to deſcend of Noahs family, (l) by which the whole earth was overſpread, excluding all other families and women from this Priviledge of bringing forth Chriſt into the world, that were not in a direct line from Adam till Noah.

5. That repreſented Chriſt as (m) the Seed of the woman at enmity with the Serpents Seed, bruiſed in his Heel by the Serpent, but bruiſing the Head of the Serpent, that old Serpent the Devil and Satan, who who had bruised and undone mankind: This represented Christ as the Antitype of Noah, a true Comforter and Saviour of his Elect family, in his Ark of the Church, by his own Death and Humiliation, Resurrection and Exaltation. So that Christ is here more clearly revealed as the Sinners Recoverer, then in the First Promise.

6. That was established ([n]) without any oath of God, or Sacramental token; only ([o]) Sacrifices were added thereunto, which had as it were a Sacramental confirming Nature: But this was established, both by Gods Sacred inviolable ([p]) Oath, wherein it was impossible for God to lye; and also by his Eminent Sacramental token; ([q]) the Rainbow in the cloud. Hereby God sweetly provided for the stronger Consolation of his people.

(p) Isa. 54. 9, 10. Heb. 6. 18.
(q) Gen. 9. 12. to 18.

7. That was not stiled ([r]) Everlasting, or Perpetual: But this was named An everlasting Covenant, for perpetual Generations. Though for Substance they were both equally everlasting in respect of Christ and mans spiritual recovery by him.

(r) Gen. 3. 15. with Gen. 9. 12, 16.

8. Finally, This superadded more Temporal Blessings and Promises, then that, and more clearly. That implicitly signified and promised ([s]) the womans Conception and bringing forth of children, in the curse pronounced upon her; and the mans eating of bread all his daies by his labour, in the curse propounded upon him, (which words some do very well interpret to be both, a Command, a Threatning, and a Promise to man): But this explicitely declared divers notable ([t]) Promises and temporal blessings, as hath been formerly declared.

(s) Gen. 3. 16, 17, 18, 19.
(t) Gen. 9. 1, 2, 3, 4, 7.

In these things these two First Fœderal Dispensations do principally Agree and Differ.

IV. Corollaries from the whole, are briefly these:

1. Gods Covenants with Noah before and after the Flood, revealed not only a Corporal and Temporal, but also a Spiritual and an Eternal Salvation. That corporal and temporal salvation in the Ark from the flood of waters, with security to the world for ever after from such a General Flood, typically resembling and representing the Spiritual and Eternal Salvation of lapsed Sinners in the Church by Christ from the Flood of Gods wrath and vengeance.

Doubt. But seeing Gods later Covenant with Noah extended to the whole world, to save all mankind from any such general Flood for future: doth not this typically favour the Doctrine and opinion of universal Redemption by Christ?

Resol. No. For, 1. It hath ([u]) already been cleared, that in the former dispensation of the First Promise, there was no footing for the Opinion of Universal Redemption: nor proportionably was there in this, which for Substance is one and the same with that. 2. If this Covenant should in this regard favour universal Redemption, because the Corporal Benefit thereof is extended to all mankind in the whole world: then by the same Argument, Spiritual Redemption should by this Covenant belong to bruit beasts and other living Creatures, for even they reap the benefit of this Covenant, and God is said to make it with them, as well as with mankind. But this were most absurd to imagine. 3. These Covenants with Noah revealed a double Salvation, an Outward Corporal and Temporal Salvation, and an Inward Spiritual and Eternal Salvation principally intended and typified thereby. This later belongs only to the Elect family of the true Noah, Jesus Christ, and to the New world planted and repleniſhed by him Spiritually. The former Salvation which is but outward and Corporal, from all ſuch future Floods, is (in and for the benefit of Christs Elect, and ſaved family) extended even to all the wicked in the world, and to bruit Creatures themſelves.

2. They who treat of Gods Covenants with man in Chriſt purpoſely, and yet totally omit this excellent Fœderal Diſpenſation to Noah, ſeem too much to neglect the gradual order and Method of Gods Fœderal Adminiſtrations, and to bury in too much Silence this Eminent Tranſaction of God with Noah, which was the very Firſt in the world expreſly ſtiled (x) a Covenant. And that it was A Covenant of Faith in Christ, hath been already proved.

(x) Gen. 6. 18.

Here I ingenuouſly Confeſs, I durſt not make ſo large a leap over this, Fœderal Tranſaction, as ſome have done: but have diligently examined and enquired into the Myſterie of it; 1. Leſt I ſhould darken or Eclipſe the glory of Gods grace, goodneſs, mercy, and wiſdome herein, by an unthankful ſilence. 2. Leſt I ſhould diſturb the Order, and deface the beauty of Gods Diſpenſations of grace, which he hath purpoſely revealed in certain gradual Diſcoveries. 3. Leſt I ſhould prejudice and prevent my ſelf or others of that ſpiritual benefit and edification, which (I hope) through Gods bleſſing may be reaped by the opening of this Covenant in order.

3. This Fœderal Diſpenſation is much fuller and clearer then the firſt: as hath been evidenced in many Particulars. Such is Gods Grace, Wiſdom and Goodneſs to his Church and people, that as her Capacity of Receiving groweth, ſo his Diſpenſations and diſcoveries of Mercy grow towards her.

4. Finally, Gods Covenant with Noah, &c. being a Covenant of Faith in Chriſt, it may be both an uſeful and Comfortable Subject even for our Meditation and Contemplation. The Subſtance of it, being the ſame with this under the New Teſtament. And both the Temporal bleſſings expreſſed, and the Spirituals implyed, reaching to every one of us and our Families, as well as to Noah and his Family. How many Lectures may we read to our ſelves, Of Chriſt, in Noah: Of the Church, in the Ark: Of the Salvation of Chriſts family in his Spiritual Ark by his Death and ſtreams of his blood, in the ſaving of Noah's family in the Ark from periſhing by water: Of the acceptableneſs of Chriſts Death and Sacrifice of himſelf to God, in the gratefulneſs of Noah's Sacrifice to him: and in a word, of that divine Mercy, Grace and favour towards Sinners, that encompaſſeth his throne, and ſhines in his face abundantly, in the Rainbow, that token of Divine Grace and and commiseration? Sometimes let us converse with Noah, who (y) walked with God. Let's mark his Faith and Patience in building his Ark: Christs more in building his Church. Let's consider his Entring into, and coming out of the Ark, to save his family: but much more Christs entring into and coming out of the Grave, to save his people. Yea as they of old were buried with Noah in the Ark, and as it were drowned in the Ark in the waters; that they might not be buried and drowned with the wicked world: So let us dye, and be buried with Christ Spiritually, that we may not dye and be buried eternally. Let's make sure we are of Christs Elect Family, and get we into his Spirituall Ark indeed: that so we may be saved from the flood of Gods indignation, which will swallow up all the wicked of the world for evermore.

(y) Gen. 6. 9.

Hitherto of Gods Covenants of Promise, as dispensed in the second eminent Period of time, from Noah till Abram. viz. from the 480th year of Noah, An. Mund. 1536. till the 70. or 71th year of Abram, An. Mund. 2079. the time of Gods first Promise to Abram. Which was precisely 430. years before Israels going out of Egypt, and the giving of the Law.

CHAP. III.

Of the Discovery and Administration of the Covenants of Promise, in the third noted Period of time; From Abraham till Moses.

THe third observable Period of time, wherein the LORD God was pleased to renew and revive the Covenant of Faith, in reference to Christ Promised, for sinners Salvation, was From Abraham till Moses, viz. From (a) about the 70. or 71. year of Abraham's life, when Christ was first Promised to him, till Israels departure out of Egypt, and the giving of the Law by Moses, which was (b) precisely 430. years. A very short, but an exceeding observable Period, for singular Divine Providences to the Church, and an excellent Fœderall Administration to Abraham and his Seed.

The two former Fœderal Administrations, From Adam till Noah, and From Noah till Abraham, were but the Day-break, or Day-dawning of the Covenant: But this, From Abraham till Moses, was as the bright Sun-rise of Gods Covenant and Promise in Christ. Let us therefore stir up our selves so much the more intentively to look into it with all diligence and delight: For the Substance of it concerns us as well as Abraham, if we be the Spirituall Seed of Abraham. For

For the more full, clear and Methodicall unfolding of Gods admirable Covenant with Abraham, I shall (συν Θεῷ) Explain, 1. The nature and kinde of this Covenant; 2. The Fœderate Parties to it; 3. The Matter and Substance of it; 4. The Form of it; 5. The End and Scope of it; 6. And finally such Generall inferences, as by way of Corrollary result from the whole. And all these I shall summarily comprize in these VI. distinct Aphorisms and their respective explanations, viz.

I. God having called Abraham from his own kindred, and Native Country, Ur of the Chaldees, into the Land of Canaan, established the Covenant of Faith with him in Christ. This is the Nature and kind of this Covenant.

II. God not onely established his Covenant with Abraham, but also with his Seed after him in their Generations. These are the fœderate Parties: viz. 1. God; 2. Abraham and his Seed.

III. The Substance or Matter of Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, consisted of many eminent Mercies promised on Gods part to Abraham and his Seed; And of Divers notable Duties required of them, and restipulated on their part to God.

IIII. The Form of Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, consisted; Inwardly, In the mutuall Covenant-Obligation betwixt the fœderates, viz. God on the one Part, Abraham and his Seed on the other: Outwardly, 1. In the manner of this Covenants administration; 2. especially in its manifold Confirmation.

V. The End, or intended Scope of Gods making and establishing this Covenant with Abraham and his Seed in Christ, was, Ultimately, His own Glory; Subordinately, The true Happiness of Abraham and his Seed, Jewish and Gentilish, both in this, and in the world to come.

VI. Hence, from the whole, 1. This Covenants Properties or Perfections; 2. Additionall Excellencies; 3. Agreement with, and Disagreement from, the former Covenants; 4. Gods infinite wisdom therein; 5. Abrahams great advantage thereupon; 6. The peculiar Happiness of Abraham and his Seed thereby; 7. The Sameness of the Gospel, of the Messiah, and of Salvation by Faith in him, in these former, as well as in these later ages of the world: Are, in this Fœderall dispensation, most eminently observable.

In these six Aphorisms, we have a Synopsis of this Covenant-Expressure, and a Compendious Delineation of the Mysteries thereof: In the Explanations of these Aphorisms, we shall have a more full view and Representation of all.

APHORISM.

Aphorism I.

God having called Abraham from his own kindred and Native Country, Ur of the Chaldees, into the land of Canaan, established the Covenant of Faith with him in Christ. This Aphorism hath in it three principal Branches, which may be resolved into so many distinct Propositions: viz. 1. That, God called Abram from his own kindred and Native Country Ur of the Chaldees, into the Land of Canaan. 2. That, When God thus called him, he established a Covenant with him. 3. That, This Covenant was the Covenant of Faith touching sinners Recovery in Christ.

I. Proposition. God called Abram from his own kindred and Native Country, Ur of the Chaldees, into the land of Canaan. This is evident by divers Scriptures compared together. viz. 1. By the Historicall Narration of it in Genesis; (c) Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy Country, and from thy kindred, and from thy fathers house, into a land that I will shew thee. His own Country was (d) Ur of the Chaldees. The land which God did shew him, and into which Abram came, (e) was the land of Canaan. 2. By the following allegations of this History. God said to him afterwards; (f) I am the LORD, that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it. The Levites in Nehemiah said, (g) Thou art the LORD the God, who didst choose Abraham, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, &c. Steven said, (h) The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, and said unto him, Get thee out of thy Country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran, and from thence when his father was dead, he removed him into this land wherein ye now dwell. This Proposition is of singular Consequence for evidencing the riches of Gods Grace testified towards Abram in this Covenant: and therefore I shall herein explain briefly, 1. Who this Abram was, whom God did call. 2. What this his Native Country, Ur of the Chaldees was: whence God called him. 3. What the land of Canaan was whereunto he was called. 4. What manner of calling this was. 5. When God did thus call him.

1. Who this Abram was, whom God called, to bring him into Covenant with himself. Abram may be considered, 1. Before his Calling. 2. After his Calling. Here it will be most proper, to take notice who and what manner of Person he was Before his Calling. View him a little in respect of his Descent, Name and Religion. 1. For his Descent, He was (i) the son of Terah, of Nahor, &c. descending in a direct line from them, the son of Noah (as (k) Broughton notes) The Tenth from Noah, as Noah was the Tenth from Adam. And as in Noah's dayes, he being the Tenth from Adam, Gods justice over all flesh was extended: So in Abram, he being the Tenth from Noah, Gods mercy mercy to all the world is pronounced. I add; As God renewed his Covenant in Christ, the promised Seed, to Noah the Tenth from Adam: So God renewed his Covenant in the same Christ, to Abram the Tenth from Noah. 2. For his Name, Abram; It is compounded of two words אב-רם Ab-ram, that is, High-Father. His Father Terah being an idolater, might perhaps thus name him, guessing or desiring, like a worldly man, that his son Abram might be rich and great, having many under him. But Gods Providence over-ruled this idolater herein, as after may appear: God making him an High-Father indeed, by Covenant, both to Naturall and Spirituall children. 3. For his Religion, Scripture intimates; (l) That he was ungodly, before God called him, and justified him. Thus Paul discoursing of Abram's justification upon his Calling, stiles him ungodly. (l)---To him that worketh not, but believeth him that justifieth the ungodly, his Faith is counted for righteousness. God justified him not as he was ungodly; but as he, upon his Calling believed: but he justified him who before was ungodly, by his Calling and justification, making him godly and righteous. (2) That he was an idolater. For God saith; (m) Your Fathers on the other side of the flood in old time; even Terah the Father of Abraham and the Father of Nahor: and they served other Gods. They] what they? viz. (As the (n) late Annotations well) Abraham, Nahor and Terah, who were all alike gross idolaters; Abraham as well as the rest, of whom this is to be understood, and not of the more remote Ancestors, as Noah and Shem, &c. who were no idolaters. His family had degenerated to idolatry, and Abraham was descended of an idolater, and miserably corrupted with idolatrous education. Yea his idolatry was the worst sort of idolatry of all. He served not the true God, falsly, against the second Commandement; but he served a false god, yea, false gods, against the first Commandement. Idolaters are special Haters of God, severely threatned in the second Commandement. Thus Abram, before God called him, to make his Covenant with him, was an ungodly man, and a gross idolater; in which idolatrous and ungodly state he had lived about seventy, or seventy one years; for at that age God called him, and not before. This is that Abram. God found nothing in him worthy of any favour or Mercy.

2. What his Native Countrey, Ur of the Chaldees was. Ur was not the name of a City, as the Chaldee Paraphrast misunderstood it, but of a (o) Land or Countrey, which lay on the east side of Mesopotamia, and therefore by Steven called in a large sense, (p) Mesopotamia. It lay (q) eastward from Canaan, beyond the River Euphrates: and lay between two Rivers, as Topographers testifie. It is called Ur of the Chaldees, from the Chaldeans who dwelt therein. The Chaldeans were not onely gross idolaters, but notoriously addicted to Astrology: hence in tract of time (r) Astrologers were called Chaldeans, and these terms became Synonima's. (t) Some think it was called Ur, that is, Light or Fire: the idolatrous Chaldeans probably denomi-denominating it of, and dedicating it to Fire, which they had seen to descend from Heaven upon the Fathers Sacrifices there. In this country so corrupted with idolatry and Astrology, it is very likely, that Abram, (before God called him thence) was tainted too much with both these abominations. This was Abram's Native Country.

3. What the Land of Canaan was, whereunto Abram was called. Because in this Covenant of God with Abram, the Land of Canaan is one Eminent Blessing Promised, upon which the Covenant frequently runs; It may be very useful briefly to describe it, by the 1 Situation, 2 Denominations, 3 Scripture commendations, and 4 Mysticall signification thereof. I. The Situation of Canaan is in Asia Minor. The (t) bounds and borders of it are purposely described in Numbers, and reached from the Western Sea, to the great River Euphrates Eastward, (saith (u) Pareus) and from Mount Libanus on the North to the desert of Arabia and Idumea Southward. (x) Broughton saith, it was about 160 miles from North to South, and 60 miles from East to West. The Confines of it were but narrow, but the Treasures in it were large and abundant. II. The Denominations of this Land in Scripture are many, and most of them excellent. It is called, 1. (y) The Land of Canaan; From Canaan (the son of Cham, the son of Noah) who with his sons possessed it after the flood. (z) Canaan is derived from כנע Canangh, which signifies to humble, bow, press-down, debase, &c. agreeably to Noah's propheticall curse of Canaan and his Posterity, (a) cursed be Canaan, a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren. But the Canaanites God cast out, yea (b) the land it self spewed them out, for their extreme wickedness. 2. (c) That good Land, which the Lord gave Israel for an inheritance: So called by Moses, from the plenty of all good things therein. 3. The (d) land of Promise; Because God frequently promised it to Abram and to his Seed for their inheritance for ever. 4. The (e) Land of their Pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers. In reference to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, who, even after the Promise, lived therein as Pilgrims and strangers on earth; looking for a better Country, that is an heavenly. 5. (f) The Rest of Gods people; or Gods rest. In reference to all the former unsetledness and unfixedness of Israel's condition, Till God brought them thither, and there fixing them gave them rest from all their enemies. 6. (g) The Holy Land. In respect of the most holy God that had chosen that Land above all Lands for his Habitation. Thereupon it is also stiled the (h) Habitation of his Holiness. It was also the Inheritance of Gods Holy and peculiar People. 7. (i) JEHOVAH's Land, or the LORD's Land. Originally the Land, as all the Earth, was his: but this Land his peculiarly, (k) The Mountain of his inheritance. 8. (l) The Land of Immanuel, That is, of Christ, God-with-us; because in that Land, Jesus Christ (1) was (m) Promised to be Immanuell; (2) was actually (n) performed, and became Immanuell by his Incarnation, and Conversation therein with his people, and dying for his people.

In that land Jeſus Chriſt was Born, lived, Preached, Wrought Miracles, Dyed, was Buried, And thence aſcended into Heaven. III. Scripture-Commendations of this Land are many and Magnifical. Eſpecially it is Commended in four reſpects. 1. In reſpect of Gods peculiar choice of that Land, among and above all lands in the world, for himſelf and his people Iſrael. Hence God calls it (r) A land which he had eſpied for them. God that beholds all the earth at once, called and ſingled this land out from them all upon ſpeciall diligence and moſt accurate obſervation. 2. In reſpect of Gods ſpeciall eye, care and more immediate Providence over it. (q) The land whither thou goeſt in to poſſeſs it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou ſowedſt thy ſeed, and wateredſt it with thy foot, as a garden of Herbs: But the land whither ye go to poſſeſs it, is a land of Hills and valleys, and drinketh water of the rain of Heaven: A Land which the LORD thy God careth for; The eyes of the LORD thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year, even unto the end of the year. 3. In reſpect of the ſingular wealth plenty and fruitfulneſs of it. Moſes tels Iſrael, (r) The LORD thy God bringeth thee into a Good Land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and depths that ſpring out of valleys and hills, a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig-trees, and pomegranats, a land of oyl-olive, and honey, A Land wherein thou ſhalt eat bread without ſcarceneſs; thou ſhalt not lack any thing in it; a land whoſe ſtones are iron, and out of whoſe hills thou mayſt dig braſs. And God by Ezekiel ſtiles it (t) A land flowing with milk and honey, which is the Glory of all lands. 4. In reſpect of Gods ſpeciall preſence therein, it was moſt dignified and Honoured above all the corners of the earth. For, there he planted (t) his own peculiar people, dwelling in the midſt of them. There was the (u) holy City, Jeruſalem, the joy of the whole earth, wherein (x) Gods Temple was erected, the holy place of the habitacles of the moſt High. This was the (y) place where God choſe to put his Name there. Here were (z) the Ark and all the ſacred Utenſils, The Prieſts, Sacrifices, and ſolemn Ordinances of God. And here the Lord dwelt between the Cherubims, vouchſafing his people ſweet Communion with himſelf in all ſpiritualls. (a) He dealt not ſo with any Nation. IIII. Finally, The Myſticall ſignification of this Land was excellent. (b) This Earthly Country was a notable Type of a better, that is, an Heavenly Country. The Canaan below, of the Canaan above. So that when Iſrael came to live in Canaan, they came to live in a Typicall heaven, in an Heaven on earth: and when they dyed thence, they that dyed in Faith were but tranſlated from one Heaven unto another. Wherein Canaan was a Type of Heaven, ſhall be evidenced hereafter. This was the Land of Canaan unto which God called Abram when he ſtabliſhed his Covenant with him.

4. What manner of calling this was whereby God called Abram from his Country and kindred into the Land of Canaan. Gods Calling of Man is, in respect of the Condition or Imployment whereto they are called, either Ordinary, or Extraordinary. I. His Ordinary Calling is twofold. viz. 1. More Generall, whereby he generally calls and invites all men in the Church to a state of Christianity, to accept Christ by Faith, Repentance, &c. Thus (c) many are called: few chosen. 2. More Particular, when by his Providence he cals particular Persons to particular Functions, Imployments, &c. Some to be Masters, some Servants, some Magistrates, some Ministers, &c. Of this saith Paul, (d) Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he is called, &c. II. His Extraordinary Calling, whereby he cals some special Person, to some special extraordinary task or imployment, whereto he calls not others. Thus Christ called the young man, for his tryall, (e) to sell all that he had, &c. Now here though Abraham seem clearly to be called with this speciall extraordinary calling, in a singular case, to leave his kindred and native Countrey, and to come into Canaan: Yet Gods Generall calling of Abraham to Christianity and true Piety may not here be excluded. It is most probable that when Abram was called from his native Country to Canaan, He was also called effectually from his idolatry in serving false gods, to the true worship of the true God; yea from his carnall and sinfull state by nature, to a spirituall and righteous state by Grace in Christ. For, 1. Abram before this Call, when he was beyond the river, and without Gods special Territories in Canaan, (f) served other gods, so did his Father and family: But after this Call (g) he onely served the true God the LORD. 2. This Call Abram (h) accepted by true Faith, and was singularly obedient thereunto; though he went out, not knowing whither he went. Such Faith and Obedience he could not have had, without effectuall Calling. Gods Call therefore wrought true Faith and Obedience in him, whereby he was enabled thus to close with Gods Call.

5. When God did thus call Abram; is diversly apprehended of by Writers. (i) Some think this Call of Abram was first, when Abram was now 75. years old, from that place in Genesis; (k) And Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran. And that then the Promise was first made to him. But this seems to be a plain mistake. For, 1. This Context in Genesis speaks not of Gods calling Abram, and of his Promise to him, as then made when Abram was 75. years old: But as things done before. (l) Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy Country, &c. This Text onely intimates that Abram was 75. years old, when he departed out of Haran, or Charran, (which was his way from Ur to Canaan) not when he departed out of Ur. And Steven truly reciting this Story, saith, (m) The God of glory appeared unto our Father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran, and said unto him, Get thee out of thy Country, and from thy kindred, &c. So then the LORD called him, and made his Promise to him, before he dwelt in Charran: And this is the more confirmed, In that before this time, Doubtless Abram had been called before this, and acquainted his father with Gods call and Promise, who repenting of his idolatry was willing to go with his son Abram. 2. The due Computation of the time of Gods First Promise to Abram, will fix the time of Abram's Call, about the 70. or 71. year of his age. (o) Gods first Promise to Abram being annexed at the same time to his Call of Abram, to move and perswade him the more effectually to accept and obey Gods Call. Now Gods First Promise to Abram was full (p) 430. years before Israels going out of Egypt, and Gods giving of the Law to Israel. Therefore these 430. years carry the Promise backward to Abram's 70th or 71th year, there being exactly 430. years from Abram's 70th year, till the Giving of the Law. viz. (q) 400. years Abram's Seed (that is, Isaac and his posterity) did sojourn as Pilgrims and strangers in a land that was not theirs. This term of their sojourning began when Isaac was born, (r) Abraham being then 100. years old; and ended when Israel (s) came out of Egypt. The odd 30 years therefore end at Abraham's 100th year, and begin at Abraham's 70th year. This is the time when God made his First Promise to Abram: and also when God called Abram. They went both together.

Thus of the first Propositon, That God called Abram from his own kindred and Native Country, Ur of the Chaldees, into the Land of Canaan.

II. Propositon. God having thus called Abram from his kindred and Native Country, into the Land of Canaan, Established a Covenant with him. Here Consider, 1. That God thus dealt with Abram. 2. Why.

1. That God having called Abram from his kindred and native Country into the Land of Canaan, established a Covenant with him, is evident, (1) By that Confession of the Levites; (t) Thou art the Lord the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtst him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham, and foundest his heart Faithful before thee, and madest a Covenant with him to give the Land of the Canaanites, &c. to his Seed. (2) And this is yet more clear by the Historical Narrative of Gods dealing and dispensation with Abram herein. Whence it is plain, that after God had thus called Abram, He made Promises to Abram seven severall times. viz. 1. In (u) Ur of the Chaldees, called Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran. 2. In (x) Sichem in the plain of Moreh. 3. In (y) the Land of Canaan, after that Lot was departed from Abram. 4. After the (z) battell of the Kings, and Abram's rescue of Lot who was taken Captive by them, whereupon Abram was blessed by Melchizedeck, King of Salem. 5. When (a) Abram was 99. years old, Then God revealed to him most Eminent Promises. 6. In (b) the plains of Mamre, when three three Angels appeared to Abraham, a little before the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah. Then God the second time promised Isaac, of Sarah. 7. Finally, (c) when God had tempted Abraham to offer up Isaac for a burnt offering, and Abraham in a sort offered him up. These seven times God renewed his Promises to Abraham; and all these were at, and after Gods calling of Abram. Before God called Abram, we read not of one Promise at all made to him by God.

(c) Gen. 22. 15. to 20.

Now three times of these seven, God established and renewed his Covenant with Abram. viz. 1. Immediatly upon and at his Calling of Abram out of his Country, &c. (d) Then God made Promises to Abraham: And these promises the Apostle cals, (e) The Covenant which was confirmed of God 430 years before the Law. No other Promises, but these at Abram's Calling, were 430. years before the Law, as hath been manifested. 2. After Abram had rescued Lot, and Melchisedeck had blessed Abram, (f) God made a Covenant with Abram by Sacrifices, divided in twain, promising to give Canaan to his Seed, bounding the Land. 3. When (g) Abram was 99. years old, God established his Covenant most eminently with Abram and his Seed touching manifold blessings.

(f) Gen. 15. 18, &c.

2. Why did God thus Establish his Covenant with Abram; having first called him from his kindred and native Country, Ur of the Chaldees, into the land of Canaan; and not before? I answer.

(1) Because, Abram before he was Called, was incapable of Gods Covenant and Promises. Gods (h) Covenant, since Adam's Fall is established and Confirmed onely in Christ. And all (i) Gods Promises both for the life that now is, and for that which is to come, are peculiarly appropriated to, and intailed upon, Godliness: being (k) Yea and Amen onely in Christ. Now Abram uncalled, was ungodly, a gross Idolater, serving other gods; without Christ, without God, and without hope in the world, as hath been shewed. He was, as such, uncapable of Covenant and Promises. God therefore cals him out of his Carnal state, as well as from his Carnal Friends and native Countrey: and in calling him, Principling him with Grace, Fits him for both Covenant and Promises.

(h) Gal. 3. 17.
(i) 1 Tim 4. 8.
(k) 2 Cor. 1. 20.

(2) Because, Abram being so called of God, had great need of Gods Covenant and Promises, as Encouragements to accept and obey Gods Call. Consider, Whence, Whither, and by whom, Abram was called; and then it will appear that Abram had need of Singular Encouragement to accept such a Call. 1. Whence was he called? (l) From his Country, and from his kindred, and from his fathers House. What? From his Native Country? That was grievous. A man hath a kinde of Native love to his Native Country. Yea, the very smoak of a mans Native Country is sweet to him. From his kindred? that was more grievous. Kindred and acquaintance by their society are the comforts of our life on Earth. From his Fathers House also? this was most grievous of all. To forsake Father and Mother, Brethren and and Sisters, &c. this touched the quick: This is as the tearing of a limb out of the body. An hard task for flesh and blood. Yet Abram must forsake all. 2. whither was Abram called? (m) Into a land that God would shew him. Abram is called to follow God, (n) he knew not whither. God told him not whither, at First: for the further discovery of his Faith and Obedience. This might seem against Reason, Wisdom, Profit, Comfort, yea against Natural affection: yet Abram is put upon it. 3. who called Abram, who put him upon this imployment? (o) The LORD, The LORD, whom he knew not, whom he consequently loved not, served not, feared not, &c. he called him that was ungodly, an idolater, a server of false gods, to forsake kindred and Country, to go he knew not whither. Abram might have had many doubts, disputes, demurs, and reluctancies within himself, against all this. But God at the very time when he first called Abram, spreads before him his Covenant and Promises, to encourage him to break through all these lets and discouragements. And in his First Covenant, and Knot of Promises, God promiseth to Abram, for his Encouragement, (p) seven remarkable Benefits, viz. (1) An ample and numerous Posterity: And I will make of thee a great Nation. (2) A Divine benediction: And I will bless thee. In the bosome of Gods Benediction are comprized all necessary Temporal, and Spiritual mercies. (3) Eminency of Name and Fame in the world. And I will make thy name great. His name was great among the Jews: Hence, they said to Christ, (q) Art thou greater then our Father Abraham? Great among the Heathen, as (r) Historians relate; and Great among us: we counting it an honour to be children of Abraham. (4) That He should be a Blessing: not only Passively in himself; but also Actively to others. He should be so blessed, that he should invite and instruct others to the same blessedness with himself, yea men wishing happiness to themselves or others, should wish the blessing of Abraham to fall upon them. (5) Divine Amity to his friends. And I will bless them that bless thee. (6) Divine Enmity against his Enemies. And I will curse him that curseth thee. (7) Finally, A Diffusion of the spiritual and everlasting blessing to all the families of the Earth, from Abram by Christ that according to the flesh, was to descend of Abram. And in thee shall all families of the Earth be blessed. And this last is the Head and Glory of all these Promises. These were Gods Encouragements to Abram to hearken to his Call.

(3) Because, Self-denial is a Necessary Preparative to Christ, and to true Communion with God in him. God was pleased to think thoughts of grace and mercy to Abraham, intending to reveal Christ to him, and himself in Christ most eminently, not only for his own salvation, but for the salvation of his Seed also. To prepare him hereunto, he called him from his own idolatrous kindred, from his profane, ungodly and idolatrous Country, an Embleme of this wicked world: to Canaan a Country of Gods choosing, and a special type of Heaven. Abram could not at once both serve God, and idols: both enjoy enjoy Christ, and his carnal sinful superstitious Condition. Therefore God cals him forth. Thus the Spirit speaks to the Church, inviting her to Christ; (r) Hearken, O daughter, and Consider, and incline thine Ear; forget also thine own people, and thy Fathers House. So shall the King (that is, Christ,) greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord, and worship thou him. Thus Christ exhorteth; (t) If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his Cross daily, and follow me. —— And (u) If any man come to me, and hate not father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And this Self-Denyal he notably presseth afterwards by two Parables. Paul to this effect said elegantly to his Corinthians, disswading them from Communion in that neer marriage Relation with infidel idolaters; (x) What fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what Communion hath light with darkness? and what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an Infidel? and what agreement hath the Temple of God with idols? For ye are the Temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and will be their God, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be separate saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty. The Lord God is infinite in (y) purity, most (z) glorious in holiness; and therefore (a) will be sanctified in all that draw near unto him. They must renounce native impurities, that approach nigh unto him.

Thus it is clear, That God having called Abram from his kindred and Country to come into Canaan, established A Covenant with him: And why. Next to the last and and principal Proposition, viz.

III. Proposition. The Covenant which God established with Abram, having called him from his kindred and native Country to the land of Canaan, was the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Recovery by Jesus Christ. This may be evidenced by many Arguments. For,

1. The very first revealing of this Covenant to Abram, which was at the time when God called Abram, is stiled The Preaching of the Gospel unto Abram. (b) The Scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the Heathen through faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all Nations be blessed. And what is the Gospel, but the Glad tidings of Sinners salvation by Christ? Now that's the Doctrine and Substance of the Covenant of Faith.

(b) Gal. 3. 8. with Gen. 12. 3.

2. This first knot of Promises disclosed to Abram, when God called him, is called (c) The Covenant which was Confirmed of God in Christ, 430 years before the Law, as hath been manifested. Gr. εἰς χριστὸν unto Christ, or Towards Christ. Whereby is intimated (saith (d) Beza) that Gods Covenant graciously begun with Abram, was carried to One Christ, in whom alone that Seed of Abraham in Christ, both of Jews and Gentiles, is gathered together. So then whether we understand this Covenant, as having it's establishment in Christ, or its tendency dency towards Christ: It is clearly the Covenant of Faith with him.

3. The Benefits and Mercies Promised of God in this Covenant, are peculiar benefits of the Covenant of Faith, and directly lead Abram unto Christ, and to salvation by him through Faith. As, Abram's covenanted Fatherhood. (c) My Covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a Father of many Nations. —— Thy Name shall be Abraham; for a Father of Many Nations have I made thee. Here God Covenanted with Abram to make him A publique Father, not only of that one Nation of the Jews, but of many Nations, viz. of the Gentiles as well as of the Jews, (f) who as children should walk in the steps of the faith of Abraham. So then Abraham's fatherhood in reference to many Nations, was not according to the Flesh, but according to the Faith. And his Faith had peculiar reference to the (g) promised Seed: (h) especially to Christ the eminent Seed, in whom alone all believers become the Seed of Abraham, and he their Father. Thus Abram's Covenanted fatherhood led him to Christ, and to salvation by him through Faith.

Abram's Covenanted Seed, led him to Christ, and to salvation by him through Faith. (i) To Abraham and his Seed were the Promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of Many; But as of one, And to thy Seed, which is Christ. —— And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to the Promise. —— (k) They which are of Faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

The Covenanted (l) Blessing upon all the Nations and Families of the Earth, in Abraham and his Seed, led Abraham to Jesus Christ the Purchaser and bestower of that blessing. For (m) Christ Meritoriously purchased and obtained this blessing, by becoming a Curse for us: As it is written; (m) Christ hath redeemed us from the Curse of the Law, being made a curse for us: —— That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: That we might receive the promise of the Spirit through Faith. 2. Christ efficaciously bestows and applies this blessing by Conversion and effectual Calling. Hence Peter said to the Jews; (n) Ye are the children of the Prophets, and of the Covenant which God made with our Fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy Seed shall all the Kindreds of the Earth be blessed. Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in Turning away every one of you from his iniquities. 3. And this blessing is not through the works of the Law, but the Faith of the Gospel. (o) The Scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the Heathen through Faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all Nations be blessed. So then they which be of Faith, are blessed with faithful Abraham.

The (p) Covenanted inheritance of Canaan, did lead Abraham and his posterity to Jesus Christ, and to salvation by him through Faith. For, 1. The Land of Canaan is stiled (as hath been already noted) (q) The Land of Immanuel, That is, The land of Christ the Mediatour, God-man. 2. Canaan, the Land of Rest, was a special

And, as Joshuah (whom the Apostle cals (r) Jesus, he being herein the Type of the true Jesus Christ) brought the Israelites that believed into Canaan's Rest, they that believed not being unable to enter in: So Jesus Christ (f) brings the believing Israelites into Heavens rest, all unbelievers being excluded.

Finally, That supereminent and fundamental Covenanted Mercy, That (t) God would be a God to Abraham and to his Seed after him, led him and his Seed to Christ, and to salvation in him by Faith. For, since Adam's Fall, and the breach of the Covenant of works thereby, God becomes not a God in Covenant to any Sinner, but only in and through Jesus Christ, (u) by whom God reconciled the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them. Hence, while Carnal man is (x) without Christ, he is a stranger to the Covenants of Promise, and without God in the world.

4. The Conditions which God required of Abraham, and which he restipulated and performed to God in this Covenant, show clearly that this was the Covenant of Faith, touching Sinners recovery by Christ. These Conditions were besides others, Faith and Worthy walking. Both which are the Conditions of the Covenant of Faith: as hath (y) formerly been shewed. 1. Faith God implicitly required of Abraham, for the receiving of his Promises, which without Faith were of no consequence at all to Abraham. And Abraham not only implicitly restipulated to believe, but he (z) actually believed in the LORD, that his Seed should be numerous as the Stars. This (a) Act of his Faith the Apostle most highly Commends. No one person in Scripture is more frequently and eminently commended for Faith, then Abraham: (b) faithful Abraham: (c) The Father of all Believers, &c. Now this Faith of his in God touching his Seed Promised, peculiarly respected his (d) Spiritual Seed, the faithful: but principally Christ, the blessed Seed. Hence (e) Abraham rejoycing and laughing at the Promise and performance of Isaac, a type of Christ, is said to (f) rejoyce to see Christs day, and he saw it, and was glad. How did he See it? only by Faith: Expecting Christ to come of Isaac, for the blessing of all Nations. 2. Worthy walking God required in Abraham in all uprightness of Obedience. (g) I am God Almighty, walk thou before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my Covenant between mee and thee, &c. Now Abraham walked most obediently to God, Especially (h) In forsaking his own kindred and Country, for Canaan: having for his Encouragement, Christ promised. And (i) In Sacrificing of Isaac in a sort, whereby Jesus Christ and his Death, yea his Resurrection also, were prefigured. His Death, in that Isaac (k) bound and laid upon the Altar, was slain in Abraham's intention, and there wanted but one Act to compleat his Execution: His Resurrection from the dead, in that Isaac rose up from the Altar alive, whereupon the Apostle saith he was (l) received from the dead in a figure. Thus God led Abraham to Christ, both by his Faith and Obedience. By his Faith, Abraham saw Christ born, in Isaac's Birth: and by both faith and obedience he saw Christ sacrificed, in Isaac's being offered up.

5. The Recompence which God bestowed upon Abraham for his accepting Gods Promises and Covenant by believing, clearly evinceth that Gods Covenant with Abraham was no other but the Covenant of Faith in Christ. What was this Recompence? A meer Evangelical recompence: viz. Justification by Faith; For, (m) Abraham believed in the LORD; and he counted it to him for righteousness. Abraham then was not justified by Working, according to the Covenant of works, but by believing, according to the Covenant of Faith. Now this justification by believing is pure Gospel. (n) And this is the righteousness of God by Faith of Jesus Christ.

(m) Rom. 4. throughout. Gen. 15.5,6.

(n) Rom. 3. 22,24,25, 26.

6. Finally, Gods Confirmation of this Covenant with Abraham was such, that it declared it plainly to be the Covenant of Faith in Christ. This is very observable, That, as God renewed his Promises seven several times with Abraham, three of those being expressly stiled Covenants, as was before noted: So those three Covenants, which were all one for Substance, were every one of them Established and confirmed in Christ. For, 1. Of that Covenant, which was revealed first of all to Abraham in Ur of the Chaldees, the Apostle saith; (o) That the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. And this Covenant had its accomplishment in the (p) Exhibition of Christ, as Peter in his Sermon shewed. 2. That Covenant which God renewed with Abraham after Melchizedeck had blessed him, was confirmed by (q) Sacrifices cut in twain, a smoaking furnace, and a lamp of fire passing between those pieces. These, as all corporal Sacrifices appointed by God before Christs coming, (r) were Types and Figures of Christ the true Sacrifice: by (s) whose death and blood the New Covenant or Testament is confirmed. And the Smoaking furnace, and lamp of fire, passing between the parts of these divided Sacrifices, seem to point out (according to the (t) usuall solemnity of Covenanting) the Parties Covenanting, viz. on the one hand, Abraham's Seed, resembled by a A smoaking furnace, in reference to their (u) great afflictions in Egypt before they should come to Canaan; On the other hand, God in Christ, represented by A lamp of fire, who should lighten their darkness, and deliver them out of all their affliction and misery, and bring them into Canaan. (x) God and (y) Christ in Scripture are compared to fire. This in my judgement, seems the most apposite interpretation of this vision of Abraham. And thus it notably points at Christ crucified, as the Establishment of his Covenant; as the Redeemer and Deliverer of his people. 3. That Covenant which God renew'd with Abraham when he was 99 years old, (z) was Confirmed by the Sacramental token of Circumcision.

Now

Now, (a) Circumcision was a Seal to Abraham of the righteousness of Faith, and thats Christs righteousness. And it was a Type of Christ and his death, whereby our sins are destroyed, mortifi'd and put off. (b) In whom also ye are circumcised with the Circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the Circumcision of Christ.

(a) Rom. 4. 11. & 3. 21, 22, &c.

(b) Col. 2. 11.

By all these it is clear, That Gods Covenant established with Abraham, after he had called him from his Country, Kindred, and Fathers House to come into the land of Canaan, was the Covenant of Faith touching Sinners Recovery in Christ Jesus.

Corollaries, or Inferences resulting from the whole Aphorism, are divers. As,

1. God's Call first invites to Self-Denial. This is the very first clause of Gods Call of Abraham: (c) Get thee Out of thy Country, and from thy kindred, and from thy fathers House. Herein God called him to deny himself in his Natural Relations, and to forsake Country, Kindred and Family, to follow God, yea to forsake his idolatry, and all the ungodliness of his carnal Condition, for his sake. Thus Gods Spirit first cals those to Self-Denial, that should be the Church and Spouse of Christ; (d) Forget thine own people and Fathers House, so shall the King greatly desire thy beauty. Thus Christ first invites all that intend to be his disciples, (e) To deny themselves: and then to come and follow him. And this is one of the first fundamental Rules which the Grace of God, the Gospel of his Grace, teacheth; (f) To deny ungodliness and worldly lusts: and then live piously, righteously, and soberly, in this present world. To (g) cease to do evil: then to teach them to do well. To (h) come out from among Infidels, and be separate: and then God will receive us, &c. So that God's Call first invites to Self-Denial. Why? 1. Because, we are (i) naturally apt to dote upon our selves, to idolize our selves. We idolize our Self-wisdom, Self-will, Self-righteousness, Self-excellencies, &c. In this posture we are too self-ful, self-proud, self-happy, to accept of God, or Christ, or happiness by him. When God therefore cals us to Christ, he takes us off our own bottom, empties us of our selves, &c. makes us see that our wisdom, is but folly; our righteousness, but filthy rags; our merit, misery; our light, darkness; our strength, weakness; our perfections, imperfections; our all, nothing. Thus he (k) evacuates us, that there may be room in our hearts for him, and his Christ. 2. Because, Since the fall Every man naturally is involved in such a Condition under Sin, Satan, &c. as is wholly incompatible and inconsistent with that state in Christ whereunto God cals. (l) Carnal men are wholly under the raign and Dominion of Sin and Satan: His children, his servants, his slaves, taken Captive by him at his will, &c. when God cals a carnal man to a spiritual state in Christ, he cals him to be Christs (m) servant and subject. Christ must be his sole Lord and King; every thought must be brought into Captivity to the obedience of Christ, &c. So that Sin and Grace, Satan and Christ are most Contrary Masters; they (n) cannot be both lov'd at once, serv'd at once. Consequently Sin and Satan must be renounced by Self-Denial, that Christ may be accepted and closed with, by believing. This is the first Lesson in Christianity, This a Christians ABC. If thou art not yet entred upon the practice of this self-emptying Lesson of Self-Denial, thou art not experimentally acquainted with Gods call.

2. Gods Call, though never so contrary to flesh and blood, is very prevailing. How prevalent was it over Abraham? Abraham an idolater (o), a server of strange gods, is called by the LORD, the only true God, whom he knew not; to (p) come out of his native Country, Kindred, and Fathers House; to go into a land which God would shew him, that is, to go he (q) knew not whither. Here was a strange call, seemed altogether against flesh and blood, sense and reason: yet it was a strong call, it prevailed over Abraham, and made him obedient. Thus God called (r) the theif on the Cross, and His call so prevailed, that of a reviler of Christ, he becomes a Confessor of Christ; and that of Christ crucified, bleeding, dying, when Jews and Gentiles, and as it were all the world deny'd him, and were asham'd of him. Christ from heaven (s) called Saul: and his Call strangely prevailed over him, though at that time breathing out threatnings and slaughter against the Disciples of the Lord, and being in his Career of Persecution by the High-Priests Commission. For he not only ceas'd all his malice and madness against Christ and his members: but of an Enemy he became a friend; of a (t) Woolf, a Lamb; of a Persecutor, he became presently a Preacher of Christ and his Gospel. And of one of the worst children of Nature, he became one of the best children of Grace. So mightily doth Gods call prevail. It Convinces a man: It silences all objections and reasonings: It binds a man hand and foot: It makes a man any thing that God will have him. And no wonder; For, 1. Gods call is a most (u) alluring and perswasive Call: 2. Not only alluring, but (x) drawing: 3 Not only drawing, but even (y) Compelling, that a man cannot chuse but submit thereto: 4. Nor only Compelling, but (z) Enabling the Soul sweetly to follow Gods Allurement, Drawing, and Compulsion.

3. God's call exceedingly improves and betters the Condition of them that are called. Hereby Abraham's condition was bettered four ways. 1. In that he was called from Chaldea, to Canaan, a far more excellent Country, the very (a) glory of all lands. 2. In that he was called from his natural kindred and fathers House, to a spiritual and supernatural kindred of Gods people in Christ, and to the Heavenly Fathers House, the Church, which is (b) the Temple of the living God. 3. In that he was called from serving other gods, which was grossest Idolatry: To serve and worship the only true God the LORD. 4. In that he was called from his Carnal Condition wherein he was overwhelm'd with sin and misery unspeakable, into a gracious state, wherein he was was inveſted with Holineſs, Righteouſneſs and Happineſs in Chriſt unutterable. Thus Abraham was a great gainer by Gods call. And who ever loſt thereby? They that are effectually called by God, Looſe (c) Sin, gain Grace: Looſe ſpiritual guilt and filthineſs, gain a ſpiritual purity and cleanſing: Looſe Carnals, gain Spirituals: Looſe Death and Damnation, gain life and ſalvation: Looſe Hell and Satan, gain Heaven and God himſelf bleſſed for ever, Amen. 4 Gods Call is an Excellent preparative to his Covenant. Hereby Abraham was prepared for Covenant with God. Hereby Noah, David, the Jews, The Gentiles, all that were, or are taken into Covenant with God, are prepared alſo for Gods Covenant. With none of them God eſtabliſhed his Covenant, till firſt he had called them. That paſſage is notable; (e) The Promiſe is to you and to your children, (that is, to you Jews, that are called already,) and to all that are afar off, (that is, to the Gentiles,) Even as many as the Lord our God ſhall call. So then Gods Call goes before his Covenant in Order of Nature, and Prepares thereunto. They then that are ſtrangers to Gods Call, are Strangers to Gods Covenant.

(e) Act. 2. 39.

But How doth Gods call prepare for Gods Covenant? Anſw. Gods Call is either, 1. Only Outward and ineffectual (f), Conſiſting only in the Outward tender of the Goſpel, and in the accepting of that tender meerly in ſhew and Profeſſion. And this Outward call prepares for the Outward Priviledges of the Covenant, as viſible Membership in the Church, outward injoyment of the Ordinances, &c. Thus Ananias and Saphira his wife, Simon Magus, &c. were only outwardly called, and outwardly prepared for Gods Covenant, ſo that they partook of Baptiſm (g) the Seal of the Covenant. 2. Both (h) Outward and Inward, which is ſtiled Effectual Calling, conſiſting not only in the outward Goſpel tender, but alſo in the inward effectual operation of Gods Spirit, perſwading the heart not only in ſhew, but alſo in Truth ſincerely to accept that tender; Thus Abraham here was effectually called, and prepared for the inward ſaving Benefits of Gods Covenant, as well as for the Outward. Now Gods effectual Call ſingularly prepares us for the Covenant of God, and all the Benefits thereof, Outward and Inward, (i) By Convincing us both of our (j) Miſery and undone ſtate by Nature whilſt without Chriſt, and of the (k) Neceſſity, and (l) ſufficiency of Chriſt to Reſtore us out of that miſery. (m) By emptying us of all imaginary (m) ſelf-excellencies and ſelf-perfections whatſoever by Self-denyal, that being Self-emptied there may be room in our hearts for Chriſt and and his grace. This Self-denial being one of the first things that Gods call works us unto. (3) By drawing us (n) nigh unto God who were afar off; and making us like unto God through his (o) divine Nature and (p) image given into us, who were before quite contrary to him. And when we are thus brought nigh to God, and made like him by effectual Calling, God condescends to us to deal familiarly with us by way of Covenant. He doth (q) manifest himself to his called ones otherwise then to the world: not only by his gracious presence with, and residence in them, but also by his familiar condescending to a Covenant way with them.

5. Gods Covenant in Christ proposed, doth mightily Encourage to accept Gods call imposed. Therefore God having (r) called Abraham, he propounds presently his Covenant and Promises, to encourage him to embrace his Call. His Call was an hard task: but his Promises and Covenant were strong motives. The sweetness and attractiveness of these, did bear him up above the difficulty and harshness of that. And this is Gods way all along the Scripture, to annex his (s) Covenant and Promises to his Call, the more successfully to allure and draw us thereunto: And by this God hath wonderfully prevailed. See that glorious instance to this effect, in Peters Sermon, (t) He cals them to faith and repentance: To move them hereunto he propounds the Promise and Covenant to them and their children: And the same day were added to the Church three thousand Souls. nd no wonder that Gods Covenant in Christ proposed, doth so mightily move to accept Gods call imposed: For, 1. Gods Covenant in Christ, tenders more real sweetness, satisfaction and happiness to them that are called, then ever they enjoyed or could enjoy in their carnal state. Yea lets a man see, that all that he counts happiness in his carnal condition, is nothing else but a delusion, a shadow, and real misery. Now the greatest happiness once apprehended, is most attractive. 2. Gods Covenant in Christ propounds recompences to them that are called, far surmounting all the difficulties and discouragements of their Call. As here to Abraham, &c. Now great recompences, raise up wonderfully magnanimous resolutions and mighty undertakings. If the promise of the Spoil of a City, makes Souldiers cheerfully embrace the Command of Scaling the wals, though to the peril of their lives: How much more may Gods promises of all Temporals, Spirituals, and Eternals, both in earth and heaven, make them readily accept his call against all impediments?

6. Gods Call and Covenant Spring meerly from the riches of his free Grace. Why? or whence was it else, that God called Abraham and established his Covenant with him in Christ? Not any thing in his Country, or kindred, or family, or in Abraham's own person could move or incline the Lord hereunto. For, 1. His Country was Chaldea. That was not the Country of Gods choice. Yea it was a Country extreamly addicted to abominable idolatry, and atheistical Astrology.

logy. 2. His kindred such, as he must forsake them, to follow God. 3. His fathers house had made defection from the true God, to the (u) serving of strange Gods. 4. Himself was (x) Idolatrous, Ungodly, and in his Carnal Condition. And his idolatry was the worst kind of Idolatry. Not a false serving of the true God: but a serving of false Gods. That was Jeroboams Idolatry, for which God gave him that infamous stile, (y) Jeroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin. This was Ahabs idolatry, for which he is taxed to do (z) worse then Jeroboam and then all that were before him. Abraham by reason of his idolatry was an enemy to God, an hater of God: God counting idolaters (a) haters of him, and threatning to visit their iniquity upon them to the third and fourth generation. Yet this Abraham, thus despicable and unworthy in himself, God cals and takes him into Covenant with himself. 5. God called him into Canaan, (b) a land flowing with milk and honey, The glory of all lands, which God had peculiarly espied out for him. And not only so, but he called him to the service of the true God; and into a Condition of true Grace in Christ. 6. At the self-same time God stablished (c) a Covenant with him, stored with seven several Eminent Benefits, Jesus Christ himself, the Blessed Seed, being the Crown and glory of them all. Who can duly consider this gratuitous dispensation without astonishing admiration? Free-grace was the inward Impulsive or moving Cause of Gods Call of, and Covenant with Abraham. 7. Finally, God stablished this Covenant with Abraham of meer Grace through faith, that it might be a sure Covenant to all Abraham's believing Seed whether Jews or Gentiles. (d) Therefore it was of faith, that it might be by grace, to the End the Promise might be sure to all the Seed, &c. Here's free-grace indeed, Riches of free-grace, yea the Glory of the riches of Gods free Grace, to Abraham, in his Call and Covenant.

Christ and Sinners salvation by him is no late, but an ancient mystery. The Jews ignorantly said to Christ, (e) Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Christ is as ancient as Abraham, and far more ancient too, in respect of the tender and efficacy of his Mediatourship, which began in Paradise. Before Abraham was, I am. How comfortable is this to us! APHORISM

Aphorism II.

God not onely established his Covenant with Abraham, but also with his Seed after him in their Generations.

In the former Aphorism we have seen, That God and Abraham were the Fœderate Parties: In this second Aphorism we shall see, That Abrahams Seed were Subfœderates, (as some do stile them) Or, that Abrahams Seed, with himself, are constituted and accepted of God as one joynt-Party in Covenant with God. This is a point of singular Consequence to all Gods people, as after will appear. For clearing of it, I shall show, 1. That God established his Covenant of Faith not onely with Abraham, but with his Seed also. 2. What this seed of Abraham was, with which also God established his Covenant. 3. How he established his Covenant with his Seed. 4. Why God extended his Covenant to Abrahams seed. 5. What Corollaries, or Inferences may result from the whole.

1. That God established this his Covenant of Faith, not onely with Abraham, but with his seed also in their Generations, is evident divers wayes. viz.

1. By Gods directing of his Fœderall Promises not onely to Abraham, but also to his Seed. (f) And the LORD said unto Abram, after Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, &c. For, all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever. Again upon Abrahams offering up of Isaac, the LORD said; (g) That in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiplie thy seed as the starres of heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies: And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed. And Paul saith, (h) Now to Abraham and his seed were the Promises made. The blessed Virgin Mary also, in her song of Praise, after she was conceived with Christ, said by the Spirit; (i) He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy, As he spake to our Fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever. Now God directing his Fœderall Promises to Abrahams Seed, as well as to Abraham; joyned them both in his Promises and Covenant.

2. By Gods Expressing and mentioning not onely of Abraham, but of his Seed also as Parties, in every renewing of his Covenant with Abraham. His Promises he renewed seven times with Abraham: His Covenant thrice, as hath been noted. Now in all those his renewings of Covenant with Abraham, his seed is expresly Mentioned. In the first, which was a Covenant confirmed 430. years before the Law, God said; (k) And in thee shall all Families of the earth be blessed; which Covenant Peter alledging in his Sermon, recites it thus; (l) And in thy seed shall all the kindreds (or, families) of the earth be blessed. That Scripture saith, In thee: This, In thy seed. So then, both Abraham and his Seed were expresly mentioned as Parties in this first renewing of Covenant. In the second Renewing of Covenant, it is said; (m) In that same day the LORD made a Covenant with Abram saying, unto thy Seed have I given this land. In the third Renewing of Gods Covenant with Abram, his Seed is most eminently expressed as a joynt party with Abraham to Gods Covenant. (n) And I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy Seed after thee, in their Generations; To be a God unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee, and I will give unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the Land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

(n) Gen. 17. 7, 8.

3. By God's imposing of the Seal of this Covenant, Circumcision, not onely upon Abraham, but also upon his Seed: yea, and upon the stranger in his house. (o) And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my Covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee, in their generations. This is my Covenant, which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee; Every man-childe among you shall be circumcised. And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin, and it shall be a Token of the Covenant betwixt me and you. And he that is eight dayes old shall be circumcised among you, &c. Thus God imposed circumcision, the Token of the Covenant upon, Abraham and his Seed: Consequently both Abraham and his Seed were accepted by God as a joynt-party in Covenant with him; Admission to the token or Seal of the Covenant, alwayes presupposing an interest and part in the Covenant: Otherwise the Token and Seal should signifie nothing, but onely Seal a Blank.

II. What this Seed of Abraham was, with which God entred into Covenant, as well as with Abraham: is next to be explained. Here 1. We must distinguish. 2. Determine.

1. Abrahams seed is in the first place to be Distinguished: and it is chiefly of three Sorts. viz. 1 Onely Naturall. 2 Onely Spirituall, 3 Both Naturall and Spirituall. I. His Seed meerly Naturall, were all those that Naturally according to the flesh descended of Abraham by Propagation, but walked not in the steps of his Faith by Imitation. Thus (p) Ishmael begotten by Abraham of Hagar the Bondwoman, was Abraham's Seed: and so all the Ishmaelites. Thus all (q) Carnall Israelites were Abrahams Seed also; That is, His Naturall Seed onely: the Seed of his Flesh onely in Isaac: not the Seed of his Faith. II. His Seed meerly Spirituall, were and are all those that spiritually walk in the steps of Abrahams Faith, as children after a Father by Imitation, though they descended not at all from Abraham by Propagation, or Natural Generation. Thus all the (r) Believing Gentiles, are the Seed of Abraham, the children of Abraham. So the Apostle tels the Galatians, who were Gentiles; (s) And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to the Promise. All Believing Gentiles are reckoned by Scripture for Abraham's Seed, in three respects. 1. In respect of a singular

Spirituall Generation. For Abraham did in a sort analogically beget them, by a kinde of Spirituall Generation, by believing that promise of a Seed, (t) A Father of many Nations have I made thee: ----- Thou shalt be a Father of multitudes of Nations. That is, not onely of the Jews, which was but one Nation: but also of the Gentiles. Hence the Gentiles are called (u) The Seed which is of the Faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us all. 2. In regard of Imitation. For as children tread in the Fathers steps, and imitate them naturally: So believing Gentiles (x) walk in the steps of that Faith of Father Abraham Spiritually: and do the works of Abraham. Abraham is their Patern and Example: and they follow him in Believing, and well-doing. 3. In respect of Succession. Believing Gentiles succeed Abraham, as children a Father, both in his Blessing, and in his Inheritance. (y) In his Blessing. (y) The Scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the Heathen through Faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then, they which be of Faith are blessed with faithfull Abraham. (z) In his Inheritance. Children succeed their Parents in their Inheritance, lands, and Possessions: so believing Gentiles succeed Abraham in his inheritance. (z) The Promise that he should be the Heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the Law, but through the righteousness of Faith. Therefore it is of Faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the Promise might be sure to all the Seed, not to that onely which is of the Law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us all. III. His Seed both Naturall and Spirituall was twofold, viz. 1. Ordinary. So all the believing Jews, that Naturally were of Abraham's Flesh, and supernaturally followed Abrahams Faith, (c) were Abrahams Naturall and Spirituall Seed. 2. Extraordinary. So onely that supereminent Seed of Seeds Jesus Christ is the extraordinary and superlative (b) Seed of Abraham: extraordinarily descending from him according to the flesh, being (c) conceived by the holy Ghost of a Virgin of Abrahams line; and being (d) extraordinarily Promised to Abraham, according to the Spirit, not onely for the blessing of Abraham, his family, and the Jews, but of all the Nations and families of the Earth. Thus Christ is Abrahams Seed, κατ' ἐξοχὴν His Primary blessed Seed indeed. These now are the sorts of Abrahams Seed.

2. This distinction of Abrahams Seed premised, come we next to Determine, with which of these Seeds of Abraham God established his Covenant, as well as with Abraham. The Scripture clearly determines this point for us, both Negatively and Affirmatively. 1. Negatively, That the meer Natural Seed of Abraham by Hagar, whether Ishmael, or Ishmaelites, are not the Seed of Abraham wherewith God established his Covenant and Promises. For, 1. Abrahams carnall Seed, meerly after the flesh, are (e) set in a plain contradistinct opposition to the promised Seed, with which God established his Covenant. 2. The carnall Seed of Abraham, viz. Ishmael, was was cast out of Abrahams house, by Gods special direction; that it might not inherit with the Seed by Promise. (f) Cast out the bondwoman, and her son; for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the free woman. Now that Seed which was excluded from the Covenanted-Inheritance, is excluded from the Covenant also.

3. The meer carnall Seed of Abraham were so far from having Gods Covenant established with them, that they are not counted children; that is, the children of God in Covenant. For, (g) They are not all Israel which are of Israel: Neither because they are the Seed of Abraham, are they all children; but in Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, they which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the Promise are counted for the Seed.

Doubt. But if Abrahams meer carnall Seed, were not the Covenant Seed; if with them God established not his Covenant at all, but onely with Isaac, and with them that descended of him, &c. How came it to pass, that Ishmael, the son of Abraham by the bondwoman, (h) who was born after the flesh, was (i) circumcised, and that by Gods appointment? could he partake of Circumcision, the Token of the Covenant, and not have Gods Covenant established with him?

Answ. 1. Some do here distinguish of mens being in Covenant with God, which is Either in respect of the Outward Administration onely, Or in respect of the inward Efficacy and saving operation also. Ishmael was (say they) admitted into Covenant with God, according to the outward Administration, not according to the inward Efficacy. 2. Some say, that Ishmael was admitted to the Temporall, but not to the Spirituall benefits of the Covenant. But neither of these Resolutions seem fully to satisfie the Doubt. Nor was Ishmael admitted to all the temporal benefits of the Covenant: Canaan was not conferred upon him or his posterity. 3. They resolve best, who say; That Gods Covenant was established and setled upon Isaac and upon his posterity, as heirs of the promised blessings, and as the Root of whom the Eminent Seed of Abraham Jesus Christ should spring according to the flesh. Yet so, as that neither Ishmael nor Gentilish strangers, that would joyn themselves to Isaac in Abrahams Family, should be excluded, till they excluded themselves by unbelief. Hence Ishmael, and all other males born in Abrahams house, or bought with his money, and Esau, &c. were circumcised, and reputed as Abrahams Additionall Seed, and under Covenant, till they fell away, and discovenanted themselves. And they utterly falling away from the Faith, their Seed are not counted the Covenant Seed; no not according to the outward Administration. To this effect (k) Calvin (l) Pareus, and others resolve this doubt. Consult them.

II. Affirmatively, the Scriptures resolves, 1. That God first and immediatly settled and established this Covenant upon Isaac, Abrahams naturall son by the free woman, according to the Promise. And therefore, though (m) God promised divers eminent temporall blessings to Ishmael, because he was Abrahams Seed;

As, To blesse him, To make him fruitfull, To multiply him exceedingly, that he should beget twelve Princes, and To make him a great Nation. Yet God, as to the point of the Covenant, said plainly, But my Covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee. --- And again, (n) In Isaac shall thy Seed be called, that is, Thy Covenant Seed shall be onely in him: and not in Ishmael, further then as he joyns with Isaac. 2. That in Isaac God established his Covenant also with all his Ordinary Naturall Seed, that ordinarily descended from him according to the flesh; viz. with the whole Nation of the Jews descending from Isaac and Jacob. (o) And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed; and thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my Covenant with him for an everlasting Covenant, and with his Seed after him. So that the whole body of the Jewish Nation, being Isaac's ordinary Naturall Seed according to the flesh, were reputed Gods Covenant-people, and Abrahams Seed, till the time of Reformation after Christs coming; when the Jews broke themselves off by unbelief, and the Gentiles were grafted in. All that whole Nation, till then, were Gods Covenant-People according to the Outward Administration, and many of them according to the inward Efficacy of the Covenant. Hence Christ confesses (p) that the wicked Jews, who were not Abrahams Seed indeed savingly, yet were his Seed fœderally according to the outward Dispensation. And the Apostle tels the Jews who put Christ to death; (q) Ye are the children of the Prophets, and of the Covenant which God made with our Fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Isaac's naturall Seed may be considered, (r) As meerly naturall and carnall, descending from him according to the flesh, as the carnall Jews. And these, even the whole Jewish Nation, were in Covenant with him, according to the Outward Administration, had the Oracles, Promises, Sacraments and Ordinances dispensed to them, and were brought into Canaan. (s) As both Naturall and Spirituall, as believing Jews. And these were in Covenant with Isaac according to the inward saving Efficacy. 3. That God established his Covenant with Abrahams extraordinary Naturall and Spirituall Seed, Jesus Christ. (t) Now to Abraham and his seed were the Promises made. He saith not, and to Seeds, as of many, but as of one, and to thy seed, which is Christ. And afterwards (u) The Covenant with Abraham is said to be Confirmed of God in Christ. And Christ is stiled (x) The Seed unto whom the Promise was made. 4. Finally, That Gods Covenant was established, not onely with them that were Abrahams Seed both Naturally and Spiritually, but also with those that were his meer Spiritual Seed, viz. The believing Gentiles. (y) The Scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the Heathen through Faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all Nations be blessed. So then they which be of Faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham. And (z) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, that the blessing of Abra-

Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. (f) — And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to Promise. Hence (z) Gods Promise to Abraham is said to be sure, not onely to the faithfull Jews, but to the believing Gentiles also. This is Abrahams Seed with whom God stablished his Covenant.

III. How Gods Covenant was established with this seed of Abraham, requires in the next place a little Explication. For here some difficulty discovers it self. In that God saith; (a) But my Covenant will I establish with Isaac: and the Apostle saith; (b) The Promise is sure to all the Seed, both Jews and Gentiles. Who, (c) if they be Christs, then are they Abrahams seed, and heirs according to Promise. And yet elsewhere all this seems to be contradicted, by those words; (d) To Abraham and his seed were the Promises made. He saith not, And to Seeds as of many; but as of one, and to thy seed, which is Christ. Therefore Gods Covenant and Promises to Abraham seem not to be established with many Seeds, as with Isaac, and the Jews descending of him; and with the believing Gentiles: but onely with one seed, viz. Christ. How shall these things be reconciled?

(a) Gen. 17 20. 21.

(b) Rom 4. 16.

(c) Gal. 3. 29.

(d) Gal. 3. 16.

These Scriptures seemingly opposite, may be clearly reconciled, and the harmonious agreement of them evidenced, by considering How and in what sort God established his Covenant with Abrahams seed. I offer it in these few Particular Positions. viz.

1. God established his Covenant with Abrahams seed as with one, and not as with many. I grant that Abrahams Covenant-seed was in it self manifold, viz. Natural Jews, believing Jews, believing Gentiles, and Christ: as hath been distinguished. Yet with these God established his Covenant, not in the notion of multiplicity, but in the notion of unity: not as they were many Seeds; but as they were all one seed. (e) To Abraham and his Seed were the Promises made. He saith not, And to Seeds, as of many: but as of one, And to thy Seed.

(e) Gal. 3. 16.

2. This one Seed of Abraham to whom God made his Promises, and with whom he stablished his Covenant, was onely CHRIST. (f) He saith not, And to Seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy Seed, which is Christ. Here under the word CHRIST, The Apostle comprehends all Abrahams Covenant-seed, to whom the foederal Promises were made: viz. both believing Jews, believing Gentiles, and the Lord Jesus himself. All these are but One Christ, and God looked upon them all as One Christ, when he established his Covenant with them. This is a Mystery which very few do aright observe. Yet it need not seem strange to us, if we intentively consider, 1. That Christ the last Adam recollects and gathers together in one all things, as the first Adam broke, scattered and dissipated all things. (g) That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are in earth, even in him. Here the Greek word (ἀνακεφαλαιώσασθαι) translated, might-gather-together-in-one; is very Emphaticall. And hath as (h) Beza notes, notes, a double Etymon. One as it alludes to the word κεφαλὴ, An head, and so it signifies, To-recollect-to-one-head; that is, to Christ the Son of God, Head of the Church. The other, as it hath respect to the word κεφάλαιον, which denotes A brief collection of many parts into one whole. As when an Oratour recapitulates briefly his Arguments: or as an Arithmetician, brings many sums into one Totall. Thus the whole Church of believing Jews and believing Gentiles, are recollected as it were into one Mass, and digested into one Body under and with Christ the Head. 2. Christ and this Church do coalesce and grow together in one. 2. That, this recollection of the Church in Christ, and union thereof to Christ, is so neer and intimate, that both Head and body are expressed under this one Word CHRIST. (i) For as the body is one, and hath many members; and all the members of that one body being many, are one body: So also is Christ. Here the word Christ is a collective term, and comprehends both head and body: The head and body are one Christ. Hence, The Church, which is his Body, is called (k) The fulness of him that filleth all in all. And hence, (l) Jew and Greek, bond and free, male and female are said to be all one in Christ. In like manner the word Christ, is a collective term, in that phrase; (m) But as of one, And to thy Seed which is Christ. And it comprehends (as Mr. Perkins hath rightly noted) First and principally Jesus Christ the Mediator and Head of his Church: and then secondly all Jews and Gentiles believing, that are set and grafted into Christ by their faith. 3. That since the fall, none are or can be accepted of God, but as they are in Christ, and one with him; either Intentionally by eternall (n) Election, or Actually by effectuall (o) Vocation. Jesus Christ is (p) the son of Gods love, infinitely dear to the Father for his own sake. (q) This is my beloved son in whom I am well pleased. And all that are Christs, become accepted of God, and are dear unto him, onely in Christ, and for Christs sake. (r) He hath made us accepted in the beloved. Whilest therefore we are without Christ, God looks upon us as (s) enemies, not as friends: As (t) abhorred and abominable, not as acceptable: and as strangers from the Covenants of Promise, not as Parties to Gods Covenant. (u) That at that time ye were without Christ, aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the Covenants of Promise.

3. This CHRIST, the seed of Abraham, with whom God established his Covenant and Promises, is Primarily Jesus Christ the Mediator and Head of the Church; Secondarily all Jews and Gentiles incorporated into him, as his mysticall body by believing. First God establishes his Covenant and Promises on Christ the last Adam; He is the Foundation and Complement thereof: (x) For in him all the promises of God are Yea, and they are in him Amen. (Of the blessed transaction betwixt God the Father and Jesus Christ in this respect, hath (y) formerly been treated at large.) Then, in Christ he establisheth his Covenant on them that are Christs, for his sake, whether they be

Nor can there be one instance given in all the holy Scripture, that God did ever cast off and forsake any of the Seed of the Faithfull from Generation to Generation, till first they cast God, Christ, and Covenant off by unbelief. (c) As for me, this is my Covenant with them, saith the LORD, My Spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seeds seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

Thus and in this sort God established his Covenant with Abrahams Seed.

IIII. Why hath God thus extended his Covenant not onely to Abraham, but to his seed also? I answer; God established his Covenant with Abrahams Seed, as well as with Abraham himself:

1. From the superabundant riches of his Grace, love, and bounty to Abraham. Abraham was very dear to God, and precious in his sight, and was peculiarly stiled, (d) The Friend of God. The Lord honoured him with many blessings, and priviledges. And so great was his kindness to him, that it was not confined and limited onely to Abrahams Person, but overflowed also even to Abrahams posterity. Love is most liberall and bountifull to dear friends; our love and kindness to such reacheth forth also even to their children for their sakes: Gods Love is most liberall, it is liberality and bounty it self, and thereupon he admitts not onely Abraham, but his Seed into Covenant with him. Gods jealousie or Zeal is infinite: There's the (e) Zeal of his wrath, and the Zeal of his love. In the (f) Zeal of his Wrath he punisheth the iniquity of the Fathers upon the children, to the third and fourth generation of them that hate him: But in the Zeal of his love he sheweth mercy to thousands of generations of them that love, and obey him.

(e) Zelus indignantis, Zelus amantis.
(f) Deut. 5. 9, 10. Jer. 32. 18.

2. For his own special honour and Glory. In this and every Dispensation of the Covenant of Faith the LORD singularly intended his own Glory. It is an honour to Masters of Families, Nobles, and Princes, that they have many Servants, many Subjects: and those not facti, made such, but nati, born such. This was part of Abrahams honour, (g) that he had 318. trained servants born in his own house. And this was part of K. Solomons visible Glory, that he had had not onely ſubjects born in his own kingdom, but alſo (h) ſervants born in his own Houſe. And it were a great reproach and indignity to any Prince, to have any perſons born in his Kingdom, to which, not himſelf, but a forraign Prince, yea an enemy, hath legall and viſible claim, and can challenge them as his Subjects. In like ſort the LORD God for his own Glory did not onely take Abraham, but all his Seed in Iſaac into Covenant with himſelf. All that ſhall be born of them, ſhall viſibly be at leaſt his Covenant-people by their very Birth, and ſhall have the viſible token of his Covenant upon them. So that though Gods grand Enemy Satan hath viſibly all without the Church as his Subjects and vaſſals: Yet ſhall he not lay viſible claim to any of the children of thoſe that are the Covenant-people of the Moſt-high.

(h) Eccleſ. 2. 7.

3. Becauſe Sundry of the Benefits and Mercies which God Covenanted and promiſed to Abraham, were not to be performed actually to Abrahams perſon, but to his Seed: therefore God Covenanted both with Abraham and his Seed. Thus God Covenanted (i) to bring Abrahams Seed out of Egypt after 400. years ſervitude, and that they ſhould come out with great ſubſtance. (k) To make his ſeed as the duſt, and as the ſtarres for multitude. And, (l) To give unto them all the Land of Canaan for their inheritance. All theſe Benefits were to be performed long after Abrahams Death: therefore God Covenanted them to his Seed, as well as to himſelf.

4. Becauſe Ieſus Chriſt, in and upon whom Gods Covenant and Promiſes were chiefly bottomed, founded, and eſtabliſhed, (m) was to deſcend of Abraham according to the fleſh, as Abrahams Eminent Seed, as his Seed of Seeds, in whom all the Nations of the earth ſhould be bleſſed. Hereupon God extends his Covenant to Abrahams Seed, therein having principal reſpect to Chriſt the bleſſed Seed, the glory of Abrahams houſe, the Center of the Covenant, and the Pillar of all the Promiſes.

V. Corollaries or Inferences hence are divers. Did God eſtabliſh his Covenant not onely with Abraham, but alſo with his Seed after him in their Generations? Then

I. All Abrahams Seed were joint Parties with Abraham in this Covenant which God eſtabliſhed with him. God was the Party Promiſing, on the one hand: Abraham and all his Seed were the joynt-Party Reſtipulating, on the other hand. Theſe were the Fœderate Parties to this Covenant.

But how, and in what particular Notion, were God, Abraham, and his Seed, the Fœderates or parties to this Covenant? I anſwer; In this Notion eſpecially, viz.

1. God Covenanted with Abraham as an אל שדי (n) An Almighty, or All-ſufficient God; As an All-ſufficient Fountain of Benediction, and Protection, and Remuneration; Promiſing eminently to (o) bleſs Abraham and all the Nations of the earth in him; being alſo his ſhield and exceeding great Reward, &c. And the LORD told Moſes, that he be revealed himself in this Notion, and by this Name of God Almighty, or God Allsufficient to Abraham, and to his Seed. (p) I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty: but by my name IEHOVAH was I not known to them. And I have also established my Covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, &c. that is, I dealt with Abraham and his Seed by Covenant as an Almighty God, able to do enough for them, and promising Canaan and other benefits, but I dealt not with them as IEHOVAH, giving actual being and Subsistence to my Promises, I performed not my Promises to them. That I reserved for this time, and for this Generation.

(p) Exod. 6. 2. 3. 4.

2. Abraham received Gods Covenant and promises, restipulating with God; 1. Not only as a Type of Christ the true (q) father of the faithful; 2. Nor only as an Example to his Seed, who should walk in the imitable (r) steps of his Faith and Obedience 3. But as an Ordinance for conveyance of the same Covenant to all the Confederates with God therein. That so all who should receive this Covenant from God in Christ afterwards, must also draw and derive it by Faith through Abraham, to whom the promise was made. To this effect God said to him; (s) Behold my Covenant is with thee: and thou shalt be a father of many Nations. Whereupon the Apostle stiles him (t) the father of all the Faithful. (In what sense, shall after be declared in opening the Matter of this Covenant.) And (u) all the faithful are called and counted the children of Abraham, and the Covenant-seed of Abraham.

3. The Seed of Abraham are also taken with Abraham into Covenant with God, as the Seed of Abraham come under the Notion of CHRIST. (x) To Abraham, and his Seed were the Promises made. He saith not, And to Seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy Seed, which is Christ. Here, this word CHRIST is a Collective word, and signifies both Head and Body with all the members. Gods Covenant then was made with Abrahams Seed, as they were one Christ, viz. 1. With Abraham's Eminent seed, Jesus Christ the Mediatour: The true root, stock, Head, and elder brother of all Abrahams Seed. To and with him was Gods Covenant and Promises chiefly and principally made. To Jesus Christ I say, (y) Not only as Maker and Contriver of the Covenant and Promises together with the Father, (z) All the works of the Trinity without, being individed, and belonging to all the three Persons. (a) Nor only as the Meritor of Gods Covenant and Promises, by satisfying of divine wrath for the breach of the first Covenant, the Covenant of works. (b) Nor only as Ratifier of Gods Covenant & Promises by his own death and blood. (c) Nor only as having the chief part and principal interest in the Covenant and Promises, as the Eminent-Seed of Abraham, and head of the Church. (d) But also as the very Magazine, Common Receptacle, and publique Treasurer of all Gods Promises for his Church, for the whole Seed of Abraham. For, (e) all the Promises of God in him are yea, and Amen, to the glory of God. So that, as all that went down into Egypt for corn, were to go to Joseph for it, who was the Treasurer of the Corn: So all that want Gods Covenant and promises, and the Comforts thereof, must go to Christ, the Lord-Treasurer of all Gods Promises. II. With Abrahams invisible spiritual Seed, viz. all true (a) believers, whether Jews or Gentiles. These all are Abraham's Covenant-Seed. And these only in Christ partake the Inward spiritual saving benefits and efficacy of Gods Covenant, together with the Outward Administration. For all these are invisibly and spiritually (b) one with Christ by true Faith: and so true coheirs with Christ. III. Lastly, Gods Covenant was made also with Abraham's visible and formal Seed, whether Jews or Gentiles, that had a visible Relation to Abraham. As, 1. With all the whole (c) Nation and body of the Jews, descending of Isaac, Jews by birth, and Circumcised in flesh; though many of them were not Jews indeed, and circumcised in Heart. 2. With all (d) Proselytes that visibly joyned themselves to Abraham's Seed, professing his faith and Covenant, and receiving Circumcision, though in heart they remained uncircumcised. 3. With all (e) visible Christians, who profess Abraham's Faith, and adhere to the outward administration of Gods Covenant; though in heart they remain unbelievers. All these three sorts are taken in by Gods Covenant: but yet they share only in the visible and Outward, not in the invisible and inward benefits of the Covenant; Being only outward and visible members of Christ, the Head of the Covenant, by profession of Faith. These now are the Parties to this Covenant.

(e) 1 Cor. 7. 14.

II. Gods Covenant established with Abraham and with his Seed, is the Inheritance of Abraham and of his Seed. Gods Covenant was not made with Abraham alone, but with Abraham and his Seed. The Promises and Covenant were to him and to his heirs in Isaac. Therefore whatsoever they held of God by Covenant, they held in Fee, to them and theirs. It was not a Lease-hold, determinable at the end of so many years: nor a Copy-hold, to expire after four or five lives: but a Free-hold, and inheritance of the best Soccage Tenure. Abraham and his Seed in their generations had all entailed upon them; they yeilding and paying True Faith and Obedience as A Chief-Rent unto the LORD, the Supream Landlord and Proprietary of Heaven and Earth. And whatsoever Benefits, Emoluments, or Advantages were Comprized in Gods Covenant with Abraham, whether Temporals, Spirituals, or Eternals, both Abraham and his Seed had true right and title to them by Covenant, and might lay claim and challenge to them as their peculiar inheritance respectively; yea and all Abrahams Christian seed among the Gentiles, which now are, or hereafter shall be on Earth till Christs Second Coming, may proportionably challenge and claim the same Covenant-inheritance.

Oh how bountiful and liberal is the Lord in his Provisions and Dis-

Dispensations! He not only takes care for Abraham, but also for his Seed in their Generations. He provides for his people, and their posterity, from age to age. How happy in this regard are all Gods Covenant-people! They and theirs are provided for, by Gods Covenant. (f) Oh blessed is that people whose God is the LORD! Therefore O all ye Christians, and true believers, look into this Covenant of God with Abraham and his Seed, Consider well the rich benefits therein contained, Admire them, and Apply them. They belonged not only to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and the Jewish Seed: but to you, and to all believing Gentiles, and to your Seed to this day. (g) For, if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to the Promise. Therefore do you study this Covenant, and claim your right and part therein. It's your Covenant as well as Abrahams: they are your priviledges as well as his. For the Covenant was to Abraham's Seed, as well as to Abraham: And you, together with your children, are Abrahams Seed.

(g) Gal. 3. 27, 29.

For clearing this Sweet Covenant-Inheritance setled upon Abraham and his Seed in their Generations, And for preventing of certain doubts and scruples which may arise in the hearts of Abraham's Christian Seed touching this Inheritance; These three Questions had need to be resolved, viz. 1. What are the Hereditary Benefits and Priviledges of this Covenant-Inheritance? 2. Whether Abraham and all his Seed both among Jews and Gentiles had and have equal share in these Benefits and Priviledges? 3. To how many Generations of Abraham's Seed, whether among Jews or Gentiles, the benefits and priviledges of this Covenant-Inheritance may be extended? By Resolving of these Questions, we may see what God hath done for us in making us Abrahams Seed, and what we gain, as Abraham's Seed, from and by this Covenant of God with Abraham.

Quest. I. What are the Hereditary Benefits and Priviledges of this Covenant-Inheritance, setled on Abraham and his Seed?

Answ. These Benefits and Priviledges shall be more fully and purposely unfolded in Opening the Matter of this Covenant. At present therefore it shall suffice to give only a brief tast thereof more Generally. And they are these.

1. A Covenant-State and Condition. God accepting Abraham and his Seed in their Generations in an Everlasting Covenant with himself, brought Abraham and his Seed into a Covenant-State, and into a Covenant-Relation to God. This is the first fœderal Benefit in Order of Nature, and is as the ground and foundation of the rest: to be brought into a Covenant-State. We can claim nothing by Covenant, till we be first in Covenant-State: and then we may claim all things Covenanted. Abraham was in Covenant-State with God Actually, And Abraham's Seed virtually in him, assoon as God made this Covenant with Abraham, though as then none of his Seed were born, no (h) not Isaac himself, in whom

(h) Gen. 17. 7, 15, 16, 17, 19, 21.

(i) Gen. 21. 12.

(i) his Seed should be called. And all that become Abraham's seed Actually; they by becoming Abraham's Seed are instantly in Covenant-State, and that Actually also, from Generation to generation. This Covenant-State with God is an Eminent Priviledge, which Abraham left to his Seed; and his Seed to their succeeding posterity, whether Jews or Gentiles. For hence it is that God avoucheth them to be his special people, his peculiar people, and a peculiar treasure unto him above all the people of the Earth: and God accounts them Holy; An holy people; An holy Nation; A Kingdom of Priests, &c.

(k) Deut. 26. 18,19.

(k) The LORD hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, —— And to make thee high above all Nations which he hath made, in praise, and in name, and in honour, and that thou mayst be an holy people unto the LORD thy God.

(l) Deut. 7.6. & 14.2.

(l) Thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God: the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the Earth. ——

(m) Exod. 19. 5,6.

(m) Now therefore if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my Covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the Earth is mine. And ye shall be unto me a Kingdom of Priests, and an holy Nation. This is also the language of the New Testament touching Abraham's Seed, whether of Jews or Gentiles. The Apostle giving a reason why the Jews should again be called, saith;

(n) Rom. 11. 16.

(n) If the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. That is, Abraham and their fathers were holy, by Covenant: and so their children the Jews are with them holy by Covenant; and therefore after their blindness and unbelief, they shall again be taken in. Peter saith to the dispersed Jews, that became Christians;

(o) 1 Pet. 2. 5, 9,10.

(o) Ye are a chosen generation, a royal Priesthood, an holy Nation, a peculiar people, to shew forth the praises of him that hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained Mercy, but now have obtained mercy. And Paul saith to the believing Gentiles;

(p) 1 Cor. 7. 13,14.

(p) The unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean, but now are they holy. In all which places we are not to understand by Holiness, A qualitative holiness of Person: but a Relative holiness of kind, which some call Federal holiness, because by vertue of Gods Covenant it is derived and propagated from parents to posterity, from Abraham to all his Seed. This is an high priviledge and a discriminating Mercy, viz. A Covenant-State.

2. Covenant-Promises of both Corporal and Spiritual blessings. Assoon as any were (nati aut facti) born or made Abraham's Seed, they were ipso facto thereupon instantly in Covenant-State: And being in Covenant-State, all the Covenant-Promises with the blessings promised were theirs, as well as Abraham's. The Covenant-Promises to Abraham and his Seed, were chiefly these viz. Of 1. Multiplying (q) his Seed, and making of him a great Nation.

(q) Gen. 13. 16 & 15.5. & 22.17.

tion. 2. Divine (r) Benediction of him. 3. The (f) Magnifying of his Name. 4. Making him a Blessing to posterity. 5. Divine Benediction upon his Blessers. 6. Divine Malediction upon his Cursers. 7. Divine (t) protection of Abraham. 8. Divine Remuneration of him. 9. The (u) giving of all the land of Canaan to his Seed for an everlasting inheritance. 10. The Making Abraham (x) a Father of many Nations. 11. Constituting Abraham and his Seed, (y) heirs of the world. 12. Descent of (z) Kings from Abraham. 13. Victoriousness of Abrahams Seed. (a) Thy Seed shall possess the gates of his enemies. 14. The LORD's (b) being A God to him and his Seed after him. 15. Finally, (c) The Blessing of all the Nations and Families of the Earth in Abraham and in his Seed. These are the Principal Covenant-Promises made expresly to Abraham and his Seed: under which many others are tacitly and consequentially implyed. And to these and every of these, Abraham and his seed may lay claim, by vertue of this Covenant, as to their inheritance.

3. A Covenant-inauguration, whereby (d) Abraham and his Seed were solemnly installed and established in this Covenant-state, and in these Covenant-Promises. viz. By the Sacramental (e) Token, (f) Seal and (g) Covenant of Circumcision. God was not contented only to plant Abraham and his Seed in a Covenant-State, and to crown them with great and precious Covenant-Promises: But he will also have them visibly and solemnly installed thereinto by the Sacrament of Circumcision. By this Circumcision he would Confirm their Faith touching all the Priviledges promised on Gods part; Engage their Obedience in all the Duties restipulated on their part; Characterize them out as his peculiar Covenant-people, discriminating them from all other people in the world. So great account God made of Abraham and his Seed: That both he and his Seed must be installed and initiated by Circumcision. Yea every male-child of theirs of eight days old must be circumcised. The Infant-babes must have this Covenant-badge: they being in Covenant with their Parents. This honor and favour God put upon Abraham's Seed. And both his Jewish, and Christian Seed, and with them their infants share therein. As Abrahams Jewish Seed and their Infants were to be Circumcised: So Abrahams Christian Seed and their Infants are to be Baptized. For, 1. The New-Covenant under which Abraham's Christian Seed are, is for Substance one and the same with this Covenant under, which Abrahams Jewish Seed were. Therefore as infants of his Jewish Seed were Circumcised: so infants of his Christian Seed should be baptized. 2. The infants of Abrahams Christian Seed (h) are in Covenant with their parents now: as well as the infants of Abraham's Jewish Seed were in Covenant with their parents then. If therefore Jewish infants were to be Sacramentally initiated, because they were within Covenant, Consequently Christian infants are to be Sacramentally installed, because they are within Covenant.

nant. And this is (i) Peters Argument for Baptizing of the children of both believing Iews and Gentiles. 3. This Sacramental inauguration of the infants of Abraham's Seed (k) God eſtabliſhed and Commanded under the Old Teſtament, and hath never forbidden it under the New Teſtament: therefore though the Sacrament be changed, yet the Sacramental inauguration and viſible admiſſion of the infants of Abraham's Seed into the body of the Church, is ſtill to be continued. 4. Baptiſm hath Succeeded in the room and ſtead of Circumciſion, as the Apoſtle clearly teſtifies. (l) Ye are compleat in him, which is the Head of all principality and power. In whom alſo ye are circumciſed with the Circumciſion made without hands, in putting off the body of the Sins of the fleſh, by the Circumciſion of Chriſt: being buried with him in Baptiſm, wherein alſo you are riſen with him, &c. Here the Apoſtle diſſwades his Coloſſians from the Iewiſh Circumciſion; Partly, becauſe they have now a better Circumciſion, even Chriſts Circumciſion made without hands, the Spiritual putting off of the ſins of the fleſh. The type was now fulfilled and accompliſhed in Chriſt, and therefore was to vaniſh away. Partly becauſe in Chriſt they had now obtained a new initiating Sacrament, viz. Baptiſm, more clearly ſignifying the ſame putting off, and mortification of Sin that Circumciſion did: and therefore ſucceeding in its ſtead. Hence conſequently as the infants of Abraham's Iewiſh Seed were to be Circumciſed: ſo the Infants of Abraham's Chriſtian Seed are to be baptized. 5. The Fœderal Grace and Priviledges of Abraham's Chriſtian Seed under the New Teſtament are as large and larger then thoſe of Abraham's Jewiſh Seed under the Old Teſtament: therefore if the infants of his Jewiſh Seed were Circumciſed then, much more the infants of his Chriſtian Seed ſhould be baptized now. Nor parents, nor their infants, have loſt, but gained, by becoming Chriſtians. 6. The infants of Abraham's Chriſtian Seed now, are every way as Capable of Baptiſm; As the infants of Abraham's Jewiſh Seed then, could be capable of Circumciſion. Neither of them had Actual Faith, Actual repentance, or actual underſtanding of Chriſt, Covenant, Sacrament, or of any divine myſterie: both of them were meerly paſſive in this Adminiſtration. And as the one ſort were only ſenſible of the ſharpneſs of the Knife: So the other ſort were only ſenſible of the coldneſs of the water. 7. No Objection can be made againſt the baptizing of the infants of Abraham's Chriſtian Seed: but the ſame Objections will militate and may be urged as ſtrongly every way againſt the Circumciſing of the infants of Abraham's Jewiſh Seed.

But enough of this Subject. For herein I intend not a Polemical diſputation, but only a Conſolatory argumentation for clearing theſe Fœderal Priviledges, viz. A Covenant-State, Covenant-Promiſes, and Covenant-inauguration, as the Comfortable inheritance of Abraham and his Seed, whether Iewiſh or Chriſtian, by vertue of this Covenant.

Thus of the firſt Queſtion. Queſt.

Quest. II. Whether Abraham and his Seed both among Jews and Gentiles had and have equal share in all these Covenant-Benefits and Priviledges?

Answ. This Question may be resolved 1. More Generally. 2. More Particularly: and both very briefly.

1. More Generally, thus. If we Consider Abraham, and his Seed; whether Primary, Jesus Christ; or Secondary, his Iewish, or Christian Seed; whether really, or apparently such: we may resolve, That Abraham and his Seed being joynt-Parties to the Covenant, are joynt-sharers in the Covenant and Covenanted Priviledges, yet are they not equally and all alike sharers in all and singular those Priviledges Covenanted, forasmuch as they are not all alike interessed in the Covenant. For Abraham was as a publike Ordinance from whom in Christ the Covenant and its benefits were to be convey'd to his Seed. Christ was the Primary and most Eminent Seed, (m) on whom the Covenant and the priviledges thereof were founded and setled for all the other Seed. Iews were concern'd in the Covenant, as Abrahams Natural Seed: Christians, as Abraham's Spiritual Seed. The Real Seed of Abraham indeed, whether Iewish or Christian, had not only a visible, but an invisible and saving interest in the Covenant: The apparent and visible Seed of Abraham, that were his Seed by meer outward Profession, had and have only a visible interest in the Covenant. And therefore all these do not equally share in all the Covenant-priviledges: but differently and respectively according to their several Covenant-interests and fœderal capacities.

(m) 2 Cor. 1. 20. Gal. 3. 16.

2. More Particularly, thus.

(1) Some of these Covenant-Priviledges tend to, and terminate in, Jesus Christ alone the Head of the Covenant, as only accomplishable in him. As, those promises (n) In thee shall all families of the Earth be blessed. (o) All the Nations of the Earth shall be blessed in him. (p) And in thy Seed shall all the Nations of the Earth be blessed. These Promises were directed to Abraham: but only (q) fulfilled in Abrahams Primary Seed, Jesus Christ, as the New Testament abundantly witnesseth.

(n) Gen. 12. 3. (o) Gen. 18. 18. (p) Gen. 22. 18. (q) Luk. 1. 54, 55. Act. 3. 25, 26. Gal. 3. 13, 14.

(2) Some of these Covenant-Priviledges seem peculiarly applicable to Abraham. As, (r) The Eminency and greatness of his Name: That he should be a blessing: That he should be a Father of many Nations, &c.

(r) Gen. 12. 2. & 17. 5, 6. Rom. 4. 16.

(3) Some of these Priviledges belonged more especially to Abrahams Iewish Seed, and not to his Christian Seed. As, (s) The inheritance of Canaan. The Token of Circumcision.

(s) Gen. 15. 18, 19, 20, 21. & 17. 8, 10, 15.

(4) Some of these Priviledges belonged both to Abraham, and to Abrahm's Iewish and Christian Seed. As, all the Temporals of Common Concernment; (t) Divine Benediction, Protection, Remuneration, &c. And all the Spirituals, As (u) The LORD's being a God to them; The blessing in Iesus Christ, &c.

(t) Gen. 12. 2, 3. & 15. 1. (u) Gen. 17. 7, 8. & 12. 3. & 18. 18. & 22. 18.

(5) Fi-

(5) Finally, The Outside, the visible advantage only of the Covenant-State, Covenant-Promises, Covenant-inauguration, and other Covenant-Administrations, belong to the meer visible Seed of Abraham, that are his meerly by Profession: But the Inside, the Invisible advantages and saving efficacy of all these, as well as the Outside, belong to the true believing and gracious Seed of Abraham, whether Iewish, or Christian, respectively. Thus of the second Question.

Quest. III. Seeing God established his Covenant with Abraham, and his Seed after him, in their Generations: To how many Generations of Abraham's Seed, whether Jewish or Christian, may this Covenant-Inheritance and the Benefits thereof be Scripturally extended?

Answ. This Covenant setled on Abraham and his Seed, is stiled, An Everlasting Covenant. (x) I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy Seed after thee, in their Generations, for an Everlasting Covenant, to be a God unto thee and to thy Seed after thee. And in reference to Isaac, God said; Thou shalt call his name Isaac: and I will establish my Covenant with him for an Everlasting Covenant, and with his Seed after him. Mary also, being conceived with Christ, said by the Spirit of God, (y) He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his Mercy, As he spake to our fathers, To Abraham, and to his Seed for ever. This Covenant-inheritance then, is everlasting, and for ever.

(x) Gen. 17. 7, 19.

(y) Luk. 1. 54, 55.

In Scripture these phrases, for ever, and Everlasting, are used variously. 1. Of the time past; denoting things ancient, that have been of old. As (z) The Boundary, or land-mark everlasting. (a) Years Everlasting. (b) Everlasting deserts. (c) Everlasting hils, &c. 2. Of time to come; signifying, (d) Sometimes that which never shall determine. As, (e) Everlasting torments. Everlasting life, &c. Thus conceive;

1. The Covenant-inheritance established on Abrahams Seed, is Everlasting in several regards or notions. 1. In regard of the saving Spiritual Benefits of it, it is Everlasting two wayes, viz. It is very Ancient. Hath continued hitherto from Abraham's time: yea and for Substance these Covenanted benefits have been (k) from Adam's Creation, Creation, within a few hours in all probability. And it shall be perpetuall, in as much as these saving benefits shall never determine or end either in this, or in the world to come. 2. In regard of the temporall benefits of it, it is everlasting: that is, long-lasting. The Covenanted inheritance of Canaan was to continue to Abrahams Jewish Seed, till the times of the New Testament; and the Covenanted (l) Heirship of the world, (m) so far as for their good, is to continue to Abrahams Christian Seed, whether Gentiles or Jews that shall again be grafted in, till the end of this world. 3. In regard of the outward form of Administration of it, it is also everlasting, that is, It should be dispensed from Abrahams time, (n) till Christs coming in the flesh to save the world, by Circumcision, Sacrifices, &c. From Christs coming in the flesh, (o) till his second coming to judge the world, by New Testament Ordinances, the Word Preached, Baptism, The Lords Supper, &c.

2. The Covenant-inheritance may be extended to these Generations of Abrahams Seed, as followeth, and that according to Scripture.

(1) To Abrahams Seed Collectively considered, as comprehending his whole Seed reall or apparent, both Jewish and Christian, the Covenant-Inheritance both in respect of its outward and visible Dispensation, and of its inward invisible and saving Efficacy, shall be extended till the end of the world. For, Abrahams Seed shall so long continue on earth without utter interruption. His (p) Jewish Seed till Christ. His Christian Seed among the Gentiles, (q) till the Jews calling to Christianity: Thence his Christian Seed both of Gentiles and Jews till the worlds end. So that of one, or the other, or of both, Abrahams Seed will continue, and the Covenant-Inheritance consequently to his Seed, while this world shall continue.

(q) Rom. 11. 25, 26.

(2) To Abrahams Seed distributively considered as Jewish, The Covenant-Inheritance both Temporall, as of Canaan, &c. and Spirituall, was extended to all generations till Christs coming in the flesh without interruption. viz. For fourty two generations, according to Christs legall and Kingly line, as (r) Matthew computes it: but for fifty four generations inclusively, according to Christs Naturall Line, as (s) Luke recites it. The (t) Covenant-Inheritance being principally settled on Christ, Abrahams Eminent Seed, (u) Heir of all things; and Christ with his saving Benefits being the (x) chief of all the Covenanted blessings: Abrahams naturall Seed must needs be continued in Covenant till Jesus Christ was revealed in the flesh.

(3) To Abrahams Seed distributively considered as Christian, both reall and apparent, whether Gentilish or Jewish, The Covenant-Inheritance both Spirituall and Temporall, so far as good for them, shall be extended from the Conversion of the Gentiles, and calling of the Iews, respectively to the end of the world. For, (y) till the end of the world Abrahams Christian Seed of Gentiles or Jews, or both, shall continue: and consequently the Inheritance of the Covenant.

(4) To Abrahams Seed more singularly considerd, (1) As onely apparent, Or (2) As Reall; The Covenant-inheritance is differently to be extended in respect of their Generations. 1. To his Seed onely apparent by Profession of Abrahams Faith: The Covenant Inheritance shall be extended in respect of the Outward Dispensation in this world onely, for so many Generations as continue in the visible profession of true Faith, and owning of Gods Covenant. Hereby they shall in this world not onely enjoy many Temporall Benefits Covenanted, but also partake of all the visible Ordinances and Priviledges Spirituall. But they shall have no part of the Covenanted-inheritance for the world to come. 2. To his Seed Reall by Truth of Faith. The Covenant-Inheritance both in Temporalls and Spiritualls shall be extended for so many generations as succesively follow one another in the Truth of Faith, in this world, and in Eternalls, to them all in the world to come. And though saving grace be not derived by Naturall Propagation, but by supernaturall regeneration: yet usually God is pleased to honour truly gracious and godly parents with a godly Seed, with a gracious posterity, for many generations together; As both Scriptures and Experience do abundantly testifie. The (z) Elect Lady, had of her children walking in the Truth. There's two generations pious. And Paul said to Timothy, (a) I call to remembrance the unfained Faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am perswaded that in thee also. There's three generations pious and truly believing. Christ said to the unbelieving Jews; (b) Ye shall see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the Kingdom of God. And (c) Joseph (besides others of his godly brethren the Patriarchs,) feared God. There's four generations truly pious. But why do I instance in such small numbers? It is piously believed (nor can there any cogent reason from Scripture be alledged to the contrary) that all the Generations in the direct Naturall line of Christ, not onely from David till Christ, nor onely from Abraham till Christ, but even from Adam till Christ, (d) which were about 74 generations, were truly godly, believed in Christ, and were saved by him. And surely the posterity descending of pious parents in Covenant with God, are in Gods onely ordinary way of true Grace, and eternall Salvation: being by their Fœderall state Partakers both of Gods publick Ordinances, and fœderal Administrations; and also of their Parents godly nurture, example and education. O how happy a priviledge it is to descend of such Parents! And what hopefull thoughts should we have of such Parents children, that first or last they shall be partakers of the saving Efficacy and Grace of the Covenant!

Thus, Gods Covenant established with Abraham and his Seed, is the Inheritance of Abraham and his Seed.

III. See-

III. Seeing Gods Covenant was not onely established with Abraham, but with his Seed, They that can make it appear to themselves that they are Abrahams Seed, may conclude, that Gods Covenant with Abraham, with all the benefits thereof of common concernment, are theirs as well as A-braham's. As, That God is their God, as well as Abrahams God; That they are blessed in Christ, as well as Abraham; That they are heirs of the world, as well as Abraham, &c. And all Abrahams true Christian Seed may challenge this Priviledge, as well as any of Abrahams Jewish Seed. This greatly concerns us Gentiles. Let us search and try whether we be Abrahams Seed indeed, his Spirituall Seed: And if so, Gods Covenant with Abraham is with us; The God of Abraham is our God; The Saviour of Abraham is our Saviour; The Blessing of Abraham is our Blessing; the Inheritance of Abraham is our Inheritance; all's ours.

But how may we know that we are Abrahams Spirituall Seed, that we are Abrahams children?

Answ. We may discern our selves to be Abrahams children; 1. By our being Christs. 2. By our walking in the steps of Abrahams Faith. 3. By doing the works of Abraham.

1. By our being Christs. So the Apostle argues; (e) And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to the Promise. Christ is the Eminent Seed of Abraham above all other, and all become Abrahams Seed, by becoming (f) one with Christ Spiritually. Are we Christs? Are we one with him? It is not enough that we are Christs nominally, having the names of Christians; that we are Christs formally, having onely a form or profession of Christianity; or that we are with Agrippa, almost Christians, Almost Christs: for all this may be, and yet we remain altogether carnall, Christless, Covenantless; As to the saving interest in the Covenant. But we must be indeed and in Truth, really, sincerely, and altogether Christs, if we be Abrahams true Spirituall Seed, and heirs by Promise of Eternall Salvation.

Now hereby we may discover whether we be Christs or no. 1. Have we (g) Christs Spirit dwelling in us? 2. Are we new (h) Creatures? 3. Are we (i) one with Christ? 4. Have we (k) crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts? 5. Do we (l) walk after the Spirit, not after the flesh? These things will evidence, whether we be Christs. But these shall be more particularly explained in the IIII. Book, in opening the New-Covenant.

2. By our walking in the steps of Abrahams Faith: we may discover our selves to be Abrahams Seed. Abraham was the (m) Father of all them that believe, whether Jews or Gentiles, who walk in the steps of that Faith of Abraham. Consequently all the Believers are the Covenant-Seed, and children of Abraham. (n) Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him unto righteousness. Know ye therefore, that they which are of Faith, the same are the children of Abraham. Hereby therefore examine thy self. Hast thou Abrahams Faith? Dost thou as a childe walk in the steps of Father Abrahams Faith? Dost thou imitate Abraham in Believing?

(o) Rom. 4. 17, 18. Gen. 15. 5. and 12. 3. and 22. 18.

1. Abraham believed God, (o) that his eminent Seed Christ, (in whom his Spiritual Seed should be innumerable like the starres, and in whom all the Nations and families of the earth should be blessed) should be raised up according to the flesh, from his own dead body, and Sarahs dead womb. Christ in descending from Abraham, was typically raised from the Dead. Dost thou in like sort, imitating Abrahams Faith,

(p) Rom. 4. 24, 25.

(P) Believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification. As Abraham by that Act, so thou by this Act of Faith shalt be justified.

2. Abrahams Faith was bottomed on Gods Promise. This was the Objectum quo; The immediate Object of his Faith, whereby he was induced to believe God, concerning Christ: not any humane, but a Divine Record, Gods own Word of Promise. Therefore the Apostle saith, (q) He believed that he might become the Father of many Nations: according to that which was spoken, so shall thy Seed be. Is thy Faith thus bottomed upon Gods word of Promise, touching Christ, and not upon humane testimonies, or other insufficient foundations, that can breed onely Conjecture or Opinion, but not true Faith? Is thy Faith in God and Christ, according to that which is spoken by God in his written Word?

(q) Rom. 4. 18. Gen. 15. 5

3. Abraham believed Gods Promise of Christ, (r) against hope, in hope. Against hope of Nature, in hope of Gods Promise. Against hope, which course of Nature could afford: In hope, which Gods Power and Faithfull Promise did breed in him. God promised not onely to make him a Father of many children, but also (s) a Father of many Nations: that is, A Father of all the Nations of believing Gentiles, who in Jesus Christ should become his Seed, as well as of the Nation of the Jews. But the course of Nature contradicted all this. For (t) his body was now dead, and unfit for Naturall generation: and besides Sarahs barrenness, (u) it ceased to be with her after the manner of woman. How could Abraham, according to naturall probability, be Father of Isaac, and in him of one Nation of the Jews: or Father of Iesus Christ: and in him of the many Nations of believing Gentiles? Here were divers naturall causes of despair, none of hope; Yet Gods Promise, Truth and Power raised up his hope above Nature; and therefore he fully believed it. Canst thou thus against hope believe Gods Promise, (x) of pardoning thy sins, though many, hainous, fearfully aggravated, often reiterated: in hope of Gods infinite grace, mercy and faithfulness in his Promises, and of the infinite acceptableness of Christs death, & transcendency of his merit? Canst thou against hope believe that God (y) will subdue all thine iniquities, and cast them into the depths of the Sea: That God (z) will conquer all thy spirituall enemies, and tread even Satan himself under thy feet shortly: That God will supply thee with all necessary (a) Graces and consolations:

lations: That he will never ſuffer thee to want any good thing: and that he (b) will turn all things for good unto thee: and all this in hope of his immenſe goodneſs, faithfulneſs and Omnipotency? In thus doing thou notably treadeſt in the exemplary ſteps of Abrahams Faith.

(b) Rom. 8. 28.

4. Abraham conſidered not at all, but wholly ſleighted, neglected, overlooked all naturall impediments, obſtructions and lets to the performance of Gods Promiſes. (c) He conſidered not his own body now dead, when he was about 100. years old, neither yet the deadneſs of Sarahs womb. He looked upon Gods Power, not upon his own, or Sarahs weakneſs. He wholly eyed and minded Faiths encouragements, not at all its diſcouragements. Doſt thou thus act in believing, when thou haſt Gods Promiſe for any mercy Spirituall or corporall, though never ſo ſtrange or unlikely to be performed? Canſt thou eye God and his Promiſes, not conſidering any lets or impediments to the contrary? we are apt to pore upon difficulties, improbabilities and hindrances to the Promiſes performance: and this is one of the firſt ſteps to unbelief, incident not onely to the carnall, but alſo to Gods own people. When God by Eliſha (d) promiſed in the extremity of Samaria's ſiege & famine, extraordinary plenty on the morrow; A Lord on whoſe hand the king leaned, ſaid, If the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? Yea Gods dear Servants are prone to this failing: As (e) Sarah, when Iſaac was promiſed, conſidered her own and Abrahams age and infirmity, and doubted; So alſo (f) Moſes, when God promiſed fleſh for Iſrael for a whole moneth together; And (g) Zechariah, when God promiſed him John, who was ſtiled the Baptiſt. Theſe all, conſidering the Naturall impediments to the performance of the Promiſe, doubted of the Promiſe. But ſo far as we diſtruſtfully conſider ſuch impediments, we tread awry from the ſteps of Abrahams Faith: and therein we approve our ſelves not to be his children, though in other regards we may.

5. Abraham doubted not, (h) ſtaggered not at the Promiſe through unbelief: He diſputed not, queſtioned not the fidelity of the Promiſe. Do not thou doubt or ſtagger at Gods Promiſes through unbelief, that thou mayeſt be like Abraham. For though Faith and Doubting may meet in the ſame ſubject, in the ſame perſon, yet doubting is not of the Nature of Faith, but contrary and deſtructive to it.

(h) Rom. 4. 20.

6. Abraham being ſtrengthened in Faith gave glory to God glory. (i) But he was ſtrong (Gr. properly, he was ſtrengthened) in faith or giving glory to God. He was ſtrengthened in Faith by Divine grace, power, and by the Promiſes, which are as Props, yea as Cordials to a fainting Faith. And he gave glory to God: that is, he by believing, confeſſed and acknowledged the glory of Gods free grace, Truth and Power in making and performing his Promiſes. We give ſingular glory to God, when we believe him upon his word. Are we thus ſtrengthened in Faith! Do we thus give glory to God?

(i) Rom. 4. 20. ἐνεδυναμώθη τῇ πίστει.

7. Finally, Abraham was fully perſwaded of the ſufficiency of Gods Power for performance of his Promiſes againſt all improbabilities. (k) And being fully perſwaded, that what he had promiſed, he was able alſo to perform. The Truth of Gods Promiſes, and his power of performing, are the two eminent Pillars of Faith. We ſeldom ſtagger through unbelief at the Promiſes, but when we ſuſpect or call in Queſtion one of theſe. What made (l) Sarah, (m) Moſes, (n) Zechariah, ſtagger at Gods Promiſes: but their Queſtioning of Gods power? Abraham contrariwiſe divers times ſtabliſhed his Faith, by retaining a clear apprehenſion of the (o) ſufficiency of Gods power for performance. Are we clear in our thoughts of Gods Power? Are we fully perſwaded of Gods compleat ability to perform all his Promiſes? Then we tread in the ſteps of Abrahams Faith. Or rather do we not ſay; How can theſe things be? Can God give bread, can he furniſh a Table in the wilderneſs? &c. Do we not limit his power, by our weakneſs, by natural difficulties, improbabilities? &c. Thus did not Abraham.

3. By our doing the works of Abraham, we may diſcover whether we be the children of Abraham. Chriſt tells the wicked Jews, who ſought to kill him, that though they deſcended of Abraham after the fleſh, yet they were not Abrahams true Seed, but degenerate. (p) Jeſus ſaith unto them, if ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye ſeek to kill me, a man that hath told you the Truth, which I have heard of God: This did not Abraham. That is, They were Abrahams ſeed by naturall Propagation, not by Spiritual Imitation. But do we the works of Abraham, imitate we him therein; So ſhall we approve our ſelves to be Abrahams children.

(p) Joh. 8 39, 40.

But what were thoſe works of Abraham, wherein all his true Spirituall children are to imitate him? I anſwer, By the works of Abraham, we are eſpecially to underſtand the fruits or effects of Abrahams Faith; his Pious, Juſt, and Conſciencious works. viz.

1. His ready Obedience to Gods (q) call, contrary to all exceptions or objections that fleſh and blood; Carnall friends or Relations, might poſſibly ſuggeſt to the contrary. God calling him wrought faith in him: and Faith wrought this obedience in him, to Gods call. So that he not only forſook his Country, kindred and Fathers houſe: (r) but alſo his Idolatry, and ungodly ſtate. Do we thus hearken to Gods call, forſaking our carnall condition, our ſinfull courſe of life, following God, not conſulting with fleſh and blood? Or remain we not in our ſinfull Chaldea ſtill, unconverted, unwrought upon, by Gods many calls? Or if we have hearkened to Gods call, is it not meerly in outward Profeſſion, not at all in inward Alteration and renovation of our ſpirits?

2. His ſubmiſſion to, and compliance with Gods Ordinances, notwithſtanding all exceptions and reaſonings he might have had againſt them.

them. Thus when God (s) ordained and appointed both him and all his males, yea though but eight dayes old, to be Circumcised; he punctually submitted to the Ordinance of Circumcision. And yet he might have made many objections against it, as (t) Calvin well observes; Why must I be circumcised who have hitherto endeavoured to walk uprightly before the Lord? Why in mine old age, and not before? Shall I not hereby make my self a laughing stock to all the world? How shall my Family endure, hoc molestum & pudendum vulnus, this painfull and shamefull wound; and not rise up against me, and deride me? How shall my children of eight dayes old bear this pain, which may be with some hazard of life, &c. Thus he might have reasoned: but did not. He silences all cavils and disputes; he delayes not the duty, But he (u) Circumcised himself and his Family, the self-same day. Do we manifest like subjection to Gods Ordinances, without disputes and reasonings against them? Do we duely sanctifie his Sabbaths, Hear his word, Receive his Sacraments, Pray in Publick and Private, Obey them that are over us in the Lord, &c. as God hath ordained? Then we are right Abrahamites. But how many in these dayes, who count themselves children of Abraham, oppose and withstand, debase and cry down the Ordinances of God? Some cry down the Morality and Sanctification of the Sabbath; Some the Preaching of the Word publickly onely by Ministers in office; Some deny Baptism to the Covenant-Infants of Believers; Some sleight the Lords Supper as of no use or advantage to the Saints; Some decry the publick and private Singing of Psalms; Some deny Christs Church-Offers, and the honour due unto them; Some degrade and fling away the Scriptures and their Divine Authority; In a word, Some, to make compendious work, deny and reject all the Ordinances of Christ under the N. Testament, seeking for they know not what further, and higher Revelations. Heaven and Earth may stand amazed at this extremity of spirituall madness! Thus did not Abraham. These carnall and wretched practises against Gods Ordinances, will never prove their Authors to be children of Abraham.

3. His rejoycing to see Christs day by Faith. Christ said to the Jews; Your (x) Father Abraham rejoyced to see my day, and he saw it, and was glad. He saw Christs day, Christs Incarnation for the blessing of all Nations, in the Promises of the blessed Seed, and in the birth of Isaac typically by Faith. By this Spiritual Prospective, Abraham saw Christ afar off. Seeing him he rejoyced and was glad: he was double joyfull: His heart was singularly affected because Isaac was Abrahams Laughter; but Christ was Abrahams Joy. We by the New Testament See Christs Day, not as future, but as past already. Are we affected with joy and gladness thereat, like Abraham? Do our hearts and affections leap within us for joy, in reading the History of Christ crucified: in hearing the Mysterie of Christ crucified opened and made bare unto us? Are our hearts warm, do they burn within

4. His true and real brotherly-Love. He loved not only in word and in tongue: but in deed and in Truth. Lot, that righteous person, Abraham's Nephew and Brother; His Nephew by Natural, his Brother by Spiritual alliance: He was taken prisoner in the Battel of the four Kings against five. (a) Abraham hearing of his brothers Captivity, armed his 318 trained servants, and with the hazard of his life, pursued the Conquerours, and rescued Lot. Thus he discovered the integrity of his brotherly-love, in adventuring his life for his brother. Do we with like integrity and reality love the brethren, the righteous, the children of God? Can we (if need require) hazzard our selves for them? This John urgeth from Christs example; (b) Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. In what cases we should do this for the brethren; And also how we may discover the Truth of our brotherly-love: I have (c) elsewhere explained.

5. His religious care, nurture and Government of his family. Abraham was not only a good man: but also a good Master of a family. He not only took care to serve God during his time: but that his children and household after him should do it. God thus testified of him; (d) I know him, that he will command his children and household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgement. Here God gives a Reason why he would acquaint Abraham with his intended judgement against wicked Sodom and her Sister Cities; because Abraham would rightly improve this proceeding of Gods justice, for the good of his children and household after him; charging them to take heed of such Sins, so plagued, and to walk in the way of God with all righteousness. This the main intent of the words more generally. In particular here note; 1. The Act of Abraham's pious family-Government. He will command. Not only intreat, request, or allure by fair words and good example: but Command. He would command, as a Husband, as a Father, as a Master, all under him, with all Authority. 2. The Object of Abraham's Family-government; His children and household after him. Even all within his family. He would improve his Commands to them, that when he should sleep with his fathers, yet they might have true piety and religion still surviving in them. This duty God afterwards (e) imposed on Masters of Families under Old and New Testament. 3. The Subject-Matter of Abraham's Family-charge laid down, (1.) More Generally; That they should keep the way of the LORD, that is, The way of Gods true Religion: His way of Faith and Obedience, Love, Fear, &c. which he hath prescribed for his people to walk in. This in Scripture-sense is (f) the way of the LORD. (a) More particularly; To do justice and judgement. This is one of the wayes of the Lord; to walk righteously towards man in all acts of equity, giving to every one his due. Doing justice, seems to imply just and upright dealing and well-doing towards all, without injury, fraud, or wrong to any. Doing judgement, more peculiarly (thinks (g) Calvin) respects the poor, weak, miserable, and oppressed: when care is taken to assist, protect, succour and stand by them, in all just causes.

Do we herein as children imitate father Abraham in like religious care, nurture and government of our Families? Do we train up (h) our children and household in the way of the LORD, in the way of Christ: commanding them after us to keep that way? Are we careful to transmit true Religion to our posterity as their inheritance: that Christ may live in them, when we are dead? Thus did (i) Jacob, (k) Job, (l) Joshuah, (m) David, (n) The Centurion, with may other pious Housholders. Its the Character of Heathen-Families, that (o) they call not on the Lords name, they are strangers to this Family-Religion. But alas, How many among us herein degenerate from Abraham, never charging their children and household after them to keep the way of the LORD: never or seldom training them up in Reading and understanding the Scriptures, Catechising, Conference, Prayer, and other religious exercises. They are called Christians: but live as Pagans. Not God and Christ; but the Devil and Sin dwell and rule in such Families. (p) The very Indians in America lately converted to Christ, shall rise up in judgement against this generation and condemn them.

6. Finally, His Eminent and admirable act of Obedience to God, in (q) Sacrificing of Isaac in a sort for a burnt-offering. This was a stupendious undertaking indeed. What (r) Faith: What love of God: What (s) fear of the Lord: What Self-denial did shine forth in this obedient act! Behold, Abraham must kill, cut in pieces, and offer for a Burnt-offering, his own son, his only son Isaac; whom he long expected, whom he dearly loved; The son of his old age; The son of the Promise, In whom his Covenant-Seed should be called. How many reasonings and objections against this, might have risen up in Abraham's Heart? Must I kill and Sacrifice mine Isaac? How shall a fathers hand be imbrued in such a childs blood? What will Sarah say; how will she weep, wring her hands, and refuse to be comforted, when she shall know it? What will all the Enemies of God say, when they shall hear of this Fact? This is Abraham: This is his Religion; he hath murdered his own child. What will become of Gods Covenant and Promises? Shall I not, in killing, and Sacrificing Isaac, cut the throat of all the Promises? &c.

But no such thoughts could obstruct Abrahams Obedience. He lets not Sarah know any thing, lest she should hinder him; (t) He gets up early; He goes three dayes journey to the place appointed; He builds an Altar, orders the wood, binds Isaac, laies him on the Altar, stretched forth his hand and took the knife to slay his son; And he had actually slain him, had not Gods voyce from Heaven intercepted him. Oh Mirrour of Faith, Love, Fear, Obedience and Self-denial, towards God! when (u) Sarah desired him but to cast out the bondwoman and her son, it was very grievous in his sight: but when God Commands him to kill and Sacrifice his Isaac, Abraham never gainsaid or whimpered at it, but went about it readily. (x) This fact of Abraham, (as Augustine notes) God commanding it, was obedience: if God had not commanded it, what had it been else but madness? And as the same Augustine elsewhere hath it; (y) This was a new kind of Precept to man, To give a Law of wickedness: and to count him religious, if he will act that which was impious. Abraham, if he commits parricide, he is just: if not, he is indevote. —— Behold, betwixt the piety of a Father, and the devotion of God, To kill a son was wickedness, but not to obey God greater wickedness. Perfect righteousness is put in a strait. —— What is this? He commands child-killing, who forbids man-killing. He is commanded to sacrifice his son, the solace of his fathers old age, and the only pledge of posterity, who was so much sweeter, by how much he was later: and so much the dearer, as he was his only son. Yet Abraham had nothing too dear for God. He could offer up Isaac; he could do any thing at his command.

Can we proportionably at Gods Command, offer up our Isaac; part with, and (z) deny Father, Mother, Brethren, Sisters, Wife, Children, Lands, Livings, and whatsoever else is neer and deer unto us, yea our own liberties and lives (if called thereunto) for Christs sake and the Gospel? This will evidence us the obedient children of Obedient Abraham. Thus of this third Corollary.

IV. Was Gods Covenant established not only with Abraham, but also with his Seed in their Generations, as hath been explained? Then, what a strong Obligation and Engagement of Duty doth hereupon rest upon all Abraham's Covenant-Seed whether Jewish or Christian, both in respect of themselves, and of their Posterity?

1. In respect of themselves, To walk as those that are in Covenant with God, as well as blessed Abraham. To walk worthy of God, and of his Covenant in all well-pleasing. More particularly; 1. To be enlarged in thankfulness to God for the Covenant-Inherirance heritance and benefits, viz. Covenant-State, Covenant-Promises, and Covenant-Inauguration, conferred upon them. Especially when Thousands and Millions in the world remain utter strangers to Gods Covenant. 2. To love the Lord with endeared Fœderal affections, who hath of meer Grace and infinite Love accepted them in Fœderal Relation. 3. To perform faithfully all Fœderal Restipulations of Faith, Obedience, &c. to the Lord. 4. To devote and give up themselves entirely to God, in all they are, have, can do, or endure: seeing they are much more his then their own by this Fœderal transaction.

2. In respect of their Posterity and children after them, 1. To educate and bring them up, not to themselves, not to the world, not to sin and the Devil; but unto God, whose they are by Covenant, and to whose family, Church and Kingdom they peculiarly appertain. They are but as Nursing fathers, nursing mothers, Tutors and Guardians, to whom God hath committed those his Covenant-children of trust, to (a) bring them up in the Nurture and Admonition of the Lord. Therefore they should, like Abraham, (b) Command their children after them to keep the way of the Lord. 2. To instruct them especially in this saving mysterie of Gods Covenant in Jesus Christ. That they may know, both their Covenant-Priviledges assured to them; and their Covenant-duties to be performed by them, and by their Seed after them in their Generations.

(a) Ephes. 6. 4.

V. Finally, What singular Comfort may this afford to all Abraham's Seed, that the Covenant was established not only with Abraham, but his Seed in their Generations! For, Hereby God hath richly provided not only for them, but for their children after them, from generation to generation. They may fail and dye, leaving their children behind them. But however, they shall leave their children, at least visibly well provided for. God ever lives: His Covenant never fails. Upon this God they may cast them: under the wing of his care and Covenant they may shroud and shelter themselves and theirs. If themselves be Abraham's true Seed, though they cannot leave their children, Honours, Mannours, Lordships, Lands, Livings, Gold and Silver, &c. yet may they leave them exceeding great and precious promises, A rich and faithful Covenant, and an Al-sufficient God in Covenant, for their inheritance. And this is the best inheritance. Such shall not be beggers, if we may rely upon all Davids experience: (c) I have been young, and now am old: yet have I not seen the Righteous forsaken, nor his Seed begging bread. How sweet may this be to all such parents, as are the true children of Abraham, when they are on their Death beds, and their children lamenting about them! Thus they may say every one of them to their posterity; I am dying; I must now leave this world, and you my dear children in the world, you shall shortly have me to be no longer a father: but I leave you to a better Father. The God of Abraham, hath made me the Seed of Abraham, and accepted me in Cove- nant: and with me you all are accepted in the same Covenant. He can provide for you ten thousand times better then I can: His Covenant and the benefits thereof are your inheritance. Keep this Covenant inviolably by faith and obedience, do not discovenant your selves by unbelief or Apostacy: and you shall never want. Gods Covenant makes you ([d]) heirs of the world: will not that content you? ([e]) Heirs of Heaven: doth not that refresh you? What then shall I adde further? Gods Covenant assures you, That ([f]) Jesus Christ is yours; That the ([g]) Lord is your God; and therefore that ([h]) all things are yours: may not this ravish you? Farewel sweet children; This God, this Christ, this Covenant, bring you all to meet me in Heaven with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: Then, we shall meet together, and never part; we shall dwell together, and never be dispersed; we shall live together, and never dy; we shall see God and Jesus Christ together face to face, being ravished with that vision, and swallowed up with that fruition for ever and ever.

(c) Psal. 37. 25.

Aphorism III.

The Substance, or Matter of Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, consisted of many Eminent Mercies promised on Gods part to Abraham and his Seed; and of divers notable Duties required of them, and restipulated on their part to God.

Having viewed the Author of this Covenant, and the Fœderate Parties thereto, in the two former Aphorisms, In this we shall consider the Matter of this Covenant of God with Abraham and his Seed. The Matter of this Covenant is, 1. Eminent Mercies Promised on Gods part. 2. Notable duties required and restipulated on the part of Abraham and his Seed. In these two, the Substance, Marrow, and sweetness of Gods Covenant with Abraham is chiefly comprized. I shall unfold them at large in two distinct Sections.

Section I.

I. THE COVENANT-MERCIES PROMISED ON GOD's PART, to Abraham and his Seed, are many and those very Eminent. God promised them not all at once, but at seven several times and Occasions. And they are chiefly contained in these seven several Paragraphs of Scripture.

[1]) The

(1) The LORD had ſaid to Abraham, (i) Get thee out of thy Country, &c. And I will make of thee a Great Nation; And I will bleſs thee; And make thy name great; and thou ſhalt be a bleſſing. And I will bleſs them that bleſs thee; And curſe him that curſeth thee; And in thee ſhall families of the Earth be bleſſed. (i) Gen. 12. 1, 2, 3.

(2) And (k) the LORD appeared unto Abram, and ſaid; unto thy Seed will I give this land. (k) Gen. 12. 7.

(3) And (l) the LORD ſaid unto Abram, after that Lot was ſeparated from him; Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eaſtward, and Weſtward. For all the land which thou ſeeſt, to thee will I give it, and to thy Seed for ever. And I will make thy Seed as the duſt of the Earth: So that if a man can number the duſt of the Earth, then ſhall thy Seed alſo be numbred. Ariſe, walk thorough the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it: for I will give it unto thee. (l) Gen. 13. 14, 15, 16, 17.

(4) After (m) theſe things, the Word of the LORD came unto Abram in a viſion, ſaying; Fear not Abram, I am thy ſhield, and thine exceeding great reward. —— And behold, the Word of the LORD came unto him, ſaying, This ſhall not be thine heir, but he that ſhall come forth out of thine own bowels ſhall be thine heir. And he brought him forth abroad, and ſaid, Look now toward Heaven, and tell the Stars, if thou be able to number them: And he ſaid unto him; So ſhall thy Seed be. —— And he ſaid unto Abram, Know of a ſurety, That thy Seed ſhall be a ſtranger in a land that is not theirs, and ſhall ſerve them, and they ſhall afflict them 400 years: and alſo that Nation whom they ſhall ſerve, will I judge: and afterwards ſhall they come out with great Subſtance. And thou ſhalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou ſhalt be buried in a good old age. But in the fourth Generation they ſhall come hither again. —— In that ſame day the LORD made a Covenant with Abram, ſaying, Unto thy Seed have I given this land, from the river of Egypt, to the great river, the river Euphrates: the Kenites, &c. (m) Gen. 15, 1, 4, 5, 13. to the end of the chapter.

(5) And (n) when Abram was ninety years old and nine, The LORD appeared to Abram, and ſaid unto him; I am the Almighty God, walk before me, and be thou perfect. And I will make my Covenant between me and thee; and will multiply thee exceedingly. And Abram fell on his face: And God talked with him, ſaying; As for me, behold, my Covenant is with thee, And thou ſhalt be a father of many Nations: Neither ſhall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name ſhall be Abraham; for a father of many Nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceeding fruitful, And I will make Nations of thee; And Kings ſhall come out of thee. And I will eſtabliſh my Covenant between me, and thee, and thy Seed after thee in their Generations, for an Everlaſting Covenant: To be a God unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee. And I will give unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a ſtranger, all the land of Canaan, for an Everlaſting poſſeſſion; And I will be their God. —— And God ſaid to Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, thou ſhalt not call her name Sarai, (n) Gen. 17. 1, to 9. & ver. 15, 16, 19, 20, 21.

Sarai, but Sarah shall her name be. And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her, and she shall be a mother of Nations; Kings of people shall be of her. — And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a son indeed, and thou shalt call his name ISAAC: and I will establish my Covenant with him for an Everlasting Covenant, and with his Seed after him. — But my Covenant will I stablish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at this set time in the next year.

(o) Gen. 18. 10, 14, 17, 18, 19.

(6) And (o) he said; I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And a little after this Promise is again repeated. — And the LORD said, shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do; Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty Nation, and all the Nations of the Earth shall be blessed in him?

(p) Gen. 22. 15, 16, 17, 18.

(7) And (p) the Angel of the LORD called unto Abraham out of Heaven the second time, And said, By my self have I sworn, saith the LORD, for because thou hast done this thing, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son: That in blessing I will bless thee; And in Multiplying I will multiply thy Seed as the Stars of the Heaven, and as the Sand which is upon the Sea shore; And thy Seed shall possess the Gate of his Enemies; And in thy Seed shall all the Nations of the Earth be blessed, because thou hast obey'd my voice.

These are the Covenant-Mercies Promised on Gods part to Abraham and his Seed. And in this Order God published these Promises to Abraham, according as they are laid down in these seven Contexts, or Paragraphs of Scripture. Heres great Variety, and Eminency of Mercies indeed. Let's pause a while, and ponder upon them. Let's sit down a little upon the sweet Rose-beds of these Promises: and oh how fragrant and refreshing will they be to our Spiritual Senses! Come hither all ye the Seed of Abraham, view well these Mercies on every side; and let your Souls delight themselves therewith as with Marrow and fatness.

Now forasmuch as in these Scriptures the same Mercies for Substance are divers times repeated, and several wayes expressed; and seeing they are not meerly Temporal, nor purely Spiritual; but most of them of a mixt nature, under Temporals representing Spirituals: Therefore I shall not handle them in the Order wherein they are revealed, but for brevity and clearness sake reduce them to these distinct Heads following, viz. God by Covenant Promised to Abraham, 1. Divine Benediction. 2. An exceeding numerous Seed. 3. A mighty Name. 4. His Seeds victoriousness over their enemies. 5. The Inheritance of Canaan to him and to his Seed. 6. The closing up of his days in a good old age, in peace. 7. To be his Shield. 8. To be his exceeding great Reward. 9. To be a God to him, and to his Seed after him, by an Everlasting Covenant.

Or, we may thus marshal these Promised Mercies.

God Promised to Abraham,

1. What he will do for Abraham and his Seed. He will

1. Bless

1. Bleſs them.
2. Multiply him and his Seed exceedingly.
3. Make his name Great.
4. Make his Seed victorious.
5. Give them Canaan for an everlaſting poſſeſſion.
6. Cloſe up Abraham's days in a good old age in peace.

2. What he will be to Abraham, and his Seed. He will be
1. His Shield.
2. His exceeding Great Reward.
3. A God to him, and to his Seed after him, by an everlaſting Covenant.

All the Covenant-Mercies promiſed by God to Abraham, may be referred to theſe particulars, How bounteous was God, in Making ſuch Promiſes to Abraham! How bleſſed was Abraham in receiving ſuch Promiſes from God! All the Nations of the Earth, both Jews and Gentiles, ſhall fare the better for theſe Promiſes to Abraham, till the end of this world.

First, Of thoſe Covenant-Mercies which God will beſtow upon Abraham and his Seed, viz.

I. Divine Benediction, or, Gods Bleſſing of Abraham. This Mercy is the ſecond as it is related in the text: but I rank it firſt, becauſe in Order of Nature it is before all the reſt, yea the cauſe and foundation of all the reſt. Gods Bleſſing promiſed to Abraham is an Eminent and glorious Mercy: A well-head and fountain of Mercies. And it is laid down in four ſeveral Branches, or Degrees, viz. 1. That, God will bleſs Abraham, and Sarah his wife. 2. That, Abraham ſhall be a bleſſing. 3. That, God will bleſs his Bleſſers, and curſe his Curſers. 4. That, in Abraham and his Seed all the families and Nations of the Earth ſhall be bleſſed.

1. God promiſed To bleſs Abraham, and Sarah his wife. (q) The LORD hath ſaid to Abram, I will bleſs thee. Again, The Lord ſware he would bleſs him; (r) By my ſelf have I ſworn, (ſaith the LORD,) for becauſe thou haſt done this thing, and haſt not withheld thy ſon, thine only ſon: That in bleſſing I will bleſs thee, that is, I will certainly, undoubtedly bleſs thee, I will abundantly, plenteouſly bleſs thee; I will heap bleſſings upon thee. Yea, (ſ) And God ſaid to Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, —— I will bleſs her, and give thee a ſon of her; yea I will bleſs her, and ſhe ſhall be a Mother of Nations. Thus Gods Covenant with Abraham, brought Gods Bleſſing upon Abraham: and upon Sarai that was one fleſh with Abraham. And thoſe (t) whom God bleſſeth, ſhall be bleſſed indeed for ever. For clearing Gods bleſſing of Abraham, two Queſtions are to be reſolved. 1. What the Word [Bleſs] doth ſignifie? 2. Wherein God Bleſſed Abraham?

(q) Gen. 12. 1, 2.

(r) Gen. 22. 16, 17.

(ſ) Gen. 17. 15, 16.

(t) 1 Chron. 17. 10.

Queſt. 1. What the word [Bleſs] doth Signifie? Anſw. The Hebrew word ברך Barak ſignifies, (u) To bleſs, ſalute, offer a gift, Praiſe, Bow the Knee for honour ſake: or, as Mercerus in Pagnin notes,

(u) Pagnin. Theſaur. & Buxtorf. Lex. ad verb.

notes, Pleasantly to bend the knee or speech: as it were, To speak to one with bending the knee; as is used in Prayer, Salutations, Gratulations, Valedictions. The Greek word Εὐλογεῖν Eulogein, answering to this Hebrew word, signifies properly, To speak well of any person or thing. To Bless, in Scripture Phrase, is used chiefly in four severall senses. It signifies, I. To Praise, Commend, celebrate, give thanks, &c. with some confession or acknowledgement of excellency in, or Beneficence from that which we so bless. Thus we (x) bless God and his Name: when we extoll him, praise him, confess unto him his Excellencies or kindnesses. II. To wish well to any; or to pray for the welfare and good of any. Thus 1. Parents bless their children, and families: wishing and praying for all good to them. As, (y) Noah blessed Shem and Japhet: (z) Isaac blessed Jacob. (a) Jacob blessed his sons the twelve Patriarchs, and also the sons of Joseph. 2. Pastors and Ministers thus bless the flock of God and his people, wishing and praying for all good to them. As (b) Melchizedeck blessed Abraham. (c) Aaron and the Priests blessed the people by vertue and obligation of their office. 3. People in this sort bless, with their Prayers and well-wishes their friends and Benefactors. As (d) Iacob blessed Pharaoh, who had been kinde to his son Joseph, &c. (e) Rebecka's kindred blessed her. 4. Thus in a word we are to (f) bless our enemies that curse us and persecute us: we are to pray for them, &c. so shall we by imitation, be the children of our heavenly Father. III. To sanctifie, consecrate, or set apart to holy use. Thus (g) God blessed the seventh Day; that is, sanctified it. Thus Christ (h) blessed the Bread and Cup in the Lords Supper. IIII. Finally, To bless signifies To bestow gifts or blessings, To do good to any, &c. Thus Jesus Christ is said (i) to bless the Jews, by turning them away from their iniquities. And the Gentiles are said (k) to be blessed, by receiving the Promise of the Spirit through Faith. In this sense God is said often (l) to bless the Creatures, to bless his people; when of his bounty or free favour and Mercy, he bestows any blessings, benefits, or any manner of good things upon them. And thus here God blessed Abraham and Sarah by bestowing variety of Benefits and good things upon them. Dei benedicere, (saith (m) one) est benefacere. Gods blessing of us, is his well-doing to us. Men may wish and pray for all good to us, but are not able effectually to confer that good upon us: but actually and effectually God doth all good to us; This is Gods way of blessing.

Quest. 2. Wherein did God bless Abraham? Answ. Wherein did not God bless Abraham? What necessary Benefits and favours did God withhold from Abraham? For, I. God blessed Abraham with a confluence of Temporall Benefits and mercies heaped upon him. As, 1. Great riches, (n) Abram was very rich in cattell, in silver and in gold. Hereupon Abrahams servant expressed it very well; (o) The LORD hath blessed my Master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks and herds, and silver and gold, and Menservants, and Maidservants, and Camels and Asses. 2. Singular dignity and Honour.

(x) Psal. 100. 4. and 103. 1, 2, 20, 21, 22. and often in the Old Testament. Luk. 1. 68. and 2. 28. 1 Cor. 10. 14. 16.

(o) Gen. 24. 35.

Honour. Abraham was (p) a great man. The children of Heth, among whom he ſojourned, acknowledged this, ſaying, (q) Hear us, my Lord; Thou art a Mighty Prince amongſt us. Hebr. Thou art a Prince of God amongſt us. That is, An exceeding great and renowned Prince. And God promiſed him, (r) To make his Name great. 3. Proſperous ſucceſs in his affairs. That expedition of his for the reſcuing of his Nephew Lot, is a pregnant inſtance. For, (ſ) Abraham with 318. of his trained ſervants, purſued four Kings and their Armies, after they had ſubdued five Kings, and plundered Sodom and Gomorrah of all their goods and victuals, and among them had taken Lot and his goods. And Abraham ſcattered them, reſcued Lot and other Priſoners, and recovered all his goods, and the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah. 4. A numerous poſterity. God, not onely giving him (t) Iſhmael by Hagar the bondwoman, who begat twelve Princes, and became a great Nation; not onely giving him (u) other children by Keturah after Sarahs death: but alſo giving him (x) Iſaac by Sarah, when they were both paſt age of fruitfulneſs according to the courſe of Nature; (y) in which Iſaac, Abrahams Seed was called; of whom the Iewiſh Nation deſcended, and Chriſt according to the fleſh came, and (z) with whom Gods Covenant was eſtabliſhed. Herein God bleſſed Sarah as well as Abraham; For, (a) Through Faith Sarah her ſelf received ſtrength to conceive Seed, and was delivered of a childe when ſhe was paſt age, becauſe ſhe judged him faithfull who had promiſed. Therefore ſprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, ſo many as the ſtars of the skie in multitude, and as the ſand which is by the ſea ſhore innumerable. 5. All neceſſary outward Benefits. For, (b) The LORD bleſſed Abraham in all things. II. God bleſſed Abraham (c) with all Spirituall bleſſings in heavenly things in Chriſt, having eminently furniſhed him, 1. With Eminent (d) Faith. 2. With (e) Juſtification by Faith; God imputing his Believing to him for righteouſneſs. (ſ) And he believed in the LORD, (that is, Abraham believed in the LORD, promiſing him a Seed numerous like the ſtars, wherein God had principal reſpect unto Chriſt, in whom both Iews & Gentiles became Abrahams true Seed) and he, (viz. the LORD) imputed that to him unto righteouſneſs. This Juſtification by Faith is one of the great Myſteries intended to be revealed in this Fœderall Diſpenſation, moſt neceſſary to Salvation. Of this I ſhall hereafter ſpeak at large in Aphoriſm V. of this Chapter, touching the end and Scope of this Covenant-Expreſſure. 3. With admirable (f) Hope. 4. With Singular (g) Obedience to God, and to his Commands. 5. With wonderfull (h) Self-deniall. 6. With a (i) Spirit of Supplication. 7. With a religious diſpoſition of Soul, for the pious (k) Governing of his family in the way of the Lord. 8. And in a word, With a Bleſſed (l) Covenant, aſſuring him, That Chriſt ſhould be his bleſſed Seed, and the LORD would be his God. And conſequently that in and with them, all things ſhould be his. Thus the Lord God bleſſed Abraham and Sarah, efficaciouſly and abunabundantly: by accumulating upon them all Mercies Temporall and Spirituall.

Hence, 1. See how punctuall and plentifull the Lord is in performance of his Covenant and Promise. He promised to blesse Abraham: and he blessed him really, he blessed him abundantly; He (m) will not, he (n) cannot suffer his faithfulness to fail. With what confidence may we clasp and cling unto his Promises, if we be the heirs of Promise! 2. Behold here what a vast difference there is betwixt Gods blessing and mans blessing. Man blesseth by well-wishing; God blesseth by well-doing to us. Man blesseth by praying for blessings wanted: God blesseth by performing blessings promised, and prayed for. Man blesseth ineffectually: God blesseth efficaciously. 3. Gods Blessing is a rich Inheritance. It brings all things into his peoples bosomes: both Temporals and Spirituals. It every way enriched Abraham: and will every way enrich all Abrahams faithfull posterity. And what they have as the fruits of Gods blessing, is double sweet. In this respect, (o) A little that the righteous hath, is better than the much Mammon of many wicked. What they have is not onely with Gods leave, but with his love. The same things for substance wicked men may have, but with Gods Curse. God may give them in his anger, and take them away in his wrath.

This the first branch of Gods Benediction promised.

2. God Promised, That Abraham should be a blessing. Saying, (p) And thou shalt be a Blessing. This is diversly interpreted by Expositors. 1. Some take it exegetically to be an Amplification of the former Branch, I will bless thee: And thou shalt be a blessing. That is, Thou shalt be eminently blessed: The abstract being put for the concrete, for the greater Emphasis and Augmentation of the Promise. As, a very honest man, is stiled Honesty it self: A very learned man, is called Learning it self: So here Abraham should be such a singularly blessed man, that he should be even a Blessing it self. But this interpretation seems somewhat too much to diminish the force and intent of the Phrase. Thou shalt be a blessing, is more then thou shalt have a blessing. 2. Some understand it Actively, That Gods blessing should not limit, terminate and confine it self onely to Abrahams person, but it should be from Abraham (q) extended to all his Seed, whether among Jews or Gentiles, through Christ that was then in Abrahams loynes. Abraham as Progenitor of Jesus Christ the blessed Seed, should be a special means of blessing all that should be blessed. But this Exposition, though in it self it be pious, and have a Truth in it, yet seems not so suitable here: because the fourth Branch of this Divine blessing promised to Abraham, peculiarly sets forth the diffusion of blessing and blessedness from Abraham and his Seed to all families and Nations: as after will appear. This also (r) Calvin hath well noted. 3. Some (s) Expound it Abstractly and exemplarily; That Abraham should be so singularly and eminently blessed, even to all mens Admiration, That they shall take Abrahams person for for a Pattern or example of blessing themselves or others; wishing that they may be blessed with Abraham, that Abrahams blessing may come upon them and theirs; that they may be blessed with Abrahams Blessing, as the eminent desirable blessing: To this effect Calvin and Pareus, yea and the Jews themselves expound it, as Pareus notes. And thus Isaac blessed Jacob going to Padan-Aram; (t) God Almighty bless thee, and give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy Seed after thee. 4. Finally, (u) some had rather understand this Phrase Concretely, but so as herein the efficacy and constancy of Gods blessing upon Abraham is shewed: I will bless thee, And thou shalt be a Blessing: As if he should say; I will bless thee, and thou shalt be blessed, in thee shall the blessing be established, and perpetuated, never to be revoked, repealed or taken away. Thus that form of Phrase is used in Jacobs blessing, (x) I have blessed him (said Isaac) and he shall be blessed. That is, his blessing cannot be retracted or recalled: Isaac (y) would not repent, or alter his minde, about this blessing of Iacob, though Esau sought it carefully with tears. And in this sense it is not onely a Ratification, but a notable Amplification of Abrahams blessing. These two last interpretations are preferred before the two former. The judicious Reader may take his choice. In my judgement the fourth seems most apposite and genuine. Chrysostome also inclines this way, saying, (z) Heres a great weight of the Promise. I will make thee saith he, a great Nation, and I will bless thee, and I will make thy name great. I will not onely make thee a great Nation, and extoll thy name: but I will bless thee: and thou shalt be blessed. Beloved, think it not to be a Tautology, and the same thing to be spoke twice, when it is said; I will bless thee, and thou shalt be blessed. For, saith he, I will vouchsafe thee such a blessing, as shall be extended to all ages. For thou shalt be blessed, so that every one shall count it matter of great honour to have familiarity with thee. So he.

Hence: 1. How blessed was Abraham! Not onely Divinely blessed, but double-blessed, firmly and fixedly blessed. Happy they, that as children of Abraham shall share with him in his blessing.

2. How peremptory and immovable is God in his blessing! (a) With him is no alteration, or shadow of turning. (b) Whom or what he blesseth, shall be blessed for evermore. This the second Branch of Gods blessing promised.

3. God promised to Abraham, (c) To bless his blessers, and to curse his cursers. As great Princes sometimes make leagues Defensive, and Offensive, Covenanting to have the same friends and foes: So here God strikes alike league and Covenant with Abraham; God and Abraham will have the same friends and foes. O wonderfull familiarity, benevolence and condescension of God towards Abraham! (d) Children (as Chrysostome well notes) scarce shew such respect to their Parents, as to have the same friends and foes with them: but here God stoops so far to Abraham as to bless his blessers, and curse his cursers.

Here are in these words two things observable in reference to Abraham; the one Imply'd, the other Expressed. 1. It's imply'd, That as Abraham should have friends in the world, so he should have foes: As some would bless him, so some would curse him. Yet (as (c) Pareus notes hence) he should have more friends then foes: More to bless him then to curse him. Inasmuch as it is said plurally, I will bless thy blessers, : but singularly, and curse thy curser. Abraham himself could not have all men to bless him, speak well of him, love him: nor should Abraham have all men to curse him, speak ill of him, revile him, hate him. He should have his share and lot in both. Blessers to encourage him, Cursers to exercise him. Friends for his Comfort: Foes for his Caution. 2. It's express'd and promis'd, That God will bless his blessers, and curse his curser: God will side with Abraham, will take his part still. By blessing his Blessers, he will encourage many to love, bless, and befriend Abraham: and By Cursing his Curser, he will deterr many from hating, cursing and opposing Abraham. Men perhaps might curse Abraham, and yet their curse not hurt Abraham: but God will curse them, his curse shall hit and hurt them. See this fulfilled; (f) Pharaoh takes Sarai, Abrams wife from him; but God plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abram's wife. (g) Abimelech also King of Gerar, in like sort took Sarah Abrahams wife, but had not come neer her. Yet God said to Abimelech in a dream, Thou art a dead man for the woman which thou hast taken, for she is married to an husband. Besides,——The LORD had fast closed up all the wombes of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah Abrahams wife. Thus the Lord sided with Abraham, and became a foe to his foes.

Nor is this Promise to be restrained onely to Abrahams Person; but to be extended also to Abrahams Seed and Posterity, whether Jewish or Christian. We may hence (thinks (h) Calvin) collect a common Doctrine; That God will bless his peoples friends; curse and take vengeance of their foes. Abrahams Seed as well as Abraham, shall have not onely friends, but foes also in the world. But God will be a friend to their friends, a foe to their foes. Here consider 1. That this is so. 2. Why this is so. 3. What inferences may hence result.

(h) Joan. Calvin. in Com. ad Gen. 12. 3.

That this is so, is clear by the experience of Abrahams Seed in all ages. For, 1. Abrahams Naturall Seed the Jews have found God thus taking their parts; as a friend to their friends, as a foe to their foes, holy Scriptures abound with Instances. How did God bless (i) Laban for entertaining Jacob! (k) Potiphar, for his kinde using and preferring of Joseph! (l) The Egyptian Midwives, for saving the Israelites menchildren alive, though King Pharaoh had commanded them to kill them? &c. Contrariwise, How did God curse and plague (m) Pharaoh and the Egyptians with many sore judgements, at last killing all their First-born, and overwhelming Pharaoh and his whole host in the Red-Sea, for their oppression and cruelty to Israel, killing of their Male-children, and refusing to let Israel go? How did God fight against (n) Amalek, (o) Sihon King of the Amorites, (p) Og the King of Bashan, (q) Midian, and against (r) all the Kings and Kingdomes of Canaan, for fighting against Israel? How did the Lord set himself as an enemy against the (s) Assyrians, (t) Babylonians, and (u) Edomites, for their enmity and cruelty against Gods people of Israel and Judah? Though their enemies were (x) as four horns, pushing and scattering Judah, Israel and Jerusalem: yet God had his four Carpenters to break these horns and fray them away. 2. Abrahams Christian Seed, whether of Jews or Gentiles after Christ, have the Lord also with them, blessing their blessers, cursing their cursers: a friend to their friends, an enemy to their enemies: (y) Christ takes all kindnesses to his Disciples and righteous members, as done unto himself; and promises to reward them as if they had been done to his own person. And contrariwise, (z) God will avenge his own Elect of their Adversaries speedily: and (a) It is a righteous thing with God to recompence tribulation to them that trouble his people. When Saul was persecuting the Primitive Church, Christ takes it as done unto himself: and cals to him from heaven, saying, (b) Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? I am Iesus whom thou persecutest. All (c) neglects of Christs Members, Christ counts neglects of himself, and will accordingly reward them at the great day. Especially he will set himself against the bloody Romish Babylon, for her bloodinesse against his Saints and Martyrs. (d) She hath been drunk with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of the Martyrs of Iesus, (e) And in her was found the blood of Prophets, and of Saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth. Therefore her sentence from Christ is; (f) Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works; in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.

Why thus is so; viz. Why the Lord will be a Friend to his peoples friends, and a foe to their foes, may be thus cleared. This comes to pass, 1. From the Truth and faithfulnesse of Gods Covenant and Promises to this Effect. God (g) hath here covenanted this to Abraham. And elsewhere he hath made many like Promises to Abrahams Seed, even to all Gods people: whether Iewish or Christian. This is (h) promised to Iacob, in Isaacs propheticall blessing. Balaam being hired to curse Israel after they came out of Egypt, contrary to his desire thus propheciled of their blessing; (i) Blessed be that blesseth thee, and cursed be that curseth thee: Thus the Promise runs in reference to Iudah and Jerusalem; (k) Behold I will make Jerusalem a Cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Ierusalem. And in that day will I make Ierusalem a burdensome stone for all people; all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it, &c. (l) And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Ierusalem: Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

mouth. (m) Scripture abounds with promises of like Nature. Now God that promiseth, is an eternal and unchangeable Truth, and (n) cannot lye. 2. From the justice and righteousness of God. Gods people side with God against all: Are friends to his lovers, and foes to his haters: as (o) David: and others. Yea (p) for Gods sake, they suffer many indignities and persecutions from the wicked world. Consequently it is just with God, in a way of retaliation and remuneration according to his promise, (promittendo, se fecit debitorem,) to side with his people. (q) It is a righteous thing with God to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you. 3. From the neer Relation whereinto they are brought with God and Jesus Christ. (r) The Lord is their God, and they are his people. (s) He is their Father; and they are his sons and daughters, his first-born. (t) He is their husband; and they are espoused to him. Jesus Christ is their (u) Head; and they his mystical body and members. As therefore the Father sympathizeth with his children, the Husband with his wife, the head with the members: So God and Jesus Christ as it were sympathize with the Saints, in reference to friends or enemies. Friends or foes to them, are friends or foes to God and Christ. Hence the LORD told Pharaoh by Moses, (x) Israel is my son, my first-born. And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: but if thou refuse to let him go; behold, I will slay thy son, thy first-born. Hence Christ the Head in Heaven being persecuted in his members on Earth by Saul, cals to him; (y) Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? —— I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. Hence, at last day Christ (z) will reward the friends and foes of his brethren, his members, as if they were his own friends or Enemies: even from the neerness of their Relation to him. 4. From the dearness of affection which the God of love bears unto them. He peculiarly loves, tenders, pities and esteems his people above all the people of the world. No (a) father can so pity his children, no mother can have such Compassion upon her tender sucking babe: as the Lord hath over his people. They are his (b) peculiar treasure: his (c) jewels: as (d) the apple of his eye. Hence it is that the Lord is very jealous over his people, sensible of their wrongs, makes their Quarrels his own, their Enemies his Enemies, &c. saying, (e) He that toucheth you, toucheth the apple of mine eye. And that is a most tender part, impatient of the least injury. Elsewhere; —— (f) I gave Egypt for thy ransome, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Since thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life.

Inferences hence. Will the Lord be a friend to his peoples friends, and a foe to their foes? Will he bless their blessers, and curse their Cursers? Then, I. Surely (g) God is Good to Israel, to all that are upright in Heart. He smiles upon their friends, he frowns upon their foes. He blesseth their blessers, he curseth their cursers. He loves their lovers, he hateth their haters. He takes their part, he pleads pleads their cause, He imbarks himself in their Quarrels, He maintains League with them both Defensive and Offensive. Hereby he increaseth their friends, and diminisheth their Enemies: whilst he suffers none that do them wrong, to scape unpunished; nor suffers any that show them kindness, to go unrewarded. Now if he be such a friend to his peoples friends: what a friend is he to his people themselves? II. How dangerously do they act, that by word or deed set themselves against Gods people! Many there are that (h) hate, revile, curse, persecute, and do all manner of evill against them, for Gods sake, for Christs sake: As (i) Ishmael, (k) Cain, (l) Esau, &c. But let such tremble, They in so doing fight not against them only, but against God also, who is on their side. Nay they set themselves chiefly against God and Jesus Christ: if against them, because they are Gods. They (m) kick against the pricks. They dash themselves as potsheards against a rock, that will grind them to powder. They revile and curse the godly: but God curses them. They curse (n) causelesly, and their curse comes not, yea God turns it (as (o) once Balaam's) into a blessing: but God curseth them justly, and they shall be cursed. What madness is this! they are foes to Gods people; and so engage the dreadful and Almighty God to be a foe to them. There's (p) no escaping of his wisdome, no (q) withstanding of his power, no (r) enduring of his wrath. III. How prudently do they provide for their own welfare, that become friends to Gods people! Hereby they become best friends to themselves, whilst they engage God to be their friend. Not the least good word, not the least kindness, though but a Cup of cold water, towards Gods people, because his people, shall lose his reward. Oh what Promises are made to them that (s) Consider Gods poor afflicted weaklings, such as David sometimes was. (u) Be wise therefore, O ye great ones of the world. Do not curse, but bless; do not hate, but love; do not harm, but help the Lords dear ones, because his. Then the Lord will count all as done to himself, and will much more remunerate your kindnesses into your own bosomes. IV. What singular Comfort and encouragement is this to all the Lords people, against all that hate, curse, oppose, or any way persecute them! (x) The Lord is on their side, why should they fear what flesh can do unto them? He will bate their haters, curse their cursers, persecute their persecutors. Are they many? As the Prophet said, (y) There are more with us then with them. Are they crafty? The Lord (z) can infatuate all their Counsels. Are they raging and terrible? The Lord is the terrour of the world: Heaven and Earth tremble at his presence. Are they mighty? (a) The Lord on high is mightier then the noyse of many waters, yea then the mighty waves of the Sea. (b) Who art thou that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall dye, and of the son of man that shall be made as grass, and forgettest the Lord thy maker, (c) thy shield, thy tower of defence, thy deliverer, thy glory, and thine eternal excellency? This the third branch of Gods blessing promised.

(c) Psal. 3. 3, 6. & 18. 2, 3.

4. Finally, God Covenanted with Abraham, and promised, (d) That in him and in his Seed all the Nations and Families of the Earth should be blessed. This is the fourth branch of the Divine Benediction assured to Abraham: the Glory and Excellency of all the rest. It surpasseth them chiefly two ways, viz. 1. In the Extent thereof. The three former seem to be more peculiarly directed and limited to Abraham's person: but this is extended to all the Nations and Families of the Earth. 2. In the Foundation of it. Those three are promised to Abraham, but no foundation, or Mean of Conveyance, is at all mentioned, whereby Abraham should come to enjoy them: But this branch of the blessing is founded and bottomed upon Abraham and his Seed; that is, (e) upon Jesus Christ Abraham's Eminent Seed; He the glorious Mean, through and by whom this blessing shall be effectually conveyed to all the Nations and Kindreds of the Earth. For though it be sometimes said of Abraham; (f) And in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed. And again; (g) All the Nations of the Earth shall be blessed in him. Yet in other places it is said; And in thy Seed shall all the Nations of the Earth be blessed: And thus both to (h) Abraham, (i) Isaac, and (k) Jacob. And this to let us see that Abraham's Seed should make all Nations & Families of the Earth blessed, and not Abraham's person otherwise then in and for his Seed Jesus Christ then in his loyns, and in fulness of time to descend of him according to the flesh. And thus the New Testament plainly expounds it of his Seed, and that (l) Seed Jesus Christ. And this is that (m) Gospel, which, the Holy Ghost tels us, was preached to Abraham. So then,

All the Nations and Families of the Earth shall be blessed in Abraham and in his Seed. For clearing of this, Consider; 1. What this Blessing, or Blessedness is, which is here promised. 2. In or through whom this blessing is to be performed. 3. How all the Nations and Families of the Earth shall share in this Blessing.

(1) What this blessing, or Blessedness is, which is here Promised. For understanding this, Remember what was formerly spoken touching the Sense and several Acceptations of the word (n) Bless: and note that here Blessing is to be taken in the fourth and last sense, Gods blessing of any, is Gods well-doing to them. Here then this Blessing or Blessedness in the General denotes All that good, all those Benefits, Mercies, Favours, &c. which God in Christ will bestow upon the Nations and Families of the Earth. More Particularly this Blessing or Blessedness comprehends All Spirituals, and All Temporals.

1. All Spirituals, concerning Grace, or Glory. (o) God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ hath blessed us (saith Paul) with all Spiritual Blessings in heavenly places, (or, heavenly things) in Christ. And Peter saith, (p) According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness: that is, to godliness here, and eternal life hereafter. Now the Scripture notably informs us what these Heavenly, Spiritual Blessings are which the Nations and Families

Families of the Earth obtain in Abraham's Seed Jesus Christ, viz. 1. Redemption from the Curse of the Law due for mans sin, by Christs becoming a curse for us. (q) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a Tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. And again; (r) When the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son made of a woman, made under the Law, to redeem them that were under the Law. The first Adam by Sinning involved all under the Curse: The last Adam by suffering and becoming a Curse for sin, hath redeemed us from the Curse, and made us blessed. 2. The Participation of the Spirit of God long ago promised in Christ. (s) Christ hath redeemed us from the Curse of the Law, being made a Curse for us: — That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ: That we might receive the Promise of the Spirit through Faith. This place is obscure. And Interpreters by their divers senses darken it. To me this seems to be the Apostles Meaning, as to our present purpose, Christs Redemption of us from the Curse, is here described, Partly By the manner of it, viz. Christ being made a Curse for us. Partly by the effects, or fruits of it: More General, That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; More Particular, That we might receive the Promise of the Spirit through Faith. The Promise of the Spirit being an Eminent branch of the Blessing of Abraham. By Spirit, I understand not only the extraordinary miraculous gifts of the Spirit, which many in the Primitive times received: but also and especially the ordinary and filial fruits of the Spirit, as Grace, Adoption, &c. By the Promise of the Spirit I understand not Spiritual Promises, as (t) Parens expounds it: But rather, by a kind of Hebraism, I understand with (u) Beza, The Promised Spirit, which is elsewhere stiled Metonymically, (x) The promise of the Father; that is, the father's singular Promised blessing, the Spirit. And, (y) The Promise of the Holy Ghost, which Christ, being by the right hand of God exalted, had received of the Father. This Spirit was (z) frequently promised under the Old Testament: but most fully accomplished under the New. Under the Old Testament the same spirit was bestowed upon Gods elect, but not so plenteously and clearly, as under the New. 3. Conversion from Sin and Satan, unto God. The same in Substance with Effectual Calling, Regeneration, Renovation, and Sanctification. This a special branch of Abraham's blessing in Christ. Hence Peter said to the men of Israel; (a) Ye are the children of the Prophets, and of the Covenant which God made with our Fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy Seed shall all the kindreds of the Earth be blessed. Unto you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in TURNING away every one of you from his iniquities. Where its clear, That the blessing promised in Abrahams Seed, had its accomplishment in Christ: And that the Actual efficacy of this blessing consisted in Conversion of Jews first, and Gentiles afterwards from their iniquities. 4. Adoption into the family of God. In Christ Abraham's Seed, we become Gods children. Christ redeemed us from Bondage and slavery, to liberty and Sonship. (b) When the fulness of time was come, God sent forth his Son made of a woman, made under the Law, To redeem them that were under the Law, that we might receive the Adoption of Sons. John highly admires this priviledge, and Gods love therein; (c) Behold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the Sons of God. Nor can it be enough admired: Seeing with this Adoption, we receive Christs filial Spirit of Supplication, (d) crying Abba Father; and (e) witnessing with our Spirits that we are the Sons of God. And Seeing with this Sonship (f) we have heirship and Coheirship with Christ. 5. Justification through Faith. This is an high degree of Abraham's blessedness promised to the Nations. (g) The Scripture foreseeing that God would justifie the Heathen through Faith, preached before the Gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all Nations be blessed. So then they which be of Faith, are blessed with Faithful Abraham. Hence it is evident, That the Gentiles justification by faith, is part of the blessedness promised the Nations in Abraham and in his Seed. They that have their sins pardoned, and their persons accepted as righteous, are Blessed indeed. David speaks emphatically; (h) Oh the blessednesses of him whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered! Oh the blessednesses of the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity. The Hebrew word אשרי Ashre, implyes thus much. 6. Fœderal Relation to, and Communion with God. Abraham had the LORD to be (i) his God in Covenant, and Communion with him thereupon: In like sort all Abraham's Seed of what Nations or families soever throughout the earth, shall have the (k) same Relation to God, and Communion with him. And both Abraham and all his Seed throughout the world, are blessed in having this Covenant-Relation to God, and Communion with God. For, (l) Happy is that people whose God is the LORD. 7. Finally, Glorification in the Highest Heavens for evermore. Abraham is glorified in Heaven already: And his Seed out of all nations (m) from the East, and from the West, and from the North, and from the South shall sit down with Abraham in the Kingdom of God; shall be received into (n) Abraham's bosome. And then shall the Happiness of Abraham, and of all his seed, whether of Jews or Gentiles, be fully compleated, in the immediate (o) vision and fruition of God face to face for evermore. And this their Glorification is a degree of Happiness flowing from all the Former. And thus, this blessedness comprehendeth all Spirituals. II. All Temporals, which are annexed as Appurtenances and Additionals unto Spirituals. (p) Take no thought, saying, what shall we eat? or what shall we drink? or wherewith shall we be clothed? (for after all these things do the Gentiles seek) For your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things: But Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and his righte- righteousneſs, and all theſe things ſhall be added unto you; ſhall be added as ſurpluſage, overplus and vantage into the main bargain or Agreement betwixt God and us. Jeſus Chriſt is the beſt of all bleſſings, and the fountain of all mercies: When God gives him, he will ſtick at nothing, They that want not Chriſt, ſhall never want any Heavenly or Earthly bleſſing, ſo far as God ſees it (q) good for them. (r) He that ſpared not his own ſon, but delivered him up for us all, how ſhall he not with him alſo freely give us all things? To this effect the Apoſtle teſtifieth, that (s) Godlineſs is profitable to all things, having Promiſe of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. All temporal mercies are reached out to Gods Covenant-people in the hand of a Mediatour, and ſwim to them in the blood of Jeſus Chriſt. This is the Bleſſing, or Bleſſedneſs here Promiſed.

(t) In, or through whom this bleſſing is to be performed, may be thus in brief reſolved. Some texts ſay, (u) In Abraham: but others, (w) In Abraham's Seed: that is, Both in Abraham and His Seed, ſhall this Bleſſing be performed. In Abraham for his Seeds ſake, then in his loyns: But in Abraham's Seed, Jeſus Chriſt, for his own ſake, and through the influence of his own merit and grace. And therefore it is very obſervable, That this Promiſe, (x) In thee ſhall all the families of the Earth be bleſſed, is afterwards explained by other words, (y) In thy Seed ſhall all the Nations of the Earth be bleſſed; and is in the New Teſtament thus alleadged and expounded, (z) And in thy Seed ſhall all the kindreds of the Earth be bleſſed; And elſewhere, (a) In thee ſhall all Nations be bleſſed. From which paſſage it is clear, That by [Abraham] we are chiefly to underſtand Abraham's Seed, Jeſus Chriſt: And by [all the families of the Earth] we are to underſtand, all the Nations of the Earth. They all ſhall be bleſſed in Chriſt: that is, through Chriſt, or for Chriſt. Or, in Chriſt; that is, All Nations being implanted into Chriſt Abraham's Seed by Faith, ſhall in him by Faith partake the bleſſing. They muſt firſt have union to Chriſt by Faith, and then Communion with him in the bleſſing: (b) They muſt firſt by faith become his Seed, and then be bleſſed as his Seed, as the Apoſtle intimates. So then the bleſſing of Abraham comes on the Gentiles through Jeſus Chriſt, Meritoriouſly and Efficaciouſly; and through Faith in him, inſtrumentally.

(c) How all the Nations and Families of the Earth may be underſtood to ſhare in this Bleſſing of Abraham through Chriſt by Faith, needs explication. For, if all Nations and Families be bleſſed in Chriſt: then it may ſeem, they are all redeemed by him, and ſhall all be actually ſaved by him. But this is contrary to many Scriptures. This may be cleared 1. Negatively, and 2. Affirmatively.

Negatively, thus. 1. By [all the families and Nations of the Earth,] we are not to underſtand all Families and Nations before Chriſts Incarnation. For till then, the Goſpel was not preached to any Nation beſides that one Nation of the Jews. All others Nations till then were paſſed by, neglected and ſuffered to periſh in their ignorance and unbelief: except some few Proselytes of the Gentiles that came and joyned themselves in Religion to Abrahams people the Jews. 2. By [all families and nations of the earth] We cannot understand that they all even after Christs Incarnation should joyntly at one and the same time receive the blessing of Abraham in Christ. For, the Gentiles have been called and converted by degrees successivley, and in severall times and ages. Some of those that were converted, and became thereby blessed, in the Apostolicall times, are now swallowed up with Judaism, Turcism or Paganism. And who knows but that yet there remain some Nations and Families to be called, as Indians, &c.? which perhaps were never converted? 3. Nor can we [by all families of the earth] understand in a restrained sense all Households even of those Nations that are called to the outward imbracing and profession of the Faith: Much less all and singular individual persons in those families. For both Scripture and all Experience is repugnant thereunto. There being many Households within Christian nations, wherein no one person for many ages together hath given any good testimony of Faith or Godliness. And the most religious Families having some in them irreligious, unbelieving, in their naturall cursedness, without all supernatural blessedness. As of old, there was a (c) Cain in Adams family; A (d) Cham in Noahs family; an (e) Ishmael in Abrahams; an (f) Esau in Isaac's; an (g) Absalom, (h) Adonijah, &c. in Davids; a (i) Judas in Christs family: Even so it is with the best Christian Families to this day.

Affirmatively, thus, 1. By [all the families of the earth] understand All the Nations of the earth. For, thus this is expounded, both in (k) Old, and (l) New Testament. And this need not seem strange, by Families to understand Nations: because by particular persons and families of old, Nations were planted and replenished; as is clear in the (m) sons of Noah and their families, by whom the lands and nations were divided and denominated. And of the sons of Iapheth it is said, (n) By these were the Isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their Nations. And of all the families of Noahs three sons, it is said, (o) These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their Nations, And by these were the Nations divided in the earth after the flood. No wonder therefore that in the next Chapter save one in the History of Genesis, (p) God promised blessedness to the Nations of the earth, under the Notion of Families, Families being little Nations: and Nations being great Families. 2. All these Nations of the Earth come to share in Abrahams Blessing in these last ages of the world from Christs Incarnation till the judgement day, (q) by Faith in Jesus Christ the blessed Seed, revealed to them through the preaching of the Gospel. For, after Christ, (r) the Gospel is to be preached to all Nations, before the end come. And (s) the fulness of the Gentiles must come in, before the Jews be called to Christ, and then all Israel shall be saved.

As therefore any of the Gentilish Nations receive the Gospel, and therein Christ by Faith: So in and with Christ they receive the blessing of Abraham in all Temporals and Spirituals. 3. Though divers whole Nations do visibly receive and profess Christ tendered in the Gospel, and in that regard become Abrahams Seed visibly: Yet very few of them do really and truly receive Christ by saving Faith; (t) many beeing called, but few chosen. And therefore how few of those Christian Nations do really partake the full blessing of Abraham to Salvation; though visibly they do enjoy not onely many temporal, but divers Spiritual Priviledges among Abrahams true children! Notwithstanding such Nations are said to be blessed with Abraham, because many in them are the true Seed of Abraham. The better, though the lesser part, denominates: As a glass of liquor, wherein is less wine than water, is called a glass of Wine. These things duly considered, The blessedness of all Nations of the Earth in Abrahams Seed Jesus Christ, doth not at all countenance that opinion of their universall Redemption, or universall Salvation.

(t) Mat. 22. 14.

(4) Inferences hence. Did God Promise, That all the Nations of the Earth should thus be blessed in Abraham, that is, In his Seed Jesus Christ? Then, I. How great honour and dignity was hereby cast upon Abraham? All the Nations of the earth should be beholding to him, should fare the better for him, should be blessed in him and in his Seed. That Christ should come of Abraham naturally, was great honour: That in Christ his eminent Seed all Nations should be blessed supernaturally, was double Honour. This honour God (u) promised to Abraham of meer grace; and yet he made this an honorificall and gratuitous (x) remuneration of his Faith and obedience. Who ever lost by his Faith and obedience? II. Promises of Spirituals and Eternals were made to the Fathers under the Old Testament, as well as of Temporals. Here God promiseth not onely to bless Abraham, but all Nations in him, and that through his Seed Christ. Is Christ a temporall blessing? Is the blessing of the Gentiles through Christ a meer Temporall blessing? Temporals are included in the blessing, but Spirituals and Eternals are the head and chief glory of the blessing, as hath been formerly explained. They then that appropriate all the Spiritual Promises onely to the New Testament, and think that God promised to the Fathers of old neither the Eternal inheritance, nor the donation of the Spirit, &c. but onely some earthly mercies pertaining to this present life; do greatly err. The (y) Faith of Abraham and the Patriarchs of old looked beyond this world, and all the glory of it, to Spiritual and eternal injoyments. And this promise of Blessing made to Abraham was as it were the foundation of all the Promises which are accomplished under the New Testament, (as (z) Rivet well observes) For, therefore (a) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse, &c. That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. The same Spirituals for Substance were promised under the Old Testament, that are under the New; though not with the same same fulneſs and clearneſs. III. The Goſpel was anciently preached even unto Abraham. The Goſpel is the Doctrine of Gods ſaving lapſed Sinners by Jeſus Chriſt. This is not a novell, but an Ancient, an (b) everlaſting Goſpel. (c) 430. years elder then the Law at Mount Sinai. (d) The Scripture foreſeeing that God would juſtifie the heathen through Faith, preached before the Goſpel unto Abraham, ſaying, In thee ſhall all Nations be bleſſed. Thoſe perſons then that reject the Old Teſtament, do moſt ignorantly and profanely reject the Goſpel of God. For the old Teſtament is full of Goſpel: Reveals (e) the firſt Goſpel that ever was preached to ſinners: and after the Fall, is all Goſpel, if rightly underſtood. IIII. The riches of Gods grace and loving kindneſs to loſt man are wonderfull. When all mankinde were loſt in Adam, it had been glorious mercy and grace, if the Lord had ſaved but one Nation, yea, but one Family, of all thoſe loſt creatures: but that he extended his Bleſſing and Salvation to all the Nations of the earth in Jeſus Chriſt, here's Mercy upon Mercy, here's Grace upon Grace. V. One great Cauſe why ſo many Nations of the Gentiles, and ours among the reſt, are partakers of Jeſus Chriſt, and in him of the bleſſing of Abraham by the Goſpel, is Gods Promiſe to Abraham, and to other the Fathers of old. God that promiſed, (f) cannot lye: is fully (g) able to perform whatſoever he promiſeth; Yea ſuch his (h) Truth and faithfulneſs, he cannot chuſe but make them good. No length of time can make them void. England and all Chriſtian Nations at this day may confeſs this. Their preſent happineſs in Abrahams Seed, flows from the faithfulneſs of this old Promiſe to Abraham. Oh therefore let us claſp faſt the Promiſes of God in the armes of Faith, not ſtaggering through unbelief: For his Promiſes ſhall never fail. All the Nations of the Gentiles by vertue of this and like Promiſes, ſhall firſt or laſt be called and converted to Chriſt, and be bleſſed in Chriſt. Pray we that they may be accompliſhed in his time: and (i) bleſs we the Lord for fulfilling them upon England, or other Nations. VI. The Happineſs of all the Nations of the earth is founded upon Abrahams Seed Jeſus Chriſt, and their enjoyment of him. They ſhall be bleſſed in him, not out of him: with him, not without him. It is not multitude of people, confluence of wealth and honour, ſtrength of fortifications by land or ſea, depth of wiſdom or counſel, valour or reſolution of Armies, leagues or confederacies with neighbouring Princes or Nations, nor all the accumulations of worldly glory and greatneſs that can make a Nation happy, without Jeſus Chriſt this bleſſed Seed of Abraham: But Jeſus Chriſt himſelf alone, without all theſe ſublunary and earthly ſhadows, without all theſe magnifi'd and adored nothings, makes Nations and peoples truly and eternally bleſſed, both in this and the world to come. This is moſt evident upon theſe enſuing Conſiderations. For, 1. The Jewiſh Nation, (which, till Chriſts Incarnation, was the onely happy Nation in the world) was principally happy in this; (k) That they had the Ordinances and Oracles of God peculiarly culiarly committed to them. wherein Jesus Christ was tendered to them by Covenants, Promises, Sacraments and Types, till the fulness of time came; And that when the fulness of time was come, and Christ actually took flesh of them; (l) Unto them first, God having raised up his son Jesus, sent him to bless them, in turning away every one of them from their iniquities. So that Christ Promised, and Christ Exhibited to the Iews was their Happiness, and (m) their Glory. 2. The Jewish Nation (n) by rejecting and murdering the Lord Jesus, and by persecuting his Prophets and Apostles, have the wrath of God come upon them to the uttermost. They have lost the Gospel and Kingdom of God, are rooted out of their own Land, and miserably scattered up and down the world as an Headless vagabond hated and cursed people, above all the people of the earth. 3. All the Nations of the Gentiles are in most miserable condition whilest destitute of Christ Jesus. For whilest they are (o) Christless, they have no Church, no Covenants of Promise, no hope, and are without God in the world. Yea, whatever they are, or have, in other regards, yet in Gods account, whilest they have not Christ, (p) they are not a people, have not obtained mercy. All mercies are as no Mercy, till Christ be enjoyed that Mercy of Mercies. 4. The Nations and people of the Gentiles, though in themselves never so miserable, yet when they are enabled by Faith to receive Jesus Christ preached and tendered to them in the Gospel, (q) they in and through Jesus Christ receive the blessing of Abraham, as well as the Iews of old. Then (r) They that were afar off are made nigh by the blood of Iesus. They that were foraigners and strangers, are now fellow-citizens with the Saints, and of the houshold of God. They (s) that were not a people, are now the people of God. They that had not obtained Mercy, now have obtained Mercy. And are become a chosen generation, a royall priesthood, an holy Nation, a peculiar people. And as (t) they are blessed in all Spirituals in heavenly things in Christ: So (u) all temporals are added unto them. 5. All Nations and people that either reject or set themselves against Iesus Christ, they do but forsake their own Mercy and Felicity, and involve themselves in ruine and destruction. Christ saith of such; (x) Bring them hither, and slay them before me. He (y) will break them with a rod of iron, and dash them in pieces like a potters vessell. Upon this account Jesus Christ (z) that stone cut out of the Mountain without hands shall break in pieces the image, even the four grand Monarchies of the world, and utterly destroy (a) the whore, the beast; and false Prophet. And how are the Nations that have Apostatized from Christ, swallowed up with all ruine and desolation. Oh that England and the annexed Dominions would at last be wise and consider, that Happiness or Misery, weal or wo will be their assured portion, according to their Owning or Disowning of Jesus Christ his Truth and Wayes. Wo, wo, unto us, if Iesus Christ once depart away from us. VII. Finally, Seeing all Nations of the Earth shall be blessed in Abrahams Seed, It's clear, That all Nations of the Gentiles throughout throughout the whole world shall have the Gospel preached to them, and be converted to Jesus Christ. They cannot be blessed but in Abrahams Seed Iesus Christ. They can have no happiness in Christ, but by enjoying him through Faith. They can ordinarily (b) have no Faith in him, but by being converted to him through the Preaching of the Gospel. Therefore sooner or later, before the end of the world, all the Gentilish Nations shall be called to Christ by the Gospel: according to the (c) glorious Promises of the Prophets of Old. This is for most part fulfilled already since Christ, and is still in fulfilling till the fulness of the Gentiles be come in. (d) The LORD enlarge and perswade Iaphet to dwell in the Tents of Shem. This the Fourth Branch of Gods Blessing promised.

Thus of the first Covenant-Mercy which God promised to Abraham, Divine Benediction.

II. An exceeding numerous Seed. This is another Covenant-Mercy which God (e) promised to Abraham: And it is a great Mercy. For, (f) Children are an heritage of the LORD; and the fruit of the womb is his reward. As arrows are in the hand of a Mighty man: so are children of the youth. Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate. — (g) Thy wife shall be as a fruitfull vine by the sides of thy house. Thy children like Olive plants round about thy Table. Behold, that thus shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD. —— Yea thou shalt see thy childrens children. The eminency of this Mercy will be the more conspicuous, if we branch it out into some few particulars. God herein promised Abraham, 1. To give him a son to be his heir, which should come out of his own bowels. 2. To multiplie his Seed exceedingly. 3. To Propagate even Kings of people from him. 4. To make him a great and mighty Nation. 5. To make Nations of him. 6. To make him a Father of many Nations. In token whereof he changed his name. 7. Finally, To give Jesus Christ as a Primary and most blessed Seed to descend of him according to the flesh: In whom especially Abrahams Seed should be so exceedingly multiplied and blessed in all the world.

1. God promised to give Abraham a (h) son to be his heir, which should come out of his own bowels. Even a son by Sarah: and his name should be called Isaac.

How Emphatically was this promised? 1. A son out of his own bowels. A naturall son, not a son of the house, viz. a servant; nor an adopted son, taken out of a strange Family. At this time Abraham was 100 years old, and therefore he admired and rejoyced at the Promise. (i) Then Abraham fell upon his face and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a childe be born unto him that is an hundred years old? (k) His Body was now dead, to Generation: yet God quickned and raised up Isaac from his dead loyns. 2. A son by (l) Sarah. Sarah was now 90. years old, and it ceased to be with her after the manner of women. The Apostle saith, (m) She was past age, that is, Past age of childe-bearing according to course of Nature. A son by Sarah Sarah was the greater Mercy: a miraculous Mercy. 3. A son whose name should be Isaac: that is, Laughter. At the Promise of his birth (n) Abraham laughed. At his birth, (o) Sarah laughed, and said, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that hear will laugh with me. Isaac occasioned a double laughter and rejoycing in Abraham; viz. A naturall Laughter, and rejoycing in him as a childe of their old age: A Spirituall Laughter, as he was a Type of Christ, in whom (p) Abraham saw Christs day and rejoyced. 4. A son that should be his heir. Abraham was rich, but had never an heir to inherit his wealth. He looked upon (q) Eliezer of Damascus, his servant, as his heir apparent: therefore he regarded no more wealth. But God that gave him inheritance, assures him of an heir to injoy it. This was blessing upon Blessing.

How punctually was all this performed in the (r) birth of Isaac? Gods Promise was fruitfull: Though Abraham (s) as good as dead, and Sarah past age. Abraham laughed, Sarah distrusted, Nature contradicted Gods Pomise: and yet his Promise was exactly performed.

Hence, 1. Nothing is (t) too hard for the LORD. He brings youth out of old age, fruit out of barrenness, life out of deadness. We greatly dishonour God when we measure his power by our weakness, or limit his Actions by our shallow conceptions. 2. Gods Promises shall certainly be performed against greatest seeming improbabilities. God promised Abraham a Son by Sarah, and this against many difficulties, and seeming impossibilities: yet he exactly performed his word to Abraham. Such is his Divine Truth and faithfulness, that he (u) cannot lye; and such his Divine Omnipotency, that whatsoever he promiseth he is fully (x) able to perform. 3. Isaac might well be called Abrahams (y) son by Promise: for, Not the strength of Nature in Abraham or Sarah, but the strength of the Promise, through the power of God, brought him forth. The Promise was as it were his Father that begat him: and Faith as it were his Mother that conceived him, and brought him forth. Without these, Abraham was a dead Father: and Sarah a more dead Mother.

2. God promised, To (z) multiply him and his Seed exceedingly: To (a) make him exceeding fruitfull, and (b) In multiplying to multiplie his Seed. To give Abraham and Sarah A naturall Seed was a great Mercy: but to give them a Numerous Seed was a multiplied Mercy.

This is notably assured to Abraham by Gods Promise in three eminent Adages or Proverbial Similitudes, whereby greatest multitudes, even innumerable numbers are wont to be set forth. God promiseth to make his Seed, 1 As the Dust of the earth. (c) And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy Seed also be numbred. 2 As the stars of heaven. (d) And he brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now towards Heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: And he said unto him,

So shall thy Seed be. 3. As the Sand on the Sea-shore. (g) In multiplying I will multiply thy Seed, as the Stars of the Heaven; And as the Sand which is upon the Sea-shore. This Promise is renew'd to (h) Isaac under the similitude of the Stars of Heaven: and to (i) Jacob under the Similitude of the dust of the Earth. Writers express divers glosses and notions about these Smilitudes. (k) Some, by dust of the Earth, understand all reprobate Jews, vile as dust: by Stars of the Heaven, all elect Jews. Some, by dust of the Earth, understand the Humiliation of Abraham's Seed: by Stars of Heaven, their exaltation. (l) Some by dust of the Earth, think Abraham's Natural Seed may be signified: by Stars of Heaven, his Spiritual and heavenly Seed. As the Apostle teacheth us two sorts of Abraham's children, Rom. 9. 7, 8. Gal. 4. 22, 24, &c. Hereupon the Israelites are in Josephs dream, and in Daniels Vision, called Stars, and the Host of Heaven, Gen. 37. 9, 10. Dan. 8. 10. But these seem to be curious Subtilties without solidity. I easily subscribe to them, who by all these Proverbial and Hyperbolical expressions do plainly understand only the great and even innumerable multitude of Abraham's Posterity promised. For, not the Quality, and Nature; but the Quantity and Number, of Dust, Stars, and Sands, is here clearly intended. And thus these Adages are used even among (m) prophane Authors.

Tot mala sum passus, quot in æthere sydera lucent,

Now this Promise of Abraham's numberless Seed was faithfully performed two wayes, viz. 1. Immediately in Abrahams Natural Seed the Jews, which were wonderously multiply'd in Egypt and the wilderness: So that Moses said, (n) The LORD your God hath multiply'd you, and behold, you are this day as the Stars of Heaven for multitude. And in reference to this Proverbial speech, Balaam said of the multitude of the people of Israel; (o) Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? The Apostle also shews the exact performance of this promise, saying; (p) Therefore sprang there of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the Sea-shore innumerable. In Egypt Israel groaned under many oppressions and cruel afflictions, which visibly tended to destroy them: but such was Gods blessing upon them in order to his promise, (q) That the more they were afflicted, the more they grew. 2. Mediately, in (r) Abraham's Spiritual Seed in Christ, even all believers throughout all the Nations of the Earth. For these far surpassed Abraham's Natural Seed in number. Hence the Prophet thus comforteth the Gentiles; (s) Sing O barren, thou that didst not bear; —— for more are the children of the desolate, (that is, of the Gentiles,) then the children of the married wife, (that is, the Jews,) saith the LORD. And wheeras (t) the number of Gods Sealed ones, after 12000 of each tribe, was but an hundred hundred and forty and four thousand, of all the tribes of the children of Israel: yet it was a great multitude, which no man could number, of all Nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues. In Abraham's Spiritual Seed therefore, this Promise of an innumerable Seed to Abraham, had its fullest and compleatest accomplishment.

Hence, 1. Gods blessing is most efficacious. The multiplying of Abraham's Seed like the Dust, the Stars, the Sands, being a special fruit of his blessing. His blessing is not only verbal, but also real. Stands not in wishing good: but in working good to and for his people. 2. Gods power is wonderful, that could so quickly create such a multitude of issue both Natural and Spiritual unto Abraham: and this beyond the very course of Nature. 3. How vigorous is Gods Promise to this day! for it is still begetting Spiritual Seed to Abraham, in Converting Gentiles upon Gentiles, that his Seed may be as innumerable as the Dust of the Earth, the Stars of Heaven, and Sands of the Sea-shore. 4. How comfortable may this be to the Church and people of God, in any age, against the smalness of the Church, and fewness of the genuine members thereof! Be Gods people but (a) a little flock; As gleanings after the vintage, as here and there a berry upon a tree, as Beacons upon the Hils: yet that God that increased old and dead Abraham to such multitudes, can easily increase his decayed Church, and innumerably multiply his little remnant of people. Upon this very ground God comforts his Church of the Jews when very desolate and low. (x) Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you; for I called him alone, (that is, when he was childless,) and blessed him, and increased him. For the LORD shall comfort Sion: he will comfort all her waste places, and he will make her Wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving and the voice of melody. And elsewhere in that knot of glorious Promises touching the Churches Enlargement; (y) A little one shall become a thousand: And a small one a strong Nation. I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

3. God Promised, To propagate even (z) Kings of people from Abraham, and Sarah. He should not only have a Natural Seed, A numerous Seed, but a Royal and Princely Seed. This amplifies the promised Mercy of his Posterity. (a) Kings are the Supream Potentates on Earth: enthroned in highest worldly Glory, dignity, power and Authority. Its no small priviledge to be a favourite of Kings: what is it then to be a father of Kings? Abraham shall be a Father, and Sarah a Mother of Kings and Princes. This was Gods promise.

But how was this performed? Abundantly. For, besides those (b) 12 Princes which descended of Ishmael Abraham's son by Hagar; and besides those Princes and Dukes which descended of (c) Esau, Abraham's grandchild by Sarah, which reigned in Edom, before there reigned any King over the children of Israel: All the Kings of Israel and Iudah before the captivity, from Saul, to Zedekiah; and after the Captivity all the Governours of the Iews were of Abraham's race, even untill Christ; who Spiritually restored the decayd and ruined Kingdom of David, and changed it from temporal to (d) spiritual and eternal. Thus multitudes of Kings, of Eminent Kings came of Abraham and Sarah: and at last, Jesus Christ, (e) The Lord of Lords, and King of Kings.

Hence, 1. Note here again, The faithfulness and power of God in performing Covenant and Promise to Abraham and his Seed. 2. Consider, That Abraham's family was a noble, honourable, and royal family. Such honour can God easily crown his servants withall, when he pleaseth. This made Abraham, among other things, a great man, a man of renown.

4. God promised, to (f) make Abraham a great and mighty Nation. This is a degree of Mercy higher then all the former. He shall not only have Natural Seed, Numerous Seed, Royal Seed, but his Seed shall swell up to a great and mighty Nation. The Lord here useth the Hebrew word גוי Goi, for the Nation that should come of Abraham. This some note against the Iews, who count that word a term of disgrace, which they would apply only to the Gentiles: but here they forget how themselves are peculiarly intended by it.

(f) Gen. 12. 2. & 18. 18.

This was fulfilled peculiarly in the Iewish Nation which sprung of Abraham, Isaac and Iacob. For though the Ishmaelitish, Idumean, and other Nations came of Abraham: yet the most considerable of them all was the Israelitish Nation. This was a great and Mighty Nation indeed: and that divers wayes, viz. 1. In multitude and number. They were like the (g) Dust of the Earth, (h) Stars of Heaven, and (i) Sands of the Sea-shore for multitude. When they were first numbred in the Wilderness of Sinai, there were (k) from 20 years old and upward Males able to go forth to war, in al the Tribes, besides Levi's, six hundred thousand, and three thousand and five hundred and fifty. And there were of the Levites, (l) Males from a month old and upwards, Twenty and two thousand. To these if we adde all the females, and all under twenty years old of the Tribes, both which very probably amounted to twice so many moe, what a vast multitude of people was there in that Nation at that time? How numerous then were they afterwards in the land of Canaan? 2. In fortitude and valour. How did they subdue and tread underfoot all the Kings and Kingdoms of the Canaanites, &c. none were able to stand before them. (m) Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people saved by the LORD, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thine excellency! And thine enemies shall be found lyars (or, shall feignedly submit) unto thee, and thou shalt tread upon their high places. 3. Especially, This Nation was great and mighty, In nearness of Relation to, and Communion with God; And that both in his saving Ordinances, and Singular Providences to them above all the Nations of the Earth.

The Jewiſh Nation in its Chief height and Greatneſs, was but Abraham's family enlarged and multiplyed. Hence the Jews are ſo frequently ſtiled (q) the ſeed of Abraham. 3. The numerous increaſe and glory of the Jewiſh Nation, was the ſingular fruit of Gods Promiſe to Abraham, to make him a great and mighty Nation.

Hence, 1. Not only the Iewiſh Nation, but alſo divers of the Gentiliſh Nations deſcended of Abraham according to the fleſh. All beſides the Iews, were counted Gentiles. So that the Iſhmaelites, Edomites, and Midianites, were of the Gentiles. Abraham was the Natural Father of many Gentiliſh Nations which believed not: but the Spiritual Father of all the Gentiliſh Nations that believe. 2. The faithfulneſs of Gods promiſe, and greatneſs of his power, are hereby rendered yet more illuſtrious: that from ſuch deadneſs and barrenneſs raiſed up, not one but divers Nations.

6. God Promiſed, To make him a Father of many Nations. And for Confirmation hereof, changed his Name, by adding thereunto: And as it were (y) engraved the Promiſe upon his very Name, Abraham. That as oft as he did hear, or think of his name, ſo oft he might remember Gods Promiſe, which was ſet in his name, like a Diamond in a Ring, to be worn therein continually. but thy name shall be ABRAHAM: for, a father of a multitude of Nations have I given thee. Or, as the Greek, (a) have I put thee. As we render it, have I made thee. His name before was אברם Abram; compounded of two words אב Ab, Father; and רם Ram; High: that is, An-high-Father. But now henceforward his name must be אברהם Abraham. Which is made up of three words, viz. אב Ab, Father; Ram, High; and המון Hamon, A multitude: the first Letter, or first Syllable of this last word being added to his name. And so it was Abramham; but the middle מ is left out for the better sound, and so it became Abraham. That is, An-high-father-of-a-multitude: Or, A-father-of-an-high-multitude. For, God made him a father of a multitude of Nations. This being Gods own Etymon of his name, other Curiosities about it are to be rejected. Nor did God only change his name: but his wives also, upon the self-same ground and occasion. (b) And God said to Abraham, As for Sarai thy wife, Thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but SARAH shall her name be. And I will bless her, and give thee a son also of her: yea I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of Nations, &c. Her old name שרי Sarai signifies, either A Princess; if the last letter י do form her name: Or, My Princess; if the last letter י be a Pronoune affixed. In which latter sense I take it. Her new name שרה Sarah, hath instead of י the letter ה, viz. the first letter of המון Hamon, that is, A multitude: and so it signifies, A-Princess-of-a-multitude. Because, as Abraham should be A father, so she should be A mother, of a multitude of Nations. Thus God wrote his Covenant and Promise in their Names, that they might not forget his Covenant, if they did not forget their names: but upon every mention of their names, Gods cordial Covenant and precious Promise might sweetly sound in their ears, and more sweetly sink into their Hearts. Abraham was the first man, and Sarah the first woman, in the world, whose names God himself changed. His renewing and increasing of their Names, denoted the renewing and increasing of Promises, Mercies and Priviledges upon them. Hence this change of Abrahams name, is (c) mentioned, as one of Gods favours to Abraham. Thus in respect of New blessings and Mercies Promised, God (d) changed Jacobs name, to Israel: cals his Church by a New name, (e) Hephzi-bah, that is, My-delight-in-her: stiles the New City, (f) JEHOVAH-SHAMMAH, that is, The LORD is there. And gives to every Christian that over-comes, (g) a white stone; and in the stone a new name written. But contrary-wise, when God threatens the lessening of mercies, and inflicting of Judgements, he is wont to lessen, shorten and diminish mens Names: Thus (h) Jeconiah, is called Coniah, (i) Idumea is called Dumah.

But How was Abraham to be a Father, an High Father of multitude of Nations? I Answer; Abraham's High Fatherhood, not in respect of many children, nor in respect of Many Families, but in respect of many Nations, is the priviledge here promised. Scripture speak speaks much of this his Fatherhood: And no meer man, beſides Abraham, had ever the like Fatherhood ſetled upon him by Divine Covenant or Promiſe. We may briefly thus conceive of it, viz. I. This his Fatherhood to multitude of Nations was not Natural, but Spiritual. It's true, Abraham was Naturally a Father of many Nations, viz. Of the Iſhmaelitiſh, Idumean, Midianitiſh, and Iſraelitiſh Nations, which deſcended of his fleſh. And this natural Fatherhood was intended in the former branch of the Promiſe, of Nations of him. But in this Promiſe God intended a further Myſterie, even a ſpiritual Fatherhood of Abraham to many, yea to all Nations that ſhould believe, viz. Not only to the Jewiſh Nation, but alſo to all the Nations of the Gentiles, that ſhould walk in the ſteps of Father Abrahams Faith and good Works, as children imitating and following their Father, though they deſcend not of him by Natural propagation. And thus (k) the Apoſtle interprets his Fatherhood: As that judicious (l) Calvin hath well obſerved. And he hereupon concludes, Abraham is not therefore called a Father of many Nations, becauſe his Seed was to be divided into divers Nations: but rather becauſe the variety of Nations was to be united and gathered together unto him. II. This ſpiritual Fatherhood of Abraham to the Nations of the Gentiles, then begins, and actually takes place, when the People and Nations of the Earth are joyned to Abraham's Seed Jeſus Chriſt by Faith. Hence the Apoſtle ſaith; (m) If ye be Chriſts, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and heirs according to Promiſe. And (n) They which are of Faith, the ſame are the children of Abraham. When the People and Nations are Converted to God, and accept Jeſus Chriſt as their Saviour by believing; then they are incorporated and adopted into the family of Abraham Spiritually, and he becomes (o) the Father of them all. This (p) was firſt fulfilled notably when (the Jews rejecting the Goſpel) Jeſus Chriſt began to be preached to, and believed in, by the Gentiles. And as the Gentiliſh Nations were and are daily called; ſo this was and will be more and more fulfilled, till the fulneſs of the Gentiles be come in. III. Abrahams Spiritual Fatherhood to the multitude of Nations, hath in the Nature and Foundation of it, notable reſemblance to Gods Spiritual Fatherhood to his Elect in Chriſt. God is a (q) Father to his people in Chriſt; and they are ſons and daughters of the Almighty: So Abraham is a (r) Father to all the Faithful Nations, and they are the children of Abraham. The reſemblance ſeems to ſtand thus. 1. God the Father (s) Spiritually begets his children in Jeſus Chriſt by his Spirit and the Seed of his Word. So Abraham in a ſort begat the multitude of Nations his ſpiritual and believing Seed, by his believing of Gods promiſe to that effect. Hence the believing Gentiles are ſtiled, (t) That Seed which is of the Faith of Abraham, who is the Father of us all. Yet here's a vaſt difference in this generation of God, and of Abraham. God the Father begets his Spiritual children effectively, and properly; he

he effectually works and breeds (u) Faith and all the Divine Nature in them, whereby they become his children: Abraham begets his Spirituall children, not effectively, by breeding Faith in them; but onely analogically and improperly in a kinde of proportion and resemblance, inasmuch as he Father-like propagates the righteousness of Faith and true blessedness to all the Faithfull, by his Doctrine, Example and Covenant. All that enjoy these Priviledges after Abraham, must thus in a sort have them derived & propagated from Abraham.

2. God begets children (x) like to himself in wisdom, holiness, righteousness, mercifulness, perfectness, and in other excellencies of the Divine Nature and Image of God. So Abraham analogically begets children also (y) like to himself, both in Faith and good works.

3. God the Father pours forth his Fatherly blessing abundantly upon all his children. (z) Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all Spirituall Blessings in heavenly things in Christ. So Abraham hath his blessing which is communicated to all the believing Nations in Christ, according to that ancient Gospel preached to Abraham, (a) In thee shall all Nations be blessed. So then they which be of Faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham. And afterwards, (b) Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law. —— That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ. But here's the difference; God blesseth efficiently: Abraham onely Instrumentally, as an Ordinance and mean by whom God conveyes in some sort the blessing upon the Gentiles.

4. Finally, God the Father hath an Inheritance for all his children. (c) All the sons of God are heirs of God through Christ. —— (d) If children, then heirs, heirs of God, and joynt-heirs with Christ. If so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. And what's the Inheritance of Gods heirs? Peter tels us, (e) The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ hath begotten us again unto a lively hope, by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an Inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for us. Thus Abraham hath an Inheritance for all his Seed; both he and they are now by Promise (f) heirs of the world through the righteousness of Faith. And shall at last through Christ, (g) sit down with Abraham, and with him inherit the kingdom prepared for them from the foundation of the world.

Hence, 1. What superlative honour did God put upon Abraham, in conferring such an high Fatherhood upon him! It was his great honour to be a Naturall Father to the whole Nation of the Jews, that peculiar Nation of God, beyond all the Nations. But it was his greater honour to be an High Spirituall Father of multitude of Nations; even of all the Nations in the earth, whether in Europe, Asia, Africa, or America, that after him should believe till the end of the world. All believing Kings, Princes, and Potentates, must acknowledge Abraham their Father; and it's more Honour to them that they are Abrahams children, then that as Kings and Potentates, themselves are Fathers of greatest Kingdoms and Nations. As a Father is above above all his children: So Abraham is Honoured above all Christian Nations, and the Potentates thereof in this world. And at last Abraham may say at the Resurrection of the just: Lord, here am I, and all these my Spirituall children which thou hast given me. 2. The Calling and Conversion of all the Nations of the Gentiles unto God in Christ, was notably promised to Abraham. For how else was he to be a Father of multitude of Nations: but by the Gentiles becoming his children in Christ by believing? This Conversion of the Gentiles the (k) Prophets most triumphantly foretold: and the (l) Apostle most singularly magnified, as an eminent Mystery of Christ. This Mystery God revealed in his Promise to Abraham: and engraved it for the greater certainty upon the name of ABRAHAM. 3. By Abrahams Fatherhood to the Multitude of Nations, God provided for Abraham an innumerable Seed, like the stars of Heaven, dust of the earth, and sands on the sea shore. These Promises were not so compleatly fulfilled in his natural Jewish Seed, though they were very numerous: as in his Spirituall Gentilish Seed, which became (k) innumerably numerous. 4. When the Nations and Gentiles by Conversion are added to Abrahams people, and have Abraham to their Father, they may as his children, lay free and assured claim to Abrahams Blessing, Inheritance, Covenant, Promises, and all his Priviledges, so far as of common concernment to his faithfull posterity. This is an eminent advantage to all and every of the faithful. Make it but clear ye are Abrahams children, and he your Father, according to (l) former evidences, and all is yours. 5. All Christian and believing Nations are brought into a state of spiritual brotherhood, having one Father Abraham. And therefore they should bear all brotherly affections, and express all brotherly Actions and carriages one towards another, especially in Spirituals. They should (m) love as brethren, be pitifull, be courteous. And not be as (n) Ishmael towards Isaac, mockers, persecutors, and enemies towards each other. The Apostles charge to the Ephesians, may be well extended to all Abrahamites throughout the world; (o) Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice. And be ye kinde one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christs sake hath forgiven you.

7. Finally, God in a special manner intended and implicitly promised to Abraham, That Primary and eminent Seed Jesus Christ. For, 1. In (p) promising Isaac to Abraham, He promised Jesus Christ; Isaac being a singular Type of Christ, (1) In his Birth, (2) In his Circumcision, (3) In his sufferings, (4) In his being offered, (5) In his Deliverance, and (6) In his marriage, as (q) some have well noted. Hereupon we may well conceive that Abraham in seeing Isaac's day, who was the Type, (r) saw Christs day, who was the Antitype. And though he rejoyced and was glad, because of Isaac: yet he chiefly rejoyced because of Christ. 2. In promising to Abraham such an innumerable Seed, like the Dust, Stars, and Sands: God especially promised Jesus Christ, in (f) whom all the believing Gentiles should become his Spirituall Seed, as in Isaac the Iews became his Naturall Seed. 3. In promising (t) Kings to come of Abraham and Sarah, God especially promised Iesus Christ to come of them, according to the flesh, who is (u) Lord of Lords, and King of Kings. 4. In promising to settle an universall (x) fatherhood upon Abraham, in respect of the multitude of Nations; God promised Iesus Christ to Abraham, in and upon whom through Faith Abrahams Fatherhood is peculiarly founded and established. And therefore from all these particulars it is clear, That in this Numerous Seed promised to Abraham, Iesus Christ, that Seed of Seeds was especially promised to descend of him: As (y) Justin Martyr notably shews against the Iews. And in (z) Christs birth this was eminently fulfilled, as the line of Christ doth infallibly demonstrate. For as Joseph his supposed Father, was Abrahams natural son, according to Matthew: So Mary Christs real Mother, was Abrahams natural Daughter according to Luke.

Hence, 1. Jesus Christ the son of God, Became also the son of Abraham. So he was promised: so he was (a) performed. The son of God by eternall generation, becomes the son of Abraham by Naturall Propagation. How admirable this Mysterie! Behold I shew you a Paradox. Abrahams Father became Abrahams son, Abrahams maker is made Abrahams childe. As man he became Abrahams son: who as God was Abrahams Father. 2. Abraham was dignified with honour upon honour. He must be a father of many Nations, A Father of Kings, yea, a Father of Iesus Christ the King of Kings. This was the chief glory and excellency of his high Fatherhood indeed. Was it so much to be a Father of Christians? What was it then to be a (b) Father of Christ? Yet as Mary was more happy in bearing Christ in her heart, then in her womb: So Abraham was more honoured in being a Member of Christ by believing in him, then in being a Father of Christ descending of him. 3. All Abrahams children are Christs brethren. The Iews his Natural, the believing Gentiles his Spiritual brethren: For naturally or Spiritually Abraham is the Father of them all. And though many persons when they are grown rich and great, are ashamed of their poor kindred, will scarce own them: yet Jesus Christ (c) is not ashamed to call them brethren; though he be (d) the brightnes of his heavenly Fathers glory, and the expresse character of his person. This honour have all the true children of Abraham: Jesus Christ is their (e) Elder Brother. Yea God in Christ is become their Father. Jesus Christ became the Son of Abraham with us: that we might become the sons of God with him. Hence Christ risen said to Mary, (f) Go unto my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

Thus of the second Covenant-Mercy promised Abraham, viz. A numerous Seed.

III. Eminency of Name. This a third Covenant-Mercy which God Promiſed to Abraham. (g) And I will make thy name great. Hebr. And I will greaten thy name, or, I will magnifie thy name. By Abrahams Name, underſtand any thing in Abraham that made him known to others, or diſtinguiſhed him from others; As his denominations, commendations given him in Scripture, Graces, Duties, or other excellencies. For, by theſe a man is known and diſtinguiſhed, as by his Name. By Gods greatning his Name, underſtand his putting honour, fame, renown, celebrity and dignity upon his name, that it ſhould ſpread and be illuſtrious far and near throughout the world. God then, in promiſing to Greaten his Name, promiſed him great honour, dignity, ſplendour, fame, renown and glory in the world. Here inquire we, 1. Wherein true greatneſs of Name conſiſts. 2. How this Promiſe was Performed to Abraham. 3. What may be hence inferred.

1. True greatneſs of Name, True Fame and Renown may be conſidered, Negatively, and Affirmatively.

Negatively. True Renown or greatneſs of Name conſiſts not in theſe things, viz. 1. Not in ſelf-opinionatneſs, ſelf-Admiration, or ſelf-flattery. A man may be puft up with Self-conceit meerly through Self-ignorance and Self-deceit. He may be very high in his own eyes, when he is very low in the eyes of God and man. (h) The Phariſee crack'd and brag'd much of himſelf: but was never a jot the better man. This was not his credit and renown: but his vain-glory, his blott, his infamy: (i) For, not he that commendeth himſelf is approved: but whom the Lord commendeth. How (k) unſavoury is a mans praiſe from his own mouth! 2. Not in popular applauſe, or acclamations of the people. That's a notable Item of the Apoſtles; (l) —— whoſe praiſe is not of men, but of God. They that are cry'd up of the people, are not therefore preſently renowned. For, (1) People are generally very ignorant, and know not wherein true fame and dignity ſtands. And hence they oft commend, what they ſhould condemn: And cry up to the Heavens, what God cryes down to hel. (m) That which is oftimes highly eſteem'd among men, is abomination in the ſight of God. (2) People are for moſt part very corrupt, and hence are apt to magnifie what ſuits with their luſts and corrupt humours, but to deny the contrary. The People cryed up wicked Herod as (n) a God: whom God inſtantly deſtroyed, and he was eaten up of worms. (o) The world loves his own: while Chriſtians are (p) everywhere ſpoken againſt. Tertullus cals that unjuſt and rotten-hearted Felix, (q) moſt noble: but bleſſed Paul, A peſtilent fellow; Greek, a very peſtilence. The Iews cryed, (r) Let Jeſus be crucified: but Barabbas releaſed. True honour (s) cannot ſtand in corrupt mens applauſe. Yea its wofull to have all mens good word. (t) Wo unto you when all men ſhall ſpeak well of you, for ſo did their Fathers to the falſe Prophets. (3) People are very various, unſtable and mutable, they cry up to day what they cry down to morrow. The Barbarians seeing a viper fastning on Pauls hand, (u) said, he was a Murderer: but perceiving Paul to shake off the viper without harm, they said, He was a God Yea the Iews themselves one day cry, (x) Hosannah to the son of David: and within a few dayes, (y) Crucifie him, crucifie him. No stable renown can be bottomed upon such unstable Principles. 3. Not in highest worldly enjoyments, or carnall priviledges. As nobleness of descent, greatness of power and authority, wisdom, riches, strength, beauty, &c. (z) God doth not call and honour many wise, rich, noble, &c. but rather the foolish, poor, base, and things that are not. (a) Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might; let not the rich man glory in his riches. So that (nec bona animi, Corporis, nec fortunæ) neither natural accomplishments of minde, body, or state, are matter of true glorying, and renown in Gods account. 4. Finally, True renown and greatness of name consists not in the meer externals of Religion. Not in the bare enjoying of Gods Gospel, Ordinances, and Officers: nor in naked professions of Christianity, Forms of godliness, or endowments of formall hypocrites, though seemingly never so specious Saint-like or Angelical. For all these may be the lot of (b) hypocrites and Reprobates, (c) who shall be never truly renowned.

Affirmatively. True Renown, and Greatness of Name indeed consists, 1. In saving relations to, and interest in God, through Jesus Christ. All people are counted as (d) No people, till they become the people of God: But then they are the onely people in the world. When man in the first Adam fell from God, he stript himself of all his Glory: when man in Christ the last Adam regains God, he is reinvested with the supream Glory. What greater shame and misery, then to be (e) without God in the world? What greater Glory and Felicity, then to have (f) the LORD to be our God? God is the matchless (g) Glory of his people, in the sight of all the Nations: And Christ is (h) the glory of his people Israel. Hereby the Church is made (i) An eternall Excellency, a joy of many Generations: So that God saith to her; (k) Thou shalt call thy wals salvation, and thy Gates praise. The Sun shall be no more thy light by day, neither for brightness shall the Moon give light unto thee: But the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy Glory. 2. In Truth of Grace, and power of godliness. For, this is an Orient spark of (l) the Divine Nature: This is the bright Character and (m) Image of God. To be sanctified, is in part to be (n) Glorified. And to increase in sanctification, and the perfections thereof, is (o) to be changed into the same image of the Lord, from Glory to Glory. Grace is Glory begun. Glory is Grace consummate. This is true renown in Gods account. (p) He is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the Spirit, and not in the Letter, whose praise is not of men but of God. 3. In sincere well-doing. It's great renown to be adorned with true Grace: It's double renown to exercise true Grace sincerely in all acts acts of Faith and Obedience. By the Actings of Faith (q) the Elders have obtained a good report, a great name. By that bleſſed exerciſe of (r) walking with God, Enoch and Noah obtained great and true renown. Noah ſingularly acted (s) righteouſneſs, and uprightneſs; Abraham (t) Self-denial, Faith and Obedience; Jacob (u) Zeal, Fervency, and Faith in his Prayers and wraſtlings with God; Moſes Meekneſs, Job Faith, Patience and Conſtancy under greateſt afflictions; David heavenly and Seraphicall Devotions; Hezekiah and Joſiah Zeal in Reformation of the Houſe and Church of God, &c. And in all theſe gracious acts and Exerciſes, they have gained a great name in the Book of God, and are propounded as Patterns herein reſpectively to all Gods people. 4. Finally, True Renown and greatneſs of name conſiſts, In upright valiant and conſtant ſufferings for well-doing. It is not onely a Priveledge to believe in Chriſt, but alſo to ſuffer for Chriſt. (x) For unto you it is given in the behalf of Chriſt, not onely to believe on him, but alſo to ſuffer for his ſake. As if it were ſome further dignity to ſuffer for him, then to believe in him. It's great (y) ſhame to ſuffer as a evill doer: but to ſuffer as a Chriſtian, is not ſhame, but ſingular glory. Hence Peter; (z) If ye be reproached for the name of Chriſt, happy are ye; for the Spirit of Glory and of God reſteth upon you: on their part he is il-ſpoken of, but on your part he is glorified. By the Spirit of glory and of God, The Syriack verſion underſtands, The glorious Spirit of God: And Beza much approves it. But doth not the Article (τὸ) here twice expreſſed, hint ſome further thing: viz. the eminent glory and dignity of the ſufferer: againſt the infamy and ignominy of ſuffering? You are reproached for Chriſt: but the Spirit of glory (the Eminency of glory) reſts upon you; and not onely ſo, but the Spirit of God alſo. And no wonder. For to ſuffer uprightly for well-doing; (1) Is to ſuffer (a) for Chriſt, for righteouſneſs, for conſcience to God, &c. And that's a glorious Cauſe. (2) Is to ſuffer (b) with Chriſt: and that's a glorious Companion. (3) Is to prepare for (c) raigning with Chriſt: and that's a glorious Crown. Hereupon (d) the Apoſtles rejoyced, that they were thought worthy to ſuffer ſhame for Chriſt. Paul (e) gloried in tribulation; and triumphed in his chains, priſon, and in the marks of the Lord Ieſus upon his body. Hence B. Cyprian ſo extolls the dignity and glory of the perſecuted Church; (f) O bleſſed our Church, which the honour of Divine favour doth ſo illuminate, which in our times the glorious blood of Martyrs doth ſo illuſtrate! It was formerly white by the works of the brethren; now it is Purple by the blood of Martyrs. To her flowers are wanting, nor Lillies, nor Roſes. Now let all ſtrive after the moſt ample Dignity of one of theſe honours; that they may either receive white Crowns for well-doing, or purple Crowns for ſuffering for well-doing. And elſwhere he thus extols and

2. This Promiſe of Greatning Abrahams Name, and crowning him with true renown, was notably performed to Abraham. For, I. Abraham was inveſted with true Renown and Glory in the parts and perfections thereof. 1. He had ſaving relation to, and intereſt in God through Jeſus Chriſt, which is the true foundation of all true Renown. The Lord had Covenanted (h) to be a God to him and to his Seed. And ſince the Fall God is not a God to any by Covenant but onely in Jeſus Chriſt. 2. He had Truth of Grace, and power of godlineſs. For, he (i) ſubmitted ſelf-denyingly to Gods effectual call. He truly (k) believed Gods Promiſes, though never ſo improbable to be performed: He was (l) juſtified by Faith, believing Gods Promiſe, and chiefly eying and accepting Chriſt in the Promiſe: He was ſincerely and univerſally (m) obedient to God in all his Commands, though never ſo repugnant to fleſh and blood, and carnall reaſon: and he was truly conſciencious in the (n) religious ordering of his Family, commanding them to keep the way of the Lord, &c. By all which the truth and power of his grace was abundantly teſtified. 3. He was ſincere in well-doing; as all theſe his former gracious acts demonſtrate. And therefore (to ſpeak nothing of his worldly greatneſs, Prince-like Family, wealth, valour, victorioufneſs, and ſuch other inferiour accompliſhments which procured him temporal renown in the ſight of men) by theſe heavenly accompliſhments he obtained true Spiritual renown and greatneſs of Name in the ſight of God. II. Abrahams Name was great before God, and Man. 1. Before God. For, he was called, (o) The Friend of God, thrice in Scripture. Yea, Abraham was the firſt man in the world, and (I think) the onely man in Scripture that is plainly and particularly ſtiled, The Friend of God. Such a Friend, as to whom God himſelf would impart his (p) ſecret Counſels and purpoſes before they came to paſs, and to whoſe friends he would be a friend indeed; what renown was this to a mortall man, to be counted the friend of God, before all other in the world? 2. Before men, Abrahams Name alſo became exceeding great; and this chiefly in regard of his Spiritual excellencies and glory in ſight of Jews, Heathens, and Chriſtians. For, (1) The Jews, for 3000. years and upwards to this day, count none none greater then Abraham the Father of their Nation. Hence, they glotied much in being the natural (q) children of Abraham: and they ask Jesus Christ himself; (r) Art thou greater then our Father Abraham? (s) The Heathens and forreign Nations also had high esteem of Abraham. His Name was great among them. They counted him (t) A Prince of God: A mighty Potentate; as (u) divers writers testifie. (x) Finally Abraham's Name is so renowned among the Christian Gentiles, since their first Conversion in the Apostles time to this day, that all of them account it their true Spiritual Honour and Happiness to become the Spiritual (y) children of Abraham in Jesus Christ by Faith.

3. Inferences hence, 1. How eminently did God Dignifie and Magnifie Abraham! He was naturally very mean and low; but supernaturally God set him up on high. He was a Chaldean, and son of a Chaldean, (x) ungodly, and probably a grosse (y) Idolater: but God made him a Father of all Israel, a pious and pure worshipper of the true God. His name at first was but Abram; but God (z) gave him the name of Abraham. At first he was very obscure: but afterwards the Lord wonderfully crowned him with true glory and honour indeed. And who more renowned then Abraham? This was the Lords great favour to him: and his happiness in the Lords favour. How easily can the Lord lift up from ignominy, to glory: from the dust, to the Throne! II. True Renown and Greatness of name is a divine blessing, and very desirable. God is the peculiar Author of it, and of all the precious ingredients that make it up: therefore it is divine. And it is promised among other Covenant-Mercies and blessings to Abraham: and therefore it's a desirable blessing and mercy. Worldly renown, bottomed upon Self-opinion, Popular Applause, Highest carnal accomplishments in this world, or meer externals of religion, is as despicable: as true spiritual renown, setled upon his right Base, is desirable. If ignorant Pagans have toyled, attempted, adventured, hazzarded so much, to make their names great and renowned in vain-glory: How much more should we Christians give all diligence to make our names great in true Glory? Get Abraham's renown: you have true renown. Labour, 1. That the Lord may be your God in Christ; 2. That true Grace may make you (a) all glorious within; 3. That sincere well-doing may make you renowned without, your clothing of wrought gold; And, if need require, 4. That true suffering for well doing, may be as a Crownet upon your Crown: and then you are truly honoured indeed, and have Names far surpassing those of Kings and Princes. To this end consider; (b) Such a Name and renown transcends all earthly treasures; (c) is better then precious Ointment, & rather to be chosen then great riches, yea (d) better then of sons and of daughters: even an everlasting name that shall not be cut off. Augustine said well, (d) A good fame is a good odour, which whosoever hath by the works of good life, whilst he follows Christs steps, he, as it were perfumes his feet with most precious smell. Especially it is necessary to the (n) officers in the Church, for the better promoting of the spiritual good of the Church: for they are to be examples and patterns for the imitation of others. Augustine said well to this purpose; (o) Whosoever keeps his life from hainous crimes, doth well to himself: but he that preserves his fame, is merciful to others also. For our life is necessary to us, our fame to others. And elsewhere; (p) *For our own sake our Conscience sufficeth us: for your sakes our fame ought not to be stained, but to excel amongst you. Hold what I say, and distinguish. There are two things, Conscience and Fame. Conscience is necessary to thy self, fame to thy neighbour. IV. His Seed's victoriousness over their Enemies. This a fourth Covenant-Mercy which God promised to Abraham. (q) And thy Seed shall possess the Gate of his enemies, 1. What is here promised, but the prevalency and victoriousness of Abraham's Seed over their Enemies? For, 1. In their gates were the (r) Elders and chief Rulers of their Cities wont to sit: and there they exercised judgement, and consulted about publique safety and prosperity of the people. 2. In their gates were the chief Defences, Munitions, and Fortifications of their Cities against Enemies. Hence those phrases of, Hereupon by [The Gates of his Enemies,] is meant all the Polity, Authority, Power and Dominion of the Enemies. In allusion whereunto, Christ useth that phrase, to shew the impregnableness of his Church; (t) upon this rock I build my Church, and the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it. And by [his Seed's possessing the Gates of his Enemies,] is meant their victoriousness, prevalency and (u) Dominion over their Enemies, so as to deprive them of all their Authority, power, munition, &c. and to possess them themselves together with all their Cities, Habitations and Inheritances, giving laws unto them.

2. This Covenant-Mercy was performed frequently to Abraham's Seed, God making them triumph over most potent and numerous enemies from time to time. But had its most eminent accomplishment in Joshuah, David, and Jesus Christ. 1. In Joshuah, who conducting Israel into the promised rest of Canaan, (x) possessed the gates of 31 Kings, and took all their Cities and Countries: and none was able to stand before him all his days. 2. In David the King, whom the Lord (y) prospered in all his atchievements. So that He subdued (z) Moab, Ammon, The Philistines, Amalek, Hadadezer King of Zobah, and Edom. Yea David subdued Jerusalem, and (a) took the strong Fort of the Iebusites there, the Fort of Zion; and called it the City of David. Though in Ioshuahs time the children of Israel (b) could not drive out the Iebusites from Jerusalem. 3. In Jesus Christ the King of Kings, the victoriousness of Abraham's Seed was most eminent. For he by sufferings, death, &c. conquered all his and our Spiritual enemies, (c) Sin, Death, Grave, Hell, the Devil, with all Principalities and powers of darkness, leading even Captivity it self captive, and triumphing over them. All which glorious conquests he wrought in performance of this Covenant-Mercy to Abraham and his Seed. (d) The Lord God of Israel —— hath raised up an horn of Salvation for us in the house of his servant David; —— that we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us. To perform the Mercy promised to our Fathers, and to remember his holy Covenant: The Oath which he swore to our Father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies, might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life. So that Jesus Christ is the (e) true Ioshuah, and the true (f) David: and his victories, the true victories. They were but Types of him: and their victories shadows of his. He possesses and spoils the Gates of all our Spiritual enemies: he subdues them utterly: he seizes the whole power of Sin, Death, Hell and Satan, so that they shall never prevail against him and his Elect.

3. Hence, 1. How sure and strong are Gods Promises! If God promise to Abraham, that his Seed shall possess the Gates of his Enemies: no numerousness, power or policy of enemies shall be able to withſtand his Seed. No multitude of warlike Nations, no munitions of Rocks or Mountains, no City-wals though as it were reaching up to Heaven, no Divinations or Inchantments, nay no power of Sin, Death, darkneſs or infernal Devils, ſhall be able to defeat or prevent the accompliſhments of Gods Promiſes. They were ſtrong: but Gods Truth and Promiſes were ſtronger then all. Gods Promiſe in this particular obtained againſt all difficulties, oppoſitions, improbabilities and ſeeming impoſſibilities. When difficulties make us doubt of the performance of any promiſe: remember we this promiſe of Abraham's Seeds poſſeſsing the gates of their enemies, and how punctually and abundantly it was performed in the Judges, Kings and other Governours of Iſrael of Abrahams race, but eſpecially in Joſhuah, David and Jeſus Chriſt himſelf. 2. Victorious-neſs over their enemies is a ſingular Mercy to Abrahams Seed. Their enemies are many, mighty, malicious and deſperate: their very tender mercies are cruelties. To fall into their hands, eſpecially into the hands of their Spiritual Enemies, is moſt dangerous. To be delivered from them is joyous; but to poſſeſs their gates, and have dominion over them and all their authority, force and power, is glorious. This honour and glory have Abrahams Seed, not only over their Spiritual, but alſo (ſo far as good and ſafe for them) over their Corporal enemies: and that by vertue of this Promiſe to Abraham. 3. What myſteries were wrapped up in Gods tranſactions and dealings with Abraham and the Fathers of old. Their Hiſtories are full of myſteries. Go no further then Abraham. God promiſed, that his Seed ſhould poſſeſs the gates of his enemies. At firſt reading, who would extend this further then to his Natural Seed the Jews againſt their corporal enemies? But the New Teſtament (g) teacheth us to extend it eſpecially to his eminent Seed Jeſus Chriſt, and his dominion over all Spiritual enemies: yea and conſequently in Chriſt to all Abrahams Spiritual Seed, who (h) over all their afflictions and adverſaries, the World, Sin and Satan, are more then Conquerours through him that loved them. In like ſort; (i) Abraham's two ſons, Iſhmael by Hagar, and Iſaac by Sarah, are, in an Allegory, The two Covenants. Iſaac in his birth, Sacrificing, and Deliverance from the Altar; A type of Chriſts Birth, Death and Reſurrection. Hereupon notably ſaid Auguſtine; (k) *God had ſuch men, and in that time he made ſuch Preachers to his Son which was to come, that not only in thoſe things which they ſpake, but alſo in thoſe things which they did, and in thoſe things that fell out, Chriſt might be ſought, Chriſt might be found, Chriſt might be underſtood. Thus Thus of the fourth Covenant-Mercy promised to Abraham, viz. His Seeds victorioulness over their Enemies.

V. The Inheritance of Canaan to him and to his Seed, may be a fifth Covenant-Mercy promised to Abraham. This is a Mercy which the Lord much insists upon, and often mentions both to Abraham and his Seed. What manner of land Canaan was, and how excellent, (l) hath been formerly described. Therefore insist we upon it somewhat the more. And whilst we pause here a little, let us consider, 1. How God revealed his Promise of Canaan to Abraham. 2. How God performed his Promise touching Canaan. 3. Whether under Canaan promised, some further Mysteries were not intended to Abraham and his Seed: And what those mysteries may be. 4. Inferences resulting from all.

(l) Book 1. Chap. 3. Aphor. 1. Propos. 1, 3.

1. How God revealed his Promise of Canaan to Abraham. Gods way of revealing and making promise of Canaan to Abraham, is very observable. For,

(1) God made this Promise of Canaan to Abraham often. Four several times at least, viz. 1. When Abraham was newly come from Chaldea (m) into Canaan, according to Gods call and command. —— Unto thy Seed will I give this land. 2. When Abraham and Lot had separated themselves one from another, for peace sake betwixt them and their servants. ——— (n) And the LORD said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, Northward, and Southward, and Eastward, and Westward. For, all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy Seed for ever. —— Arise, walk through the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it: For I will give it unto thee. 3. After Abrahams victory, and Melchizedeck's blessing of Abraham. —— (o) The LORD made a Covenant with Abram, saying, unto thy Seed have I given this land, from the River of Egypt, unto the great River, the River Euphrates, &c. At this time God (p) Covenanted to give him the land. (q) Said, for sureness sake, he had given it his Seed already. (r) Bounded the Land. (s) And described it to be the present possession of ten Nations particularly named. 4. When Abraham was 99 years old, God most solemnly renews Covenant with him, one clause whereof was the Promise of Canaan. —— (t) And I will give unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, all the land of Canaan, for an Everlasting possession. In the two first Canaan was promised: but in these two last Covenanted. 5. After Abraham had offered up Isaac, The Lord Promised, that, (u) His Seed should possess the gate of his enemies, which was an implicit promise of Canaan: and fulfilled in part in Joshuahs conquests of Canaan. Surely there was more then ordinary in this Promise of Canaan, that the Lord so often repeats it and propounds it. Hereafter we shall inquire into the mystetie.

(2) God (r) appeared to Abraham in the land of Canaan, when first he revealed revealed to him this promise of Canaan. Abraham is the first man in the world, to whom Scripture testifies that God appeared. God is said to appear to Abraham at least four several times, viz. when he was (t) in Chaldea, whence God called him; when he was newly (u) come into Canaan. When he (x) was 99 years old. And, (x) In the plains of Mamre. How God appeared to him, is a more subtile inquiry. I love not to wade into Curiosities. Yet here I think we are to distinguish betwixt Visions and Apparitions. Visions have a larger notion then Apparitions. Every Apparition is a Vision: but not every Vision an Apparition. A vision is commonly taken for some image, form or similitude representing to the Sight of of Body or Soul the thing to be seen: whether it be an outward image, subject to bodily eyes; or imaginary, represented to the imagination; or intellectual, represented by intelligible Species to the understanding. But an Apparition is usually understood of some Outward visible form represented to one awake. When God is said absolutely to Appear, and it is not added by vision, or dreams, &c. explanatorily: Then we are to understand it of Gods manifesting or representing himself in some visible form or shape to the corporal eye. And thus probably he here appeared to Abraham. But whether in the form of a man, or otherwise: we may not safely speak, where Scripture is silent. However this was an High favour of God to Abraham, and a familiar condescension, that the invisible God should represent himself to him in visible shape. They were eminent favourites of God to whom he appeared: As (y) Abraham, (z) Isaac, (a) Jacob, (b) Moses, (c) Gideon, (d) Samuel, (e) David, (f) Solomon. Hence it is brought in as a great aggravation of Solomons backsliding, (g) That his heart was turned from the LORD God of Israel, which had appeared unto him twice.

(r) Gen. 12. 7

(3) God promised the inheritance of Canaan to Abraham and his Seed, (h) when as yet he had no child at all. So that at once he promised him both Heirs, and Inheritance. So bountiful is God to his people.

(4) God promised Canaan to Abraham, (i) when the Canaanite was now in the land, and nine other Nations of strong and warlike people, besides the Canaanites, were actual possessors. The whole (k) Earth is the Lords: and it is his Prerogative to dispossess, and possess; to pluck up, and plant Nations and People therein, where and when he pleaseth. He (l) changeth Times and Seasons. All these ten Nations in possession, could not hinder Gods promise, nor Abraham's Faith touching the Reversion to his Seed. The Promise of God, and the Faith of the Godly, is above all impediments.

(5) God promised Canaan to Abraham and his Seed (m) after their 400 years sojourning, servitude and affliction in a land not theirs, Canaan in Egypt: and that in the fourth Generation his Seed should come thither. God can promise, and Faith can believe at any distance: For all things are present with God, and (n) Faith is the subsistence subsistence of things not seen. Mercies long expected, are double welcome when they come: And sharp afflictions are excellent Preparatories to them. Canaan was the sweeter to Israel after their hardship in Egypt and the Wilderness: and Heaven will be the sweeter to us, after Earths many distresses and tribulations: but grudge we not at (o) much tribulation in the way, whilst the Kingdom of God will be the journeys end. Thus the Lord promised Canaan to Abraham.

2. How the Lord performed this Promise of Canaan to Abraham and his Seed: we may see in these ensuing particulars.

(1) God gave all the land of Canaan, that very numerical land of Canaan in kind, to Abraham's Seed, as he had promised. Sometimes God performs his promises, not in kind, but in equivalency: gives not the very (r) numerical blessing promised, but as good or better. But here he gave the self-same Mercy, the land of Canaan, which he promised to Abrahams Seed. This the History of Joshuah abundantly testifieth, describing how the land was obtained, Divided to the twelve Tribes, and possessed by them. And at last all is summed up in these words; (s) And the Lord gave unto Israel all the land which he sware to give unto their Fathers, and they possessed it, and dwelt therein. —— There failed not ought of any good thing, which the LORD had spoken unto the House of Israel: all came to pass. This is often declared in the (t) Book of Psalms. And this is solemnly acknowledged after the Babylonish Captivity, by the (u) Levites in a day of publique Humiliation. And this God did in remembrance of his Covenant and promise to Abraham; (x) For he remembered his holy promise, and Abraham his servant. And he brought forth his people with joy, and his chosen with gladness. And gave them the lands of the Heathen, and they inherited the labour of the people.

(1) God punctually Performed his promise of Canaan to Abraham's Seed, in regard of time. He had promised, That (y) Abraham's Seed should be a stranger in a land not theirs, and should serve them; and they should afflict them 400 years. —— But in the fourth Generation they should come hither again: that is, to the land of Canaan to possess it. This place is involved in divers difficulties. For, It is questionable, 1. What land is here meant, wherein Abrahams Seed should sojourn 400 years. Seeing it is evident by the Scripture Chronology touching those times, that his Seed lived not in all (z) 220 years in Egypt: and great part of that time they lived in in much prosperity till Josephs death when their afflictions seem to begin. 2. What should be meant by this fourth Generation: Seeing Abrahams Seed came not again into Canaan till the seventh Generation from Abraham. For, (a) Eleazar the Priest, (son of Aaron, of Amram, of Kohath, of Levi, of Israel, of Isaac, of Abraham) the seventh from Abraham exclusively, was one of the neerest generations to Abraham that came into Canaan to possess it, and (b) he was one that divided the land by lot unto the Tribes.

To the first of these Questions, I answer; 1. That the land of the sojourning, servitude, and affliction of Abraham's Seed 400 years, was partly Canaan the land of promise, which was not as yet actually theirs: (partly Egypt. 2. That, the time of this 400 years beginning was at the birth of Isaac, (who (c) as Chronologers observe) was born precisely 30 years after the promise was made first to Abraham: and the end of these 400 years from Isaac's birth, and 430 years from the first Promise to Abraham, was joyntly in the (d) selfsame night that Israel went out of Egypt. 3. That, (though (e) some interpret Israels servitude and affliction under the Egyptians 400 years, to be meant, not of the whole 400 years from the beginning to the end, but only of the latter end of those 400 years,) yet I see not but in some sense we may say that the affliction of Abraham's seed by the Egyptians, not only concluded, but also began those 400 years. For, Ishmael the son of Hagar the Egyptian, is said presently after Isaacs birth and weaning to (f) mock Isaac: that is, (g) He that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, as the Apostle expounds it. Broughton hath well noted this, saying, (h) Here begin the first manifest afflictions of Abraham's Seed by Ishmael the Egyptian by Hagar 400 years before the coming from Egypt, Gen. 15. 13. & Act. 7. 6.

To the second Question, I Answer; Some, by the fourth Generation, understand the fourth hundred year: taking every hundred of years for a generation. But this interpretation seems too much to force the phrase of the fourth Generation; and where doth Scripture stile 100 years a Generation? Besides, according to this interpretation the promise was not exactly performed, for Israel came not into Canaan till 40 years after the term of the 400 years was expired. I like therefore their resolution better, who, by the fourth Generation, understand properly the fourth generation or descent of persons: not counted immediately from Abraham, but rather from Israels going down into Egypt. And so the promise was punctually performed in the fourth Generation from that time Israel came to take possession of Canaan as their own. For Eleazer, (i) who divided the land to the Tribes, was (k) the fourth from Kohath, who was one (l) that went down into Egypt. To this effect saith Ainsworth; (m) This promise was verified, when Eleazar the son of Aaron, the son of Amram, the son of Kohath came out of Egypt and parted the land of Canaan to Israel,

(3.) God gave the land of Canaan to Abrahams Seed, according to his Promise, notwithstanding all difficulties and impediments intervening betwixt the Promise and Performance. So powerfull is God, so faithfull his Promise: that all difficulties give way to the fulfilling thereof. These seven impediments were observable, 1. Israels (o) servitude and rigorous bondage under the cruell Egyptians, who would not let them depart out of Egypt. This impediment (p) God removed by inflicting so sore and miraculous plagues upon Egypt, so that at last they were glad to thrust them out. 2. Their strait at the Red Sea, after they were got out of Egypt. (q) The Red Sea being before them, Pharaoh and his Egyptian Army behinde them, and the Mountains on each hand of them so that nothing but imminent and present destruction could probably be expected. This Impediment (r) God removed by a Miracle, causing the Red Sea to open her womb that Israel might pass through it dryshod, which the Egyptians attempting to do were drowned. The sea was Israels deliverance; the Egyptians destruction: Israels Harbour; The Egyptians Grave. 3. Their many (s) wilderness wants, Temptations and afflictions, extremely discouraging them in their journey to Canaan. But God supplied their wants, and relieved their afflictions. He (t) gave them bread from heaven, Mannah, (u) Water out of the Rock; Rayment, (x) their garments waxed not old; Health, their foot did not swell, for fourty years together. He (y) shewed them their way, by his Pillar of fire and cloud by night and day: and (z) healed the bitings of fiery serpents by the brazen Serpent. 4. Divers enemies in the Wilderness in the way to Canaan: viz. (a) Amalek, Sihon King of the Amorites, Og King of Bashan, and the Midianites. But the Lord discomfited them all before Israel. 5. The many (b) murmurings of Israel in the wilderness with their (c) unbelief, (d) disobedience, (e) tempting of God, (f) idolatry, and other provocations were a great impediment to their coming to Canaan. For (g) the Lord was for these sins resolving to destroy them, sware in his wrath they should not enter into his rest, and made them linger in the wilderness fourty years till all that evill and provoking generation, except Caleb and Joshua, were fallen and dead in the wilderness. But (h) Moses interceded for them, and the Lord in his riches of compassion forgave them, and brought the following generations into the promised possession. 6. The (i) River Jordan after all these impediments were removed hindred them from entring Canaan. But Jordan (k) was miraculously driven back at the Presence of the Lord, and Israel went thorough Jordans channel channel on foot to take possession. 7. Finally, The smalness of Abrahams Seed, and greatness of their enemies. For, when Canaan was first promised, (l) Abraham had no childe at all. And when his Seed went to sojourn in Egypt, (m) they were but seventy souls. How should these either withstand their enemies in their way, or drive out the Canaanites at their journeys end, who were many strong & warlike Nations! But this impediment God removed, partly, by multiplying Israel extraordinarily, so that when they were first numbred in the wilderness of Sinai, (n) they were from 20 years old and upwards males able to go forth to war 603550. besides women and children under 20. and besides all the Tribe of Levi. Partly by sending an (o) Hornet of fear and terrour upon the Canaanites before hand. So that their hearts did even melt for fear of Israel. And Partly by (p) Gods fighting for Israel, and delivering all their enemies into their hands. Thus Gods Promise was stronger then all Impediments to the performance thereof. Stronger then Pharaoh and all his Egyptians; Stronger then all the waves of the Red Sea; Stronger then all the distresses of the wilderness; Stronger then all their enemies in their way; Stronger then all Israels sins in their journey; Stronger then all the proud streams of Jordan; and stronger then all the walled Cities and warlike Nations of the Canaanites. O blessed and puissant Promises of the Lord! who would not believe them, and rely upon them!

(q) God gave the land of Canaan to Abraham and his Seed (r) for ever, as their everlasting possession. He gave it to Abraham onely by Promise. To his Seed by actual Performance. Hence Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are stiled not Heirs of Canaan, but Heirs of the promise. They inherited the Promise one after another: though that none of them actually inherited Canaan in their own persons, but in their Seed. They were content to wait Gods time of performance; and therefore in their generations by Faith (s) they sojourned in the land of Promise, as in a strange Country. Obj. But experience testifies that the Event hath not answered Gods Promise, in regard of the perpetuity of this Possession to Abrahams Seed. For Abrahams Seed the Jews are at this day, and have been long dispossessed of Canaan, and dispersed up and down the world: The Turks and Mahumetans possessing the same. Doth Gods Promise fail? Answ. Gods Promise is Truth, and cannot fail. It is always seasonably performed according to the intendment of God therein. And in this particular touching the everlasting Inheritance of Canaan to Abrahams Seed, it hath been faithfully fulfilled. For, 1. Canaan was an everlasting possession, That is properly perpetual without end or determination in respect of the Truth & Mystery signified by Canaan: viz. Heaven, (t) the Everlasting Rest of Gods people. Canaans Country, typified the Heavenly Country; as after we shall see. And thereupon that perpetuity which belonged to the Truth, is ascribed to the Type. Doubtless the Faithful Seed of Abraham, in Canaan chiefly eyed and enjoyed Heaven. 2. Canaan was an everlasting, that is, a long lasting possession to Abrahams Seed. After they were seized of it, it continued theirs more or less till Christs coming, and somewhat after. Now as (u) hath been formerly showed, The word Everlasting, or, For ever, doth not alwayes denote that which shall be perpetuall without all end, but sometimes that which shall be of long continuance though at last determinable. And thus Canaan litterally taken, was an Everlasting Possession; that is, long-lasting; (x) till a new Constitution of Church-affairs and state in the Kingdom of Christ. As other types, so this typicall Possession vanished at the coming of Christ. 3. Gods Promise of Ganaan for an Everlasting Possession, was Conditionall, not absolute. Israel failing in performance of the condition, viz. (y) Covenant-keeping with God, was justly cast out of the Land of Canaan, and yet the Truth of Gods Promise not at all violated. And though this condition be not so plainly expressed in Gods fœderall dispensation to Abraham, yet in the next Administration under Moses, it is evidently specified.

(5) Finally, God gave the Land of Canaan to Abrahams Seed upon excellent grounds and considerations. Especially, The Efficient, Impulsive, Occasionall, and Finall Causes of Gods giving Canaan to Israel, are observable. 1. The Efficient Cause of their possessing and inheriting it, was not the wisdom or Power of Israel; but Gods singular Power and Providence, working and ordering all for them. Hence, (z) It's wholly deny'd to them as their atchievment, and solely ascribed to God alone. He brought them out of Egypt: He carried them through the wilderness: He sent an Hornet of fear and terrour before them upon the Canaanites: He cast them out by fighting for Israel: And he alone planted Israel therein. 2. The Impulsive, or Moving Cause, as it were inclining the Lord to give them actuall possession of Canaan, was either Inward or Outward. (1) Inward, The Lords (a) meer Grace, Favour Mercy and Loving-kindness to Abrahams Seed. This Scripture insists much upon, and magnifies it. (2) Outward, Not any merit or desert of Israel, but (b) his own Covenant and Promise which he had made with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, that he might perform it. Hence, (c) Moses recites their sinfull miscarriages against God, to beat them off from all confidence in themselves. 3. The Occasion of Gods bringing Israel to Canaan, was (d) not their righteousness; but the wickedness of the Canaanites, Amorites, &c. which was grown to that height, that their land did even spew them out. 4. Finally, The end which the Lord intended in giving Canaan to Israel, was, not that they might live there as they listed, &c. but that they might be so much the more carefull to believe, love, fear, serve and obey him. (e) That they might observe his Statutes, and keep his Lawes.

Thus the Lord performed Canaan to Abrahams Seed.

3. Whether under Canaan Promised, some further Mysteries were not imply'd and intended to Abraham and his Seed: And what those Mysteries were; may deserve a little further consideration. And here though I prescribe not peremptorily to any mans judgement, yet let me freely propound mine own touching this matter; and then let the learned consider. Under the Inheritance of Canaan Promised to Abraham and his Seed, two further things seem plainly to be intended, viz. 1. The Heirship of the world Synechdochically. 2. The Heirship of Heaven Typically.

(1) The Heirship of the World. This by a Synechdoche of the part for the whole, seems to be promised, in and under the Inheritance of Canaan to Abraham and his Seed. My ground for this, is that of the Apostle, (f) For the Promise that he should be the HEIR of THE WORLD, was not to Abraham, or to his Seed through the Law, but through the righteousness of Faith. Where read we in all the Old Testament that it was promised to Abraham or his Seed, that they should be Heirs of the World? Onely in those Promises of the Inheritance of Canaan made to them. Canaan is not the world properly, but is put for the world figuratively, and Synechdochically. By הארץ here, (g) Some understand the World of all the Elect and faithful throughout all the Nations of the earth. Of these all Abraham is Father, and Jesus Christ his chief Seed is Heir and possessor. Some understand onely Heaven. (h) Some understand the whole Creation, both Heaven and Earth, and all the Creatures therein, with whatsoever Heaven or Earth can afford, to render Abraham and his Seed happy. And that in token, and as a pledge, handsel, or earnest hereof, Canaan was given them by Promise, as being one of the most fruitful and most pleasant parts of the world, and the glory of all lands: yea a very Type of Heaven it self, as after we shall see. To this last, I subscribe as the best Interpretation of this Text; The plain Connexion of the Context, and genuine force of the words and phrases inclining me hereunto; considering also that the Apostle testifies, (i) Godliness is profitable to all things, having Promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. And elswhere, (k) all things are yours, whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or Death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours, and ye are Christs, and Christ is Gods. So then by Covenant and Promise Abraham and his Seed had a right to all the Comforts and good things of the world, as well as to Canaan: and by vertue of this Promise of Canaan they actually enjoyed all necessary blessings and Comforts of the world, not onely when they came to possess Canaan, but before that, even whilest they sojourned in Canaan, Egypt and in the wilderness. Friends and foes, men and beasts, land and sea, Heaven and Earth, serving them and furnishing them with varieties of enjoyments according to their emergent necessities, to the admiration of the world.

(2) The Heirship of Heaven it self. Not onely the whole world was Synechdochically promised under the Inheritance of Canaan, but more especially and principally, Heaven it self Typically, as the most excellent and glorious part of the world. For better clearing of this, this, two things are to be evidenced, viz. 1. That Canaan was a Type of Heaven. 2. Wherein it was such a Type of Heaven. I. That Canaan was a Type of Heaven, is hinted by many Writers, but not so demonstrated, as might be desired. These Arguments may evince that Canaan was a Type of Heaven; and consequently that in the Promise of Canaan Heaven it self was promised. For 1. The Land of Canaan is stiled by the Apostle, (l) Gods Rest; into which they that believed not, could not enter. And yet he speaks of another Rest remaining to the people of God, different from both the Sabbaths Rest, and Canaans Rest: viz. Such a rest, which Jesus, that is, Joshuah hath not given Gods people, namely, The Heavenly Rest, wherein Gods people perfectly (m) rest from all their works and labours of sin and sorrow. (n) For if Jesus had given them Rest, then would he not afterwards have spoken of another day. There remaineth therefore a Rest to the people of God. For he that is entred into his Rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that Rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief. Canaan therefore the Temporal Rest, typified and shadowed out Heaven the Eternal Rest. 2. Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, are said (o) By Faith to sojourn in Canaan the Land of Promise as in a strange Country: confessing themselves to be strangers and Pilgrims on earth. Why? Because they looked for a City which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. Seeking and desiring a better Country, that is, An Heavenly. Therefore their eye of Faith looked at the Promise of Heaven, in the Promise of Canaan: and thereupon they were contented to live in Canaans Country as Pilgrims, in hopes that they might live in the Heavenly Country as Denizons and Citizens. Now their Faith could not have acted from Canaan to Heaven judiciously, unless Canaan had been proposed and Promised to them as a Type of Heaven. 3. The City Jerusalem; and Mount Sion in the Land of Canaan, were Types of Heaven: much more Canaan it self. As (p) sojourning in Gods Tabernacle, denoted the moving unsettled militant state of the Church on earth; so dwelling in Gods holy Hill, that is, Sion, near which the Temple was built, represented the fixed triumphant condition of Gods Church in Heaven. And we have mention of (q) The Heavenly Jerusalem, that is, not onely the Spiritual Church under the New Testament on earth, but also the Celestial Church of the glorified in Heaven: as the Citizens of that Jerusalem there mentioned, The innumerable company of Angels, and Spirits of just men made perfect, do not obscurely intimate. II. Wherein, or in what respect Canaan was a Type of Heaven. The correspondence betwixt the Type and Antitype, Canaan and Heaven, consists chiefly in these three things, viz. 1. The People possessing both. 2. The way and manner how they are brought into these possessions. 3. The Nature of the Possessions themselves. In these Regards there's much resemblance betwixt Canaan and heaven.

(p) Psal. 15. 1.

(q) Heb. 12. 22, 23, 24.

The People possessing Canaan and Heaven have these mutuall resemblances. 1. Both of them must be the Seed of Abraham. Possessors of Canaan his Natural Seed: Possessors of Heaven his Spiritual Seed. (r) And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to Promise. 2. Both of them must be circumcised. Israel could not possess Canaan (t) till they were circumcised in their flesh: The Spiritual Israel of God cannot possess Heaven (u) till they be Circumcised in Heart. 3. Both of them must be warriours and Conquerours over all their enemies, both in their way, and at their journeys end. Those that went to Canaan, (x) warred with Amaleck, Sihon, Og, Midian, and all the powers of Canaan, and overcame them all. Those that go to Heaven, must fight with the Flesh, and all its lusts, The World, and all its snares in Prosperity and Adversity, The Devil, and all the powers of darkness, Death and all its terrours, and overcome them all: The Promise still runs (y) to him that overcomes. And (z) in all these we are more then conquerours: even Triumphers through him that loved us. 4. Both must be Believers. They that believed entred into Canaan: whilest (a) others could not enter in because of unbelief: So, (b) he that believes shall enter into Heaven and be saved, but he that beleives not shall be damned, yea he is damned already, and the wrath of God abideth upon him.

The way and manner of coming to possess Canaan and Heaven, gave great similitude. For, 1. Canaan was (c) Promised by God, long before it was possessed: So Heaven is (d) promised long before it be enjoyed. 2. Israel must (e) first be delivered from Egypts bondage and miserable slavery, come into Covenant at Mount Sinai, and sojourn a long time in the wilderness, encountring with many enemies and afflictions, before they could come into Canaan: So Gods Elect must (f) first be delivered by effectuall Calling out of their Spiritual bondage and slavery under sin and Satan, come into Covenant with God at Mount Sion, and sojourn a long time, even all their life time, in the wilderness of this world, conflicting with many Adversaries, Temptations and Tribulations, before they can enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. 3. They that went to Canaan were (g) baptized in the cloud and in the sea, and all the way nourished with Mannah, bread from Heaven, and water out of the Rock: So they that go to Heaven, must in their journey thither make use of Gods (h) Ordinances, especially they must be (i) baptized with the blood and Spirit of Christ, and be (k) nourished with the true bread and water of life, Jesus Christ that came down from the Heaven of Heavens, those Mysteries Exhibited in Gods Ordinances. 4. Israel was (l) brought to the borders of Canaan by Moses, but Joshuah brought them into their Possessions as their chief Captain, subduing all their enemies before them, so that not one good thing promised did fail: So Gods Elect are brought to the borders of Heaven by Moses and the Law, (m) The Law being the Schoolmaster to bring them unto Christ; but Jesus Christ only the true Iesus, is (n) the chief Captain of their Salvation, vation, who (o) ſubdues and treads all his and their enemies under their feet, making (p) all Gods Promiſes in him ſelf yea and Amen, and at laſt (q) poſſeſſing them of heaven it ſelf. 5. Iſrael was brought to Canaan notwithſtanding all difficulties, impediments and impoſſibilities. God in performance of his Promiſes made them all give way to Iſrael, yea become contributary and ſerviceable to them. (r) The Red-Sea ſhal be dry'd, (s) the Rock of flint ſhal run floods of water, (t) Heaven ſhall rain bread, (u) The Cloud ſhall ſtill skreen and cover them from the parching heat, (x) Iordan ſhal be driven back, (y) Sun & Moon ſhall ſtand ſtill till they be avenged of their enemies, (z) walls of Iericho ſhall fall down to the ground, yea all things ſhall conſpire to bring them into Canaan. So Gods Iſrael ſhall be brought to Heaven notwithſtanding all imaginable dangers, difficulties, impediments or impoſſibilities. (a) Not ſin, nor ſorrow, nor Death, nor Devil, nor things preſent or to come can ſhut them out of Heaven. God in Performance of his Promiſe will remove all rubs and obſtructions; yea make (b) all things work together for their good, for their beſt. 6. Ioſhua (c) gave every Tribe his particular Inheritance in Canaan, not according to deſert or merit, but by line and lot, himſelf inheriting among them. In Canaan there was room for them all. So Jeſus Chriſt gives all his Elect Inheritance with himſelf in Heaven, not after their deſert, but the riches of his (d) meer grace. They (e) raign as coheirs with Chriſt: they are glorify'd together. (f) In my Fathers houſe are many manſions, (ſaid Chriſt) —— I goto prepare a place for you, —— that where I am, there may ye be alſo. 7. When Iſrael came to eat the fruit and corn of Canaan, (g) Mannah ceaſed. The water out of the Rock, the pillar of fire and cloud, &c. all theſe ceaſed. So when Gods Elect ſhall come to heaven, when once they ſhall taſte of thoſe bleſſed and beſt proviſions of that heavenly Country, (h) then Mannah ſhall ceaſe, then all the Ordinances, Adminiſtrations and Diſpenſations of the Goſpel ſhall ceaſe. Then (as Ieroame hath it) (i) All Book-learning ſhal ceaſe. Then (as Paul ſaith) (k) Prophecies ſhall fail, tongues ſhall ceaſe, knowledge ſhall vaniſh. —— When that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part ſhall be done away. Then there ſhall need no more Sermons, Sacraments, weekly Sabbaths, &c. For Chriſt will be an endleſs Sermon, Sacrament, Sabbath, &c. to his members. (l) And I ſaw no Temple therein (that is, in the new Jeruſalem) For the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the Temple of it. And the City had no need of the Sun, neither of the Moon to ſhine in it. For the glory of God lighteth it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. Yea then (m) Chriſt ſhall deliver up his Mediatory Kingdom, in regard of all manner of preſent Adminiſtrations, to God even the Father, that God may be all in all. 8. Multitudes came out of Egypt, and went towards Canaan, even almoſt to the borders of the Land, (n) who yet were never able to enter in, but periſhed in the wilderneſs. So, (o) Many ſhall ſeek to enter in at the ſtrait gate of heaven, but ſhall not be able to enter. Many ſhall ſeem to come come out of the Egypt of their carnal bondage, and to make great progress towards Heaven; as Herod (o) did many things, Agrippa (p) almost, within a little, perswaded to be a Christian, the Scribe (q) not far from the Kingdom of God; Those backsliders in the Hebrews, (r) tasting of the heavenly gift, and of the powers of the world to come; and the (s) foolish Virgins even knocking at Heavens gates; and yet all shut out as workers of iniquity.

The Nature of the Possessions themselves is very suitable. For, 1. The wicked Canaanites, &c. (t) were cast out of Canaan before Israel was possessed thereof: So the wicked apostate Angels were (u) cast out of Heaven, before any of the elect sons of men were received into Heaven. 2. Canaan was a land of Temporal Rest, (x) Gods Rest, provided for his people: wherein he gave them rest from all their Pilgrimages, and Enemies on every side. Heaven is Gods eternal (y) Rest, wherein he gives his people rest and tranquillity from all their Sins, Sorrows, Labours, Temptations and Enemies whatsoever. 3. Canaan was a (z) land flowing with Milk and Honey, with Commodities and Comforts, Profits and Pleasures. So Heaven (a) flows, and overflows, with joys, fulness of joys & pleasures, at Gods right hand for evermore. 4. Canaan was the (b) glory of all lands, of all the Earth. So (c) Heaven is the Glory of all the world. All the splendour and beauty of the Earth in its utmost perfection, is but darkness and deformity to Heaven's transcendent and surpassing brightness. If the (d) New Jerusalem coming down from God out of Heaven be so eminently glorious: then Heaven it self must needs be much more supereminently glorious. 5. In Canaan was Gods Special Presence of Grace, so as it was not in any other land on Earth. (e) In Salem was his Tabernacle, his dwelling place in Sion. There (f) he dwelt between the Cherubims: and thence he conferred with his people. But in Heaven is Gods Special (g) presence of Glory, more then in all the world besides. There he Manifests himself fully, familiarly, ravishingly, and eternally, with open face to all his Saints and Angels. There we shall See God without imperfection, Enjoy God without interruption, & in that vision and fruition of God be ravished to admiration. In him we shall have all varieties of felicities for all our Faculties, for all our affections, for all our senses. Heaven is the glory of the world; but God the Glory of Heaven: whose glorious presence makes heaven glorious. Whatsoever Happiness Heaven, Saints, or Angels can afford, it is all con-centered in God boundlesly: In them are but drops, in him the Ocean of all fulness. He will be the Head of Saints, the Lord of Angels, the jubilee of joy, the strength of felicity, the length of eternity, the life of immortality, the Heaven of Heaven, and the very Glory of glory.

(1) The Change of Times and States, the disposal of Kingdoms, Countries

Countries, and Nations, belongs to God as his Prerogative. Here God by promise gave, and by Providence afterwards performed, all the Nations and Kingdoms of Canaan to Abraham and his Seed. As he formerly gave Israel the treasures of Egypt, at their departure thence: so he afterwards gave Israel the lands and all the wealth of Canaan for their inheritance. Nor did the Lord herein wrong to any. He gave nothing, but what was his own: and (h) may he not freely do what he will with his own? (i) The Earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof; the round-world, and they that dwell therein. The Egyptians had forfeited their wealth, and the Canaanites their Country, by their sins: The Lord takes advantage of the forfeiture, and gives them to his own people. And who shall controle his proceedings? (k) He changeth the Times and the Seasons; He removeth Kings, and setteth up Kings. ——— (l) The most High ruleth in the Kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. ——— (m) Whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. And all the inhabitants of the Earth are reputed as nothing: And he doth according to his will in the Army of Heaven, and among the inhabitants of the Earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What dost thou? How strange and wonderful have been his providential dispensations to these Islands of great Brittain and Ireland, even in these our days! Who could have imagined such great and sudden alterations in the whole frame of Civil Government! It becomes us to look beyond instruments herein to the Supream over-ruling hand of Heaven, admiring his greatness, adoring his wisedom, and trembling at his judgements.

(2) Gods Promises to Abraham and his Seed were very mysterious. Besides the Literal Mercy expected, there were spiritual mysteries intended in most of Gods promises. Under Israel, Christ: under multitudes of Nations of Abraham, the plenteous Conversion of the Gentiles: under Abraham's blessing, the blessedness of all the Elect, With all spiritual blessings in Heavenly things in Christ: and here, under Canaan, Heaven was promised to Abraham and his Seed. By visibles, God did lead them to invisibles; by terrestrials, to cælestials; by corporals, to spirituals; by temporals, to eternals. When we read these antient promises, we must intentively dive and pry into the mysteries of the promises, lest we lose the very Marrow and Kernel of them.

(3) Not only Carnals and Temporals, but also Spirituals and Eternals were propounded in Gods Covenants and Promises to the Fathers under the Old Testament, and apprehended by them. In Canaan God assured Abraham and his Seed of Heaven. And both Abraham and his Seed so understood and applyed the Promise; whence else did they deny their own (n) Native Country, having opportunity of returning: sojourn in Tents in the land of Promise as pilgrims and strangers in a strange land: and look for a City that hath foundations, whose maker and builder is God; expecting a better Country, that is, an heavenly? Their Hopes

(n) Heb. 11. 8. to 17. vid. Gillium And. Rivet. in Gen 17. exercit. 87.

Hopes and Heart were above the skies, therefore they so easily trampled all Canaan's enjoyments and excellencies under foot. They then who fancy that God fed Abraham and the fathers only with the Husks of Earthly mercies, promising to them no further then visibles in Canaan: do not only proclaim their own ignorance and folly, but bely the fathers happiness, and blaspheme the Lords heavenly dispensations towards them.

(4) No length of time, nor multitudes of interposing impediments can prevent, evacuate, or disappoint Gods Promises, that they should not be performed. We need go no further, for demonstrating this, then to Gods promise of Canaan to Abraham and his Seed. Canaan was (o) promised to Abraham 400 years, yea 430 years before it was performed; besides the 40 years pilgrimage in the Wilderness. Yet all this length of time did not blot Gods promise out of his mind, but he punctually remembered his Covenant and Promise to Abraham and his Seed in the appointed Season. Impediments hindering Abraham and his Seed from possessing Canaan promised, were many, great, and to humane sense invincible. As, 1. Abraham's (p) childlesness, and Sarah's barrenness. 2. The fewness and weakness of Abrahams Seed, after God had miraculously given him Isaac. But (q) 70 Souls went into Egypt. What could 70 Souls do in dispossessing the many strong Nations of the Canaanites? 3. The (r) extremity of the Egyptian pressures and bondage, out of which they had no visible hopes of deliverance. Especially their Miseries and bondage being deeply aggravated, by Moses coming to deliver them. 4. The (s) Egyptian Army pursuing them at the Heels, and ready in rage and revenge to cut them off; assoon as the Lord had by strong hand and many wonders brought them out of Egypt. 5. Their inextricable (t) strait at the Red-Sea: The Sea being before them, Egyptians behind them, and Mountains on each side of them, that there was no way of escape from imminent destruction. If they march forward, they are drowned in the Sea: if they retreat backward, they run upon the sword of the Egyptians: other ways they could not go because of the Mountains. 6. Their many (u) Enemies in their way to Canaan, Amalek, Sion, Og, and Midian. 7. Their (x) many invincible distresses, dangers and difficulties in the parching, dry, desolate, howling Wilderness. Wherein Nature had provided neither food to eat, nor water to drink, nor rayment to put on, nor Medicines to Heal their diseases, nor shelter to defend them from heat or cold, &c. Nor way for them regularly to walk in. 8. Their (y) many sins and provocations in the Wilderness, frequently exasperating Gods wrath against them to destroy them and cast them off for ever. 9. The destruction of (z) all that Generation which murmured against God, whose carkasses fell in the Wilderness except Caleb and Joshuah. 10. The (a) Death of Moses upon Mount Nebo, neer the very borders of Canaan, within veiw of the land, who was their

The (c) great strength of Canaan by reason of many warlike Nations, sons of Gyants, and strong fortified Cities, all which they were to conflict with and Conquer before they could take possession, after they had passed Jordan. O what Armies of impediments were here against the accomplishment of this one Promise of Canaan! Yet at last the Promise overcame all these difficulties, removed every one of these impediments, and brought the Seed of Abraham into Canaans possession. All the oppressions and bondage of Egypt could not keep Gods Promise prisoner; All the Host of the Egyptians could not cut it off; All the waters in Jordan and the Red-Sea could not drown it; All the wants and miseries of the Wilderness could not starve it to death; All the high wals of Canaan could not keep it out; nor could all the Nations of the Canaanites defeat or overthrow it. O Potent and victorious Promises of God! who would not rest upon them, and trust to them, against all imaginable Impediments? O Christian, God hath promised thee, not Canaan, but in Canaan Heaven it self. Why dost thou doubt of Gods performance? Whatever be the difficulties betwixt his Promise and performance of Heaven, they shall all be clearly taken out of the way. Fear not this worlds wilderness-troubles, fear not the Jordan or Red-Sea of any persecutions, nor be afraid of any spiritual Egyptians or Canaanites, those powers of darkness. (5) Abraham's true Seed are the richest Heirs in this world. Experience indeed tels us, that for most part Gods people have least actual share in the treasures of this world: but this Promise of Canaan, under which the world and Heaven were also promised to Abraham's Seed, imports them the greatest Heirs.

How rich heirs were Abrahams true Jewish Seed, by this Promise! They were Heirs of Canaan, (d) the glory of all lands, according to the letter of the Promise. And consequently they that believed among them, were in Canaan, (which was (e) Situate in midst of the Nations,) Heirs of the world, and of Heaven it self, as hath been shew'd according to the mysterie of the Promise (d) Ezek. 20. 6.

(e) Ezek. 5. 5.

How rich heirs also were Abraham's true Christian Seed! For, though they are not Heirs of the Earthly Canaan, as the Jews were: yet are they Heirs of the world, and of Heaven; and this their Heirship is pleadable from this promise of Canaan, as well as from other Promises. (f) And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abraham's Seed, and Heirs according to the Promise. What Promise? viz. according to the Promise which God made with Abraham, especially touching the inheritance of Canaan. Mark also what the Scripture saith elsewhere; where; (8.) All things are yours, whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are yours: and ye are Christs, and Christ is Gods. And again; (h) Godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. Christ is (i) Heir of all things, as Mediatour, and Head of his Church: And all his members (k) are coheirs with him, and that to an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in Heaven for us. So then, all true believers, the Spiritual children of Abraham are heirs of the world, and especially of Heaven the Glory of the whole world: and of all the blessings, priviledges and comforts, necessary to their happiness and Salvation, which Heaven, or Earth, or the whole world can afford them.

Object. But if true believers, Abraham's true Christian Seed, be such Heirs, how comes it to pass that they enjoy so little of this world: whilst wicked men and unbelievers so flow and overflow with all sublunary enjoyments? Experience shows they are not such Heirs, as Scripture seems to imply.

Answ. To this I say; 1. True believers are the greatest and only Heirs in this world by Covenant and Promise, though they have not the actual use and enjoyment of many things, which wicked men do plenteously possess. Want of things promised in actual use and possession, hinders not their Property, right and title by Covenant. (l) The heir is in Right and Title, Lord of all: though in his Minority he differs nothing from a Servant. Jesus Christ was (m) Heir of all things: though he was actually very poor, and had not where to lay his Head. So Christians may have all things in Promise: when they have little or nothing in possession. Contrariwise unbelievers have nothing at all by Covenant and Promise, though they have never so much in actual possession. Though in Civil States, they have an humane right to, and property in the things they enjoy: yet in regard of true Spiritual fœderal right, they are but meer usurpers, being (n) strangers to Gods Covenant. The earth they tread on, the air they breath in, the Heavens they look on, the food they eat, the water they drink, the rayment they wear, the Houses they dwell in, the beds they lie on, and their other possessions which they use, are none of theirs in this sense: much less the felicities of a better life. In a word, here that Paradox is true, Believers are (o) as having nothing: and yet possessing all things: Unbelievers as possessing all things, and yet having nothing. 2. The little pittance of the world which Gods people do enjoy, far surpasseth all the enjoyments of unbelievers. (p) A little that the righteous man hath, is better then the riches of many wicked ones. Better in regard of, (q) His Title. His little he hath, Partly by special (r) fatherly Providence: Partly, by (s) Covenant and Promise: Partly, as (t) coheir with Christ. (6) How Comfortable this Promiſe of Canaan to Abraham's Seed, both Jewiſh and Chriſtian.

To his Jewiſh Seed; That, after all their Pilgrimages, they ſhould have an heritage on Earth: after all their bondage in Egypt, and afflictions in the Wilderneſs, they ſhould enjoy liberty and proſperity in a land that ſhould be theirs: after all their toil, travel and conflicts with many adverſaries, they ſhould at laſt enjoy a land of Reſt, Gods Reſt, wherein they ſhould reſt from their enemies round about: after all their patience and expectations of Faith and Hope, they ſhould at laſt inherit the promiſed Canaan. And in Canaan have handſel of the whole world, and of Heaven it ſelf. Certainly Canaan had never been ſo welcome to Iſrael, if they had not firſt been in Egypt and the Wilderneſs. Egypts brick, clay, and iron-furnace, together with the wilderneſs wants and afflictions, made Canaans milk and honey double ſweet and delightful. Contraries ſet off one the other with the more grateful luſtre. Liberty is ſweet to all, but double ſweet to them that have been inthralled. Reſt is ſweet to all, but double ſweet to them that have been tyred and turmoiled. And Mercy after miſery, is double Mercy.

To his Chriſtian Seed. Canaans Inheritance reached but to the Jews: but the Heirſhip of the world, and of Heaven it ſelf, wrapped up myſteriouſly in Canaan, extendeth even to Chriſtian Gentiles alſo. So far as any worldly comfort or poſſeſsion ſhall be neceſſary and (y) good for them, they ſhall be ſure to have it. However, they ſhall not miſs of the Heavenly Canaan when they dye.

(y) Pſal. 34. 9,10.

(7) Finally, Let all Gods people, Abrahams true Chriſtian Seed, be hence inſtructed in reference to the Promiſed Canaan above, to demean themſelves on Earth, as Heirs of the Heavenly Canaan. viz. 1. To get out of their naturall Egypt fully. They were once wholly inthralled in the Egyptian, and more then Egyptian bondage, (z) under ſin and Satan by Nature. Satan the cruell Pharaoh, ſin, luſts, and temptations the rigorous taskmaſters. They are delivered in part from their Dominion: yet ſtil there remains (a) a Law in their Members, rebelling againſt the Law of their mind, and captivating them to the Law of ſin. Let them ſtrive to deſtroy this Law in their Members, all the remains and reliques of ſin in them unmortified: Let them not leave an hoofe behinde. 2. To bear the hardſhip of this wilderneſs patiently. This world is the Chriſtians wilderneſs. In this world they ſhall meet with many wilderneſs wants, troubles, temptations and diſtreſſes. Let them not murmure like unbelieving Iſrael of old, againſt divine diſpenſations: but wiſely conſider, this is Gods high way to Canaan. (b) Chriſt himſelf firſt ſuffered: and then entred into his glory. And proportionably Chriſts Members (c) muſt through much tribulation enter into the Kingdom of God. Let them bear a while patiently: Heaven will make rich amends for all. And no wilderneſs afflictions can keep them out of their heavenly Canaans poſſeſſion. 3. To conflict with all their Spirituall enemies valiantly, that oppoſe their coming into their Heavenly Canaan. Iſrael had not ſo many corporall, but Chriſtians have more Spiritual Adverſaries. (d) The world with all its enſnatements, (e) the fleſh with all its corruptions, (f) the Devil and his Angels with all their Temptations. Yet, as thoſe Corporal enemies were not able to ſtand before Iſrael; no more ſhall theſe Spirituall enemies be able to ſtand before thee. Thou art ſure of victory: yea thou fighteſt with foes foiled already. Chriſt hath (g) overcome the world, (h) condemned ſin in the fleſh, and (i) ſpoiled Principalities and powers, triumphing over them openly upon his croſs, and leading Captivity captive in his Aſcenſion: and all this for us. Fear we not, gird we on (k) the compleat Armour of God, and quit we our ſelves like men: there are more with us then againſt us. 4. *To follow their chief Captain Jeſus Chriſt conſtantly. If (o) we walk as Christ walked, and suffer with him; we shall also raign with him, and be glorified together. 5. To manage every condition on earth (p) contentedly. What though the Sun of prosperity one while shine: and the storm of Adversity another while blow? What though the Lord lift us up and cast us down? Yet be we silent, and contented in all tossings and changes of state. The wilderness of this world hath many vexations, but Heaven hath many more contentations. The Heir is contented to wrastle through all the troubles of his Minority, in hopes of his Inheritance; and why should not we contentedly digest all conditions on Earth, in Hopes of Heaven? How (q) contentedly did Paul live, (r) after he had been in the third Heavens for a while in a rapture? How contentedly should all live that shall come to the third Heavens both in soul and body for ever? 6. Finally, To breath and long after their heavenly Country. The travellers thoughts are not so much on his way, as on his journeys end. The Pilgrim mindes home, much more then his Pilgrimage. Israel had small cause to be in love with the wilderness: but to be longing for Canaan. Yea Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob lived in Canaan, but much more minded heaven. (s) They contented themselves as Pilgrims with moving Tents, and professed themselves strangers on earth, because they looked for a City that hath foundations, expecting a better Country, that is, An Heavenly. Let us tread in their steps. Though our bodies be on Earth: yet let our hearts be in Heaven. Though our condition and actions be below; yet let our (t) conversations and affections be above. Let us oft break out with good old Jacob on his dying bed. (u) O Lord, I have waited for thy Salvation; and with David; (x) My heart and my flesh cryeth out for the living God. If David so fervently panted after Gods Presence in this world: how much more should we pant after the immediate vision, and full fruition of him in the world to come. The Church cryeth; (y) Make haste, O my beloved, and be thou like to a Roe or to a young Hart, upon the Mountains of spices. And let every Believer Echo out, with strong cryes and groans, (z) Even so come Lord Jesus, Amen.

Thus of the fifth Covenant-Mercy promised to Abraham and his Seed; viz. The Inheritance of Canaan.

VI. The closing up of Abrahams dayes in a good old age in peace; may be the next and last Covenant-Mercy which the Lord promised to do for Abraham. (a) And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; Thou shalt be buried in a good old age. In that same day the LORD made a Covenant with Abram, &c. This Promise was one Branch of Gods Covenant with Abraham: and it contains a Covenant-Mercy more peculiar to Abraham. Note here the sense, Accomplishment and life of it. 1. The

1. The sense of the Promise, seems to be this. 1. Abraham's going to his Fathers, denotes his (b) Death, or Natural dissolution. The body, or (c) dust returning to the Earth as it was: and the Spirit to God that gave it. With God (d) the Spirits of just men made perfect, are at rest. The phrase, of going to his fathers, imports then the Immortality of Souls, living with God. The souls of the faithful Patriarchs deceased before Abraham, were the Fathers to whom God promiseth that Abraham should go when he died: that with their Spirits made perfect, his might be perfect also. Sometimes it is stiled, (e) gathering to his people, or (f) Gathering to his Fathers. 2. Abraham's going to his Fathers in peace, signifies His Dying in a prosperous successful and flourishing State. For by [Peace] the Hebrew phrase frequently intends all manner of Prosperity, and outward welfare, as (g) Scriptures abundantly testifie. Peace is not only opposed to war, more strictly; but also to all manner of affliction and misery, in a larger acceptation. And thus it is intended here in this Promise. 3. Being buried in a good old age; Heb. in a good Hoary-age; intimates, that Abraham should extend his days on Earth unto fulness, maturity or ripeness of age. He should not be cut off in midst of his days, nor before, as is (h) threatned to the ungodly: but he should fulfill the course of Nature, even till hoary-age evidence him ripe for the grave. Eliphaz expresseth it well to Job; (i) Thou shalt come to grave in a full age: even as a shock of corn ascendeth in his Season. This the Mercy here Promised to Abraham: and that a Considerable mercy. Though Abraham should be a pilgrim on Earth, yet as he should not live a poor and despised life; so he should not dye an unprosperous, overhasty or untimely Death. His life should be crowned with length of daies; that so he might have the larger time, (1) to walk with God; (2) To Act his Faith and other graces; (3) To observe the accomplishment of Gods Promises; (4) And to Treasure up spiritual provisions for his better, viz. his heavenly Country. And his length of days should be Continued, and closed up with Peace and prosperity on every side.

2. The accomplishment of this Promise to Abraham, was punctual. (k) These are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he lived, 175 years. Then Abraham gave up the Ghost, and dyed in a good old age, an old man and full of years; and was gathered to his people.

3. Hence these Corollaries or Inferences may be noted, viz.

(1) The Dearest of Gods people are lyable to death. Abraham the special (l) friend of God, highly favoured, and many ways privileged; yet he must die and be buried. The eminentest of his posterity also, liable to Death as well as Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Joshuah, David, &c. were not exempted from Natures dissolution. (m) None of them were without sin; And were sin hath once entred, Death (n) the wages of sin follows, and cannot ordinarily be excluded. Since their best in this life, (o) had in-being in them.

them, though not dominion over them: and proportionably they are exposed to the condition of Death, though exempted from the curse of Death. Yea Jesus Christ himself, (p) who had no sin of his own inherent, but onely our sins imputed; yet was subject to Death, and Buriall for our sins. The translation of Enoch and Elijah, that they should not see death, are extraordinary and exempt cases; Yet their translation, and the last (q) Transmutation of the living at the day of judgement, are equivalent unto Death. Why then should any the children of Abraham, the Members of Christ, either think strange, or be afraid of Death or Buriall? Nay it is well for Gods people that they may dye on earth, that they may live in Heaven. To be necessitated here to live always, in absence from the Lord, whom their souls love; what were it else but a privation of their dearest life, and a continued dying?

(2) When Gods people dye, they go to their Fathers. Abraham dying went to his Fathers: and all Abrahams Seed dying, go and are gathered to their Fathers. Their (r) bodies are gathered to their Fathers dead dust in the earth: Their (s) spirits to the Spirits of just men made perfect in Heaven. Dying Saints may lose the society of sweet Relations Natural, of Father, Mother, Husband, Wife, Children, &c. yea of Christ, dearest Members here on earth, with whom they had often wept, pray'd, worshipped, and taken sweet counsel together: But they presently gain Society with their Fathers in Heaven, even all the Spirits of just men made perfect from the foundation of the world. Thus, they not so much lose as change their Relations and Societies: They are but Naturall allies, and imperfect Saints which they lose: they are Spirituall kindred, and perfect Saints which they gain; Adam, Abel, Enoch, Noah, Abraham, all the Patriarchs, Prophets, Apostles, Saints and Martyrs.

(3) To dye in peace, in a good old age, is a Mercy which sometimes the Lord affordeth unto his people. Here God promised it to Abraham; and afterwards performed it to him. Length of dayes, till a good old age, is elswhere (t) often promised to Gods people: and in like manner performed to them; as to (u) Iob, (x) Gideon, (y) David &c. And how can we look at length of days thus promised & performed by God to his People, but as a singular blessing and Mercy? For, 1 Long life is a long continued Testimony of Gods constant care and Providence over his People, preserving them from many dangers, distresses, and deaths; ordering and over-ruling the worst of evils for good: and furnishing them with all necessary enjoyment, sometimes strangely, alwayes seasonably. What rare experiences of Divine dispensations in this kinde, had Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, David, and others by means of their length of dayes? 2. Long life, is a long opportunity wherein Gods people may more fully (z) observe the power, wisdom, and goodness of the Lord in providing so mysteriously for the peace of Jerusalem, and the prosperity of Israel. Probably King Hezekiah (a) so mourned at the the Sentence of Death sent to him, and desired longer life, for the perfecting of Church-Reformation. Paul (b) was contented to abide in the flesh for the Churches benefit, though as to his own personal advantage, he desired to be dissolved and be with Christ, which was best of all. Good old Simeon (c) lived so long, as at last to see the Lords Christ, and to take that blessed babe in his Arms. Had he dyed young, he had missed that happy Opportunity. 3. Long life is the Saints large Seed-time for eternity. Therein they have the more ample Opportunity, For advancing of Gods glory; For advantaging their own Salvation, By purging out of Sin, Growing in Grace, Making their calling and election sure, and by abounding in all well-doing; yea for promoting and furthering the Gospels Glory, the Spiritual and Eternal good of children, friends, dear allies, and of all round about them. While life lasts all these may be endeavoured: But there's no operation at all in the Grave. In these regards length of days is a great blessing: For these ends long life may be desired by Gods children. (d) The hoary Head is a crown of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

Thus we have seen, What the Lord will do for Abraham and his Seed.

Next, of what the Lord will be to Abraham and his Seed, viz. 1. His Shield, 2. His Reward, 3. His God. His Shield, to protect him: His Reward, to enrich him: His God, to be All in all to him. His Shield against all evill: His Reward for all Good: His God, for all Happiness in this and the world to come.

I. The Lord will be his Shield. (e) After these things the word of the LORD came unto Abram in a vision, saying; Fear not Abram: I will be thy shield, Thy Reward great vehemently. These words God spake to Abraham, (f) when he was now returned from the slaughter of the Kings, having rescued Lot taken prisoner by them, and refused to accept any the goods or spoil recovered, though offered to him by the King of Sodom, as a just reward of his victory. Then the Lord said to Abraham; I thy shield; thine exceeding great Reward. As if he had said; Abraham, Fear not that this act and atcheivement of thine should create thee many and dangerous Enemies, I thy shield, I will protect thee against all thine adversaries: And though thou hast refused the King of Sodom's Reward of the Spoils thou hast recovered, yet thou shalt not go unrewarded, I will be thine exceeding great Reward. Oh how Abraham gained by his gallantry and nobleness of spirit! He refuses the King of Sodom's Rewards, Abraham disdained it should ever be said, He had made Abraham rich: And he gain'd the King of Heaven's Rewards; yea, The LORD himself will be his exceeding great Reward. And, as Augustine appositely; (g) What sweeter Reward from God, then God himself?

(g) Quod enim dulcius à Deo præmium, quam ipse Deus. August. de Tempore Serm. 72. Tom. 10.

These words our last English Translators took to be Assertory, affirming what God then was to Abraham at that present: rather then Promissory, Promissory, assuring what God would be to Abraham for the future. And therefore they thus render them; I am thy shield, and thy exceeding Great Reward. But to my judgement they seem to be rather Promissory then Assertory. For, 1. Abraham understood them so, as appears by his immediate Answer to these words of the Lord. (h) And Abram said, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childless, &c? Mark, What wilt thou give me? Abraham then apprehended that in the former words God promised something to him. And doubtless Abraham had the right sense of them. 2. Gods Reply to Abraham yet further confirms that those words were Promissory. For he tels Abraham what he would do for him, viz. (i) He would give him a son and heir out of his own bowels. He would multiply his Seed like the stars. He would give him and his Seed the land of Canaan for an Inheritance. 3. The words themselves are laid down imperfectly without any verb, or designation of any time at all past, present, or future. And are thus to be rendered word for word; I a shield to thee, Thy Reward great vehemently. And therefore they will every way as well bear a Promissory sense, as an Assertory: Thus; I will be a shield to thee, I will be thy reward great vehemently. And in this promissory Sense I shall briefly 1. Open, and 2. Apply them.

(i) Gen. 15. 4, 5, 13. 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21.

1. God Promising Abraham, That he would be a shield to him: promised him, I. More Generally. That he would be his Protection, Defence, safegard, Salvation, Against all enemies, dangers and evil occurrents whatsoever. For, the word מגן magen, here used for A shield, is derived from גנן ganan, which signifies properly, (k) To protect, To hide, To shut-in, To fence-about, to compass-about-for-defence, &c. Because A shield or Buckler is a warlike weapon which the Souldier holds forth in one hand against his enemy to bear off his thrusts or blows, Darts and Arrows, that no wound or harm come to his body. A shield skilfully held forth and wielded, receives all the blows, and safely protects the whole body, especially the Head, Heart, Pectorals, and principal parts. And there was much use of the shield in wars in ancient time, for defence. God will be a shield to Abraham: Its a Metaphorical expression, and intimates; That God himself will be to Abraham against all evils and adversaries, what a shield is to the body in war, viz. His Protection, Defence, Safety, Preservation, Salvation, &c. This the phrase imports More Generally. II. More Particularly, In this Promise Consider these things, as Expressed, or Implied, viz. 1. Who it is that will be Abrahams shield. 2. What God will be to Abraham, in being his shield. 3. Against what he will be his shield. 4. How he will be such a shield unto him.

(k) Protegere, Abscondere, Circum claudere, Circum munire, concludere septo vel scuto muniendi causa, Circum cingere ad defendendum. Pagnin. & Mercer. in Thesaur. ad verb מגן.

(1.) Who it is that will be Abraham's shield. 1. Not any Mighty man of war; Not any Earthly Prince or Potentate; Not the most puissant and victorious Army, or Armies on Earth; (these may sometime instrumentally be great Helps and Succours, and yet sometimes they, being but flesh and blood, and their breath in their nostrils, may not be able to shield themselves) Not some Mighty Angel of God onely; Not all the Heavenly Host of Angels; No nor all the Creatures in the world, which are but of finite being, and limited Activity. But beyond all these, the infinite and all-sufficient God: The Lord said, I will be a shield to thee. I, who want no wisdom to contrive, no will to desire, no power to effect thy safety and security; I will be thy shield. 2. Again, God saith not, my Wisdom, my Power, my Providence, my Mercy, my Truth and Faithfulness, or any of my Attributes, or acts alone shall be thy shield: but he expresseth himself more comprehensively and comfortably, I will be thy shield, that is, whatsoever is in God, whatsoever can be done by God, all this shall be engaged for thy Protection, Defence and Salvation. All mine Attributes, All my Providences shall shield thee. How emphatically!

(2) What God will be to Abraham, in being his shield, viz. His all-sufficient Protection, safeguard, shelter, Defence, &c. against annoyances. God will interpose himself: God will stand betwixt him and harm. God will take care of his safety every way. A shield is not sufficiently defensive, unless, 1. The Matter of it be solid mettle; brass, iron, or steel. A shield of glass, of paper, of straw, &c. is but a deceitfull defence. 2. The form of it be fit, viz. such as may competently guard the body, especially the principal parts; and may be easily wielded. 3. The use of it be proper, pertinent, and skilfull. A shield is but a dead useless instrument, without a strong arm and skilful hand to guide it. But God is a shield of Proof, stronger then steel, stronger then all opposition. Ready in all dangers and difficulties. Yea a living and active shield compassing us about safely, when we can hardly lay hold upon him by Faith steadily.

(3) Against what God will be Abrahams Shield. Gods shielding Protection is here without limitation, therefore to be extended universally according to the subject matter in hand, so far as for Abraham's Good, viz 1. Against all kinds of 1 Enemies, 2 Dangers, 3 Evil-occurrents whatsoever. 2. Against all degrees and aggravations of these in their utmost extremities. The Lord is a shield against all evils, to his people: An universal Protection.

(4) How God will be such a shield to Abraham. As God hath show'd himself a shield and Protection to Abraham's Seed: so at least God promised and performed to be a shield to Abraham himself, according to his necessities of Divine Protection. He limits his Protection to no particular way or Method: therefore we are not to limit it, nor to exclude any way. He will be his Protection and defence any way, every way, that shall seem good to his Divine wisdom. More Particularly, The Lord hath been wont to Shield and Protect his people, Abrahams Seed, these wayes especially, against Evils and Enemies, viz.

By destroying and subduing their Enemies. Thus the Lord protected King Hezekiah and Jerusalem against Senacheribs Army, (l) by destroying in one night 185000 of his Army. Thus he defended Israel at the Red-Sea from the Egyptian Army, (m) by drowning Pharaoh and all his hoast in the bottom of the Sea. Holy Scripture abounds with instances of this sort.

By corroborating his people both in Spirit, and body against Evils and Enemies. Hereby they are enabled to withstand them, and make their party good against them: when God girds them with might, and fils them with a Spirit of fortitude. As (n) Sampson against the Philistines, who broke the cords wherewith they had bound him, and slew with the jaw-bone of an Ass 1000 men. (o) David against his adversaries. (p) Asa against Zerah the Ephiopian with his huge hoast.

By Diverting and turning their Enemies and dangers some other way from them. David was often pursued by Saul, but in the Wilderness of Maon Saul and his men had like to have encompassed him and taken him. (q) Whilst David was in this strait, News comes to Saul that the Philistines had invaded the land, whereby he was necessitated to cease pursuing David, and to go against the Philistines.

By Anticipating and Preventing of the Evils long aforehand, which might annoy and afflict his people. (r) Whilst Iacob and his sons sojourned in Canaan, there came an extreme famine in the land, so that there they found no sustenance; but God protected his people against destruction by this famine, by having sent a man into Egypt before, even Joseph, to treasure up corn and provision for them that they should not perish.

By Suspending and restraining the Dispositions and actions of both Evils and Enemies, that though Gods people fall into their hands and power, they shall do them no harm. Thus God (t) defended Sarah from being defiled by King Abimelech, withholding him from touching her. (u) Protected Iacob from his brother Esau's malice and old grudge, by restraining and turning Esau's heart to amicableness, at his meeting of Jacob. (x) Restrained Laban from hurting of Jacob, when he so hotly pursued after him. Thus the Lord protected Israel from being drowned in the Red-Sea, and Jordan: by (x) suspending the fluid Nature of the waves, congealing them on heaps. (y) Shielded the three Jews from the hot fiery furnace, and (z) Daniel from the cruel jaws of the hungry Lyons; by suspending the activity of the fire that it should not burn them, though in the furnace, and by restraining the fierceness of the Lyons that they should not devour.

By Redeeming his people wonderfully from Evils, enemies and dangers, that in the end would have destroyed and swallowed them up. Thus he defended Israel from Pharaoh, and his destructive devices, by (a) redeeming them out of Egypt with signs and wonders, with a mighty mighty hand, and outstretched Arm. And afterwards he shielded the Jews, and saved them from Babylons Tyranny, by (b) turning their captivity wonderfully, stirring up the Spirit of Cyrus to let them go.

By Ministration of Angels, and inferiour Creatures. Angels are (c) Ministring Spirits sent forth for the good of the Elect. God (d) gives his Angels peculiar charge over his Saints, to keep them in all their wayes, to bear them up in the hollow of their hands, lest they dash their foot against a stone. An (e) Angel shut the mouth of the lyons, for Daniels safety: An (f) Angel brought Peter out of prison, that Herod might not destroy him: An (g) host of Angels protected Elisha against the whole host of the Syrians, the Mountain being full of Horses and Chariots of Fire round about Elisha. The very (h) Ravens are purvayors for Elijah, and bring him bread and flesh twice a day, rather then he should be starved in the famine. The despicable (i) locusts, frogs, lice and flyes, take part with Israel to defend them against the Egyptians. (k) The Sun, Moon, and Stars have in a sort fought for Israel against their enemies. Yea all the four Elements have sided and taken part with them, to preserve them from their Adversaries. (l) Fire came twice down from Heaven for Elijahs protection, and consumed two Captains and their fifties that came to bring him down to wicked Ahaziah. Air, and winde (which is air in commotion) did blow the waves of the Red-Sea upon the Egyptians, for the deliverance of Israel. (m) Thou didst blow with thy winde, the Sea covered them, they sunk as lead in the mighty waters. (n) Water protected and saved Noah and his Family in the Ark from being swallowed up with the wicked world. The Red-Sea overwhelmed Pharaoh and all his Army, which pursued Israel. The River Kyson swept away them that fought with Gods people in the dayes of Deborah. Finally, The (o) Earth swallowed up the Egyptians, who thought to have swallowed up Israel.

By turning Evils and Enemies to be Remedies against the Evils and Enemies that befall Gods people. This is one of Gods mysterious ways, and most delightfull to be observed. Thus, He (p) saved Noah in the Ark by waters, from the deluge of Waters. He (q) defended Israel by the raging waves of the Red-sea, from the raging wrath of Pharaoh and all his Host. He (r) protected Jehoshaphat against his Enemies Moab, Ammon, and Mount Seir, by those his Enemies mutuall destroying of one another. He (s) preserved Jonah from being swallowed up in the bowels of the Sea, by giving him to be swallowed up in the bowels of the Whale. He (t) shielded Jeremiah from the outrage in sacking of Jerusalem, by his being shut up in a prison in Jerusalem. Like instances are very numerous. Oh how admirable are his Counsels, and his wayes past finding out! How oft had his people been swallowed up, if they had not been swallowed up? How oft had they been undone, if they had not been undone?

Finally, By a continued Series, Method, and Chain of Divine Providences, God is wont to shield and guard his people. (u) He is a wall of fire round about them: not onely defending them, but offending their Adversaries on every side. He, (x) like the mountains round about Jerusalem, is round about his people for ever. He shielded Joseph vigilantly, in his brethrens hands from ruine, in the pit from perishing, in Egypts prison from Death and Destruction. He was his continuall shield. He shielded Israel in Egypt from many Calamities, at Red-Sea from Pharaohs host, in wilderness from woes, wants, and enemies, at Jordan from its waves, in Canaan from all the Power and Malice of the Nations. Israel was shielded by Providence upon Providence continually. Like concatenation and continuation of defensive Providences safeguarded David, Paul, and other faithfull ones of the Lord. In these and such like wayes God is wont to shield his people. And in Covenanting to be Abrahams shield, he implicitly intends to be his shield every way, so far as he should see good and needfull for Abraham.

(x) Psal. 125. 1, 2.

Inferences. Did God Covenant to be a Shield to Abraham? Then,

1. Gods Protection is an Eminent Mercy. God thought fit to insert it among the choice Covenant-Mercies which he promised to Abraham. And they are all great Matters, Eminent Mercies, which he promised to Abraham. The Lord by a common and more Generall Providence protects the wicked and all his Creatures: but by a more speciall and peculiar Providence he protects his own Covenant-people. That special protection is a singular Mercy. How (y) often did David glory in this, that the Lord was his shield and Buckler, his rock, fortress, strength, horn of salvation, and high tower?

(y) Psal. 3. 3. and 18. 1, 2.

2. Abrahams Protection and Shield was impregnable and incomparable. For, God was his Shield. Not dead rocks, not senslesse wals, not mortall men, not finite Angels, nor onely any meer Creature: but he who is stronger then all Creatures or created powers in the whole world, (z) who made the world by his Command, who (a) upholdeth all things by the word of his power, who (b) tels the stars, calling them all by their names, who (c) spans the heavens with his fingers, who holdeth the waters of the Sea in the hollow of his hand, before whom all the inhabitants of the world are but as grashoppers, and the huge Mountains as a very little thing, &c. He, He it is, who was Abrahams Shield. All other Protections are but lyes and vanities, no safe trusting to them: but he is a Sure, Surrounding, Proved, Constant and All-sufficient Shield. What Enemies evils and dangers could hurtfully touch Abraham, while the Lord his Shield did interpose betwixt him and harm, encompassing him on every side?

3. They that fought against Abraham, fought against God, who was a shield to Abraham. How should such prevail: nay how could they chuse but like potsheards dash themselves in pieces against that Rock?

4. What

4. What cause had Abraham to cast himself wholly upon the Lord with confidence and comfort against all enemies, dangers and evill occurrents whatsoever? The Lord was his Shield: whom or what should he fear? Nothing in the world could oppose him, so strong, so great, so terrible as his Shield. Hence, God said, (d) Fear not Abram, I will be a Shield to thee. Upon like consideration how did David quiet himself against greatest perills, and even triumph against all commers! (e) Thou O LORD art a shield for me, my glory, and the lifter up of mine head. ——— I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people that have set themselves against me round about.

(d) Gen. 15. 1.

(e) Psal. 3. 3, 5, 6. and 27. 1.

Thus the Lord promised to be Abrahams Shield.

II. The Lord will be his exceeding great Reward. He will not onely be A Shield to Abraham, guarding him against all evill: But also his Exceeding great Reward, furnishing him with all Good. (f) Fear not Abram: I will be a shield to thee, Thine exceeding great Reward, or, Thy vehemently great Reward. Not onely A Shield, but a Reward: Not onely a Reward, but a Great Reward: Not onely a Great Reward, but a vehemently great Reward: Nor onely a vehemently great Reward from God, but a vehemently great Reward which is God. How Emphatically? How comfortably? Every word is a Sentence: and that a significative, a cordiall, a golden Sentence. If God be Abrahams Shield, He must needs be most safe and secure against all evils, enemies and dangers: If God be Abrahams exceeding great Reward, he must needs be most rich and happy in all Conditions. Here let us view a little, 1. What is meant by a reward. 2. How God may be said to be Abrahams vehemently great Reward. 3. What Inferences will hence flow.

(f) Gen. 15. 1.

1. What is meant by a Reward. Reward is used and taken in Scripture Properly, and Improperly. I. Properly, For any just Conpensation or Recompence of work, labour or office, deservedly due by Covenant-Promise or common law of Equity for such Work. Betwixt which work and Reward, betwixt which Merit and Compensation there is a mutuall Relation. (g) To him that worketh, is the Reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt. In this sense Reward is either Acceptable, or Unacceptable. 1. Reward Acceptable to the Receiver, is either Lawfull or Unlawfull. (i) Lawfull Reward, is that Recompence which is given or promised for some lawfull, honest or warrantable work or Imployment. So, (h) Laban gave Jacob Reward, or Wages for serving him. Pharaohs (i) daughter gave Moses his own Mother a Reward, or Wages for nursing up of Moses for her. And Christ saith, (k) The labourer is worthy of his hire. (l) Unlawfull Reward is that which is given or Promised for dishonest and unlawfull acts. Thus Balaam is said to (l) love the wages of unrighteousness, for his seeking to curse Israel for Balac's Reward. And Judas is said to (m) purchase a field with the reward of iniquity, in that he bought a field with the 30. pieces, which were given him as a reward for his wicked and murtherous betraying of his Lord and Master Jesus Christ

Christ. 2. Reward unacceptable, or Penall Reward, is that Recompence of just punishment which is inflicted upon the ungodly for their evill-doing. (u) Let this be the Reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, said David. (o) These shall utterly perish in their own corruption, and shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, said Peter. (p) The wages of sin is Death, said Paul. Thus Reward is taken properly in Scripture: But in this sense God did not promise Himself to be Abrahams Reward. II. Improperly, Reward is taken, 1. For the end, fruit, and event, &c. of any work, intended or ensuing thereupon. Thus Paul (q) obtained his Reward; that is, his intended End of true glorying and rejoycing, in Preaching the Gospel willingly, and chearfully, and freely to the Corinthians. The Pharisees (r) had their Reward, viz. The praise of men, which they desired and sought after, by doing their works to be seen of men. 2. For a gratuitous or free compensation or recompence of good works, or well-doing. Which Reward is not at all of debt or demerit, but of meer Grace. The Apostle intimates there's (s) a Reward of Grace, as well as a Reward of Debt. And what (t) Luke cals χάριν Grace, Matthew cals μισθὸν Reward. Such Rewards are those wherewith the Lord freely recompences his peoples well-doings, according to his Promise both in this world, and in Heaven. According to those expressions, (u) In keeping of them, (viz. Gods Statutes) is great Reward. (x)---Great is your Reward in heaven. —— Otherwise ye have no Reward of your Father which is in heaven. —— (y) Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of Reward. (z) Moses had respect to the recompence of the Reward. (a) —— Behold I come quickly, and my Reward is with me, to give every man as his works shall be. Betwixt a Labourers reward properly so called, and Gods free Recompence of his peoples well-doing, there is some resemblance. A Labourer first does his Work, and when his work is finished he receives, as he expected, his Covenant-wages: So Gods people in this world first finish their heavenly Fathers work, and after they receive Heaven as their Recompence. Upon this resemblance Heavens Recompence may wel be stiled A Reward, being so like A Reward. God thus rewards his peoples good works, not of debt, but of grace: Not for any merit of theirs, but for his Christ, and Promise sake in him. 3. For any free Donation, Bounty, Gift, or Benefit. Thus (b) children are an heritage of the LORD, and the fruit of the womb is his Reward. viz. They are a singular blessing from God. And thus God assures Abraham here in these two last reasons that he will be (c) His exceeding great Reward, viz. He will be his wealth, his gain, his treasure, his portion, his inheritance, his happines. And he would be such an one to him, as from whose favour, fulness, bounty, and blessing he should receive all good. In this sense God promised to be Abrahams reward.

2. How God may be said to be Abrahams vehemently great Reward. The words are very full and comprehensive. We may conceive that God would be Abrahams vehemently great reward, 1. Effectively:

ly. 2. Objectively. 3. Excluſively. Effectively, in giving him Rewards. Objectively, in being his Reward. Excluſively, in being his onely Reward, his Reward paramount, wholly tranſcending and ſurpaſsing all other Rewards.

(a) Gen. 15. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

(a) Effectively, The Lord was Abrahams vehemently great Reward, in effecting for him, beſtowing and heaping upon him, exceeding great Rewards, Favours and Bleſsings. That this way God intended to be his exceeding great Reward, is evident both by Abrahams Queſtion, and Gods Reſolution thereupon. (d) And Abraham ſaid, Lord GOD, what wilt thou give me ſeeing I go childleſs, &c. As if he had ſaid; Lord, thou ſayeſt, thou wilt be my Reward vehemently great; but wherewith wilt thou reward me? What poſſeſſions or enjoyments wilt thou give unto me, ſeeing I have neither child nor heir of mine own to inherit them? The Lord anſwers him, (e) That he ſhould have a ſon out of his own bowels to be his heir, And his Seed ſhould be numerous as the ſtars, And to his Seed he had given all the land of Canaan for an Inheritance. Thus he would be Abrahams exceeding great Reward Effectively, by being author and efficient cauſe of great and eminent bleſsings to him. And God rewarded Abraham with Benefits exceeding great. I. In this life. As, 1. Divine (f) Benediction upon him, upon his Bleſſers; and upon all the Nations of the earth, in him, and in his eminent Seed Jeſus Chriſt. 2. A (g) naturall Seed to be his heir, when his body was now dead to generation, and Sarah paſt age of child-bearing. 3. A (h) numerous poſterity, both Jewiſh and Chriſtian, like the Duſt of the earth, ſtars in Heaven, and Sands on the ſea ſhore. 4. An (i) univerſal Fatherhood to all the Faithfull both of Jews and Gentiles, that ſhould come after him. 5. Victorioufneſs (k) of his Seed both Natural and Spiritual, over all their Enemies, eſpecially under Joſhua, David, and Jeſus Chriſt. 6. The (l) Inheritance of Canaan, and Heirſhip of the world. Comprizing a confluence of all neceſſary earthly enjoyments. 7. True (m) Renown and greatneſs of Name, which excelled both among Jews and Gentiles. 8. Prolongation of his life (n) till a good old age, and then cloſing up his days in peace. 9. The Lord himſelf being all along (o) His Shield, Exceeding great Reward; and God in Covenant. 10. And finally, (p) The Propagation of Jeſus Chriſt, the Saviour of Sinners, from Abraham according to the fleſh, for the bleſſing of him and all the world of the Elect, with all temporal and Spiritual bleſsings. II. In the life to come, God rewarded Abraham with heaven it ſelf; that true Canaan, That (q) City which hath foundations, whoſe builder and Maker is God, That better Country, which Abraham chiefly deſired and expected: of which Abraham was long ſince actually poſſeſſed; and in which Abraham enjoyes all happineſs and glory, yea immediatly God in Jeſus Chriſt face to face, the Reward of all Rewards. And thus God was Abrahams exceeding great Reward, Effectively.

(b) Objectively, The Lord became Abrahams vehemently great Reward.

Reward, in being himself his Reward, The object, substance and Treasure rewarding Abraham. To be the Efficient and Author of his Rewards, was exceeding much: but to be the Object, and as it were the very Matter of his Reward himself, was much more. And if God himself become Abraham's Reward, his Reward must needs be vehemently great: for God himself is vehemently great. (r) O LORD my God, thou art very great, thou art clothed with honour and majesty. (s) —— Who is so great a God as our God? Now God himself became Abrahams Reward Objectively, by becoming his Treasure, Portion, Possession, Habitation, Heritage, Health, Wealth, Honour, Delight, Happiness, Comfort, Contentment, and All. When David would speak of God to this effect, he stiles him his Portion; and under that comprehendeth all. (t) Thou art my refuge, and my portion in the land of the living. (u) —— God is the strength (Heb. Rock) of mine heart, and my portion for ever. And elsewhere he saith (x) The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my Cup: thou maintainest my lot. The lines are fallen unto me in pleasantnesses: yea I have a fair heritage. Admirable expressions! All setting forth his full satisfaction, and perfect acquiescence in his one God alone. (y) All his good was from God, and in God alone. His Portion, Inheritance, Cup, Lot, Lines in pleasantnesses, or pleasant places, Fair Heritage. All was wrapped up in his enjoyment of God. In him he found the Sum and perfection of all good. One God to him was more then all the idols in the world, or all treasures in the world to others. He had so much in his God, he envyed no other mans condition whatever it was without God. Jeremy also stiles the Lord (z) The Portion of Jacob. God is all the Reward and wealth of his people. To this effect said Augustine appositely of our enjoyment of God in Heaven; (a) Then God shall be All in All: nor shall there be any infelicity which shall exercise us, but meer felicity, which shall feed us. And our Feeder, shall be our God: Our drink, our God: Our Honour, our God: our riches, our God. Whatsoever varieties you here seek, he alone will be all unto thee. And in like proportion, though in inferiour degree, our enjoyment of God on Earth will answer all things. But more Particularly, God was Abraham's exceeding great Reward objectively, divers ways, viz. I. The exceeding great Reward of all his faculties and affections: suitably Fitting them, and plenarily filling them all. God was the light of his understanding: without whom, all the light therein was but darkness. God was the tranquillity of his Conscience: without whom all the peace thereof was but carnal Security or perplexity. God was the sweet Treasure of his Memory: without whom all the impressions therein were nothing but vanity. God was the Rule of his will: without whom all the straitness therein was meer crookedness and irregularity. God was the crown of his desires: without whom nothing in heaven and earth was desirable. God was the Loadstone of his love: without whom nothing was amiable. God was the very jubilee of his joy and delight: without whom he could not acquiesce or rest in any thing as fully delectable. II. The exceeding great Reward of all his Graces, and Gracious Actions. He is (b) the God of all Grace: and he is the Reward of all Grace. All Graces and gracious actions tend to God, as their ultimate End: Rest in God, as their satisfying Center. God was his Gain, Rewarding his Self-Denial: God his Life, Rewarding his Faith: God his Expectation, Rewarding his Hope: God his Honour, rewarding his Humility: God his Consolation, rewarding his Love! God his Relief, rewarding his Prayers: God his Salvation, rewarding all his Obedience and acts of Sanctification. III. Finally, God was his exceeding great reward in all States and Conditions, after his Effectual Calling, in Prosperity, Adversity, Fears, Dangers, Losses, Wants, Temptations, Tribulations, weal and woe. Must Abraham (c) forsake his own Country, Kindred and Fathers house: and follow the Lord he knew not whither? God was better to him then all these: and he installed (d) him and his Seed in Canaan, a better Country then Chaldea; Related him to a better kindred, viz. the (e) spiritual kindred of Gods people, and adopted him into a better, that is, the heavenly Fathers House, the Church of God. Is he (f) childless? God was unto him instead of many sons, yea beyond all children: and withall he gave him (g) a numerous Seed both Natural and Spiritual, like the Dust, Sands, and Stars for multitude. Is he in danger of losing his wife Sarah, by Pharaoh, and Abimelech? God was his Reward, and her deliverance in this danger: (h) preserving her, that she should not be defiled; and plaguing them till she was restored to Abraham. Is his Nephew Lot (i) carryed away Captive by the Conquering Kings, so that Abraham must lose him, or rescue him by the sword? God was his victory; So that he Recovered Lot with the people and goods: and refusing the King of Sodom's Recompence of the Spoyls, he obtains the King of heaven to be his Reward. Must he (k) offer up his Isaac unto God for a Burnt-offering: and in him visibly Sacrifice Gods promises, and his own hopes? God restores him Isaac as it were from the dead, exchanges him for a Ram strangely brought to his hand, and remunerates him with singular Promises under the Oath of God. In a word, must Abraham (l) sojourn all his days, not only in Egypt, but also in the land of Promise as in a strange Country? God was his Heritage in his Pilgrimage. He raised up his (m) Faith to the City above, and to a better Country, that is, an heavenly. So that he liv'd by Faith in an Heaven on Earth: and God was not ashamed to be called his God. Thus God was Abraham's exceeding great Reward Objectively.

(3) Exclusively, God was Abrahams vehemently great Reward, that is, He was so his Reward, as he was his sole Reward. Besides the Lord himself, Abraham had no such Reward in all the world. (1) None so Great. (2) None so Good. (3) None so satisfying. (4) None so Continuing. 1. None so great. Abraham had many great blessings and and priviledges from God: But none so great as God. God was his Reward vehemently great. All other his Rewards and Benefits were but as drops out of Gods Ocean: they were but created fruit, bounded blessings: but God an uncreated, infinite, and boundless treasure. They at best were but vehemently small, in comparison of God thus vehemently Great. They were great: but God greatness it self, yea God the height and glory of all greatness. 2. None so Good, and suitable to all Abraham's Conditions and occasions. The blessings which Abraham had from God, were accidentally, derivatively, finitly, and respectively Good: but God himself Primitively, essentially, infinitely, absolutely and universally good. He is goodness it self: the supream goodness: All goodness: the only goodness. (n) There's none good but one, that is God. None good, as he is good. To Abraham Honour was good to advance him; riches good to furnish him; servants good to minister to him, and fight for him; Canaan good, as an Heritage in Reversion; Sarah good, as a Comfortable yoak-fellow in possession; Isaac good, as the son of his old age, of his love, and of Gods promise, to rejoyce him: They were good several ways, but God was good to him every way. God answered all his wants, occasions, straits, temptations, &c. God was a better reward to him then they all. 3. None so satisfying. Abraham had many Mercies, and those very eminent: yet in comparison of God very empty and unsatisfactory. His heart still aspired beyond them all towards God: and could part with them all for God. Therefore none fully satisfied him but God. He (o) could part with Chaldea his Native Country, with his kindred and fathers house, at Gods call: He (p) could part with Ishmael and Hagar, and cast them out of his family, at Gods command: He (q) could part with Isaac, lay him upon the Altar, and in a sort Sacrifice him, at Gods appointment: He could (r) part with Sarah, and bury her out of his sight, at Gods dispensation: yea He could (s) part with Canaan, sojourning therein as a pilgrim in a strange Country, upon consideration of Gods promise and pleasure so to have it: But though he could part with all for God, yet he could not part with God for any thing, or for all. Yea in that he could so self-denyingly let all go for God, its evident he could not let God go at all. He found more in one God, then in all. 4. None so continuing. All other his Rewards and blessings had their ebbings and flowings; their time, season, and opportunity; their youth and growth, and death; their comming and going, &c. but God his great Reward was (t) still the same to him without variableness or shadow of turning; the same in Chaldea, Canaan, Egypt, Heaven, &c. And that's the great reward indeed, that's the abiding Reward. God then being Abrahams Reward, so Great, so Good, so satisfying, so Continuing: He must needs be his Blessing of blessings, His Treasure of Treasures, His Reward Paramount, His Reward of Rewards.

3. Inferences hence resulting. Will God be Abrahams vehemently great Reward? Then,

(t) How Bountiful was God to Abraham! He shall not go without Reward: His Reward shall be great: His Reward shall be vehemently great: yea God himself will be his Reward and Happiness. This was infinite bounty and liberality indeed, when the Great Rewarder himself becomes the vehemently great Reward.

(u) Gen. 24. 1.
(x) Gen. 24. 35.

(t) How rich was Abraham! He was rich in Possession: rich in reversion. He was rich in Temporals and Spirituals, and in hope of Eternals. (u) The LORD had blessed Abraham in all things: And his blessing maketh rich. Abraham's servant said, (x) The LORD hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and Men-servants, and Maid-servants, and Camels, and Asses. He related much of Abraham's wealth: but the one half was not told. He mentioned not the riches of his riches; that God had given himself to Abraham as his Reward. His invisible, Spiritual, Heavenly Reward. Had Abraham wanted this Reward, he had been but a poor man, notwithstanding all his other riches: and having this Reward, was eminently rich, though he had wanted all other things which the world cals riches.

(y) Gen. 14. 21, 22, 23.

(z) Gen. 15. 1.

(y) How easily might Abraham deny and despise all earthly rewards, having God himself to be his Reward. When he returned from the slaughter of the Kings, having recovered both the persons and spoyls of Sodom carryed away by them, the King of Sodom said to him; (y) Give me the persons, and take the goods to thy self. And Abram said to the King of Sodom, I have lift up my hand unto the LORD, the most high God, the possessour of Heaven and Earth, That I will not take from a thread even to a shoo-latchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldst say, I have made Abram rich. How gallantly and magnanimously did he deny and despise the Reward of the King of Sodom? He disdained to be made rich by the King of Sodom: who was made rich by the King of Heaven and Earth. What cares he for spoyl and plunder, who had under God his Reward by Faith? Yea and presently after, God was so pleased with this act of Abraham, that he tells him, (z) Fear not Abram, I will be a shield to thee, and thy vehemently great Reward. It's no hard thing for him that abounds with gold and silver, to despise chips and straws: for him that abounds in pearls and precious stones, to trample upon pebles and the stones of the street.

(4) What a Comfort was this to Abraham against all wants and losses whatsoever! This vehemently great reward would easily make up with advantage, all his wants and losses. Finding God to be his great Reward, he finds all his losses restored, all his wants supplyed in God his Reward. This Reward, God, is Food to the Hungry, Drink to the thirsty, Rayment to the naked, Health to the diseased, Liberty to the imprisoned, Honour to the reproached, An habitation to the harbourless, a Father to the fatherless, a Friend to the friendless, leſs, a Comfort to the comfortleſs. God his Reward is an overflowing fountain, that runs all ſorts of ſupplyes againſt all ſorts of wants. They that have this reward, may ſay with Paul, (a) As having nothing, and yet poſſeſſing all things.

(a) 2 Cor. 6. 10.

(5) Finally, Strive we to be true Abrahamites, and then the Lord will be our exceeding great Reward alſo. Approve we our ſelves to be Abrahams Seed: and Abraham's God will be our treaſure and portion. As great, as good, as ſatisfying, as continuing to us, as ever to Abraham. God will be as bountiful to us; We ſhall be as rich in God, we ſhall as eaſily deſpiſe all earthly rewards, we ſhall as abundantly be comforted againſt all wants and loſſes, as Abraham through this Reward. Let Abraham's God be our God: then Abraham's God will be our exceeding great Reward.

Thus, the Lord promiſed to be Abraham's vehemently great Reward.

III. The Lord will be a God in Covenant to Abraham and his Seed for ever. It was much that the Lord would be his Shield: More, that he would be his vehemently great Reward: moſt of all, that he would be A God to him, and to his Seed, by Covenant, for ever. In this ſhield, is full protection: In this Reward, is full poſſeſſion: but in this God, is all fulneſs and felicity. Mark the LORD's own words to Abraham; (b) I will eſtabliſh my Covenant betweene me, and thee, and thy Seed after thee, in their Generations, for an Everlaſting Covenant, to be a God unto thee and to thy Seed after thee. How emphatically! 1. The LORD will not only be a Shield and Reward, But a God to Abraham: 2. Nor only a God to Abraham alone, but to his Seed after him: 3 Not A God to Abraham and his Seed by meer Promiſe only, but by mutual Covenant alſo between the Lord on the one part: Abraham and his Seed after him in their Generations, in all generations, on the other part: 4 And this an Eſtabliſhed Covenant; eſtabliſhed not by man, but by God. 5 Yea this not only a temporary or long-laſting, but an Everlaſting Covenant. O bleſſed clauſe! the top-excellency and glory of Gods Covenant with Abraham.

Here therefore I ſhall a little inſiſt upon it, and open it, once for all. But now I ſhall conſider it ſomewhat more Particularly: Partly, becauſe the Covenant-Mercy herein promiſed, is wholly tranſcendent, incomparable, infinite; Even God himſelf, who is over all bleſſed for ever, Amen. Partly becauſe the Parties to whom this Covenant-Mercy is here promiſed, are Abraham and his Seed: (h) whoſe Seed we are, if we be Chriſts, if we be true believers. Here let us Conſider, 1. What is meant by the Word, word, GOD. 2. What this Phraſe of Being a God to Abraham and to his Seed, imports. And what the LORD intended in Covenanting to be a GOD to him, and to his Seed after him by an everlaſting Covenant. 3. What Inferences will hence reſult.

1. What is meant by the word GOD. The Orig. Heb. is אלהים Elohim, in the plurall number, and may be tranſlated, GODS. Some think the Myſtery of the Trinity is hereby intimated. (i) Others rather aſcribe it to the Cuſtome of the Hebr. tongue, which is wont for Honour ſake to uſe the plural number for the ſingular in words ſignifying Power and Dominion. It is ſometimes alſo uſed in the ſingular number, אלוה Eloah, God. The word ſeems properly to ſound & ſignifie A Judge. Hence it is aſcribed, 1. Primarily to the true (k) God, the Judge and Governour of all. 2. To the (l) Ark of the Covenants, Metonymically. As a ſpeciall token of Gods Preſence and power. 3. To (m) Angels, eminent in power for executing Gods judgements, when, where, and upon whom he pleaſeth. 4. To men of Renown, worthy of admiration, eſpecially to ſuch as are in (n) Office and Authority ſet over others, as Judges, Rulers, Magiſtrates, &c. Theſe are often ſtiled Gods, becauſe they are Gods Vicegerents here on earth, to execute Juſtice and Judgement amongſt men as the cauſe ſhall require. 5. Moſt improperly to (o) falſe gods and idols, who are ſtiled gods, becauſe their fond and fooliſh worſhippers do ignorantly aſcribe Deity and Divine Power unto them. Theſe four laſt uſes of the word are improper: the firſt moſt proper; And in that ſenſe it is here to be underſtood for the true God, the Judge of all, moſt high, and abſolutely ſupream.

2. What this Phraſe of His being a God to Abraham and to his Seed imports: And what the LORD intended in covenanting to be a God to him and to his Seed after him. This may be reſolved two wayes. 1. More Generally. 2. More Particularly.

More Generally. What good is not Covenanted and Promiſed, when the LORD promiſeth himſelf to be a God to Abraham and his Seed? God hath all good in him: God brings all good with him. (p) If God be theirs by Covenant, All's theirs by Covenant alſo. Behold what manner of Promiſe this is. Is there a greater, or more eminent Promiſe in all the Bible? Is not this the very greateſt? Can God promiſe or perform any thing ſo great as himſelf? or can man receive any thing in Heaven or earth, equall to God? This Promiſe is among the Promiſes, as the Sun among the Planets, the moſt glorious of them all. This Promiſe is ſo full of God, that it utterly tranſcends all words and thoughts. By this Fœderal Clauſe Apprehenſion is dazled, Invention is aſtoniſhed, Expreſſion is ſwallowed up. Its farre eaſier to tell what God is not, then what God is, and conſequently its far eaſier to declare what is not promiſed, then what is promiſed, when God himſelf is promiſed. Not riches, not honours, not pleaſures, not friends, not liberty, not life, not the whole world, not Heaven, not Heavens endleſs felicities, not any created mission of sin without effusion of blood, and that of Christ the Mediator. For without him no man comes to God, none shall see God. This therefore is a clear Gospel-Promise touching everlasting grace, that is, Remission of sins, righteousness and life eternal, to be freely given to Abraham and his faithful Seed for Christ, which being at the beginning promulged to our Parents in Paradise, God would have perpetually to sound forth in the Family of the Fathers; now he renews it more clearly to Abraham, Anon seals it with the pledge of Circumcision, Afterwards also adumbrates it variously with Types of Sacrifices till the fulfilling thereof. This, I say, is THAT PROMISE, THE SOUL AND KERNEL OF ALL SACRAMENTS, in which especially the Eternity of Gods Covenant is sealed. Pious and learned Peter Martyr; (y) God promised to be the God of his people, that is, He will be present with them, to help them, deliver them, and by all wayes to adorn them with all kindes of good things. His people on the other hand betake themselves to have the Lord Jehovah for their God, to be believed, worshipped, and obeyed. And Christ intercedes betwixt both parties in the Covenant, as Mediator. And elsewhere; (z) Anciently THIS WAS THE CHIEF HEAD OF THE COVENANT, That the true God would be a God to us truely. Eloquent Chrysostome; (a) God said, I will not onely demonstrate my solicitude touching thee, but also touching thy Seed even after thy departure. And what is THE POWER of THE COVENANT? That I may (saith he) be thy God, and of thy Seed after thee. For, THIS SHALL BE TO THEE THE SUMMARY HEAD OF GOOD THINGS, TO THEE, and TO THY SEED. Finally, excellent and elegant Augustine speaks sweetly to this effect; (b) He will be the Reward of vertue who gave vertue, and who hath promised himself, then whom, nothing can be better and greater. For what else said he by the Prophet? I will be their God, and they shall be my people: But I will be that whence they shall be satiated; I will be all that may be honestly desired of all, both Life and Health, and Food, and Wealth, and Glory, and Honour, and Peace, and all good things? For thus that is rightly understood, which the Apostle saith, That God may be All in All. He shall be the end of our desires, who without end shall be seen, without loathing shall be loved, without weariness shall be praised.

Next

More Particularly; The Lord ſtabliſhing an Everlaſting Covenant to be a God to Abraham and to his Seed, intimateth, 1. To whom he will be a God. viz. To Abraham & to his Seed. 2. What the Lord will be to them. viz. He will be to them a God. 3. How he will be ſuch a God to them. viz. By an Everlaſting Covenant of Gods own eſtabliſhing.

(I.) To whom he will be a God. viz. To Abraham and to his Seed. Gods Covenant is very comprehenſive. It comprizeth both root, and branches: Takes in, both parents, and children. Gods loving-kindneſs, and fatherly care is exceeding extenſive and diffuſive, Not only to Abrahams perſon, but to his poſterity alſo: To him and to his Heirs; To him, and to his Seed. To what Seed? Not onely to his Jewiſh Seed according to the fleſh, to whom the Lord hath often promiſed and profeſſed to be their God: But alſo to his (c) Chriſtian Seed according to the Faith, whom the Scripture counts heirs according to the promiſe; And (d) to whom the Lord hath alſo promiſed to be their God. So that this promiſe reacheth both to Iews and Gentiles, if they be Abraham's Seed, if they be true believers. And every one of us Engliſh men and women that truly believe in Ieſus Chriſt, may as cleerly and fully lay claim to the Lord as our God by this Covenant, and to all benefits, priviledges, and advantages enſuing thereupon; as Abraham, Iſaac, Jacob themſelves, or any of their natural Seed. This Promiſe is ſtill of as much force and efficacy to us, as to them. Yea, the vertue of this promiſe will continue to all believers to the worlds end.

(c) Gal. 3. 7. 29.
(d) 2 Cor. 6. 16. Heb. 8. 10.

(II.) What the Lord will be to them. viz. He will be to them, a GOD. Or, For a God; that is, He will be their God. How fully and Emphatically! He ſaith not, I will ſtabliſh my Covenant with thee and thy Seed, To be an Honour, A Portion, A Delight, A Buckler, A Strength, A Deliverer, A Salvation, A Sufficiency, An exceeding great Reward to you: Or, To be A Sun, A Shield, A Comforter, A Counſellor, A Protector, A Quickner, A Sanctifier, A Pardoner, A Saviour to you: Or, to be a Friend, A Father, An Husband unto you: though theſe were high and ſweet expreſsions. But he ſaith that which incomparably tranſcends all theſe: (e) I will ſtabliſh my Covenant with thee and thy Seed, To be a God unto thee, and to thy Seed. Who can reach the height, or depth, or length, or breadth of this Promiſe! When He promiſeth to be a GOD to Abraham and his Seed, He promiſeth all that is Promiſeable. What ſhall I ſay? In Promiſing to be their God, He promiſeth to them; 1. Whatſoever he is, As God. 2. Whatſoever he hath, As God. 3. Whatſoever he can do, or is wont to do, As God for his people. All may be referred to theſe three ſteps, or degrees of this promiſe.

(e) Gen. 17. 7.

1. Whatſoever the Lord is, as God; He promiſeth, in Covenanting to be their God. That is, He will be their God, 1. According to all his Eſſential Properties. 2. According to all his Perſonal ſubſiſtences.

(1) According to all his Eſſential Properties and Attributes, the Lord is their God. God is theirs: And all the Properties of his Eſsence are theirs. They may claim them all for their Good, so far as consists with their capacity and felicity. 1. As God, he is (f) Jehovah; (g) Having being eternally, and independingly of himself, (h) Giving being to all things that are, and (i) giving actuall being and existence to all his Threats and Promises. In being their God, he is their JEHOVAH. 2. As God, he is most (k) Simple, without all mixture or Composition. (l) All-sufficient, (m) without all want or imperfection. (n) Immutable, (o) without all variableness or shadow of alteration. (p) Infinite, (q) without all bounds or limitation; either of understanding, being Incomprehensible: or of Place, being Omnipresent, or of time, being Eternal. Therefore being their God, he is their most Simple, All-sufficient, Immutable, Infinite, Incomprehensible, Omnipresent and Eternall God. 3. As God, he is (r) Most 1 True, 2 Good, 3 Gracious, 4 Loving-kind, 5 Mercifull, 6 Long-suffering, 7 Just, and 8 Holy, in his 9 Life, 10 Understanding and 11 Will. Consequently being their God, his Divine Truth, Goodness, Graciousness, &c. is all theirs: He is every way such a God to them. 4. As God, He hath absolute (s) Power, and supreme Dominion over all: can do what he will, can do all things that imply Power. Being their God, he is their Omnipotent, All-ruling God. 5. Finally, as God, (t) He is most 1 Perfect, 2 Excellent, 3 Blessed, and 4 Glorious, in all his former Attributes and Properties. And thereupon he must needs be their most Perfect, Excellent, Blessed and most glorious God. All these are Gods Essence: If God be theirs, all these are theirs. His Truth theirs, his Goodness theirs, his Graciousness theirs, his Loving-kindness theirs, his Mercifulness theirs, &c. All in God is theirs, All God is theirs. Lord, what is man that thou art thus mindfull of him, or the son of man that thou thus visitest him? As if all below thy self were too little for him, thou givest him thy self to fill and satisfie him: having nothing beyond thy self, or equall to thy self to bestow upon him, who can tell what thou art? who can tell what thy people enjoy, that have thee to be their God?

(2) According to his Personall subsistences, which are three, he is their God. For the Lord as God, is Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; viz. Three distinct persons in one Essence. (u) There are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost, and these three are one. The (x) Father alone eternally begetteth the Son; the Son alone is eternally and ineffably begotten of the Father, and is, (y) the express Character of his person; The holy Ghost onely (z) proceedeth from them both. Now the Lord being a God to them; is Father, Word and holy Spirit to them. That is, the onely true God, which is Father, Word, and holy Ghost in one Essence, is their God. Of whom as Father, in whom as Son, and by whom as holy Ghost; not onely all naturals, but also all supernaturals are derived to us, according to the order of their subsisting. Of, in, and By our God, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, we are Created, Redeemed, and Sanctified.

2. Whatsoever the Lord hath as God, he promised to Abraham and his Seed, in Covenanting to be their God. What God hath is infinitely less then what God is: if then himself be ours, consequently all he hath is ours, so far as consisting with, and necessary for his own glory and our good. Now, what hath God? Nay, What hath he not as his? He hath life for our quickning, health for our curing, strength for our establishing. Honour to advance us, Wealth to enrich us, Pleasure to delight us, Liberty to enlarge us, Friends to bestead us, Righteousness to cloath us, Holiness to adorn us, Comforts to support us, Glory to crown us. He is the grand and sole Proprietary of the whole world. All Naturals and Supernaturals; all Terrestrials and Celestials; all Temporals, Spirituals and Eternals; All things past present and future are his: and he gives them how, when, and to whom he pleaseth. Melchizedeck stiles the most high God, (x) Possessor of heaven and Earth. Moses told Israel, (y) Behold, the Heaven, and the Heaven of Heavens is the LORD's thy God: The earth also with all that therein is. David testifieth, (z) The Earth is the LORD's, and the fulness thereof: the world, and they that dwell therein: And elsewhere more fully; (a) Thine, O LORD, is the greatness and the glory, and the victory, and the Majesty: For, All that is in the Heaven, and in the Earth is thine. Thine is the Kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all. Both riches and honour come of thee. —— All this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine Holy Name, cometh of thine hand, and is all thine own. —— And of thine own have we given thee. Paul saith, (b) He needeth not any thing, seeing he giveth to all life and breath, and all things, &c. —— For in him we live and move, and have our being. (c) —— Who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompenced to him again? For of him, and through him, and to him are all things: to whom be glory for ever, Amen. He is the (d) God of all Grace. (e) Grace and Glory are his to give. He is the (f) Father of Mercies, and the God of all Consolation. Yea, (g) Every good gift, and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights. So then, the Lord as God hath all things: And Covenanting to be the God of Abraham and his Seed, he with himself implicitly Covenanteth and promiseth all things. The Apostle argueth from the greater to the less; (h) He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all: how shall he not freely with him give us all things? And in like sort we may proportionably conclude, the Lord that Covenanteth to be a God to Abraham and his Seed: with himself Covenanteth all things. Yea, God and Christ being theirs, and they Christs, and in Christ Gods, (i) All things are theirs, whether the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come, all are theirs. God can deny them nothing, to whom he hath not denyed himself. God is infinitely better then All; Is the owner of All; is the Author of All.

wants; To (l) suppress their fears; To (m) prevent their dangers; To (n) assuage their griefs; To (o) keep them from, support them under, be with them in, deliver them out of, or do them good by, all their distresses and afflictions; To enrich them (p) with goods: To protect them from evil; To (q) prolong their lives; To sweeten their Deaths. Yea, he is wont To forgive (r) them all their sins: To give (s) them his own Spirit; To (t) enrich them with all sorts and degrees of grace: To (u) call them effectually: to sanctifie them throughly: To adopt them Fatherly: To justifie them freely: To fill them with joy and peace in believing: To (x) shed abroad the love of God in their hearts: To (y) assure them by his Spirit of the things given them of God: To (z) comfort them with the Comforts of God over all their tribulations: To (a) make them more then Conquerours over all evils and enemies: To endear (b) them to himself by holy Communion: And at last To (c) glorifie them with himself compleatly in everlasting Habitations. These and like things the Lord as God can do, hath promised to do, and is wont to do for them, whose God he is in Covenant. All these things are theirs, if God be theirs.

Yea, if need require, what cannot the Lord do, what hath he not done already for his people, whose God he is? He (d) sav'd Noah by water from perishing in the flood: He (e) made the waters of the red Sea divide and stand up as wals for Israel: He (f) dissolv'd the Rock of flint into floods of water: He (g) Rain'd down flesh and bread out of the clouds: He (h) stopp'd the course of Sun and Moon: He (i) brought the Sun back ten degrees: He (k) multiplied the Widows Meal and Oyl: He (l) stopped the mouths of the huge lyons: He (m) suspended the fury of devouring flames, &c. Such things the Lord can do, hath done, and if there were like necessity and occasion, will still do for them, whose Covenant-God he is.

More especially the Lord vouchsafes these singular Favours to those whose God he is, and that because he is their God. All which are ours, when once himself is ours, viz.

(1) The supreme and onely true Happiness. (n) Blessed is the Nation whose God the LORD is: the people which he hath chosen for his own inheritance. God is the Supreme Happiness, The felicity of felicities. They that have God theirs, have the true Happiness indeed theirs. All confluence of worldly injoyments cannot render us so happy, as the true enjoyment of one God. (o) Happy is that people that is in such a case (that is, flourishing with all worldly peace and prosperity) but by way of Correction it is added: Yea, happy is that people whose God the LORD is. (p) Some take those words conjunctively, as proclaiming them happy, for whom the Lord as their God and Father so prosperously provides, especially to whom he gives himself, and enables them by these things to aspire to God himself the donour of them. But Augustine seems to understand them disjunctively, saying, (q) O vani- speakers, strange children! They have called the people happy that are in such a case. —— What saist thou David? What saist thou O Body of Christ? What say ye O Members of Christ? What say ye O children of God? Happy is that people whose God is the LORD. And elsewhere he gives an excellent reason to this effect, (r) *Wouldest thou be happy: that is, better then thy self? That cannot be by any thing worse then thy self. Not by gold, silver, or any thing on earth. Whatsoever thou seekest for in earth, is worse then thy self: a God that made thee, is better then thee. (2) A new Spirit, Gods own Spirit (s) —— And I will put a new Spirit within you, —— and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. (t) —— A new heart also will I give you, and a new Spirit will I put within you, —— And I will put my Spirit within you, —— and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. Where God gives himself, he gives his Spirit; which is the very Spring, fountain and root of all Grace and Comfort. And where God gives his Spirit, he gives a new heart, and puts a New Spirit within them. The old dark minde, the old corrupt judgement, the old rebellious will, the old hard heart and misguided affections, according to their carnalness and enmity against God, do (u) pass away, and all become new, A new man, A new Creature, that is, new principled, new qualified, &c. by Gods renewing Spirit.

(x) But this shall be the Covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those dayes, saith the LORD, I will put my Law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts, and will be their God, and they shall be my people. When Gods Law is written within the heart of his people, they have a double Law to rule and guide them: A Law without them, in the Scripture; A Law within them in their hearts. The Law within exactly answers to the Law without. The Law within is more vigorous, efficacious and sweetly compulsive then the Law without. The Law within makes a man (y) Law unto himself. This law within the Lord writes in his peoples hearts as their God.

people, and I will be their God. He will be their God, therefore they shall have an heart to know him to be the Lord. That is their heart and soul shall be so sanctify'd, that they shall know him to be the onely true God; not onely the eternall Being of Beings: but also the Covenant-making, the Covenant-keeping, and Promise-performing Jehovah with Abraham and his Seed: they shall know him truly, experimentally, affectively, penitentially, obedientially, savingly, they shall know him as theirs. Such knowledge none can have of God, that have not him for their God.

(a) Ezek. 11. 19, 20. and 36. 26, 27, 28.

(5) An heart of flesh. (a) I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and I will give them an heart of flesh: that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. The stony heart is an hard, inflexible, intractable heart, that will not bow, bend, yield, take any impression or inscription upon it from God: and this is the naturall temper of the heart; this God will take away: The heart of flesh is a soft, supple, tender, broken, contrite, flexible, obedientiall heart, that will be acted, moved, engraven, &c. by the Lord, as he shall please. Such an heart the Lord, as their God, will give. Such an heart is (b) Gods Sacrifices: and God will never despise it. Yea (c) with such an heart God will dwell.

(b) Psal. 51. 17.

(c) Isa 57. 15.

(6) Entire and sincere Conversion to God. (d) I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole heart. God becoming their God, will make them truly know him: they thus knowing God shall entirely return unto him. This the perfection of repentance, when we return from sin even unto God, with our whole heart; when we have not a distracted, divided or dissembling heart: an heart for sin, and an heart for God: but when our whole heart in the bent, frame and disposition of it is from sin to God, without haltings and reserves. When God hath (totum cor, & totum cordis) the whole heart, and the All of the heart.

(d) Ier. 24. 7.

(7) Free Pardon of their sins. (e) —I will be their God, and they shall be my people. ——— For I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Or as the Apostle alledgeth it, (f) I will be merciful to their unrighteousnesses, and their sins and transgressions will I remember no more. Mark, here are unrighteousnesses, sins and transgressions: that is, all sorts, degrees and aggravations of sinfulness, all shall be pardoned. Again, He will be mercifull to them, he will forgive them, he will remember them no more: that is, he will most freely, fully and eternally pardon all their sins. He will forgive and forget. He will pass an Act of Oblivion upon them, and blot them quite out of minde and Memory, as if they had never been. This is true (g) Happiness indeed. This is the rich fruit (h) of Christs satisfactory Death and perfect merit, That all their sins should be blotted out for ever. Christs blood is that (i) clean water which shall be sprinkled upon them, whose God the Lord is, that they may be clean from all their filthi-filthineſs. Oh this pardon is a ſweet mercy; where the guilt of ſin hath firſt been a bitter miſery.

(8) Oneneſs of Heart and way to fear the Lord for ever. (k) And they ſhall be my people, and I will be their God. And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them. Here the Lord, as their God, promiſeth divers bleſſings to his people, for excellent ends. 1. The bleſſings or Mercies promiſed are, (l) Oneneſs of Heart. This may import, Partly, Their renewed and ſanctified frame of heart and ſoul; which for ſubſtance is one and the ſame in all the people of God. They partaking the ſame (l) Spirit of Chriſt, the ſame (m) Divine Nature, the ſame (n) image of God in knowledge, righteouſneſs and true holineſs. Partly, their Oneneſs and (o) ſameneſs of judgement touching the things of Chriſt, and Chriſtianity. Partly, their Unity and (p) ſameneſs of heart and affection towards one another. In thoſe Primitive believers, who were of one heart, and of one Soul, this Promiſe was performed. (q) Oneneſs of way. Firſt Oneneſs of heart, then Oneneſs of way. Where peoples hearts are divided, their way will be divided: where their hearts are one, their way will be one. For, this is the fruit of that. The Actions without, will be conform to the Principles, and diſpoſitions within. But what is this way? This Metaphor of Way, (r) imports their habituall and uſuall courſe of Religion, whether in Doctrine, Worſhip, Diſcipline or Practiſe, according to Gods Statutes and Ordinances reſpectively. They ſhall have one way in all theſe. This was notably performed in the pureſt Primitive times: but after ages have miſerably degenerated from this Oneneſs both of heart and way. 2. The Ends why God promiſed theſe Mercies are two, viz. (s) Immediate; That they, from this Oneneſs of Heart and way, might fear the Lord for ever. Diviſions are deſtructive impediments and diſcouragements to Religion. Union and ſameneſs is a moſt conſervative encouragement thereunto. (t) Mediate, reſulting from their conſtant fear of God alſo. viz. The Good of them and of their children. God minds much the welfare both of his people and their poſterity. Unity of Parents in Piety is an excellent foundation of well-fare and felicity to poſterity.

(9) Gods Preſence with, and habitation in his people, as his Temple: walking and converſing with them. (u) And I will ſet my tabernacle amongſt you: and my ſoul ſhall not abhor you: and I will walk among you, and I will be your God, and ye ſhall be my people. Yea his people themſelves ſhall be his Temple, Sanctuary and Tabernacle, as the Apoſtle teſtifieth hereupon: Ye are the Temple of the living God; as God hath ſaid, I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and I will be their God, and they ſhall be my people. And in reference to the New Jeruſalem coming down from God out of Heaven, it is promiſed by voyce from Heaven, (x) Behold the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they ſhall be his people, and God

God himself shall be with them, and be their God. This gracious Presence of God among them, this his Spirituall habitation in them, this his walking and sweet Communion with them, (which are the borders of Paradise, the suburbs of glory, and a very heaven on earth) are all promised to his People, from the Lord as their God; (t) Gods Habitation with them (saith Rivet) is the Communication of his Grace unto them.

(10) The (u) Removal of all miseries from them, And the (x) Conferring of all temporall blessings upon them, the Lord as their God frequently promiseth to his people. Consult the Promises themselves here alledged.

(11) The preparing for them a City Celestial and Eternall. (y) But now they desire a better Country, that is, an heavenly: Wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; For he hath prepared for them a City. The Lord as their God hath prepared for his people a City that hath Foundations, far surpassing Jerusalem; An heavenly Country, incomparably excelling Canaan. This City, this Country God hath prepared for them, 1. By his eternall decree, (z) Ordaining it for them before the foundation of the world. 2. By his Act of Creation in the beginning of time, (a) framing and building this everlasting City of Heaven for them. 3. By Christs effectuall and meritorious Mediation, (b) purchasing heaven and all happiness for them by his Death, and (c) taking actuall possession thereof for them and their use by his glorious Ascension into heaven after his Death. 4. By his Spirits actuall and effectual preparation of his people, through (d) effectual Calling, Sanctification and Purification of them, for Celestiall glory.

(12) Life and Resurrection of his people from the dead. Gods people could not come to enjoy Gods heavenly City and Country, fully, unless their bodies should rise from the dead. The Lord, as their God, hath assured them of their Resurrection, as Christ himself argueth, saying; (e) But as touching the resurrection from the dead, have you not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but the living. Hereupon saith Rivet. (f) From this that God saith, I am the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, Christ inferres that they live and shall rise from the dead. Either the Lords inference was not Good, which were blasphemous even to think; or life and immortality was contained in the Covenant wherein God said, he was the God of Abraham and his posterity. We may thus form our Saviours Argument; All those who have the Lord for their God, must needs live. But Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob have the Lord for their God. Therefore they must needs live, and consequently they must rise again, being corporally dead. The Minor Christ proves from Moses. The Major, and the consequence thereof, he confirms, Because God is not the God of the dead, but of the living. This Phrase of Gods being the God of any, implyes, 1. Gods accepting them as his with singular fatherly Favour for ever, delivering and defending them from (13) Finally, The Lord as their God, promiseth and performeth mutual Constancy in Covenant betwixt himself and his people. (h) And they shall be my people, and I will be their God. ------ And I will make an everlasting Covenant with them, that I will not turn away from after them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. He will not, they shall not recede from their Covenant: God undertakes for both sides, for them as well as for himself. And he promiseth them inward ability, whereby they shall perform Covenant with him.

(h) Jer. 32. 38, 40.

These things, the Lord, as their God, can do, hath promised and is wont to do, for his Covenant-people. Yea, what is it in this or the world to come that conduceth to his peoples happiness, but the Lord both can and will do it for them, as their God in Covenant?

Thus, when the Lord Covenanted to be a God to Abraham and his Seed, even to all believers, heirs and followers of his faith, He promised 1. Whatsoever he is, as God. 2. Whatsoever he hath, as God. 3. Whatsoever he can do, or is wont to do, as God, for his people. And what could God promise more? Had he said; Being, Well-being, Life; Health, Food, Raiment, Honours, Riches, Pleasures, Friends, all the good things of this world should be theirs: Ordinances, Promises, Scripture, Covenant, Grace, Peace, Comfort, Calling, Adoption, Sanctification, Justification and Glorification shall be theirs: Heaven, Glory, Immortality, Endless joys, ineffable ravishments, blissful Society of all Saints, Martyrs and Angels in fulness of perfection, and all Seraphical extasies to the utmost of Humane Capacity, shall be theirs for ever; Had the Lord thus said, and promised, he had promised great and glorious things. But this was infinitely more then all, that he promised himself to be their God. All the light of those small twinkling stars, and much more, is comprehended in this glorious Sun, this Promise of Promises. This Promise is as the Sea; and all other Promises, as Springs and Rivers that come from this Sea and return thither again. It was Luther's saying; (i) All flows from that great Ocean of the first Commandment, and flows back again into it. So that there hath not been heard, nor ever is to be heard, A Speech more full and fruitful in Comfort, nor on the other hand more hard and severe, then that Speech of the first Precept: I am the LORD thy God.

(i) Omnia fluunt ex Oceano illo magno primi præcepti, & rursus in ipsum refluunt. Ut non sit sequam vox illa lætio fæcundior & plenior audita vox, nec audienda unquam; Rursus nec durior nec severior, primi præcepti: Ego sum Dominus Deus tuus. Luther. in Tom. 3. Lat. p. 109.

them. (k) I will establish my Covenant between me and thee, and thy Seed after thee, in their generations, for an Everlasting Covenant; To be a God unto thee, and to thy Seed after thee. Here then it is clear, That the Lord will be a God to Abraham and his Seed. 1. By Covenant. 2. By Covenant of his own establishing with them. 3. By an Everlasting Covenant. Thus and in this sort will the Lord be a GOD to Abraham and to his Seed.

1. He will be their God by Covenant.

The Lord is said in Scripture to be A God to Things or Persons, three wayes. viz. 1. In regard of his absolute soveraignty and Dominion over them, as their Creator and Governour. And thus he is the God of all creatures Good or Bad, Rationall or Irrationall. Hence he is stiled, (l) The LORD God of heaven, (m) The God of the Earth, (n) The God of the whole Earth, and sometimes (o) The Lord of Heaven and Earth, and (p) the God of Heaven and Earth. Because he created, preserves and governs Heaven and Earth, and all things therein according to his pleasure. 2. In regard of his peculiar Covenant-Relation, and Fatherly affection to some select people, among all other people in the world. So he is stiled (q) The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, (r) The God of David, (s) The God of Daniel, (t) The God of this people of Israel, &c. 3. In regard of his singular Ordination to, and acceptation in, the Eminent office of Mediatorship betwixt God and Sinners. Thus he is called, (u) The God of our Lord Jesus Christ; And Christ after his Resurrection said, (x) Go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father, and to my God and your God. In the first sense he is the God of all Creatures, generally: In the second sense he is the God of a select people, More specially, In the third sense he is the God of Christ Jesus singularly and onely. Here we are to understand it in the second sense, That the Lord promiseth to be the God of Abraham and his Seed by Covenant, that is, not their God onely by absolute Soveraignity and Dominion, nor at all their God by singular ordination to the Mediatory Office; But their God by a distinctive familiar Covenant-Obligation, and Relation.

He will then be the God of Abraham and his Seed by Covenant, This imports three things, viz. A Segregation of them from among all people. A familiar condescension to them. A fœderall Relation and Obligation unto them in Christ. 1. A (y) Segregation of Abraham and his Seed to himself from among all people. They should be brought into Covenant with God, He would be their God by Covenant: All other people in the world should be left out of Covenant, though he were their God by absolute Soveraignty and Dominion, yet would he not be their God by Covenant, as to Abraham and his Seed. Herein Abraham and his Seed had the Priviledge above all people on Earth, that the Lord would be a Covenant-God to them onely. Gods Covenant should be the discriminating and distinguishing Mark and Partition-wall betwixt them, and all other people in the world. Hereby they alone were peculiarly selected and separated to God from among among all people, and God was peculiarly appropriated to them. All others remaining (z) strangers from the Covenants of Promise, having no hope, and without God in the world: They have no Covenant-interest at all in God; nor can lay any Covenant-claim at all to God 2. A familiar Condescension to Abraham and his Seed. God might have dealt with them in a more resolute way; He might have commanded all duty from them as their Lord and Creator: and in such sense onely have manifested himself to them; He being an infinite, Eternal and Omnipotent God: they finite, mortal and impotent Creatures. But he deals more familiarly with them; He as it were lays aside his Majesty, he condescends and stoops to their meanness. He Contracts and Covenants with them familiarly, as man with man, as man with his equall. He becomes their God in Covenant. O how familiarly doth God deal with the sons of men! who can sufficiently admire such condescension? 3. A fœderall Relation and Obligation to Abraham and his Seed in Christ. This surpasseth both the former. It was much To select and distinguish Abraham and his Seed from all other people: It was more, To condescend and stoop to them in such a familiar way: But, It was most of all to fix a fœderall Relation and Obligation betwixt God and them, and that in Christ. And yet this he did in establishing his Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, to be their God. For, (a) If he be their God by Covenant, They consequently must needs be his people by Covenant. This is here implyed, and elswhere oft expressed, (a) I will be their God, and they shall be my people. Here's their fœderal relation. God is wholly theirs, and they wholly his: God is wholly theirs by Covenant, viz. All he is, All he hath, all he can or is wont to do for his people, is wholly theirs. Consequently, they are wholly his, viz. All they are, Soul, Body, Faculties, Affections, Senses, Members; All they have, Honours, Riches, &c. All they can do in thought, word, or work for him; Yea, All they can suffer in Soul, Body, Name, State for his sake, All must be his by Covenant. But this is onely here implyed, and therefore I shall not here inlarge further about, till we come to some other Covenant-Dispensation wherein it is expressed. (1) Again, If he be their Covenant-God, and they his people: then there is a mutuall obligation betwixt God and them, as joynt fœderates in the same Covenant, together with a mutuall stipulation of Mercies from God, and of duties from them. Relation carries alwayes mutual obligation with it. (2) Yea, finally, This Fœderall Relation and obligation is founded on Christ. He is their Covenant-God, and they his Covenant-people, onely in Christ the Mediator. The Lord is a creating, governing, and preserving God, without Christ: but he is a Covenant-God to none, since the Fall, but onely in Christ the Mediator. The Covenants and (b) Promises in all ages since the Fall, are made, and made good onely in Christ. They are first made to and with him, and then in him to and with all his Elect Seed and Spirituall Posterity, as (c) hath formerly been at large evidenced.

(b) 2 Cor. 1. 20.

(c) In Book II. Chap. II. Aphorism 2. Sect. 2.

He is the onely way for sinners unto God, divesting them of their sins, and investing them with his own righteousness, that so they may be accepted. (d) Jesus said to Thomas, I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life; No man cometh unto the Father, but by me. The Lord then Covenanting to be their God, promiseth Christ hereby unto them: For he never was, not can be a Covenant-God to sinners, but onely in and through the merit of Jesus Christ the Mediator. Thus he will be the God of Abraham and his Seed by Covenant.

2. He will be their God by Covenant of his own establishing with them (e) I will establish my Covenant betwixt me and thee, &c. The Hebrew word signifies, To settle, to make stand, to establish, to confirm, &c. Paul expresseth it notably, calling Gods Covenant with Abraham, (f) προκεκυρωμένην A Covenant fore-confirmed, fore-authorized of God. For it is derived from κύριος, signifying, Authority, full authority. And it is there opposed (g) to disannulling, and making of none effect: Or, to dis-authorizing, and destroying. O what care hath God taken to assure Abraham and his Seed of this blessing of blessings, that he will be for a God to them! He assures it by Covenant, by a Confirmed and established Covenant, by Gods own Covenant, by a Covenant of Gods establishment with them. A Covenant unestablished, unconfirmed, is weak: A covenant stablished by man, is mutable and variable: but a Covenant stablished by God is sure and inviolable. By such a sure inviolable Covenant, God would have Abraham and his Seed know, That he was their God. How God established this his Covenant with Abraham, shall hereafter in a distinct Aphorism be evidenced.

3. Finally, He will be the God of Abraham and of his Seed by an everlasting Covenant, Hebr. (h) by a Covenant of Eternity. His Covenant was everlasting: and consequently his Covenant-Relation to them should be everlasting. This heightens the mercy exceedingly, that God would be theirs, and they should be his for ever. The greater the Mercies, whilest enjoyed: the deeper the miseries, when they are lost. The seven years famine in Egypt and Canaan, were so much the more terrible and intolerable, because after the seven years plenty. As it is the greatest Heaven, to gain the Lord to be our God: so it would be the greatest Hell, to lose this God. Therefore the Lord will be a God to Abraham and his Seed, not in one or a few generations, but indefinitely in their Generations, viz. in all their generations, not for a year, or a few years, or a few ages, or for term of this present world onely, but beyond all this, even for ever. What ever they lose, yet they should not lose their God. He would be their Portion in wants, Their Honour in disgraces, Their Liberty in bondage, Their Strength in weakness, Their Health in sickness, Their Life in Death: He would be their God, their All, still. How eminent this Federall enjoyment! God is the Supreme Mercy to be enjoyed: And Perpetuity is the best term for enjoying.

Object.

Object. But how can we conceive the Lord to be the God of Abraham and his Seed for ever by an Everlasting Covenant, seeing Abrahams Jewish Seed are and have been long cast off by God: and many Gentilish Churches of his Christian Seed are utterly fallen away?

Answ. 1. We must distinguish of Abrahams Seed, whether Jewish or Christian. And it is (1) His (i) Faithfull and True believing Seed, viz. All true Believers, the true heirs of Abrahams Faith indeed. (2) His meer professed (k) Seed. viz. All those that (wanting true Faith, yet) visibly profess before men to be of the Faith of Abraham. 2. We must distinguish of Everlasting. It denotes; (1) Properly, that which shall still continue without determination; (2) Improperly, that which shall continue for a long time, shall be long-lasting, but shall at last expire and determine: As was (l) formerly cleared by the Scripture-use of this word. 3. We must also distinguish of the Lords being A God in Covenant to Abrahams Seed. Now he is their God in Covenant, (1) According to the meer visible Relation, and Outward Priviledges of the Covenant onely. So he is the God of all Abrahams meer visible Seed, that profess the Faith of Abraham, though they have not the Faith they do profess. Their visible profession estates them in the Covenants visible Priviledges, and in visible fœderall Relation to God. Thus the Lord is called, (m) The God of Israel, even of the whole body of the people of Israel brought out of Egypt: though great multitudes among them were not true Believers, not true heirs of Abrahams Faith, but (n) perished in the wilderness, yea, dyed probably for ever. (2) According to the invisible effectuall and saving Grace, Relations and Priviledges, as well as the outward Relation and advantages of the Covenant. And thus he is the God of Abrahams true sincere and reall Seed, the true heirs of his Faith: and of them onely. He is onely their God savingly, so as to (o) call them effectually, Adopt and justifie them freely, sanctifie them thoroughly, and glorifie them with himself eternally. 4. These things distinguished and premised, we may thus Resolve. (1) God is the Covenant-God of Abrahams true believing Seed, savingly and everlastingly. And of such Seed no one individuall Person ever was, is, or ever shall be rejected or cast off by God. He will be their Covenant-God for ever, in a most proper sense: And though the visible body of the Jewish people be for a time rejected, (p) till the fulness of the Gentiles be come in; and though sundry Churches of the Gentiles have failed: yet not one of Jews or Gentiles, pertaining to Gods (q) Election, hath thereby failed or been rejected. (2) God is the Covenant-God of Abrahams meer professed Seed, in vouchsafing them a visible Relation to himself, and outward fœderall priviledges from himself, for ever, in an improper sense: that is, For a long time. viz. Till their Death, or, till the Determination of the Old Testament-Dispensation, when the Jewish Church was dissolved; or, (r) till they break themselves off from God and his Covenant by Apostacy and unbelief.

Thus

Thus we see what the Lord intended, in establishing his Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, for an everlasting Covenant, to be for a God to him, and to his Seed after him. In the last place consider,

3. What Inferences may hence result. Did the Lord establish an everlasting Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, to be a God unto them in their generations? Then,

1. Gods Covenant Bounty to Abraham and to his Seed was most admirable. For, as if it had been a small Matter to Promise Divine Benediction, A numerous and victorious Seed, A renowned Name, The Inheritance of Canaan, The closing up of Abrahams dayes in a good old age in peace, and that God himself would be his shield, and exceeding great Reward: Over and beyond all these the Lord assures them, That he will be their GOD. The bounteous Lord went on in increasing and hightening his Promises, till he came to the very height of all Promisable Mercies, That himself should be A God for ever to Abraham, and to his Seed: And beyond himself what could God Covenant or Promise more? Consider well, What is Covenanted; To whom; And how it is Covenanted: And then admire the Covenant-bounty of the Lord. 1. What is Covenanted? That the Lord will be their God. If Heaven and Earth and all the created treasures and fulness of the world had been promised: All this had been as nothing to this that is promised. For what are the creatures to the Creator; the finite world, to the infinite God? Here's his Covenant-bounty to Abraham and his Seed: God gives himself to them, beyond whom nothing can be given. He thinks not his Creatures enough for his Covenant-people; beyond them there is some further happiness to be desired: therefore he bestows himself upon them, that they may have enough; for beyond him nothing can be desired. He will be theirs. What? Their Protection, Their Portion, Their Honour, Their Delight, Their Liberty, Their Life, Their Friend, Their King, Their Father, Their Husband? &c. Yes, God will be all these to them: and farre more then all these, He will be their God. What is this, He will be their God? It cannot be expressed, It cannot be conceived: Oh, let it be be admired. 2. To whom is this Promised and Covenanted? To Abraham and his Seed after him in their generations. What, to Abraham and his heirs? Then, God himself will be their Inheritance. Then, The Lord provides well, not onely for Abraham himself, but for his children: yea, as well for his Seed as for himself; The Lord will be a Covenant-God to his Seed, as well as to him. Abraham should dye, and leave his Seed to the wide world: but the Lord, (s) who cannot dye, or change, will be better to his Seed then an Abraham could be. He will be their God. Who are these Seed? (t) In Isaac shall thy Seed be called; that is, the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of Promise are counted for the Seed. Who are these children of Promise? All the Faithfull, both of Jews and Gentiles. (u) Now we (Gentiles) brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of Promise. For, (x) they that are of Faith, they that are are Christs, are Abraham's children, and heirs according to the promise. All the believing Jews, all the believing Gentiles, all the believing Englishmen and women, &c are the parties to whom the Lord promiseth to be their God, & the God of their seed. How extensive and diffusive is this Covenant-mercy! It spreads over the whole world.

3. How is this Covenanted? By an Established Covenant, by an everlasting Covenant, yea, by Gods own established and everlasting Covenant: A most firm, durable, and Divine Covenant. Who can duly ponder upon these things, without admiration and astonishment at Gods Covenant Bounty? Was ever bounty like this bounty: or Mercy like this Mercy? O every faithful Soul! Will the Lord thus be thy God by his own established and everlasting Covenant? Hide this Promise of Promises in thine heart; Bind it as a Crown and Diadem upon thine Head; Let it be ever with thee. This Royall Promise, This Promise paramount, (I will be to thee a God) is in my Heart to live and dye with. I had rather lose the Sun out of the sky, then this Promise out of my Soul.

2. Abraham and his Seed are by Gods Covenant priviledged above all people in the world. Why? Because the Lord is their God by Covenant, and theirs onely. None in all the world, besides Abraham and his Seed, can truly say, The Lord is our Covenant-God. What ever Blessings, Mercies, Benefits, Priviledges, Enjoyments they have; yet they want this Mercy of Mercies, (y) without which all other are as no Mercies at all. Give me this one: Let the world take all the rest. What can they say of their enjoyments, but Abraham and every one of his Seed can say much more of theirs? Can they boast, We have Princely dignities; we have daily delights; we have sumptuous Palaces; we have Thrones, Crowns, and Scepters; we have Kingdoms, Empires, and no end of our wealth? Abraham and his Seed can say incomparably more; WE HAVE THE LORD TO BE OUR COVENANT-GOD FOR EVER. viz. All that he is; All that he hath; All that he can do, or is wont to do for his people, As God; All this is ours. God the Father is our (z) Father of mercies, and our God of all Consolation, &c. God the Son is (a) Our Redeemer, Our Mediatour, Priest, Propher, and King; Our Saviour, Our Elder brother, Our Husband, Our Head. He is our (b) Propitiatory or Mercy-seat, our Peace, our Prince of peace; our wisdom, righteousness, redemption and Sanctification, Our life and Resurrection, yea, our All in All. His righteousness, obedience, Graces, Spirit, Merit, purchases, priviledges, victories, unsearchable riches; yea, and all his mediatory fulness, &c. are all ours. God the Holy-Ghost is (c) our Guide into all truth, our Sanctifier, our Comforter abiding in us; our Spirit of Adoption and Supplication, our witness that we are the Sons of God, Our Seal and earnest of our everlasting inheritance; yea, our Helper and relief against all our infirmities. All this is ours, yea, and whatsoever can be conducible to our Good, is Therefore, O ye Seed of Abraham! Mark well what the Lord hath done for you, in becoming your Covenant-God. He hath exalted your Head on high, and hath raised up your Mountain far above the top of all the Mountains of the men of this world. Over-value not their imaginary glory; neither under-value your own reall felicity. Envy not at their condition, nor murmur at your own: yours is far above their reach, theirs is far below your envy. Disdain the Husks of the world: Abhor the filthy sink and puddle of all sin: For the Lord is your Covenant-God.

3. Abraham and his true Seed are Gods Covenant-people. God hath as true an interest in them, as they in him. As he is their God, so they are his people. This (g) the Scripture frequently testifies. This, the Nature of the Covenant requires, which hath in it a mutual obligation of the Covenanters one to another. A Promise may be so propounded, as to oblige only the Promiser: but a Covenant being a mutual agreement betwixt divers parties, binds all those parties mutually one to another. As therefore in this Covenant God promiseth expresly to be A God to Abraham and his Seed: So Abraham and his Seed restipulate implicitly to be the people of this God. This the Rule of Relation requires. (h) Relatives Come, and go together; Rise, and fall together. A man begins to be a Father, as soon as he hath a childe: He ceaseth to be a Father when he hath no childe left him. A Covenant-God, and a Covenant-people are Relatives. As soon as the Lord becomes a Covenant-God to Abraham and his seed, so soon they become his Covenant-people. Yea, and so long as He continues theirs, they also shall continue his. Behold here, " What a Dignity; " what an Advantage; " what a Duty, is hereby devolved upon Abraham and his Seed.

(h) Relata mutuo se ponunt & tollunt.

(1) What a Dignity, that they should be called the people of God, Gods peculiar Covenant-people above all other people in the earth! (i) By nature they were dead in sins and trespasses, and children of wrath even as others; (k) had not obtained mercy, were not a people. But God hath taken them into Covenant with himself, whilest others remain strangers to the Covenant; hath distinguished them from all others, As sheep from goats; As the people of God, from those that are not a people; As those that have obtained mercy, from those that have not obtained mercy. Herein he hath highly honoured and exalted them, hath crowned them with glory and dignity, hath dignified them above carnal Princes and Potentates; hath set them on his right-hand of grace, and will set them on his right-hand of glory. Thus shall it be done to Abraham and his Seed, whom the King of Heaven delighteth to Honour. O debase not your selves by any course or carriage unworthy of God, or of his Covenant, seeing God hath honoured you with himself, and with his Covenant.

(i) Eph. 2. 1, 3.
(k) 1 Pet. 2. 9, 10.

(2) What an Advantage, that they should be Gods Covenant-people! Their benefit in this regard is much every way. 1. Hereby the reproach and (l) misery of their natural Covenantless, Christless, Hopeless and Godless state is rolled away from them. 2. Hereby they are brought (m) nigh unto God, into a Covenant-Relation, Union, and Communion with God: which is no less then a sweet Heaven on Earth. 3. Hereby Their Temporal, Spiritual, and Eternal welfare is richly provided for. God is theirs; therefore much more Temporals, Spirituals, and Eternals are theirs. 4. Hereby they are impregnably secured against Apostasie and backsliding, either through outward temptations or inward infirmities. They are now not so much under their own, as under Gods peculiar care & custody: and (n) are kept as in garrison by the power of God through faith unto Salvation. As (o) God is their Covenant-God for ever, so they are his Covenant-people for ever, therefore they can never fall away. 5. Hereby God is theirs, with All that is, with All that he hath, and with all that he is wont to do as God for his people; All this is theirs: and then what is not theirs? 6. Hereby, the Covenant is their Grand Charter, and Fundamental Evidence, for all this Happy inheritance: and so long as Gods everlasting Covenant stands good, their Covenant-enjoyments shall stand good also.

(n) 1 Pet. 1. 4, 5.
(o) Ier. 32. 38, 39, 40.

(3) What a Duty is hence incumbent upon Gods Covenant-people, to demean themselves towards God as his Covenant-people! No wonder that strangers to Gods Covenant walk as Covenantless: but they that are Gods people by Covenant, should walk as Covenanters with God. Yea their Dignity and Advantage by being Gods people, obligeth them to the respective duty of Gods people. Every Benefit from God, imposeth on us an Office to God: Every Dignity, a Duty. Greatest Remunerations, bind in greatest obligations.

What is the Duty of Gods people, as his people? 1. To disclaim and deny Sin, The world, and Satan. They are not now Satan's, the World's, or Sin's, as once they were; but Gods people. They have accepted God as theirs: and given up themselves to God, as his; therefore they must now no longer be for Sin, the World or Satan: but for God. (p) I will be their God, and they shall be my people: wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, &c.---- (q) Come out of her my people, and partake not of her sins.---- 2. To know God more clearly and experimentally, then they can that are not his people. God hath promised, that his own Covenant-people (r) shall have an eminent knowledge of himself, from the greatest to the least of them. They should accordingly strive (s) to know him, whom to know is life eternall. 3. To endear their hearts and affections to their God, as his people most sincerely, intensively, and fervently. (u) Hear O Israel, The LORD our God is one LORD. And thou shalt love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. Thou art his, and he is thine: therefore love him with all that is within thee. 4. To fear him, serve him, cleave to him, walk after him, yea to observe and do all his Commandments uprightly and Evangelically. (x) Thou shalt fear the LORD thy God and serve him, and shalt swear by his name. To him shalt thou cleave. (y) Ye shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his Commandments, and obey his voyce.--- And this is the Preface to the X. Commandments, (z) I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the Land of Egypt, out of the House of bondage: this Preface the Lord purposely prefixed, as a bundle of strong Motives, to the observing of all his Commands. 5. To walk (a) with God in holy Communion. They have federal union to God, and should walk in federal Communion with God. (b) Can two walk together unless they be agreed? But God and they are agreed in Covenant, therefore they may walk together. 6. To take Gods part against all opposers. The League and Covenant betwixt God and them is both Defensive and Offensive on both sides. God takes his peoples part, suffers none to do them wrong. His people should take Gods part, and suffer none to do him wrong, by blaspheming his Name, reproaching his Truth, ways and Ordinances, &c. 7. Finally, To advance and exalt his glory to the uttermost they can possible. They are (c) a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy Nation, a peculiar people; To what end? that they should shew forth the vertues of him who hath called them out of darkness into his marvellous light: which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God. Therefore seeing they are become Gods people, they should shew forth the vertues of him that hath called them, (viz.) (d) His wisdom, goodness, Free-grace, Mercy, Loving-kindness, Power, &c. in making them his people. price. Therefore glorifie God, in your body, and in your ſpirit, which are God's.

4. Abraham and his Seed can want neither Promiſes nor Mercies: ſeeing the LORD promiſeth to be their God by an Everlaſting Covenant. For, 1. This Promiſe and Mercy are the Greateſt of all Promiſes and Mercies. God himſelf (f) is the Sole ſupreme Good, the chief happineſs, The Mercy of Mercies, The bleſſing of bleſſings, The onely infinite, eternal and incomparable Excellency, utterly ſurpaſſing all other enjoyments in the world; which are in compariſon of him, not ſo much as the leaſt ſpark to the Sun, or the leaſt drop to the Ocean, or as the ſmall duſt of the ballance to the whole globe of the Earth. Proportionably, God being the greateſt Object and bleſſing promiſeable, The Promiſe of God himſelf muſt needs be the Greateſt Promiſe, the Paramount Promiſe, The Promiſe of Promiſes. And therefore if God withhold not his own bleſſed ſelf from Abraham and his Seed, but promiſe to be their God by an Everlaſting Covenant: How ſhall he not alſo with himſelf, the greateſt Mercy, freely give all leſſer Mercies, temporal, ſpiritual and Eternal; and with the Promiſe of himſelf, give freely all leſſer promiſes? Will he do the greateſt, and will he not do the leſs? 2. This Promiſe is a radical Promiſe, and this Mercy a fundamental Mercy. God is (g) the Father of Mercies, (h) the Author of every good and perfect gift. (i) From him we have life, breath, being, wel-being, Grace, Glory, and all things. (k) Of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever, Amen. Therefore if God, the Spring-head of all Mercies, become theirs: ſhall not all inferiour ſtreams of mercies, thence flowing, be theirs alſo? The Promiſe of God is a radical promiſe. All other Promiſes are but as ſtems and buds out of this Root, are but as ſo many branches out of this ſtock. Hence they all originally riſe and ſpring. Therefore they that have this Promiſe, have all other Promiſes with it. 3. This Mercy is a moſt Comprehenſive Mercy, this Promiſe A complexive promiſe. In God all vertues, all perfections, all good, all deſirables, &c. do eminently meet, and are con-centered. He (l) is Simpleneſs, All-ſufficiency, Immutability, Infiniteneſs; He is Life, Light, Truth, Goodneſs, Graciouſneſs, Love, Mercy, Long-ſuffering, Juſtice, Holineſs, Omnipotency, Perfection, Excellency, Bleſſedneſs, Gloriouſneſs. He is Riches, Honour, Delight, Peace, Health, Salvation, All. In the Promiſe of God, the Promiſe of all good is vertually compriſed. Therefore, what mercies can they want, that want not God? They have all things that have him that hath all things. And what Promiſes can they want, that want not this grand Promiſe of God himſelf? Oh how rich and happy herein are all Gods Covenant-people?

5. They that neglect or deſpiſe Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, therein they neglect and deſpiſe both God, and Jeſus Chriſt, and all Happineſs. They neglect & deſpiſe God; for he is the chief Covenant-blessing promised. 2. They neglect and despise Jesus Christ; for he is the foundation on whom the Covenant is established, and the Mediatory-Mean in whom the Lord becomes our Covenant-God. 3. They neglect and despise all happiness; For God is the Author, Jesus Christ the Purchaser and Conveyer of all Happiness to Sinners; and the Covenant is the Grand Charter or Deed of Conveyance, whereby all happiness and Salvation is tendered and secured to them.

Now these and such like neglect or despise Gods Covenant with Abraham and with his Seed, viz.

(1) Those who content themselves with their Carnall Condition, which is (m) a Covenantless, Christless, and Godless state. Who think themselves naturally happy enough, in state good enough, &c. not seeking after any true supernatural happiness, by effectual calling, conversion, regeneration, &c. These are not as yet sensible of their natural misery: therefore they must needs neglect their supernatural remedy. They see not themselves lost and undone in the first Adam, by breach of the Covenant of Works: and how should they seek for relief in the last Adam, by believing the Covenant of Faith? These neglect and despise the Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, as needless, useless, no way concerning them, no way advantaging them.

(m) Eph. 2. 12.

(2) Those who neglect and despise a true inward saving Covenant-state oft tendered to them. They have an outward and in-effectual Covenant-state, by their own visible profession, or by descending of visible Professors of Faith in Christ, and herein they rest: but they labour not after an inward effectual Covenant-state by true Faith in Christ indeed. They endeavour not to become the faithful Seed of Abraham indeed. And therefore they neglect and despise the very marrow of the Covenant.

(3) Those who neglect and despise actual part and interest in Jesus Christ, the foundation and Mediatour of the Covenant. They (n) receive him not; they (o) will not come unto him, or believe in him; they are well enough without him; they have other ways to heaven besides him. God is merciful, they have lov'd and serv'd him ever since they were born, they have as good hearts to God, and hope to come as soon to heaven as the best, &c. These despise Christ, and the mysterie of salvation by him.

(n) Ioh. 1. 11.
(o) Ioh. 5. 40.

(4) Those who despise the preaching of the Gospel, and dispensation of the Sacraments. Some in a spiritual phrensie think themselves elevated to such an high pinacle of perfection, that they are above Preaching, Sacraments, and all Ordinances; and therefore despise them as things too low and contemptible for them to stoop unto. Others from principles of profaness, Security and ignorance, look upon Word and Sacraments as slight and trivial things, of no great consequence, &c. and therefore are not diligent to attend upon them, them, but can dispense with them upon every vain and trifling occasion. Such, despising the Word and Sacraments, whereby Gods Covenant is published, applyed, and confirmed, despise the Covenant it self.

(5) Finally, Those that despise, hate, oppose or persecute such as are Christs, and in true Covenant-state in him indeed. As (p) Ishmael dealt with Isaac, (q) Cain with Abel, &c. Such not onely despise Gods Covenant, but are enemies against his Covenant in an high degree.

6. They that are Abraham's true Covenant-Seed, have the Lord to be their Covenant-God: And on the other hand, they that have the Lord to be their Covenant-God, are Abraham's true Covenant-Seed. It will notably serve for our Examination and Tryal both wayes. And these are two priviledges well worth our knowing, and most diligent search into. They will mutually and convertibly clear one another.

First, Are we Abraham's true Covenant-Seed? Then the Lord is our Covenant-God. For, (r) he hath stablished his Covenant with Abraham and his Seed for an Everlasting Covenant, to be a God to them in their Generations. But, How may we know that we are Abraham's true Covenant-Seed. By these characters, viz.

(r) Gen. 17. 7.

(1) By our being Christs. (s) And if ye be Christs, then are ye Abrahams Seed.

(s) Gal. 3. 29.

(2) By our (t) walking in the steps of Abrahams faith.

(t) Rom. 4. 11, 12.

(3) By our (u) doing the works of Abraham. If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham. These 3 Characters I have (x) formerly opened at large, with many subordinate notes and discoveries. There See. Thus we may discover whether we be Abraham's Covenant-Seed. And if we can finde our selves such indeed, then the Lord is our Covenant-God, as he was Abraham's God.

(u) Ioh. 8. 39, 40.
(x) In this III. Cha. Aphor. III. Coroll. 3.

Secondly, Is the Lord our Covenant-God? Then we are Abraham's Seed, and instated in all Covenant-priviledges as well as Abraham. But, How may we know, that the Lord is our God in Covenant? This may be discovered many ways, but especially these three ways. 1. By his federal Impressions and operations upon us. 2. By our Covenant-Relation unto him. 3. By our suitable deportment and carriage towards him as our God in Covenant. But these shall be more fully opened in the IV. Book.

7. Who would not strive to be Abraham's true Covenant-Seed, that they may enjoy the Lord as their Covenant-God?

To have the Lord as our God in Covenant, and that an Established and Everlasting Covenant, is the Crown of all enjoyments, the Summe and Compendium of all Happinesse. To have all in Earth, All in heaven, All in the whole world (if it were possible) without God, is in effect effect to have nothing at all. Without God, as ours in Covenant; What is the world, but a deformed Chaos? What the Earth, but a woful wilderneſs? Yea (y) what would Heaven it ſelf be, but a very Hell? I would refuſe Heaven, if God were not there, if Chriſt were not there. Contrariwiſe, were it poſſible for Abraham's true faithful Seed to enjoy the Lord as their God face to face in Hell it ſelf, the place of the Damned, this enjoyment would transform Torments into Triumphs, Sorrows into joys, Darkneſs into light, and Hell into Heaven. Thus to have the Lord as our God, is to have all that is to be had and enjoyed. This is Riches; This is Honour; This is Pleaſure; This is Grace; This is Glory; This is Life; This is Eternity; This is Paradiſe; This is Heaven; This is a whole world of Happineſs; This is All!

Now, who ſhall have the Lord as their Covenant-God? Only Abraham and his true Covenant-Seed of believing Jews and Gentiles. All theſe, and theſe alone, are admitted to enjoy the Lord as their God in Covenant: To have a Covenant-claim to him, to have a Covenant-intereſt and happineſs in him. Ever ſince God eſtabliſhed his Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, All others in the world are utterly excluded as (z) forainers and ſtrangers, both from the Covenant, and from God himſelf, and from all true Happineſs conſequently. They have no happineſs theirs, that have not God theirs in Covenant: Since Abraham, None can have God thus theirs, but Abraham's true Covenant-Seed. Oh then, who would not ſtrive to be Abraham's true Covenant-Seed, that Abraham's God may be their Covenant-God?

But how ſhall we ſtrive to become Abraham*'s true Covenant-Seed indeed: and thereby to enjoy* Abraham*'s God to be our God in Covenant? Anſw.* Strive and endeavour to the uttermoſt; 1. To become Chriſts. 2. To believe with Abraham. 3. To do the works of Abraham. This is the only ſure and Compendious way to become Abraham's Seed indeed; and to approve our ſelves to be ſuch.

First, Strive and endeavour to the uttermoſt of all poſſibility to become Chriſts. Chriſt is Abraham's (a) primary and moſt eminent Seed: All they, and they only, that are united and implanted into Chriſt, become Abraham's Secondary and ſubordinate Seed. Chriſt is the Receptacle, the Seed-Recipient or Receiving, that takes in all that come to him to be Abraham's Seed: All that come to Chriſt are the Seed-Received. And (b) if ye be Chriſts, then are ye Abrahams Seed, and heirs according to the Promiſe. Incitements or Motives unto this Striving to be Chriſts: As alſo what Progreſs a Carnal man may make towards Chriſt, but ordinarily neglecteth: Together with Signs of being Chriſts; ſhall hereafter be more particularly explained in the IV. Book. There ſee.

Secondly, Strive and endeavour to the uttermoſt to believe with Abraham. For they that (c) walk in the ſteps of his faith, are his true Seed. (d) They which are of Faith, the ſame are the children

(y) Manſions are nothing, many Manſions are little, yea many Manſions in Chriſts Fathers Houſe are created chips of happineſs, and of blood and kin to Nothing, if they be Created. Ah! we want himſelf; and I ſhould refuſe Heaven, if Chriſt were not there.——Heaven without Chriſt, ſhould look like the doleful land of Death.——Manſions are but as places of Bryars and thorns without Chriſt; therefore I would have Heaven for Chriſt, and not Chriſt for Heaven. dren of Abraham. Imitate his Faith: tread in his believing ſteps, viz.

(1) Believe on him (c) that raiſed up Jeſus from the dead: As Abraham believed that God would raiſe him up Seed (which Seed was principally (a) Chriſt) from his dead body, and Sarah's dead womb.

(2) Bottom thy Faith upon Gods (b) word of Promiſe, as Abraham did: not upon any falſe or unſound foundations.

(3) Believe Gods Promiſes even (c) againſt hope in hope.

(4) In believing Gods Promiſes (d) neglect and overlook all impediments and obſtructions to the performance of the Promiſes.

(5) Doubt not, (e) ſtagger not at Gods Promiſe through unbelief. Call not in queſtion the Truth, Faithfulneſs and ſureneſs thereof.

(6) Be (f) ſtrengthened in Faith, and give glory to God by believing. Give him the glory of his free grace, Truth and Power, both in making, and making good all his promiſes.

(7) Finally, Be (g) fully perſwaded, that whatſoever God hath promiſed, he is fully able and al-ſufficient to perform to the uttermoſt, againſt all ſeeming improbabilities, and impoſſibilities.

Theſe were the chief ſteps of Abraham's Faith, as hath (h) formerly been more fully evidenced. In theſe ſteps of his Faith ſincerely follow him, as ſpiritual children their ſpiritual father. You have all the Cauſes, Motives, and Encouragements to believing that Abraham himſelf had, viz. 1. The ſame Author of faith, Gods Spirit; 2. The ſame object of faith, the moſt faithful and al-powerful God, and his infallible Word; 3. The ſame ſubject matter of faith, Jeſus Chriſt, the kernel of the Promiſes, and life by him; 4. The ſame Nature of Faith in Chriſt Jeſus; 5. The ſame fruit of faith, Juſtification in the ſight of God: Why therefore ſhould you not believe, as Abraham believed? Yea, in ſome ſort you have greater encouragements to believe, then Abraham himſelf had. For, 1. The Spirit, the Author of faith, is now under the New Teſtament, more plentifully poured forth upon the Saints, then heretofore upon the faithful under the Old Teſtament. 2. The Object of Faith, God, is now more fully made known in all his properties and perfections; and his Word and Promiſes, then only in part revealed and written, are now compleatly revealed, and for their more unqueſtionable certainty, fully committed to writing. 3. The Subject-matter of faith then was Jeſus Chriſt, that was to come afterwards in fulneſs of time: now, is Jeſus Chriſt that is come already, &c. Therefore if we believe not with Abraham, who have more encouragements of believing then Abraham himſelf, how intolerable and inexcuſable will our unbelief appear?

(h) Book III. Cha. III Aphor. 2. Corol. 3.

Thirdly, Strive and endeavour to the uttermoſt, To do Abraham's works fully and ſincerely. Then ye ſhall evidence your ſelves indeed to be Abraham's true children. (i) If ye were Abraham's children, children, (said Christ to the Jews) ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. Good children tread in the good steps of their Fathers. Abraham hath broke the Ice, hath led the way, hath shewed himself an excellent pattern, not only of Faith, but also of Good-works. Follow this pattern of wel-doing. It's far easier to follow a Pattern set; then to set a pattern to be followed. Herein especially imitate his works, which have (k) heretofore been more fully described. viz.

(i) Joh. 8. 39, 40.

(k) Book III. Cha. III. Aphor. 2. Coroll. 3.

(l) Gen. 12. 1, 2, 3, 4. Heb. 11. 8.

(1) Yield ready obedience to Gods call, notwithstanding all impediments or objections to the contrary. Thus did (l) Abraham. God cals thee, To repentance from dead works, To Self-Denial in all things inconsistent with Christ, To Faith in Jesus Christ for salvation, To Newness of Heart and life, &c. Thou stoppest thine ear against Gods call, as the deaf Adder; Thou contentest thy self in thy carnal unregenerate state; Thou hardnest thine heart in unpenitency and unbelief; thou wilt not come unto Christ that thou mayst have life; Thou wilt do whatsoever is right in thine own eyes, and run on still to all excess of riot, &c. This did not Abraham.

(2) Submit to all the Ordinances of God, and comply with them, against all exceptions and carnall reasonings that may be raised against them. As, to his Word preached, Sacraments, Prayer, Praises, Sabbaths, &c. If God ordain: do thou observe. Whatsoever he institutes and appoints, (which is still in infinite wisdom, and faithfulness): do thou acknowledge, and obey; that will be thy wisdom. Thus did (m) Abraham. If thou despisest, neglectest, disgracest, opposest, disputest against Gods Ordinances; Thou art above them, they are matters too low and mean for thee; thou castest them, or any of them behind thy back, &c. How art thou a child of Abraham? This did not Abraham.

(m) Gen. 17. 5. to 15. 23 to the end. & 21. 4.

(3) Rejoyce to see Christs day. Let thine heart be gladsomly affected with these Gospel-times under the New Testament. Triumph spiritually, That Jesus Christ is come already, and hath finished the work of our Redemption; and is now sate down on the right hand of God, expecting till his foes become his footstool. That his Scriptures are compleated, That his Spirit is in ordinary more fully poured forth; That his face is more clearly and gloriously manifested, without obscure Mosaical veils and types; That the abundance of the Gentiles have come in unto him; That in every place, without distinction, he is now to be worshipped in Spirit and Truth; That Jesus Christ reigns in his Church; and over all things for his Church; and That he is hastening and preparing all things for his second coming. Thus (n) Abraham rejoyced to see Christs day; though afar off, and at a great distance; yea, though it was but as it were the break or crack of day, the first peering of the morning of Christs day; shouldst not thou much more rejoyce now now at the bright Noontide of Christs perfect day? And dost thou murmur and repine at Christs day? Dost thou profess Judaism, Turcism, Papism, or Paganism, before Christianism? Dost thou rage, meditate and machinate vain things against the Lord, and against his Christ? Dost thou oppose and undermine his Kingdom, Gospel, and Church? &c. And art thou a child of Abraham? This did not Abraham.

(n) Ioh. 8. 56.

(4) Love (o) the brethren (the true children of God) really and fervently. Love them for their brotherhood, for the Grace and image of God in them, for God and Jesus Christ shining in them; Love (p) All the Brethren, all the Saints, all the children of God, one as well as another: poor as well as rich, ignoble as well as noble, &c. True love to grace, as it is Grace, will be to all Grace where-ever it is. Love them most wherein most grace and godliness appears. And as Grace abounds in any more and more, so let love abound and increase towards them proportionably. (q) Love not in word and tongue, but in deed and truth. (r) Love purely and fervently. So love the brethren, as to do much for them; (s) yea, (if need require) to hazard and endure much for them. Thus did (t) Abraham for Lot his righteous brother. But if thou lovest the brethren, Gods children, 1. Hypocritically, only in word and tongue; or, 2. Carnally, not for Grace and piety, but for other carnal respects, as sweetness of Nature, pleasantness of Society, &c. or, 3. Partially, thou lovest the (u) rich, great, and honorable Saints, not the poor, low and despised; or 4. Self-seekingly, Only for thine own sordid ends and advantages, to make a gain of them. Or 5. If in stead of loving them, thou hatest them, revilest them, and otherwise persecutest them for their piety and righteousness sake; thou art a (x) scoffing Ishmaelite, and a (y) cruel Cainite, not a true child of Abraham. This did not Abraham.

(5) Train up and govern thy family religiously in the way of the Lord. Walk with thy yoke-fellow (z) as joynt-heirs of the Grace of life; (a) bring up thy children in the Nurture and admonition of the Lord, (b) having them in subjection with all gravity; Teach thy servants (c) to serve the Lord Christ, and give unto them what is just; Let thy family be a little (d) Church, and let Family-worship in all the parts and acts of it be conscientiously maintained. This was (e) Abraham's practise and Praise. But if thou hast no due Care of the Souls committed to thy charge; Thou hast no family-worship among thy Houshold, No reading of Scriptures, no Catechizing, no Praying, no religious Conference; No visible memorials of God, Jesus Christ, or Christianity, More then in the families of mere (f) Pagans and Infidels, thou art quite degenerate from Abraham. What dost thou more for thine Houshold, then the very bruit beasts for their young, providing only for back, and belly, and this present life? This did not Abraham.

(6) Finally, Be obedient to God even in hardest tasks and duties imposed. Herein (g) follow the Lord fully, and cheerfully. Besides many acts of Abraham's obedience to God, that (h) touching his offering up of Isaac is most singularly renowned. Herein his exemplary Self-Denial, his Faith in God, his fear of him, and his love to him, did shine forth even to admiration. But alas, how many even in the visible Church walk contrary to God as children of disobedience, resolved in wickedness? And others how hypocritically, negligently, grudgingly do they obey? As if any careless, sleepy, sluggish performances would serve God. Malachi thus taxeth Israel in his days; (i) Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness it is, and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts, and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick: thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hands, saith the LORD? But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth and sacrificeth to the Lord a corrupt thing. —(k) Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it, that we have kept his Ordinances, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? They thought all their obedience too much, every thing too good for God. This did not Abraham.

8. How Comfortable this Covenant to all Abraham's true Seed against all possible disconsolations! Evidence it once solidly and clearly by former discoveries, or otherwise, That thou art Abraham's true Covenant-Seed: And then, this grand Covenant-Mercy is thine also. Then, The Lord is thy God; The Lord is thy God in Covenant; The Lord is thy God by a Covenant of his own establishment; The Lord is thy God by an everlasting Covenant. All the former Mercies and Covenant-blessings which the Lord promised to Abraham and his Seed, were comfortable: but this is transcendently comfortable above them all. This is the Mercy of Mercies: and consequently, this is the Comfort of Comforts, to have the Lord to be our God in Covenant for ever. This is the Glory of all Honor, This is the Magazeen of all riches, This is the Quintessence of all sweetness, This is the Jubilee of all joy, This is the Life of all Cordials, This is the Rapture of all delights, This is the very height of all Rewards. All Cordials meet in this Cordial. All enjoyments are con-centred in this enjoyment. Without this Heaven it self could not be Heaven: with this (if it were possible) Hell it self could not be Hell: yea this creates an Heaven on Earth to all Gods true Covenant-people. (l) Many say, who will shew us good? But they say, Lord, lift thou up the light of thy Countenance upon us. Every of them may burst forth with David, (m) Whom have I in Heaven, but thee? And there is none on earth that I desire besides thee. My flesh and my heart faileth: but God is the rock of my heart, and my portion for ever. (n) ——All my Springs are in thee. All our wel-springs are in the Church, in reference to God and Christ there. All the Springs of our peace, joy, comfort, fort, delight, sweetness, Contentment, happiness, &c. all these springs are in God, He is the fountain of all these springs to us, when once he becomes our God in Covenant.

(l) Psa. 4. 6, 7.

(n) Psal 87. 7.

O ye faithful Seed of Abraham! why walk ye droopingly or disconsolately, having the Lord to be your God in Covenant? What can be the Malady, for which this is not a compleat Remedy? What faintings or perplexities can seise upon your hearts and spirits, which this superlative cordial may not dispel? Were not the Lord your Covenant-God, nothing could truly comfort you: But being your Covenant-God, what should discomfort you? (o) Why are you cast down, and why are your souls disquieted within you? Is it from any of these occasions, viz. 1. Reliques and remains of Corruption; 2. Fears or dangers of Apostacy: 3. Outward, or inward wants: 4. Strong and violent Temptations: 5. Deep and dismaying desertions. 6. Sharp afflictions and Persecutions: or, 7. The very terrors of Death it self? Nay, in all these we are more then Conquerors, having the Lord to be our Covenant-God. To this Covenant, to this Covenant-God, let all Abraham's Seed fly for refuge and refreshment against all such discomforts whatsoever. The comfortableness of having the Lord to be our God in Covenant, See more fully opened and explained in the IV. Book.

(o) Psal. 42. 5, 11. & 43. 5.

Hitherto of the Substance and Matter of Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, viz. The many eminent Mercies promised to them on Gods part. I. What God would do for them. He would 1. Bless them. 2. Multiply them exceedingly. 3. Make his name Great. 4. Make his Seed victorious. 5. Give them Canaan for an Everlasting Inheritance. 6. Close up Abraham's days in a good old age in peace. II. What God would be to Abraham and his Seed. He promised to be, 1. His shield. 2. His exceeding great Reward. 3. A God to him, and to his Seed after him, by an Everlasting Covenant. And beyond these, what could God promise more? Happy Abraham! Happy all the true Seed of Abraham ——; to be accepted in such a blessed Covenant with the Lord!

Now in the Next place, the other branch of the Matter of Gods Covenant, viz. Divers notable Duties Required of Abraham and his Seed, and on their part restipulated, come to be Considered. These, (especially the last of them, The Lords being their God,) have been insisted upon more largely; Partly, because they are most Excellent; Partly, because I propounded to handle them here, where they are first mentioned, once for all, that hither I may refer, when I meet with any of them in the successive Periods and Discoveries of Gods Covenant. But These shall be handled more compendiously.

SECT. II.

II. THE COVENANT-DUTIES REQUIRED and RESTIPULATED ON THE PART OF ABRAHAM AND HIS SEED, are divers and very considerable. The Lord himself (1) Partly expresseth them to Abraham, when he renewed his Covenant with him most clearly and compleatly: saying, (p) I am the Almighty God: Walk before me, and be thou Perfect. And I will make my Covenant between me and thee, &c. As if he had said; Abram, I am minded now to renew my Covenant with thee, and therein to Promise and assure both thee and thy Seed of Many Eminent Mercies to be performed to you on my part: But you must know, that Some things also are to be performed towards me, on your part; Walk before me, and be Perfect. These are the Covenant-Duties which I require of you, and which you are to restipulate and perform to me. (2) Partly, the Lord implyes their Duty, viz. That as he would be to them a God; So they should be to him a People.

(p) Gen. 17. 1, 2, 3.

So that here are chiefly three Covenant-duties required Expressly, and restipulated Implicitly on the part of Abraham and his Seed, viz. 1. To Walk before God. 2. To be Perfect. 3. To be his People.

(q) Verba pauca, Sensus multus.

(q) Few words: but much Sense. For unto these three Comprehensive duties, all other Covenant-obligations in the part of Abraham and his Seed may easily be referred. We may Comprize them all in this distinct Proposition;

The Covenant-Duties or Matter of the Covenant required and restipulated on the part of Abraham and his Seed, are, To walk before God, Be Perfect, and to be Gods People. Under these, All piety of Person and conversation. All sincerity of, that Piety, is comprehended. By these, Abraham and his Seed should be distinguished from all Godless Heathens without the Church, and from all dissembling Hypocrites within the Church. I call them [Covenant-Duties:] because God requires and commands here the performance of them, in reference to his Covenant. I say, [they are restipulated on the part of Abraham and his Seed;] that is, Abraham restipulated them, though not Explicitly, yet Implicitly; whilest he accepted Gods Covenant, submitting to Gods commands in his conversation. Abraham's Seed also Implicitly restipulated them in Abraham, in whom the Covenant was made with them, whether Jews or Gentiles. As they share with Abraham in the Mercies and Benefits of the Covenant from God: So they are involv'd and obliged with Abraham in the Duties of the Covenant to God. Let us view and consider of them severally.

1. Of Walking before God. Touching which I lay down this Thesis or Doctrinal Position, viz. Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, obliged them to Walk before God. This their first Covenant-duty and Restipulation, required from them by God on their part. Walk before me, said God.

For unfolding hereof, let us enquire, 1. What is meant by Walking before God? 2. Why Abraham and his Seed were thus to walk before God in reference to Gods Covenant with them? 3. Whether Abraham and his Seed did so walk before God? 4. What Inferences may hence flow. 1. What is meant by Walking before God? Heb. התהלך לפני, Walk-thou-diligently-constantly, (or, make-thy self-walk-diligently) before my face. The word being in Hithpael, which (r) Conjugation signifies, The vehemency, Causality, and reciprocation of the action, is here very emphatical: and denotes diligence, assiduity, carefulness in walking before Gods face; that is, in his sight, in his presence, before him: as the manner of the Hebr. phrase is. So that here's, 1. The Action required; Walk, or walk-studiously, walk-constantly, &c. 2. The Specification of the Action; before me.

(r) Shindl. Institut. Hebraic. p. 116, 117.

Walking in Scripture, is used 1. Sometimes Properly, and so it signifies, The moving of the body step by step, in a continued course from place to place. Thus God commanded Abram (s) to walk through the Land of Canaan in the length thereof, and in the breadth thereof. 2. Sometimes Improperly, and so it's used to signifie (t) life, or living, simply; because Walking is one Eminent action and evidence of life. Abram said, (u) I walk childless; that is, I live childless. Christ said (x) I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following; that is, I must live to day, and to morrow, &c. (y) A course of life and Conversation in this or that sort ordered. So, To (z) walk in the Counsel of ungodly; is to live according to that Counsel. (a) To walk according to the tradition of the Elders, is to live and frame ones Conversation according to their traditions: (b) To walk according to this Rule, is to live according to Scripture-Rule: To (c) walk as Christ walked, is to live as he lived, imitating his holy course of life, in all things imitable. So here, To walk before God, imports a framing of our course of life with reference and respect unto God and his Presence.

Walking before God, in this last sense, is a phrase used in Scripture, More strictly, and More largely. 1. More strictly and specially, For Ministring before God in some special and peculiar office. Thus God tels Eli; (b) I will raise me up a faithful Priest, and I will build him a sure House, and he shall walk before mine Anointed for ever; i. e. he shall Minister in the Priests office before his typical Anointed, and his true Anointed Christ especially. And somewhat to this effect, John Baptist is said to (c) Go before Christ in the Spirit and power of Elias; i. e. To Minister before Christ as his Harbinger and fore-runner, in the preaching of the Gospel.

(b) 1 Sam. 2. 35.
(c) Luk. 1. 17.

Gospel. Thus we may in part understand those phrases of Enoch's and Noah's walking with God; (though some thing besides that, is also implyed thereby:) viz. (d) Enoch walked with God; that is, he ministred to him as a Prophet. Jude (e) mentions his Prophesie. And, (f) Noah walked with God; that is, He ministred to God as a Preacher of Righteousness. But in this More strict sense we are not to take the phrase here. 2. More largely and generally, this phrase of Walking before God, is used for the whole frame and habitual Course of a godly and righteous Conversation, ordered eminently, sincerely, and pleasingly before God. Thus Enoch is said to (g) walk with God: which the Apostle interprets of his pleasing God, or walking pleasingly before him. And what is done eminently and sincerely in matter of Religion, is said to be done (h) before God, or in his sight. Walking with God, seems for Substance the same with walking before God. A Metaphor from persons or friends well agreed to walk together in a journey. (i) Can two walk together, except they be agreed? And it notes habitual communion with God in all holy Conversation and godliness. There are many phrases both in Old and New Testament somewhat like unto these. As, In the Old Testament, (k) Walking after the LORD. (l) Wholly following after the LORD. (m) Walking in all the ways of God, &c. In the New Testament also, (n) Walking worthy of God. (o) Walking worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing. (p) Walking in all the Commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameless, &c.

Now this phrase, of Walking before God, is here to be taken in the more large and general sense. The habitual Course of a godly and righteous life, is set forth here under the Metaphor of Walking before God, because there is great Analogy, proportion and resemblance betwixt such a Course and bodily Walking. As, 1. Bodily walking presupposeth life natural, and vital abilities for such walking: So a godly and righteous conversation presupposes life supernatural, viz. (q) The life of God, (r) The life of Christ, (s) The law of the Spirit of life in Christ, principling and enabling for such a Conversation. 2. Corporall walking imports a way to walk in: So this Spirituall walking hath a spiritual way: viz. The (t) way of faith and obedience. 3. Corporal walking meets with many By-paths leading out of the way, if not carefully shunned: So the godly and righteous life is exposed to many By-ways of (u) error, both Doctrinal and practical, if not watchfully avoyded. 4. Corporal walking hath not always fair ways and weather, but sometimes is exercised with deep and rugged ways, rainy and foul weather, besides dangers of theeves and robbers: So this Spiritual walk is liable to many rugged and difficult passages, to many tempestuous storms of (x) affliction and persecution, besides the dangerous enemies (y) Sin, the World, and Satan, that way lay us continually to rob and destroy us. 5. Corporal walking walking is much encouraged with honeſt Company: Spiritual walking is much more enlivened and advantaged by the (z) ſweet ſociety of the Saints, exhorting, admoniſhing, comforting and provoking one another in wel-doing. 6. Bodily walking needs renewed ſtrength by meat, drink, and ſleep: So ſpiritual walking needs renewing of ſtrength and ſpirits daily from (a) Chriſt and his ordinances, for renewed motions. 7. Corporal walking makes a continual progreſs in the way: So ſpiritual walking hath its (b) growth and progreſs in all Spirituals. But for the more full unfolding of this Federal Walking before God, I ſhall diſtinctly propound what Particulars are comprized under this Generall, of Walking before God, as it imports a pious courſe of life. And they are very many. The phraſe is exceeding Comprehenſive. But they may all be Reduced to two Eminent Heads, viz. Faith, and Love; or Faith, and Obedience; or Faith, and Good-works: (which for Subſtance are the ſame.) For, The habitual uſe, exerciſe, and life of piety, is ſtyled in Scripture, (d) Walking by Faith, which Faith worketh by love. (e) Walking in the ſteps of that Faith of our Father Abraham. (f) Walking in Gods ſtatutes, and keeping his commandments, and doing them. (g) Walking in all Gods ways, to love him, and ſerve him with all the heart, and all the ſoul, to keep his commandments and ſtatutes. (h) Walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord, blameleſs. (i) Walking in good-works, whereunto God hath created us as his workmanſhip in Chriſt, &c. This Walking in Faith and Good-works, in (k) Faith and Love, takes in the Sum and Subſtance of the duties of piety and Chriſtianity: and therefore walking before God, which comprehends both Walking in Faith and Good-works, muſt needs be of large extent. And the more extenſive it is, the more ſuitable it is in this place, to ſet forth the large compaſs of our Covenant-Duties reſtipulated to God, who hath in his Covenant promiſed moſt large extenſive bleſſings unto us. Learned (l) Writers alſo judge that this Walking here before God, comprehends Walking before him, both 1. In Faith, and 2. Good-works.

Walk thou,] or walk pleasingly, as the Greek Translation implyeth. —— The Chaldee translateth it, Serve thou. This walking comprehendeth both true Faith, Heb 11. 5, 6 and Careful obedience to Gods Commandments. Wherefore that which is written, 1 King. 8. 25. To walk before me, as thou hast walked before me: is expounded in 2 Chron. 6. 6. To walk in my Law. And this in Luk. 1 6. is explained to be, All the Commandments and Ordinances of the Lord, &c H. Ainsworth in his Annot. in Gen. 17. 1.

In brief, To walk before God, is from a true and sincere heart to believe, think and Do whatsoever God prescribeth, and that in such manner as he prescribeth: To attend upon the pure worship of God, and to live holily, justly and unblamably. As they are said to be just before God, who are truly and sincerely just; or such as be righteous by way of eminency in comparison of others, &c. Mr. Jo. Ball of the Covenant, Chap. VI. p. 74. Lond. 1645.

(1) Walking before God, In faith, is therefore One Eminent Covenant-Duty which God required of Abraham and his Seed, as part of their Restipulation. Faith I say, was not only required of Abraham, but also of his Seed. For, 1. Though the words be here directed to Abraham only in the singular number, (m) Walk thou before me, in this Summary proposing of the Covenant: Yet his Seed also are expressly (n) mentioned with him, in the large explaining of the Covenant ensuing, as both joynt-sharers in the Covenant-benefits, and joynt-parties to the Covenant-Duties. 2. Nor could Abraham or his Seed ever have accepted this Covenant and the Benefits thereof, or have pleasingly closed with God therein without Faith; (o) Without Faith it being altogether impossible to please God. 3. Nay, without Faith they could not have walked berore God in any acceptable Obedience or Good-works. For (p) Faith is the Fountain of wel-doing: Love keeps the whole Law: and Faith works by Love. The end of the Commandment is love, out of a pure heart, and good Conscience, and Faith unfained.

(p) 1 Tim. 1. 5. with Mat. 22. 37, 38, 39. Rom. 13. 8, 9, 10. Gal. 5. 6.

This walking before God in Faith, hath much in it. It imports these things especially, viz. 1. Having of true Faith. 2. Acting true Faith, had. 3. Living by Faith, Had and Acted. 4. Progress in Faith unto perfection. 5. Perseverance in Faith unto the End.

First, Having of true Faith. Walking before God in Faith, necessarily presupposeth the Having of true Faith. The Habit, or Grace of Faith must first be infused, before any Act of Faith can be Expressed. For the Habit is the Root or Principle whence the Act flows, and whereby we are enabled to Act. Abraham (q) had true Faith, before this time that God commanded him to walk before him: And Abraham's Seed must have true Faith, before they can walk in Faith before the Lord. Non Entis nulla sunt accidentia, (q) Heb. 11. 8, 9. Gen. 15. 5, 6.

i. e. A

A Non-Entity hath no Accidents. That which is not, Acts not; It holds in Naturals, and Supernaturals.

Secondly, The Acting of true Faith, had; both towards God and his Covenant. Walking before God, implyes Action: Walking before him in Faith, intimates the Actings and Exercise of Faith before him, in reference to his Covenant. Faith is not a lazie, idle, sluggish Habit; but an Active, stirring Grace. As it is a (r) Captain among the Graces: So it is (f) as a Spring, poyse, or Great wheel to their actions, and sets them all on going.

(r) 2 Pet. 1. 5, 6, 7.
(f) Gal. 5. 6.

The more observable Acts of Faith, walking on step by step before God, according to his Covenant, are these five, viz. 1. Knowing and discerning the Mysterie of Gods Covenant. Faith hath knowledge in it. It is not a blind, but a Seeing Grace. Hence it's sometimes styled (t) knowledge. By Faith we understand [νοοῦμεν] that the worlds were framed, &c. Sometimes, Seeing is ascribed to Faith, as the Eye of the Soul: By Faith Abraham (u) Saw Christs day, and was glad: By Faith Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (x) Saw the Promises afar off: (y) By Faith Moses endured, as seeing him who is invisible. Hence Faith is partly seated in the understanding, as well as partly in the Heart. Here Faith must know and Discern, Who God is that covenanteth; How infinite in Free Grace, Love, Mercy and Bounty in making this Covenant: How boundless in Power, Truth, Faithfulness, &c. in making it good. What are the Benefits and blessings Covenanted, Upon what terms, To whom, &c. Without such knowledge of Faith, there can be no walking, but rather stumbling before God, not seeing whither to go. 2. Assenting to what is known and revealed in Gods Covenant, that it is true, and shall faithfully be performed. This is the (z) receiving of the witness of God, which is greater then the witness of men: Believing God, and believing the Record that God gave of his Son. The Covenant of God since the Fall, from first to last, is principally Gods Record of his Son Jesus Christ, and of eternal life in him for poor lost sinners. This Assenting faith is by some styled Historical faith, because it believes the truth of the History, or of the Word of God revealed: though this denomination is not altogether so apposite. 3. Accepting and Applying to a mans self in particular, what is tendred in the Covenant, and Assented unto. This is that eminent appropriating Act of Faith, which some call The Receptive Act of Faith; because as an Hand put forth, it (a) Receives the Promises and Promised Mercies to the believer, as his particularly. To this effect it is styled ὑπόστασις πραγμάτων, (b) The subsistence of things hoped for: in that it makes them actually subsist unto the believer, and makes them present, reallizing them to the Soul, though long after to be performed. Faith reallizeth things promised to the believer, and takes a spiritual livery and seisin of them as his own; though never so absent or future. This Appropriating and applying act of Faith,

Thomas put forth, when he said (c) My Lord, and My God: and Paul, saying of Jesus Christ; (d) who loved me, and gave himself for me. I know (e) some confound this act of Applying with the former act of Assenting, as if they were both one: But without cause; For there seems to be a palpable difference. Assent is more Generall, Applying is more Particular: Assent looks upon the Covenant and Promises as true in themselves, Applying looks on them as true to me: Assent saith, Christ is such an one as he is revealed in the word, an only and al-sufficient Saviour of Sinners; Application saith, he is such an one to me. Assent must go before Application. Application cannot go before Assent, &c. Therefore in the precise notion of these two Acts, there seems to be an Evident difference betwixt them. 4. Affiance, Confidence, or Trust in God for performance of his Covenant and Promises. This act of faith (f) Jacob put forth eminently in his great strait, occasioned by his Brother Esau's coming to meet him: and he bottoms his trust notably upon Gods Covenant with Abraham and Isaac, and his promise to himself, that he would do him good, and make his Seed as the Sand of the Sea, which cannot be numbred for multitude. Therefore he confidently prays that both himself and his may be delivered from the hand of Esau. This trust or Affiance is peculiarly seated in the (g) heart: and it is styled sometimes πληροφορια, (h) A perswasion, or a Confident-perswasion; Sometimes (i) Resting on the Lord, or Leaning upon him: Help us, O LORD our God, for we Rest on thee; Sometimes, (k) Rolling ones self, or way, upon the Lord: He rolled on the Lord, &c. (l) Devolve, or Roll thy way upon the Lord, &c. As a man rols a burden too heavy for him, upon another that hath stronger shoulders. This act of trusting in God is useful at all times, especially in (m) straits: (n) What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee, said David. (o) Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him, said Job. 5. Full-perswasion of Faith touching Gods Ability and fidelity in performing whatsoever he hath Covenanted and promised, though against greatest difficulties and improbabilities. This Act of Faith shuts out all doubting, wavering, or staggering through unbelief: Overlooks all impediments, and seeming impossibilities, to the performance of Gods Covenant, wholly eying and being carried out to the promiser, God himself, as infinitely able and faithful. This Act Abraham put forth in reference to the promised Seed by Sarah, when both he and Sarah were past age for procreation of children: (p) being fully perswaded (πληροφορηθεις) that what he had promised, he was able also to perform. This act of Faith is called, πληροφορια πιστεως, (q) The full-perswasion of Faith, or full-assurance of Faith. And it is the highest Act of Faith in this life attainable. Every true believer should aspire what he can towards it: though every one of Gods Children do not, as Abraham, attain unto it. These are the principal Acts of Faith, which gradually depend one upon another, wherein Thirdly, Living by Faith thus had and Acted. Walking by Faith, implyes living by Faith, an habitual course and exercise of Faith. Our (r) life is Radically and Fundamentally in Christ: (s) Instrumentally in Faith as uniting us unto Christ. I live, yet not I, but Christ in me: and the life that I now live in the flesh, I live by the Faith of the Son of God. Faith is the life of the soul; Christ is the life of Faith. Faith imbraceth the Covenant, Promise, and whole Word of Christ, and especially Christ therein, as his own: and thereupon lives and subsists in this sort, viz. 1. Faith (t) closeth with Christ, feeds upon him, lives upon him, derives all vital influence from him, for Sanctification, Justification, Glorification, &c. 2. Faith abundantly calms and quiets the Soul, upon sense and apprehension of Justification and Salvation by Christ. (u) Being justified by faith, we have peace with God. 3. Faith not only expects Salvation and glory by Jesus Christ in the life to come; but also depends upon God, according to his Covenant and promises, for all good things whatsoever, necessary to bring us thither, to be conferred upon us in Gods fittest season. Knowing that (x) he that spared not his own Son, but gave him up for us all, cannot choose but with him also freely give us all things. And though Spirituals or Temporals be delayed, yet it can wait Gods leisure, and live upon the Promises as if the blessings promised were actually performed. As (y) Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob did. 4. Faith perswades the Soul to make the Commands of the Word its Rule, as well as the Promises of the Word its Cordials: and consequently to walk cheerfully in all obedience after the Lord, against greatest difficulties, dangers and oppositions. (z) Faith works by love. Thus (a) many of those Worthies walked of old. 5. Faith supports the Soul with comfort under deepest afflictions, (b) though deliverance be long delayed: because at last it will come, and not fail. Yea, it makes a man (c) live in death it self, expecting eternal life, and a better Resurrection.

Fourthly, Progress in Faith unto Perfection. Walking is a progress, a going forward, or going on, from one place to another: They that walk, stand not still in one place. So, walking in Faith, implyes a progress, going on, or growth in Faith, from one degree to another, till Faith come to its full perfection. Walking in Faith is not a standing still, or contenting ones self with this or that degree, but a continual pressing forward from the lowest to the highest degree attainable. Even from knowledge to full-Assurance. Faith in the best is but imperfect, as (d) knowledge and other Graces are: but it is of a growing Nature.

(e) —— Your Faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth. To this effect is that phrase, (f) —— For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from Faith to Faith. That is, not from one kind of Faith to another, but from one Measure or degree of Faith to another. As Faith increaseth and is more and more capable of discerning Gods righteousness: so more of his righteousness is still manifested unto it.

Fifthly and lastly, Perseverance in Faith unto the end. Walking denotes a continued motion or course, till a man come to the period and end of his journey: so walking in Faith implyes a continuance, and constant perseverance in the way of Faith, till they fully receive (g) the end of their Faith, the salvation of their Souls. There is a Temporary Faith, whereby a man may (h) believe for a time, but at last fals away. That is not properly a walking before God in Faith, because there is not a continuance and perseverance therein. True faith perseveres, and fails not. (i) Peter's Faith somewhat fainted and faultred, but it did not fail: It was shaken, but not shaken down; Christs prayer upheld it. True Faith makes (k) faithful to the Death. No difficulties, Temptations, Terrors, or Torments could destroy the Faith of those (l) Worthies, catalogued by the Apostle. Iob a glorious instance to this effect: who against all the rugged billows of his manifold afflictions thus triumphs; (m) Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him. Let God do what he will with him, yet is he resolved to believe. If he must die, He will die believing. Death may kill his life, shall not kill his Faith.

Thus Abraham and his Seed were to walk before God in Faith. They must Have true Faith, they must Act it in its proper Exercises; They must live by it; They must grow in it; And they must Persevere in Faith unto the End. This the first branch of their Federal Duty of Walking before God, viz. Walking before him in true Faith.

(2) Walking before God in Love, Obedience, and Good works, is the other branch of their Walking before God. And this branch follows upon the former: First, there must be a walking in Faith: then there must be, yea there will be, a walking in love, obedience, and good-works before God. For (n) Faith works by love, and love is the fulfilling of the Law: (o) Faith makes obedient: and Faith (p) abounds in good-works. So that,

More generally, walking before God, in this regard, takes in the whole frame and course of an holy, religious, and righteous Conversation, sincerely ordered, as in his presence, and according to his holy will: Omitting and avoyding what he forbids; Performing what he prescribes, in thought, word, and work; and all from such Principles, in such Manner, and to such End as he requires. This Obedientiall Walking Walking before God therefore is very large and Comprehensive.

More particularly, Walking before God in Obedience and good works, suitably to this Covenant of Faith with Abraham, necessarily requires these particulars, viz. 1. Right Principles and Abilities for such walking in good-works. 2. Right Acts or steps of such walking. 3. Due way, or manner of putting forth those Acts. 4. The right End and Scope whereunto these Acts are to be directed. 5. Progress in such Abilities and Acts. 6. Perseverance therein unto the end.

First, Right Principles and Abilities for walking in Good-works are necessarily pre-required before Actual walking in Good-works. As Having of Faith, must necessarily go before Walking in Faith: so having of Abilities for good-works, must needs go before Acting in Good-works. A man cannot run without limbs and strength; A Carpenter cannot build a House without hands and skill: Nor can any man walk before God in good-works, till he be rightly principled and enabled for them. Men are rightly principled and enabled for Good-works, and walking therein, these six ways: viz. 1. By becoming Gods workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto Good-works. (q) For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto Good-works, which God hath before ordained, that we should walk in them. No walking in Good-works, till first we be created in Christ unto good-works. Till we become (r) new Creatures in Christ; and that (s) according to the image of God, in Knowledge, Righteousness, and true holiness. Then we are Gods workmanship; then we have active principles of Divine life infused into us, whereby we are able to act and walk: till then we were the Devils workmanship, and only fit for his imployment. 2. By Inscription of Gods Word and Law in our hearts, being thus new-created. God (t) Covenants to write his Law in their inwards, in their mind and heart. When this is done, Gods people have a Scripture in their Hearts, answering to the Scripture in the Bible, a sweet fixed disposition to do what the good Word requires, to forbear what it forbids, to believe what it reveals, &c. And all this delightfully. (u) I delight to do thy will, O my God. Why? Thy Law is within my heart; yea, it is in the midst of my bowels. 3. By Purity of Heart. The Heart is the wel-spring of Actions. A Pure heart issues out pure actions: An impure heart sends forth nothing but impurities. (x) The End of the Commandment is love, out of a pure heart; that is, The End or Scope of Gods Commandments is to instruct us in love to God, and to our Brother. This love is the sum of all. But this Love must flow from a right principle, viz. from a pure heart. An heart is pure, when it's so purified by Gods Spirit, that (though reliques of sin be in it, yet) it doth not mix with sin and impuity, it is not woven into the frame of the heart: but it resists it, and works it out, as honey the dross, and wine the dregs.

dregs. It (y) regards not iniquity. It (z) allows not impurity: it would not do it, nor have it there. This pure heart is an excellent fountain for pure obedience, which God will accept. 4. By a Good Conſcience. (a) The end of the Commandment is love out of a pure heart, and a Good Conſcience. Obediential Love muſt flow from a good Conſcience, as well as from a pure heart. Conſcience is then Good, not, when it is ſtill and quiet, not vexing and afflicting a man: that may be its ſecurity, ſtupidity, or (b) ſenſeleſs ſearedneſs: But, when by (c) Chriſts blood and Spirit it is purged from dead works to ſerve the living God; when it is (d) without offence towards God, and towards man; Then a man can (e) live in all good Conſcience before God, as in his ſight and preſence, and that becauſe God requires it. 5. By (f) Faith unfained. There's a fained and Counterfeit Faith, a meer ſhadow of true Faith; ſuch as was in the (g) Hearer compared to the ſtony ground, in Simon Magus, &c. And there's an unfained and true Faith, Aſſenting to Gods Record touching Chriſt Jeſus, and eternal life in him, and accepting him to that end upon Gods own terms and conditions. This true Faith, as it is (h) Captain among the Graces; ſo is it the (i) Root of all acceptable Obedience and Good-works, without which it is impoſſible to pleaſe God. Hence it's joyned with A pure heart, and good Conſcience. (k) The end of the Commandment is love, out of a pure heart, and a good Conſcience, and Faith unfained. 6. Finally, By true Love. (l) Love is the fulfilling of the Law. Love is the Abſtract or Epitome of both the Tables. Love doth all. And whatſoever it doth, it doth willingly, ſweetly, cheerfully, without murmuring, grudging, &c. (m) Thinks not the Commandments grievous. Oh, this exceedingly pleaſeth God, who is moſt delighted in Free-will offerings. Hence Chriſt ſo often preſſeth (n) Obedience to his Commandments from Love. And (o) Faith works by Love, as its eminent engine and inſtrument unto all pleaſing Obedience. That's the pureſt honey that drops from the honey-comb, without forcing; that's the moſt generous wine that flows from the grapes with leaſt preſſing: So that's the moſt grateful Obedience that freely ſtreams from Love. Theſe are the Right Principles enabling to walk before God in Good-works.

Secondly, Right Acts or ſteps of walking before God in Good-works, is the Next thing herein conſiderable. Now the chief Acts or ſteps of this Obediential walking before God, are very many: but reducible to a few heads. Our Saviour comprizeth all in one word, (p) Love, viz. Love to God, and Love to our neighbour. True love is the compendious Epitome of the whole Law. Zacharias refers all to two Heads, viz. (q) Holineſs, and Righteouſneſs. That, towards God; This, towards man. Paul ranks all to three Heads, viz. Piety, towards God; Righteouſneſs, towards man; and Sobriety or Temperance towards our ſelves. (r) The Grace

L7 and 453: 91

Grace of God (that is, the Gospel or Doctrine of Gods grace) that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, teaching us, that denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, We should live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world. Soberly; So we do our selves right, and keep things in good order at home. Righteously; So we do our neighbour right, and give him his Due. Godly; So we do God right, and give him his Due. These are (f) Paul's three Excellent Adverbs, which joyntly comprize the whole duty of Christians, and of Obedientiall walking before God. They cannot lately be severed: For, Sobriety without Righteousness, is but Self-seeking; Righteousness without Sobriety, is but vain-glory; both of them without Godliness, are but painted Atheisme; and Godliness without them both, is but odious Hypocrisie. Godliness hath in it all the Duties of the first Table of the Decalogue: Righteousness and Sobriety have in them all the Duties of the second Table. And of them, the whole of mans Obedience.

(f) Σωφρόνως, καὶ δικαίως, καὶ εὐσεβῶς.

Godly. Piety or Godliness (not the mere (c) form, but the Power of it,) is (n) The Life of God. The immediate Principle of this Life of God, is the (x) Godly Nature in us, whereof we are partakers by the Promises. The Exercise and Acts of this Godliness, are both Elicit, and Imperate: Inward, and Outward, according to all the Commandments of Piety in the first Table. Especially such as these; viz. 1. Knowing (y) and acknowledging the Lord as the only true God; that is, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, three distinct Persons, one Essence, having the self-same Essential Attributes and Perfections. God is then known truly, when he is known as he hath revealed himself, In his Works, In his Word, In his Christ. 2. Having (z) and enjoying this only true God as our God in Covenant through Christ; and yeelding up our selves answerably to him, as his Covenant-people, to be acted, ordered, and wholly disposed of, by him, according to his good pleasure, in all things. 3. Worshipping (a) and serving this one God alone, inwardly in our hearts, and outwardly in our conversations, according to his own Will, in all the Acts of his Natural and Instituted worship: (b) Walking in all his Commands and Ordinances blameless, and abhorring all Humane Inventions, Will-worship, Superstition, and Idolatrous deviations from him. 4. Highly (c) exalting the Supreme glory of his Great Name, whereby he makes himself known unto us, far above every Name that is named in the whole world, to the uttermost of our ability: not enduring any indignity or dishonor to be cast upon it. 5. Remembring (d) his Sabbaths to Sanctifie them, both by an Holy Rest from Secular imployments, and by a sacred Exercise in acts of Piety and Charity, publikely and privately, throughout the whole Sabbath. A gracious and godly Soul longs for these opportunities of Conversing with God, and enjoying sweet Communion with him in his Ordinances and worship, before they come: and when they are come, come, would be content to be (e) ravisht in Spirit, and rapt up to God all the day long. To this end it counts Sabbath-days The Souls Market-days, The Souls Harvest-times, The Queens of days; yea, The very Types and Harbingers of that Endless Sabbath which the Elect shall celebrate with God in Heaven, face to face, with unwearied Halelujah's, Joys, Triumphs, Raptures and Ravishments in the full Enjoyment of God in Christ to all Eternity. 6. Growing (f) in Knowledge, and in all the Graces of the Spirit continually. That abounding therein, we may be enabled daily more and more To walk closely with God in all obedience, may come neerer to the mark of the high Calling, in the utmost perfection of it, and may be better fitted for heavenly glory. 7. Finally, (g) Having our Conversation in Heaven, whilest our condition is on Earth. Earth terminates not the endeavours of the Godly. Earth hath their bodies: but Heaven their hearts, They are on Earth: but they live in Heaven. Their affections, their actions, their designs, their endeavours are all for Heaven. They would improve Crosses, Comforts, Losses, Gains, &c. all for Heaven. They would extract Heaven out of Spirituals, out of Temporals, out of all things, as the Bee her honey out of every flower. They would have Heaven in their thoughts by meditation, in their mouths by communication, in their works by a tendency and inclination thither. They endeavour to be heavenly and spiritual in society and solitariness, in prosperity and adversity, in divine and humane imployments; on Gods days, and on their own; while they live, and when they die.

Righteously. Justice, or Righteousness; (taken in a more restrictive sense, as it relates to man, and comprizeth the Duties of the second Table,) is a (h) Grace or fruit of the Spirit of God, (i) disposing us to perform all due offices to our neighbour. This Righteousness towards Man, flows from Piety towards God; for, Piety so exalts God over all, that it makes the pious heart obey his will and pleasure, even in things concerning the Creature. Insomuch that the neglect of Duty towards the Creature, is styled (k) Despising of God. Consequently, Nothing can be (l) just or due to man, which is impious towards God: And, (m) True Religion to God cannot consist with the neglect of Justice, righteousness, and love to our neighbour: but such neglect doth deservedly bring all a mans Piety and Religion towards God into suspicion of formality and hypocrisie. Walking in righteousness, or living Righteously towards men, is the bond and support of all humane Society; without which mankind would be in as bad condition as the very brute beasts of the Field, and fishes of the Sea, devouring and being devoured one of another. Righteousness puts forth it self in Acts almost innumerable towards our neighbour. For present it may suffice to mention some principal Acts and Exercises thereof: Some of a More General, some of a More particular concernment, viz.

I. Righte-

I. Righteousness puts forth it self in a way of Love to our neighbour, (n) with desire and respect to his Good. Hence all the acts of righteousness comprised in the second Table of the Decalogue, towards our neighbour, are summarily referred unto (o) Love of our neighbour. Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self. (p) And this Command have we from God, that he that loveth God, should love his brother also. From this brotherly love of our neighbour, we are obliged, 1. To (q) pray for his Good and welfare as our own. 2. To perswade him to Good, and dissuade him from evill. By (r) Considering him, to provoke him to love and good works. By (s) admonishing him seasonably. By (t) exhorting him daily. By (u) Reproving him wisely and meekly. By (x) Comforting opportunely, &c. 3. To propound our selves as Patterns and imitable examples of good to our neighbour: that by our (y) good works they may more effectually be drawn to well-doing. Man naturally being more inclinable to follow examples and Presidents, then Precepts. 4. To exercise Distributive righteousness aright according to our places; and this, In (z) Communicating to the relief of our neighbour's Necessities; In (a) Rewarding of well-doing in well-doers; And in punishing Evill-doing in Evill-doers, proportionably. 5. To exercise Communicative righteousness (b) uprightly in all matters of commerce, returning that to others which is equal to what we receive from others. Righteousness as it loves our neighbour, and desires his good, will put upon all these duties for his Good. II. Righteousness reduceth that Golden Rule of Christs into practise; (c) Whatsoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them; for this is the Law and the Prophets. The Light of Nature, The light of Scripture, both Law and Prophets, teach us, To do as we would be done by. We would not have others to wrong us, or do ill to us, in our Souls, Bodies, Names, States, or any other way, but rather to be doing good to us every way: Nor should we do any evill, but contrariwise all good to them. O how sweet would Humane Society be, if this Rule were righteously observed!

III. Righteousness inclines the righteous to (d) render to every neighbour all respective Due; according to the tenour of the second Table of the Decalogue. And this, 1. By giving all Honour to his Neighbour which is due and belonging to him in respect of that Order and Degree, wherein God hath set him; whether he be Superiour, Equal, or Inferiour, and that in any Society, In the Church, In the Common-wealth, or In the Family. 2. By Preserving his neighbours life both Natural and Spiritual, by all warrantable wayes and means, in safety and tranquillity. And this, both By supplying him with what is Conservative; and By withstanding what is destructive thereunto. 3. By Maintaining his Neighbours purity and chastity; both Virginal, in Single life; and Conjugal, in married state; and Vidual, in widowhood. That he (e) may know how to possess his vessel in Sanctification

Soberly, σωφρόνως. Sobriety is ſometimes uſed in a more ſtrict Senſe, for one branch of Temperance, moderating and regulating the Senſitive appetite about meats and drinks, and ſo it is oppoſed to Gluttony and Drunkenneſs wherein is exceſs: Sometimes its uſed in a more large Senſe, for Temperance it ſelf in its full latitude, as comprehending the whole of Temperance. Though the word σωφρόνως here be rendered by Beza, Sapienter, wiſely; By the Vulgar, Sobrie, ſoberly; and by Tremellius out of the Syriack, In Sobrietate, In ſobriety: yet Calvin, and Scultetus render it, Temperanter, Temperately, and judge that here it ought to be ſo tranſlated. In this ſenſe the word is of very large extent, and of ſingular uſe in obedientiall walking with God. It is an excellent Antidote againſt all intoxication, drunkenneſs, and giddineſs of Reaſon, Affection or Senſes. It keeps a man in his wits: and Reaſon preſerv'd, judgement upheld; all exorbitant luſts and paſſions are the better ſuppreſſed. Hence (i) ſome give this Etymon of the word; and not without cauſe; σωφροσύνη, Sobriety, Temperance, as it were σώζουσα τὴν φρόνησιν, keeping the mind; or, σώζουσα τὴν φρόνησιν, keeping the wiſdom, or prudence of the mind: Sobriety is the guard of Wiſdom. In this larger ſenſe the word ſeems to be uſed here, becauſe there is nothing in the Text or Context that reſtrains it. Now this Sobriety or Temperance puts forth it ſelf in various Acts Subſervient both to Godlineſs and Righteouſneſs. For, 1. It tempers and moderates the Mind and judgement as to the Matter of Opinions in Religion, that it ſhould not be intoxicated and drunk with brainſick giddineſs, and infatuation to receive and believe Fables, lyes, and all ſorts of Errors, as Truth, rejecting and oppoſing the Truth. There's a ryot and drunkenneſs in Opinions, as well as in wine and ſtrong drink. And Temperance bounds and bridles this looſeneſs, lightneſs, wantonneſs, giddineſs, extravagency, and madneſs of the mind about Opinions: inclining the mind to gravity, ſtayedneſs, moderation, and regularneſs therein. Feſtus told Paul, as he was relating relating his Calling and Apostolical Doctrine; (k) Paul, Thou art beside thy self, much learning doth make thee mad. To whom Paul temperately reply'd; I am not mad, most noble Festus, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. Sobriety of mind keeps from that spiritual frenzy and madness in Opinions, and inclines to all Truth with gravity and seriousness. 2. It bounds and moderates a Mans thoughts and words in point of Self-Estimation and Self-applause. It will not suffer a man to be drunk with admiring and over-esteeming himself, or any self-excellencies; nor like a self-besotted creature to commend, magnifie or applaud himself beyond due bounds: but rather self-denyingly to (l) think others better then himself, and to be mean in his own eyes. This is Pauls Direction to every man among the Romans, In that elegant Paranomasia, (m) (μη ὑπερφρονεῖν παρ' ὃ δεῖ φρονεῖν, ἀλλα φρονεῖν εἰς τὸ σωφρονεῖν,) not to think of himself more highly then he ought to think, but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of Faith. (n) There's more hope of a fool, then of a man wise in his own conceit. Then men are over-wise, and over-ween themselves, when they arrogate to themselves falsely what they have not, or brag proudly of what they have. Sobriety bounds this extravagancy. Paul counts himself (o) chief of Sinners, but (p) less then the least of all the Saints. False-teachers foolishly (q) measuring themselves with themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, commended themselves, boasting of other mens labours beyond their line; but he would not commend himself, nor boast beyond his line and measure, in his Ministerial exercise. This was his Temperance. 3. It bounds and moderates a man both in his 1 Desires, 2 Endeavours after, 3 Use, and 4 loss of the things of this life, that he be not too much over-charged, over-whelmed, drowned, or swallowed up therewith in any of those respects. Lawful Comforts, as Friends, Honours, Wealth, Pleasures, &c. may be over-passionately desired, over-eagerly pursued, over-sensually enjoyed, over-grievously parted with. There's a drunkenness wherewith even Nazarites themselves may be overtaken. The cares of this world have (as (r) Hierom observes) an inebriating faculty, disturbing reason, and oppressing the Senses, as much as wine and strong drink. Hence Christ couples them together; (s) Take heed——lest at any time your hearts be over-charged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life. Paul saith, (t) women living in pleasures, are dead while they live: dead to all goodness. Now Sobriety teaches a man to be Temperate in all things, and to be self-denyingly moderate in Desiring, Seeking, Using and Losing of all sublunary contentments. In Desiring; Agur prayed, (u) Give me neither poverty, nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me. In seeking; David said, (x) The LORD is my Shepheard, I shall not want. In using; Paul saith, (y) The time is short; It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none: And they that weep, as though they wept not:

4. It bounds and moderates the Appetite in reference to Meats and Drinks, preſerving from exceſs in the Quality or Quantity of either: leſt they make their (a) belly their God. In Quality; Sobriety permits not to be over-curious, over coſtly, over-lavish and luxurious in Meats or Drinks Ordinarily. (b) Give ſtrong drink to him that is ready to periſh, and wine to thoſe that be of heavy hearts. Paul allows Timothy to (c) Drink wine, but ſparingly, a little: modice, moderately; that is medice, medicinally. To cure, not to cauſe, Infirmities. In Quantity; Sobriety reſtrains from exceſs. (d) Be not drunk with wine, wherein is exceſs. (e) Take heed that your hearts be not overcharged with Surfeiting and Drunkenneſs. In Meats, Nature is content with little: Grace is content with leſs: Luſt is content with nothing, Gluttony is inſatiable. In Drinks there's a threefold cup ſpoken of, viz. Poculum Neceſſitatis, The Cup of Neceſsity, for ſatisfying Natures wants, and Quenching thirſt. Poculum Hilaritatis, or jucunditatis, The Cup of cheerfulneſs or alacrity, upon occaſions of thankfulneſs, or ſeaſonable rejoycing with our friends, yet within due bounds. Theſe two are allowed. Poculum Superfluitatis, the Cup of Superfluity, more then Nature will well bear, without being unfitted in ſome degree, for Duties of General or Particular Calling; And whatſoever ſo indiſpoſeth to Duties of General or Particular Calling, is ſinful exceſs, and groſs violation of Sobriety.

Thirdly, The Due way or Manner of putting forth and mannaging theſe Acts of Piety, Righteouſneſs and Sobriety, is alſo requiſite to right walking before God in acceptable Covenant-Obedience. The Subſtance and Matter of Obedience may be good, while the Circumſtance and Manner is nought: and thereupon the whole action rejected of God. We muſt not only do Bonum, that which is good: but we muſt do it Bene, Well. God delights to be ſerved (as one ſaith) rather with Adverbs, then with Nouns or Verbs. Now all theſe and like Acts muſt be thus put forth, viz. 1. In Obedience to God the Supream Lawgiver, becauſe he commands it. The thing commanded muſt be done, with all ſubmiſsiveneſs and loyalty of heart heart to the Commander. And then that which is commanded by God, will be performed by a dutiful Soul: though it be difficult, etiam ad cæcam obedientiam, though the reason of it be not understood, though it be contrary to flesh and blood. (g) Thus Noah, Thus Abraham obeyed God. A truly obedient heart, will observe Gods naked Command, for the authority of the Commander, though the Command be backed neither with Promise, nor Threatning; though there were neither Heaven to Reward obedience, nor Hell to punish disobedience. 2. With universall respect to all the Commandments of God. He that respects the Commandment, (h) because Gods, will consequently respect every Commandment discovered to be Gods. As in David, (i) Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect to all thy Commandments. —— Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right: and I hate every false way. Upon this ground James testifieth, (k) Whosoever shall keep the whole Law, and yet offend in one point, is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. One and the same Authority of the Law-giver established every precept, and therefore is to be respected in every precept. To have respect to the precepts of piety, but not to those of righteousness; or to those of righteousness, but not to those of piety: to indent, omit, pick and choose, where to obey, where not, is shameful and palpable Hypocrisie. 3. With a childlike spirit of love, not with a servile spirit of fear. (l) God hath not given us the Spirit of fear; but of power, of love, and of a sound mind. (m) Perfect love casts out such servile fear; for fear hath torment, and there is no torment in love. Then obedience flows sweetly, when it runs in the smooth channel of love to God, to his authority, to his commands, to his will, to vertue it self, &c. and not in the rugged channel of fear of wrath, Hell, &c. The Heathen could say; (n) Good men hate to sin, for love of vertue: Bad men hate to sin, for fear of punishment. This love makes a man do all things willingly, cheerfully, delightfully; without murmuring, grudging, repining, grievousness. (o) This is love, that we keep his Commandments, and his Commandments are not grievous. (p) ——Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power. (q) —— I delight to do thy will, O my God, &c. This love is as oyl to the joynts, as wings to the bird, as sails to the ship, makes every task come off easily. Hence, in part it is, that (r) Christs yoke is easie, and his burden light. Hence that so willingly they resign and (s) yield up their members servants to righteousness, unto holiness. 4. Orderly and regularly, both in regard of Time, Place, Person and Means. Misordering of these Circumstances of actions, will utterly spoyl the Actions themselves. 1. Acts of obedience must be well-Timed, in their fit Season. As (t) every Creature which God makes, so every duty which he requires of us, is beautiful in his Season. To keep the weekly Sabbath

Sabbath on any other day, then on the first day of the week, is mistiming of the Sabbath: and will-worship. To (u) fall to private prayer, when we should hear the Word with the Congregation; To sing or read, when we should pray; To meditate upon one subject, though never so heavenly or spirituall, when we should be bending our most intentive thougths upon another, in the use of ordinances, &c. is no better then a specious distraction, and offering up the Sacrifice of fools. 2. Acts of obedience must be well-placed, and well-ranked. Every place is not convenient for the Exercise of Devotions. The Pharises (x) are justly taxed by our Saviour for hypocritical ostentation, in that they prayed in the corners of the streets. And every private offence must not presently be told to the Church, and be punished with Excommunication: but herein Christs order must be observed. (y) First tell thy Brother his offence privately betwixt him and thee; then, if he hear thee not, before two or three witnesses; Last of all, if he hear not them, to the Church. 3. Acts of obedience must be well regulated in regard of Persons. Offenders are to be reproved: yet we are not to spend our reproofs upon known (z) scorners, nor (a) to give holy things to Dogs, nor cast pearls before Swine. Christian liberty must be maintained, yet (b) the exercise of it should be suspended where it may offend a weak brother, &c. 4. Acts of obedience must be carryed on only by lawful means. We must preserve our own and our neighbours life; but not by Art Magick, Sorcery, Spels, Charms, Perjury, Lyes, or any other unwarrantable medium's. We must be careful to provide for our selves and families: but not by Oppression, Extortion, Theft, Fraud, circumventing, &c. We should maintain Gods publike worship, but not by Sacriledge, robbery, or any devices of unrighteousnes. We must (c) not do any evill, that good may come. For that were to do Gods work in the Devils way. We must do Gods work in Gods way. 5. Heavenly and spiritually. If we worship the Lord, we should (d) worship him in Spirit. Not with a mere outward, carnal, corporal service, but also with a service of our inward hearts and spirits; both under Old and New Testament. And if we love our Brethren, it (e) must not be only in word and tongue, but (f) with a pure heart fervently. Yea, in all exercises of Piety, Righteousnes and Sobriety, our very Spirits should be spiritualized and pallized up to such an heavenly frame, that we may therein (g) have our conversation in Heaven. We should extract Heaven out of every thing, and expres heavenlines even in Earthly negotiations. 6. Sincerely and uprightly. Integrity is the crown, but Hypocrisie the stain, of all Piety to God, and Righteousnes to man. (h) God loves Truth in the inwards, abhors hypocrisie. And brotherly love (in which are virtually all acts of righteousnes comprized) must be (i) in deed and in truth, (k) without dissimulation. Our God is (l) a God of truth:

truth; and they who walk with him, must walk in truth, with a perfect heart. 7. Finally, All our acts of obediential walking before God, must be perfumed and sweetned with the most fragrant (m) Incense of Christs Intercession. By Christ only (n) we have access to God: and (o) through him alone our spiritual Sacrifices become acceptable to God. He is (p) the golden Altar that sanctifies all our gifts. His blood must be sprinkled both upon our Persons and Performances, to purge away the pollutions of both: and then (q) they shall be an odour of sweet smell to God. (r) All our obedience must be done in his name, and through Christ, viz. with confidence in him and his merits alone for acceptance.

Fourthly, The right End and scope whereunto these Acts are to be directed, must be singularly lookt to. The End specificates the Action. A bad End corrupts the best Acts of obedience. Jehu (s) did that which God commanded him, but for self-ends, that he might stablish his own throne and glory, not for Gods glory: therefore God rejected all as Hypocrisie. The End of all our Obediential walking before God, should be twofold, Ultimate, and Subordinate thereunto. I. The ultimate end is Gods glory. (t) God made and orders all things to his own glory: In like sort (u) we should finish the work which he gives us to do, should bring forth much fruit, and should do all we have to do, to his glory. What ever be the Secundary ends, this Primary end must be intended over all. II. Subordinate ends are many: especially these: 1. The honour, credit, advantage, and (x) furtherance of the Gospel. (y) That it may run, and be glorified. That it (z) may spread and prevail: without being traduced, evil spoken of, or hindred. 2. The edification and welfare of the Church. That it (a) may be daily enlarged, protected, stablished, Perfected till the day of Christ, that at last it may be without spot and blemish or any such thing. Moses so desired the Churches happiness, that rather then it should be destroyed, (b) himself was willing to be blot out of the Book which God had written. Paul (c) transformed himself as it were into all lawful shapes, that he might gain the more. He became all things to all men, that by all means he might save some. Paul highly commends Timothy to the Philippick Church, upon this account, (d) I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your estate. For all seek their own, not the things that are Jesus Christs. 3. The happiness and prosperity of the families committed to us, not only in (e) Temporall Provisions, but also much more in spiritual enjoyments. When there are honest aims and endevours, not only in reference to their comfortable subsistence on Earth, but also to their glorious inheritance in heaven. (f) Abraham, (g) Iashuah, (h) David, and other holy men, have singularly intended their families spiritual good; whose steps we ought to follow. 4. Finally, Our own Salvation. all in walking before God that we can, we our ſelves be not caſt-aways, loſing all that we have wrought: but that we receive of free-grace, according to Gods promiſe, a great and glorious reward, and the end of our Faith, the Salvation of our ſouls. Not that we are to intend or aim at Juſtification of our perſons by our beſt works in the ſight of God. That is altogether impoſſible. For, 1. That Covenant which required perfect and perpetual Perſonal obedience in all good works for mans juſtification, is utterly broken, and rendred altogether (k) unable to juſtifie him any longer, By reaſon of Adam's diſobedience, whereby all the world became Sinners before God. 2. All mans beſt works and obedience, ſince the Fall, are imperfect, and attended inſeparably with much ſin and frailty, are (l) filthy rags, (m) loſs and dung, &c. and therefore are ſo far from juſtifying us, that they merit condemnation for us. 3. God hath ever ſince the Fall of man revealed and ſet up another way of Juſtification; viz. (n) by Faith in Jeſus Chriſt alone, without the works of the Law. And to this righteouſneſs of God all muſt ſubmit, that intend to be ſaved. What then? Muſt good-works be neglected? No, in no wiſe. They in their place are neceſſary, and to be performed with all poſſible exactneſs. For, 1. They do juſtifie (o) our Faith; evincing that it is a lively fruit-bearing and true Faith, not falſe, barren, and dead, that brings forth ſuch fruits. Faith juſtifies our perſons: Good-works juſtifie our Faith. 2. They juſtifie us (p) before men, though a fruit-bearing faith juſtifie us before God. 3. They are the way to Heaven; (q) without holineſs no man ſhall ſavingly and comfortably ſee the Lord: but not the procuring Cauſe of Heaven. Via regni, non cauſa regnandi. Only Jeſus Chriſt by Faith apprehended, brings us thither. 4. They have not the Promiſe of Juſtification before God: but they have the gracious promiſes of (r) glorious remunerations in Heaven with God.

Fifthly, Progreſs in ſuch Abilities and Acts of Obedience, in ſuch manner, and to ſuch ends as hath been mentioned, is another thing implyed in Obediential walking before God. Walking obedientially, in the nature of the thing, imports growth and progreſs in theſe Obediential Abilities and Exerciſes. And this is (s) Growing in Grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Ieſus Chriſt. (t) Abounding in love towards one another. (u) Adding to Faith, vertue; and to vertue, knowledge; and to knowledge, temperance; and to temperance, patience; and to patience, godlineſs; and to godlineſs, brotherly-kindneſs; and to brotherly kindneſs, charity; and Having theſe things, and abounding in them. (x) A running ſo as to obtain. (y) A forgetting of thoſe things which are behind, and reaching forth unto thoſe things which are before, and a preſſing towards the mark, for the prize of the high Calling of God in Chriſt Ieſus.

Sixthly, Perseverance in all Obedientialness unto the end. Walking in Obedience, denotes an habitual constant persevering course, without stop or stay, till a man have finished the course of his obedience before God. This is (z) Being faithfull to the Death. (a) Holding fast what we have, that no man take our crown. (b) Being stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord. (c) Walking, and not being weary; Running, and not fainting. (d) Finishing our Course: without (e) weariness in well-doing. Many can be content to make some few steps in godliness; but are soon tired. (f) Put their hand to Gods plough, but look back. Begin in the Spirit, but end in the flesh, &c. But they that are in Covenant with God as Abraham's Seed, must constantly walk on in all obedience with God: (g) serving him in Holiness and righteousness before him all the days of their lives.

And, Thus the First thing propounded, is cleared, viz. What is meant by Walking before God? It is, To walk with him, as before him, In Faith and Obedience.

2. Why Abraham and his Seed were thus to walk before God, in reference to his Covenant with them. There were many causes why Abraham and his Seed should thus walk before God in reference to Gods entring into Covenant with them; viz. Because,

1. God required and commanded this their Walking before God, (h) when he renewed his Covenant with them. Before this was expressly required of them, he had made a Covenant with them: And at the same time that it was expresly enjoyned them by God, he (i) renewed his Covenant formerly made with them, and that with divers additional enlargements. Now Gods naked Command, was sufficient cause for their Obedience. And it's Gods Prerogative, to impose what terms and federal Conditions he pleaseth, upon those whom he takes into Covenant with himself. His Authority over them being absolute, and the Distance betwixt him and them, being infinite. Although men entring into Covenant, betwixt whom there is some proportion, cannot by command impose conditions upon one another: but they agree upon proportionable terms mutually proposed.

(h) compare Gen. 17. 1. with Gen. 15. 18, &c. & 12. 2, 3, 7. & 13. 14, 15, 16, 17. & 15. 1. 106.

2. The Nature of Gods Covenant calls for this Walking before God, both from Abraham and his Seed. For, 1. Gods Covenant imports a mutual Agreement betwixt him and them. Therein God promiseth Mercies: They re-promise Duties, at least implicitly. For, can we imagin that God should oblige himself by Covenant to Abraham and his Seed, and leave them altogether free and unobliged? A bare Promise may oblige only one party: but a Covenant obligeth all the federates. Herein a Covenant differs from a naked Promise. And if Abraham and his Seed be obliged by Gods Covenant of Faith, to some terms on their part, what can those terms be imagined to be, but walking before God in Faith and Obedience sincerely?

cerely? In Faith, as the Condition of the Covenant: In Obedience, as the Proper fruit of true Faith: In Integrity, as the necessary Qualification of both. The Lord summarily declaring the Nature of this his Covenant, wraps up all in this; (k) I am God All-sufficient; on my part: Walk before me, and be perfect; on thy part. 2. This Covenant of Faith with Abraham and his Seed, singularly cals for Faith from Abraham and his Seed, in reference to Jesus Christ, the Eminent seed of Abraham, diversly though obscurely revealed in this Covenant: whom, without Faith, they could neither Discern nor Apply for Salvation. Jesus Christ the Saviour is the grand mysterie herein Revealed. 1. Christ is that blessed Seed promised to Abraham, in (l) whom all the Nations of the Earth should be blessed. 2. In Christ especially the Seed of Abraham was to be so wonderfully (m) multiplyed, not only among the Jews, but chiefly among the Gentiles. 3. In Christ chiefly the Name of Abraham became so renowned. Not only in that Christ descended of him according to the flesh: But also in that he became God's, and God his, through Jesus Christ. 4. Christ especially was to be his most victorious Seed, that should possess the gates of his Enemies, and (n) subdue them. Christ possessed the Gates of Sin, the Gates of Death, the Gates of Hell, and will at last tread all his foes under his feet. 5. Canaan promised, was the land of Christ, (o) the land of Immanuel: a Type of Christs better Country, viz. the Heavenly Country, where Christ sits on the right hand of the Majesty on high. 6. Isaac born by strength of Gods promise, beyond the course of Nature, was but a Type of Jesus Christ born (p) above the Course of Nature according to Gods promise. Isaac was Abraham's Heir: but Christ Gods Heir, the (q) Heir of all things. Isaac was Sacrificed and received again from Death, but both only in a Figure: But Jesus Christ (r) was Sacrificed indeed, and Rose again from the Dead indeed. 7. Abraham's Covenant-Token, viz. Circumcision of the flesh made with hands, was but a shadow of (s) Christs Circumcision of the heart made without hands, &c. So that the whole Administration of this Covenant is full of Christ: and calls aloud for Faith to Apprehend and apply him.

He hath assured them of, 1 Divine Benediction, 2 Wonderful Multiplication, 3 Great Renown of Name, 4 Victoriousness over their Enemies, 5 The inheritance of all Canaan, and 6 The happy close of Abraham's days; yea he hath promised them, 7 To be a Shield; 8 An exceeding great Reward, and 9 A God to them by an Everlasting Covenant. And what could God say more? Do not all these freely promised Mercies highly deserve and challenge their walking before God in Faith and Obedience with all integrity? All they are; All they have; All they can do; All they can endure for God, is infinitely finitely short of what God hath promised unto them.

4. God singularly accepts such walking before him, in reference to his Covenant of Faith, ever since he hath revealed his Covenant of Faith upon Adam's fall. (t) Enoch walked with God: And God was so pleased therewith, that he translated him, that he should not see death. (u) Noah walked with God: And God therefore saves him and his family in the Ark, when the whole world was drowned. Abraham (x) walked with God in Faith and Obedience: And God, not only highly commended, but greatly rewarded him for so doing, as after we shall see. (y) Caleb and Josua walked with God, followed the Lord fully: therefore they alone of that Generation had the priviledge to be brought into the land of Canaan, whereas all the residue of that Generation perished in the Wilderness. David walked with God, and (z) fulfilled all his will: therefore God stiles him, A man after his own heart, &c. So that, walking before God is most acceptable to God. And no wonder; For, 1. Hereby, The reign and tyranny of the old Serpent, the Devil and Satan is cast off. 2. Hereby, The life and power of Jesus Christ, the Seed of the woman, the delight of God, is evidenced in them. 3. Hereby, Their Conformity to God, and resemblance of him is testified. 4. Hereby, Their gracious Separation from the corrupt and wicked world is declared. All which do wonderfully please God. How great cause therefore had Abraham and all his Seed to walk before God, for the pleasing of him? Yea, what an encouragement is this to walk before God, when such walking before him shall be so accepted of him?

5. The Lord would be peculiarly glorified by his Covenant-people, therefore he tyes them by his Covenant to this peculiar way of glorifying him, by walking before him. God glorifies himself (a) generally by all his Creatures; More specially by his Intellectual creatures, Angels and Men; but (b) more peculiarly by his Covenant-people within his Covenant of Faith since Adam's fall. By them, and their walking before him in Faith and Obedience, He singularly glorifies, 1 The freeness of his favour; 2 The beauty of his Grace, 3 The power of his Christ in them, 4 The vertue and efficacy of his Spirit upon them, 5 The riches of his goodness and mercy to them, &c. both in enabling them, that were dead in sin, thus to walk before God; and in accepting them therein. Now shall God honour them with such a Covenant, and with such Covenant-priviledges: and shall not they strive to honour him by walking before him according to his Covenant?

6. Walking before God by Faith and Obedience is not only the Duty, but also the Dignity of Abraham and his Seed. For (c) To you it is given to believe. (d) We are his workmanship created in Christ Jesus unto good works. All have not this gift of Faith. All are not thus created to good works: but only Abraham's Seed. Therefore its their Priviledge and Dignity above all others thus to walk with God. Its their Priviledge and Dignity divers wayes. For, 1. Their (e) Ability lity and inclination thus to walk with God, is a fruit of saving and discriminating grace, whereby they are distinguished from all carnal people in the world. 2. Their walking thus before God (f) is an evident demonstration that they are delivered by Jesus Christ out of the hands of all their spiritual enemies, and the fear of them, according to Gods holy Covenant and Oath to Abraham. Hence Zacharias in his Propheſie of Christ about six months before his birth, ſaid, (g) Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for he hath visited and redeemed his people, And hath raised up an horn of Salvation for us, in the house of his servant David. ——To perform the mercy promised, and to remember his holy Covenant: The Oath which he swore to our Father Abraham, that he would grant unto us, That we being delivered out of the hands of our enemies (h) without fear, might serve him in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life. 2. By being brought thus to walk before God, they are brought neer unto God in a holy agreement and ſweet ſoul-refreſhing Communion. (i) Can two walk together unleſs they be agreed? And ſhall poor, weak, deſpiſed, ſinful duſt and aſhes have ſuch familiar Communion with the glorious God? And is it a ſmall matter to be made Companions for the bleſſed God? This honour, theſe dignities they have that thus walk before God. What great cauſe therefore had Abraham and all his Seed to walk before God diligently and delightfully?

7. Finally, Not to walk before God in Faith and Obedience would have been very prejudicial to Abraham and his Seed. For, 1. This would evidence them ingrateful for Covenant-Mercies received, in that they walk not ſuitably thereunto. And (k) Ingratitude is an hainous ſin, and moſt odious unto God. Ingratum dixeris, omnia dixeris. The brand of ingratitude is infamy enough. Contrariwiſe walking anſwerably to mercies received, is real gratitude for thoſe mercies. To walk dutifully before God according to Covenant-Precept, is to walk thankfully for Benefits by Covenant-Promiſe. 2. This would render them incapable of Covenant-Benefits tendered. For, without Faith there's no receiving either of Gods Covenant, or of any Covenant-Mercies. And (l) without good works there's no evidencing of the truth of Faith. 3. This would evince them to be ſtrangers to Gods Covenant it ſelf. For they that walk not before God in Faith and Good Works, perform not the Condition of the Covenant on their parts. Nor do they expreſs the power of the Covenant upon themſelves, ſweetly enabling and inclining them thus to walk.

Upon theſe and like grounds both Abraham and his Seed were to walk before God in Faith and Obedience, in reference to Gods Covenant.

3. Whether Abraham and his Seed did thus walk before God by Faith and Obedience, in reference to his Covenant, is the next Queſtion to be Reſolved. And it is very clear, they did. See it, 1. In Abraham. 2. In his Seed.

(m) Gen. 24. 40.

(1) God highly Commends Abraham, for walking in Faith, and Obedience. I. For walking in Faith, and that in several (n) steps thereof. As, 1. That, (o) By Faith he hearkned to Gods call at the first, to forsake his own Country, Kindred, and Fathers house; to follow God into another land, not knowing whether he went. 2. That, (p) By Faith he sojourned in the Land of Promise (whether God had conducted him,) as in a strange Country, dwelling in Tabernacles: looking for a City that hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God; —— and desiring a better Country, that is, an heavenly. 3. That, (q) By Faith he was fully perswaded that God according to his Promise would raise him up a numerous Seed, from his own dead body and Sarah's dead womb, beyond the Course of Nature; and especially, that the Eminent Seed Jesus Christ should come of him according to the flesh, in whom all the Nations of the Earth, as well as the Jews, should be blessed. This admirable step of his Faith God wonderfully extols by the Apostle to the Romans. Out of which place I have (r) formerly observed seven eminent Circumstances, advancing exceedingly this one Act or step of his Faith. There see at large. 4. That, (s) By Faith, Abraham, when he was tryed, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the Promises, offered up his only begotten son. —— Accounting that God was able to raise him up even from the dead. This was a glorious act of his Faith indeed, which prevailed Against his Natural Affections to his son, Against all rational Objections that might be made against that Fact, yea Against all spiritual Considerations of the Promise in his Son. Had Isaac been sacrificed: in all appearance the Promises and Covenant of God had been sacrificed, The happiness of all the Nations of the Earth had been Sacrificed with him. O glorious Faith of Abraham! that could expect his Isaac again from the dead, rather then Gods promise should fail or dye with him. Thus God commends Abraham highly for walking before him in Faith. II. For walking before him in Obedience and good works, the genuine fruits of his Faith. As, 1. That, He (t) readily obeyed Gods call; notwithstanding all discouraging impediments thereunto. 2. That, He (u) submitted to Gods Ordinances, without cavelling or reasoning against them. 3. That, He (x) rejoyced to see Christs day; was much affected with a Promised Saviour, as if he had been actually performed. 4. That, He (y) exercised true brotherly love, even to the peril of his own life. 5. That, He (z) religiously educated and governed his family in the way of the Lord. 6. That, He (a) obeyed God even to the offering up of his only begotten son, in a sort: not withholding his son,

(2) God richly rewards Abraham, for his walking before God in Faith and Good-works; and that in this preſent life.

For his Faith, and walking before God therein; God Rewards Abraham with theſe ſingular Benefits, all comprized in one text, viz. 1. With ([c]) Juſtification by Faith. 2. With ([d]) Confirmation of that Righteouſneſs of Faith by Circumciſion. 3. With a ([e]) Spiritual Fatherhood to all beleiving Nations. And all of free-grace.

First, God freely Rewarded Abraham's Faith with Juſtification by Faith. This Priviledge, which Abraham received by his believing, is divers times mentioned in Scripture. As, By Moſes; ([f]) God brought Abraham forth abroad, and ſaid, Look now towards heaven, and tell the ſtars, if thou be able to number them: And he ſaid unto him, So ſhall thy ſeed be. And he believed in the LORD; and he counted (or imputed) it to him for righteouſneſs. By the Apoſtles alſo in the New Teſtament, ([g]) this is divers times recited. In theſe words are two things obſerveable. 1. The Condition of the Covenant on mans part, performed by Abraham, viz. Faith, or Believing in the LORD, or according to his promiſe of a numerous Seed in Chriſt, eſpecially of Chriſt himſelf the eminent Seed, in whom they ſhould be ſo numerous. 2. The gratuitous Remuneration of this Faith of Abraham on Gods part, with that excellent priviledge of Juſtification by Faith; the Lord Counting [or imputing] it to him for righteouſneſs. This is the firſt place in all the Bible, wherein Faith in the LORD, and Imputing of Faith to man for righteouſneſs, is mentioned. And in the New Teſtament much uſe is made of it to prove the Doctrine of Juſtification by Faith alone without the works of the Law: in that, Abraham's Faith alone made him a Juſtified perſon in the ſight of God, and the friend of God; he having in this regard nothing to glory in before God from any works whatſoever. The Senſe of this phraſe is much controverted: but to the clearing of that, I intend to ſpeak in the Inferences. Now this Juſtification was a rich recompence to Abraham's believing. For, 1. Hereby ([h]) all his ſins were Remitted, Covered, and not Imputed to him: but to Jeſus Chriſt. 2. Hereby, ([i]) His perſon was accepted as perfectly righteous before God, yea as the righteouſneſs of God in Chriſt. 3. Hereby, wonderful happineſs was caſt upon him. ([k]) O the bleſſedneſſes of that man whoſe iniquities are pardoned, and whoſe ſin is covered, &c. 4. Hereby, ([l]) He had peace with God, paſſing all underſtanding; whereby he was enabled not only to joy in hope of the glory of God, but alſo to glory in tribulation. 5. Hereby, He had unqueſtionable Evidence of his Eternal glory and Salvation. ([m]) Whom God juſtified, them he alſo glorified.

Secondly,

Secondly, God freely recompensed Abraham's believing, with Confirmation of that his righteousness of Faith by Circumcision. (n) Abraham believed, and was justified by believing in his Uncircumcision: And he received the Sign of Circumcision, A Seal of the Righteousness of the Faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised. God was not content only to justifie him upon his believing; but also seals to him his justification, by a familiar Sensible token of Circumcision in his flesh. That as often as he remembred or Considered his Circumcision: so often he might be unquestionably assured of his Justification. That as surely as his fore-skin was cut off from his body: so certainly all guilt of his sins was removed from his Soul.

(n) Rom. 4. 10, 11.

Thirdly, God freely rewarded his Faith with a Spiritual Fatherhood to all believing Nations, whether Jews or Gentiles. He (o) Received the Sign of Circumcision, a Seal of the righteousness of the Faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: That he might be the Father of all them that believe, although they be not Circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also: (There's his Fatherhood to all believing Gentiles, grounded on his Faith had before Circumcision;) And the Father of Circumcision to them who are not of the Circumcision only, but also walk in the steps of that Faith of our Father Abraham, which he had being yet Uncircumcised. (There's his Fatherhood to all the believing Jews.) And so in reference to all believers, Jew and Gentile, he is styled, (p) The Father of us all. This spiritual Fatherhood was a wonderful Honour put upon Abraham by God himself. The Nature of this Fatherhood, I have (q) formerly explained. There See. Thus the Lord of Free-grace rewarded Abraham's Faith.

(q) In Book III. Chap. 3. Aphorism 3. Sect. 1.

For his Obedience, and his Walking before God therein, The Lord graciously rewarded Abraham in divers regards. For, 1. God (r) assured him and his posterity of the Land of Canaan for an everlasting Inheritance: after he had Self-denyingly left his own Country, kindred, and Fathers house, at Gods command. And had put his Nephew Lot to his choyce of his place wherein to sojourn, for peace sake. 2. God promised (s) to be his shield, and exceeding great Reward: upon his sincere brotherly-love in rescuing of Lot and his Family, &c. from the Kings that had spoyled Sodom, and carried them away Captives; and upon his gallant and magnanimous refusal of rewards from the King of Sodom for this service. 3. God (t) imparted to him his secret Counsels and intendments about the destruction of Sodom and her Sister Cities; herein made him as his Privy-Counsellour: and this because of Abraham's pious care and government of his Family. Himself and his shall keep the way of the LORD. 4. God (u) was so exceedingly pleased with that singular act of his obedience, in offering up Isaac to God at his command, that he pathetically Promised, and that with a solemn Oath by himself, 1. To Bless Abraham:

(r) Gen. 12. 1. to 8. & 13, 14, 15, 16, 17.

(s) Gen. 14. 14. to the end. & 15. 1.

(t) Gen. 18. 17, 18, 19, &c.

(u) Gen. 22. 15, 16, 17, 18.

Abraham: 2. To Multiply his Seed exceedingly. 3. To make his Seed victorious over his Enemies, which hath chief respect to Christs Conquests of his and our Spiritual enemies. 4. And To make all the Nations of the Earth blessed in his Seed, viz. especially in Christ. And the reason of all is added, Because thou hast obeyed my voyce. Thus God richly rewarded his Obedience.

(3) God eminently propounds Abraham as a Pattern of Faith and Obedience to all his Seed. (x) Accounting them the true children of Abraham, whether Jews or Gentiles, that walk in the steps of his Faith and Obedience; and declaring them that walk otherwise to be no children of Abraham indeed in Gods account, though according to the flesh they descended of Abraham.

(x) Rom. 4. 11, 12, 24. Ioh. 8. 39, 40.

Seeing then that Abraham's Faith and Obedience are by God himself So Commended, So Rewarded, and So propounded for Imitation: it's clear beyond exception that Abraham himself did walk before God, according to his Covenant in Faith and Obedience.

2. That Abraham's Seed also thus walked before God, is apparent. For Jacob, that is, Israel, blessing Joseph, said; (y) God, before whom my Fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which fed me all my life long to this day, &c. So that Israel testifieth, that his Father Isaac walked before God as well as his Grand-father Abraham. The Faith and Good-works of Isaac, Iacob, and Ioseph, are also eminently commended together with those of Abraham, in the (z) Epistle to the Hebrews. Besides, many other pious acts of their walking with God, elsewhere recorded in the Scriptures. As for the true Seed of Abraham in after-times, both Iewish and Gentilish, under the Old and New Testament; Their Walking with God by Faith and Obedience, is so frequently mentioned in Scriptures, that I need speak nothing farther of it. What God required in his Covenant, they Performed.

(y) Gen. 48. 15.

(z) Heb. 11. 8. to 23.

And thus I have Doctrinally Opened and Explained the First Covenant-Condition required on the part of Abraham and his Seed, viz. WALKING BEFORE GOD; Having showed, 1. What is Meant by Walking before God. 2. Why Abraham and his Seed were thus to walk before God, in reference to Gods Covenant. 3. That Abraham and his Seed did thus walk before God accordingly. The last thing remains, viz. Inferences hence to be considered, before we come to the second Covenant-Condition, of Being Perfect.

4. Inferences hence may be many. As,

1. Hence Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, Required Conditions on their part, as well as Promised Benefits on Gods part. The federal obligation or tye is reciprocal. The Lord will be their All sufficient God: But they must walk before him, or with him. When the glorious God so condescends to dust and ashes, as in a sort ſort to be fœderally bound to them by the golden chains of his Promiſes: Shall they think to be left at liberty from all fœderal Duties? Naked Promiſes may bind but one part, but Covenants bind both. Conditions on Mans part, are no way inconſiſtent with the Nature of Gods Covenants, ſo they be wiſely and judiciouſly underſtood. To deny Gods Covenants to be Conditional, what is it leſs then to deny Gods Covenants to be Covenants? God, in all ſorts of Covenants with mankind, impoſed Terms and Conditions upon man: but ſtill thoſe Conditions were homogeneal and ſuitable to their reſpective Covenants. Works were the Condition of the Covenant of Works; viz. Perfect and perpetual Perſonal Obedience. Faith is the Condition of the Covenant of Faith, in all ages ſince it was firſt Revealed. Here God plainly impoſed Conditions upon Abraham and his Seed, in reference to that Fœderal Adminiſtration: Walking before God, viz. By Faith and Obedience; and being Perfect. Faith, to lead them out of themſelves, to Chriſt and his righteouſneſs, for juſtification: Obedience, to evidence the truth of that Juſtifying Faith; and to teſtifie their abundant thankfulneſs to God for Jeſus Chriſt, and his love in him: and Integrity, as the acceptable Evangelical Qualification of both their Faith and Obedience in Chriſt, though they want legal exactneſs.

Object. But, was not Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed, a Covenant of Free-grace? How then could it admit of any Terms or Conditions? Are not Conditions in man utterly inconſiſtent with Gods free-grace?

Anſw. 1. Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed was a Covenant of Free-grace, and yet admits of Conditions on their part. Not of Legal Conditions; Perfect and perpetual perſonal obedience: But of Evangelical Conditions; Faith, inchoate Obedience, and Integrity. The Legal condition (a) of Works, and of Free-grace are inconſiſtent; but the Evangelical condition of Faith, and Free-grace are moſt conſiſtent, and ſtand well together. Hence God conditioneth for Faith in this Covenant of Grace. 2. Yea, This Covenant, and the bleſſings therein promiſed, are therefore of Faith, that they might be by Grace. Grace and Faith are ſo far from deſtroying, that they preſerve each other: and neceſſarily infer each other. (b) Therefore it (viz. the Promiſe, or Covenant mentioned, verſ. 13.) is of Faith, that it might be by Grace, to the End the Promiſe might be ſure to all the Seed. That it may be of Grace, it muſt be of Faith. Why? Partly, becauſe without Faith we cannot maintain and uphold the Glory of Gods Free-grace in point of our Juſtification and Salvation. But Faith leading us out of our ſelves to Chriſt for righteouſneſs and life, exalts Grace wonderfully, exalts Grace only. Partly, becauſe without Faith we cannot obtain Chriſt, or any fruits of Gods free-grace at all. If therefore we deny this Condition of Faith, we conſequently destroy the Free-grace of this Covenant. They therefore who absolutely oppose all (c) Conditions in the Covenant of Grace, do greatly err, because they know not the Scriptures, nor duly Consider Gods admirable contrivance of his Covenant.

(b) Rom. 4. 16.

(c) The Question about the Conditionality of the Covenant, See formerly stated and determined In the General Nature of the Covenant of Faith. Book. II.

2. Hence, The Covenant-terms and Conditions imposed upon Abraham and his Seed were not impossibilities: but such as they were able to perform. For, What were these Conditions? Walking before God in Faith and Obedience, and being Perfect. These Abraham was able to perform, and actually did perform them, not only after they were explicitly required of him, but also before, as the History evidenceth. Whence had Abraham this ability? Not from himself, or any Natural principle: But from God when he first (d) called him, by revealing this Covenant unto him. Then the Covenant and Promises Instrumentally wrought Faith, Obedience, and Integrity in Abraham: which it required of Abraham afterwards. The like also is clear of Abraham's Seed, in the following Periods and Administrations of the Covenant. It never exacts Impossibilities of them: but only Possibilities, whereunto it instrumentally enableth them.

(d) Gen. 12. 1. &c.

And this is one remarkable excellency of the Covenant of Faith, beyond that of Works. They both agree in their General End propounded and Promised, viz. life, happiness, and Salvation. But they notably differ, 1. In their particular Conditions required. The Covenant of Works requires (e) perfect and perpetual Personal obedience, denouncing the curse upon the least failing. The Covenant of Faith requires Faith in Christ, and endeavours of obedience with integrity. 2. In their assistance to the performing of their Conditions respectively. The Covenant of Works requires Perfect and perpetual obedience in our own Persons: But Promiseth No ability at all to perform such Obedience, nor any pardon to failings and imperfections. The Covenant of Faith (f) so requires Faith, that it promiseth to work it in us; yea, and instrumentally doth work it in us: So requires obedience, as it promiseth to put Gods Spirit, and Fear, and Law within us; and to cause us to walk in his statutes, &c. Yea further it promiseth pardon of all our imperfections, and obliteration of all our transgressions. And offers us all these Promises (g) sealed up and ratified unreversably in Christs blood. So that the Covenant of Works since the Fall requires mere Impossibilities: The Covenant of Faith nothing but Possibilities. How happy therefore is a Believers condition in the Covenant of Faith with God: beyond every Carnal mans Condition under the broken Covenant of Works.

(e) Gal. 3. 10.

(f) Gen. 17. 1. Ier. 31. 33. 34. & 32. 38, 39, 40. Ioh. 6. 37. Rom 10. 6 to 18. Ezek. 36. 25, 26, 27. Heb. 8. 10, 11, 12.

(g) Heb. 9. 14, 15, 16, 17. 1 Cor. 11. 24, 25.

3. Hence, Not only Covenant-Benefits promised to them, but also Covenant-Duties imposed upon them, are the Advantages of Abraham and his Seed. So that this Covenant is their great Advantage every way. The Advantage of Covenant-Benefits (as hath been shewed) is unspeakable: The Advantage also of Covenant-Duties is admirable, as will appear in this, That they muſt walk before God, and that by Faith and Obedience. Conſider deliberately, 1. The way, wherein; 2. The Company, wherewith; 3. The terms, whereupon; 4. The ability, whereby; 5. And, The period whereunto they walk: and then ſee if this be not their Dignity, as well as Duty; their Remuneration, as well as their Obligation.

is

(1) The way, wherein they are to walk, is the beſt of all other wayes in this world, viz. The Way of Faith and Obedience. 1. This is Gods way, preſcribed by him to his people in all ages, in reference to their eternal good: all other are the wayes of the fleſh, of the world, of Satan. 2. This is the High-way of Holineſs, (h) the beaten way of the Saints, (wherein the unclean ſhall not walk,) ſo ſtraight and plain, that wayfairing men, though fools, ſhall not err therein: all other are blind, crooked by-ways, wherein is nothing but error, wandring and ſtumbling. 3. This is the ſecure way, ſafe from fear and danger of wilde-beaſts, enemies, robbers, &c. (i) No Lyon ſhall be there, nor any ravenous beaſt ſhall go up thereon, it ſhall not be found there: but the redeemed ſhall walk there. They ſhall (k) walk there before the Lord in holineſs and righteouſneſs all the days of their life, being delivered from the hands of their enemies, without fear. All other ways of unbelief and Diſobedience, are dangerous and deſtructive ways: full of fear, miſchief and miſery. 4. This is the comfortable way of peace, (l) wherein alone we can find reſt unto our Souls. All others are wholly uncomfortable ways, miniſtring no true peace, reſt, or refreſhment to them that wander therein. 5. This is the (m) narrow way tending unto life, which few find. All others are the broad way of Death, and many, yea moſt do walk therein. 6. This is the (n) only way to Chriſt: as Chriſt is the only way to God. All other paths lead from Chriſt, not to him. 7. Finally, This is the only way beſtrowed with (o) all the Promiſes and Priviledges recorded in Gods Book: All others are beſet with all the Threats and Curſes denounced in the Scripture againſt Sinners.

They that walk with God, walk with light: for (r) God is light, the Father of lights, and in him is no darkneſs at all. They walk with life: for (u) God is life. They that walk with God, can (b) want no good thing, in their walk with him. From him they have all things; yea, in him they have all things, who is the only Goodneſs. Food, to relieve their hunger and thirſt: Medicine, to heal their diſeaſes: Shelter, to defend them from heat and cold, from ſtormy wind and tempeſt: Strength, againſt wearisomneſs and faintneſs; (c) my ſtrength and mine heart faileth me, but God is the Rock of mine heart, and my portion for ever. The (d) light of his countenance ſhines upon them; Freſh ſupplyes of his Grace are inſtilled into them; His (e) peace paſſing all underſtanding, keeps their Conſciences; His matchleſs (f) Love in Chriſt is ſhed abroad in their Hearts; His ſweet reviving (g) Comforts delight the Soul; Himſelf in all his raviſhing beauty, is familiarly (h) manifeſted to them; His tendereſt arms of mercy embrace them on Every ſide: And what ſhall I ſay? effectually calling and converting them unto God. So that now, Gods frowns are turned into ſmiles: his diſpleaſure into fatherly favour towards them: and all his eſtrangements from them, into deareſt embraces of love. He owns them as his children, he kiſſes them with the kiſſes of his mouth, he tenders them as the apple of his eye, he loves them with fatherly affection, he counts them his peculiar treaſure. Happy Abraham, Happy all his Seed: for they ſhall ſtill walk in the light of his countenance, they ſhall ſtill taſte the influences of his Peace and Love, they ſhall familiarly converſe with him and enjoy him.

If imperfect grace be ſo ſweet and beauteous: how ſweet and beauteous is perfect grace! And every ſtep of their walking with God brings them neerer and neerer to Perfection. 2. Fruition of glory. Walking with God on Earth, is walking to God in Heaven; that they may reſt with him for evermore. Paul walked before God, whilſt (x) forgetting thoſe things which were behind, and reaching forth to thoſe things which were before, He preſſed towards the mark, for the prize of the High-Calling of God in Chriſt Jeſus. What prize? The prize of Heavenly glory, for which we walk and (y) run in our holy Courſe. 4. Hence, God required of Abraham and his Seed ſuch a Fœderal Condition; as was to Abraham, and ſhould be to his Seed, the way and means of Juſtification, (though not preciſely as a Fœderal Condition.) For, Faith and Obedience wherein they are charged to walk, & which are Conditioned, are (though not as Conditions,) the Means of their Juſtification. By Faith they are juſtified cauſally, and Inſtrumentally, in the the ſight of God, as (f) Moſes and Paul teſtifie of Abraham; He believed in the LORD, and it was counted (or imputed) to him for righteouſneſs. By Obedience or good-works they are juſtified declaratively (as ſome diſtinguiſh) before men, to whom their faith is ſhewed by their works: as James teſtifies of Abraham alſo; (g) Was not Abraham our Father juſtified by works, when he had offered Iſaac his ſon upon the Altar? &c. Or rather, may we not ſay more agreeably to the intent of Paul and James in their diſputes about Juſtification; Abraham was juſtified, both by his Faith, and by his works internally before God: By his Faith, his Perſon was juſtified, and he accounted a righteous Perſon; By his works, his Faith was juſtified, to be a true ſincere living and ſaving Faith? God accepts that Faith to juſtification, which is a fruit-bearing and working Faith: but accounts a workleſs Faith, to be a dead and worthleſs Faith. And as Abraham was, ſo his faithful Seed were to be juſtified (in the ſame ſenſe) by Faith, and good-works; both which are required of them, but differently as Covenant-Conditions on their part towards God. So that God required of them ſuch a Fœderal-Condition, as was, and ſhould be the means of their Juſtification, though not as ſuch a Fœderal-Condition. Thus God implicitly required (h) Faith in Noah, as a Covenant-Condition, to believe his ſalvation in the Ark by water, a Type of Chriſt: and by this Faith conditioned, (i) Noah was juſtified, and became heir of the righteouſneſs which is by Faith. Like may be ſaid of all the Periods and adminiſtrations of the Covenant of Faith: The Primary Condition required in them all, is that which ſhould be the Means of Juſtification, viz. Faith. And in the (k) Covenant of works before the Fall, The Fœderal-Condition required, was the way of their Juſtification under that Covenant, viz. (l) Perfect and perpetual perſonal obedience.

This then is Gods obſervable way in all Sorts of his Covenants with man, whether of Works, or Faith, to impoſe upon the Fœderates ſuch Condition, as under that Covenant ſhould be their reſpective Juſtification. And thus the Lord dealt here with Abraham and his Seed, requiring ſuch Condition of Faith from them; as was, and ſhould be (though not as ſuch a condition) the means of Juſtification to them. And no wonder. For, 1. This is according to the Nature of the Covenant. The intent of Gods Covenants with men, is to reveal to them that righteouſneſs whereby they ſhall be juſtified before God. In this Covenant with Abraham, The matter of their righteouſneſs in Chriſt, is revealed in the Fœderal-Promiſes on Gods part: The means of applying this righteouſneſs is revealed in the Covenant-Condition on Abraham's part; viz. Faith. 2. Hereby, Abraham and his Seed had a clear Juſtification laid before them touching the kind of Covenant which they were under. The Primary Condition of the Covenant declares it to be A Covenant of Faith, and not A Covenant of works. And therefore, therefore they are to demean themſelves under it accordingly: Seeking for righteouſneſs, not from within themſelves by works, but wholly from without themſelves by Faith. 3. Hereby Abraham and his Seed have great encouragement to cheerful performance of Covenant-duties and Conditions: which in ſome other reſpects ſhould be the Means of their Juſtification before God. And Juſtification before God is a mighty Motive.

5. Hence, Thoſe that walk not in Faith and Obedience before God, have no Sound Evidence in themſelves that they are in Covenant with God. They may have many groundleſs thoughts, imaginations, and preſumptions of their good Covenant-ſtate with God: but without this walking before God, can have in themſelves no ſolid evidence of any ſuch Covenant-ſtate; Becauſe they utterly fail in their Covenant-Duties on their part required: which ſhould actually put them into Covenant-ſtate and Relation with God. They muſt not think that God will be bound by Covenant-Promiſes on his part to them; and they remain looſe and unbound by Covenant-duties to God. The fœderal bond is mutual and reciprocal. The Lord may upon terms tender himſelf to be a God in Covenant to them who are and remain meer ſtrangers and enemies both to him and his Covenant: but he never actually becomes a God in Covenant to any, but he ([m]) enables them, through his Grace, Actually to walk with him in Faith and Obedience. Covenant-union betwixt the Lord and his, is ſtill attended with Covenant-Communion.

Now, ſuch as theſe walk not in Faith and Obedience before God; and conſequently, remaining ſuch, they can have no true Evidence in themſelves that they are in Covenant with God, viz. Thoſe, ([1]) That are not ([n]) Gods workmanſhip, created in Chriſt Jeſus unto Faith and Good works, which God hath ordained that we ſhould walk in them. Till Supernatural Habits of Faith and Obedience be created and wrought in us by God, we have no ability to walk with God: no more then a lame man can walk without limbs. Where there's no New-Creation, there can be no new Courſe.

All ſuch are out of the way, quite out of Gods way: Deſtruction and miſery are in their wayes; And the way of peace have they not known; There is no fear of God before their eyes. Now all ſuch are under ſin, yea under the full Dominion and Reign of Sin, as, 1. Willingly ([p]) obey it in the luſts thereof. Sinners luſts, are their Laws: by which they are acted and Commanded. 2. Readily take up Arms, yea ([q]) yeild their members as weapons, to defend and protect Sin. Their tongues ſhall ſpeak for ſin; Their hands ſhall act, write, ſtrike, &c. for Sin; their feet ſhall walk and run for Sin; Their faces ſhall frown againſt thoſe that would any way diſcountenance ſin, &c. In ſuch ſin reigns: and will not ſuffer them to walk with God.

(3) That know neither God nor his wayes. (r) God is light, and in him is no darkneſs at all: they therefore that are nothing but mere darkneſs and ignorance cannot walk with this infinite light. (f) What fellowſhip hath light with darkneſs? What agreement can there be betwixt midnight and mid-day? They that are groſly ignorant of God, are wholly (t) alienated from the life of God through that ignorance, and walk in vanity of their mind. They that know not God and his wayes, they cannot walk with God in Faith or Obedience. Not in Faith: for Faith hath (u) knowledge in it, is a Knowing grace, knowledge is the leading Act in Faith. Not in obedience: for how ſhall they obey, whom they do not know? The Apoſtle joyns together, (x) Them that know not God, and that obey not the Goſpel of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

(4) That live (y) without Chriſt and God in the world: walking like Atheiſtical Heathens and Pagans, diſhoneſtly, in rioting and drunkenneſs, in chambering and wantonneſs, in ſtrife and envying; working the will of the Gentiles, walking in laſciviouſneſs, luſts, exceſs of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries; running to exceſs of riot. Can it be imagined, that ſuch impure beaſts, rather then men, ſhould walk with the moſt (z) Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God, before whom the very Seraphims cover, not only their feet, but their faces?

(5) That are not upon terms of Reconcilement and Agreement with God in Jeſus Chriſt, but rather remain ſtill at (a) Enmity with him by reaſon of their carnal minds, and wicked works. Such cannot walk with God; for (b) Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

(6) That walk Contrary unto God in all unbelief and Diſobedience, with all perverſneſs, frowardneſs, and ſtubborneſs therein, being neither warned by his threatnings and judgements, nor won by his Promiſes and ſtreams of Mercies. Such walk contrary to God: and he will walk Contrary to them. (c) With the upright he will ſhew himſelf upright: but with the froward he will ſhew himſelf froward, or wry.

Nay, they contemn and defie God, and walking with him. Monſters are they, rather then Men: and Devils incarnate, rather then Chriſtians.

(8) That walk not with Gods people, have no delight in the Society and way of good men, who tread in the Narrow path of life: But (f) are moſt contentedly the companions of evil-doers, who walk in the broad way of deſtruction. How hard is it to diſſemble contenting Society! They that abhor the Society of the godly walking with God: how ſhall they themſelves walk with God?

(9) Finally, They walk not with God, nor are in Covenant with him that perſecute the way of God, and the walkers therein, by cruel words or deeds, like (g) mocking Iſhmael, or (h) murdering Cain. Such miſcreants, had they power according to their implacable hatred and malice, (i) would (if it were poſſible) extirpate Gods people and Religion from the face of the earth, that their remembrance might be blotted out for ever, and would pluck God himſelf out of his heavenly Throne.

Theſe and ſuch like, nor do, nor can (ſo remaining) walk with God in Faith or Obedience: and therefore can have no Evidence in themſelves that they are in Covenant with God; but remain Godleſs, Covenant-leſs wretches.

6. Hence, All they that walk before God in true Faith and Obedience, are in Covenant with God, and keep Covenant with him. Their Habitual Ability thus to walk with God, is a fruit of Gods taking them into Covenant with himſelf: and their Actual walking thus with God, according to that ability, is their actual performance of Covenant-Conditions to him. Now,

All they walk before God in true Faith, according to Gods Covenant, (as hath formerly been opened more at large)

(1) Who have true Faith, enabling and inciting them to walk with God. For where Faith is, it cannot chooſe but act towards God, the Object and Author of it.

(2) Who Act and Exerciſe true Faith had; eſpecially, 1. In Knowing and diſcerning the myſterie of Gods Covenant. 2. In Aſſenting to what is revealed and known in Gods Covenant, that it is true, and ſhall moſt faithfully be performed in its ſeaſon. 3. In Accepting and applying to themſelves in particular, what is tendred by God in the Covenant to them, and by them known and Aſſented unto. 4. In Truſting and Relying confidently upon God for performance of his Covenant. 5. In full perſwaſion of Faith, touching Gods ability to perform whatſoever he hath Covenanted and promiſed againſt all ſeeming impediments and impoſſibilities.

(3) Who live by Faith thus had and Acted. Fetching life from Jeſus Chriſt, who is our life, by Faiths excellent attractive vertue.

(4) Who make Progreſs in Faith, growing and preſſing on from Faith to Faith, unto perfection.

(5) Finally, Who perſevere ſtedfaſt, conſtant, and unmovable in Faith, unto the End.

All they alſo walk before God in Covenant-Obedience, (as hath been ſhow'd) who, 1. Having right Principles and abilities for walking in good works, do act and exerciſe them in true Piety towards God, Righteousness towards others, and Sobriety towards themselves. 2. Manage these Acts in a due way and manner. 3. Direct them to right ends. 4. Make due Progress in these Obediential Abilities and Exercises. 5. And constantly persevere in all Obedientialness unto the End.

They that upon sincere Self-Examination can find that they thus walk before God, according to his Covenant, may comfortably conclude that they are in Covenant with God, and through his Covenant-grace do keep Covenant with him.

7. Hence Finally, All that would comfortably share in Covenant-Mercy from God, must sincerely perform their Covenant-Duty to God. The Lord will do much for Abraham, and will be a shield, an exceeding great Reward, and a God to Abraham: But Abraham must on his part walk before God, and be perfect. Notable is that passage of the Lords touching Abraham; (k) I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgement; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him. Abraham's performances towards God, were not the procuring or meritorious causes of Gods making or performing his Covenants and promises to Abraham and his Seed, which were made of meer grace, and made good of meer Truth and faithfulness: but they were Covenant-Conditions required of Abraham, having a fœderal Connexion with, and relation to, the accomplishment of promised Mercies. The way to, not the cause of, Gods performance of his Covenant-blessings. And should not Abraham have walked with God, and performed Covenant-Duty to him: how could he comfortably have expected Gods performance of his promises to him or his Seed? Would we then, as children of Abraham, partake in Covenant-Mercies? Let us sincerely walk with God in the way of Covenant-Duties. The Covenant Relations and Obligations are reciprocal.

(k) Gen. 18. 19.

Directions, How to walk with God in Faith and Obedience, take from the former Explanations of Walking before God. And digest them into Rules of Practice.

Motives encouraging thus to Walk with God, might be numerous. But let these few Considerations quicken us.

(1) God calls for this in his Covenant, that his fœderate people thus (l) walk before him, or with him, in Faith and Obedience. Shall God command it; and shall not we endevour it? Where then should we appear?

(2) Gods sincere Covenant-people, (m) Abraham and his Seed, have been careful thus to walk with God. And are they not propounded herein to us, as (n) exemplary patterns for our imitation?

(m) Gen. 24. 40. & 48 15. Heb. 11. 8. to 23.

(n) Rom 4 11, 12, 23, 24.

(3) The

(3) The Lord highly accepts his Covenant-peoples Walking before him, as appears by his singular Commendations, and Rich Remunerations of his Servant Abraham's so walking: as hath been formerly noted. And God Commending and Rewarding Abraham, the Father of the faithful, for so doing: Encourages all the faithful children of Abraham unto such acceptable walking with him.

(4) To walk before God according to his Covenant-command, can in no degree of proportion advance Gods honour, like as the Lords Covenant-Benefits advance our Happiness. All that we can do for God, is nothing to what God doth for us.

(5) Walking before, or with God according to his Covenant, is not only our duty, but our dignity. Non Onus, sed Honos. Not a burden, but a benefit, an honour to every true believer. To walk, 1. In such a Way, 2. With such a God, 3. Upon such Terms, 4. By such an Ability, 5. To such an End. How many, how great Advantages, Priviledges, and Comforts are they!

(6) They that are (o) without Covenant and Promises, can but Walk without God in the world, and contrary to him: but they that are in Covenant, and the children of the Promises, should walk with God, and in all well-pleasing before him. Shall not they that surpass all others in their Covenant-Condition, in like manner transcend all others in Covenant-Conversation?

(o) Eph. 2. 12.

(7) Finally, They that now sincerely walk before God according to his Covenant, shall hereafter eternally (p) walk with him in white in heavenly glory, and be counted worthy. These shall not only (q) sojourn in his Tabernacle, his Church-Militant, but shall also dwell in his holy Hill, his Church Triumphant. II. Of being Perfect. תמים היה, (s) And be thou Perfect. Touching this (for the more clear and orderly Opening of it) I lay down this Thesis, or Doctrinal Position; viz. Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed obliged them to be Perfect. This the other branch of their Covenant-Duty and Restipulation required of them on their part, by God: And be thou Perfect; (said the Lord to Abraham) And I will make my Covenant between me and thee, &c.

ad 1: 5. 14.

This (as the former Duty) is immediately and expresly here directed to, and imposed upon Abraham alone: but mediately and implicitly to all, and upon all his Seed with him. For, 1. Gods Covenant was made and established (t) not only with Abraham, but also with his Seed after him in their Generations. Therefore Abraham and his Seed are Joynt-fœderates with God, equally obliged by the Covenant to all fœderal Duties. 2. The Covenant-Benefits (u) concerned Abraham's Seed as well as Abraham, being promised equally to them both: Consequently the Covenant-Duties concerned them both, and were equally imposed on both. Fœderal obligations are mutual and reciprocal, betwixt God and all his Covenant-people, one as well as another. 3. Being Perfect, (as well as Walking before God) in the Nature of the thing it self, is every way as pertinent and necessary to Abraham's Seed, as to Abraham. Walking before God, denoted their true Religion: Being Perfect, their sincerity in their true Religion. True Religion, and Sincerity therein, as necessarily belonged to Abraham's Seed, as to Abraham.

(t) Gen. 17.7.

(u) Gen. 17.7, 8, &c.

Here, for more distinct Discovery of this Covenant-Duty, Consider, 1. What is meant by, Being Perfect. 2. Why Abraham and his Seed are obliged by Gods Covenant thus to be Perfect. 3. What Inferences may hence flow.

1. What is meant by, Being Perfect. This will best appear in Opening, 1. The word here used. 2. The thing thereby intended. 3. Some parallel Synonymous Expressions used in Scripture, to set forth the same thing unto us. Different words tending to declare the same thing for Substance.

1. The word here used, is, תמים, Tamim, that is, (x) Perfect, Compleat, Consummate, Immaculate or unspotted, unblameable in life and manners, Absolute in all points, and irreprehensible before God and man, having a good Conscience in all things. It is opposed (y) to רשע, A restless wicked man, that because of his evil Conscience within can never be at quiet, but (z) is like the tumultuous Sea: A perfect man is quiet, composed, and at peace in himself. And (a) sometimes it is opposed to עקש, A perverse, crafty, deceitfull man. It's ascribed to persons and things, but most frequently to manners. There are at least four other Original words used in the Old Testament for Perfection. As, 1. שלם, Shalem, Perfect, Compleat, Safe, Peaceable, or One-in-peace, Prosperous. In peace every thing tends to prosperity and perfection. (b) I have walked before thee in truth with a perfect heart. A perfect stone, that is, A perfect weight. Deuter. 25. 15. & 27. 6. This word, and that in my Text especially are variously rendred (c) by the Lxx.

By all which variety of Expreſſions, the Lxx. notably ſet forth the plenteous and emphatical ſignification eſpecially of this word תָּם or תְּמִים, Perfect, the word in the text. And it may ſerve as a Compendious Comment upon the ſenſe and force thereof.

In the New Teſtament the Holy-Ghoſt uſeth divers words, which are tranſlated, Perfect, whole, entire, &c. eſpecially theſe, 1. Τέλειος, Perfect, Properly that which is brought to an end, which is finiſhed, compleated, conſummated, &c. This word is uſed moſt frequently; As, Matth. 5. 48. & 19. 21. Rom. 12. 2. 1 Cor. 2. 6. & 13. 10. & 14. 20. Epheſ. 4. 13. Phil. 3. 15. Col. 1. 28. & 4. 12. Heb. 5. 14. & 9. 11. Jam. 1. 4, 17, 25. & 3. 2. 1 Ioh. 4. 18. 2. Ὁλοτελὴς wholly-perfect, entire. And the God of peace Sanctifie you wholly-perfect, 2 Theſ. 5. 23. 3. Ὁλόκληρος, Entire. That ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing, Jam. 1. 4. 1 Theſ. 5. 23. Properly it ſignifies, A whole-heir, compleat-inheritour, One that wholly poſſeſſes his portion allotted to him, &c. Thence its uſed to ſignifie, Perfect, entire, one that hath what he ſhould have. 4. Ἄρτιος, Perfect, compleat. That the man of God may be perfect, 2 Tim. 3. 17. Properly this word is uſed and applyed to Even and equal numbers, diviſible into equal parts, which equal number wants nothing. And thence its borrowed to ſignifie that which is perfect in all its parts or members requiſite thereunto, having nothing redundant, nothing defective, nothing under or over. 5. Καταρτισμὸς, (compounded of the former word Ἄρτιος) Perfect. Luk. 6. 40. But every one that is perfect ſhall be as his Maſter. This compound καταρτίζω is much uſed, and emphatically ſignifies divers things. (1) Sometimes, To mend, repair, ſet in joynt a member diſlocated or diſjointed, Matth. 4. 21. Mark. 1. 19. Gal. 6. 1. Reſtore ſuch a one ——, ſet him in joynt again. (2) Sometimes, fitly to faſhion or frame, to fit in order and proportion, as Heb. 10. 5, & 11. 3. Rom. 9. 22. (3) Sometimes, To fulfil, accompliſh, or furniſh, Act. 21. 5. Luk. 6. 40. (4) Sometimes, cloſely to compact, joyn perfectly, or bind faſt together, as 1 Cor. 1. 10. 2 Cor. 13. 11. 1 Theſ. 3. 10. Epheſ. 4. 11, 12. 1 Pet. 5. 10. Now, though in all theſe, there be great elegancy, and pleaſant variety of notion and expreſſion, yet the Subſtance of the ſenſe is one and the ſame: But enough of the word.

2. The thing intended by this word, Perfect, is chiefly to be conſidered. There is a twofold Perfection, viz. Divine, and Humane. The y (e) Mat. 5. 48. Act. 17. 24, 25. Rom. 11. 35, 36.

(f) Iob 35. 6, 7, 8.

(1) Divine Perfection, or the Perfection of God, is that infinite compleatneſs and abſoluteneſs of his Nature, (e) wherein nothing is redundant or ſuperfluous, nothing is defective or wanting that properly belongs to Deity. He is ſo perfect (f) nothing can be added to him, to make him more perfect: Nothing can be taken from him, to make him leſs perfect then he is. He is the Higheſt perfection of Perfection. All Perfection is Originally from him only. And every Creature is more or leſs perfect, as it more or leſs approacheth to God, and hath reſemblance of him. Here we are not to ſpeak of this Perfection.

(g) Gen. 17. 1.

(2) Humane Perfection, whereof Man is Capable, is that which here God requires of Abraham and his Seed. (g) Be Perfect. But Humane Perfection is twofold; Natural, and Supernatural.

(h) Eccl. 7. 29.

(i) Gen. 1. 26, 27.

I. Natural, is that Perfection which was concreated with, and in, the Humane Nature at firſt, in the Firſt Adam. (h) God made man Perfect and Upright in his kind, and very good: eſpecially in regard of that (i) peculiar image of God wherein man alone was created. There was no ſpot, or ſin in him, no imperfection, no crookedneſs, no contrariety to God or his Law, but a perfect ſuitableneſs and conformity to God and his Law in every point; But mutable. This is Legal Perfection; Natural Perfection: Mans Perfection in the Firſt Adam. But Adam by Sinning loſt this perfection both to himſelf and all his Seed irrecoverably. Thus Abraham and his Seed could not be perfect.

II. Supernatural, is that Perfection which is New-created in the Elect by Supernatural Grace in Jeſus Chriſt the laſt Adam. The Firſt Adam loſt mans Old Natural Perfection: The laſt Adam reſtores to man a New Supernatural Perfection; which is Evangelical, Mans Perfection in the laſt Adam. This Perfection though for Subſtance it be but one: yet it may be conſidered according to its ſeveral ſteps or degrees, 1. Poſitively. 2. Comparatively. 3. Superlatively.

Poſitively Perfect. This is the leaſt and loweſt degree of Perfection, called an Integral Perfection, or Perfection of Parts. A man is Perfect in this Senſe, two wayes. 1. In his inward Frame and Conſtitution of Soul and Body, when he hath from Chriſt all Integral parts of the (k) New man: when of all and every of the parts of Sanctification he hath Something, though the gradual compleatneſs of none. He hath ſome true Knowledge, ſome Faith, ſome Love, ſome Repentance, &c. Some Seeds and principles of every Grace, Something of every part of the New-creature: whereby he is diſpoſed and enabled to do ſomething in all the duties of Chriſtianity; yea his whole man in (l) all the faculties of Soul and members of body, is in ſome meaſure renewed and ſanctified, and ſet upon or directed towards God, as the Needle touched with the Loadſtone to the Pole: that, though there be ſomething of the fleſh in every one of them, yet there is ſomething of Chriſt and of his Spirit in every of them; whereupon they ſtill incline towards God, if they be not hindered. As an infant that hath all its parts and members, is ſaid to be a Perfect child, oppoſite to an (m) imperfect Embryo not yet compleatly faſhioned in the womb. In this ſenſe, Gods Servants, (n) Noah, (o) Job, (p) David, (q) Hezekiah, (r) Aſa, &c. are in Scripture ſaid to be Perfect: although they had many failings, infirmities and imperfections which are particularly therein recorded. 2. Outward way and converſation, in doing Good, and Avoiding evil. Thus an habitual courſe of life, having reſpect to the whole will of God and to all his wayes, without partiality, reſervation, &c. is accounted perfect. Bleſſed are the perfect in the way, Pſal. 119. 1, 6. Likewiſe in eſchewing evill, the evill to which he was moſt prone, David (s) ſhowd his uprightneſs. Keep thy ſervant from preſumptuous ſins, then ſhall I be perfect, Pſal. 19. 13. Perfectneſs in this ſenſe is oppoſed to that which is imperfect in integral parts, maimed, divided, double, diſagreeing and at odds with it ſelf, &c. Thus an (t) entire and whole heart, is a perfect heart: oppoſed to a divided, (u) double heart, an heart and an heart; An heart for God, and an heart for the world and ſin. Thus the (x) love which Chriſt cals for in his Diſciples, muſt be both to friends and foes, and that's integrally perfect, like Gods: Oppoſite to the Phariſees love, which was to friends only, not to enemies, and therefore imperfect. Thus integrity and perfectneſs is (y) oppoſed to perverſeneſs. Solomon, in this regard is ſaid (z) not to be ſo perfect with the Lord as David, becauſe in his old age his heart was turned after other gods: and divers Kings, as (a) Amaziah, Uzziah, Jotham, are ſaid to do that which was right in the ſight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. They failed in their integrity, they had not a like reſpect unto all Gods commands and wayes; they halted with God, they followed him not fully; this was their imperfection.

Comparatively Perfect. This is a further degree of Perfection: when a believer is ſo grown up in Grace, that he is Perfect, not ſimply and abſolutely, but comparatively to what he once was, and to what others are which are beneath him. Yet not every growth, but a growth to full age, to ſome ripeneſs and maturity in Grace, makes a man comparatively (b) Perfect, viz. in compariſon of Babes, as the Apoſtles ſhows. As a man grown up to full age and ſtature, is a perfect man in compariſon of an infant or youth: he hath as it were obtained a New form, ſo much he differs from himſelf. Now this Comparative Perfection ſhews its ſelf three wayes. viz. In the Eminent 1. Meaſure, 2. Exerciſe, and 3. Evidence of Grace. 1. In the Eminent meaſure or degree of Grace. Thus they that are ſo grown in knowledge, as that they can digeſt ſtrong meat, more deep, difficult and perfect Doctrines, are called Perfect; τελειοι δε ἐστιν ἡ στερεὰ τροφή, (c) But ſtrong meat is of perfect ones: whereas thoſe that can only digeſt milk, that is, the firſt principles of the Doctrine of Chriſt, are ſtiled babes. Thus, (d) The Law made nothing perfect: but the bringing in of a better hope did. Why? Becauſe the ſtate of the Church under the Law was a ſtate (e) of Non-age and Minority, and the Law was then as her firſt and imperfect rudiments: but now the ſtate of the Church is in maturity, and full age under the Goſpel or New Teſtament, whereby ſhe is comparatively perfected. In this ſenſe the Apoſtle ſaith; (f) We ſpeak wiſdom among them that are perfect; And, (g) Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded; that is, comparatively perfect in regard of the meaſure of knowledge and Faith. Thus a well-grown love is ſtiled, (h) Perfect love which caſteth out fear. 2. In the Eminent exerciſe of Grace. When a man by long habitual uſe and practice, hath attained to a dexterity, facility, and conſtancy in well-doing: ſuch a man is counted Perfect; And ſuch gracious exerciſes or Practices, Perfect. Thus they are called Perfect, in regard of underſtanding, (i) who by reaſon of uſe have their ſenſes exerciſed to diſcern both good and evill. Thus James ſaith, (k) If any man offend not in word, the ſame is a perfect man, and able alſo to bridle the whole body, that is, he that hath learned the right Government of the tongue, which is ſo neceſſary, and yet ſo difficult a work, he is a perfect man, that is, he is comparatively perfect in Chriſtian practice and exerciſe, and able to govern his whole body, beyond many. Thus he exhorts; (l) Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing; that is, let patience have its full exerciſe in and upon you to the end, let it ſtill perſevere conſtant and invincible under all tryals and ſufferings: the conſtant continuing patience is the perfect patience; and they that therein hold out ſhall be perfect and entire Chriſtians indeed. Thus Chriſt himſelf is ſaid, to be (m) made perfect through ſufferings. —— And; (n) Though he were a ſon, yet learned he obedience by the things which he ſuffered: and being made perfect, &c. that is, by his habitual exerciſe under ſufferings, he experimentally learned the practice and exerciſe of obedience, and experimentally perfected himſelf therein. 3. In the Eminent Evidence and demonſtration of Grace, it is ſaid to be Perfected. Thus James ſaith touching Abraham; (o) Faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect; that is, by them as by fruits and effects faith was evidenced and demonſtrated to be perfect and ſincere. So Chriſt told Paul; (p) My ſtrength is made perfect in weakneſs. How? Chriſts ſtrength is not perfected in weakneſs as in the Subject, nor as by the cauſe or effect: but evidentially, when it ſhows and declares it ſelf moſt clearly and opportunely in our deepeſt plunges and extremities. Though Chriſts power in it ſelf be not increaſed nor diminiſhed, yet in our weakneſs it is perfected comparatively more then in our ſtrength, that is, more fully manifeſted and demonſtrated.

Super-

Superlatively Perfect. This is the Higheſt degree of Perfection, when a Believer becomes ſo perfect, that all that was in part and imperfect is done away. (q) We know in part, and propheſie in part: but when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part ſhall be done away. This Perfection is full and abſolute, but not attainable in this world by the Saints, till they come to Heaven. And it is twofold; 1. Incompleat, when only one part of them, viz. Their Souls are Perfected in glory at their Death, their bodies mean while ſleeping in the duſt. The Apoſtle mentions (r) The Spirits of juſt men made perfect. Their bodies not being perfected with their ſpirits, their Perfection was incompleat. 2. Compleat, when (s) both the Souls and Bodies of all the Saints together ſhall after the Reſurrection at the laſt day be perfected in glory, and have full viſion and fruition of God in Jeſus Chriſt to all eternity. Then there ſhall be nothing Defective, nothing redundant or ſuperfluous; nothing too little, nothing too much; No preſence of any kind or degree of evill; No abſence of any kind or degree of Good; but God himſelf ſhall be immediately All in All.

(s) 1 Cor. 15. 42, 43, 44, 52. to 58. Eph. 4. 12, 13. & 5. 27.

Theſe are the chief Sorts and Degrees of Perfection incident to Chriſts Members. Now, God requiring Abraham and his Seed to be Perfect, which of theſe intends he? Eſpecally the firſt: but Secondarily and Conſequently the two laſt alſo. Without the Firſt, viz. Poſitive integral Perfection, both of Conſtitution and Converſation, a man cannot be nor approve himſelf a true child of God. This therefore is abſolutely neceſſary to truth of Sanctity, and to attainment of eternal Happineſs. The ſecond Comparative Perfection is neceſſary to the Saints wel-being in their Spiritual ſtate here. And both Abraham and all his Seed were to (t) contend after it. Both theſe Perfections are but Imperfect when moſt perfect. Therefore Abraham and his Seed ſhould earneſtly long and breath after, and prepare themſelves for the third and moſt abſolute Perfection in Glory, far ſurpaſſing all that is attainable in this preſent world. Thus of the thing intended in the words, Be Perfect.

And the Apoſtle ſaith of Gods Image in his Saints, that it is (z) in righteouſneſs and holineſs of truth: that is, true Holineſs. So that true holineſs, is perfect Holineſs: A true heart towards God, is a perfect heart, when there's Truth in the inwards. True Service of God, is perfect Service: True walking is perfect walking: This is oppoſed to that which is falſe, feigned, counterfeit, deceitful, &c. ſuch things are not perfect. Truth in the creature, in the General notion of it, is the Commenſurateneſs and Conformity of any thing to its Rule and Meaſure. That which is correſpondent and anſwerable to its Rule, is True. As, 1. Things are true, Creatures are true, and not counterfeit, when they are Conform and agreeable to their Rule, viz. that idea, or divine conception which God had in his mind eternally, and according to which they were created. As, that's true water, which hath ſuch a Nature in it, as God intended ſhould be in water, &c. 2. The underſtanding is True and not erroneous, when its agreeable to its Rule, viz. The Object uuderſtood, and the true diſcovery thereof, when it apprehends or judges of things, that they are ſuch, as indeed they are in themſelves, and truly revealed to be, and not as they ſeem to be: whether they be Naturals, or Supernaturals. When we apprehend, think, &c. of God, Chriſt, Religion, Articles of Faith, Duties of Religion, &c. as they are, and as Scriptures reveal them. 3. The Heart, will and affections are true, and not deceitful, when they have congruity and agreement to their Rule, viz. The underſtanding well guided by the Word and will of God. When we will or nill, love or hate, deſire or deteſt, &c. that which our underſtandings and Conſciences tell us God would have us will or nill, love or hate, &c. and in ſuch ſort and order as he requires. 4. Our words and profeſſions are true, when they are congruous and agreeable to their Rule, viz. our mind and heart. When we thinking of things as they are, do ſpeak of them as we think: then we (a) ſpeak the truth from our heart. Alſo when we are in heart, what we profeſs in tongue: Chriſtians in heart, Believers in heart, Saints in heart, &c. ſuch within as we ſeem to be without. 5. In like ſort, our works are true, when they agree with their Rule and principle, viz. Our well regulated minds and hearts within, guided by the Word. When we walk up to our light, act according to our Convictions, &c. then we (b) walk before the Lord in Truth. Otherwiſe we impriſon and ſuppreſs the Truth, we (c) withhold the Truth in unrighteouſneſs. Thus in matters of Religion, then our words, Profeſſion and works agree with our hearts, minds, Conſciences and wills, which are their Rule; when our Hearts, viz. Minds, Conſciences, wills and affections agree with one another, and with the mind and will of God revealed in his Word, which is their Rule: then there's Truth in us; (d) Truth in the inwards, and truth alſo in the outwards.

David praid; (f) Let integrity and uprightneſs preſerve me, &c. Thus alſo they are coupled together, in the Concret; (g) Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright. Job was (h) perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eſchewed evill. The word properly ſignifies, (as (i) Mercerus hath noted,) That man which is ſtraight, plain, even, equal, declining to neither part: having a ſtraight and equal judgement, a ſtraight way and courſe, An un-byaſed man, that holds ſtraight forward, turning neither to the right hand nor to the left, is not moved with threats or puniſhments, flatteries, Promiſes or rewards, to go out of his way; he ſeeks not his own ends and advantages, but Gods glory and his brothers good, this is an upright man, a ſtraight man. The word is very emphatical. This uprightneſs, or ſtraightneſs ſeems to imply, 1. A ſtraightneſs of inward Principles. viz. A ſtraight mind and judgement touching the things of God, without (k) many crooked inventions and devices. A ſtraight will to God without crooked warping reſolutions and inclinations: when a mans principles are even, and un-byaſed: equally and truly touched with the Load-ſtone of Grace. 2. A ſtraightneſs of ends and aims. When a man intends directly Gods glory, his own Salvation, his brothers edification, &c. without collateral by-reſpects, ſquinting awry this way or that way. Herein Jehu failed while he did Gods work, he aimed not directly at Gods glory, but ſquinted aſide at the eſtabliſhment of his own throne eſpecially; therefore he was not ſtraight and upright with God. 3. A ſtraightneſs of way to thoſe ends and aims, viz. Gods way which himſelf hath preſcribed: The way of Holineſs, Faith, Obedience, Self-Denyal, Repentance, &c. this is Gods plain ſtraight way, called (l) the beaten-paths of righteouſneſs; (m) His High-way, wherein ſtrangers, though fools, ſhall not err. This the way of the upright. Oppoſite to whom are they (n) who turn aſide to their own crooked wayes. Thus Iſrael (o) turned-aſide, or warped, like a deceitful bow, from Gods way unto Idolatrous practices. 4. A ſtraightneſs of Rule to guide them in Gods ſtraight way. A crooked, leaden, Lesbian Rule, a bended deceitful Rule will never bring a man on in Gods ſtraight way: as the crooked Rule of carnal Reaſon, Policy, garb of the times, ſtream of the multitude, &c. As a falſe Compaſs makes the mariner err in ſayling: a falſe guide makes a man err and wander in travelling. Now (p) the Law and Word of God is the Rule of the upright: a juſt and ſtraight Rule. (q) As many as walk by this Rule, they are the upright Iſrael of God. Thus he is an upright or ſtraight man, who doth not halt with God, &c. hath a ſtraight principle within, A ſtraight end to which this principle tends, a ſtraight way leading him to this end, and a ſtraight Rule guiding him in this way. All theſe muſt go together.

(3) Purity or Pureneſs. The Greek hath here two words for Pureneſs or A Pure man, viz. 1. Ἁγνότης, Ἁγνὸς, which properly ſignifies signifies chaſte, or undefiled with women; and thence is uſed more generally for all ſpiritual purity. (r) By pureneſs, by knowledge, &c. (f) —— Be not partaker of other mens ſins, keep thy ſelf pure. (t) —— Every one that hath this hope in himſelf, puryfieth himſelf as he is pure. 2. Καθαρότης, Καθαρὸς, which properly ſignifies ſuch a purity as comes by cleanſing, purging, purifying, &c. (u) Bleſſed are the pure in heart. (x) —— And ye are clean (or, pure) but not all. (y) —— The end of the Commandement is love out of a pure heart. (z) —— Holding the myſtery of the Faith in a pure Conſcience. (a) —— I thank God whom I ſerve from my fore-fathers with pure Conſcience. A man that's perfect and upright, he is alſo a Pure man: A man of a pure heart. Not only his hands, his actions, his profeſſion, &c. are pure; but his heart and Conſcience are pure alſo. This Purity in the upright implyes three things, viz. 1. That he is purged, cleanſed and purified from Sin. How? By the (b) blood of Chriſt, meritoriouſly: By the (c) Spirit, and Graces of the Spirit of Chriſt efficaciouſly. By the (d) Word of Chriſt, inſtrumentally. Till a man be cleanſed thus from the ſpot, impurity and defilement of Sin, he cannot in Gods account be pure, but remains ſin-defiled. 2. That being thus cleanſed from Sin and filthineſs, he hath ſuch a principle of purity inherent and remaining in him, as will not mixe with ſin, will not incorporate with ſin. The Spirit and the fleſh will not mingle together, but (e) are contrary one to another. Sin and filthineſs is not woven into the texture, frame and conſtitution of a pure heart. Sin may be there: but the heart doth not allow it, is not mingled with it, becauſe its heterogeneal to the purified heart. Thus a pure heart is full of it ſelf, without mixture with ſin. As we call that pure gold, pure honey, pure water, pure ayr, &c. which is full of it ſelf without embaſing mixture. Contrariwiſe an impure heart is like Ezekiels (f) boyling pot, whoſe ſcum boyles into it, is concorporated and mingled with the liquor into one Body and Conſiſtence. 3. That is ſtill ſegregating, purging out, and cleanſing away all the impure reliques of ſin, from the heart and Soul. (g) Every one that hath this hope in himſelf, purifieth himſelf even as he is pure. (h) —— Having therefore theſe promiſes, let us cleanſe our ſelves from all filthineſs of fleſh and ſpirit, &c. Pure mettle ſeparates from the droſs, pure hony works out the waxe and Scum, &c. ſo a pure heart is ſtill working out more and more the dregs, droſs and filth of ſin, though it be ſtill apt to bubble up and riſe there.

(4) Simplicity, or Singleneſs. Απλότης, Απλῶς. This word properly ſignifies, A plainneſs, ingenuity, candor, Singleneſs in a man, without doubting and deceit. A plain-hearted man without guile, an One-hearted man, not involved, not inwrapped with deceit, &c. Hence (i) Euſtath. derives it from (α) which particle ſometimes denotes Oneneſs: and πλέω, ſum, I am. As noting the Oneneſs, and ſingleneſs of ſuch a man. Hereunto ſome allude alſo in the Latin word, quoted / Simplicity

word, Simplex, simplicis, quasi sine plicis, as it were, without pleits or folds, As if it were a Metaphor from garments unfolded and plain, without welt or guard, as we say. Of this Singleness the Scripture often speaks. (k) Our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our Conscience, that (ἐν ἁπλότητι) in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdome, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world. Here Simplicity is opposed to carnal wisdome and policy —— (l) Servants, be obedient to your Masters —— in singleness of heart, as unto Christ. —— (m) not with Eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. Here singleness of heart is opposed to Eye-service and men-pleasing. Those are single-hearted servants, that in their serv ce to their earthly Masters, eye Christ and God, and are obedient as unto them from the heart, without dissimulation. (n) If therefore thine eye be single (Ἁπλοῦς) thy whole body shall be full of light: but if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. Here a single-eye is opposed to an evil eye. Now this Simplicity or Singleness of heart, &c. implyes divers things: viz. 1. Oneness, Unity, or Sameness of the Heart, without Division or Distraction, in reference to its Object. A Single heart hath a single Object, viz. God alone, Christ alone; his will, &c. is fixed and resolved thereupon. As Joshuah; (o) As for me and my house, we will serve the LORD: we are resolved upon it, to have no other God. As David; (p) Whom have I in heaven but thee? And in earth there is none that I can desire with thee. And elsewhere, (q) —— Many say, Who will shew us good? but LORD lift thou up the light of thy Countenance upon us. The world is divided about its chief object, knows not where to pitch: but David and Gods people had fixed their hearts singly upon God alone. A man that's double-hearted, is divided and distracted betwixt divers objects, betwixt God and Mammon, betwixt Christ and the world, betwixt godliness and sin; as a traveller meeting with two ways, and knows not which to take. A double-hearted Servant is divided betwixt his Master and Himself; he would please his Master, and therefore gives him eye-service; he would please himself and his own idleness or unfaithfulness, and therefore gives him no more but eye-service. This is the first thing. 2. Plain-heartedness; without subtilty, carnal policy, fraud, deceit, &c. Thus Paul (r) had his Conversation in the world, in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdome. He did not walk cunningly and craftily, according to Rules of Carnal policy: but singly, plainly, honestly, according to Rules of Christianity. That man that makes his religion subservient to carnal policy, he is not perfect and sincere in Religion.

(s) Sincerity, εἰλικρίνεια; sincere, εἰλικρινὴς. This word is frequently used. As, (t) In simplicity and godly sincerity, —We have had our Conversation in the world. (t) —— Let us keep the Feast, not with old leven, neither with the leven of malice and wickedness: but

This is an excellent and emphatical word; It properly notes ſuch things as will abide tryal by the cleareſt light and brighteſt beams of the Sun. Its derived from εἰλη the brightneſs and ſplendor of the Sun, & κρίνω to diſcern, diſtinguiſh or judge. Some take it to be A Metaphor from the Eagles cuſtom, which uſe, (as Pliny and Ariſtotle report) to bring their young out of the neſt before they be full fledged, holding them forth againſt the bright beams of the Sun. Such as can with open eye endure to look full upon the Sun, they bring up as their own: Such as twinkle at the light, they caſt off as a degenerate brood. Others take it to be a Metaphor From trying of cloth or other wares, whether they be ſound, unmixed and genuine, by the clear light and brightneſs of the Sun. The Engliſh word Sincere, is from the Latine Syncerum, or Sincerum: Of which ſome give the Etymon thus, Sincerum, as it were Sine-cera, without wax; An alluſion to pure honey perfectly ſegregated and clarified from the wax and droſs; Others thus, Syncerum, that is, σὺν & κηρὸς, with the wax, both honey and wax, the whole and entire profit of the Bee; in reference to an entire and perfect performance of a bargain or Contract for that commodity. So that according to the genuine ſenſe and Scripture uſe of the word Sincerity or Sincere, it imports theſe things in an upright man, viz. 1. That he is not leavened with corruption. The (z) old leaven, and the leaven of malice and wickedneſs, are not incorporated and mixed with his ſpirit: Some reliques thereof are there, but he is daily purging out the old leaven, that he may keep the true Paſchal Feaſt of Chriſt under the Goſpel with the unleavened bread of Sincerity. That which is ſincere admits not of embaſing mixture. Sincere honey is not mixed with wax, &c. 2. That his heart and way are in truth ſuch as they ſeem to be, and are not ſophiſticated and varniſhed over with Politick guiſful ſubtile ſpecious pretences. (a) In his ſpirit there is no guile. A Sincere man walks not according to the Dictates of carnal wiſdom. Hence, (b) Sincerity and Truth are linked together, as inſeparable companions. And, (c) Godly Sincerity, is oppoſed to carnal wiſdom. 3. That, He is one that can abide the ſtricteſt tryal. He can endure tryal by the brighteſt Sun-beams; yea he, in point of the truth and ſincerity of his heart, can appeal to God that ſearcheth the reins and hearts, that knows him better then himſelf, becauſe he ſtill ſets himſelf as before the Lord, and in his ſight. (d) But as of ſincerity, but as of God, in the ſight of God, ſpeak we in Chriſt. A ſincere Miniſter preaches incorruptly as in the ſight of God; A ſincere Chriſtian hears, prayes, communicates, gives alms, and endeavours to do all as in the ſight of God. He ſtill approves himſelf to his all-ſeeing eye. Peter ſaid, (e) Lord, thou knoweſt all things, thou knoweſt that that I love thee. As if he had said, Herein I appeal to thy self. David said ; (f) Search me, O God, and know mine heart : try me, and know my thoughts : And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. As if he had said, Lord, I am not conscious to my self that I deal falsely with thee, or allow my self in any sin : but herein I submit my self to thy strictest search and scrutiny, that no evill may be in me, but that I may be led by thee in the way everlasting. But hypocrites cannot endure Gods tryal : they make it their design to set themselves and wayes in mans sight, not in Gods. They are bleer-ey'd : cannot abide this Sun-beams. Their copper-religion will not abide his touch-stone : Their hypocritical paint will not endure his Fullers sope. They are not sincere.

(f) Psal. 139 23, 24.

Thus of the Synonymous expressions in Scripture, for substance explaining this Covenant-Perfection required. We see now whats meant by Perfection, and by Being Perfect.

2, Why Abraham and his Seed are obliged by Gods Covenant thus to be Perfect, comes next to be Considered. And this is upon divers weighty grounds and Reasons. viz. Because, 1. God will not be their Covenant-God, that are not Perfect and upright. 2. Without Covenant-integrity none can be Gods Covenant-people. 3. All acceptable walking before God, according to his Covenant, inseparably and necessarily depends upon Covenant-Integrity. 4. Without Covenant-integrity no saving Covenant-benefits can be accomplished upon any, either in this or in the world to come.

1. Because, God will not be their Covenant-God, who are not Perfect and upright with him. For, 1. God is (g) Perfect and entire : and all his Covenant-people must resemble him in perfection and integrity. If they be not like him herein, how shall they approach so neer unto him? 2. Again, when the Lord becomes our God in Covenant, he becomes (h) our God entirely, not by halfs ; All he is, All he hath, All he can do for us, becomes ours : So when we become his Covenant-people, All we are, all we have, all we can do, all we can endure, must be for God. Herein we must reciprocally answer God. If we become not wholly his people ; but are partly for sin, partly for the world, &c. we indeed become not Gods at all : and God will not be ours at all. 3. Furthermore, Gods Covenant with us, (i) knits, as it were, a Marriage-knot betwixt God and us ; yea it is the very Marriage-knot. If therefore we be not sincere and entire in our love and affection to God, if our hearts are set more, or equally, upon other objects ; if we have other lovers, other Rivals with God ; then our hearts are whorish and adulterous : And God cannot endure to be an Husband to such adultereſs-Souls ; he is a jealous God, he will have the whole heart or none, the chast virgin-love or none. 4. Finally, The Lords eyes are infinitely (k) pure and peircing, (l) He searcheth the reins and hearts, though never so deep and deceitful, he discovers all doubling, disdissembling and hypocrisie therein to the uttermost. And he cannot endure to be a Covenant-God to such as are hypocrites in heart, (m) They are abominable to him. He looks upon them as workers of iniquity: he will never own them, but say; (n) Depart from me ye workers of iniquity, I know you not.

(m) Tit. 1. 16.

(n) Mat. 7. 23.

2. Because, Without Covenant-Integrity none can be Gods Covenant-people. As without integrity he will not be a God to any: no more can any be his Covenant-people. Its altogether impossible. For, 1. Truth and integrity is an inseparable qualification of the Image of God new-created in us. It stands in (o) Righteousness and true Holiness, or Holiness of Truth. A false holiness, a false righteousness, counterfeit graces, will not, cannot make up the new-man; and without this none can have saving interest in the Covenant. 2. Integrity and sincerity is the peculiar distinctive character betwixt the truly godly, and hypocrites. An hypocrite can notably counterfeit all imitable Perfections and Practices of Gods people: but in none of them is he sincere, he is not real but formal in them all. This is the eminent difference. Now an hypocrite cannot be one of Gods Covenant-people in reality, but only in formality.

(o) Ephes. 4. 23, 24.

3. Because, All acceptable Walking before God according to his Covenant doth necessarily and inseparably depend upon Covenant-integrity. Without this integrity its impossible for any to walk before God acceptably as his Covenant requires. To walk before God, is to walk still as in his sight, to set our selves still as in his presence and before his all-seeing eye: Now its only (p) sincerity that enables any so to do. To walk before God, implyes increase and growth, both in the inward Ability for walking, and in the outward exercise of walking with God, as hath been showd: but without integrity and truth of grace, there can be no growth in grace. He that's not First Perfect and entire in Parts; can never be perfect in Degrees. Growth adds not new parts, but only extends or intends the old. He that wants a limb or joynt, or any integral part when he is born, he can never grow it out all his life. Now that all acceptable walking before God, necessarily depends upon this Covenant-integrity, may fully appear upon these four Considerations, viz. That, 1. Most excellent works and services without Integrity are rejected. 2. Most weak and mean Performances with Integrity are accepted. 3. Where Integrity is, all failings and infirmities are graciously passed by and covered. 4. God not only covers, but in due time cures the infirmities and imperfections of the upright.

(p) 2 Cor. 2. 17.

(1) Most excellent works and services without integrity are rejected. God cares not for the most glorious acts of obedience, zeal, or Religion, if they be not crowned with integrity. Jehu was (q) commanded by God to root out all Ahabs idolatrous family, that so God might avenge the blood of all his Prophets and Servants upon Ahab's house, and extirpate the Baalitish idolatry out of

of Israel: Jehu accordingly (r) destroys all Ahabs family, and kils all the Priests of Baal, and utterly destroyed Baal out of Israel with great zeal: for which God (f) rewarded him with the continuance of the kingdom to his children to the fourth Generation. But because Jehu was not upright in all this eminent action, (t) he took not heed to walk in the Law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart; (u) he failed in the true end and manner thereof; In the end, for he rooted not idolatry out, but changed it; he destoyd Baals idolatry, but continued still in Jeroboam's idolatry: In the manner, he in rooting out Ahabs house carryed himself not so much obedientially towards God, as cruelly and self-seekingly towards the establishing of his own throne; Herein he was false-hearted, and therefore God counted him no better then a Murderer in that regard, and threatned to (x) avenge the blood of Jezreel, (that is, the blood of Ahabs family shed in Jezreel) upon the house of Jehu; which after Iehu's fourth Generation was accordingly executed, the Promise being once fulfilled, the threatning next took place upon his House. He did what God required, but not uprightly: therefore God rejected it, threatned it, punished it. (y) Lo how all his Graces are buried in the Grave of an unsound Heart. King Amaziah (z) did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. He did that for Substance and matter which was right, but not with an upright heart: this spoyled all he did. The Scribes and Pharisees a most zealous and religious generation in their way, (a) They prayd much, fasted often, gave much alms, Paid tithe of all that they possessed, abstained from gross notorious offences, &c. yet Christ abhors all their deeds, because done in Hypocrisie. All but magnified dung and gilded rottenness.

(3) Where Integrity is, all failings and infirmities are graciously passed by and covered. Though Gods upright servants have many frailties and weaknesses, and he knows them all, yet he is pleased not to observe them, not to impute them to them, not to upbraid them therewith, &c. but to pass them by, as if there were no such frailties in them: because their hearts are in the main sincere and upright before him. As a loving husband passeth by of course the infirmities of his wife, whom he knows to be upright in her love to him. Or, as a tender father covers the invincible frailties of his children, whom he discerns to be upright in their duty towards him. The very frailties of Gods people are their burdens and afflictions, they fault themselves for them, and are much offended at them: and God layes them not unto their charge. 1. Job in his deep afflictions discovered many infirmities; (k) He cursed the day of his birth, He (l) impatiently wished for Death, He discontentedly (m) expostulated with God, and uttered many passionate and distempered expressions: yet because he (n) was perfect and upright, The Lord passed by all his frailties; made no mention of them; yea commended Job beyond his three friends, (o) saying twice, Ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right as my servant Job hath; (p) Sends them to Job to pray for them, promising to accept him, and at last turned Jobs captivity, and doubled his prosperity. 2. David had many failings; He (q) fained himself mad, before Achish King of Gath; He (r) cut off the skirt of King Sauls Garment in the Cave, for which his heart afterwards presently smote him, for offering though but so small an injury to the Lords anointed; He rashly (s) vowed and resolved to destroy Nabal and his family for their churlish unkindness to him and his servants, though he afterwards blessed God that Abigail prevented him; He (t) distrustfully said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul, though God had already given him many deliverances from Saul and other enemies; He (u) made a false Narrative of his invasions to Achish King of Gath; He (x) resolved unwarrantably to go with his men to battel with King Achish and the Philistines against Israel, (in which battel Saul and Jonathan were slain, and Israel was worsted,) but Gods special Providence sent him back from such an horrid exploit; He (y) took to himself divers wives and Concubines at once, living in Polygamy, though from the beginning it was not so; He (z) was indulgent to Absalom, though he had cruelly murdered his brother Amnon: And when Absalom was slain in his actual rebellion against David, yet he (a) excessively lamented the Death of Absalom; He (b) carnally trusted truſted and gloryed in the arm of fleſh when he commanded Ioab to number the people, for which the plague of peſtilence brake in upon them from the Lord, and ſlew 70000 men; He was (c) ſinfully indulgent to his ſon Adonijah, having not diſpleaſed him at any time, ſaying, why haſt thou done ſo? Theſe, with ſome other failings of David are recorded in Scripture, yet becauſe David was upright-hearted towards God, how are all theſe paſſed by and covered! (d) David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aſide from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, ſave only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. Theſe things (ſaith (e) one) were his ſins, yet his ſincerity was a veil unto them. Becauſe Sincerity was not ſhaken in his other ſins, as in his murther and adultery: God that took ſome ſpecial notice of this laſt, would take none at all of the other. Peter Martyr obſerves here, (f) That God excepts only the matter of Uriah the Hittite, not that in other things he ſinned not, but that this was more enormous and grievous then the reſt. Being not one, but a manifold ſin. Adultery, Murder, betraying of the Army, and in ſome ſort tranſlating of the victory to the Ammonites, &c. met together. In greatneſs this obſcured his other ſins, therefore this only is mentioned. 3. King Aſa was a godly man, yet had divers failings; He (g) took not away the High-places out of Iſrael, (Iſrael is here put for Judah, as ſome are of opinion.) He (h) fooliſhly made a league with Benhadad King of Syria, relying on him rather then on the Lord his God; He being (i) reproved for this by Hanani the Seer, was in a rage with him, and put him in a Priſon-houſe becauſe of this thing; He (k) oppreſſed ſome of the people at the ſame time; And being exceedingly diſeaſed in his feet, he ſought not to the LORD, but to the Phyſitians: Theſe were Aſa's infirmities, yet his integrity of heart covered them all, God accepted his perſon notwithſtanding with this commendation; (l) Nevertheleſs the heart of Aſa was perfect all his dayes. Whereupon (m) one ſaith appoſitely; Lo how all other his infirmities are covered with the mantle of Sincerity. —— Great vertues, not ſweetned with ſincerity, are no Ornament unto us: And great infirmities, not ſoured with hypocriſie, are no great deformities. Thoſe God acknowledges not: Theſe God imputes not.

(4) Finally, The Lord doth not only cover, but in due time cure, the infirmities and imperfections of the upright. He daily ſtrengthens their integrity and other Graces, but weakens their frailties and corruptions. Nathaniel had but a very ſmall knowledge of Chriſt, yet (n) being an Iſraelite indeed, in whom was no guil, Jeſus revealed himſelf not only corporally but ſpiritually to him, promiſing him that he ſhould ſee greater things then yet he had ſeen. The Ethiopian Eunuch (o) reading in his integrity the Holy Scriptures, yet not underſtanding what he read, had Philip the Evangeliſt ſent to him to inſtruct him, and preach Jeſus to him: whereupon he believed, confeſſed Chriſt, was baptized, and went on his way rejoycing.

Cornelius the Centurion (p) being a devout man, fearing God, giving much alms, and praying to God alway, with an upright heart, though he had but small knowledge of Jesus Christ and his ways; was assured by an Angel from Heaven, that his Prayers and Alms were come up for a memorial before God; And the Apostle Peter was sent to him to instruct him in the way of Salvation, and preach Christ unto him and his Family, whereupon the Holy-ghost fell upon them, and they were baptized. David (q) having sincere respect to all Gods Commandments, and keeping them uprightly; was in process of time advanced from the smallest beginnings of Knowledge and Grace, to such perfection therein, that he was (r) wiser then his enemies, had more understanding then all his teachers, yea understood more then the Ancients in the wayes of God. Nicodemus was an upright disciple of Christ, but at first (s) extream weak and ignorant in the mysteries of Christ and salvation, he came to Jesus timorously and secretly by night at first, understood not the Doctrine of Regeneration at all: yet (t) at last was so strengthned and emboldned in his faith, that when Christ was crucified he boldly joyned with Joseph of Arimathea in taking down the body of Jesus, and burying it honourably. Paul promiseth to them (u) that are wise unto that which is good, and simple concerning evill: That the God of peace shall bruise Satan under their feet shortly. They shall in due time have victory over Satan. Our Saviour in the parable (x) promiseth to the upright use of smallest Talents, great advantage and reward: why? Because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten Cities. The Lord (y) will shew himself upright, to them that are upright. Though the upright be in discomforts, weaknesses, fears, dangers, and happily know not what to do: yet to such (z) The LORD God is a Sun and a Shield, (A Sun, to refresh and revive them; A sheild, to protect and defend them:) The LORD will give grace and glory: No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. Thus where uprightness is, by degrees the Lord cures their infirmities, and removes their imperfections: Their little stock of grace and spiritual strength is improved to great advantage, like the Sareptane widows handful of meal in the barrel, and oyl in the cruse. Such singular delight hath the Lord in the integrity of the upright.

4. Because, Without Covenant-integrity, No saving Covenant-benefits can be accomplished upon any, either in this or in the world to come. Some outward benefits and advantages of the Covenant may be conferred even upon hypocrites: as, Incorporation into the visible Body of the Church, Participation of Ordinances, and the visible fellowship of Saints, &c. Ishmael, Jehu, Pharisees, the three bad grounds, &c. were so far priviledged. But without integrity no inward saving Covenant-benefits can be enjoyed: No true Grace, no saving Communion with God; no eternal glory. Without integrity, Faith is no Faith, but a fancy; Love is no love, but carnality of affection; Grace is no grace, but a shadow; Christianity is no Christianity, but hypocrisie. Without truth and sincerity all seeming Graces are but meer vanities, all seeming duties are but dissimulations and deceits. Integrity is so intrinsecal and essential to Christianity, that without it there is no possibility of being a true Christian. (a) The image of God, which makes a man a Christian, principally consists in true Holiness. And (b) without true Holiness now, no man shall ever see the Lord in true celestial happiness in Heaven. As (c) all unclean things, So all Lyars shall be shut out of New Jerusalem: And hypocrites are real and practical Lyars in their whole course; In shew they are Saints, in deed they are Devils. They therefore that would actually share in the saving benefits of the Covenant, must have and act the integrity of the Covenant.

3. Inferences hence resulting are chiefly these three, viz. 1. All such as are truly perfect and sincere before God, are qualified according to the Covenant of God, to be Covenanters with God. 2. No dissembling Hypocrites, devoid of this Covenant-integrity, can walk in Covenant-duty, or be in Covenant-state. 3. All such as would approve themselves the true Seed of Abraham, and Covenant-people of God, They must be fœderally perfect before God, both in Heart and Way, in Constitution and Conversation.

1. All such as are truly perfect and sincere before God, are Qualified according to the Covenant of God, to be Covenanters with God. Such are Gods true Covenant-people indeed: Such he will own, and accept, and delight in as his. Such walk before him aright. Such shall enjoy all Gods Covenanted benefits, before mentioned, nothing shall be too dear for them; The Lord himself will be their Shield, their Reward, their God, and consequently their All. For, he in order to his Covenant requires them to be perfect: and they accordingly are perfect and sincere. Oh what a Spring of Consolation may this be to all the upright!

But who are those that are Perfect and sincere before God? And, How shall a man know whether he be thus fœderally Perfect?

By these Characters and Notes of integrity, (besides those already mentioned,) viz.

(1) By the inward frame and Constitution of the Heart. An upright man hath a sincere, upright, and perfect frame of Heart. His Principles and inward disposition are upright: he is right within. This is his fundamental integrity; whence all other integrity flows. The (d) Israel of God are of a clean heart; Heb. clean of Heart; cleansed and purified, and purifying themselves from Sin and filthiness. Hezekiah styles it; (e) An Entire, or Perfect heart. David calls it, (f) Truth in the inwards: And prays; Create in me a clean heart, heart, O God, and renew a right Spirit (or a constant Spirit) within me. The (g) Blessed man, whom God justifieth and pardoneth, is one, in whose Spirit there is no guil. As Nathaniel (h) was an Israelite indeed, in whom was no guil. There may be sin and infirmity in them; but there is no guil, no subtil, crafty, deceitful principles in them in the point of Religion. Our Saviour styles it, (i) An Honest and good heart. He that hath such an inward, upright frame of Soul, he is an upright man. This upright frame of Heart doth especially import these things to us, viz. 1. Truth of grace infused into the heart. The New man consists (k) in true Holiness; not in fained, false, counterfeit Holiness. In the (l) power of Godliness, not in the form. When this power of godliness, this true holiness is instilled into the heart, there's truth in the inwards, there's a true and sincere heart in the inward frame of it. 2. Entireness and integrall perfectness of grace in the heart. Where true grace is wrought, there all the Parts, Principles, lineaments and habits of grace are in some measure drawn in the Soul. There's a (m) new man there, which consists in knowledge, righteousness, and true holiness. And these comprehend all the integral parts of Grace, as Faith, Love, Patience, &c. It cannot be a New man, unless it have all the integral parts of a New man. The upright heart hath something of every grace, though none perfect. Yea, (n) the whole Soul in Every faculty and affection, is sanctified and renewed in part: the mind enlightened, the conscience purged from dead works, the will rectified, the affections spiritualized, &c. An hypocrite hath not this inward intireness of Sanctification: He hath some graces, not all; and those but in some faculties, not in every one; and therefore he hath none in truth. 3. Cleanness and (o) pureness of Heart. Where habits of true Holiness are infused, they purifie the heart from inherent filth of sin: so that though some sin be there, yet the heart doth not mingle and incorporate with it, it (p) regards it not, it (q) allows it not, but hates it, (r) resists it, and fights against it, that by degrees it may work it out more and more. 4. Singleness (s) of heart. When the heart is even, plain, open, cleer, ingenuous, &c. without doubling, dissembling, carnal craftiness, &c. When it is not divided about its object, but pitcheth upon its right object singly, aiming at it with a single eye, with a single carriage and tendency thereunto: and in a word, when it acts singly in all its inclinations and motions, from right grounds, and to right ends.

(2) By Antipathy opposition and Contrariety to Sin. An upright man is an adversary to iniquity: He hates it, shuns it, sets himself against it, both in heart and practise, in himself and others. Job is said to be (t) perfect and upright, one that feared God, and eschewed evil: his uprightness evidenced it self in eschewing Evil. David opposeth uprightness of heart to turning aside to crooked wayes; (u) Do good, O LORD, to those that are good, to those those that are upright in their hearts. As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, &c. The upright turn not aside to crooked ways, but turn from them. (x) He that walketh in his integrity, is opposed to him that is perverse in his lips: An upright man avoyds perverse and sinful speeches. Now an upright man manifests his enmity and opposition to sin divers ways. 1. He is offended at Sin, both in himself, and (y) in all; yea, he hates it in those that stand in neerest natural relation to him. Upright Asa (z) could not endure Idolatry in his mother Maachah, but destroyed her idol, and removed her from being Queen, because of her idolatry. Upright Job (a) was jealous of his Childrens sinning against God, therefore he often sanctified them, and offered burnt-offerings for them. 2. He declines and shuns all iniquity in the intent and purpose of his heart: yea, even such as he may more peculiarly style his own, by reason of temptation or inclination to them. David having said, (b) Blessed are the perfect in the way, —— that seek him with the whole heart: he discovers these perfect ones by this note; They also do no iniquity, or Surely they do no iniquity. And elsewhere he thus evidenceth his own uprightness; (c) I was also upright before him, and I kept my self from mine iniquity. Even from my sin, that hath most pleased me, or hath been most profitable to me, or whereunto I have been most tempted, or most strongly enclined, by reason of my natural constitution, or outward condition, or wherewith I have formerly been most overtaken: yet I have approved my self herein upright before God, that I have kept my self from this my iniquity. Herein contrariwise Jehu failed; (d) he could destroy Baal, but not the two Calves, though all were idols: Why? because he feared it might indanger his Kingdome, to let Israel go to worship at Jerusalem; perhaps then Israel might revolt to their ancient Crown of Judah. Herein his heart was rotten. A sincere heart will set against sin, though profitable and advantagious; yea, when vice is like to be the gainer, and vertue the loser. 3. He desires that his heart and spirit may be fitted to the uttermost, that no iniquity may lurk there, but all may be removed thence. (e) Search me, O God, (said upright-hearted David) and know my heart; try me, and know my thoughts. And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting. 4. He (if at any time sin overtake him) is exceedingly heart-smitten for his iniquity, and humbles himself deeply for his miscarriages. When sincere David (f) had numbred the people, his heart smot him for his pride and carnal confidence in the arm of flesh. When (g) he had grosly failed in the matter of Uriah, how bitterly did he lament his sins, and how earnestly did he beg for purity and uprightness! When upright Hezekiah's heart (h) had been lifted up, &c. he for that pride and unthankfulness did humble himself afterwards before the Lord. And when true-hearted Peter (i) had thrice denyed his Lord Christ, whom he dearly and sincerely sincerely loved, he quickly upon sight of his error went out and wept bitterly.

(3) By doing and pursuing of that which is truly Good. An upright man doth not only eschew evil, but pursue good; not only fly vice, but follow vertue. David (k) describes them that are perfect in the way, by both these: 1. They do no iniquity; there's their eschewing of evil. 2. They walk in the Law of the LORD, They keep his Testimonies, They seek him with the whole heart, They walk in his ways: there's their doing of good. Thus Hezekiah pleads his integrity before God; (l) Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. His doing that which is good in Gods sight, is urged as an argument of his integrity. But because an Hypocrite may do that which is good for Matter and Substance, as did Jehu, Pharisees, the three bad grounds, &c. It will be requisite more accurately to delineate the well-doing of the upright, and wherein the sincerity thereof discovers it self. Take it in these few particulars.

(k) Psal. 119. 1,2,3.

(l) Isa. 38.3.

First, An upright man in all his well-doing hath a Special and principall eye to his God: He doth all, as Of God, Before God, and For or to God: Of God, as the Author; Before God, as the Witness; and To God, as the Object and End of his actions and undertakings. 1. He doth all as of God, the Author and Commander of his actions. The author also and fountain of all abilities for such actions. He desires to look up to God commanding him what to do, and giving him Commission thereunto, that he may not act without warrant: and he looks up to God Enabling, for ability, strength, assistance, &c. in doing what is commanded. God is the Spring, and great wheel, and the first mover of all his actions. If God Command, if God Enable, he can do any thing: otherwise he can do nothing. Thus Paul cleers his integrity in preaching, that he spake nothing but what was from God, and from his Commission; he did not sophisticate, blend, or mingle the Word with any vanities of his own, as crafty Merchants or Vintners corrupt wine with water, &c. (m) For we are not as many which corrupt the Word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, — speak we in Christ. So in other things, an upright man loves to see his authority and warrant from God for his actions: and when he sees God going before, he can cheerfully follow after. 2. He doth all his works as before God, in his sight, in his presence, as an All-seeing witness and judge of his actions and intentions, who searcheth the reins and heart. He sets himself still as in his presence, and approves himself to him above all. Thus, (n) Noah was an upright man, and he walked with God. His course was still in Gods presence, this was his integrity. So God said to Abraham, (o) Walk before me, and be perfect. As if he had said, set thy self and actions as still in my sight and presence, and then thou canst not chuse but be perfect

(n) Gen. 6.9.

(o) Gen. 17.1.

perfect therein. Thus Paul; (p) But as of ſincerity, but as of God, in the ſight of God, ſpeak we in Chriſt. An hypocrite hath enough if he can approve himſelf to the eye of man: A ſincere heart chiefly approves his ways to the eye of God. 3. He doth all his works to God, as the chief Object and End of his Obedience and actions. In his duties he aims at the fulfilling of his Command and pleaſing him eſpecially thereby; yea though they be works of righteouſneſs that more immediately concern man, yet he looks beyond man, to God, to Chriſt, and doth duty chiefly with reſpect to him. Thus Paul requires ſervants to ſhow their integrity in their ſervice, by ſo ſerving their Maſters, as if they were ſerving Chriſt; (q) Servants, be obedient to them that are your Maſters according to the fleſh, with fear and trembling, in ſingleneſs of your heart, as unto Chriſt. (r) —— Not with eye-ſervice as men-pleaſers, but in ſingleneſs of heart, fearing God: and whatſoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men: —— for ye ſerve the Lord Chriſt. And he chiefly aims at honouring and exalting God, not at his own praiſe and glory among men: knowing that if he can uprightly pleaſe the Lord, The Lord himſelf will honour him, and (s) of free grace reward him, more then all the men in the world can.

Secondly, An upright man hath univerſal reſpect to Gods whole Word, and to all his Commandements, as the full and adequate Rule of his well-doing. Though he may fail and come ſhort in many things, yet the bent, propenſity and inclination of his Soul is to all. Herein David diſcovered his uprightneſs, ſaying: (t) The LORD rewarded me according to my righteouſneſs, according to the cleanneſs of my hands hath he recompenſed me. For I have kept the wayes of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his judgements were before me: and as for his ſtatutes, I did not depart from them. I was alſo upright before him, and have kept my ſelf from mine iniquity. And elſewhere, having deſcribed the bleſſedneſs and properties of the upright, he ſaith, (u) Then ſhall I not be aſhamed, when I have reſpect to all thy commandements. Hypocriſie in picking and chuſing, indenting, reſerving, excepting, &c. makes aſhamed: but integrity makes not aſhamed. To this effect David prayes that Solomon his ſon might have a perfect heart in univerſality of Obedience; (x) Give unto Solomon my ſon a perfect heart to keep thy commandements, thy teſtimonies, and thy ſtatutes, and to do all theſe things. In this Calebs integrity was conſpicuous, that he (y) followed the LORD fully. Heb. he fulfilled after the LORD. An upright man is an univerſal man, a thorough-paced man. His obedience is extended to the compaſs of all Gods Laws, in the purpoſe of his heart.

Thirdly, An upright man is diſpoſed to univerſal obedience and ſervice of God, though it be to his greateſt coſt, charge or hazzard. Though he muſt part with much, and ſuffer much for God and Chriſt, yet he is ready to put all to the hazzard. David prayd (z) that Solomons heart might be perfect, in being willing to be at all the coſt that was requiſite for the Temple, the place of Gods publike worſhip. To part with ſo much wealth for that end, was a great tryal of his integrity. Our Saviour tels the young man, (a) if he will be perfect, he muſt ſell all, give to the poor, take up his croſs and follow him. This Command Chriſt gave him, to try his integrity: he, not obeying, detected his hypocriſie.

(a) Mat. 19.21 Mar. 10.21.

Fourthly, An upright man preſſeth after gradual perfection more and more. As Paul (b) preſſed towards the mark, for the prize of the high Calling, &c. and he adds; Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded. Intimating that ſuch as are perfect, will contend after more and more perfection. Integrity is growing, and aſpires after compleatneſs.

(b) Phil. 3.13, 14, 15.

Fifthly, A Perfect and upright man is Conſtant in well doing. 1. In all places, at home and abroad, in publike and private, in ſociety and ſolitarineſs, becauſe the preſence and all-ſeeing eye of God is everywhere; as Paul, (c) He had his converſation in ſimplicity and godly ſincerity in the world, and among the Corinthians. As David, (d) I will behave my ſelf wiſely in a perfect way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my Houſe with a perfect heart. 2. In all conditions, proſperous and adverſe, &c. Job (e) was not only upright in his flouriſhing condition, when he Received good from the Lord: but alſo in his fading Condition, when he received evill from the Lord. He conformed himſelf to both, he bleſſed God in both, perſiſted in his integrity in both. His wealth and health were gone: but his integrity ſtill remained. Joſeph (f) was upright in Potiphers houſe, in Priſon, and when he became the Ruler of Egypt. David upright in his private Capacity, upright in King Sauls houſe, and upright in his Kingdom. 3. At all times. (g) Aſa's heart was perfect all his days. He had his actual failings: but his habitual integrity covered all. (h) David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and turned not aſide from any thing that he commanded him all the days of his life, ſave only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. He had many infirmities, and ſome groſs miſcarriages, as hath been noted: yet becauſe his heart in the main was ſound and upright with God, all his other Errours are paſſed by in ſilence, except that deliberate and complicated Sin in the matter of Uriah, which above all other did dangerouſly ſhake his integrity. Job (i) perſiſted ſtill in his integrity, in bleſſing and juſtifying God, not only before, but under his many ſevere afflictions: and at laſt (k) humbled himſelf for his diſtempered paſſions and expreſſions. Noah (l) was an upright man, and he walked with God. This was his habitual and conſtant courſe: ſuch was his integrity. Thus an upright man is not for moods, fits, ſpurts, flaſhes, &c. but he is conſtant, fixed, habitual and immovable in well-doing.

(l) Gen. 6.9.

(4) By certain eminent Companions of integrity. An upright man hath indeed the Principles and Habits of all Graces in himſelf: but among among them there are some more noted Associates of uprightness then others; by which his integrity may be discovered. As, 1. Conscientiousness, 2. Faith, 3. Love, 4. Fear, 5. Willing-heartedness.

Conscientiousness in heart and way. A Good Conscience is the Companion of a Pure heart. (m) Now the end of the commandement is Love, out of a Pure heart, and a Good Conscience, and Faith unfeigned. Paul avouching his integrity, said, (n) Men and brethren, I have lived in all good Conscience, before God, untill this day. The Conscientiousness of his life and Course is here described, By the sincerity of it, it was before God, as in his sight and presence; By the universality or Entireness of it, In all good Conscience; By the Permanency of it, untill this day. And what he means by this good Conscience, he afterwards explains; (o) And herein do I exercise my self to have alwayes a Conscience void of offence towards God and towards men. So that, An inoffensive Conscience towards God and men alwayes, thats a good Conscience indeed. When Conscience, guided by Gods Word and Spirit, hath nothing against a man, whereupon it may justly condemn him for corrupt dealing or falsehood of carriage towards God and man, then it is without offence.

(m) 1 Tim. 1.5.

(n) Act. 23.1.

(o) Act. 24.16.

Faith unfeigned. This also accompanies (p) a Pure Heart and good Conscience; yea Faith unfeigned hath a peculiar prerogative in (q) purifying of the heart; and that, 1 Instrumentally, by applying Christs sin-cleansing and heart-washing blood; 2 Formally, as being part of that infused purity of Sanctification, and indeed the (r) Leading grace, the Captain-grace to all the rest. Feigned Counterfeit Faith still leaves a man in his carnal and hypocritical state, as (s) Simon Magus.

(p) 1 Tim. 1.5.

(q) Act. 15.9.

(r) 2 Pet. 1.5, 6, 7.

(s) Act. 8. 13, 23.

Love. This Grace (t) flows from A pure heart, good Conscience, and Faith unfeigned; where these go before, Love inseparably comes after. A man cannot be purified in heart and truly believe in God and Jesus Christ, but (u) he must needs love God and Jesus Christ, his members, his ordinances, &c. This spiritual looking breeds liking and loving. (x) The upright love thee, saith the Church to Christ: And, The virgins love thee. Pure, chaste, undefiled Souls, that are not contaminated with adulterous affections to other objects, inconsistent with Christ, these sincerely love Christ. Their love is rooted in their uprightness.

(t) 1 Tim. 1. 5.

(u) 1 Pet. 1.7, 8, 9.

(x) Cant. 1.3, 4.

The fear of the Lord. This also accompanies uprightness. (y) He that walketh in his uprightness, feareth the LORD. Iob is described to be a man (z) perfect and upright, one that feared God, and eschewed evil. An upright heart towards God hath a reverential childlike awe of God imprinted in it, whereby it is exceedingly afraid to offend or displease him, and is obediently inclined to please him in all things. This filial fear dwels upon the heart habitually, reigns and rules therein powerfully, fortifies it against all the ſtrongeſt temptations wonderfully is an effectual antidote and preſervative againſt evil, and continual incitement unto all good, both in publike and in ſecret. (a) The fear of the LORD is to hate evil. And, (b) by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil. And on the other hand, (c) Fear God, and keep his Commandments. The fear of God puts upon keeping his Commandments.

(y) Prov. 14.2.

(z) Job. 1.1.

(a) Prov. 8. 13.
(b) Prov. 16. 6.
(c) Eccl. 12. 13.

Willing-heartedneſs towards God and his ways. The perfect heart with God, is a willing heart towards God. It acts not perforce, by conſtraint, grudgingly, murmuringly, &c. but ſpontaneouſly, freely, willingly, readily, cheerfully, &c. in the ſervice of the Lord. Gods upright people, (d) are a willing people. David intimates this to Solomon; (e) And thou Solomon my Son, know thou the God of thy Father, and ſerve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind.

(d) Pſa. 110. 3.
(e) 1 Chr. 28. 9.

By theſe things we may try and diſcover the truth and integrity of our ſpirits and ways: which Qualifies us for God, as his people, according to his Covenant.

2. No diſſembling Hypocrites, devoid of this Covenant-integrity, can walk in Covenant-duty before God, or be in Covenant-ſtate with God. All Gods Covenant-people muſt be perſons of integrity: therefore Gods Covenant rejects and abhors hypocriſie. Hypocrites have no ſaving part or lot therein. They may perhaps enjoy and glory in ſome externals of the Covenant: but can have no inward ſaving ſtate therein, nor can acceptably walk with God according to it. For, God will not be their God, They cannot be his people, They can do nothing fully acceptable to him in Chriſt; Nor can they enjoy any ſaving benefit of the Covenant in this or the world to come: as hath been ſhew'd at large.

There are many ſorts of Hypocrites, eſpecially theſe three; 1. Groſs hypocrites, which ſo groſly and notoriouſly diſſemble with God, that their Hypocriſie is plainly obvious to the eye of the world, to the apprehenſive eye of others. As, Ahab, (f) who humbled himſelf in Sackcloth, yet perſiſted in his Baaliſh idolatry, and other wickedneſs. Jehu (g) who pretended zeal for the Lord of hoſts, in deſtroying Ahab's idolatrous family: but continued ſtill in Jeroboam's Idolatry with the two Calves. Herod (h) who heard John Baptiſt gladly, and did many things: but ſtill lived inceſtuouſly with Herodias his brother Philip's Wife. And ſuch are all profeſſed Chriſtians, who live in open and groſs ſcandals. 2. Cloſe Hypocrites, who diſſemble more cunningly, ſo as to blear the eye of the world, and to deceive men; but yet they in their own Conſciences know themſelves to be falſe-hearted hypocrites and diſſemblers. Moſt of the Scribes and Phariſees were ſuch. Moſt of the Romiſh Prieſts and Jeſuites are ſuch. Many ſuch ſelf-condemned wretches are within the viſible Church. Judas was queſtionleſs, ſtionleſs ſuch an one. 3. Formal Hypocrites, the (i) temporary believers, ſtony-grounded hearers, that are qualified with many perfections of common grace, having great reſemblance with peculiar ſaving grace theſe, go beyond both the former, and think themſelves to be alive, when indeed they are dead; think themſelves to be ſincere, when they are falſe-hearted. Theſe deceive themſelves, their hypocriſie is ſpun of ſuch an extreme fine thred: but God knows their hearts, him they cannot deceive. Theſe come neereſt Heaven, but yet ſhall never enter. Now all theſe are ſtrangers to Covenant-integrity, and conſequently to all ſaving Covenant-ſtate, and to all acceptable Covenant-duty,

(i) Luk. 8. 13. Mat. 13. 20, 21.

Characters or Notes of Hypocriſie may be many. Take theſe eſpecially: viz. In regard of, 1. Their inward frame of heart. 2. Their eſchewing of evil. 3. Their doing of good. In all which Hypocrites do notably diſcover their great unſoundneſs.

In the inward frame and temper of the heart. For,

(1) An hypocrite hath not the Entireneſs of Gods image created in him. The (k) entire and compleat image of God conſiſts in Knowledge, Holineſs, and Righteouſneſs. An hypocrite is ſtill defective in ſome of theſe, or in ſome branches of theſe. He may have Knowledge, be illuminated in ſome ſort: and yet want righteouſneſs. The Phariſees knew much: but were full of unrighteouſneſs, oppreſſion, extortion, covetouſneſs, devoured Widows houſes. Judas enlightened: but a thief, an unrighteous villain to his Lord and Maſter. He may have in ſome ſort Knowledge and Righteouſneſs, and yet want Holineſs: being without Faith, Repentance, Self-denyal, Humility, &c. The Phariſees had knowing heads, and ſome common principles of Equity and righteouſneſs to man, but their hearts were ſtill rotten and corrupt before God, like opened graves, full of filthineſs. Like the Egyptian Temples, having fair frontiſpieces, but within nothing but filthy Cats, Crocodiles, &c. worſhipped, inſtead of Deities. The whole heart is not ſeaſoned with grace, but only ſome part. Nor have they the whole New man created in them in all its integral parts, but only ſome imperfect limbs and parcels thereof.

(k) Col. 3. 10. Eph. 4. 24.

(2) An Hypocrite hath not the truth of Gods image in any grace enjoyed. He wants many things, and hath not the truth of any thing. Gods (m) image ſtands in true Holineſs. But all he hath is falſe, feigned, counterfeit holineſs. Counterfeit faith, but for a time: Counterfeit love, in word and tongue only, not in deed and truth: Counterfeit repentance, like Ahab's; Counterfeit zeal, like Jehu's: Counterfeit joys and feelings, like thoſe of the ſtony-ground-hearer: All counterfeit, copper work. Like a rotten ſtick, painted over: or like copper coyn, gilded or ſilver'd over: or like a feſtering ſore, a canker, skinned over.

(l) Heb. 6. 4. (m) Eph. 4. 24.

(3) An Hypocrite overvalues himſelf, undervalues others. The Phariſee in the Parable ſaid, (n) God I thank thee, I am not as other

(n) Luk. 18. 9, 10, 11.

other men are, Extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this Publican. He trusted in himself, that he was righteous, and despised others. This was his hypocrisie and pride. An hypocrite is full of pride, self-conceit, self-attributions, self-admiration, &c. he is blown up with excessive high thoughts of his own worth and excellency, beyond others. Come not neer, for I am holier then thou. He looks at himself through a Multiplying-glass. His mole-hils are mountains, others mountains are scarce mole-hils. But an upright Soul hath mean, humble, low thoughts of himself, but hath high esteem of others. Sincere Paul said of himself, (o) I am less then the least of all Saints, (p) I am chief of Sinners.

(o) Eph. 3. 8.
(p) 1 Tim. 1. 15.

In the eschewing and hating of evil. For,

(1) An hypocrites hatred or eschewing of Sin is not general and universal. Some sins, yea many gross corruptions, he may avoyd, as (q) did the Pharisee; He may (r) through the knowledge of Christ escape the pollutions of the world, yea, he may become inoffensive to the view of man, as Paul, while he was a carnal hypocritical Pharisee, was (s) touching the Law blameless: But notwithstanding the Hypocrite doth still allow himself in some beloved and profitable Sin or other, wherein he must have elbow-room and liberty reserved. (t) Jehu departed from Ahab's idolatry in Baal: but he departed not from Jeroboam's idolatry in the two Calves. Herod (u) still allow'd himself in his incest with Herodias: Judas forbore all scandalous courses, but yet (x) nourished in his bosom that secret viper of Covetousness, which was his ruine. Simon Magus could lay aside his witchcraft, but (y) not his wretched worldliness and dishonest gain. The Pharisees (z) could walk without gross offensiveness in many things: but inwardly they were full of covetousness and filthy excess. Saul, while a Pharisaical hypocrite, could be (a) blameless touching the Law, but yet was in his blind zeal and malice (b) a persecuter, and a blasphemer, and injurious against Christ and his members, contrary to the Gospel. An upright man declines from all sin: but an Hypocrite hath still his reserve for some darling bosom sin or other. He forsakes no sin at all aright, because of its sinfulness: for then he would eschew every Sin, one as well an another.

(2) An hypocrite is wont to make a great Scruple at smaller sins, and yet readily to swallow down greater, without any quitch or remorse of Conscience. This argues notorious dissimulation indeed. The Pharisees were notorious in this point of hypocrisie; (c) They strained at a gnat, but swallowed a Camel. (d) They would not swear by the gold of the Temple, which was lesser: but would swear by the Temple it self which sanctified the gold, which was greater, and counted it nothing. They could without scruple swear by the Altar, which was greater; but made it an hainous matter to swear by the gift thereupon, sanctified by the Altar, which was less. They (e) would not omit payment of small, petty, trifling tithes, as of Mint, Annise,

(e) Mat. 23. 23.

Anniſe, Cummin, &c. but they omitted the weightier matters of the Law, judgement, mercy, and faith. They (f) would by no means eat in veſſels unpurified, but made a great ſtir in waſhing of cups, and pots, and veſſels, which our Saviour cals their (g) making clean of the outſide of the cup and platter: but the meats which they did eat in thoſe veſſels were defiled notoriouſly with oppreſsion and injuſtice in their getting of them, and with riot, intemperance, and exceſs in their uſing of them. Hence our Saviour ſaith, that (h) within they were full of extortion and exceſs. They (i) made a great ſcruple of coming into the Judgment-Hall on the Preparation-day before the Paſſover, leſt they ſhould be defiled thereby, and ſo be rendred incapable of eating the Paſſover; but they made no ſcruple at all of their cruel perſecuting and murdering of the ſpotleſs Son of God, by unjuſt accuſation and condemnation in the Judgement-Hall. They (k) made great ſcruple of puting Iudas his thirty pieces, which he brought back again, into the Temple-Treaſury, becauſe they were the price of blood, but they made no bones of contracting the guilt of Chriſts blood upon their own ſouls, which ſhould have been the Temples of the Holy-Ghoſt. Whereupon ſaid Auguſtin, (l) What a counterfeiting of innocency was this, not to ſuffer the Price of blood to lie in a cheſt, and yet to permit blood it ſelf to lie in the Conſcience? The (m) Prieſt and Levite ſeeing the wounded man lie half-dead, went on the other ſide of the way, leſt they ſhould contract Legal uncleanneſs; but were not troubled at all to paſs by their extreamly diſtreſſed neighbour, without the leaſt bowels of mercy and compaſſion. Hypocritical King Saul (n) made it a horrid matter to eat the fleſh of beaſts with the blood; but made it a matter of nothing to ſhed the blood of Jonathan his own Son, far better then himſelf, had not the people hindred him. Oh how notorious and abominable are ſuch hypocritical diſſimulations!

(3) An Hypocrite is wont to be more ſevere againſt others ſins, then againſt his own. The Phariſees (o) were ſo quick-ſighted towards others failings, that they could not endure to ſee a mote in their Brothers eye; but they were ſo dul-ſighted towards their own failings, that they could not ſee a beam in their own eyes. This our Saviour charges cloſe upon them as their Hypocriſie. They (p) brought an adulterous woman to Chriſt, taken in the act, declaring their opinion, that according to Moſes Law, ſhe was to be ſtoned to death; but they laid not to heart at all their own manifold guiltyneſſes in other reſpects, till Chriſt convicted them by the guilt of their Conſciences. Judah (q) hearing of Thamar's whoredome, (whom himſelf had defiled, ſuppoſing her to have been a common Harlot) adjudges her ſeverely to be burnt; but paſſes no ſentence upon himſelf, that was deeper in that wickedneſs then ſhe, and the cauſe of it. Herein he diſcovered too much partiality and hypocriſie. David himſelf (r) did herein bewray too much hypocriſie, in in that he lay a great while in his gross sins, about the matter of Uriah, never judging himself for them in the sight of God; and yet he could pass a severe sentence of Death for the same sin related as in the person of another in Nathan's parable. Though David was an upright man, yet this was far from an upright action. As it was noted of Anthony, that (e) he hated a tyrant, but not tyrannie it self: So it may be said of an Hypocrite that he rather hates Sinners, then sins. As Jehu hated Ahab the idolater, but not Ahab's idolatry: for then he would have hated Jeroboam's idolatry as well as Ahabs, one Idolatry as well as another. He that hates one Toad or Serpent, because such, hates every Toad, every Serpent. He that hates one sin, because sin, hates every sin in himself, or others. Yea most of all he hates his own sins, as Paul, (f) I am chief of Sinners: and casts the first stone at himself with greatest severity.

(e) Odio habuit tyrannum non tyrannydem.

(f) 1 Tim. 1. 15.

(4) An Hypocrite is not content in eschewing of evill. After (g) he hath escaped the pollutions of the world, he is again intangled therein, and overcome. So that, The dog is turned to his own vomit again, and the sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire. All hypocrites are Apostatical. If the (h) unclean Spirit be cast out in any measure, yet will he return again with seven worse spirits, and re-enter the hypocritical heart, and the latter end of such an one shall be worse then his beginning. As a Wolf or Tyger, if you knock out their teeth, pair their nails, chain them up, &c. for the while they will forbear ravening; but set them at liberty, they will raven still; their ravening Nature was not changed, but only chained up: So hypocrites are not changed, but chained up; not renewed, but only restrained; and therefore sooner or later they will return to their corrupt bias, retaining still their old corrupt Natures and principles.

(h) Mat. 12. 43, 44, 45.

In the doing of good, Hypocrites notably bewray their Hypocrisie. For,

(1) An Hypocrites doing of good is not from a right Principle, is not well-grounded. The right Principle and ground of all Well-doing, (i) is that Holy New-Creation in Jesus Christ; and therein, (k) sincere love, out of a pure heart, good Conscience, and Faith unfeigned. Without these supernatural sanctifying Principles no actions can be truly acceptable to God. An Hypocrite is destitute of all these principles: and therefore can ground none of his actions thereupon, but upon false and insufficient foundations. As 1. Upon meer Light of Nature, and convictions of the natural Conscience. An Hypocrite in the Church may hence do many things. For, even (l) Pagans themselves, from light of Nature, and imperfect fragments of the Law remaining in their hearts, may do by nature many things contained in the Law. This is a false Principle, Nature, not Grace. 2. Upon Customary Education. Paul (m) was educated and trained up in Pharisaism, and thereupon did many things, and and seemed to be furnished with much legal righteousness: but at last when Jesus Christ revealed himself effectually in him, he saw that all was but loss and dung. Many that have been religiously educated, do exercise themselves accordingly in religious duties and courses: and yet remain destitute of true saving grace, and at last most shamefully fall away. 3. Upon Common gifts unsanctified, whether Ordinary, or Extraordinary: As the gifts of Knowledge, of Utterance, of Preaching, of Praying, of Tongues, of Miracles, &c. upon, and from these gifts many good-works may be done, yet not acceptable before God: because they flow not from special Graces, but from common gifts. Judas doubtless upon this account did preach, pray, do miracles, give alms, &c. otherwise the Apostles would have suspected him before the last Passover. (n) Many at the day of judgement shall plead their good deeds arising only from gifts: but Christ will then reject them, as workers of iniquity. A temporary Faith will carry a man very far, being attended with divers other gifts and endowments of formal Hypocrites: but all's from a rotten root, and will vanish away. 4. Upon slavish fear. Thus, (o) when God sent Lyons among the Samaritans, they feared the Lord, and did some things thereupon: but feignedly. So (p) when in Mordecaies days, the Jews got the upper hand of their adversaries, many of the people became Jews, embraced the Jewish Religion: for, the fear of the Jews fell upon them. The fear of Superiours, fear of punishment, fear of publike shame, yea slavish fear of Hell, may put many upon doing that which is good and religious: and yet all in dissimulation, for want of better Principles.

(2) An Hypocrites doing Good is not universal, with respect to all Gods Commandments and wayes, but limited, reserved, and under such and such restrictions. Sometimes he will seem very pious towards God according to the first Table, but yet walk very unrighteously towards men contrary to the second Table. Sometimes he will seem very careful of righteousness towards men; but wholly remain careless of religion towards God. The (q) Pharisees are notable instances in both cases: They taught men to offer liberally to their Corban, though to the neglect of maintaining their own Father and Mother in necessity; They would make long prayers, but devoured widows Houses; They would give much alms, but made void the Law of God by their Traditions, &c. Sometimes Hypocrites will do the lesser, but neglect the greater duty; Or do the greater, neglecting the lesser; Or do one thing, but neglect another. They (r) would love their neighbour, but hate their enemy. They (s) would be very careful to maintain legal and ceremonial purity: but neglected the weighty things of the Law, Judgement, Mercy, Faith. Herod (t) did many things: not all, that John Baptist required of him. Joas did much: but (u) follow'd not the Lord fully and perfectly. King Saul (x) destroy'd the Amalekites, did part of that which was commanded him: but not every thing which was enjoyned him, for he spared King Agag, and the fat of the Cattell. King Agrippa (y) became almost, but not altogether a Christian. The Hypocrite hath still reserves, indentings, omissions, partiality in his obedience.

(y) Act. 26. 28.

(3) An Hypocrites doing of good is for false Ends. Not purely for Gods glory, and his own Salvation, &c. but for low, mean, base, fordid ends, as power, profit, credit, honour, praise of men, popular applause, &c. Jehu did all his service to God and his commands, principally to serve his own turn, and establish his throne. Judas followed Christ, for the bag. Many carnal Hearers followed Christ, not for his Doctrine and Miracles: but (z) because they did eat of his loaves and were filled. The Pharisees (a) did all their works to be seen of men, to be cry'd up and applauded by the people for piety, charity, &c.

(z) Joh. 6. 26.
(a) Mat. 6. 1, 2, &c.

(4) An Hypocrites doing of good is not constant, and lasting; but at last vanishing and coming to naught. All his motions in well-doing are (b) forced and violent, not from a true inward principle, therefore are not lasting. As an arrow or stone may be violently cast up towards heaven by outward force, but by its inward principle of weight it will fall down again to the Earth. The (c) Faith of the stony-ground Hearers lasts but for a time, and in time of persecution and affliction for the Gospel it vanisheth away. (d) The House built upon the Earth or Sand without a firm foundation, when winds and waves beat upon it, fell, and the fall thereof was great. Judas at last discovered his rotten and treacherous heart towards Jesus Christ. Hymeneus and Alexander at last (e) made shipwrack of Faith and a good Conscience: and grew so incorrigible, that Paul delivered them to Satan, that they might learn not to blaspheme. Fixed stars will remain: but comets and blazing stars will at last vanish away. True gold will abide the fire, and become purer: but dross will be burnt up and consumed. The Natural colour and complexion will abide: when artificial paint will wash away.

(b) Nullum violentum perpetuum.

By these Notes, Hypocrisie may singularly be detected. Such Hypocrites are destitute of Covenant-integrity: and therefore, remaining such, can neither walk in Covenant-duty before God, nor be in Covenant-State with God. Let all that would approve themselves in Covenant with God, beware of this Leaven of Hypocrisie.

3. All such, as would approve themselves the true Seed of Abraham, and Covenant-people of God, (f) must be federally perfect before God, both in Heart and Way. The Perfect and upright shall be admitted into Covenant with God; and shall enjoy him, and all the Covenanted benefits as theirs: but hypocrites shall not stand before him, they shall have no part nor lot in this business. Let all then that profess to be Gods Cove-

(f) Gen. 17. 1, 2.

Covenant-people, be sincere and perfect with God, both in Inward Constitution of heart, and in Outward Conversation of life. Let them clear up their Integrity upon good grounds, to their own hearts and Consciences, according to the Scriptures: and let them grow up therein more and more till they come to the highest degree of Perfection, being constant and persevering therein unto the end. To this effect, take 1. Some Helps and furtherances to integrity. 2. Some Motives and encouragements thereunto.

Helps and furtherances to integrity.

(1) Know the Lord God aright in Jesus Christ. Know the infinite purity and Perfection of his Nature; which cannot endure iniquity or Hypocrisie. Know his All-searching Omniscience, and Omnipresence: He is everywhere, knows all things, searcheth the reins and hearts, exactly detects every hypocritical action, expression, thought, and imagination, so that there can be no blinding of his eyes with most specious pretences or appearances. Know the exactness of his Scrutiny and judgement; every secret thing shall he bring to judgement, without respect of persons, &c. Such true knowledge of God will incline mightily to integrity. (g) And thou Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy Father, and serve him with a Perfect Heart, and with a willing mind: for, the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts. Its a vain thing therefore to think to dissemble with him. First know him aright: Then serve him with a perfect heart.

(g) 1 Chron. 28.9.

(2) Put (h) off the old man, and put on the New man daily more and more, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness. In so doing we shall be more and more dis-vested of Hypocrisie, which is a limb of the old man: and invested with integrity, which is a member of the new man. Make progress in Sanctification, So you Mortifie Hypocrisie, and vivifie Sincerity.

(h) Eph. 4. 22, 23, 24.

(3) Have saving Faith and Hope, and grow therein. Hypocrisie stands in mixtures, and inward Heart-defilements. But Faith (i) purifies the Heart, from dross and defilements of sin. (k) And every one that hath hope of Heavenly happiness, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

(i) Act. 15.9.
(k) 1 Ioh. 3.2, 3.

(4) Consider seriously Gods Promises of his Cohabitation, Neer Communion and endeared Relations to, and with his own people that come out and separate from the Corruptions of the world: And these will strongly put us upon all possible endeavours after Purity and Perfection. (l) Having therefore these Promises, let us cleanse our selves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting Holiness in the fear of God. The pure God cannot endure fellowship with impure hypocrites, nor afford them any neer Relation to him.

(l) 2 Cor. 7.1. with 6.16, 17, 18.

(5) Set thy self always as in Gods sight and presence, as witness of all thy thoughts, words and wayes: This will make thee still approve thy self uprightly to him. (m) Walk before me, and be perfect. This made Paul deal sincerely in his Ministry: he set himself still before Gods eye; (n) But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, speak we in Christ.

(n) 2 Cor. 2. 17.

(6) Let the Word of God have room in thine heart, and bear sway in thy Soul. Keep it still fresh in mind, and make it thy Rule. This will dissuade and deliver thee from Hypocrisie, but perswade and draw thee to integrity. Hereby (o) David kept himself upright; I have kept the wayes of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his judgements were before me, and I did not put away his Statutes from me. I was also upright before him, and I kept my self from mine iniquity. Hereby Christs disciples were purified instrumentally, (p) Now ye are clean through the Word that I have spoken to you. Yea hereby young men (whose lusts and corruptions are strong and impetuous) may cleanse their course; (q) Wherewith shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to thy Word.

(o) Psal. 18. 21, 22, 23.

(p) Joh. 15. 3.

(q) Ps. 119. 9.

(7) Keep still a jealous eye over thine own deceitful heart. (r) Keep thine heart with all keeping. There hypocrisie and dissimulation takes its first rise. See thine heart be pure and perfect in its grounds whence, and ends whereto it moves, in all the wayes of Religion. There are many depths, deceits, windings, turnings, inventions, devices, &c. in our hearts: Trust them not too far; but watch them, sift them, try them, &c. that they may be sound and sincere with God.

(r) Prov. 4. 23.

(8) Remember often the strictness of the last account and judgement. For then, (s) God will judge the Secrets of men by Jesus Christ. (t) —— God will bring every work into judgement, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evill. Then no paint nor varnish of Hypocrisie shall cloke iniquity any longer. Then God will pluck off all hypocrites masks and vizors, and shew them in their own colours. Wouldst thou not be detected and judged for an Hypocrite at the last day? walk uprightly now. For, Hypocrites that love not now to be, what they seem: shall then appear to be, what they are, through Gods righteous judgement. Notable is that of our Saviour, (u) Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is Hypocrisie. For, there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

(9) Finally, Forasmuch as integrity is not in mans power, but is Gods gift of grace, Beg it earnestly and unceasantly of the Lord. O God of truth, give me a perfect heart, and a perfect way. Adorn my soul with righteousness and true Holiness. Make me according to thine own heart, &c. Pray with upright David, (x) Let integrity and uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee. (y) —— Let mine heart be sound in thy Statutes; that I be not ashamed. (z) —— Behold, thou desirest truth in the inwards. —— Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me. (a) —— *Search me, O God, and know mine heart: try me, and know my thoughts. if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way Everlasting.

Motives and Inducements to Integrity are many, and very cogent. As,

(1) Christ Jesus our true Passover is already Sacrificed for us; And all these Gospel-times are this true Paschal Feast: Therefore as the Legal Passover was kept without corporal leaven of bread, So the Gospel-Passover should be celebrated without the Spiritual leaven of Sin and Hypocrisie. (b) For Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the Feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness: but with the unleavened bread of Sincerity and Truth. Without Sincerity and Truth we cannot feed and feast our souls upon Jesus Christ crucified. (b) 1 Cor. 5. 7, 8.

(2) Uprightness is most pleasing and delightful to God: and therefore Gods people should pursue that which is well-pleasing in his sight. David said (c) I know also my God, that thou tryest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. And again, (d) Thou desirest truth in the inwards. Heb. thou hast pleasure or delight in truth, &c. And elsewhere, (e) The righteous LORD loveth righteousness, his Countenance doth behold the upright. Solomon also testifieth, that (f) Such as are upright in their way, are his delight. Now the upright LORD hath such pleasure in uprightness, That, 1. He accepts and admits the Perfect and upright into Covenant with himself. (g) Be thou perfect, and I will make my Covenant between me and thee. 2. He is nigh unto the upright, and unto their prayer. (h) The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. (i) The Sacrifice of the wicked is abomination to the LORD, but the Prayer of the upright is his delight. 3. He highly prizeth and accepteth all, even the weakest Services of the upright: and covers, yea cures all their Infirmities, as hath been evidenced. 4. He is good, and doth good to the Sincere. (k) Yet God is good to Israel, to such as are clean of heart. He is good to them, though afflicted and Tempted, while the wicked flourish in all Prosperity. Hence also David prays, (l) Do good, O LORD, to them that are good, and that are upright in heart. 5. His way is strength to the upright. (m) The way of the LORD (that is, either the way and dispensation wherein the Lord (o) walks towards them: or the way and course of life wherein the upright walk towards God,) is strength to the upright, (that is, It strengthens, corroborates, emboldens their hearts and spirits against all discouragements and oppositions.) This secures them within better then a (p) wall of brass. 6. He defends and saves the upright from evils and enemies. (q) He is a buckler to them that walk uprightly. And they have a strong defence indeed, that have the Lord himself for their Buckler. No blows nor instruments of Death can prevail against this Buckler.

buckler. Sweetly said David, (r) My defence is of God (Hebr. my buckler is upon God), which saveth the upright in heart. 7. Finally, Such is his Providential dispensation for the upright, that they close up their days in peace and happiness, after all the storms and troubles wherewith their lives have been exercised. (f) Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; for the end of that man is peace.

(3) Hypocrisie is most odious and abominable to God, and to Jesus Christ, though never so (t) highly esteemed amongst men. And Gods people should abhor what God and Christ abominate. Hypocrisie and Hypocrites are so loathed of God, that, 1. He accounts them, (u) whited Sepulchers, beautiful outward, but within full of dead mens bones and all uncleanness; (x) workers of iniquity; (y) The children of Hell. 2. He rejects all their services and works, though for matter and substance never so good and excellent. As Jehu's (z) obedience: The Iews (a) religious exercises: (b) All the Pharisees Alms, Prayers, Fastings, &c. accounting them no better then their sins and iniquities. Nor shall they ever have any Eternal Reward thereof from God. 3. He thunders out many terrible woes against them. (c) Eight in one Chapter. 4. He will utterly disown and disclaim them at the day of Judgement, saying, (d) I know ye not, depart from me ye workers of iniquity. 5. He will implunge them in the deeper condemnation. (e) They shall have their portion with Hypocrites. This intimates that Hypocrites shall have a woful portion. They shall not only be in Prison, but in Little-ease. They shall be in the darkest nook of Hell, if there be one corner in Hell worse then other, Hypocrites shall be there. They knew their Masters will, and did it not; therefore they shall be beaten with many stripes.

(4) Integrity is a singular comfort to the Conscience of Gods people, in their saddest conditions and occasions of disconsolation. Iob's integrity kept his heart from sinking in all that Sea of trouble, in which he was tossed: when his three friends challenged him grievously for Hypocrisie. (f) Till I dye, I will not remove my integrity from me. (g) — Let me be weighed in an even ballance, that God may know mine integrity, &c. This supported King Hezekiah against the very sentence of Death from God; (h) Remember, O LORD, that I have walked before thee in Truth, with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. This was Paul's Cordial in all his perils and sufferings; (i) Our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our Conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our Conversation in the world. David knew this full well when he so prayed; (k) Let my heart be sound in thy Statutes, that I be not ashamed. Integrity may be blamed, but shall never be shamed. He shall hold up head and heart in worst of Evils with Confidence: When

1. That, He ſhall dwell in the Earth, when the wicked ſhall be rooted out of it. (l) For, The upright ſhall dwell in the Land, and the perfect ſhall remain in it. But the wicked ſhall be cut off from the Earth, and the tranſgreſſors ſhall be rooted out of it. (l) Prov. 2. 21, 22.

2. That, He ſhall have Safe-guidance and Deliverance from miſchiefs and dangers. (m) The integrity of the upright ſhall guide them. ——The righteouſneſs of the perfect ſhall direct (Heb. rectifie) his way. ——The righteouſneſs of the upright ſhall deliver them; but tranſgreſſors ſhall be taken in their own naughtineſs. And elſewhere, (n) Whoſo walketh uprightly ſhall be ſaved: but he that is perverſe in his ways ſhall fall at once. Hence the Prophet reproving King Aſa for his carnal confidence in Benhadad King of Syria, ſaid, (o) The eys of the LORD run to and fro throughout the whole Earth, to ſhew himſelf ſtrong in b:half of [illegible] heart is perfect towards him. (m) Pro. 11. 3, 5, 6. (n) Pro. 28. 18. (o) 2 Chr. 16. 9.

3. That, He ſhall have Security, and ſufficient Supplyes of Neceſſaries in evil times. (p) He that walketh righteouſly, and ſpeaketh uprightly, ——He ſhall dwell on high, (above the reach of danger): His place of defence ſhall be the Munitions of Rocks, (A Rock is a ſure defence; Rocks ſurer; Munitions of Rocks, Rocks within rocks, ſureſt of all): Bread ſhall be given him, his waters ſhal be ſure. (q) ——The upright ſhall have good things in poſſeſſion. (r) *The LORD knoweth the days of the upright; and their inheritance ſhall be for ever. 4. That, He ſhall have joy and gladneſs in the Lord notwithſtanding all matter of trouble and grief that may befall him. (ſ) Behold, God will not caſt away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers. Till he fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with ſhouting-joy. And David ſaid, (t) The righteous ſhall be glad in the LORD, and ſhall truſt in him: And all the upright in heart ſhall glory, viz. When their adverſaries the wicked ſhall be brought down by the hand of God, as the intent of the Pſalm evinceth. So true is that, (u) Unto the upright there ariſeth light in the darkneſs. And that, (x) Light is ſown for the righteous, and gladneſs for the upright of heart. Though at preſent neither Ear nor little of light and joy appear to the upright, yet there's a ſecret ſeed of joy ſown for them; and though it lye hid a while under the clods, in due time it will ſprout, ſpring, grow up, and ripen; ſo that the upright ſhall reap a whole crop of joy. 5. That, His Habitation shall Prosper, and his Tabernacle flourish; (y) If thou wert pure and upright, surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous. Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end should greatly increase. (z) ——The House of the wicked shall be overthrown, but the Tabernacle of the upright shall flourish, viz. these and other temporal blessings promised, shall be performed to the upright, so far as shall be for their good.

(y) Job 8.6,7.

(z) Pro.14.11.

6. That, He shall have sweet Reviving, Protection, Dignity, Advancement, and all Good, from God. (a) For the LORD will be a Sun and a Shield: The LORD will give grace and glory: no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly. A Sun, to revive and refresh the upright, with the sweet aspect, beams and light of his Countenance: A Shield, to defend and protect them in their comfortable enjoyments against annoyances and injuries. Grace and Glory; some say, He will give Spiritual Grace in this world, and Eternal Glory in the world to come. But (b) Calvin is afraid that distinction in this place is too subtil; but thinks rather this to be the sense, After the Lord hath embraced the faithful with his favour, he will advance them to highest dignity, nor will cease to enrich them with his gifts, he will withhold no good thing from them that walk uprightly; that is, his beneficence towards them shall never be drawn dry, but shall be flowing towards them continually. They shall want nothing that he sees and knows to be good for them. (c) Simeon de Muis also expounds it to the same effect.

(a) Ps. 84.11.

(b) Quod postea sequitur Gratiam & gloriam dabit, ita posset accipi, Quos Deus in hoc mundo sua gratia ornavit, tandem in regno suo cœlesti gloria coronare. Sed quia vereor ne arguta sit illa distinctio, præstabit, meo judicio, ita resolvere sententiam. Postquam favore suo complexus fuerit Deus fideles, extollet eos in summam dignitatem, nec definet eos suis donis locupletare. Quod etiam confirmat proximo membro, Non prohibebit bonum ambulantibus in rectitudine: Acsi diceret; Nunquam exhauriri Dei beneficentiam quin assidue fluat. Joan. Calvin. in Comment. ad Psal. 84.

(c) Gratiam & Gloriam dat Dominus, hoc est, Facit Deus ut grati sint, adeoq; in honore apud alios, quotquot sinceri sint animi, de quibus totus intelligendus est versus. Probat hoc illud, Prov. 13. 15. & adde illud, Gen. 39. 21. Simeon de Muis Comment. in Psal. 84.

7. That, The upright shall sojourn in Gods Tabernacle, as a true Member of his Church Militant on Earth; and dwell in his Holy Hill, as a Member of his Church Triumphant in heaven for ever. (d) LORD, who shall sojourn in thy Tabernacle? Who shall dwell in thine holy Hill? He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart, &c.

(d) Ps.15.1,2. & 24.3,4,5.

Integrity hath these sweet and (e) precious Promises. That these Promises may be ours, may be put as a Crown upon our Heads, yea, as Cordials into our hearts; let us strive after uprightness, and grow up therein daily more and more.

(e) 2 Pet.1.4.

(6) Finally, Upright men are blessed men, in the account of God himself. (f) O the blessednesses of the Perfect in the way, who walk in the Law of the LORD! O the blessednesses of them that keep his Testimonies, that seek him with the whole heart! They surely do no iniquity, they walk in his ways. The upright have confluences of bleſſednesſes meeting upon them; they are bleſſed even to admiration. 1. Bleſſed in their Poſterity and Generation; (g) His Seed ſhall be mighty upon Earth: The Generation of the upright ſhall be bleſſed. Happineſs ſhall be the inheritance of upright mens children. 2. Bleſſed in their Outward enjoyments; (h) Wealth and riches ſhall be in his Houſe. This ſhall be another branch of an upright mans bleſſedneſs. 3. Bleſſed in the Conſtancy of his righteouſneſs; (i) And his righteouſneſs endureth for ever. 4. Bleſſed in Remiſſion of his ſins, and Juſtification of his perſon; (k) Bleſſed is he whoſe tranſgreſſion is forgiven, whoſe ſin is covered. Bleſſed is the man unto whom the LORD imputeth not iniquity: and in whoſe ſpirit there is no guile. He that hath no guile in his ſpirit, but is ſincere in heart, that man hath his ſins pardoned, and is therein an happy Soul. 5. Bleſſed in reference to Eternal Glory in heaven, which belongs to them; (l) Bleſſed are the pure in heart, for they ſhall ſee God. There's a Corporall viſion with bodily eyes, There's a Spiritual viſion by the eye of Faith, There's a Glorious viſion face to face. By the Corporal viſion, Chriſt (m) was ſeen in his Humiliation on earth by many, and (n) ſhall be ſeen in his glorious Exaltation in Heaven for ever by all his members. By the Spiritual viſion of Faith, believers in this world (o) See him that is inviſible; but as through a glaſs, darkly; and yet greatly rejoyce in that imperfect, inchoate and remote viſion. Thus of the Second branch of Covenant-Duty, required by God from Abraham and his Seed. viz. Integrity, or Being Perfect. Now of the Laſt, viz.

III. Of Being Gods People; or, A People to God by Covenant. The Lord Covenanted To be (q) A God to Abraham, and to his Seed after him: and this expreſly. Conſequently God expected that Abraham and his Seed ſhould be his Covenant-people: To this Duty, and reciprocal Relation to God, they were obliged implicitly. As God promiſed on his part, both what he would do for them, and what he would be to them, their Shield, Reward, and God. So he requires from them on their part, both that they do ſomething for him; viz. Walk before him, and be Perfect: And alſo that they be unto him A People. God will give Himſelf to them, and they muſt give Themſelves reciprocally to God. This is the higheſt and moſt Comprehenſive Covenant-Duty impoſed upon Abraham and his Seed above all other: To be Gods People.

(q) Gen. 17. 7, 8.

This Great Covenant-Duty I have (r) heretofore somewhat opened in the General: And now should have proceeded to have handled it more fully and particularly, but that in this Covenant-Administration to Abraham, it is not Expressed, but only Implyed. Therefore the fuller unfolding of (Being Gods People in Covenant) shall be referred till we meet with such a Fœderal Dispensation, wherein it shall be clearly Expressed. And that will be in (f) Gods Covenant with Israel from Mount Sinai.

Aphorism IV.

The Form of Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed consisted; Inwardly, in the mutual Covenant-Obligation betwixt the Federates, viz. God on the one Part, Abraham and his Seed on the other: Outwardly, in the Manner of this Covenants Administration or Confirmation.

I. The Inward Form, which is more Essential and Constitutive to this Covenant, is, the Mutual and Reciprocal Obligation of the Fœderates to one another, viz. of God to Abraham and his Seed: Of Abraham and his Seed to God: and both, upon certain terms and Conditions, Plainly Expressed, or Necessarily Implyed.

1. God on his part, of his Love and free-grace Promised; 1. To do much for Abraham and his Seed. viz. 1. To Bless them. 2. To Multiply them exceedingly. 3. To make his Name Great. 4. To make his Seed victorious. 5. To give them Canaan for an everlasting possession. 6. To close up Abraham's dayes in a good old age in peace. Under which particular blessings, Many eminent Spiritual saving Mercies were implyed and primarily intended; As. (t) Jesus Christ (u) to descend of Abraham according to the flesh as his eminent Seed, for saving all Abraham's elect and faithful Seed; (2) The Donation (x) of the Spirit of Christ, as part of the blessing of Abraham; (3) Effectual Calling and (y) Conversion of his Seed from their iniquities; (4) Justification (z) of him and his Seed of meer Grace through Faith; (5) Sanctification (z) of them through his Spirit; (6) Uni-

Object. But, How can God be Fœderally-Obliged to Abraham and his Seed, God being infinite in Majeſty, Dominion, Freedom, &c. And there being no proportion betwixt God and them? Doth not this argue ſome imperfection in God, and limit his liberty, &c. that he cannot do what he pleaſeth?

Anſw. To this I reply; 1. By way of Conceſſion. That God is infinite in Majeſty, Dominion, Freedom, &c. who enters into Covenant with Abraham and his Seed; and therefore there can be no Proportion betwixt him and them; betwixt Infinite and Finite. 2. By way of Negation. That it doth not therefore follow, that becauſe God becomes in a ſort fœderally —— obliged to Abraham and his Seed, therefore his dominion and freedom are hindred and reſtrained, or any imperfection in God implyed. For if God of his Dominion and liberty can give bleſsings to Abraham and his Seed, can he not of the ſame Power and Freedom Covenant and promiſe them? Giving and Promiſing being acts of Dominion and liberty, they both are equally conſiſtent with infinite Majeſty. When man enters into Covenant with man, the Covenant-Obligation implyes in him ſome imperfection, and in ſome ſort limits and reſtrains his liberty which he had before: But not ſo with God; for Herein God doth not ſo much become obliged to his creatures, as to himſelf. They cannot claim things promiſed, by right of juſtice, as proper debt, but they believe, becauſe (9) God cannot deny himſelf, and his Word. (f) God (ſaith Aquinas) is no debtor, becauſe he is not ordered for other things, but all things for him. Hence its ſaid, (g) God renders debts, though indebted to none: He pays debts, though he pay nothing, that is, he pays them, becauſe he he hath promiſed them, not becauſe they are any due debt of juſtice from him. For, (h) who hath firſt given to him, &c. And God becomes our Debtor, not by Receiving any thing from us, but by promiſing what he pleaſed to us.* 3. By way of explication. When God enters into Covenant with Abraham or any man, it is not as when men enter into Covenant that are equals, whereupon a debt of juſtice ariſeth betwixt them, ſo that they may implead each other: but it is (ſuitable to the greatneſs of his ſupream Majeſty,) A Gracious and compaſſionate Condeſcenſion on his part, to promiſe bleſſings to us unworthy worms, for confirming of our Faith and hope more ſtrongly in him; He obligeth himſelf to us by Loving and Promiſing; But on our part there's an obligation to him of Right, debt, and juſtice, foraſmuch as we ow our ſelves and all that is ours unto him. Beſides, From this inequality of Covenanters, there ariſeth an unequal right in Covenanting. So that the Sole diſpoſing of the Covenant with ſuch and ſuch terms, conditions, formalities, &c. is wholly Gods, not Abraham's or his Seed's. And hence it's ſtiled Gods Covenant, not theirs. And, A Law to Jacob, and a word commanded to a thouſand Generations, Pſal. 105. 8, 9, 10, 11.

II. The Outward and More accidental Form of this Covenant, conſiſteth; 1. In the Way and Manner of this Covenants Diſpenſation or Adminiſtration to Abraham and his Seed. 2. In the Manifold Confirmation of this Covenant to them. All may be reduced to theſe two Heads.

Firſt, Of the Way, Order, and Manner of this Covenants Diſpenſation or Adminiſtration. Much hath been ſpoken already for clearing of this; eſpecially in Gods gradual Revealing of this Covenant ſtep by ſtep. Here therefore take only a Summary delineation of Gods way and manner herein, indigitating the chief ſteps of his Grace and Providence in Covenanting with Abraham and his Seed. And this, 1. More Generally. 2. More Particularly.

More Generally, theſe things are Obſervable in Gods Fœderal Dealings both with Abraham and his Seed. viz. 1. That God (k) dealt with them all herein (as alſo he had done formerly with Noah and Adam after the Fall,) in their more private Capacity, as Particular Families. For, from the beginning, till Moſes his days, The Church of God with His religious worſhip and ſervice (being then in their infancy) were not in a Publique Politie or Commonwealth, but only in ſome Private Families, profeſſing Gods true Religion. But more fully and clearly to Abrahams family then to Noah's or Adam's

(k) Gen. 12. 1. & 15. 18. & 17. 2. & 26. 2, 3, 4, 5.

Adam's the Covenant was revealed. 2. That, God represented himself to Abraham and his more Immediate Seed in (l) visible Apparitions; probably, in Humane shape. God in the person of the Son thus familiarly representing himself to them in the beginning of the world, who towards the latter end of the world should become Man indeed for accomplishing of mans Redemption. 3. That, God expressed his pleasure in his Covenants and Promises to them, only (m) by word of Mouth, by audible voice, Not at all by writing till Moses days. His Covenant and will being transmitted from Parents to their children from Generation to Generation. Whereupon it came to pass that oft-times Gods true Religion was forgotten, and divers branches of their Families, as the Ishmaelites, Edomites, Syrians, &c. lamentably degenerated to irreligiousness and Paganism. 4. That, The LORD accepted of his rich grace and bounty, Not only the Parents, but also with them (n) their Seed, into Covenant with himself in Christ: And did accordingly deal with them as his Covenant-people, till they rejected Gods Covenant by unbelief and impiety. 5. That Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Natural Seed was much expressed in (o) Promises of temporal blessings, God condescending to the more dark, weak and imperfect state of his people therein. But withal, there were intermingled some pure Spiritual Promises and Priviledges; as (p) the Lord's being a Covenant God to them and to their Seed, (q) Justification by Faith, &c. and under Temporal Blessings, were especially typifyed and promised Spiritual and Heavenly Blessings; As under Deliverance from Egypt, Redemption from Spiritual bondage under Sin, Satan, &c. under the Type of Canaans Rest, the Eternal Heavenly Rest. And therefore they still concern the Seed of Abraham's Faith, as then the Seed of his Flesh. 6. That, All Gods Covenant-expressures Primarily tended to, and Centred upon, (r) Jesus Christ the Messiah, the Promised Seed that was to come afterwards. And this is to sway and predominate in the Interpretation of them. 7. That, All the Occurrents and Passages of Providence towards Abraham and his Seed, ordinary, or extraordinary, in way of Mercy or Judgement, were in order to the Performance and accomplishment of Gods Covenants and Promises revealed to them. The beauty of these his proceedings is much to be noted and admired, Especially in their sojourning in Canaan, Egypt, and the wilderness.

More Particularly, the way and Manner of Gods Covenant-Dispensation may be considered, 1. As with Abraham. 2. As with his Seed, viz. Isaac, Jacob, and Iacobs Posterity, after Abraham.

I. As with Abraham. God made himself known to Abraham in a Covenant-way, at Sundry times, and in severall manners, according to Abraham's present state and condition when he made known his Covenant to him. This he did, not once, but often. And all in this Order, viz.

1. When Abraham (t) was in Ur of the Chaldees, (an idolatrous Countrey,) having Sarai to wife, but both childless. That (u) God con-confirmed his Covenant with him, in or towards Christ 430 years before the giving of the Law. Here note, 1. The Lords Preparing of Abram for this Covenant, (u) By appearing to him, and by calling him effectually, not only from his Country, Kindred and Fathers house to Canaan, but from their corruptions, and the state of sin. Uncalled persons, are unfit for Gods Covenant. 2. The Lords Proposing his Covenant to Abraham thus prepared, in (x) divers excellent Promises. As, 1. Of making him a great Nation; 2. Of blessing him; 3. Of greatning his name; 4. Of blessing all the families of the Earth in him. 3. Abraham's Obedience to Gods Call, (y) departing from Caldea, and following the Lord he knew not whither, and at last coming into the land of Canaan, to Sichem, to the plain of Moreh: To take livery and seizin (as it were) of it.

2. When Abram was now come into Canaan, and the Canaanite then in the land, (z) the Lord enlarged his Covenant, by promising to give that land to his Seed. This Additional Promise is Amplyfied, 1. By the Antecedent thereof, viz. The LORD's Appearing to Abraham. 2. By the Consequents thereof. viz. 1. Abraham's building an Altar there, and afterwards another between Bethel and Ai to the Lord: To testifie his Faith in his Promises, His thankfulness for them, and His Religion towards God. 2. Abraham's journeying up and down the land to survay it. Hereby strengthening his faith, Comfort and thankfulness, in reference to it. 3. Abraham's afflicted Pilgrimage therein; Partly by famine, whereby he was forced to depart and sojourn in Egypt for a Season: Partly, by Discord and strife betwixt his herdmen, and the herdmen of his Nephew Lot, so that they were necessitated to part asunder. By which afflictions God would raise up Abraham's heart to look beyond that promised Earthly Country wherein he was a Pilgrim, (a) to a better and Heavenly Country, wherein he should dwell for evermore.

3. When Lot was now separated from Abraham towards Sodom, (b) The LORD enlarged his Promises to him. Here note, 1. The Antecedent Occasion which God took for renewing his Promise to Abram, viz. Lot's being separated from him. Lot draws from him, and the LORD draws neerer to him. 2. The Promise renewed and enlarged, Partly, To give him and his Seed all the land of Canaan: Partly, To make his Seed as the Dust of the Earth, innumerable. 3. The Concomitant Command of God to Abram, Both To veiw the land every way, And to walk through it in the length and breadth of it. 4. The Consequent, ensuing, viz. Abram's removing his Tent to the plains of Mamre, which is Hebron, And his building an Altar there unto the LORD. To sacrifice thereon thankfully to the LORD, and to Sanctifie his promised inheritance now survayed.

(c) Gen. 14. & 15. & 16. throughout.

Consider, I. Antecedent passages, going before this enlargement, viz. (1.) Abram's victory over the four Conquering Kings. A type (think (d) some) of the four Monarchies of the world, which should be destroy'd by Abraham's Seed Jesus Christ. Sed quare. (2.) Melchizedeck's meeting Abram with Bread and Wine, blessing him, and taking of him the tenths of the spoyls. Melchizedeck being King of righteousness; King of Salem, that is, of Peace; and Priest of the Most High God. An eminent Type of Jesus Christ, In his Person, and Mediatory Office, as King and Priest: who should Royally furnish Abraham and his Seed, with Righteousness and Peace, blessing them with all Spiritual blessings. Thus confirming Gods former Covenant of blessing Abraham. This Type shall be hereafter explained in the Confirmations of this Covenant. (3) The King of Sodom's offering Abram all the Spoyls which he had recovered, except the persons: And Abram's as magnanimous refusing it, lest it should be said that the King of Sodom (not the King of Heaven) had made Abraham rich. II. The Lords Promises propounded to Abram in a vision, viz. 1. That, Himself would be A shield to Abram, viz. against all Enemies, evils, and dangers that might arise. 2. That, Himself would be a Reward to him exceeding great. He having, through dependance upon God, disdained to be enriched by the King of Sodom. 3. That, Not Eliezer his Steward, but a Son out of his own bowels, should be his Heir. 4. That, His Seed should be as the Stars of Heaven, that cannot be numbred. 5. That, He, viz. in his Seed in the fourth Generation should inherit the land of Canaan, then possessed by ten sorts of people, from the River of Egypt to the great River Euphrates, After his Seed should have sojourned four hundred years in a land not theirs, in much affliction, &c. Thus the Promised inheritance was bounded. III. The Sanction or Ratification of this Covenant by the Solemn Killing of Sacrifices, Dividing them in twain, and passing between the parts thereof. The Mysterie hereof, See afterwards expounded in the Confirmations of this Covenant. IV. The Consequents and Events ensuing hereupon; 1. Abraham's believing in the LORD, promising him a Seed as the Stars of Heaven for number. This had its principal accomplishment in Jesus Christ, by whom the faithful spiritual Seed of Abraham was so multiplyed among Jews and Gentiles. 2. The LORD's imputing this believing to Abraham unto Righteousness. Heres the First express mention of Justification by Faith in all Scripture. This is an High fundamental priviledge. This point See largely handled hereafter (e) in the Ends of this Covenant. 3. The preproperous or over-hasty act of Sarah in giving her bond-maid Hagar the Egyptian to her husband to wife, after Abram's sojourning ten years in the land of Canaan. This she did; Partly, Because God had restrained Sarai from child-bearing: Partly, Because God had promised Abraham an heir out of his own bowels, but as yet had not declared that the heir should be by Sarai. Hereupon Hagar conceived

(d) As the Hebrews have a saying, That whatsoever befell unto the fathers, is a sign unto their children: So of this victory they write, That it befell Abraham, to teach that four Kingdoms should stand up to rule over the world, and that in the end, his children should Rule over them, and they should all fall by their hand, and they should bring again all their captives, and all their Substance; which are the four Kingdoms spoken of in Daniel. R. ceived and brought forth Ishmael. But herein Sarai made too much haste: she exercised not her faith and patience sufficiently to wait upon the Lord, till his time of promise-performance should come: nor took she Gods way for the obtaining of the promised Seed. (f) He that believes, makes not haste. Hereupon barren Sarai, is despised by fruitful Hagar: thus the Lord chastised her diffidence and disorderly walking. (g) From the beginning it was not so.

5. When Abram was 99. years old, (h) God yet more eminently and illustriously enlarged his Covenant with him. In this famous Fœderal Augmentation, are declared; I. The Antecedents going before it; viz. 1. The LORDS Apparition to Abram. 2. His All-sufficiency for him, and his. II. The Sum of the Covenant, 1. On Abraham's part: Consisting in Duties and Conditions imposed by God, and restipulated by him; walking before God, and Being perfect. Formerly explained in Aphorism 3. 2. On Gods part: Consisting in Promises fœderal, viz. (1) To multiply him abundantly; (2) To make him a father of a multitude of Nations, yea of Kings; (3) To be a God to him and to his Seed after him in their Generations by a firm everlasting Covenant; (4) To give to him, and his Seed after him, all the Land of Canaan for an everlasting firm possession; (5) To give him a son by Sarai, and to bless her that Nations and Kings should descend of her. And that this son (from Abram's laughter at the Promise) should be called Isaac, that is, Laughter; and with him and his Seed the Covenant should be established. All this is formerly opened in Aphorism 3. at large. III. The confirmation of this Covenant and these Promises, 1. By changing their Names, viz. of Abram, An-High-Father, to Abraham, An-high-father-of a-multitude; of Sarai, My-princess; to Sarah, A-Princess-of-a-multitude. As hath formerly been noted. 2. By annexing the initiating Sacrament of Circumcision, as a Token, Sign and Seal of this Covenant. This See afterwards opened in Gods Confirmations of this Covenant. IV. The Consequents or events hereof. viz. First Abraham's laughter, upon the promise of Isaac. Herein he (i) rejoyced to see Christs day, and he saw it, typically in Isaac, and was glad. 2. Abrahams Circumcising himself and all the males in his family as God appointed.

(i) Joh. 8. 56.

6. When Abraham was in the Oaks or oak-grove of Mamre (k) The LORD renewed and augmented his Promise to him again. Here note, I. The Antecedents thereunto. viz. 1. The LORD'S Apparition to Abraham, in the form of three men. 2. Abrahams cheerful Hospitality towards them. II. The Promise augmented, by the Particular defining of the time of Isaacs birth by Sarah, according to the time of life, &c. III. The Consequents, and Events hereupon ensuing. viz. 1. Sarahs distrustful laughter, for which she is reproved by the LORD. 2. The Lords imparting his purpose of destroying Sodom to Abraham; thereby giving Abraham occasion to intercede for those Cities, whose intercession obtained that that righteous Lot should be delivered when those Cities were destroyed. 3. The LORD'S singular preservation of Sarah from being defiled by Abimelech King of Gerar: she being to bring forth a promised son that should descend from the Loyns of Abraham. 4. Isaac's birth of Sarah at the LORD'S set time, when Abraham was 100. yeers old: together with his Circumcision at eight days old. 5. Ishmaels mocking of Isaac, which the Apostle interprets his (l) Persecution of him. 6. The Casting of Hagar the bondwoman and her son Ishmael out of Abraham's family, that he might not inherit with Isaac: and this by Gods appointment.

(k) Gen.18. 1. to the end. & 19. & 20. & 21.

(l) Gal. 4. 29.

Now in these two sons of Abraham, viz Ishmael by Hagar the Bondmaid, and Isaac by Sarah the Free-woman, The Apostle (m) observes an Excellent Allegory, in reference to the two most noted Covenants that afterwards should be dispensed, namely, The Sinai-Covenant before Christ, and The New-Covenant after Christ; To prove Justification and the Inheritance promised to be by Faith, and not by the works of the Law, As the ignorant and carnal observers of the Law of Moses imagined. Summarily the Allegory may be thus represented;

(m) Gal. 4. 12. to the end.

Hagar, 1. was a Bondmaid. 2. Brought forth a son to Abraham after the flesh to Bondage; 3. which son persecuted the son of the Free-woman; 4. And was cast out that he should not inherit with him. She Allegorically figureth, 1. The Old Testament, or more servile Covenant of the Law given on Mount Sinai in Arabia without the confines of the promised land, and the earthly Jerusalem, both of them being in a kind of spiritual bondage; 2. which bring forth carnal children to bondage, seeking Justification and the Inheritance, in whole, or in part, by works of the Law; 3. Persecuting those that seek righteousness and the inheritance by faith; 4. And therefore are cast out, as those that shall neither be Justified, nor Inherit.

Sarah, 1. was the Free-woman; 2. Brought forth a son to Abraham after the Spirit by vertue of Promise, to liberty; 3. who was persecuted by the Son of the Bondwoman; 4. yet (the bondmaid's son being cast out) he enjoyed the inheritance. She Allegorically figured, 1. The New-Testament, or the Free New-Covenant in Christ, and the Heavenly Jerusalem the mother of us all, which is Free; 2. which bring forth Spiritual children unto Liberty, seeking Justification and the Promised Inheritance by faith alone without the Deeds of the Law: 3. Persecuted by Legal Justitiaries; 4. yet (their persecutors being ejected) obtaining the inheritance. Thus, in Abraham's two different sons by his two different wives the LORD tipycally and Prophetically represented to him the future different state of his Church, which should be 1. In a more servile condition under the Sinai-Covenant till Christ; but 2. In a More free Condition under the new Covenant after Christ.

7. Finally, when God (n) tempted Abraham to offer up his son Isaac

(n) Gen. 22. 1. to 20.

Isaac for a Burnt-offering, He notably augmented this Covenant-dispensation to him. Herein Consider, I. The Passages Antecedent thereunto. viz. 1. God's tempting of Abraham, commanding him to offer up Isaac for a Burnt-offering upon a Mount in the Land of Morijah, three days journey off. 2. Abraham's ready obedience through Faith. He rose early, took fire and a knife, laid the wood upon Isaac, and they both came to the place appointed; Abraham there builds an Altar, binds Isaac, lays him upon the Altar, stretches out his hand to slay Isaac, And then the Lord staying his hand by the voice of an Angel, He offered up a Ram (held there in a thicket by his horns) instead of Isaac, (o) receiving him from Death as in a figure. Isaac (p) herein being a singular Type of Jesus Christ in Many regards. As; (1) Isaac was the Son, the only Son of Abraham, whom he loved: So Christ (q) the Son of God, his only begotten son, the son of his love, in whom his soul delighted. (2) Isaac was born after the Spirit; not so much by strength of Nature as by strength of the Promise through faith: Christ without Humane generation (r) was conceived in the virgins womb by the Holy-Ghost. (3) Isaac the son of the Promise: Much more Christ (s) the Promised Seed. (4) Isaac Circumcised the eighth day: So (t) Jesus Christ. (5) Isaac in his very infancy persecuted by Ishmael, mocking him. So Christ in his infancy, but now newly born, (u) was persecuted by Herod. (6) Abraham so loved God, that he would not spare his only begotten son whom he loved, from him. (x) God so loved the world that he spared not his own only begotten son of his love, Jesus Christ, but gave him up, for the life of all that should believe. Abraham yields up Isaac freely: God yields up Christ more freely. (7) Isaac must go three days journey, and not be offered up till the third day: So Christ said, (y) I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. (8) Isaac was led away as a lamb to the Altar without gainsaying: Christ was (z) led away as a lamb to the slaughter, and opened not his mouth. (9) Isaac carryed that wood on which he was to be offered up for a burnt-offering upon his shoulders, till he came to Moriah: Christ (a) carried his Cross, the tree on which he was to be crucified, to Mount Calvary. The wood was first laid upon both: and then both laid on the wood. (10) Isaac was to be offered on Mount Moriah, which bare Solomons Temple, that (b) Type of Christs body: Christ was offered (c) on Mount Calvary (probably the skirt of Moriah, or very neer thereunto) which bare Christs body it self. (11) Abraham the father carries in his hand fire and the Knife, against his son Isaac: (d) God the Father carried in his hand Justice and wrath against his son Christ for our sins. (12) Isaac is bound, and submits himself willingly to be sacrificed: Christ (e) was bound, yielded up himself willingly to his Executioners, laid down his life of himself, and was obedient to his father to the death, even the death upon the Cross. (13) Instead of Isaac A Ram caught by the Head in the thicket is sacrificed: But Christ himself, (whose (whose (f) head was crowned with thorns,) was really crucified for us. (14) Isaac thus suffered at Gods Command: Christ thus suffered (g) at Gods Command also, and according to Gods determinate counsel and Decree. (15) Finally Isaac being dead three days in his Fathers heart and Resolution, at last on the third day was received from death as in a figure: So Jesus Christ (h) being dead and buried three days in the heart of the earth, on the third Revived and Rose again from the dead, for our justification. 3. The Lords singular Acceptation of this Act of Abraham twice testified by the voice of his Angel from Heaven. 4. Abraham's denomination of the place JEHOVAH-JIREH, that is, The LORD will See, or provide: from both, His prophecy, that God would provide a Lamb, and from his experience of Gods providing a sacrifice even in that strait when Isaac was upon the wood. And this peculiar providence of God for Abraham, is become a General Proverb for the comfort of Gods people, that God will provide for them in extremities of straits and distresses: Their extremity, shall be his Opportunity. Hence this Mountain is called more Contractly, Mori-jah, from the same Etymology. II. The LORD'S Renewing of the Fœderal Promise to Abraham hereupon with augmentation. viz. 1. To bless Abraham. 2. To multiply his Seed as the stars of Heaven, and sands by the Sea-shore. 3. That his Seed should possess the gate of his enemies. 4. That all the Nations of the earth should be blessed in his Seed. See all these (i) formerly expounded in the matter of the Covenant. This the way and manner of Gods Covenant-dispensation, As with Abraham.

II. As with Abrahams Seed after him; viz. 1. Isaac, 2. Jacob, And 3. Jacobs Posterity till the Sinai-Covenant, the Manner and Form of Gods Fœderal dealing was various.

1. With Isaac Gods Fœderal dealings were in this Manner. 1. He delaid to give Isaac Seed. 2. He gives him at once a double Seed, distinguishing the accepted Covenant-Seed from the other. 3. Having thus distinguished the Seeds, He Repeats the Fœderal Promises to Isaac and his Seed with Augmentation.

First, God delaid to give Isaac Seed. Not Ishmael, but Isaac was the Seed of the Promise: (l) In Isaac shall thy Seed be called. Consequently from Isaac was Abrahams Seed to be exceedingly multiplyed, according to the Promise. But Rebeckah Isaac's wife was childless after marriage for 20. years together. Sarah's barrenness seemed to hinder the performance of the Covenant to Abraham: Rebeckahs barreness also seemed to obstruct it to Isaac. This is Gods way, To raise the most numerous Seed from barren wombs: not from ſtrength of Nature, but from the power of the Promiſe. The Promiſe was ſure, though Performance ſuſpended, for the exerciſe of Iſaacs Faith, Patience and Prayer.

Secondly, God at laſt, after 20. years delay, gives him a double Seed, Twins in Rebeckah's womb ſtrugling then together; and Diſtinguiſheth the Accepted Covenant-Seed from the other. For, Rebeckah being afflicted with their ſtrugling together in her, enquired of the LORD, viz. either by private Prayer, Or by going to ſome great Prophetical Patriarch: (m) And the LORD anſwered her: Two Nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people ſhall be ſeparated from thy bowels: and the one people ſhall be ſtronger then the other people; and the elder ſhall ſerve the younger. That is, the heads of two Nations were in her womb; Eſau, Head of the Edomites: and Jacob, Head of the Iſraelites: Edomites being ſtronger; but at laſt eſpecially (n) in Davids and Solomons days brought to ſerve the Iſraelites: As Eſau the elderbrother loſt his Birthright and The Bleſſing, Jacob obtaining them. Now as Dominion, Liberty and Freedom (o) comes in with the Bleſſing, yea is a great Bleſſing, and figureth Election and all ſpiritual mercies: So Servitude (p) comes in with the Curſe: yea it ſelf is a great Curſe, and figureth Reprobation and all Spiritual Miſeries. Hence Malachy infers; (q) That God Loved Jacob, but Hated Eſau. Whereupon Paul moſt clearly collects the Doctrine of Gods free Election and Reprobation without reſpect had to foreſeen good or evil in either, ſaying; (r) when Rebeckah had conceived by one, even by our father Iſaac (the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpoſe of God according to Election might ſtand, not of works, but of him that calleth) It was ſaid unto her, The elder ſhall ſerve the younger: As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Eſau have I hated. Here's the Parity, and Diſparity of Eſau and Jacob. Their Parity in their Natural Condition; Both, of one father: Both, of one Mother: Both, At one and the ſame time in one womb: Both, unborn: Both, without actual good or evil. Herein their condition was altogether equal. Their Diſparity in Gods purpoſe and election, Jacob elected and loved, Eſau rejected, and hated of God. Jacob freely accepted as Heir of the promiſes: Eſau freely rejected and paſſed by, as no Heir of Promiſe. Here therefore in thoſe Twin-brothers, Eſau and Jacob, we have a cleer Emblem and Example of Gods Decree, and The fulfilling thereof; whereby the Heirs of Promiſe are differenced from others. I. Gods Decree of predeſtination is here exemplified in both its branches, or Acts, viz. 1. The Decree of free Election, in the perſon of the younger, who ſhould be ſerved by the Elder, as beloved of God freely. And therefore Jacob and his Seed ſhould poſſeſs the Covenant, Promiſes, Inheritance, and Priviledges of the Church: for a type and pattern to all the Elect. 2. The Decree of free Reprobation or Preterition, in the perſon of the Elder, who ſhould ſerve the younger, as freely hated of God. And therefore fore Esau with his Seed should not truly enjoy the Covenant, Promises, Blessing, Inheritance or Priviledges of the Church: for a type and Example to all Reprobates. II. Gods discriminating Decree is in part fulfilled in these twin-brothers. by several steps of providence, viz. 1. by their violence (f) strugling together in the womb before they were born: Presaging not only the Contrariety that should be betwixt these two brothers; but also that should be betwixt Gods true Covenant-people and the children of this world. 2. By their unusual Birth; (t) The younger taking hold with his hand of Esau's Heel, as if he would have pulled his brother back again from the birth, that he might be before him, or at least to supplant him. Whence he was named Jacob A Supplanter. These two times he strove for the birth-right, but as yet prevailed not. Hence the (u) Prophet upbraids it to Jacobs children, that their father Jacob strove for the Grace of Primogeniture, but they by sin suffered themselves to be deprived of it. 3. By Esau's (x) selling his Birth-right to Jacob for a Mess of Red-pottage, and sealing the bargain with his Oath, never repenting of it: preferring his life and present outward necessity before his birth-right. From this Red-pottage Esau is denominated Edom. And from this Contempt and Selling his Birth-right without repenting, The Apostle brands him for (y) a Prophane Person, for in Despising his (z) Birth-right, he despised the Covenant: The Covenanted Inheritance and Heirship, which was especially Spiritual; And Christ himself, Heir of all things, First-born among many brethren, typifyed by the First-born. 4. By Jacobs politique compassing his father Isaac's blessing (wherein the Promises of Christs Kingdom and other Spiritual mercies were implyed) before Esau, according to his mothers Counsel, in reference to Gods Promise, and answer formerly given to her; And when afterwards Esau came, and would have obtained the blessing of his father, Isaac would not recal his blessing from Jacob, nor repent thereof, but contrariwise confirmed it; whereupon Paul saith; (a) Esau found no place for Repentance, (viz. Not his own Repentance, which he sought not after, but his Fathers Repentance, in retracting the Blessing) though he sought it carefully with tears. The Patriarchs blessings before their Death were much valued and sought after by their Seed; Because their blessings were Prophetical, And thereby the Fathers (as in Gods stead) Transmitted the Covenant and Promises to their way for Sinners to the Father and to Heaven, Ioh. 14. 6. And Providentially governing, ordering, and disposing all things for the good of them who shall be heirs of Salvation by the Ministry of his Angels, And particularly for Iacobs good in his present expedition. Heb. 1. 14. Gen. 32. 1, 2. 24. to 31. So that in this vision the Lord as it were opened Heaven to Iacob; representing the Mediatour of the Covenant in whom himself was well pleased, Matth. 3. 16, 17. and on whom his Covenant was founded. II. Fœderal Promises here made to him, were; 1. Old Promises Repeated. viz. (1) To give the land of Canaan, whereon he now lay, to him and to his Seed. (2) To multiply his Seed as the Dust of the Earth, which should possess this land. (3) To extend his Seed to all the four Corners of the Earth. (4) To make all the families of the Earth blessed in him and in his Seed, that is, In Christ the chief promised Seed, that should after the flesh descend of him. These promises were formerly made to Abraham and Isaac, but now repeated to Iacob, by whom the Covenant was to descend to posterity. 2. New Promises added peculiarly concerning Iacob himself. The Lord Promising him, (1) His Presence. (2) His preservation and protection in all places. (3) His Bringing him back again into Canaan. (4) His Continual care of him, till he had accomplished all his Promises unto him. These were a Fœderal Augmentation vouchsafed to Iacob. III. The Consequent Events hereupon were three, and all in testimony of true thankfulness to God, viz. 1. His religious Reverence, in regard of Gods presence there, and acknowledgement of the Dignity of that place in regard thereof. 2. His two Monuments erected in remembrance of the Mercy there vouchsafed: viz. (1) The erecting the stone that was his pillow for a Pillar, Consecrating it as a place of worship by pouring oyl thereon. (2) Denominating the place Beth-el, that is, The-House-of-God. 3. His thankful vow, (In case the Lord according to his Promise would vouchsafe to him, (1) His Presence, (2) His Preservation, (3) His Sustentation with food and rayment, (4) And A prosperous return to his fathers House;) (1) To accept, depend upon, obey and worship the LORD as his God. (2) To account that place Sacred. (3) And to give the Tenth of all his possessions to God, for maintaining of his worship. This was a very famous Fœderal Transaction betwixt God and Iacob.

Secondly, In his Return (h) from Padan-Aram, when he was in great fear of Esau his brother coming to meet him with four hundred men, (i) probably armed for war. In this are considerable, I. Antecedent occurrents and passages. viz. 1. Gods preparatory Confirmation of Iacobs Faith in his promised Protection, by two Hosts of Angels meeting him as his guardians. Whence Iacob named that place Mahanaim, that is, Two Hosts. 2. Iacobs fear of Esau's old grudge, together with his prudent and pious care to to prevent the miſchief of it; (1) By ſending Meſſengers beforehand to Eſau to make way for his ſafe coming: (2) By Dividing his Company into two bands, that the hindermoſt might at leaſt eſcape: (3) By earneſt Prayer to the Lord for his own and families deliverance from Eſau, urging the Lord therein upon his Covenant and Promiſes; (4) By ſending a liberal preſent to Eſau to appeaſe his wrath. 3. Jacobs wraſtling all night alone with an Angel, in likeneſs of a man till break of Day; viz. with the Angel of the Covenant the Son of God, with Prayers and tears, Hoſ. 12.4. whom he would not let go without his bleſſing, though the Angel put the Hollow of his thigh out of joynt, that he halted. II. The Renewed Promiſe. Wherein, 1. The Angel changes his name from Iacob to Iſrael. 2. The Angel interprets his name, viz That as a Prince he had power with God, and therefore Conſequently much more ſhould prevail againſt all his Adverſaries, and againſt Eſau in particular. 3. The Angels Bleſsing of him. III. The Conſequent Events, viz. 1. Iacob's Denomination of that place, Peniel; that is, The face of God: becauſe he ſaw the face of God and was not deſtroyed. 2. His halting upon his thigh afterwards. He had a Divine Bleſsing, but with an Humane Infirmity. 3. The Amicable and brotherly Meeting of Eſau and Iacob, embracing and kiſsing one another, and weeping together: Iacob forcing him to accept his preſent. 4. Iacob's erecting an Altar at Shalem in Canaan in a parcel of a Field bought by him of the children of Hamor. Which Altar, erected in Teſtimony of his thankfulneſs, he called El-Elohe-Iſrael: that is, The-ſtrong-God-The God-of-Iſrael. A Memorative Monument of Gods Mercy in Bleſsing him, and changing his name, and Magnifying his Power in his wonderful deliverance. That Man ſhould wraſtle with God, was wonderful: That man ſhould prevail againſt God in wraſtling, was double wonderful.

Thirdly, In his being again at Bethel as he came from Padan-Aram, (k) Fœderal Promiſes were renewed to him with ſome Augmentation. Here, I. Antecedent Paſſages were theſe; viz. 1. Gods Command to him, To go and dwell at Beth-el, And to make there an Altar to God that appeared to him, viz. To teſtifie his thankfulneſs to God who had now brought him back and preſerved him from his brother Eſau. 2. Iacobs Obedience to this Command; In order whereunto, He purged his Family from Idols (which probably they brought from Padan-Aram), and Commanded them to cleanſe themſelves, and change their garments, thus preparing them for pure worſhip. Then he went to Bethel, erected an Altar, calling the Place, El-Beth-el: that is, The-God-of-the-Houſe-of-God. 3. Gods appearing to him again at Bethel. 4. Gods bleſsing him. 5. God Confirming the former change of his name from Iacob to Iſrael. II. The Promiſes renewed, viz. 1. Of a numerous Seed; That A Nation, A Company or Aſſembly of Nations, Nations, yea Kings should come out of his Loyns. 2. Of Canaan's Inheritance, That he and his Seed should have the Land which God gave by Covenant to Abraham and Isaac. III. The Consequent Events were, 1. Gods going up from him in that place. 2. Iacobs erecting a pillar of stone, the former pillar probably being decayed. 3. His pouring a Drink offering and Oyl thereon in token of his faith in God and thankfulness to him, for all his goodness. 4. His Denominating again that place Beth-el.

Fourthly, When Jacob in the extream Famine was (l) in his journey towards Egypt with all his Seed, to be preserved by Joseph his son, then Lord of Egypt: The Lord augmented his Fœderal Promises to him. I. Antecedent passages were these; viz. 1. Gods Peculiar Providence in (m) Sending a man before, even Ioseph, to preserve Jacobs House in that extream seven years famine. Jacobs singular love to Ioseph, His brethrens envying him thereupon, Their selling him to the Ishmaelites, The Ishmaelites carrying him into Egypt, and selling him to Potiphar an Officer of Pharaoh, Potiphar's casting him into prison upon his wives false accusation, His interpretation of his fellow-prisoners Dreams, And after of King Pharaoh's Dreams touching the seven years famine, whereupon he made him Lord of Egypt under him; all these contributed to bring Jacobs family into Egypt for their preservation. 2. Jacob's sending his sons to buy corn in Egypt, twice; Joseph making himself known to them the second time, sends for his Father Jacob to come to him. 3. Iacob's taking his journey towards Egypt, and coming to Beer-sheba. 4. Gods encouraging Iacob there in his night visions to go down into Egypt. II. Gods Encouraging Promises were these; 1. That in Egypt God would make of Iacob a great Nation. 2. That God would go down with him into Egypt, viz. by his Presence and special Providence. 3. That He would certainly bring him up again; viz. In his dead body, and in his living Seed. 4. That Ioseph should close his dying eyes. III. Consequent events hereupon were many and most observable, viz. 1. The (n) coming of Iacob and all his house, even 70 Souls, into Egypt. 2. Their (o) kind entertainment into the land of Egypt by King Pharaoh, Ioseph according to his appointment placing them in the best of the Land. 3. Their (p) growth and multiplying therein exceedingly. 4. Iacobs (q) taking an Oath of his son Joseph, (his Death now approaching) not to bury him in Egypt, but in the Burying-place of his fathers in Canaan. Hereby testifying his Faith in Gods Promises touching the giving of Canaan to his Seed, a figure of the Heavenly inheritance; and hereby instructing his Seed to believe and wait for the accomplishment of those Promises. 5. Iacob's (r) Prophetical blessing of Iosephs two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh: as also his own (s) twelve sons the Heads of the twelve Tribes, declaring what their future condition should be in the Land Heaven, and water out of the Rock: excellent Types of Christ the true bread from Heaven, and the true living waters, whereby all believers are nourished for their growth in all spirituals in the wilderness of this world, till they come to Heavens promised eternal Rest. See these also explained in the Covenant-Confirmation.

This was the Manner, Way and Order of the Lords Administring or Dispensing his Covenant to Abraham and his Seed till they came to Mount Sinai, where Gods Covenant was again renewed in a another Form, and with many Augmentations. Whereby Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed was not antiquated or made void, but strongly established and Confirmed, as (n) Calvin well observes, and as after will appear in opening that Covenant-Expression.

(n) Ioan. Calvin. in Comment. ad Ierem. 31.

Thus of the First branch of this Covenant's Form, viz. The Manner of its Administration. Next of the Second branch of the Form thereof, viz. The Manifold Confirmation of this Covenant.

Secondly, The Manifold Confirmation of this Covenant to Abraham and to his Seed, is another thing wherein the Outward Form of this Covenant doth eminently Consist. For clearing hereof, Consider; 1. That God Confirmed this Covenant to Abraham and his Seed. 2. How he Confirmed it to them. 3. Why he thus Confirmed it. 4. Inferences hereupon.

1. That God not only made his Covenant, (or as the Hebrew phrase is, (o) Gave his Covenant; denoting his free-grace in thus condescending to them: Or, (p) Cut, stroke, or smote his Covenant; Alluding to the Ceremony of killing and cutting asunder Sacrifices in Covenanting-making;) but also Confirmed and made sure his Covenant to Abraham and his Seed, is clear divers ways. viz.

(o) Gen. 17. 2.

(p) Gen. 15. 18.

1. From Gods own expression, (q) And I will establish my Covenant between me, and thee, and thy Seed after thee in their generations, for an Everlasting Covenant. And again in reference to Isaac he said; (r) And I will establish my Covenant with him, &c. He recites it twice. The same word is used in all these expressions; הקמתי Hakimothi, that is, I will raise up; I will-make-stand, I will-establish, I will-confirm, &c. from קום Koom, signifying to rise up, To stand, To subsist. God hereby intimates he would not only make a Covenant with them; but he would make it strong, firm, and sure. It should be a Covenant that should not be unsetled, or Overthrown.

(q) Gen. 17. 7.

(r) Gen. 17. 19, 21.

2. From the Apostles clear Testimony. (u) And this I say, That the Covenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, (Gr. towards Christ), the Law which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the Promise of none effect. Here note, 1. That, the Covenant here intended, is the Covenant of

of God with Abraham and his Seed. This, is cleer; Partly, by the (x) Context before and after, carrying it thither, as to the Subject and Argument of his present discourse. Partly, by the Time of its commencing, here mentioned to be 430 years before the Law. Which (y) agrees precisely with the interval betwixt Gods first promise or Covenant to Abraham, and the Publication of the Law at Sinai, which was 430 years, as hath already been evidenced. 2. That, This Covenant was fore-confirmed of God towards Christ. He calls it Διαθήκην προκεκυρωμένην ὑπὸ τοῦ Θεοῦ εἰς Χριστόν. The words are observable: fore-confirmed, fore-ratified, &c. viz. before the Law. Of God; therefore most sure and unalterable. (z) For even a mans Covenant confirmed, is unalterable; and, unto Christ, or Towards Christ: for so it may more exactly be translated then, in Christ. This phrase imports, That Gods Covenant with Abraham, had primary respect and tendency to Christ, chiefly aimed, scoped and led to Christ, the Principal Seed, in whom all Abrahams Seed of Jews and Gentiles should be gathered into one, and blessed: as (a) Beza hath rightly observed. And (b) Pareus explains it more particularly: judging that this Confirming the Covenant towards Christ, implies; (1) That this Covenant should at last be ratified by the Death of Christ, as Testator, Heb. 9. 15. (2) That the blessings Covenanted to Abraham and his Seed could not be obtained but by Christs merit intervening: Gods justice not admitting the Sinner into favour and Covenant-mercy without Satisfaction for his Sin. (3) That, the Promised benefits, Adoption, Justification, Sanctification, and the inheritance of Eternal life, should not be communicated to Abraham and his Seed but by Faith in Jesus Christ, then to be exhibited afterwards, now exhibited already. So that this Covenant was not only made, but Confirmed and made Authentick: Confirmed of God, by Supream authority: confirmed of God towards Christ, as the surest foundation and Scope thereof. 3. That, This Covenant being thus fore-confirmed 430. years before the Law, cannot be voided, vacated, disanulled or made of none effect by the Law that came so long afterwards; that Righteousness should be by works and not by Faith. This Covenant then is confirmed irrevocably, irreversibly, unalterably, immovably.

II. How God confirmed his Covenant to Abraham and to his Seed, comes next to be Considered. And God Confirmed his Covenant to them many waies; especially these eight waies. viz. 1. By his Promises. 2. By Abrahams entry upon, and Survey of Canaan. 3. By the Type of Melchizedeck. 4. By Gods own Sacred Oath. 5. By his solemn Symbolical Form of striking Covenant with them. 6. By the two Ordinary standing Sacraments; Circumcision, and Passover. 7. By the four extraordinary Itinerant Sacraments: The Cloud and Sea, Manna and Water out of the Rock. 8. By the sufferings and Death of Jesus Christ, Implyed, and Typifyed most observably in this Fœderal Administration.

1. By Gods Promiſes. The Old and New Covenant are (c) eſtabliſhed upon Promiſes, as the Apoſtle intimates. The Greek νενομοθέτηται properly ſignifies, To-be-put-as-a-Law, to be made Authentical, to be Eſtabliſhed, to be confirmed; and all this was upon the Promiſes. Gods Covenant with Abraham and his Seed was Confirmed by his Promiſes, 1. As Propounded. 2. As Repeated again and again. 3. As in part Performed to Abraham and his Seed.

(c) Heb. 8.6.

1. As Propounded. Gods own word and Promiſes propounded in any Covenant, are as the props and pillars upon which that Covenant is ſtabliſhed and leans. Hence that phraſe, (d) Of a better Covenant, which was eſtabliſhed upon better Promiſes. Chriſt himſelf is the baſis and foundation of the Covenant: but the Promiſes Fœderal in Chriſt, are as the pillars ſet upon this Baſe. The Covenant is eſtabliſhed upon both. The Lord God appeared from Heaven to Abraham, and (e) by his own immediate word and Promiſes confirmed his Covenant to Abraham. Gods Promiſes notably tend to confirm his Covenant; 1. By their Truth, certainty, and infallibility. It is ſaid, (f) God that cannot lye, hath promiſed. Yea, in his Promiſes (g) it is impoſſible that God ſhould lye. For then God ſhould do againſt himſelf, againſt his own Nature and Eſſence, which is Truth in the higheſt perfection. 2. By their immutability, or unchangeableneſs. The Apoſtle intimates that Gods Promiſe to Abraham and his Seed the Heirs of the Promiſe, is one of thoſe (h) two immutable things, wherein it is impoſſible for God to lye, whereby he ſhewed the immutability of his Counſel to them in his Covenant. As (i) with God there is no variableneſs nor ſhadow of turning: ſo with Gods Promiſe there is no mutableneſs, nor ſhadow of alteration. Hath he ſaid it, and ſhall he not do it?

2. As Repeated. Gods Promiſes and Covenant again and again repeated, notably confirmed this Covenant. Repetitions, eſpecially when they are with new Amplifications, are vehement and pathetical Confirmations. As Joſeph ſaid, (k) Pharaohs dreams were doubled for the certainty of the thing; And as Paul divers times (l) doubles and trebles his expreſſions, to confirm thereby the unqueſtionable certainty of his aſſertions: So when God doubles, and trebles, and often ingeminates his Promiſes and Covenant to Abraham and his Seed, it is to let them aſſuredly know, that they are determinate and ſure: he is fully and fixedly reſolved upon them, that they ſhall ſtand inviolably and irrevocably, and be infallibly performed. Now God Repeated his Promiſes, for Confirmation, 1. To Abraham himſelf. 2. To Abraham's more immediate Seed.

In (o) Sichem, in the plain of Moreh, which is thought to be about the midst of the Land of Canaan, promised to Abraham and his Seed. This was when Abraham was come as a Pilgrim into the Land, to take a Survey of it, and to sojourn in it. We first take Survey of Heaven by Faith; before we come eternally to possess and inherit it. 3. When (p) he, after the great Famine, had returned out of Egypt, and had pitched his Tent between Bethel and Ai: and after his Nephew Lot was departed from him towards Sodom. 4. After (q) Abraham's return from the slaughter of the Kings, for the Rescuing of Lot: at which return Melchizedeck, King of Salem, and Priest of the most high God, (An eminent Type of Christ) met him with bread and wine, and blessed him, to whom Abraham gave the Tenth of the Spoils. 5. When (r) Abraham was 99. years old, Then the Promises were renewed with many Additionals; Isaac was first expresly Promised by name; and Circumcision was first instituted. 6. In the (s) Plains of Mamre, when three Angels appeared to Abraham a little before the Overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrha, &c. Then God expresly Promised Isaac the second time. 7. When (t) God had tempted Abraham to offer up his only son Isaac for a Burnt-offering, and Abraham in a sort (in his intention, resolution, and in all preparatory acts to the very last act of execution) had offered him up, Then God added his Oath to his Promises, enlarging also his Promises. These seven times God reveals his Promises to Abraham for their unquestionable establishment. As if he had said; Abraham, I do not promise and Covenant these blessings to thee and thy Seed slightly and overtly, but with all fixed seriousness and resolvedness; I spake them once, twice, thrice, yea seven times over, because I would not have thee doubt or stagger at them, or once question their performance.

There God gave him a famous vision of a Ladder reaching from Heaven to Earth, and the Angels of God ascending and descending upon it, and God standing above it. Promising, the Land of Canaan to him and his Seed, The multiplication of his Seed, The Benediction of all the Families of the Earth in him and in his Seed, His Constant presence, protection and Providence over Iacob. (d) Sed quo certior constaret fides, repetere voluit erga Isaac & Iacob; facit enim talis propagatio ut altius hominum cordibus insideat Dei veritas; Deinde ut notior sit ac magis celebris Dei gratia, repetitis vicibus sæpius testata. Ioan. Calvin. in Comment. ad Psal. 105. 9.

To what end now did God thus frequently iterate his Covenant and Promises to Abraham, and to his more immediate seed, Isaac and Jacob, (whereupon it is often called in Scripture, (c) Gods Covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob;) but that he might hereby the more strongly confirm his Covenant to Abraham and his Seed, that they might not doubt of the performance? as (d) Calvin hath well observed.

3. As in part performed to Abraham and his Seed. Gods Covenant and Promises to them, stood of many parts and branches: when some of those were Performed, the Promises and Covenant by such experimental Performances were singularly confirmed and assured to them in reference to all promised Mercies that were to follow. The actual performances of those, were as effectual Earnests, Handsels, First-fruits and Assurances of these. God Covenanted and Promised to Abraham, That A Son out of his own bowels should be his heir; That his Seed should be very Numerous; That after their sojourning in a land not theirs, and afflictions in Egypt, they should come out with great Substance, Egypt being judged; That the land of Canaan should be their everlasting inheritance, to which they should come again in the fourth Generation; That Christ the Saviour of Sinners should descend of Abraham according to the flesh, in whom all the families of the Earth should be blessed, &c. Now when Isaac is born to Abraham of Sarah, notwithstanding his dead body and her dead womb: Abraham was more assured of all the ensuing blessings, and the Covenant experimentally confirmed to him; yea at Gods promise and performance of Isaac, Abraham laughed and rejoyced, and named his Son, Isaac, that is, laughter; Herein he rejoyced at the Performance of Gods Covenant, but especially herein (e) he saw Christs Day, and rejoyced, and was glad. When Abraham's Seed were (f) at Gods prefixed time brought out of Egypt, this Confirmed the Covenant to them, that they ſhould be brought into Canaan, &c. For God is as able and faithful to perform one branch of his Covenant, as another; to perform all as any. Therefore Gods actual Performances of part, were effectual aſſurances of the whole.

Thus God confirmed his Covenant By his Promiſes.

2. By Abraham's (g) Entry upon, and Survey of the promiſed land of Canaan, at Gods appointment, when firſt he revealed this Covenant unto him. When God firſt Confirmed his Covenant to Abraham in reference to Chriſt, he was in Ur of the Chaldees: There God called him; commanding him to come out of the land of Chaldea into the land of Canaan; Promiſing to Bleſs him, and all the families of the Earth in him, with all bleſsings in Chriſt. Hereupon Abraham accordingly, 1. Makes Entry upon the land of Canaan, and as it were takes livery and Seizin thereof, God then promiſing to give it to his Seed. 2. Takes ſurvey of it, walking through it in the length of it, and in the breadth of it, God again promiſing to give it to him and to his Seed for ever. Hereupon Abraham's Epithet given to him in the next chapter, is, (h) אברם העברי Abram Hahbhibri, that is, Abram the Hebrew. He is ſo denominated, not from Heber the Patriarch, one of his ancient-fore-fathers, as (i) Some think; But rather from עבר Hbhabar, ſignifying To paſs over, Or To paſs thorough, (as I have (k) elſewhere noted) becauſe he paſſed over the River Euphrates from Meſopotamia into Canaan, and ſo paſſed or walked thorough Canaan in the length and breadth of it. So that Abram the Hebrew, is as much as, Abram the Paſſenger, or Paſſer-thorough. And hence Abraham's poſterity were afterwards called Hebrews.

(k) Key of the Bible, on Heb. Sect. 1.

Now Abraham's Entry upon, and Survey of this Promiſed Canaan, (though in his own perſon as yet he (l) had no inheritance in it, no not ſo much as to ſet his foot on,) was a notable Pledge and Sign to Abraham, aſſuring him that at laſt he ſhould be partaker of the Promiſes literally, myſtically, or both ways in his own perſon, and in his Seed, (m) beholding the Promiſes afar off: whereupon Abraham and his more immediate Seed Iſaac and Iacob, were perſwaded of them, and embraced them, and confeſſed that they were ſtrangers and pilgrims on Earth. Hereby declaring plainly that they ſeek a Country, viz. an Heavenly Country, whereof this promiſed earthly Canaan was but a ſhadow. Thus God gave Abraham a particular view of Canaan with his bodily eyes, thereby to confirm his view of Gods Covenant and Promiſes with his ſpiritual eyes of Faith and Hope.

(m) Heb. 11. 8. to 17.

3. By Melchizedek's typical Bleſſing of Abraham returning from the ſlaughter of the Kings, Gods Covenant with Abraham was further Confirmed. The Hiſtory of Melchizedek is in theſe words, (n) And Melchizedek King of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the Prieſt of the moſt High God. And he bleſſed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most High God, possessor of Heaven and Earth. And blessed be the most High God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thine hand. And he gave him Tithes of all. This is very mysterious; as is clear by the use that (o) David and (p) Paul make of it. Here therefore Consider, 1. What Spiritual Mysterie was herein intended. 2. How this conduced to the further establishment and confirmation of Gods Covenant with Abraham.

(n) Gen. 14. 18, 19, 20.

(o) Psa. 110.4. (p) Heb. 5.10. & 6.20. & 7. throughout.

(1) The Spiritual Mysterie intended in this Story of Melchizedek, is the Typical representation of the Person, and office of Jesus Christ to Abraham. I. The Person of Christ was notably figured out in Melchizedek, in that his Birth, Death and Pedigree are passed over in silence by Moses, as if he had neither Genealogy, nor Beginning, nor End, and as being wholly unknown to Abraham in these respects. This was purposely done by the Holy Ghost, that Melchizedek might be the more exact and full Type of Christ. (They therefore that curiously enquire whether this Melchizedek was not Sem the Son of Noah, enquire not wisely after Revealing of that which God purposely concealed.) Hence Paul describes him, as; (q) Without father, without mother, without Pedigree, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a Priest continually. Thus Christ was in his person, 1. Without father according to his Manhood, being conceived and born of a Virgin, remaining a Virgin: 2. Without Mother according to his Godhead, being eternally begotten of the Father alone: 3. Without Pedigree or Genealogy according to his Divinity, for who shall declare his Generation? 4. Without beginning of days and end of life, according to his Divinity, and therefore having an eternal and unchangeable Office without Succession. II. The Office of Christ was also eminently typified by Melchizedek, in two branches of it, viz. 1. His Kingship, or Kingly Office of Christ was figured two ways. viz. Partly, In the Notation of his Name, viz. (r) Melchizedek, King of Salem: First being by interpretation, King of Righteousness; and after that also, King of Salem, which is, King of Peace, (the Apostle himself expounding it.) Thus, Christ is King of Righteousness, (s) the Scepter of his Kingdom is a Scepter of Righteousness. Christ is King of righteousness, the true Melchizedek, in divers regards. For, (1) He hath a righteous title to it, without usurpation: His Father hath (t) annointed him, and enthroned him in his Kingdom. (2) He executes his Kingly Office (u) in righteousness and equity, without all shadow of injury, injustice, oppression or Tyranny, and this by his most righteous Laws, the rod of his mouth and the breath of his lips. (3) He Communicates his righteousness royally and plentifully to all his true Subjects by faith. He becomes (x) the LORD their righteousness: and they become (y) the righteousness of God in him. Though they have a Kingdom of sin, to condemn them: yet he hath a greater Kingdom of righteousness, to justifie them. (4) He is first a King of righteousness: then a King of Peace. He first
